WHY A MODERN KING JAMES VERSION

From the beginning of time, first in the law implanted in man's mind, and later in the written law, God has warned us, "Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceeds out of the mouth of God" (Deut. 8:3; Matt. 4:4). True blessedness has always followed those who have delighted in God's words. David (in Psalm 1,) Job, and Jeremiah "borne along by the Holy Spirit" expressed this thought in other ways. For example, in Job we read: "I have treasured up the words of His mouth more than my necessary food" (Job 23:12). By this we can see that even in primitive times men were able to understand the word of God, illustrating that God has chosen to communicate to mankind clearly and plainly in words in common use.

In our day we recognize that God formed the Scriptures through words commonly used among the Hebrew people, and later words commonly used by the Greek-speaking world. Whatever mysteries, whatever things hard to be understood there may be in the Bible, the words expressing such things are not so lofty as to impede the reader's understanding of them. Some of the most renowned men of God, even most of the apostles, were unlearned men. But "being borne along by the Holy Spirit, holy men of God spoke" the words of the Scriptures (2 Peter 1:21). Through them God the Spirit has spoken to us in the plainest and most common words, in order that His people may in all ages certainly understand what it is that He commands us to think and feel and do.

Since few today read Hebrew, Aramaic, or Greek, however, there is need for a translation into the common language of the reader. It was this that Tyndale wrote in his Preface: "which thing moved me to translate the New Testament; because I had perceived by experience that it was impossible to establish the lay people in any truth, except the Scripture were plainly laid before their eyes in their mother tongue, that they might see the process, order and meaning of the text." Tyndale labored so that "every plowboy might understand" the Bible. A great spiritual revolution followed Tyndale's translation, growing each decade until J. R. Green, the great English historian, felt compelled to write, "No greater moral change ever passed over a nation than passed over England in the latter part of the reign of Queen Elizabeth. England became the people of a Book, and that Book was the Bible. It was read by every class of people. And the effect was amazing. The whole moral tone of the nation was changed." (Short History of the English People). In the midst of this spiritual revolution the Authorized Version, known to many of us as The King James Version of the Bible, appeared to further aid in the enlightenment of the English-speaking people of that age.

And today it cannot be denied that the Authorized Version/King James Version is the very matrix from which has come a civilization blessed with more abundance, more individual freedom to worship, more intellectual development, more time to read and meditate on God's word, more of all the blessings which tend to draw men toward God. Never since the advent of the Septuagint version, the early Greek version, has any other version so clearly held the prime position among Bible translations.

Since virtually all agree as to the historical and cultural value of the Authorized Version/King James Version, why do we need another English version now? The complaint against it was once expressed in a memorandum of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, saying in part: "Whilst fully recognizing the excellence of the AV, the General Assembly feels that the AV is becoming unable to fulfill its function because of its 17th century language. Many words current in 1611 have become archaic; many have changed their meaning. The general style and even syntax have changed, with the result that young people with only an elementary education find a great deal of the AV incomprehensible. Chaplains of the forces and teachers, as well as ministers, find that valuable time has to be spent in explaining the meaning of the Bible's words. There is a further danger that archaic language may give the impression that the message itself is out of date and irrelevant. This is especially deplorable since the New Testament was written in the 'common' language of the time."

Officially at least nearly all of the major denominations in the English-speaking world have been unsuccessful in attempting to replace the Authorized Version/King James Version without any true reverence or reference to that grand old version. Not only have subsequent versions updated the English, but they have all chosen to make changes in the underlying Greek and Hebrew of the text that they are supposed to be translating. And the result of these changes in modern versions has been not just a new version, but a new Bible. For as each new version rolls from the presses the more liberty is being taken by the 'translators' to rewrite the Bible, and even to restyle it. In their prefaces they express great admiration for the old King James Version, but they despise it so much that you cannot recognize any of it in the new version they propose to be the new Bible of the people.

Yet in spite of its archaic language the grand old King James Version refuses to die. It has worked itself into the hearts, minds and lives of so many people that it will not go away. Why? Why should the majority of English-speaking people cling to a version which even its most avid proponents admit is full of archaic language, quaint words, words that have changed meaning, and which has what is counted today as 'bad' grammar? Why do people continue to use the King James Version, and to pray and meditate with its words, even in the face of their church leaders who have decreed that they should use a new version? It seems certain that is a matter of trust. Being used to a version that attempted to translate the God-breathed words of the original languages word-for-word (or in modern parlance, by 'formal equivalence',) they will not for long accept any version that adds and subtracts to the point that the God-breathed words are either lost altogether, or their plain meaning is altered by the man-breathed words supplied by the self-styled 'translators'. And the most of the 'translation committees' of the new versions have the prideful opinion that God's people should trust their additions and subtractions in spite of the fact that they do not identify where they have added or subtracted words. This may be seen in the words of Prof. Dewey Beegle: "In the case of the modern versions which have neither italics nor footnotes there are, obviously, no means of discerning difficult passages where the translation has elements of uncertainty, and so the reader must rely on the judgment and interpretation of the translator" (God's Word Into English). By this it may be seen that such translators do not believe in the "priesthood of believers," but in the priesthood of translators. The new versions appear to be saying to Bible readers, Trust us. We will tell you what God says, and how He means it, regardless of the original languages which He has providentially preserved. Is it any surprise, then, that new versions shot through with man-breathed words contradict themselves in myriads of places; yea, even make the Bible they claim to be God's word contradict itself? Is it any wonder that devout worshipers of God are wary of putting their trust in versions that are a mixture of the holy words of God and the words supplied by mere men? And what of the words they disdain to translate? It is difficult indeed to trust men who count the original God-breathed words as of no more importance or meaning to us in our day than the words they add to the Scriptures.

Observe the history of the new versions and it is easy to see why God's people are reluctant to accept any of them as the successor of the King James Version as "the Bible of the people." All these new versions appear in a blaze of publicity; they are hyped and then sold by the millions. Setting aside the fact of the herd instinct, the question might be asked, Why do millions buy every new version that comes out? Could it not be that there is a hope that at last they may find a real Bible, all the words of God, in English that they can readily understand and assimilate into their lives, one true to the original words that God-breathed out? If any of the new versions fit this pattern, then why do they fade away so quickly? What happened to the RV, the ASV, the RSV, the NEB? They are replaced by a New ASB, a New RSV, a Revised English Bible, a New International Version, etc. Why are replacements needed for versions that sold by the millions? Besides the obvious matter of huge monetary profits to be made from selling millions more of a new version of the last version, the reason must be nothing less than this: The readers of those new versions did not count them as worthy of their trust, did not feel that if they depended solely on them they would best learn of God, and best serve Him. If they had been the true successors of the "Bible of the people," (the position held for the past 380 years by the Authorized Version/King James Version.) why do they fade away? Why must the new version be replaced by a newer version at the same time untold millions still trust and use the grand old Book, the King James Version?

A typical attitude of modern translators is that expressed in the preface of the New English Bible: "One difficulty a translator has is to forget the Bible he has known from childhood. All of the translators have had to make the effort to forget the AV, or since that may well be impossible, to avoid reproducing its language, even when this is perfectly intelligible. . . . In rendering poetical passages, for example, the familiar rhythms, however legitimate, are not congenial to modern English and give the impression of remoteness." Note that they admit that they changed the Authorized Version even in places where it was “perfectly intelligible.” Also they broke up the “familiar rhythms” because they were not “congenial to modern English.” Then is it not legitimate to ask whether they have not made changes of other sorts to suit their fancy, even perhaps for the sake of change, in the words of God? The answer is yes, as you will see below.

WHAT HAVE WE LOST IN THESE NEW VERSIONS?

First, let us ask, Why should there be any loss at all? Why should we not expect all the changes in a new version of the Bible to be improvements to the reader's ability to read and readily understand God's words? If, as most all the new translators affirm, this confessedly magnificent work, the King James Version, is a unique blend of genius, taste and learning; is so admirable in so many ways, then why not merely remove the archaic language, the relatively few mistranslations, the grammatical blemishes, and substitute the proper English translations in those places by words based strictly on the original Hebrew and Greek languages? Then through such an updated version we could continue to admire and use it for another 380 years. Why deliberately try to “forget” the familiar words and rhythms of the grand old King James Version? Is this not simply an excuse to tamper with the true message of the Bible by substituting words favored by the ‘translator’? If not, why do they change the original words, even changing the consonants of the Hebrew in order to suit their personal interpretations? Millions, on the one hand, are trying to memorize the King James Version rendering of the Scriptures, yet a handful of translators are trying to “forget” it. Worse, they seem to want to obliterate it eventually from the minds of all who have memorized it and have obeyed its commands. This seems unnecessary, even callous.

The explanation in part may be found in the kind of changes you will find in the new versions. Note the following losses to lovers of God's Word:

1. There is the loss of literally thousands of words, dozens of phrases, and a great many entire verses (such as the last twelve verses of Mark's Gospel). But this is not all. By a clever change of wording, and even the order of the words, there is a loss of the message God gave us in the original languages.

2. Thousands of verses engraved in the hearts of God's people are now unnecessarily changed as a matter of policy, perhaps with the purpose of portraying all who adhere to the King James Version as antiquated curiosities who are irrelevant to the times we live in.

3. There is a studied effort to change the terminology of the Bible. And this appears to be related to an effort to make the Bible palatable to unbelievers, or to disobedient believers. For in them we see that Propitiation becomes merely “a remedy for the defilement of sins.” Justification by faith is marred by presenting faith as a meritorious work that procures righteousness: “He who through faith is righteous shall live” is put in place of the simple and wonderful statement of the Scriptures, “the just shall live by faith.” The God-breathed inspiration of the Scriptures is diluted, until only this appears: “every inspired Scripture has its use” (2 Tim. 3:16). Redemption becomes a mere “release.” In one new version faith is only an “awakening;” believing degenerates into a simple “yielding of allegiance;” Righteousness is but “goodness;” and the demon-possession so prevalent in Jesus' day becomes nothing more than "epilepsy" (Matt. 4:24). Fornication becomes merely "sexual immorality." And one new version all but completely eliminates the precious blood of the Savior from its pages. It is no wonder such versions are rejected by faithful servants of God once they find out what these misguided men are doing to the Scriptures.

4. There is an attempt to erase from the Scriptures certain miracles in the Bible. The miraculous darkness on Resurrection Day is translated as a mere "eclipse," although it is impossible for an eclipse of the sun to occur when there is a full moon. The birth of our Savior from a virgin is a victim of the new theology, by translating the word in the Old Testament as "young woman," rather than virgin. This is followed up in the New Testament by removing the key word "firstborn" from Matthew 1:25; and by making Joseph the actual father of Jesus by dropping words, or adding words in other verses.

5. The Godhood of the Lord Jesus Christ is blurred and slurred by mistranslations in many places. In one new version our Savior God is called an "only-begotten God" (John 1:18) instead of the "only-begotten Son." This makes Him to be "begotten" rather than the eternal, always existing, essential God that He truly is. By removing proof texts such as Roman 9:5; and 1 Timothy 3:15, Jesus is not depicted in the new versions as "God manifest in the flesh," nor as "God over all, blessed forever." Our Savior's omnipresence is denied by leaving out "who is in Heaven" from John 3:13; and His essential goodness is denied by a complete recasting of His answer to the rich young ruler. The unique value of His work is denied in many ways and in many places. For instance, in Heb. 1:3 we see purification for sins, but not for our sins. In Rom. 8:26 there is intercession, but it is not for us. In 1 Peter 4:1, there is suffering, but not for us. In 2 Peter 3:9, He is long-suffering, but not toward us. In 1 John 3:25 He appears to take away sins, but not our sins. All of these mistranslations may be traced back to the first centuries after the death of Christ, and they may be proven to be the work of heretics who desired to dilute the Scriptures. This is particularly true of the Gnostic heretics who flourished in the first three centuries, especially in Egypt. Yet here we have men coming along in the twentieth century and reinserting these heresies in what they boldly call a "Holy Bible."

6. Many other 'cardinal' doctrines of the Scriptures fall victim to this free-wheeling treatment of the words of God. The sanctity of marriage was denied by some early heretics, and now you will find it deleted or questioned in the new versions. The sinlessness of Christ is contradicted by the handling of Matt. 5:22, where He is made liable to the Judgment. And of course He could not be sinless unless He had been born of a virgin and fathered by the Holy Spirit of God. The Ascension of Christ back to His place in Heaven is left out in three of the four places where it is affirmed in the Scriptures, or footnotes effectively put it in doubt. The very inerrancy of the Scriptures is constantly denied by the nature of the changes, or put under a cloud of doubts by the footnotes. Many other such like things can be shown to be the effect of the changes made in the new versions.

7. Bald misrepresentation of the meanings of original words can be seen throughout the new versions. For example, in 1 Cor. 7 the word plainly meaning “touch” is mistranslated “marry.” This is nothing more than an attempt to put the translator’s interpretation into the text. Figures of speech in the original languages are ignored, deliberately changed, (plurals are even changed to singulars, and vice versa) in order to allow the ‘translator’ to rewrite the Bible. The examples are too numerous to mention in this preface.

WHAT IS CHANGED IN THE MODERN KING JAMES VERSION?

1. First, of course, archaic language has been replaced by the English of today. Few today know the meaning of such words as traw, wot, bruit, champaign, neesing, tabering, fray, etc. Those familiar with Elizabethan English must constantly be translating in their heads as they read such words. If speaking to others they feel obliged to translate for them. This slows or disturbs understanding.

2. Words that have changed in meaning have been replaced. Let no longer means “to hinder” today. Conversation nowadays refers to talk, not behavior. There are a number of such words in the beloved Authorized Version.

3. In the 17th century, sentence formation and word formation were quite different. Although the pronoun you had just then come into common use, there was still much use of Thou, thee, thy etc. Such helper words as didst, dost, doth, etc. were normal. The adding of -est, -eth, -st to words was common. Since these are a hindrance to quick understanding, in this version they are replaced by modern usage.

4. In many places in the old version there are translations that fail to squarely meet the meanings of the original words, as recognized by nearly everyone. And for this reason in the margins that have appeared in many KJV Bibles for the past 250 years can be found suggested changes, or alternate translations. In this Modern King James Version we have at many places brought these better-attested translations into the text. Also where the KJV sentence construction obscures the overall meaning of a passage, clarifying language from the original language is substituted; strictly on a word-for-word basis. All these changes can be verified by referring to a Hebrew or Greek lexicon-dictionary, or to The Interlinear Bible.

5. There are a few places where scientific research has improved our understanding of certain original Hebrew words. In this version this appears mainly in the names of the animals and birds.

6. No improvement has been made without referring to the original languages. No change has been made on the basis of a mere handful of Egyptian-influenced manuscripts, but all are based on the original words of the Masoretic Text, or the Received Text.

7. The names of places are sometimes translated to add to the understanding of the reader (e.g. The Valley of the Giants; The Graves of Lust; The Well of the Living One, My Beholder;” etc.)

8. The persons of the Godhead, and pronouns referring to them, are capitalized for quick recognition of the Person in view.

9. The titles of the Psalms are most often translated to inform the reader.

10. At times where paraphrasing was used by the King James translators as a means of conveying truth to their readers, (most of whom were barely able to read,) is at times replaced by a word or two which accurately reflects the original. For example, in the old KJV we read: “Surely your turning of things upside down shall be esteemed as the potter’s clay.” But in the original Hebrew it reads, “O your perversity! Shall the Former be counted as the clay?” (Isa. 29:16 in the MKJV). In the KJV there are 16 words in Isa. 50:4: “that I should know how to speak a word in season to him that is weary” But in this version the original yields only these 8 words, “to know to help the weary with a word.”

11. In italicizing words not in the original for sense, we have sometimes been more strict than the KJV translators.

12. Verses most often memorized have not been changed, except by removing the Elizabethan English endings (-est, -eth, -st, etc.).

NOW YOU CAN ENJOY THE GRAND OLD AUTHORIZED VERSION/KING JAMES VERSION IN YOUR OWN LANGUAGE

At last you can have in your own language the version God has blessed for the past 380 years. You will be blessed more than ever as you read the beloved old King James Version in pure, clear English, the English of today. In our day the Elizabethan English of the old AV/KJV is nearly a foreign language. Even if by long study you have learned to master the meaning of the quaint, archaic words, you are no doubt hindered by having to translate in your head the 17th century words in the old King James Version. And increasingly the younger readers are resisting having to learn the out-of-date words and idioms of the old KJV enough to understand them.

“The words of the LORD are pure words,” (Psalm 12:6) and if they are truly God’s words, you will find them more powerful than ever in today’s English. You no longer have to read the pure words of God in the strangeness of yesterday’s English in order to have a Bible you trust. You have tested and proven the King James Version, and having it in your own brand of English will just make it more precious to your soul. You will find it easier and more blessed now to think God’s thoughts after Him. Only a great God could preserve His word through the centuries, and compose it so that it speaks to every heart in every language. For 380 years He has blessed the reading of the grand old version. But you must know that in the present generation there has been a falling away from the King James Version due to the language difficulties. We are commanded to live “by every word that proceeds out of the mouth of God” — now He has provided you with the King James Version in your native language in this Modern King James Version, without the adulteration of God’s word by man-breathed words.

Share the good news with your family, your friends, and your neighbors. Let them know how much more understandable the King James Version is in this Modern King James Version. You will find that the Gospel is clearer, plainer, and more powerful when it reaches immediately into your heart and mind.

May God bless you as you read it and share it in this modern-day form.

THE MODERN KING JAMES VERSION OF THE HOLY BIBLE

THE BOOK OF GENESIS

CHAPTER 1

<sup>1</sup>In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth. <sup>2</sup>And the earth was without form and empty. And darkness was on the face of the deep. And the Spirit of God moved on the face of the waters. <sup>3</sup>And God said, Let there be light. And there was light. <sup>4</sup>And God saw the light that it was good. And God divided between the light and the darkness. <sup>5</sup>And God called the light, Day. And He called the darkness, Night. And the evening and the morning were the first day.

<sup>6</sup>And God said, Let there be an expanse in the middle of the waters, and let it divide the waters from the waters. <sup>7</sup>And God made the expanse, and divided the waters which were under the expanse from the waters which were above the expanse; and it was so. <sup>8</sup>And God called the expanse, Heavens. And the evening and the morning were the second day.

<sup>9</sup>And God said, Let the waters under the heavens be gathered together to one place, and let the dry land appear; and it was so. <sup>10</sup>And God called the dry land, Earth. And He called the gathering together of the waters, Seas. And God saw that it was good. <sup>11</sup>And God said, Let the earth bring forth tender sprouts (the herb yielding seed and the fruit tree yielding fruit after its kind, whose seed is in itself) upon the earth; and it was so. <sup>12</sup>And the earth brought forth tender sprouts — the herb yielding seed after its kind — and the tree yielding fruit after its kind, whose seed was in itself. And God saw that it was good. <sup>13</sup>And the evening and the morning were the third day.

<sup>14</sup>And God said, Let there be lights in the expanse of the heavens to divide between the day and the night. And let them be for signs, and for seasons, and for days and years, <sup>15</sup>And let them be for lights in the expanse of the heavens to give light upon the earth. And it was so. <sup>16</sup>And God made two great lights: the greater light to rule the day and the smaller light to rule the night — and the stars also. <sup>17</sup>And God set them in the expanse of the heavens to give light upon the earth, <sup>18</sup>and to rule over the day and over the night; and to divide between the light and the darkness. And God saw that it was good. <sup>19</sup>And the evening and the morning were the fourth day.

<sup>20</sup>And God said, Let the waters swarm with swarmer having a living soul; and let birds fly over the earth on the face of the expanse of the heavens. <sup>21</sup>And God created great sea-animals, and every living soul that creeps with which the waters swarmed after their kind; and every winged fowl after its kind. And God saw that it was good. <sup>22</sup>And God blessed them, saying, Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the waters of the seas and let the fowl multiply in the earth. <sup>23</sup>And the evening and the morning were the fifth day.

<sup>24</sup>And God said, Let the earth bring forth the living creature after its kind, cattle, and creepers, and each animal of the earth after its kind; and it was so.

<sup>25</sup>And God made the beasts of the earth after its kind, and cattle after their kind, and all creepers upon the earth after their kind. And God saw that it was good.

<sup>26</sup>And God said, Let Us make man in Our image, after our likeness. And let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the heavens, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over all the creepers creeping on the earth.

<sup>27</sup>And God created man in His image; in the image of God He created him. He created them male and female. <sup>28</sup>And God blessed them. And God said to them, Be fruitful, and multiply and fill the earth, and subdue it. And have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the fowl of the heavens, and all animals that move upon the earth. <sup>29</sup>And God said, Behold! I have given you every herb bearing seed which is upon the face of all the earth, and every tree which has in it the fruit of a tree yielding seed) — to you it shall be for food. <sup>30</sup>And to every living thing of the earth, and to every fowl of the heavens, and to every creeper on the earth which has in it a living soul shall be every greenness of herbage for food; and it was so. <sup>31</sup>And God saw everything that He had made, and behold, it was very good. And the evening and the morning were the sixth day.

CHAPTER 2

<sup>1</sup>And the heavens and the earth were finished, and all the host of them. <sup>2</sup>And on the seventh day God ended His work which He had made. And He rested on the seventh day from all His work which He had made. <sup>3</sup>And God blessed the seventh day and sanctified it — because in it He had rested from all His work which God created to make.

<sup>4</sup>These are the generations of the heavens and of the earth when they were created in the day that the LORD God made the earth and the heavens, <sup>5</sup>and every shrub of the field was not yet on the earth, and every plant of the field had not yet sprung up. For the LORD God had not caused it to rain upon the earth, and there was no man to till the ground. <sup>6</sup>But there went up from the earth a mist and watered the whole face of the ground. <sup>7</sup>And the LORD God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul.

<sup>8</sup>And the LORD God planted a garden eastward in Eden. And there He put the man whom He had formed. <sup>9</sup>And out of the ground the LORD God caused every tree that is pleasant to the sight, and good for food, to grow. The tree of life also was in the middle of the garden, and the tree of knowledge of good and evil. <sup>10</sup>And a river went out of Eden to water the garden. And from there it was divided and became four heads. <sup>11</sup>The name of the first is Pishon; that is it which surrounds all the land of Havilah, where there is gold. <sup>12</sup>And the gold of that land is good. There is bdellium and the onyx stone. <sup>13</sup>And the name of the second river is Gihon; it is the same that surrounds the whole land of Cush. <sup>14</sup>And the name of the third river is Tigris; that is it which goes toward the east of Assyria. And the fourth river is Euphrates. <sup>15</sup>And the LORD God took the man and put him into the garden of Eden to work it and keep it. <sup>16</sup>And the LORD God commanded the man, saying, You may freely eat of every tree in the garden, <sup>17</sup>but you shall not eat of the tree of knowledge of good and evil. For in the day that you eat of it you shall surely die.

<sup>18</sup>And the LORD God said, It is not good that the man should be alone. I will make a helper suitable for him. <sup>19</sup>And out of the ground the LORD God formed every animal of the field and every fowl of the air, and brought them to Adam to see what he would call them. And whatever Adam called each living creature, that was its name. <sup>20</sup>And Adam gave names to all the cattle, and to the birds of the air, and to every animal of the field. But there was not found a suitable helper for Adam. <sup>21</sup>And the LORD God caused a deep sleep to fall on Adam, and he slept. And He took one of his ribs, and closed up the flesh underneath. <sup>22</sup>And the LORD God made the rib (which He had taken from the man) into a woman. And He brought her to the man. <sup>23</sup>And Adam said, This is now bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh. She shall be called Woman because she was taken out of man. <sup>24</sup>Therefore shall a man leave his father and his mother, and shall cleave to his wife and they shall be one flesh. <sup>25</sup>And they were both naked, the man and his wife; and they were not ashamed.

CHAPTER 3

<sup>1</sup>Now the serpent was more crafty than any living thing of the field which the LORD God had made. And he said to the woman, Is it so that God has said, You shall not eat of every tree of the garden? <sup>2</sup>And the woman said to the serpent, We may eat of the fruit of the trees of the garden. <sup>3</sup>But of the fruit of the tree which is in the middle of the garden, God has said, You shall not eat of it, neither shall you touch it, lest you die. <sup>4</sup>And the serpent said to the woman, You shall not surely die, <sup>5</sup>for God knows that in the day you eat of it, then your eyes shall be opened, and you shall be as gods, knowing good and evil. <sup>6</sup>And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food — and that it was pleasing to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make wise — she took of the fruit of it, and ate. She also gave to her husband with her, and he ate. <sup>7</sup>And the eyes of both of them were opened. And they knew that they were naked. And they sewed fig leaves together and made girdles for themselves.

<sup>8</sup>And they heard the voice of the LORD God walking in the garden in the cool of the day. And Adam and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the LORD God in the middle of the trees of the garden. <sup>9</sup>And the LORD God called to Adam and said to him, Where are you? <sup>10</sup>And he said, I heard Your voice in the garden, and I was afraid, because I was naked, and I hid myself. <sup>11</sup>And He said, Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten of the tree which I commanded you that you should not eat? <sup>12</sup>And the man said, The woman whom You gave to be with me, she gave me of the tree, and I ate. <sup>13</sup>And the LORD God said to the woman, What is this that you have done? And the woman said, The serpent deceived me, and I ate.

<sup>14</sup>And the LORD God said to the serpent, Because you have done this you are cursed more than all cattle, and more than every animal of the field. You shall go upon your belly, and you shall eat dust all the days of your life. <sup>15</sup>And I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your seed and her Seed — He will bruise your head, and you shall bruise His heel. <sup>16</sup>To the woman He said, I will greatly increase your sorrow and your conception. In pain you shall bear sons, and your desire shall be toward your husband, and he shall rule over you. <sup>17</sup>And to Adam He said, Because you have listened to the voice of your wife and have eaten of the tree — of which I commanded you, saying, You shall not eat of it! — cursed is the ground for your sake. In pain shall you eat of it all the days of your life. <sup>18</sup>It shall also bring forth thorns and thistles to you, and you shall eat the herb of the field. <sup>19</sup>In the sweat of your face you shall eat bread until you return to the ground, for out of it you were taken. For dust you are, and to dust you shall return. <sup>20</sup>And Adam called his wife's name Eve, because she was the mother of all living. <sup>21</sup>And for Adam and his wife the LORD God made coats of skins, and clothed them.

<sup>22</sup>And the LORD God said, Behold, the man has become as one of Us, to know good and evil. And now, lest he put forth his hand and take also of the tree of life, and eat, and live forever, <sup>23</sup>therefore the LORD God sent him out from the garden of Eden to till the ground from which he had been taken.<sup>24</sup> And He drove out the man. And He placed cherubs at the east of the garden of Eden, and a flaming sword which turned every way, to guard the way to the tree of life.

CHAPTER 4

<sup>1</sup>And Adam knew Eve his wife. And she conceived and bore Cain, and said, I have gotten a man from the LORD.<sup>2</sup> And she bore again, his brother Abel. And Abel was a keeper of sheep, but Cain was a tiller of the ground.<sup>3</sup> And in the end of days, it happened, Cain brought to the LORD an offering of the fruit of the ground.<sup>4</sup> And Abel also brought of the firstborn of his flock and of the fat of it. And the LORD had respect to Abel and to his offering,<sup>5</sup> but He did not have respect to Cain and to his offering. And Cain was very angry, and his face fell.<sup>6</sup> And the LORD said to Cain, Why are you angry? And why did your face fall?<sup>7</sup> If you do well, shall you not be accepted? And if you do not do well, sin crouches at the door; and its desire is for you, and you shall rule over it.

<sup>8</sup>And Cain talked with his brother Abel. And when they were in the field, Cain rose up against his brother Abel and killed him.<sup>9</sup> And the LORD said unto Cain, Where is your brother Abel? And he said, I do not know. Am I my brother's keeper?<sup>10</sup> And He said, What have you done? The voice of your brother's blood cries to Me from the ground.<sup>11</sup> And now you are cursed more than the ground which opened its mouth to receive your brother's blood from your hand.<sup>12</sup> When you till the ground, it will not again give its strength to you. And you shall be a vagabond and a fugitive in the earth.<sup>13</sup> And Cain said to the LORD, My punishment is greater than I can bear.<sup>14</sup> Behold! You have driven me out from the face of the earth today, and I shall be hidden from Your face. And I shall be a fugitive and a vagabond in the earth, and it shall be that anyone who finds me shall kill me.<sup>15</sup> And the LORD said to him, Therefore whoever kills Cain shall suffer revenge seven times. And the LORD set a mark upon Cain so that anyone who found him should not kill him.<sup>16</sup> And Cain went out from the presence of the LORD and lived in the land of Nod, on the east of Eden.<sup>17</sup> And Cain knew his wife, and she conceived and bore Enoch. And he built a city, and called the name of the city after the name of his son, Enoch.

<sup>18</sup>And Irad was born to Enoch. And Irad fathered Mehujael. And Mehujael fathered Methusael. And Methusael fathered Lamech.<sup>19</sup> And Lamech took two wives to himself. The name of the first one was Adah, and the name of the other was Zillah.<sup>20</sup> And Adah bore Jabal — he was the father of those who dwell in tents, and with cattle.<sup>21</sup> And his brother's name was Jubal — he was the father of all those playing the harp and the organ.<sup>22</sup> And Zillah also bore Tubalcain, the hammerer of every engraving tool of bronze and iron. And the sister of Tubalcain was Naamah.<sup>23</sup> And Lamech said to his wives, Adah and Zillah, Hear my voice, you wives of Lamech, listen to my speech. For I have killed a man because of my wound, and a young man because of my hurt.<sup>24</sup> For Cain is avenged seven times, and Lamech seventy-seven times.

<sup>25</sup>And Adam knew his wife again. And she bore a son, and called his name Seth. For she said, God has appointed me another seed instead of Abel, whom Cain killed.<sup>26</sup> And there was also a son born to Seth, and he called his name Enos. Then men began to call upon the name of the LORD.

CHAPTER 5

<sup>1</sup>This is the book of the generations of Adam. In the day that God created man, he made him in the likeness of God.<sup>2</sup> He created them male and female, and blessed them. And He called their name Adam in the day when they were created.<sup>3</sup> And Adam lived one hundred and thirty years and fathered a son in his own likeness, after his own image. And he called his name Seth. <sup>4</sup>And the days of Adam after he had fathered Seth were eight hundred years. And he fathered sons and daughters. <sup>5</sup>And all the days that Adam lived were nine hundred and thirty years. And he died.

<sup>6</sup>And Seth lived one hundred and five years and fathered Enos. <sup>7</sup>And after he fathered Enos, Seth lived eight hundred and seven years. And he fathered sons and daughters. <sup>8</sup>And all the days of Seth were nine hundred and twelve years. And he died. <sup>9</sup>And Enos lived ninety years and fathered Cainan. <sup>10</sup>And after he fathered Cainan, Enos lived eight hundred and fifteen years. And he fathered sons and daughters. <sup>11</sup>And all the days of Enos were nine hundred and five years. And he died. <sup>12</sup>And Cainan lived seventy years and fathered Mahalaleel. <sup>13</sup>And after he fathered Mahalaleel, Cainan lived eight hundred and forty years. And he fathered sons and daughters. <sup>14</sup>And all the days of Cainan were nine hundred and ten years, and he died. <sup>15</sup>And Mahalaleel lived sixty-five years and fathered Jared. <sup>16</sup>And after he fathered Jared, Mahalaleel lived eight hundred and thirty years. And he fathered sons and daughters. <sup>17</sup>And all the days of Mahalaleel were eight hundred and ninety-five years. And he died.

<sup>18</sup>And Jared lived one hundred and sixty-two years and fathered Enoch. <sup>19</sup>And after he fathered Enoch, Jared lived eight hundred years. And he fathered sons and daughters. <sup>20</sup>And all the days of Jared were nine hundred and sixty-two years. And he died. <sup>21</sup>And Enoch lived sixty-five years and fathered Methuselah. <sup>22</sup>And Enoch walked with God three hundred years after he fathered Methuselah. And he fathered sons and daughters. <sup>23</sup>And all the days of Enoch were three hundred and sixty-five years. <sup>24</sup>And Enoch walked with God, and then he was not — for God took him.

<sup>25</sup>And Methuselah lived one hundred and eighty-seven years and fathered Lamech. <sup>26</sup>And after he fathered Lamech, Methuselah lived seven hundred and eighty-two years. And he fathered sons and daughters. <sup>27</sup>And all the days of Methuselah were nine hundred and sixty-nine years. And he died. <sup>28</sup>And Lamech lived one hundred and eighty-two years and fathered a son. <sup>29</sup>And he called his name Noah, saying, This one shall comfort us concerning our work and the toil of our hands, because of the ground which the LORD has cursed. <sup>30</sup>And after he fathered Noah, Lamech lived five hundred and ninety-five years. And he fathered sons and daughters. <sup>31</sup>And all the days of Lamech were seven hundred and seventy-seven years. And he died. <sup>32</sup>And Noah was five hundred years old. And Noah fathered Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

CHAPTER 6

<sup>1</sup>And when men began to multiply on the face of the earth, and when daughters were born to them, <sup>2</sup>it came to pass that the sons of God saw the daughters of men, that they were good. And they took wives for themselves from all whom they chose. <sup>3</sup>And the LORD said, My spirit shall not always strive with man, in his erring; he is flesh. Yet his days shall be a hundred and twenty years.

<sup>4</sup>There were giants in the earth in those days. And also after that, when the sons of God came in to the daughters of men, and they bore to them, the same became mighty men who were of old, men of renown. <sup>5</sup>And the LORD saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually. <sup>6</sup>And the LORD repented that He had made man on the earth, and He was angry to His heart. <sup>7</sup>And the LORD said, I will destroy man whom I have created, from the face of the earth, both man, and beast, and the creeping thing, and the fowls of the air. For I repent that I have made them. <sup>8</sup>But Noah found grace in the eyes of the LORD.

<sup>9</sup>These are the generations of Noah. Noah was a just man and perfect in his generations. Noah walked with God. <sup>10</sup>And Noah fathered three sons, Shem, Ham, and Japheth. <sup>11</sup>The earth also was corrupt before God, and the earth was filled with violence. <sup>12</sup>And God looked upon the earth. And, behold, it was corrupted! For all flesh had corrupted its way upon the earth. <sup>13</sup>And God said to Noah, The end of all flesh has come before Me, for the earth is filled with violence through them. And, behold, I will destroy them with the earth. <sup>14</sup>Make an ark of cypress wood. You shall make rooms in the ark. And you shall pitch it inside and outside with pitch. <sup>15</sup>And this is the way you shall make it. The length of the ark shall be three hundred cubits, the breadth of it shall be fifty cubits and its height thirty cubits. <sup>16</sup>You shall make a window in the ark, and you shall finish it above to a cubit. And you shall set the door of the ark in the side of it. You shall make it with lower, second and third stories. <sup>17</sup>And behold! I, even I, am bringing a flood of waters upon the earth in order to destroy all flesh (in which is the breath of life) from under the heavens. Everything which is in the earth shall die. <sup>18</sup>But I will establish My covenant with you. And you shall come into the ark, you and your sons and your wife and your sons' wives with you. <sup>19</sup>And you shall bring into the ark two of every kind, of every living thing of all flesh, to keep them alive with you. They shall be male and female. <sup>20</sup>Two of every kind shall come to you to keep them alive; of fowls after their kind, and of cattle after their kind, of every creeping thing of the earth after its kind. <sup>21</sup>And take for yourself all food that is eaten, and you shall gather for yourself. And it shall be for food, for you and for them. <sup>22</sup>Noah did so, according to all that God commanded him, so he did.

CHAPTER 7

<sup>1</sup>And the LORD said to Noah, You and all your house come into the ark, for I have seen you righteous before Me in this generation. <sup>2</sup>You shall take with you every clean animal by sevens, the male and female. And take two of the animals that are not clean, the male and female. <sup>3</sup>Also take of the fowls of the air by sevens, the male and the female, to keep seed alive upon the face of all the earth. <sup>4</sup>For in seven more days I will cause it to rain upon the earth forty days and forty nights. And I will destroy from off the face of the earth every living thing that I have made. <sup>5</sup>And Noah did according to all that the LORD commanded him. <sup>6</sup>And Noah was six hundred years old when the flood of waters was upon the earth. <sup>7</sup>And Noah went in. And his sons and his wife and his sons' wives went in with him into the ark, because of the waters of the flood. <sup>8</sup>Of the clean animals, and of the animals that were not clean, and of the fowls, and of everything that creeps on the earth, <sup>9</sup>two by two they went in to Noah into the ark, male and female, as God had commanded Noah.

<sup>10</sup>And after seven days it came to pass that the waters of the flood were upon the earth. <sup>11</sup>In the six hundredth year of Noah's life, in the second month, in the seventeenth day of the month, in this day all the fountains of the great deep were broken up, and the windows of the heavens were opened up. <sup>12</sup>And the rain was upon the earth forty days and forty nights. <sup>13</sup>In this same day, Noah and Shem and Ham and Japheth, the sons of Noah, and Noah's wife, and the three wives of his sons with them, entered into the ark. <sup>14</sup>They went in, and every animal after its kind, and all the cattle after their kind, and every creeping thing that creeps upon the earth after its kind, and every fowl after its kind, every bird of every sort. <sup>15</sup>And they went in to Noah into the ark, two and two of all flesh, in which is the breath of life. <sup>16</sup>And they that entered, went in male and female of all flesh, as God had commanded him. And the LORD shut him in.

<sup>17</sup>And the flood was upon the earth forty days. And the waters increased and bore up the ark, and it was lifted up above the earth. <sup>18</sup>And the waters prevailed and were increased greatly upon the earth. And the ark floated upon the face of the waters. <sup>19</sup>And the waters prevailed exceedingly upon the earth. And all the high hills that were under the whole heaven were covered. <sup>20</sup>The waters prevailed fifteen cubits upward, and the mountains were covered. <sup>21</sup>And all flesh that moved upon the face of the earth died, of birds, of cattle, of animal, and of every creeping thing that creeps upon the earth; and every man. <sup>22</sup>All in whose nostrils was the breath of life, of all that was in the dry land, died. <sup>23</sup>And every living thing which was on the face of the earth was destroyed, from man to cattle, and to the creeping things, and the fowls of the heavens. And they were destroyed from the earth, and only Noah was left, and those that were with him in the ark. <sup>24</sup>And the waters prevailed upon the earth a hundred and fifty days.

CHAPTER 8

<sup>1</sup>And God remembered Noah, and every living thing, and all the cattle which were with him in the ark. And God made a wind to pass over the earth, and the waters subsided. <sup>2</sup>Also the fountains of the deep and the windows of heaven were stopped, and rain from heaven was restrained. <sup>3</sup>And the waters returned from off the earth continually. And after the end of the hundred and fifty days the waters had gone down.

<sup>4</sup>And in the seventh month, on the seventeenth day of the month, the ark rested upon the mountains of Ararat. <sup>5</sup>And the waters decreased continually until the tenth month. And the tops of the mountains were seen in the tenth month on the first day of the month. <sup>6</sup>And it happened, at the end of forty days Noah opened the window of the ark which he had made. <sup>7</sup>And he sent forth a raven, and it went out, going out and returning until the waters were dried up from off the earth. <sup>8</sup>He also sent forth a dove from him, to see if the waters had gone down from off the face of the earth. <sup>9</sup>But the dove found no rest for the sole of her foot. And she returned to him into the ark, for the waters were on the face of the whole earth. Then he put out his hand and took her, and pulled her in to him into the ark.

<sup>10</sup>And he waited yet another seven days. And again he sent forth the dove out of the ark. <sup>11</sup>And the dove came in to him in the evening. And, lo, in her mouth was an olive leaf plucked off. So Noah knew that the waters had gone down from off the earth. <sup>12</sup>And he waited yet another seven days, and sent forth the dove. And she did not return again to him any more.

<sup>13</sup>And it happened in the six hundred and first year, at the beginning on the first day of the month, that the waters were dried up from off the earth. And Noah removed the covering of the ark and looked. And, behold, the face of the earth was dry! <sup>14</sup>And in the second month, on the twenty-seventh day of the month, the earth was dry. <sup>15</sup>And God spoke to Noah, saying, <sup>16</sup>Go out of the ark, you and your wife and your sons and your sons' wives with you. <sup>17</sup>Bring out with you every living thing that is with you, of all flesh, of fowl, of cattle, and of every creeping thing that creeps upon the earth, so that they may breed abundantly in the earth, and be fruitful and multiply upon the earth. <sup>18</sup>And Noah went out, and his sons and his wife and his sons' wives with him. <sup>19</sup>Every animal, every fowl, and every creeping thing which creeps upon the earth after their families, went forth out of the ark.

<sup>20</sup>And Noah built an altar to the LORD. And he took of every clean animal, and of every clean bird, and offered burnt offerings on the altar. <sup>21</sup>And the LORD smelled a sweet odor. And the LORD said in His heart, I will never again curse the ground for man's sake, even though the imagination of man's heart is evil from his youth. And I will not again smite every living thing as I have done. <sup>22</sup>While the earth remains, seedtime and harvest, cold and heat, summer and winter, and day and night shall not cease.

CHAPTER 9

<sup>1</sup>And God blessed Noah and his sons. And He said to them, Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the earth. <sup>2</sup>And the fear of you and the dread of you shall be upon the animals of the earth, and upon every bird of the air, upon all that moves on the earth, and upon all the fish of the sea. Into your hand they are delivered. <sup>3</sup>Every moving thing that lives shall be food for you. I have given you all things, even as the green herb. <sup>4</sup>But you shall not eat of flesh with the life in it, or the blood of it. <sup>5</sup>And surely the blood of your lives will I require. At the hand of every animal will I require it, and at the hand of man. At the hand of every man's brother will I require the life of man. <sup>6</sup>Whoever sheds man's blood, his blood shall be shed by man; for He made man in the image of God. <sup>7</sup>And you be fruitful and multiply. Bring forth abundantly in the earth, and increase in it.

<sup>8</sup>And God spoke to Noah, and to his sons with him, saying, <sup>9</sup>Behold! I, even I, establish My covenant with you, and with your seed after you; <sup>10</sup>and with every living creature that is with you, of the birds, of the cattle, and of every animal of the earth with you; from all that go out from the ark, to every animal of the earth. <sup>11</sup>And I will establish My covenant with you. Neither shall all flesh be cut off any more by the waters of a flood. Neither shall there any more be a flood to destroy the earth. <sup>12</sup>And God said, This is the token of the covenant which I make between Me and you and every living creature with you, for everlasting generations: <sup>13</sup>I set my rainbow in the cloud. And it shall be a token of a covenant between Me and the earth. <sup>14</sup>And it shall be, when I bring a cloud over the earth, that the rainbow shall be seen in the cloud. <sup>15</sup>And I will remember My covenant which is between Me and you and every living creature of all flesh; and the waters shall no more become a flood to destroy all flesh. <sup>16</sup>And the rainbow shall be in the cloud. And I will look upon it that I may remember the everlasting covenant between God and every living creature of all flesh that is upon the earth.

<sup>17</sup>And God said to Noah, This is the token of the covenant which I have established between Me and all flesh that is upon the earth.

<sup>18</sup>And the sons of Noah that went out of the ark were Shem, Ham, and Japheth. And Ham is the father of Canaan. <sup>19</sup>These are the three sons of Noah, and the whole earth was overspread from them.

<sup>20</sup>And Noah began to be a husbandman. And he planted a vineyard. <sup>21</sup>And he drank of the wine and was drunk. And he was uncovered inside his tent. <sup>22</sup>And Ham, the father of Canaan, saw the nakedness of his father, and told his two brothers outside. <sup>23</sup>And Shem and Japheth took a garment and laid it upon both their shoulders. And they went backwards and covered the nakedness of their father. And their faces were backwards, and they did not see their father's nakedness. <sup>24</sup>And Noah awoke from his wine, and came to know what his younger son had done to him. <sup>25</sup>And he said, Cursed be Canaan. He shall be a servant of servants to his brothers. <sup>26</sup>And he said, Blessed be the LORD God of Shem, and Canaan shall be his servant. <sup>27</sup>God shall enlarge Japheth, and he shall dwell in the tents of Shem. And Canaan shall be their servant.

<sup>28</sup>And Noah lived three hundred and fifty years after the flood. <sup>29</sup>And all the days of Noah were nine hundred and fifty years. And he died.

CHAPTER 10

<sup>1</sup>Now these are the generations of the sons of Noah, Shem, Ham, and Japheth. And sons were born to them after the flood. <sup>2</sup>The sons of Japheth: Gomer and Magog and Madai and Javan and Tubal and Meshech and Tiras. <sup>3</sup>And the sons of Gomer: Ashkenaz and Riphath and Togarmah. <sup>4</sup>And the sons of Javan: Elishah and Tarshish and Kittim and Dodanim. <sup>5</sup>By these were the coasts of the nations divided in their lands, every one after his tongue, after their families, in their nations.

<sup>6</sup>And the sons of Ham: Cush and Mizraim and Phut and Canaan. <sup>7</sup>And the sons of Cush: Seba and Havilah and Sabtah and Raamah and Sabtecha. And the sons of Raamah: Sheba and Dedan. <sup>8</sup>And Cush fathered Nimrod. He began to be a mighty one in the earth. <sup>9</sup>He was a mighty hunter before the LORD. Therefore it is said, Even as Nimrod the mighty hunter before the LORD. <sup>10</sup>And the beginning of his kingdom was Babel, and Erech, and Accad, and Calneh, in the land of Shinar. <sup>11</sup>Out of that land he went forth to Assyria. And he built Nineveh, and the city Rehoboth, and Calah, <sup>12</sup>and Resen between Nineveh and Calah, which is a great city. <sup>13</sup>And Mizraim fathered Ludim and Aniamim and Lehabim and Naphtuhim, <sup>14</sup>and Pathrusim and Casluhim (from whom came the Philistines) and Caphtorim. <sup>15</sup>And Canaan fathered Sidon, his firstborn, and Heth, <sup>16</sup>and the Jebusite and the Amorite, and the Girgashite, <sup>17</sup>and the Hivite, and the Arkite, and the Sinite, <sup>18</sup>and the Arvadite, and the Zemarite, and the Hamathite. And afterward the families of the Canaanites were spread abroad.

<sup>19</sup>And the border of the Canaanites was from Sidon (as you come to Gerar) to Gaza, as you go in towards Sodom and Gomorrah and Admah and Zeboim, even to Lasha. <sup>20</sup>These were the sons of Ham, after their families, after their tongues, in their countries, and in their nations.

<sup>21</sup>And to Shem were born, even him, the father of all the children of Eber, the brother of Japheth the elder. <sup>22</sup>The sons of Shem: Elam and Asshur and Arpachshad and Lud and Aram. <sup>23</sup>And the sons of Aram: Uz and Hul and Gether and Mash, <sup>24</sup>And Arpachshad fathered Salah; and Salah fathered Eber. <sup>25</sup>And two sons were born to Eber. The name of the one was Peleg, for in his days the earth was divided. And his brother's name was Joktan. <sup>26</sup>And Joktan fathered Almodad and Sheleph and Hazarmaveth and Jerah, <sup>27</sup>and Hadoram and Uzal and Diklah, <sup>28</sup>and Obal and Abimael and Sheba, <sup>29</sup>and Ophir and Havilah, and Jobab. All these were the sons of Joktan. <sup>30</sup>And their dwelling was from Mesha, as you go to Sephar, a mountain of the east. <sup>31</sup>These are the sons of Shem, after their families, after their tongues, in their lands, and after their nations.

<sup>32</sup>These are the families of the sons of Noah, after their generations, in their nations. And from these were the nations divided in the earth after the flood.

CHAPTER 11

<sup>1</sup>And the whole earth was of one language and of one speech. <sup>2</sup>And it happened, as they traveled from the east, they found a plain in the land of Shinar. And they lived there. <sup>3</sup>And they said to one another, Come, let us make brick and burn them thoroughly. And they had brick for stone, and they had asphalt for mortar. <sup>4</sup>And they said, Come, let us build us a city and a tower, and its top in the heavens. And let us make a name for ourselves, lest we be scattered upon the face of the whole earth. <sup>5</sup>And the LORD came down to see the city and the tower which the sons of Adam had built. <sup>6</sup>And the LORD said, Behold! The people is one and they all have one language. And this they begin to do. And now nothing which they have imagined to do will be restrained from them. <sup>7</sup>Come, let Us go down and there confuse their language, so that they cannot understand one another's speech. <sup>8</sup>So the LORD scattered them abroad from that place upon the face of all the earth. And they quit building the city. <sup>9</sup>Therefore the name of it is called Babel; because the LORD confused the language of all the earth there. And from there the LORD scattered them abroad on the face of all the earth.

<sup>10</sup>These are the generations of Shem. Shem was a hundred years old and fathered Arpachshad two years after the flood. <sup>11</sup>And after he fathered Arpachshad, Shem lived five hundred years. And he fathered sons and daughters. <sup>12</sup>And Arpachshad lived thirty-five years and fathered Salah. <sup>13</sup>And after he fathered Salah, Arpachshad lived four hundred and three years. And he fathered sons and daughters. <sup>14</sup>And Salah lived thirty years and fathered Eber. <sup>15</sup>And after he fathered Eber, Salah lived four hundred and three years. And he fathered sons and daughters. <sup>16</sup>And Eber lived thirty-four years and fathered Peleg. <sup>17</sup>And after he fathered Peleg, Eber lived four hundred and thirty years. And he fathered sons and daughters.

<sup>18</sup>And Peleg lived thirty years and fathered Reu. <sup>19</sup>After he fathered Reu, Peleg lived two hundred and nine years. And he fathered sons and daughters. <sup>20</sup>And Reu lived thirty-two years and fathered Serug. <sup>21</sup>And after he fathered Serug, Reu lived two hundred and seven years. And he fathered sons and daughters. <sup>22</sup>And Serug lived thirty years and fathered Nahor. <sup>23</sup>And after he fathered Nahor, Serug lived two hundred years. And he fathered sons and daughters. <sup>24</sup>And Nahor lived twenty-nine years and fathered Terah. <sup>25</sup>And after he fathered Terah, Nahor lived a hundred and nineteen years. And he fathered sons and daughters. <sup>26</sup>And Terah lived seventy years and fathered Abram, Nahor and Haran.

<sup>30</sup>But Sarai was barren. She had no child. <sup>31</sup>And Terah took Abram his son, and Lot, the son of Haran, his son's son, and Sarai his daughter-in-law, his son Abram's wife. And he went forth with them from Ur of the Chaldees, to go into the land of Canaan. And they came to Haran and lived there. <sup>32</sup>And the days of Terah were two hundred and five years. And Terah died in Haran.

CHAPTER 12

<sup>1</sup>And the LORD said to Abram, Go out of your country, and from your kindred, and from your father's house into a land that I will show you. <sup>2</sup>And I will make you a great nation. And I will bless you and make your name great. And you shall be a blessing. <sup>3</sup>And I will bless those that bless you and curse the one who curses you. And in you shall all families of the earth be blessed.

<sup>4</sup>And Abram departed, even as the LORD had spoken to him. And Lot went with him. And Abram was seventy-five years old when he departed from Haran. <sup>5</sup>And Abram took Sarai his wife, and Lot his brother's son, and all their substance that they had gathered, and the souls that they had gained in Haran. And they went forth to go into the land of Canaan. And they came into the land of Canaan. <sup>6</sup>And Abram passed through the land to the place of Shechem, unto the plain of Moreh. And the Canaanite was then in the land. <sup>7</sup>And the LORD appeared to Abram and said, I will give this land to your seed. And he built an altar there to the LORD who appeared to him. <sup>8</sup>And he moved from there to a mountain on the east of Bethel. And he pitched his tent with Bethel toward the sea and Hai on the east. And he built an altar there to the LORD, and called upon the name of the LORD. <sup>9</sup>And Abram journeyed, going on still toward the south.

<sup>10</sup>And there was a famine in the land. And Abram went down into Egypt to stay there, for the famine was grievous in the land. <sup>11</sup>And it happened, when he had come near to enter into Egypt, he said to Sarai his wife, Behold now, I know that you are a beautiful woman to look upon. <sup>12</sup>And it will be when the Egyptians see you, they shall say, This is his wife. And they will kill me, but they will save you alive. <sup>13</sup>I pray you, say that you are my sister, so that it may be well with me for your sake. And my soul shall live because of you. <sup>14</sup>And it happened when Abram had come into Egypt, the Egyptians saw that the woman was very beautiful. <sup>15</sup>The princes of Pharaoh also saw her and commended her before Pharaoh. And the woman was taken into Pharaoh's house. <sup>16</sup>And he treated Abram well for her sake. And he had sheep, and oxen, and he-asses, and men-servants, and maid-servants, and she-asses, and camels. <sup>17</sup>And the LORD plagued Pharaoh and his house with great plagues because of Sarai, Abram's wife. <sup>18</sup>And Pharaoh called Abram and said, What is this you have done to me? Why did you not tell me that she was your wife? <sup>19</sup>Why did you say, She is my sister? And so I was about to take her to me as wife. Now therefore behold your wife. Take her and go your way. <sup>20</sup>And Pharaoh commanded men concerning him. And they sent him away, and his wife, and all that he had.

CHAPTER 13

<sup>1</sup>And Abram went up out of Egypt, he, and his wife, and all that he had, (and Lot was with him) into the south. <sup>2</sup>And Abram was very rich in cattle, in silver and in gold. <sup>3</sup>And he went on his journeys from the south, even to Bethel, to the place where his tent had been from the beginning, between Bethel and Hai, <sup>4</sup>to the place of the altar which he had made there at the first. And Abram called on the name of the LORD there. <sup>5</sup>And Lot, who went with Abram, also had flocks and herds and tents. <sup>6</sup>And the land was not able to bear them, that they might live together. For their substance was great, so that they could not live together. <sup>7</sup>And there was strife between the herdsmen of Abram's cattle and the herdsmen of Lot's cattle. And the Canaanite and the Perizzite lived then in the land.

<sup>8</sup>And Abram said to Lot, Let there be no strife, I pray you, between me and you, and between my herdsmen and your herdsmen; for we are brothers. <sup>9</sup>Is not the whole land before you? I pray you, separate yourself from me. If you take the left hand, then I will go to the right. Or if you go to the right hand, then I will go to the left. <sup>10</sup>And Lot lifted up his eyes and saw all the plain of Jordan, that it was all well watered (before the LORD destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah,) even like the garden of the LORD, like the land of Egypt as you come to Zoar. <sup>11</sup>And Lot chose all the plain of Jordan for himself. And Lot journeyed east; and they separated themselves from one another. <sup>12</sup>Abram lived in the land of Canaan, and Lot lived in the cities of the plain and pitched his tent toward Sodom. <sup>13</sup>But the men of Sodom were wicked and sinners before the LORD, exceedingly so.

<sup>14</sup>And after Lot was separated from him, the LORD said to Abram, Lift up your eyes now and look from the place where you are northward and southward, and eastward and westward. <sup>15</sup>For all the land which you see I will give to you, and to your seed forever. <sup>16</sup>And I will make your seed as the dust of the earth, so that if a man can count the dust of the earth, then shall your seed also be counted. <sup>17</sup>Rise up and walk through the land, in the length of it and in the breadth of it, for I will give it to you. <sup>18</sup>And Abram moved his tent and came to live in the plains of Mamre, which is in Hebron. And he built an altar to the LORD there.

<sup>1</sup>And it happened in the days of Amraphel king of Shinar, Arioch king of Ellasar, Chedorlaomer king of Elam, and Tidal king of nations, <sup>2</sup>they made war with Bera king of Sodom, and with Birsha king of Gomorrah, Shinab king of Admah, and Shemeber king of Zeboim, and the king of Bela, which is Zoar. <sup>3</sup>All these were joined together in the valley of Siddim, which is the salt sea. <sup>4</sup>They served Chedorlaomer twelve years, and in the thirteenth year they rebelled. <sup>5</sup>And in the fourteenth year Chedorlaomer and the kings that were with him came and struck the giants in Ashteroth Karnaim, and the Zuzims in Ham, and the Emims in Shaveh Kiriathaim, <sup>6</sup>and the Horites in their Mount Seir, as far as El-paran, which is by the wilderness. <sup>7</sup>And they returned, and came to Enmishpat, which is Kadesh, and struck all the country of the Amalekites, and also the Amorites who lived in Hazezon-tamar. <sup>8</sup>And the king of Sodom went out, and the king of Gomorrah, and the king of Admah, and the king of Zeboim, and the king of Bela (which is Zoar). And they joined battle with them in the valley of Siddim; <sup>9</sup>with Chedorlaomer the king of Elam, and with Tidal the king of nations, and Amraphel the king of Shinar, and Arioch the king of Ellasar — four kings with five. <sup>10</sup>And the valley of Siddim had many asphalt pits. And the kings of Sodom and Gomorrah fled, and fell there; and they that remained fled to the mountain. <sup>11</sup>And they took all the goods of Sodom and Gomorrah, and all their food, and went their way. <sup>12</sup>And they took Lot, Abram's brother's son, who lived in Sodom, and all his goods, and went away.

<sup>13</sup>And there came one who had escaped. And he told Abram the Hebrew, for he lived in the plains of Mamre the Amorite, brother of Eshcol and brother of Aner. And these had a covenant with Abram. <sup>14</sup>And when Abram heard that his brother was taken captive, he led forth his trained servants, born in his own house (three hundred and eighteen) and pursued them to Dan. <sup>15</sup>And he divided himself against them by night, he and his servants. And he struck them, and pursued them to Hobah, which is on the left of Damascus. <sup>16</sup>And he brought back all the goods, and also brought back his brother Lot and his goods, and the women also, and the people.

<sup>17</sup>And the king of Sodom went out to meet him after his return from the slaughter of Chedorlaomer and of the kings with him, at the valley of Shaveh, which is the king's valley. <sup>18</sup>And Melchizedek the king of Salem brought forth bread and wine. And he was the priest of the most high God. <sup>19</sup>And he blessed him, and said, Blessed be Abram of the most high God, possessor of Heaven and earth. <sup>20</sup>And blessed be the most high God, who has delivered your enemies into your hand. And he gave him tithes of all.

<sup>21</sup>And the king of Sodom said to Abram, Give me the people and take the goods for yourself. <sup>22</sup>And Abram said to the king of Sodom, I have lifted up my hand to the LORD, the most high God, the possessor of Heaven and earth, <sup>23</sup>that I will not take anything that is yours, not from a thread even to a shoestring, lest you say, I have made Abram rich. <sup>24</sup>Nothing for me, only that which the young men have eaten, and the portion of the men who went with me, Aner, Eshcol, and Mamre; let them take their portion.

CHAPTER 15

<sup>1</sup>After these things the word of the LORD came to Abram in a vision, saying, Fear not, Abram, I am your shield and your exceeding great reward. <sup>2</sup>And Abram said, Lord God, what will You give me, since I am childless, and the steward of my house is this Eliezer of Damascus? <sup>3</sup>And Abram said, Behold, You have given no seed to me. And behold, one born in my house is my heir. <sup>4</sup>And behold, the word of the LORD came to him saying, This one shall not be your heir. But he that shall come forth out of your own bowels shall be your heir. <sup>5</sup>And He brought him outside and said, Look now toward the heavens and count the stars, if you are able to count them. And He said to him, So shall your seed be. <sup>6</sup>And he believed in the LORD. And He counted it to him for righteousness. <sup>7</sup>And He said to him, I am the LORD that brought you out of Ur of the Chaldees, to give you this land to inherit it. <sup>8</sup>And he said, Lord God, by what shall I know that I shall inherit it? <sup>9</sup>And He said to him, Take Me a heifer of three years old, and a she-goat of three years old, and a ram of three years old, and a turtledove, and a young pigeon. <sup>10</sup>And he took all these to himself, and divided them in the middle, and laid each piece against one another; but he did not divide the birds. <sup>11</sup>And when the birds of prey came down upon the carcasses, Abram drove them away.

<sup>12</sup>And it happened as the sun was setting, and a deep sleep fell upon Abram. And, behold, a horror of great darkness fell upon him! <sup>13</sup>And He said to Abram, You must surely know that your seed shall be a stranger in a land that is not theirs, and shall serve them. And they shall afflict them four hundred years. And also I will judge that nation whom they shall serve. <sup>14</sup>And afterward they shall come out with great substance. <sup>15</sup>And you shall go to your fathers in peace. You shall be buried in a good old age. <sup>16</sup>But in the fourth generation they shall come here again – for the iniquity of the Amorites is not yet full. <sup>17</sup>And it happened, the sun went down, and it was dark and behold, a smoking furnace, and a burning lamp passed between those pieces. <sup>18</sup>In the same day the LORD made a covenant with Abram, saying, I have given this land to your seed, from the river of Egypt to the great river, the river Euphrates, <sup>19</sup>the Kenites, and the Kenizzites, and the Kadmonites, <sup>20</sup>and the Hittites, and the Perizzites, and the giants, <sup>21</sup>and the Amorites, and the Canaanites, and the Girgashites, and the Jebusites.

CHAPTER 16

<sup>1</sup>Now Sarai, Abram's wife, did not bear. And she had a slavegirl, an Egyptian, and her name was Hagar. <sup>2</sup>And Sarai said to Abram, Behold now, the LORD has kept me from bearing. I pray you, go in to my slavegirl. It may be that I may get children by her. And Abram listened to the voice of Sarai. <sup>3</sup>And Sarai, Abram's wife, took Hagar her slavegirl, the Egyptian, and gave her to her husband Abram to be his wife (after Abram had lived ten years in the land of Canaan). <sup>4</sup>And he went in to Hagar, and she conceived. And when she saw that she had conceived, her mistress was despised in her eyes. <sup>5</sup>And Sarai said to Abram, My wrong be upon you. I have given my slavegirl into your bosom, and when she saw that she had conceived, I was despised in her eyes. The LORD judge between me and you. <sup>6</sup>But Abram said to Sarai, Behold, your slavegirl is in your hand. Do to her as it pleases you. And Sarai dealt harshly with her, and she fled from her face. <sup>7</sup>And the Angel of the LORD found her by a fountain of water in the wilderness, by the fountain in the way to Shur. <sup>8</sup>And He said, Hagar, Sarai's slavegirl, where did you come from? and where will you go? And she said, I flee from the face of my mistress Sarai. <sup>9</sup>And the Angel of the LORD said to her, Return to your mistress and submit yourself under her hands. <sup>10</sup>And the Angel of the LORD said to her, I will multiply your seed exceedingly, so that it shall not be numbered for multitude. <sup>11</sup>And the Angel of the LORD said to her, Behold, you are with child, and shall bear a son. And you shall call his name Ishmael, because the LORD has heard your affliction. <sup>12</sup>And he will be a wild man. His hand will be against every man, and every man's hand against him. And he shall live in the presence of all his brothers. <sup>13</sup>And she called the name of the LORD who had spoken to her, You God of vision! For she said, Even here have I looked after Him that sees me? <sup>14</sup>Therefore the well was called The Well of the Living One Seeing Me. Behold, it is between Kadesh and Bered. <sup>15</sup>And Hagar bore Abram a son. And Abram called his son's name, which Hagar bore, Ishmael. <sup>16</sup>And Abram was eighty-six years old when Hagar bore Ishmael to Abram.

CHAPTER 17

<sup>1</sup>And when Abram was ninety-nine years old, the LORD appeared to Abram and said to him, I am the Almighty God! Walk before Me and be perfect. <sup>2</sup>And I will make My covenant between Me and you, and will multiply you exceedingly. <sup>3</sup>And Abram fell on his face. And God talked with him, saying, As for Me, behold! My covenant is with you, and you shall be a father of many nations. <sup>4</sup>Neither shall your name any more be called Abram, but your name shall be Abraham. For I have made you a father of many nations. <sup>5</sup>And I will make you exceedingly fruitful, greatly so, and I will make nations of you, and kings shall come out of you. <sup>7</sup>And I will establish My covenant between Me and you and your seed after you in their generations for an everlasting covenant, to be a God to you and to your seed after you. <sup>8</sup>And I will give the land to you in which you are a stranger, and to your seed after you, all the land of Canaan, for an everlasting possession. And I will be their God.

<sup>9</sup>And God said to Abraham, And you shall keep My covenant, you and your seed after you in their generations. <sup>10</sup>This is My covenant, which you shall keep, between Me and you and your seed after you. Every man-child among you shall be circumcised. <sup>11</sup>And you shall circumcise the flesh of your foreskin. And it shall be a token of the covenant between Me and you. <sup>12</sup>And he that is eight days old shall be circumcised among you, every man-child in your generations; he that is born in the house, or bought with money of any stranger who is not of your seed. <sup>13</sup>He that is born in your house, and he that is bought with your money, must be circumcised. And my covenant shall be in your flesh for an everlasting covenant. <sup>14</sup>And the uncircumcised man-child whose flesh of his foreskin is not circumcised, that soul shall be cut off from his people; he has broken My covenant.

<sup>15</sup>And God said to Abraham, As for Sarai your wife, you shall not call her name Sarai, but her name shall be Sarah. <sup>16</sup>And I will bless her, and give you a son also of her. Yes, I will bless her, and she shall be a mother of nations, kings of people shall be from her. <sup>17</sup>And Abraham fell upon his face and laughed, and said in his heart, Shall a child be born to him that is a hundred years old? And shall Sarah, who is ninety years old, bear? <sup>18</sup>And Abraham said to God, Oh that Ishmael might live before You! <sup>19</sup>And God said, Sarah your wife shall bear you a son indeed. And you shall call his name Isaac. And I will establish My covenant with him for an everlasting covenant, and with his seed after him. <sup>20</sup>And as for Ishmael, I have heard you. Behold, I have blessed him, and will make him fruitful, and will multiply him exceedingly. He shall father twelve princes, and I will make him a great nation. <sup>21</sup>But I will establish My covenant with Isaac, whom Sarah shall bear to you at this set time in the next year. <sup>22</sup>And He left off talking with him, and God went up from Abraham.

<sup>23</sup>And Abraham took his son Ishmael, and all that were born in his house, and all that were bought with his money; every male among the men of Abraham's house; and circumcised the flesh of their foreskins in the same day, even as God said to him. <sup>24</sup>And Abraham was ninety-nine years old when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin. <sup>25</sup>And his son Ishmael was thirteen years old when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin. <sup>26</sup>In the same day Abraham and his son Ishmael were circumcised. <sup>27</sup>And all the men of his house, that were born in the house, and bought with money of the stranger, were circumcised with him.

CHAPTER 18

<sup>1</sup>And the LORD appeared to him in the plains of Mamre, and he sat at the tent door in the heat of the day. <sup>2</sup>And he lifted up his eyes and looked, and lo, three men stood by him. And when he saw them, he ran to meet them from the tent door, and bowed himself toward the ground. <sup>3</sup>And he said, My Lord, if now I have found favor in Your sight, do not pass away, I pray, from Your servant. <sup>4</sup>Let a little water, I pray, be brought, and wash Your feet, and rest under the tree. <sup>5</sup>And I will fetch a morsel of bread, and you may comfort your hearts. After that You shall pass on. For this is why You are come to Your servant. And they said, Do so, as you have said. <sup>6</sup>And Abraham hastened into the tent to Sarah, and said, Make ready quickly three measures of fine meal; knead it, and make cakes. <sup>7</sup>And Abraham ran out to the herd and brought a calf, tender and good. And he gave it to a young man. And he hurried to dress it. <sup>8</sup>And he took butter and milk, and the calf which he had dressed, and set it before them. And he stood by them under the tree, and they ate. <sup>9</sup>And they said to him, Where is Sarah your wife? And he said, Behold, in the tent. <sup>10</sup>And He said, I will certainly return to you according to the time of life, and lo, Sarah your wife shall have a son. And Sarah heard it in the tent door which was behind Him. <sup>11</sup>Now Abraham and Sarah were old and far gone in days, and it had ceased to be with Sarah after the manner of women. <sup>12</sup>Therefore Sarah laughed within herself, saying, After I am past age, shall I have pleasure, my lord being old also? <sup>13</sup>And the LORD said to Abraham, Why did Sarah laugh, saying, Shall I, who am old, truly bear a child? <sup>14</sup>Is anything too hard for the LORD? At the time appointed I will return again, according to the time of life, and Sarah shall have a son. <sup>15</sup>Then Sarah denied, saying, I did not laugh; for she was afraid. And He said, No, but you did laugh.

<sup>16</sup>And the men rose up from there, and looked toward Sodom. And Abraham was with them to bring them on the way. <sup>17</sup>And the LORD said, Shall I hide from Abraham the thing which I do, <sup>18</sup>And Abraham shall surely become a great and mighty nation, and all the persons of the earth shall be blessed in him? <sup>19</sup>For I know him, that he will command his sons and his house after him, and they shall keep the way of the LORD, to do justice and judgment, that the LORD may bring upon Abraham that which He has spoken of him. <sup>20</sup>And the LORD said, Because the cry of Sodom and Gomorrah is great, and because their sin is very grievous, <sup>21</sup>I will go down now and see whether they have done altogether according to the cry of it, which has come to Me. And if not, I will know. <sup>22</sup>And the men turned their faces away from there, and went toward Sodom. But Abraham still stood before the LORD. <sup>23</sup>And Abraham drew near and said, Will You also destroy the righteous with the wicked? <sup>24</sup>Perhaps there are fifty righteous within the city. Will You also destroy and not spare the place for the fifty righteous that are in it? <sup>25</sup>Far be it from You to act in this manner, to kill the righteous with the wicked. And far be it from You, that the righteous should be as the wicked. Shall not the Judge of all the earth do right? <sup>26</sup>And the LORD said, If I find in Sodom fifty righteous within the city, then I will spare all the place for their sakes. <sup>27</sup>And Abraham answered and said, Behold now, I have taken upon me to speak to the LORD, who am but dust and ashes. <sup>28</sup>Perhaps there will be five lacking from the fifty righteous. Will You destroy all the city for lack of five? And He said, If I find there forty-five, I will not destroy it. <sup>29</sup>And he spoke to Him yet again, and said, Perhaps there shall be forty found there. And He said, I will not do it for forty's sake. <sup>30</sup>And he said, O let not the LORD be angry, and I will speak. Perhaps there shall be thirty found there. And He said, I will not do it if I find thirty there. <sup>31</sup>And he said, Lo now, I have taken upon me to speak to the LORD. Perhaps there shall be twenty found there. And He said, I will not destroy it for twenty's sake. <sup>32</sup>And he said, Oh do not let the LORD be angry, and I will speak only once more. Perhaps ten shall be found there. And He said, I will not destroy it for ten's sake. <sup>33</sup>And the LORD went His way as soon as He had left off talking with Abraham. And Abraham returned to his place.

CHAPTER 19

<sup>1</sup>And there came two angels to Sodom at evening. And Lot sat in the gate of Sodom. And Lot rose up to meet them when he saw them. And he bowed himself with his face toward the ground, <sup>2</sup>and said, Behold now, my lords, please turn into your servant's house and stay all night, and wash your feet, and you shall rise up early and go your ways. And they said, No, but we will stay in the street all night. <sup>3</sup>But he urgently pressed on them, and they turned in to him and entered into his house. And he made them a feast, and baked unleavened bread, and they ate. <sup>4</sup>But before they lay down, the men of the city, the men of Sodom, surrounded the house, both old and young, all the people from every quarter. <sup>5</sup>And they called to Lot, and said to him, Where are the men which came in to you this night? Bring them out to us, that we may know them. <sup>6</sup>And Lot went out to the door to them, and shut the door after him. <sup>7</sup>And he said, I pray you, brothers, do not act evilly. <sup>8</sup>Behold now, I have two daughters which have not known man. I pray you, let me bring them out to you, and you do to them as is good in your eyes. But do nothing to these men, for this is why they came under the shadow of my roof.

<sup>9</sup>And they said, Stand back! And they said, This one came in to stay, and must he judge always? Now we will deal worse with you than with them. And they pressed hard upon the man, Lot, and came near to breaking the door. <sup>10</sup>But the men put out their hands and pulled Lot into the house to them, and shut the door. <sup>11</sup>And they smote the men that were at the door of the house with blindness, both small and great, so that they wearied themselves to find the door. <sup>12</sup>And the men said to Lot, Have you anyone here besides yourself? Bring your sons-in-law, and your sons, and your daughters, and whatever you have in the city, bring them out of this place. <sup>13</sup>For we will destroy this place because great is the cry of them before the face of the LORD. And the LORD has sent us to destroy it. <sup>14</sup>And Lot went out and spoke with his sons-in-law, who married his daughters, and said, Get up and get out of this place, for the LORD will destroy this city. But he seemed as one that mocked to his sons-in-law. <sup>15</sup>And when the morning rose up, then the angels hurried Lot, saying, Rise up! Take your wife and your two daughters who are here, lest you be consumed in the iniquity of the city. <sup>16</sup>While he lingered, the angel laid hold upon his hand, and upon the hand of his wife, and upon the hand of his two daughters — the LORD being merciful to him — and they brought him forth and set him outside the city. <sup>17</sup>And it happened when they brought him outside, He said, Escape for your life! Do not look behind you, nor stay in all the plain. Escape to the mountain lest you be consumed. <sup>18</sup>And Lot said to them, Oh no, Lord, pray, <sup>19</sup>behold now, Your servant has found grace in Your sight, and You have magnified Your mercy, which You have shown to me in saving my life. And I cannot escape to the mountain, lest some evil take me and I die. <sup>20</sup>Behold now, this city is near to flee to, and it is a little one. Oh let me escape there (is it not a little one?) and my soul shall live. <sup>21</sup>And He said to him, See, I have accepted you concerning this thing also, that I will not overthrow this city for which you have spoken. <sup>22</sup>Hurry and escape there! For I cannot do anything till you have come there. Therefore the name of the city was called Zoar. <sup>23</sup>The sun was risen upon the earth, and Lot entered into Zoar.

<sup>24</sup>Then the LORD rained upon Sodom and upon Gomorrah brimstone and fire, from the LORD out of the heavens. <sup>25</sup>And He overthrew those cities, and all the plain, and all the inhabitants of the cities, and that which grew upon the ground. <sup>26</sup>But his wife looked back from behind him, and she became a pillar of salt. <sup>27</sup>And Abraham got up early in the morning to the place where he stood before the LORD. <sup>28</sup>And he looked toward Sodom and Gomorrah, and toward all the lands of the plain, and saw, and, lo, the smoke of the country went up as the smoke of a furnace. <sup>29</sup>And when God destroyed the cities of the plain, it came to pass that God remembered Abraham, and sent Lot out of the midst of the overthrow, when He overthrew the cities in which Lot lived.

<sup>30</sup>And Lot went up out of Zoar, and lived in the mountain, and his two daughters with him. For he feared to live in Zoar, and he and his two daughters lived in a cave. <sup>31</sup>And the firstborn said to the younger, Our father is old, and there is no man in the earth to come in to us in the way of all the earth. <sup>32</sup>Come, let us make our father drink wine, and we will lie with him, so that we may preserve seed of our father. <sup>33</sup>And they made their father drink wine that night. And the firstborn went in, and lay with her father. And he did not notice when she lay down nor when she arose. <sup>34</sup>And it happened on the next day, the firstborn said to the younger, Behold, I lay last night with my father. Let us make him drink wine this night also, and you go in and lie down with him so that we may preserve seed of our father. <sup>35</sup>And they made their father drink wine that night also, and the younger arose and lay with him. And he did not notice when she lay down nor when she arose. <sup>36</sup>So both the daughters of Lot were with child by their father. <sup>37</sup>And the firstborn bore a son, and called his name Moab. He is the father of the Moabites to this day. <sup>38</sup>And the younger also bore a son, and called his name Benammi; he is the father of the sons of Ammon to this day.

CHAPTER 20

<sup>1</sup>And Abraham moved from there toward the south country, and lived between Kadesh and Shur, and stayed in Gerar. <sup>2</sup>And Abraham said of Sarah his wife, She is my sister. And Abimelech the king of Gerar sent and took Sarah. <sup>3</sup>But God came to Abimelech in a dream by night, and said to him, Behold, you are as dead for the woman whom you have taken; for she is a man's wife. <sup>4</sup>But Abimelech had not come near her. And he said, Lord, will You also kill a righteous nation? <sup>5</sup>Did he not say to me, She is my sister? And she, even she herself said, He is my brother. In the sincerity of my heart and innocency of my hands I have done this. <sup>6</sup>And God said to him in a dream, Yes, I know that you did this in the sincerity of your heart. For I also withheld you from sinning against Me. Therefore I did not allow you to touch her. <sup>7</sup>Now therefore, restore his wife to the man. For he is a prophet, and he shall pray for you, and you shall live. And if you do not restore her, know that you shall surely die, you, and all that are yours. <sup>8</sup>And Abimelech rose early in the morning, and called all his servants, and told all these things in their ears. And the men were greatly afraid. <sup>9</sup>Then Abimelech called Abraham, and said to him, What have you done to us? In what have I offended you, that you have brought on me and on my kingdom a great sin? You have done deeds to me that ought not to be done. <sup>10</sup>And Abimelech said to Abraham, What did you see that you have done this thing? <sup>11</sup>And Abraham said, Because I thought, Surely the fear of God is not in this place, and they will kill me for my wife's sake. <sup>12</sup>And yet truly she is my sister. She is the daughter of my father, but not the daughter of my mother. And she became my wife. <sup>13</sup>And it happened when God caused me to wander from my father's house, that I said to her, This is your kindness which you show to me, at every place where we shall come, say of me, He is my brother.

<sup>14</sup>And Abimelech took sheep and oxen, and men-servants and women-servants, and gave them to Abraham. And he restored him Sarah his wife.

<sup>15</sup>And Abimelech said, Behold, my land is before you. Live where it pleases you. <sup>16</sup>And to Sarah he said, Behold, I have given your brother a thousand pieces of silver. Behold, he is to you a covering of the eyes, to all that are with you, and with all this, you are justified. <sup>17</sup>And Abraham prayed to God, and God healed Abimelech and his wife and his slavegirls, and they gave birth. <sup>18</sup>For the Lord had closed up all the wombs of the house of Abimelech because of Sarah, Abraham's wife.

CHAPTER 21

<sup>1</sup>And the LORD visited Sarah as He had said. And the LORD did to Sarah as He had spoken. <sup>2</sup>For Sarah conceived and bore Abraham a son in his old age, at the set time of which God had spoken to him. <sup>3</sup>And Abraham called the name of his son that was born to him (whom Sarah bore to him) Isaac. <sup>4</sup>And Abraham circumcised his son Isaac when he was eight days old, as God had commanded him. <sup>5</sup>And Abraham was a hundred years old when his son Isaac was born to him. <sup>6</sup>And Sarah said, God has made me laugh, so that all who hear will laugh with me. <sup>7</sup>And she said, Who would have said to Abraham that Sarah should have suckled children? For I have borne a son to him in his old age. <sup>8</sup>And the child grew and was weaned, and Abraham made a great feast the day that Isaac was weaned. <sup>9</sup>And Sarah saw the son of Hagar the Egyptian (whom she had borne to Abraham) mocking. <sup>10</sup>And she said to Abraham, Cast out this slavegirl and her son. For the son of this slavegirl shall not be heir with my son, with Isaac. <sup>11</sup>And the thing was very grievous in Abraham's sight, because of his son. <sup>12</sup>And God said to Abraham, Let it not be grievous in your sight because of the boy and because of your slavegirl. In all that Sarah has said to you, listen to her voice. For in Isaac your seed shall be called. <sup>13</sup>And also, I will make a nation of the son of the slavegirl, because he is your seed. <sup>14</sup>And Abraham rose up early in the morning, and took bread and a bottle of water, and gave it to Hagar, putting it on her shoulder. And he gave her the boy, and sent her away. And she departed and wandered in the wilderness of Beer-sheba. <sup>15</sup>And the water was gone in the bottle, and she cast the boy under one of the shrubs. <sup>16</sup>And she went and sat down across from him, a good way off, about a bowshot. For she said, Let me not see the death of the boy. And she sat over against him, and lifted up her voice, and cried. <sup>17</sup>And God heard the voice of the boy, and the angel of God called to Hagar out of the heavens, and said to her, What ails you, Hagar? Do not fear, for God has heard the voice of the boy where he is. <sup>18</sup>Rise up, lift up the boy and hold him up with your hand, for I will make him a great nation. <sup>19</sup>And God opened her eyes, and she saw a well of water; and she went and filled the bottle with water, and gave drink to the boy. <sup>20</sup>And God was with the boy, and he grew, and lived in the wilderness, and became an archer. <sup>21</sup>And he lived in the wilderness of Paran, and his mother took a wife for him out of the land of Egypt.

<sup>22</sup>And it happened at that time, Abimelech and Phicol, the chief captain of his army, spoke to Abraham, saying, God is with you in all that you do. <sup>23</sup>Now therefore swear to me here by God that you will not deal falsely with me, nor with my son, nor with my son's son. Do to me according to the kindness that I have sworn to you, and to the land in which you have lived. <sup>24</sup>And Abraham said, I will swear. <sup>25</sup>And Abraham reproved Abimelech because of a well of water which Abimelech's servants had violently taken away. <sup>26</sup>And Abimelech said, I do not know who has done this thing, neither did you tell me, neither have I even heard of it, except today. <sup>27</sup>And Abraham took sheep and oxen and gave them to Abimelech, and both of them made a covenant. <sup>28</sup>And Abraham set seven ewe lambs of the flock by themselves. <sup>29</sup>And Abimelech said to Abraham, What are these seven ewe lambs which you have set by yourselves? <sup>30</sup>And he said, For you shall take these seven ewe lambs from my hand, so that they may be a witness to me that I have dug this well. <sup>31</sup>This is why he called that place Beer-sheba, because they swore, both of them, there. <sup>32</sup>So they made a covenant at Beer-sheba. Then Abimelech and Phicol, the chief captain of his army, rose up. And they returned to the land of the Philistines. <sup>33</sup>And Abraham planted a tree in Beer-sheba, and called there on the name of the LORD, the everlasting God. <sup>34</sup>And Abraham lived in the Philistines' land many days.

CHAPTER 22

<sup>1</sup>And happened after these things that God tested Abraham, and said to him, Abraham! And he said, Behold me. <sup>2</sup>And He said, Take now your son, your only one, Isaac, whom you love. And go into the land of Moriah, and offer him there for a burnt offering upon one of the mountains which I will name to you. <sup>3</sup>And Abraham rose up early in the morning, and saddled his ass, and took two of his young men with him, and Isaac his son. And he split the wood for the burnt offering, and rose up and went to the place of which God had told him. <sup>4</sup>Then on the third day, Abraham lifted up his eyes and saw the place afar off. <sup>5</sup>And Abraham said to his young men, You stay here with the ass. And I and the boy will go yonder and worship, and come again to you. <sup>6</sup>And Abraham took the wood of the burnt offering and laid it on Isaac his son. And he took the fire in his hand, and a knife. And they both went together. <sup>7</sup>And Isaac spoke to Abraham his father and said, My father. And he said, Here am I, my son. And he said, Behold the fire and the wood. But where is the lamb for a burnt offering?

<sup>8</sup>And Abraham said, My son, God will provide Himself a lamb for a burnt offering. So they both went together. <sup>9</sup>And they came to the place which God had told him of. And Abraham built an altar there and laid the wood in order. And he bound his son Isaac and laid him on the altar, on the wood. <sup>10</sup>And Abraham stretched out his hand and took the knife to slay his son. <sup>11</sup>And the Angel of Jehovah called to him from the heavens and said, Abraham! Abraham! And he said, Here am I. <sup>12</sup>And He said, Do not lay your hand on the lad, nor do anything to him. For now I know that you fear God, since you have not withheld your son, your only one, from Me.

<sup>13</sup>And Abraham lifted up his eyes, and looked. And, behold, a ram behind him was entangled in a thicket by its horns. And Abraham went and took the ram and offered it up for a burnt offering instead of his son. <sup>14</sup>And Abraham called the name of that place Jehovah Will See; so that it is said until this day, In the mount of Jehovah it will be seen.

<sup>15</sup>And the Angel of the LORD called to Abraham out of the heavens the second time, <sup>16</sup>and said, I have sworn by Myself, says the LORD; because you have done this thing, and have not withheld your son, your only one; <sup>17</sup>that in blessing I will bless you, and in multiplying I will multiply your seed like the stars of the heavens, and as the sand which is upon the seashore. And your Seed shall possess the gate of His enemies. <sup>18</sup>And in your Seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed, because you have obeyed My voice. <sup>19</sup>Abraham returned to his young men, and they rose up and went together to Beer-sheba. And Abraham lived at Beer-sheba.

<sup>20</sup>And it happened after these things that it was told Abraham, saying, Behold Milcah! She also has borne children to your brother Nahor: <sup>21</sup>Huz his firstborn, and Buz his brother, and Kemuel the father of Aram, <sup>22</sup>and Chesed, and Hazo, and Pildash, and Jidlaph, and Bethuel. <sup>23</sup>And Bethuel fathered Rebekah. These eight Milcah bore to Nahor, Abraham's brother. <sup>24</sup>And his concubine, whose name was Reumah, she also bore Tebah, and Gaham, and Thahash, and Maachah.

CHAPTER 23

<sup>1</sup>And Sarah was a hundred twenty seven years old, the years of the life of Sarah. <sup>2</sup>And Sarah died in Kirjath-arba; the same is Hebron in the land of Canaan. And Abraham came to mourn for Sarah, and to weep for her. <sup>3</sup>And Abraham stood up from before his dead, and spoke to the sons of Heth, saying, <sup>4</sup>I am a stranger and a visitor with you. Give me a possession of a burying-place with you, so that I may bury my dead out of my sight. <sup>5</sup>And the sons of Heth answered Abraham saying to him, <sup>6</sup>Hear us, my lord. You are a mighty prince among us. Bury your dead in the choice of our burying places. None of us shall withhold from you his burying-place from burying your dead. <sup>7</sup>And Abraham stood up, and bowed himself to the people of the land, the sons of Heth. <sup>8</sup>And he spoke with them, saying, If it is your mind that I should bury my dead out of my sight, hear me, and ask for me of Ephron the son of Zohar, <sup>9</sup>that he may give me the cave of Mach-pelah which he has, which is in the end of his field. For as much money as it is worth he shall give it to me for a possession of a burying-place among you. <sup>10</sup>And Ephron lived among the sons of Heth. And Ephron the Hittite answered Abraham in the ears of the sons of Heth, of all that went in at the gate of his city, saying, <sup>11</sup>No, my lord, hear me. I give you the field, and the cave that is in it I give to you. In the presence of the sons of my people I give it to you. Bury your dead. <sup>12</sup>And Abraham bowed down himself before the people of the land. <sup>13</sup>And he spoke to Ephron in the ears of the people of the land, saying, Only if you would hear me. I will give you money for the field. Take it from me, and I will bury my dead there. <sup>14</sup>And Ephron answered Abraham, saying to him, <sup>15</sup>My lord, listen to me. The land is worth four hundred shekels of silver; what is that between me and you? And bury your dead. <sup>16</sup>And Abraham listened to Ephron. And Abraham weighed to Ephron the silver which he had named in the hearing of the sons of Heth, four hundred shekels of silver, which passes with the merchant. <sup>17</sup>And the field of Ephron was certified, which was Mach-pelah, which was before Mamre; the field and the cave which was in it, and all the trees in the field, in all the borders round about, <sup>18</sup>to Abraham for a possession in the presence of the sons of Heth, before all that went in at the gate of his city.

<sup>19</sup>And after this, Abraham buried Sarah his wife in the cave at the field of Machpelah before Mamre, which is Hebron, in the land of Canaan. <sup>20</sup>And the field, and the cave that is in it, were certified to Abraham for a possession of a burying-place by the sons of Heth.

CHAPTER 24

<sup>1</sup>And Abraham was old, going on in age. And the LORD had blessed Abraham in all things. <sup>2</sup>And Abraham said to the oldest servant of his house, who ruled over all that he had, I pray you, put your hand under my thigh. <sup>3</sup>And I will make you swear by the LORD, the God of Heaven and the God of the earth, that you shall not take a wife to my son of the daughters of the Canaanites, among whom I dwell. <sup>4</sup>But you shall go to my country and to my kindred, and take a wife to my son Isaac. <sup>5</sup>And the servant said to him, Perhaps the woman will not be willing to follow me to this land. Must I necessarily bring your son again to the land from which you came? <sup>6</sup>And Abraham said to him, Take care that you do not bring my son there again. <sup>7</sup>The LORD, the God of Heaven, who took me from my father's house and from the land of my kindred, and who spoke to me, and who swore to me, saying, To your seed I will give this land: He shall send His Angel before you.

And you shall take a wife to my son from there. <sup>8</sup>And if the woman will not be willing to follow you, then you shall be clear from this oath of mine. Only do not bring my son there again. <sup>9</sup>And the servant put his hand under the thigh of Abraham his master and swore to him concerning the matter.

<sup>10</sup>And the servant took ten camels of the camels of his master, and departed. For all the goods of his master were in his hand. And he arose, and went to Mesopotamia to the city of Nahor. <sup>11</sup>And he made his camels kneel down outside the city by a well of water at the time of the evening, the time that women go out to draw. <sup>12</sup>And he said, O LORD, God of my master Abraham, I pray You, send me good speed this day, and show kindness to my master Abraham. <sup>13</sup>Behold, I stand by the well of water. And the daughters of the men of the city come out to draw water. <sup>14</sup>And let it be that the young woman to whom I shall say, Let down your pitcher, please, so that I may drink; and she shall say, Drink, and I will give your camels drink also. Let her be the one that You have appointed for Your servant Isaac. And by it I shall know that You have shown kindness to my master. <sup>15</sup>And before he had finished speaking, it came to pass that, behold, Rebekah came out, who was born to Bethuel, son of Milcah, the wife of Nahor, Abraham's brother, with her pitcher upon her shoulder. <sup>16</sup>And the young woman was very beautiful to look upon, a virgin, neither had any man known her. And she went down to the well, and filled her pitcher, and came up. <sup>17</sup>And the servant ran to meet her, and said, please let me drink a little water of your pitcher. <sup>18</sup>And she said, Drink, my lord. And she hurried and let down her pitcher upon her hand, and gave him drink. <sup>19</sup>And when she had finished giving him drink, she said, I will draw water for your camels also, until they have finished drinking. <sup>20</sup>And she hurried, and emptied her pitcher in the trough, and ran again to the well to draw water. And she drew for all his camels. <sup>21</sup>And the man was watching her, keeping silent, in order to know whether the LORD had prospered his journey or not.

<sup>22</sup>And it happened, when the camels had finished drinking, that the man took a golden earring of half a shekel weight, and two bracelets for her hand, weighing ten shekels of gold. <sup>23</sup>And he said, Whose daughter are you? Please tell me. Is there room in your father's house for us to stay? <sup>24</sup>And she said to him, I am the daughter of Bethuel the son of Milcah, whom she bore to Nahor. <sup>25</sup>And she said to him, We have both straw and fodder enough, and room to lodge in. <sup>26</sup>And the man bowed down his head, and worshiped the Lord. <sup>27</sup>And he said, Blessed be the LORD, God of my master Abraham, who has not left my master destitute of His mercy and His truth. The LORD led me, I being in the way to the house of my master's brothers. <sup>28</sup>And the young woman ran and told her mother's house these things. <sup>29</sup>And Rebekah had a brother, and his name was Laban. And Laban ran out to the man, to the well. <sup>30</sup>And it happened when he saw the earrings and bracelets upon his sister's hands, and when he heard the words of Rebekah his sister, saying, So spoke the man to me, he came to the man. And behold, he stood by the camels at the well. <sup>31</sup>And he said, Come in, blessed of the LORD. Why do you stand outside? For I have prepared the house, and room for the camels. <sup>32</sup>And the man came into the house. And he unloaded his camels, and gave straw and fodder to the camels, and water to wash his feet and the feet of the men that were with him. <sup>33</sup>And there was food set before him to eat. But he said, I will not eat until I have told my errand. And he said, Speak on.

<sup>34</sup>And he said, I am Abraham's servant. <sup>35</sup>And the LORD has blessed my master greatly, and he has become great. And He has given him flocks and herds and silver and gold, and male slaves and slavegirls, and camels and asses. <sup>36</sup>And Sarah my master's wife bore a son to my master when she was old. And he has given to him all that he has. <sup>37</sup>And my master made me swear, saying, You shall not take a wife to my son of the daughters of the Canaanites, in whose land I live. <sup>38</sup>But you shall go to my father's house, and to my kindred, and take a wife to my son. <sup>39</sup>And I said to my master, Perhaps the woman will not follow me. <sup>40</sup>And he said to me, The LORD, before whom I walk, will send his Angel with you, and prosper your way. And you shall take a wife for my son from my kindred, and from my father's house. <sup>41</sup>Then shall you be clear from my oath when you come to my kindred, and if they do not give you one, you shall be clear from my oath. <sup>42</sup>And I came this day to the well, and said, O LORD, God of my master Abraham, if now You prosper my way in which I go, <sup>43</sup>behold, I stand by the well of water. And it shall be when the virgin comes forth to draw water, and I say to her, Give me, please, a little water from your pitcher to drink, <sup>44</sup>and she say to me, Both you drink, and I will also draw for your camels, may she be the woman whom the LORD has appointed for my master's son. <sup>45</sup>And before I finished speaking in my heart, behold, Rebekah came forth with her pitcher on her shoulder. And she went down to the well and drew water. And I said to her, Please let me drink. <sup>46</sup>And she hurried and let down her pitcher from her shoulder, and said, Drink, and I will give drink to your camels also. So I drank, and she made the camels drink also. <sup>47</sup>And I asked her and said, Whose daughter are you? And she said, The daughter of Bethuel, Nahor's son, whom Milcah bore to him. And I put the earring upon her nose and the bracelets upon her hands. <sup>48</sup>And I bowed down my head and worshiped the LORD, and blessed the LORD, God of my master Abraham, who had led me in the right way to take my master's brother's daughter to his son. <sup>49</sup>And now if you will deal kindly and truthfully with my master, tell me. And if not, tell me so that I may turn to the right hand or to the left.

<sup>50</sup>And Laban and Bethuel answered and said, The thing has come forth from the LORD. We cannot speak to you bad or good. <sup>51</sup>Behold! Rebekah is before you; take her and go. And let her be the wife of your master's son, even as the LORD has spoken. <sup>52</sup>And it happened, when Abraham's servant heard their words, he worshiped the LORD, bowing himself to the earth. <sup>53</sup>And the servant brought forth jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and clothing, and gave them to Rebekah. He also gave precious things to her brother and to her mother. <sup>54</sup>And they ate and drank, he and the men with him, and stayed all night. And they rose up in the morning, and he said, Send me away to my master. <sup>55</sup>And her brother and her mother said, Let the young woman stay with us perhaps ten days. After that she shall go. <sup>56</sup>And he said to them, Do not hinder me, since the LORD has prospered my way. Send me away, that I may go away to my master. <sup>57</sup>And they said, We will call the young woman and inquire at her mouth. <sup>58</sup>And they called Rebekah, and said to her, Will you go with this man? And she said, I will go. <sup>59</sup>And they sent away Rebekah their sister, and her nurse, and Abraham's servant, and his men. <sup>60</sup>And they blessed Rebekah, and said to her, Our sister, be the mother of thousands of millions, and let your seed possess the gate of those who hate them. <sup>61</sup>And Rebekah rose up, and her young women, and they rode upon the camels and followed the man. And the servant took Rebekah and went his way.

<sup>62</sup>And Isaac came from the way of the well, The Well of the Living One, my Beholder. For he lived in the south country. <sup>63</sup>And Isaac went out to meditate in the field at the beginning of the evening. And he lifted up his eyes, and looked. And behold, camels coming! <sup>64</sup>And Rebekah lifted up her eyes, and she saw Isaac. And she dismounted from the camel. <sup>65</sup>For she had said to the servant, What man is this that walks in the field to meet us? And the servant said, It is my master. Therefore she took a veil and covered herself. <sup>66</sup>And the servant told Isaac all things that he had done. <sup>67</sup>And Isaac brought her into his mother Sarah's tent, and took Rebekah, and she became his wife. And he loved her. And Isaac was comforted after his mother's death.

CHAPTER 25

<sup>1</sup>Then again Abraham took a wife, and her name was Keturah. <sup>2</sup>And she bore him Zimram, and Jokshan, and Medan, and Midian, and Ishbak, and Shuah. <sup>3</sup>And Jokshan fathered Sheba and Dedan. And the sons of Dedan were Asshurim and Letushim and Leummin. <sup>4</sup>And the sons of Midian: Ephah and Epher and Hanoah and Abida and Eldaah. All these were the sons of Keturah. <sup>5</sup>And Abraham gave all that he had to Isaac. <sup>6</sup>But to the sons of the concubines which Abraham had, Abraham gave gifts. And he sent them away from Isaac his son while he still lived, eastward to the east country. <sup>7</sup>And these are the days of the years of Abraham's life, which he lived: a hundred seventy-five years. <sup>8</sup>And Abraham expired and died in a good old age, old and satisfied. And he was gathered to his people. <sup>9</sup>And his sons Isaac and Ishmael buried him in the cave of Machpelah, in the field of Ephron the son of Zohar the Hittite, which is before Mamre, the field which Abraham purchased of the sons of Heth. <sup>10</sup>There Abraham was buried, and Sarah his wife. <sup>11</sup>And after the death of Abraham, it came to pass that God blessed his son Isaac. And Isaac lived by The Well of the Living One, My Beholder.

<sup>12</sup>Now these are the generations of Ishmael, Abraham's son, whom Hagar the Egyptian, Sarah's handmaid, bore to Abraham. <sup>13</sup>And these are the names of the sons of Ishmael, by their names, according to their generations. The firstborn of Ishmael was Nebajoth; and Kedar, and Adbeel, and Mibsam, <sup>14</sup>and Mishma, and Duma, and Massa, <sup>15</sup>Hadad, and Tema and Jetur, Naphish, and Kedemah. <sup>16</sup>These were the sons of Ishmael, and these are their names, by their towns and by their settlements; twelve chiefs according to their nations. <sup>17</sup>And these were the years of the life of Ishmael, a hundred thirty-seven years. And he expired and died, and was gathered to his people. <sup>18</sup>And they lived from Havilah to Shur, which is before Egypt, as you go toward Assyria. And he died in the presence of all his brothers. <sup>19</sup>And these were the generations of Isaac, Abraham's son. Abraham fathered Isaac. <sup>20</sup>And Isaac was forty years old when he took Rebekah to wife, the daughter of Bethuel the Syrian of Padan-aram, the sister of Laban the Syrian. <sup>21</sup>And Isaac prayed to the LORD for his wife, because she was barren. And the LORD heard him, and Rebekah his wife conceived. <sup>22</sup>And the sons struggled together within her. And she said, If it is so, why am I this way? And she went to inquire of the LORD. <sup>23</sup>And the LORD said to her, Two nations are in your womb, and two kinds of people shall be separated from your bowels. And the one people shall be stronger than the other people, the older shall serve the younger. <sup>24</sup>And when her days to be delivered were fulfilled, behold, twins were in her womb! <sup>25</sup>And the first came out red, all over like a hairy garment. And they called his name Esau. <sup>26</sup>And after that his brother came out, and his hand took hold on Esau's heel. And his name was called Jacob. And Isaac was sixty years old when she bore them. <sup>27</sup>And the boys grew. And Esau was a skillful hunter, a man of the field. And Jacob was a plain man, living in tents. <sup>28</sup>And Isaac loved Esau for game was in his mouth. But Rebekah loved Jacob. <sup>29</sup>And Jacob boiled soup. And Esau came from the field, and he was faint. <sup>30</sup>And Esau said to Jacob, I beg you, Let me eat of the red, this red soup, for I am faint. Therefore his name was called Edom. <sup>31</sup>And Jacob said, Sell me your birthright today. <sup>32</sup>And Esau said, Behold, I am at the point of dying, and what profit shall this birthright be to me? <sup>33</sup>And Jacob said, Swear to me this day. And he swore to him, and he sold his birthright to Jacob. <sup>34</sup>Then Jacob gave Esau bread and soup of lentils. And he ate and drank, and rose up and went his way. And Esau despised his birthright.

CHAPTER 26

<sup>1</sup>And there was a famine in the land, besides the famine that was in the days of Abraham. And Isaac went to Abimelech king of the Philistines to Gerar. <sup>2</sup>And the LORD appeared to him and said, Do not go down into Egypt. Live in the land which I shall tell you of. <sup>3</sup>Stay in this land, and I will be with you and bless you. For to you and to your seed I will give all these lands; and I will establish the oath which I swore to Abraham your father. <sup>4</sup>And I will make your seed to multiply as the stars of heaven, and will give to your seed all these lands. And in your seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed, <sup>5</sup>because Abraham obeyed My voice and kept My charge, My commandments, My statutes, and My laws. <sup>6</sup>And Isaac lived in Gerar. <sup>7</sup>And the men of the place asked about his wife. And he said, She is my sister. For he feared to say, My wife; lest the men of the place should kill me for Rebekah, because she was beautiful of form. <sup>8</sup>And when he had been there a long time, it happened that Abimelech king of the Philistines looked out through the window, and saw; and behold! Isaac was caressing Rebekah his wife. <sup>9</sup>And Abimelech called Isaac and said, Behold! She surely is your wife. And why did you say, She is my sister? And Isaac said to him, Because I said, Lest I die on account of her. <sup>10</sup>And Abimelech said, What is this you have done to us? One of the people might have lain with your wife, and you would have brought guilt upon us. <sup>11</sup>And Abimelech charged all his people, saying, He that touches this man or his wife shall surely be put to death. <sup>12</sup>Then Isaac sowed in that land, and received in the same year a hundredfold. And the LORD blessed him. <sup>13</sup>And the man became great. And he went forward and grew until he became very great. <sup>14</sup>And he had possession of flocks and possession of herds, and many servants. And the Philistines envied him. <sup>15</sup>For all the wells which his father's servants had dug in the days of Abraham his father, the Philistines had stopped them and filled them with earth. <sup>16</sup>And Abimelech said to Isaac, Go away from us, for you are mightier than we are. <sup>17</sup>And Isaac departed from there, and pitched his tent in the valley of Gerar, and lived there. <sup>18</sup>And Isaac dug again the wells of water which they had dug in the days of Abraham his father; for the Philistines had stopped them after the death of Abraham. And he called their names after the names by which his father had called them. <sup>19</sup>And Isaac's servants dug in the valley, and found there a well of living water. <sup>20</sup>And the herdmen of Gerar strove with Isaac's herdsmen, saying, The water is ours. And he called the name of the well Contention, because they strove with him. <sup>21</sup>And they dug another well, and they strove for that also. And he called the name of it Opposition. <sup>22</sup>And he moved from there, and dug another well, and they did not strive for that. And he called the name of it Broad Places. And he said, For now the LORD has made room for us, and we shall be fruitful in the land. <sup>23</sup>And he went from there to Beer-sheba. <sup>24</sup>And the LORD appeared to him the same night, and said, I am the God of Abraham your father. Do not fear, for I am with you, and will bless you and multiply your seed for My servant Abraham's sake. <sup>25</sup>And he built an altar there, and called upon the name of the LORD, and pitched his tent there. And Isaac's servants dug a well there. <sup>26</sup>Then Abimelech went to him from Gerar, with Ahuzzath, one of his friends, and Phichol the chief captain of his army. <sup>27</sup>And Isaac said to them, Why do you come to me, since you hate me and have sent me away from you? <sup>28</sup>And they said, We saw certainly that the LORD was with you. And we said, Let there be now an oath between us, between us and you, and let us make a covenant with you; <sup>29</sup>that you will do us no harm since we have not touched you, and since we have done nothing but good to you, and have sent you away in peace. You are now the blessed of the LORD. <sup>30</sup>And he made them a feast, and they ate and drank. <sup>31</sup>And they rose up early in the morning, and swore to one another. And Isaac sent them away, and they departed from him in peace. <sup>32</sup>And the same day it happened, Isaac's servants came and told him about the well which they had dug. And they said to him, We have found water. <sup>33</sup>And he called it Shebah. Therefore the name of the city is Beer-sheba to this day.

<sup>34</sup>And Esau was forty years old when he took to wife Judith the daughter of Beeri the Hittite, and Basemath the daughter of Elon the Hittite; <sup>35</sup>who were a grief of spirit to Isaac and to Rebekah.

CHAPTER 27

<sup>1</sup>And it happened when Isaac was old and his eyes were dim, so that he could not see, he called his oldest son Esau and said to him, My son. <sup>2</sup>And he said to him, Behold, here am I. And he said, Behold now, I am old, I do not know the day of my death. <sup>3</sup>And now please take your weapons, your quiver and your bow, and go out to the field and hunt game for me. <sup>4</sup>And make tasty meat for me, such as I love, and bring to me so that I may eat, that my soul may bless you before I die. <sup>5</sup>And Rebekah was listening when Isaac spoke to Esau his son. And Esau went to the field to hunt game in order to bring it. <sup>6</sup>And Rebekah spoke to her son Jacob, saying, Behold, I heard your father speak to your brother Esau, saying, <sup>7</sup>Bring me game, and make me tasty meat so that I may eat and bless you before the LORD before my death. <sup>8</sup>And now, my son, obey my voice according to what I command you. <sup>9</sup>Go now to the flock, and bring me from there two good kids of the goats. And I will make them tasty meat for your father, such as he loves. <sup>10</sup>And you shall bring it to your father so that he may eat, and that he may bless you before his death. <sup>11</sup>And Jacob said to his mother Rebekah, Behold, Esau my brother is a hairy man, and I am a smooth man. <sup>12</sup>My father will perhaps feel me, and I shall seem to him as a deceiver. And I shall bring a curse upon me, and not a blessing. <sup>13</sup>And his mother said to him, Your curse be upon me, my son, only obey my voice and go bring them to me. <sup>14</sup>And he went. And he took them and brought to his mother. And his mother made tasty meat such as his father loved. <sup>15</sup>And Rebekah took the clothes of her older son Esau, the costly ones which were with her in the house, and put them on Jacob her younger son. <sup>16</sup>And she put the skins from the kids of the goats on his hands, and on the smooth of his neck. <sup>17</sup>And she gave the tasty meat and the bread which she had prepared into the hand of her son Jacob. <sup>18</sup>And he came to his father and said, My father! And he said, Here I am; who are you, my son? <sup>19</sup>And Jacob said to his father, I am Esau your first-born. I have done as you asked me. Arise, I pray you, sit and eat of my game, that your soul may bless me. <sup>20</sup>And Isaac said to his son, How is it that you have found it so quickly, my son? And he said, Because the LORD your God brought it to me. <sup>21</sup>And Isaac said to Jacob, Come near, I pray you, so that I may feel you, my son, whether you are truly my son Esau or not. <sup>22</sup>And Jacob went near to Isaac his father. And he felt him and said, The voice is Jacob's voice, but the hands the hands of Esau. <sup>23</sup>And he did not know him because his hands were hairy like his brother Esau's hands. And he blessed him. <sup>24</sup>And he said, Are you truly my son Esau? And he said, I am. <sup>25</sup>And he said, Bring it to me, and I will eat of my son's game, so that my soul may bless you. And he brought it near to him, and he ate. And he brought him wine, and he drank. <sup>26</sup>And his father Isaac said to him, Come near now and kiss me, my son. <sup>27</sup>And he came near and kissed him. And he smelled the smell of his clothing, and blessed him, and said, See, the smell of my son is as the smell of a field which the LORD has blessed. <sup>28</sup>And may God give you of the dew of heaven, and the fatness of the earth, and plenty of corn and wine. <sup>29</sup>Let people serve you, and let nations bow down to you. Be lord over your brothers, and let your mother's sons bow down to you. Cursed be everyone that curses you, and blessed be he that blesses you.

<sup>30</sup>And it happened, as soon as Isaac had made an end of blessing Jacob, and Jacob was scarcely gone from the presence of Isaac his father, that Esau his brother came in from his hunting. <sup>31</sup>And he also had made tasty meat and brought to his father. And he said to his father, Let my father arise and eat of his son's game so that your soul may bless me. <sup>32</sup>And his father Isaac said to him, Who are you? And he said, I am your son, your first-born, Esau. <sup>33</sup>And Isaac trembled with a great trembling, and said, Who then was the one who has hunted deer and brought to me, and I have eaten of all before you came, and have blessed him? Yea, he shall be blessed! <sup>34</sup>And when Esau heard the voice of his father, he cried with a great and exceeding bitter cry, and said to his father, Bless me, me also, O my father! <sup>35</sup>And he said, Your brother came with deceit, and has taken away your blessing. <sup>36</sup>And he said, It is because his name is called Jacob? For he has supplanted me these two times: he took away my birthright, and behold, now he has taken away my blessing. And he said, Have you not reserved a blessing for me? <sup>37</sup>And Isaac answered and said to Esau, Behold! I have made him your lord, and all his brothers I have given him for servants. And with corn and wine I have supported him. And what shall I do now to you, my son? <sup>38</sup>And Esau said to his father, Have you but one blessing, my father? Bless me, me also, O my father. And Esau lifted up his voice and wept. <sup>39</sup>And Isaac his father answered and said to him, Behold! Your dwelling shall be of the fatness of the earth and of the dew of heaven from above. <sup>40</sup>And by your sword you shall live, and shall serve your brother. And it shall be when you shall have the dominion, you shall break his yoke from off your neck.

<sup>41</sup>And Esau hated Jacob because of the blessing with which his father had blessed him. And Esau said in his heart, The days of mourning for my father are at hand. Then I will kill my brother Jacob. <sup>42</sup>And these words of her older son Esau were told to Rebekah. And she sent and called her younger son Jacob, and said to him, Behold, your brother Esau is going to ease himself on you, to kill you. <sup>43</sup>And now, my son, obey my voice and arise. Flee to my brother Laban, to Haran, <sup>44</sup>and stay with him a few days until your brother's fury turns away, <sup>45</sup>until your brother's anger turns away from you and he forgets what you have done to him. Then I will send and bring you from there. Why should I also be bereaved of both of you in one day?

<sup>46</sup>And Rebekah said to Isaac, I am weary of my life because of the daughters of Heth. If Jacob takes a wife of the daughters of Heth, like these of the daughters of the land, what good shall my life do me?

CHAPTER 28

<sup>1</sup>And Isaac called Jacob, and blessed him, and commanded him. And he said to him, You shall not take a wife of the daughters of Canaan. <sup>2</sup>Arise, go to Padan-aram, to the house of Bethuel your mother's father. And take a wife from there of the daughters of Laban your mother's brother. <sup>3</sup>And may God almighty bless you, and make you fruitful, and multiply you, so that you may be a multitude of people. <sup>4</sup>And may He give you the blessing of Abraham, to you and to your seed with you, so that you may inherit the land in which you are a stranger, which God gave to Abraham. <sup>5</sup>And Isaac sent Jacob away. And he went to Padan-aram, to Laban, son of Bethuel the Syrian, the brother of Rebekah, the mother of Jacob and Esau.

<sup>6</sup>And Esau saw that Isaac had blessed Jacob and had him away to Padan-aram in order to take a wife from there, and that as he blessed him he gave him a command, saying, You shall not take a wife of the daughters of Canaan; <sup>7</sup>and Jacob obeyed his father and his mother, and had gone to Padan-aram; <sup>8</sup>and when Esau saw that the daughters of Canaan did not please Isaac his father; <sup>9</sup>then Esau went to Ishmael, and took Mahalath the daughter of Ishmael, Abraham's son, the sister of Nebajoth, to his wives he added her for his wife.

<sup>10</sup>And Jacob went out from Beer-sheba, and went toward Haran. <sup>11</sup>And he lighted upon a certain place, and stayed there all night, because the sun had set. And he took of the stones of that place, and placed them at his head. And he lay down in that place to sleep. <sup>12</sup>And he dreamed. And behold! A ladder was set up on the earth, and the top of it reached to Heaven! And behold! The angels of God were ascending and descending on it! <sup>13</sup>And behold! The LORD stood above it, and said, I am Jehovah, the God of Abraham your father, and the God of Isaac! The land on which you lie I will give to you and to your seed. <sup>14</sup>And your seed shall be like the dust of the earth, and you shall spread abroad to the west, and to the east, and to the north, and to the south. And in you and in your seed shall all the families of the earth be blessed. <sup>15</sup>And, behold, I am with you, and will keep you in every place where you go, and will bring you again into this land. For I will not leave you until I have done that which I have spoken of to you. <sup>16</sup>And Jacob awakened from his sleep. And he said, Surely the LORD is in this place, and I did not know. <sup>17</sup>And he was afraid, and said, How fearful is this place! This is nothing but the house of God, and this is the gate of Heaven!

<sup>18</sup>And Jacob rose up early in the morning, and took the stone which he had put down at his head, and set it as a memorial pillar, and poured oil on the top of it. <sup>19</sup>And he called the name of that place The House of God. But the name of that city was Luz at first. <sup>20</sup>And Jacob vowed a vow, saying, If God will be with me, and will keep me in this way that I go, and will give me bread to eat and clothing to put on, <sup>21</sup>and I come again to my father's house in peace, then shall the LORD be my God. <sup>22</sup>And this stone which I have set for a pillar shall be God's house. And of all that You shall give me, I will surely give the tenth to You.

CHAPTER 29

<sup>1</sup>And Jacob lifted his feet and went to the land of the sons of the east. <sup>2</sup>And he looked, and behold, a well was in the field! And, lo, there were three flocks of sheep lying by it, for they watered the flocks out of that well. And a great stone was upon the well's mouth. <sup>3</sup>And all the flocks were gathered there. And they rolled the stone from the well's mouth, and watered the sheep, and put the stone again upon the well's mouth in its place. <sup>4</sup>And Jacob said to them, My brothers, where are you from? And they said, We are from Haran. <sup>5</sup>And he said to them, Do you know Laban the son of Nahor? And they said, We know him. <sup>6</sup>And he said to them, Is he well? And they said, He is well. And, behold, his daughter Rachel comes with the sheep. <sup>7</sup>And he said, Lo, the day is yet high. It is not yet time for gathering the cattle together. Water the sheep, and go feed them. <sup>8</sup>And they said, We cannot, until all the flocks have been gathered together. And they roll the stone from the well's mouth, then we water the sheep. <sup>9</sup>While he still spoke with them, Rachel came with her father's sheep, for she kept them. <sup>10</sup>And it happened when Jacob saw Rachel the daughter of Laban his mother's brother, and the sheep of Laban his mother's brother, then Jacob went near and rolled the stone from the well's mouth, and watered the flocks of Laban his mother's brother. <sup>11</sup>And Jacob kissed Rachel, and lifted up his voice and wept. <sup>12</sup>And Jacob told Rachel that he was her father's brother, and that he was Rebekah's son. And she ran and told her father. <sup>13</sup>And it happened when Laban heard the news of Jacob his sister's son, he ran to meet him and embraced him, and kissed him, and brought him to his house. And he told Laban all these things. <sup>14</sup>And Laban said to him, Surely you are my bone and my flesh. And he stayed with him for a month.

<sup>15</sup>And Laban said to Jacob, Because you are my brother, should you then serve me for nothing? Tell me, what shall be your wages? <sup>16</sup>And Laban had two daughters. The name of the oldest was Leah, and the name of the younger was Rachel. <sup>17</sup>Leah was weak of eyes, but Rachel was beautiful and well-favored. <sup>18</sup>And Jacob loved Rachel, and said, I will serve you seven years for Rachel your younger daughter. <sup>19</sup>And Laban said, It is better that I give her to you than that I should give her to another man. Stay with me. <sup>20</sup>And Jacob served seven years for Rachel, and they seemed to him a few days, for the love he had for her. <sup>21</sup>And Jacob said to Laban, Give me my wife, for my days are fulfilled, so that I may go in to her. <sup>22</sup>And Laban gathered together all the men of the place, and made a feast.

<sup>23</sup>And it happened in the evening, he took his daughter Leah and brought her to him. And he went in to her. <sup>24</sup>And Laban gave Zilpah his slavegirl to his daughter Leah for a handmaid. <sup>25</sup>And it happened in the morning, behold, it was Leah! And he said to Laban, What is this you have done to me? Did I not serve with you for Rachel? Why then have you tricked me? <sup>26</sup>And Laban said, It must not be done so in our country, to give the younger before the firstborn. <sup>27</sup>Fulfill her week, and we will give you this also for the service which you shall serve with me still another seven years. <sup>28</sup>And Jacob did so, and fulfilled her week. And he gave him Rachel his daughter to wife also. <sup>29</sup>And Laban gave Bilhah his slavegirl to his daughter Rachel, to be her handmaid. <sup>30</sup>And he also went in to Rachel. He also loved Rachel more than Leah, and served with him still seven more years.

<sup>31</sup>And when the LORD saw that Leah was hated; He opened her womb. But Rachel was barren. <sup>32</sup>And Leah conceived and bore a son. And she called his name Reuben, for she said, Surely the LORD has looked upon my afflictions. Now therefore my husband will love me. <sup>33</sup>And she conceived again, and bore a son, and said, Because the LORD has heard that I was hated, He has therefore given me this son also. And she called his name Simeon. <sup>34</sup>And she conceived again, and bore a son, and said, Now this time my husband will return to me, because I have borne him three sons. Therefore his name was called Levi. <sup>35</sup>And she conceived again, and bore a son; and she said, This time I will praise the LORD. Therefore she called his name Judah, and quit bearing.

CHAPTER 30

<sup>1</sup>And when Rachel saw that she bore Jacob no children, Rachel envied her sister. And she said to Jacob, Give me children, or else I will die. <sup>2</sup>And Jacob's anger was kindled against Rachel. And he said, Am I in God's stead, who has withheld from you the fruit of the womb? <sup>3</sup>And she said, Behold my slavegirl Bilhah; go in to her, and she shall bear upon my knees, and yea, let me be built up from her, me also. <sup>4</sup>And she gave him her handmaid Bilhah to wife. And Jacob went in to her. <sup>5</sup>And Bilhah conceived, and bore Jacob a son. <sup>6</sup>And Rachel said, God has judged me, and has also heard my voice, and has given me a son. Therefore she called his name Dan. <sup>7</sup>And Rachel's slavegirl Bilhah conceived again, and bore Jacob a second son. <sup>8</sup>And Rachel said, With the wrestlings of God I have wrestled with my sister, and I have prevailed. And she called his name Naphtali.

<sup>9</sup>When Leah saw that she had quit bearing, she took her slavegirl Zilpah and gave her to Jacob to wife. <sup>10</sup>And Leah's slavegirl Zilpah bore Jacob a son. <sup>11</sup>And Leah said, A troop comes. And she called his name Gad. <sup>12</sup>And Leah's slavegirl Zilpah bore Jacob a second son. <sup>13</sup>And Leah said, I am happy, for the daughters will call me blessed. And she called his name Asher.

<sup>14</sup>And Reuben went out the days of the wheat harvest, and found love-apples in the field, and brought them to his mother Leah. And Rachel said to Leah, please give me some of your son's may-apples. <sup>15</sup>And she said to her, Is it a small matter that you have taken my husband? And would you also take my son's may-apples? And Rachel said, Therefore he shall lie with you tonight for your son's may-apples. <sup>16</sup>And Jacob came out of the field in the evening. And Leah went out to meet him, and said, You must come in to me, for I have surely hired you with my son's may-apples. And he lay with her that night. <sup>17</sup>And God listened to Leah, and she conceived, and bore Jacob the fifth son. <sup>18</sup>And Leah said, God has given me my hire, because I have given my slavegirl to my husband. And she called his name Issachar. <sup>19</sup>And Leah conceived again, and bore Jacob the sixth son. <sup>20</sup>And Leah said, God has given me a good present. Now my husband will live with me, because I have borne him six sons. And she called his name Zebulun. <sup>21</sup>And afterward she bore a daughter, and called her name Dinah. <sup>22</sup>And God remembered Rachel, and God listened to her and opened her womb. <sup>23</sup>And she conceived and bore a son, and she said, God has taken away my reproach. <sup>24</sup>And she called his name Joseph. And she said, May the LORD shall add another son to me.

<sup>25</sup>And when Rachel had borne Joseph, it came to pass that Jacob said to Laban, Send me away so that I may go into my own place and to my country. <sup>26</sup>Give me my wives and my children, for whom I have served you, and let me go. For you know my service which I have done you. <sup>27</sup>And Laban said to him, I pray you, if I have found favor in your eyes, stay. For I have learned by experience that the LORD has blessed me for your sake. <sup>28</sup>And he said, Appoint your wages and I will give. <sup>29</sup>He said to him, You know how I have served you, and how your cattle were with me. <sup>30</sup>For you had little before I came, and it has now increased to a multitude. And the LORD has blessed you since my coming. And now when shall I provide for my own house also? <sup>31</sup>And he said, What shall I give you? And Jacob said, You shall not give me anything. If you will do this thing for me, I will again feed and keep your flock. <sup>32</sup>I will pass through all the flocks today, taking out all the speckled and spotted sheep, and all of the black sheep among the lambs, and the spotted and the speckled among the goats. And these shall be my hire. <sup>33</sup>And shall my righteousness answer for me in time to come, and it shall come for my hire before your face. Every one that is not speckled and spotted among the goats, and black among the sheep, shall be counted stolen with me. <sup>34</sup>And Laban said, Yes, truly let it be according to your word. <sup>35</sup>And that day he took out the he-goats that were striped and spotted, and all the she-goats that were speckled and spotted, every one that had white in it, and all the black from among the lambs, and gave them into the hand of his sons. <sup>36</sup>And he set three days' journey between himself and Jacob. And Jacob fed the rest of Laban's flocks.

<sup>37</sup>And Jacob took rods of green poplar, and of a fresh tree, and the almond and plane tree. And he peeled white streaks in them, and made the white appear which was in the rods. <sup>38</sup>And he set the rods which he had peeled by the troughs, by the water-troughs, where the flocks came to drink, across from the flocks, and the flocks were in heat when they came to drink. <sup>39</sup>And the flocks conceived before the rods, and brought forth striped cattle, speckled, and spotted. <sup>40</sup>And Jacob separated the lambs, and set the faces of the flocks toward the striped, and all the black in the flock of Laban. And he put his own flocks by themselves, and did not put them with the flock of Laban. <sup>41</sup>And it happened when the stronger flocks conceived, Jacob laid the rods before the eyes of the flocks in the troughs, so that they might conceive among the rods. <sup>42</sup>But when the flocks were feeble, he did not put them in. And it came to be, the weak ones were Laban's and the stronger ones Jacob's. <sup>43</sup>And the man increased exceedingly, and had many flocks, and maidservants, and manservants, and camels, and asses.

CHAPTER 31

<sup>1</sup>And he heard the words of Laban's sons, saying, Jacob has taken away all that was our father's, and he has gotten all this glory from that which was our father's. <sup>2</sup>And Jacob saw the countenance of Laban, and, behold, it was not toward him as before. <sup>3</sup>And the LORD said to Jacob, Return to the land of your fathers, and to your kindred, and I will be with you. <sup>4</sup>And Jacob sent and called Rachel and Leah to the field to his flocks. <sup>5</sup>And he said to them, I see your father's face, that it is not toward me as before; but the God of my father has been with me. <sup>6</sup>And you know that with all my power I have served your father, <sup>7</sup>and your father has deceived me and changed my wages ten times. But God did not allow him to hurt me. <sup>8</sup>If he said this, The speckled shall be your wages, then all the flocks bore speckled. And if he said this, The striped shall be your hire, then all the flocks bore striped. <sup>9</sup>And God has taken away the flocks of your father, and has given them to me. <sup>10</sup>And at the time the cattle conceived, I lifted up my eyes and saw in a dream, and, behold, the rams which leaped upon the cattle were striped, speckled, and mottled. <sup>11</sup>And the Angel of God spoke to me in a dream, saying, Jacob! And I said, Here I am. <sup>12</sup>And He said, Lift up your eyes and see all the rams which leap upon the cattle, that they are striped, speckled, and mottled. For I have seen all that Laban is doing to you. <sup>13</sup>I am the God of Bethel, where you anointed the pillar, where you vowed a vow to Me. Now arise, get out from this land, and return to the land of your kindred. <sup>14</sup>And Rachel and Leah answered and said to him, Is there yet any portion or inheritance for us in our father's house? <sup>15</sup>Are we not counted strangers by him? For he has sold us, and has also entirely devoured our money. <sup>16</sup>For all the riches which God has taken from our father, that is for us and for our sons. Now then, whatever God has said to you, do. <sup>17</sup>Then Jacob rose up and set his sons and wives upon camels. <sup>18</sup>And he drove away all his cattle, and all his goods which he had gotten, the cattle of his property, which he had gotten in Padan-aram, in order to go to Isaac his father in the land of Canaan.

<sup>19</sup>And Laban went to shear his sheep. And Rachel had stolen the images which were her father's. <sup>20</sup>And Jacob deceived the heart of Laban the Syrian, in that he did not tell him that he fled. <sup>21</sup>And he fled with all that was his. And he rose up and passed over the river, and set his face toward Mount Gilead. <sup>22</sup>It was told Laban on the third day that Jacob had fled. <sup>23</sup>And he took his brothers with him, and pursued after him seven days' journey. And they overtook him in Mount Gilead.

<sup>24</sup>And God came to Laban the Syrian in a dream by night, and said to him, Take heed that you do not speak either good or bad to Jacob. <sup>25</sup>Then Laban overtook Jacob. And Jacob had pitched his tent in the mount. And Laban with his brothers pitched in Mount Gilead. <sup>26</sup>And Laban said to Jacob, What have you done, that you have deceived my heart and carried away my daughters as captives taken with the sword? <sup>27</sup>Why did you flee away secretly, and steal away from me, and did not tell me so that I might have sent you away with mirth, and with songs, with tabret and with harp? <sup>28</sup>And why have you not allowed me to kiss my sons and my daughters? You have done foolishly in so doing. <sup>29</sup>It is in the power of my hand to do you harm. But the God of your fathers spoke to me last night, saying, Take heed that you do not speak either good or bad to Jacob. <sup>30</sup>And now you have gone because you longed after your father's house. Why have you stolen my gods?

<sup>31</sup>And Jacob answered and said to Laban, Because I was afraid, for I said, Perhaps you would take your daughters away from me by force. <sup>32</sup>With whomever you find your gods, let him not live. Before our brothers, choose what is yours with me, and take it to you. For Jacob did not know that Rachel had stolen them. <sup>33</sup>And Laban went into Jacob's tent, and into Leah's tent, and into the tents of the two slavegirls, and he did not find. And he went out of Leah's tent, and entered into Rachel's tent. <sup>34</sup>And Rachel had taken the images and put them into the camel's saddle, and sat on them. And Laban searched all the tent, but did not find them. <sup>35</sup>But she said to her father, Let it not displease my lord that I cannot rise up before you. For the custom of women is upon me. And he searched, but did not find the images.

<sup>36</sup>And Jacob was angry, and rebuked Laban. And Jacob answered and said to Laban, What is my trespass? What is my sin, that you have so hotly pursued after me? <sup>37</sup>For you have searched all my stuff; what have you found of all your household stuff? Set it here before my brothers and your brothers, that they may judge between us both. <sup>38</sup>I was with you these twenty years. Your ewes and she-goats have not cast their young, and the rams of your flock I have not eaten. <sup>39</sup>That which was torn I did not bring to you; I bore the loss of it. You required it at my hand, whether stolen by day, or stolen by night. <sup>40</sup>I was there; in the day the heat consumed me, and the frost by night. And my sleep departed from my eyes. <sup>41</sup>And I have been twenty years in your house. I served you fourteen years for your two daughters, and six for your flocks. And you have changed my wages ten times. <sup>42</sup>Unless the God of my fathers, the God of Abraham, and the Fear of Isaac had been with me, surely you would have sent me away now empty. God has seen my affliction and the labor of my hands, and rebuked you last night.

<sup>43</sup>And Laban answered and said to Jacob, The daughters are my daughters, and the sons are my sons, and the flocks are my flocks. All that you see is mine. And what can I do this day to these my daughters, or to their sons which they have borne? <sup>44</sup>And come now, let us make a covenant, you and I. And let it be for a witness between you and me. <sup>45</sup>And Jacob took a stone and set it up for a pillar. <sup>46</sup>And Jacob said to his brothers, Come, gather stones. And they took stones and made a heap. And they ate there upon the heap. <sup>47</sup>And Laban called it in Syriac, Heap of the Testimony, and Jacob called it in Hebrew Heap of Testimony. <sup>48</sup>And Laban said, This heap is a witness between you and me this day. Therefore the name of it was called Heap of Testimony, <sup>49</sup>and Watchtower, for he said, The LORD watch between you and me when we are absent from one another. <sup>50</sup>If you shall afflict my daughters, or if you shall take other wives besides my daughters, no man is with us. See! God is witness between you and me.

<sup>51</sup>And Laban said to Jacob, Behold this heap, and behold the pillar which I have set up between you and me. <sup>52</sup>This heap is a witness, and the pillar is a witness, that I will not pass over this heap to you, and that you shall not pass over this heap and this pillar to me, for harm. <sup>53</sup>The God of Abraham, and the God of Nahor, the God of their father, judge between us. And Jacob swore by the Fear of his father Isaac. <sup>54</sup>And Jacob offered sacrifice on the mountain, and called his brothers to eat bread. And they ate bread and stayed all night in the mountain. <sup>55</sup>And early in the morning Laban rose up, and kissed his sons and his daughters, and blessed them. And Laban departed and returned to his place.

CHAPTER 32

<sup>1</sup>And Jacob went on his way, and the angels of God met him. <sup>2</sup>And when Jacob saw them he said, This is God's camp. And he called the name of that place

Refuge. <sup>3</sup>And Jacob sent messengers before him to Esau his brother, to the land of Seir, the country of Edom. <sup>4</sup>And he commanded them, saying, So shall you speak to my lord Esau: Your servant Jacob says thus, I have lived with Laban and stayed until now. <sup>5</sup>And I have oxen and asses, flocks, and menservants, and women-servants. And I have sent to tell my lord, that I may find grace in your sight. <sup>6</sup>And the messengers returned to Jacob saying, We came to your brother Esau, and also he comes to meet you, and four hundred men with him. <sup>7</sup>Then Jacob was greatly afraid and distressed, and he divided the people with him, and the flocks and herds, and the camels, into two bands. <sup>8</sup>And he said, If Esau come to the one company and strike it, then the other company which is left shall escape.

<sup>9</sup>And Jacob said, O God of my father Abraham, and God of my father Isaac, Jehovah, who said to me, Return to your country and to your kindred, and I will deal well with you: <sup>10</sup>I am not worthy of the least of all the mercies and of all the truth which You have shown to Your servant. For with my staff I passed over this Jordan, and now I have become two bands. <sup>11</sup>Deliver me, I pray You, from the hand of my brother, from the hand of Esau. For I fear him, lest he come and strike me, from mother to sons. <sup>12</sup>And You said, I will surely do you good, and make your seed as the sand of the sea, which cannot be numbered for multitude.

<sup>13</sup>And he lodged there that night. And he took of that which came to his hand, a present for Esau his brother <sup>14</sup>two hundred she-goats, twenty he-goats, two hundred ewes, and twenty rams, <sup>15</sup>thirty milk camels with their colts, forty cows and ten bulls, twenty she-asses and ten foals. <sup>16</sup>And he delivered into the hands of his servants, every drove by themselves. And he said to his servants, Pass over in front of me and put a space between drove and drove. <sup>17</sup>And he commanded the foremost, saying, When Esau my brother meets you, and asks you saying, To whom do you belong? and, Where do you go? And whose are these before you? <sup>18</sup>Then you shall say, Your servant Jacob's. It is a present sent to my lord Esau. And, behold, he also is behind us. <sup>19</sup>And so he commanded the second and the third, and all that followed the droves, saying, In this way you shall speak to Esau when you find him. <sup>20</sup>And also you shall say, Behold, your servant Jacob is behind us. For he said, I will appease him with the present that goes before me, and afterward I will see his face. Perhaps he will accept me. <sup>21</sup>And the present went over before him. And he himself lodged that night in the company.

<sup>22</sup>And he rose up that night, and took his two wives, and his two slavegirls, and his eleven sons, and passed over the ford Jabbok. <sup>23</sup>And he took them, and sent them over the brook, and sent over what he had. <sup>24</sup>And Jacob was left alone. And a Man wrestled there with him until the breaking of the day. <sup>25</sup>And when He saw that He did not prevail against him, He touched the hollow of his thigh. And the hollow of Jacob's thigh was out of joint as he wrestled with Him. <sup>26</sup>And He said, Let me go, for the day breaks. And he said, I will not let You go except You bless me. <sup>27</sup>And He said to him, What is your name? And he said, Jacob. <sup>28</sup>And He said, Your name shall no longer be called Jacob, but Israel; for like a prince you have power with God and with men, and have prevailed.

<sup>29</sup>And Jacob asked and said, I pray You, tell me Your name. And He said, Why do you ask after My name? And He blessed him there. <sup>30</sup>And Jacob called the name of the place Peniel; for I have seen God face to face, and my life is preserved. <sup>31</sup>And as he passed over Penuel the sun rose upon him, and he limped upon his thigh. <sup>32</sup>Therefore the children of Israel do not eat of the sinew of the thigh, which is on the hip-socket, until this day, because He touched Jacob's hip-socket, the sinew of the thigh.

CHAPTER 33

<sup>1</sup>And Jacob lifted up his eyes and looked. And behold, Esau came, and four hundred men with him. And he divided the children to Leah, and to Rachel, and to the two handmaids. <sup>2</sup>And he put the slavegirls and their children first, and Leah and her children afterward, and Rachel and Joseph last. <sup>3</sup>And he passed over in front of them, and bowed himself to the ground seven times, until he came near to his brother. <sup>4</sup>And Esau ran to meet him, and embraced him, and fell upon his neck and kissed him. And they wept. <sup>5</sup>And he lifted up his eyes, and saw the women and the children, and said, Who are these with you? And he said, The children which God has graciously given your servant. <sup>6</sup>Then the slavegirls came near, they and their children, and they bowed themselves. <sup>7</sup>And Leah also, and her children, came near and bowed themselves. And afterward Joseph came near, and Rachel, and they bowed themselves. <sup>8</sup>He asked, Whose is all this camp which I met? And he said, To find grace in the sight of my lord. <sup>9</sup>And Esau said, I have enough, my brother. Keep what you have yourself. <sup>10</sup>And Jacob said, No, please, if now I have found grace in your sight, then receive my present at my hand. For therefore have I seen your face, as though I had seen the face of God, and you were pleased with me. <sup>11</sup>Please take my blessing that is brought to you, because God has dealt graciously with me, and because I have enough. And he urged him, and he accepted. <sup>12</sup>And he said, Let us take our journey, and let us go, and I will go before you. <sup>13</sup>And he said to him, My lord knows that the children are tender, and the flocks and herds with young are with me. And if the men should overdrive them one day, all the flock will die. <sup>14</sup>Please let my lord pass over before his servant, and I will lead on softly, according as the flocks that go before me, and the children, are able to endure, until I come to my lord to Seir. <sup>15</sup>And Esau said, Let me now leave with you some of the people with me. And he said, Why this? Let me find grace in the sight of my lord. <sup>16</sup>And Esau returned that day on his way to Seir.

<sup>17</sup>And Jacob journeyed to Succoth and built him a house, and made booths for his cattle. Therefore the name of the place is called Succoth. <sup>18</sup>And Jacob came in peace to the city of Shechem, which is in the land of Canaan, when he came from Padan-aram. And he pitched his tent in front of the city. <sup>19</sup>And he bought a piece of a field, where he had spread his tent, at the hand of the sons of Hamor, Shechem's father, for a hundred pieces of money. <sup>20</sup>And he erected there an altar, and called it El, the God of Israel.

CHAPTER 34

<sup>6</sup>And Hamor the father of Shechem went out to Jacob to speak with him. <sup>7</sup>And the sons of Jacob came out of the field when they heard. And the men were furious, and they were very angry, because he had done folly in Israel, in lying with the daughter of Jacob. And it ought not to be done so. <sup>8</sup>And Hamor communed with them, saying, The soul of my son Shechem longs for your daughter. Please give her to him for a wife. <sup>9</sup>And you make marriages with us, giving your daughters to us, and taking our daughters to you. <sup>10</sup>And you shall live with us. And the land shall be before you. Live and trade in it, and get possessions in it. <sup>11</sup>And Shechem said to her father and to her brothers, Let me find grace in your eyes, and whatever you shall say to me I will give. <sup>12</sup>Heap upon me ever so much price and dowry, and I will give according as you shall say to me. But give me the girl for a wife. <sup>13</sup>And the sons of Jacob answered Shechem and Hamor his father, speaking with deceit because he had defiled Dinah their sister. <sup>14</sup>And they said to them, We cannot do this thing, to give our sister to one that is uncircumcised. For that would be a reproach to us. <sup>15</sup>But in this we will agree with you, if you will be as we are, that every male of you be circumcised, <sup>16</sup>then we will give our daughters to you, and we will take your daughters to us, and we will live with you, and we will become one people. <sup>17</sup>But if you will not listen to us, to be circumcised, then we will take our daughter, and we will go.

<sup>18</sup>And their words pleased Hamor and Shechem, Hamor's son. <sup>19</sup>And the young man did not hesitate to do the thing, because he had delight in Jacob's daughter. And he was more honorable than all the house of his father. <sup>20</sup>And Hamor and Shechem his son came to the gate of their city, and talked with the men of their city, saying, <sup>21</sup>These men are at peace with us. Therefore let them live in the land, and trade in it. For behold, the land is large enough for them. Let us take their daughters to us for wives, and let us give them our daughters. <sup>22</sup>Only on this condition will the men agree to us, to live with us, to be one people, if every male among us is circumcised as they are circumcised. <sup>23</sup>Shall not their cattle and their substance and every animal of theirs be ours? Only let us agree with them, and they will live with us.

<sup>24</sup>And all that went out of the gate of his city listened to Hamor and to Shechem his son. And every male was circumcised, all that went out of the gate of his city. <sup>25</sup>And it happened on the third day, when they were sore, that two of the sons of Jacob, Simeon and Levi, Dinah's brothers, took each his sword and came upon the city boldly, and killed all the males. <sup>26</sup>And they killed Hamor and Shechem his son with the edge of the sword, and took Dinah out of Shechem's house, and went out. <sup>27</sup>The sons of Jacob came upon the slain, and plundered the city, because they had defiled their sister. <sup>28</sup>They took their sheep and their oxen, and their asses, and that which was in the city and that which was in the field. <sup>29</sup>And all their wealth, and all their little ones, and their wives, they took captive, and plundered even all that was in the house. <sup>30</sup>And Jacob said to Simeon and Levi, You have troubled me, to make me stink among those who live in the land, among the Canaanites and the Perizzites. And I, being few in number, they shall gather themselves together against me, and kill me. And I shall be destroyed, my house and I. <sup>31</sup>And they said, Should he deal with our sister as with a harlot?

CHAPTER 35

<sup>1</sup>And God said to Jacob, Arise, go up to Bethel, and live there. And make an altar there to God, who appeared to you when you fled from the face of Esau your brother. <sup>2</sup>Then Jacob said to his household, and to all that were with him, Put away the strange gods among you, and be clean, and change your garments. <sup>3</sup>And let us arise and go up to Bethel, and I will make an altar there to God, who answered me in the day of my distress, and was with me in the way which I went. <sup>4</sup>And they gave all the strange gods which were in their hands to Jacob, and the earrings in their ears. And Jacob hid them under the oak which was by Shechem. <sup>5</sup>And they moved. And the terror of God was upon the cities that were round about them, and they did not pursue the sons of Jacob.

<sup>6</sup>And Jacob came to Luz in the land of Canaan, that is, Bethel, he and all the people with him. <sup>7</sup>And he built an altar there and called the place El-Bethel, because God appeared to him there when he fled from the face of his brother.

<sup>8</sup>But Deborah, Rebekah's nurse, died, and she was buried beneath Bethel, under an oak. And the name of it was called Oak of Weeping.

<sup>9</sup>And God appeared to Jacob again when he came out of Padan-aram and blessed him. <sup>10</sup>And God said to him, Your name is Jacob. Your name shall not be called Jacob any more, but Israel shall be your name. And He called his name Israel. <sup>11</sup>And God said to him, I am God Almighty. Be fruitful and multiply. A nation and a company of nations shall be from you, and kings shall come out of your loins. <sup>12</sup>And the land which I gave to Abraham and Isaac, I will give to you; and to your seed after you I will give the land. <sup>13</sup>And God went up from him in the place where He talked with him. <sup>14</sup>And Jacob set up a pillar in the place where He talked with him, a pillar of stone. And he poured a drink offering on it, and he poured oil on it. <sup>15</sup>And Jacob called the name of the place where God spoke with him, Bethel.

<sup>16</sup>And they moved from Bethel. And there was only a length of land to come to Ephrath. And Rachel travailed, and she had hard labor in her bearing. <sup>17</sup>And it happened when she was in hard labor in her bearing, the midwife said to her, Do not fear, you shall have this son also. <sup>18</sup>And it happened as her soul was departing (for she died) that she called his name Benoni. But his father called him Benjamin. <sup>19</sup>And Rachel died and was buried in the way to Ephrath, which is Bethlehem. <sup>20</sup>And Jacob set up a pillar upon her grave. That is the pillar of Rachel's grave to this day. <sup>21</sup>And Israel moved, and spread his tent beyond the tower of Edar. <sup>22</sup>And it happened when Israel lived in that land, Reuben went and lay with Bilhah his father's concubine. And Israel heard it.

And the sons of Jacob were twelve: <sup>23</sup>The sons of Leah: Reuben, Jacob's firstborn, and Simeon, and Levi, and Judah, and Issachar, and Zebulun. <sup>24</sup>The sons of Rachel: Joseph and Benjamin. <sup>25</sup>And the sons of Bilhah, Rachel's slavegirl: Dan and Naphtali. <sup>26</sup>And the sons of Zilpah, Leah's slavegirl: Gad and Asher. These were the sons of Jacob born to him in Padan-aram.

<sup>27</sup>And Jacob came to his father Isaac, to Mamre, to the city of Arba, which is Hebron, where Abraham had lived, and Isaac. <sup>28</sup>And the days of Isaac were a hundred and eighty years. <sup>29</sup>And Isaac expired and died, and was gathered to his people, old and satisfied of days. And his sons, Esau and Jacob, buried him.

<sup>6</sup>And Esau took his wives and his sons and his daughters, and all the souls of his house, and his cattle, and all his beasts, and all his substance which he had gotten in the land of Canaan, and went into the country away from the face of his brother Jacob. <sup>7</sup>For their riches were more than that they might dwell together. And the land of their travels could not bear them because of their cattle. <sup>8</sup>And Esau lived in Mount Seir. Esau is Edom. <sup>9</sup>And these are the generations of Esau, the father of the Edomites, in Mount Seir. <sup>10</sup>These are the names of Esau's sons: Eliphaz the son of Adah the wife of Esau; Reuel the son of Basemath the wife of Esau. <sup>11</sup>And the sons of Eliphaz: Teman, Omar, Zepho, and Gatam, and Kenaz. <sup>12</sup>And Timna was concubine to Eliphaz, Esau's son. And she bore to Eliphaz Amalek. These were the sons of Adah, Esau's wife. <sup>13</sup>And these are the sons of Reuel: Nahath, and Zerah, Shammah, and Mizzah; these were the sons of Bashemath, Esau's wife.

<sup>14</sup>And these were the sons of Oholibamah, the daughter of Anah, the daughter of Zibeon, Esau's wife. And she bore to Esau Jeush, and Jaalam, and Korah.

<sup>15</sup>These were the chiefs of the sons of Esau: the sons of Eliphaz the firstborn of Esau: Chief Teman, Chief Omar, Chief Zepho, Chief Kenaz, <sup>16</sup>Chief Korah, Chiefs Gatam, Chief Amalek. These were the chiefs of Eliphaz in the land of Edom; these the sons of Adah. <sup>17</sup>And these were the sons of Reuel, Esau's son: Chief Nahath, and Chief Zerah, Chief Shammah, Chief Mizzah. These were the chief of Reuel in the land of Edom. These were the sons of Basemath, Esau's wife. <sup>18</sup>And these were the sons of Oholibamah, Esau's wife: Chief Jeush, Chief Jalam, Chief Korah. These were the chiefs of Oholibamah, the daughter of Anah, Esau's wife. <sup>19</sup>These were the sons of Esau, and these their chiefs. He is Edom.

<sup>20</sup>These were the sons of Seir the Horite living in the land: Lotan, and Shobal, and Zibeon, and Anah, <sup>21</sup>and Dishon, and Ezer, and Dishan. These were the chiefs of the Horites, the sons of Seir, in the land of Edom. <sup>22</sup>And the sons of Lotan: Hori and Heman; and Lotan's sister was Timna. <sup>23</sup>And these were the sons of Shobal: Alvan, and Manahath, and Ebel, Shepho, and Onam. <sup>24</sup>And these were the sons of Zibeon: both Aiah and Anah — he is Anah that found the hot springs in the desert as he fed the asses of Zibeon, his father. <sup>25</sup>And the sons of Anah were these: Dishon. And Oholibamah was daughter of Anah. <sup>26</sup>And these were sons of Dishon: Hemdan, and Eshban, and Ithran, and Cheran.

<sup>31</sup>And these were the kings that reigned in the land of Edom before the reigning of a king over the sons of Israel. <sup>32</sup>And Bela the son of Beor reigned in Edom. And the name of his city was Dinhabah. <sup>33</sup>And Bela died, and Jobab the son of Zerah, from Bozrah, reigned in his place. <sup>34</sup>And Jobab died, and Husham from the land of the Temanites reigned in his place. <sup>35</sup>And Husham died, and Hadad the son of Bedah, who smote Midian in the field of Moab reigned in his place. And the name of his city was Avith. <sup>36</sup>And Hadad died, and Samlah from Masrekah reigned in his place. <sup>37</sup>And Samlah died, and Shaul of Rehoboth by the river reigned in his place. <sup>38</sup>And Shaul died, and Baal-hanan the son of Achbor reigned in his place. <sup>39</sup>And Baal-hanan the son of Achbor died, and Hadar reigned in his place. And the name of his city was Pau. And his wife's name was Mehetabel, the daughter of Matred, the daughter of Mezahab.

<sup>40</sup>And these were the names of the chiefs of Esau, according to their families, after their places, by their names: Chief Timnah, Chief Alvah, Chief Jetheth, <sup>41</sup>Chief Oholibamah, Chief Elah, Chief Pinon, <sup>42</sup>Chief Kenaz, Chief Teman, Chief Mibzar, <sup>43</sup>Chief Magdiel, Chief Iram. These were the chiefs of Edom, according to their dwellings in the land of their possession; he is Esau the father of the Edomites.

<sup>1</sup>And Jacob lived in the land of the travels of his father, in the land of Canaan.

<sup>2</sup>These are the generations of Jacob: Joseph, a son of seventeen years, came tending the flock with his brothers. And he was a youth with the sons of Bilhah, and with the sons of Zilpah, his father's wives. And Joseph brought to his father an evil report of them. <sup>3</sup>And Israel loved Joseph more than all his sons, because he was the son of his old age. And he made him a coat reaching to the feet.<sup>4</sup> And when his brothers saw that their father loved him more than all his brothers, they hated him, and could not speak peaceably to him.

<sup>5</sup>And Joseph dreamed a dream and told it to his brothers. And they hated him still more. <sup>6</sup>And he said to them, I pray you, Hear this dream which I have dreamed. <sup>7</sup>For behold! We were binding sheaves in the field, and lo, my sheaf arose and also stood upright. And behold, your sheaves stood around and bowed down to my sheaf. <sup>8</sup>And his brothers said to him, Shall you indeed reign over us? Or shall you indeed have the rule over us? And they hated him still more for his dreams and for his words. <sup>9</sup>And he dreamed still another dream, and told it to his brothers. And he said, Behold, I have dreamed another dream. And behold, the sun and the moon and the eleven stars bowed down to me. <sup>10</sup>And he told it to his father and to his brothers. And his father rebuked him and said to him, What is this dream that you have dreamed? Shall I, and your mother, and your brothers indeed come to bow down ourselves to the earth before you? <sup>11</sup>And his brothers were jealous of him. But his father observed the saying.

<sup>12</sup>And his brothers went to feed his father's flock in Shechem. <sup>13</sup>And Israel said to Joseph, Do not your brothers feed the flock in Shechem? Come, and I will send you to them. And he said to him, Here I am. <sup>14</sup>And he said to him, please go see whether it is well with your brothers and well with the flocks. And bring me word again. And he sent him out of the valley of Hebron, and he came to Shechem. <sup>15</sup>And a certain man found him, and, behold, he was wandering in the field. And the man asked him, saying, What are you looking for? <sup>16</sup>And he said, I am seeking for my brothers. Please tell me where they are feeding? <sup>17</sup>And the man said, They are gone from here, for I heard them say, Let us go to Dothan. And Joseph went after his brothers, and found them in Dothan. <sup>18</sup>And when they saw him afar off, even before he came near them, they conspired against him to kill him. <sup>19</sup>And they said to one another, Behold, this dreamer comes. <sup>20</sup>Therefore come now, and let us kill him, and throw him into some pit, and we will say some evil beast has devoured him. And we shall see what will become of his dreams.

<sup>21</sup>And Reuben heard, and he delivered him out of their hands and said, Let us not kill him. <sup>22</sup>And Reuben said to them, Shed no blood. Throw him into this pit in the wilderness, and lay no hand upon him (in order to rescue him out of their hands, to deliver him to his father again). <sup>23</sup>And when Joseph had come to his brothers, they stripped Joseph out of his coat, the coat reaching to the feet that was on him. <sup>24</sup>And they took him and threw him into a pit. And the pit was empty, with no water in it. <sup>25</sup>And they sat down to eat bread. And they lifted up their eyes, and looked. And behold, a company of Ishmaelites came from Gilead, with their camels bearing spices and balm and myrrh, going to carry it down to Egypt. <sup>26</sup>And Judah said to his brothers, What profit is it if we should kill our brother and hide his blood? <sup>27</sup>Come, let us sell him to the Ishmaelites, and let not our hand be upon him. For he is our brother, and our flesh. And his brothers listened. <sup>28</sup>And men, Midianites traders, came by. And they drew up Joseph and took him out of the pit, and sold Joseph to the Ishmaelites for twenty pieces of silver. And they brought Joseph into Egypt.

<sup>29</sup>And Reuben returned to the pit. And behold! Joseph was not in the pit! And he tore his clothes. <sup>30</sup>And he returned to his brothers and said, The child, he is not. And I, where shall I go? <sup>31</sup>And they took Joseph's coat, and killed a kid of the goats, and dipped the coat in the blood. <sup>32</sup>And they sent the coat reaching to the feet, and they brought it to their father. And they said, We have found this. Do you know whether it is your son's coat or not? <sup>33</sup>And he knew it, and said, It is my son's coat. An evil beast has eaten him. Joseph is without doubt torn in pieces.

<sup>34</sup>And Jacob tore his clothes, and put sackcloth upon his loins, and mourned for his son many days. <sup>35</sup>And all his sons, and all his daughters, rose up to comfort him. But he refused to be comforted. And he said, For I will go down into the grave to my son mourning. And his father wept for him.

<sup>36</sup>And the Midianites sold him into Egypt to Potiphar, a eunuch of Pharaoh, the chief of the executioners.

CHAPTER 38

<sup>1</sup>And it happened at that time Judah went down from his brothers and turned in to a certain Adullamite, named Hirah. <sup>2</sup>And Judah saw there a daughter of a certain Canaanite man named Shuah. And he took her and went in to her. <sup>3</sup>And she conceived and bore a son. And he called his name Er. <sup>4</sup>And she conceived again, and bore a son, and she called his name Onan. <sup>5</sup>And she yet again conceived and bore a son. And she called his name Shelah. And she was at Chezib when she bore him. <sup>6</sup>And Judah took a wife for Er his firstborn, whose name was Tamar. <sup>7</sup>And Er, Judah's firstborn, was wicked in the sight of the LORD. And the LORD killed him. <sup>8</sup>And Judah said to Onan, Go in to your brother's wife, and marry her, and raise up seed to your brother. <sup>9</sup>And Onan knew that the seed would not be his. And it happened when he went in to his brother's wife, that he spilled on the ground, lest he should give seed to his brother. <sup>10</sup>And what he did was evil in the eyes of the LORD. Therefore He killed him also. <sup>11</sup>Then said Judah to Tamar, his daughter-in-law, Remain a widow at your father's house until Shelah my son is grown. For he said, Lest perhaps he die also, as his brothers did. And Tamar went and lived in her father's house.

<sup>12</sup>And the days were many, and Judah's wife, the daughter of Shuah, died. And Judah was comforted, and went up to his shearers of his sheep, he and his friend Hiram of Adullam, to Timnah. <sup>13</sup>And it was told to Tamar, saying, Behold, your father-in-law goes up to Timnah to shear his sheep. <sup>14</sup>And she put off her widow's clothes, and covered herself with a veil, and wrapped herself. And she sat in an open place, which is by the way to Timnah. For she saw that Shelah was grown and she was not given to him as wife. <sup>15</sup>When Judah saw her, he thought she was a harlot, because she had covered her face. <sup>16</sup>And he turned aside to her by the wayside, and said, Come now, let me come in to you. For he did not know that she was his daughter-in-law. And she said, What will you give me, so that you may come in to me? <sup>17</sup>And he said, I will send a kid of the goats from the flock. And she said, Will you give a pledge until you send it? <sup>18</sup>And he said, What pledge shall I give you? And she said, Your signet, and your bracelet, and your staff that is in your hand. And he gave to her, and came in to her, and she conceived by him. <sup>19</sup>And she arose, and went away, and laid away her veil from her, and put on the clothes of her widowhood.

<sup>20</sup>And Judah sent the kid of the goats by the hand of his friend the Adullamite, to receive his pledge from the woman's hand. But he did not find her. <sup>21</sup>Then he asked the men of that place, saying, Where is the harlot who was by the wayside? And they said, There was no harlot here. <sup>22</sup>And he returned to Judah, and said, I cannot find her. And also the men of the place said, There was no harlot here. <sup>23</sup>And Judah said, Let her take it to her, lest we be ashamed. Behold, I sent this kid, and you have not found her.

<sup>24</sup>And it happened, about three months afterward, that it was told Judah, saying, Your daughter-in-law Tamar has played the harlot, and also, behold, she is with child by whoredom. And Judah said, Bring her forth, and let her be burned. <sup>25</sup>When she was brought forth, she sent to her father-in-law, saying, I am with child by the man whose things these are. And she said, Please observe. Whose things are these, the signet, and bracelets, and staff? <sup>26</sup>And Judah acknowledged them, and said, She has been more righteous than I have, because I did not give her to my son Shelah. And he never knew her again.

<sup>27</sup>And it happened, in the time of her travail, behold, twins were in her womb. <sup>28</sup>And when she travailed, it happened that one put out a hand. And the midwife took and bound upon his hand a scarlet thread, saying, This one came out first. <sup>29</sup>And it happened as he drew back his hand, behold, his brother came out. And she said, How have you broken a break for yourself? And his name was called Pharez. <sup>30</sup>And afterwards his brother came out, on whose hand was the scarlet thread. And his name was called Zarah.

CHAPTER 39

<sup>1</sup>And Joseph was brought down to Egypt. And Potiphar, a eunuch of Pharaoh, the chief of the executioners, an Egyptian man, bought him from the Ishmaelites who had brought him down there. <sup>2</sup>And the LORD was with Joseph, and he was a prosperous man. And he was in the house of his master the Egyptian. <sup>3</sup>And his master saw that the LORD was with him, and that the LORD made all he did to prosper in his hand. <sup>4</sup>And Joseph found grace in his sight, and he served him. And he made him overseer over his house, and he put into his hand all he had. <sup>5</sup>And it happened from the time that he had made him overseer in his house, and over all he had, that the LORD blessed the Egyptian's house for Joseph's sake. And the blessing of the LORD was upon all that he had, in the house and in the field. <sup>6</sup>And he left all that he had in Joseph's hand. And he did not know anything that he had, except the bread which he ate. And Joseph was beautiful in form and in appearance.

<sup>7</sup>And after these things it happened that his master's wife cast her eyes upon Joseph. And she said, Lie with me. <sup>8</sup>But he refused and said to his master's wife, Behold, my master does not know what is in the house with me, and he has given all that he has into my hand. <sup>9</sup>There is none greater in this house than I. Neither has he kept back anything from me except you, because you are his wife. How then can I do this great wickedness, and sin against God? <sup>10</sup>And it happened as she spoke to Joseph day by day, that he did not listen to her to lie with her or to be with her. <sup>11</sup>And it happened about this time that he came into the house to do his work. And none of the men of the house were inside. <sup>12</sup>And she caught him by his robe, saying, Lie with me. And he left his robe in her hand and fled, and got out. <sup>13</sup>And it happened when she saw that he had left his robe in her hand, and had fled, <sup>14</sup>she called to the men of her house and spoke to them, saying, See, he has brought in a Hebrew to us to mock us. He came in to me, to lie with me, and I cried with a loud voice. <sup>15</sup>And when he heard that I lifted up my voice and cried, he left his robe with me, and fled, and got out. <sup>16</sup>And she laid up his robe beside her until his lord came home. <sup>17</sup>And she spoke to him according to these words, saying, The Hebrew servant which you have brought to us came in to me to mock me. <sup>18</sup>And it happened as I lifted up my voice and cried, that he left his robe with me and ran out.

<sup>19</sup>And it happened when his master heard the words of his wife which she spoke to him, saying, Your servant did this to me, his wrath was kindled. <sup>20</sup>And Joseph's master took him and put him in the prison, a place where the king's prisoners were bound. And he was there in the prison. <sup>21</sup>But the LORD was with Joseph, and showed him mercy, and gave him favor in the sight of the keeper of the prison. <sup>22</sup>And the keeper of the prison gave all the prisoners in the prison into Joseph's hand. And whatever they did there, he was the doer of it. <sup>23</sup>The keeper of the prison did not look to anything under his hand, because the LORD was with him; and whatever he did, the LORD made it to prosper.

CHAPTER 40

<sup>1</sup>And after these things it happened that the cup-bearer of the king of Egypt, and his baker, had offended their lord the king of Egypt. <sup>2</sup>And Pharaoh was angry against two of his officers, against the chief of the cup-bearers and against the chief of the bakers. <sup>3</sup>And he put them under guard in the house of the chief of the executioners, into the prison, the place where Joseph was bound. <sup>4</sup>And the chief of the executioners charged Joseph with them, and he served them. And they continued for a time under guard. <sup>5</sup>And they dreamed a dream, both of them, each man his dream in one night, each man according to the interpretation of his dream, the cup-bearer and the baker of the king of Egypt, who were bound in the prison. <sup>6</sup>And Joseph came in to them in the morning, and looked upon them, and behold, they were sad. <sup>7</sup>And he asked Pharaoh's officers who were with him under guard in his lord's house, saying, Why are your faces sad today? <sup>8</sup>And they said to him, We have dreamed a dream, and there is no interpreter of it. And Joseph said to them, Do not interpretations belong to God? Now tell it to me. <sup>9</sup>And the chief cup-bearer told his dream to Joseph, and said to him, In my dream, behold, a vine was before me. <sup>10</sup>And in the vine were three branches. And it was as if it budded, and its blossom shot up. And the clusters of it brought forth ripe grapes. <sup>11</sup>And Pharaoh's cup was in my hand. And I took the grapes and pressed them into Pharaoh's cup, and I gave the cup into Pharaoh's hand. <sup>12</sup>And Joseph said to him, This is the interpretation of it. The three branches are three days. <sup>13</sup>Yet within three days Pharaoh shall lift up your head and restore you to your place. And you shall deliver Pharaoh's cup into his hand, just as you did when you were his cup-bearer. <sup>14</sup>But think on me when it is well with you, and please show kindness to me, and make mention of me to Pharaoh, and bring me out of this house. <sup>15</sup>For indeed I was stolen away out of the land of the Hebrews, and here also have I done nothing that they should put me into the dungeon.

<sup>16</sup>When the chief baker saw the interpretation was good, he said to Joseph, I also was in my dream, and behold! Three white baskets were on my head. <sup>17</sup>And in the top basket were all kinds of baked foods for Pharaoh. And the birds ate them out of the basket upon my head. <sup>18</sup>And Joseph answered and said, This is the interpretation of it. The three baskets are three days. <sup>19</sup>Yet within three days Pharaoh shall lift up your head from off you, and shall hang you on a tree. And the birds shall eat your flesh from off you.

<sup>20</sup>And it happened on the third day, Pharaoh's birthday, that he made a feast to all his servants. And he lifted up the head of the chief cup-bearer, and of the chief baker, among his servants. <sup>21</sup>And he restored the chief cup-bearer back into his cup-bearership again. And he gave the cup into Pharaoh's hand. <sup>22</sup>But he hanged the chief baker, even as Joseph had interpreted to them. <sup>23</sup>Yet the chief cup-bearer did not remember Joseph, but forgot him.

<sup>1</sup>And it happened at the end of two years of days, Pharaoh dreamed. And behold, he stood by the river. <sup>2</sup>And behold! There came up out of the river seven cows beautiful of form, and fat of flesh. And they fed in the reeds! <sup>3</sup>And behold! Seven other cows came up after them out of the river, evil in appearance, and lean of flesh! And they stood by the other cows on the river bank. <sup>4</sup>And the evil-appearing and lean-fleshed cows ate up the seven beautifully formed and fat cows. So Pharaoh awoke. <sup>5</sup>And he slept and dreamed the second time. And behold! Seven ears of corn came up on one stock, fat and good! <sup>6</sup>And behold!

Seven thin ears, and blasted with the east wind, sprang up after them! <sup>7</sup>And the seven thin ears devoured the seven fat and full ears. And Pharaoh awoke, and behold, it was a dream. <sup>8</sup>And it happened in the morning that his spirit was troubled, and he sent and called for all the magicians of Egypt, and all the wise men of it. And Pharaoh told them his dream, but there was none who could interpret them to Pharaoh.

<sup>9</sup>Then the chief cup-bearer spoke to Pharaoh, saying, I remember my fault this day. <sup>10</sup>Pharaoh was angry with his servants, and put me under guard in the chief of the executioner's house, me and the chief baker. <sup>11</sup>And we dreamed a dream one night, he and I. We dreamed each man according to the interpretation of his dream. <sup>12</sup>And there was there with us a young man, a Hebrew, a slave to the chief of the executioners. And we told him, and he interpreted our dreams to us. He interpreted to each man according to his dream. <sup>13</sup>And as he interpreted to us, so it was. He restored me to my office, and he hanged him.

<sup>14</sup>Then Pharaoh sent and called Joseph. And they hurried him out of the dungeon. And he shaved and changed his clothing, and came in to Pharaoh. <sup>15</sup>And Pharaoh said to Joseph, I have dreamed a dream, and none can interpret it. And I have heard it said of you that you can understand a dream to interpret it. <sup>16</sup>And Joseph answered Pharaoh, saying, Not I. God shall give Pharaoh an answer of peace.

<sup>17</sup>And Pharaoh said to Joseph, In my dream, behold! I stood upon the bank of the river. <sup>18</sup>And behold, there came up out of the river seven cows, beautiful in appearance and fat of flesh. And they fed in the reeds. <sup>19</sup>And behold, seven other cows came up after them, poor and evil of appearance, and lean of flesh, such as I never saw in all the land of Egypt for badness. <sup>20</sup>And the lean and the evil-appearing cows ate up the first seven fat cows. <sup>21</sup>And when they had eaten them up, it could not be known that they had eaten them; but they were still evil of appearance, as at the beginning. And I awoke. <sup>22</sup>And I saw in my dream, and behold, seven ears came up in one stock, full and good. <sup>23</sup>And behold, seven ears, withered, thin, blasted with the east wind, sprang up after them. <sup>24</sup>And the thin ears devoured the seven good ears. And I spoke to the magicians, but there was none that could open it to me.

<sup>25</sup>And Joseph said to Pharaoh, The dream of Pharaoh is one. God has shown Pharaoh what He is about to do. <sup>26</sup>The seven good cows are seven years. And the seven good ears are seven years. The dream is one. <sup>27</sup>And the seven thin and evil-appearing cows that came up after them are seven years. And the seven empty ears blasted with the east wind shall be seven years of famine. <sup>28</sup>This is the thing which God has spoken to Pharaoh; what God is about to do, He shows to Pharaoh.

<sup>29</sup>Behold, there are coming seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. <sup>30</sup>And there shall arise after them seven years of famine. And all the plenty shall be forgotten in the land of Egypt, and the famine shall consume the land. <sup>31</sup>And the plenty shall not be known in the land because of the famine following; for it shall be very grievous. <sup>32</sup>And since the dream was repeated to Pharaoh twice, it is because the thing is established by God, and God will shortly bring it to pass. <sup>33</sup>Now therefore let Pharaoh look for a man who is discreet and wise, and set him over the land of Egypt. <sup>34</sup>Let Pharaoh act, and let him appoint officers over the land, and take up the fifth part of the land of Egypt in the seven plenteous years. <sup>35</sup>And let them gather all the food of those good years that come, and lay up grain under the hand of Pharaoh, and let them keep food in the cities. <sup>36</sup>That food shall be for a store to the land against the seven years of famine, which shall be in the land of Egypt, so that the land does not perish through the famine.

<sup>37</sup>And the thing was good in the eyes of Pharaoh, and in the eyes of all his servants. <sup>38</sup>And Pharaoh said to his servants, Can we find any man like this, in whom the Spirit of God is? <sup>39</sup>And Pharaoh said to Joseph, Since God has shown you all this, none is as discreet and wise as you. <sup>40</sup>You shall be over my house, and all my people shall kiss the hand at your word. Only in the throne will I be greater than you are. <sup>41</sup>And Pharaoh said to Joseph, See, I have set you over all the land of Egypt. <sup>42</sup>And Pharaoh took off his ring from his hand, and put it upon Joseph's hand. And he dressed him with fine linen robes, and put a gold chain around his neck. <sup>43</sup>And he made him to ride in the second chariot which he had, and they cried before him, Bow the knee! And he made him ruler over all the land of Egypt. <sup>44</sup>And Pharaoh said to Joseph, I am Pharaoh, and without a word from you, no man shall lift up his hand or foot in all the land of Egypt. <sup>45</sup>And Pharaoh called Joseph's name Zaphenath-paaneah. And he gave him Asenath, the daughter of Potipherah, priest of On, for his wife. And Joseph went out over the land of Egypt.

<sup>46</sup>And Joseph was thirty years old when he stood before Pharaoh king of Egypt. And Joseph went out from before Pharaoh, and went throughout all the land of Egypt. <sup>47</sup>And in the seven years of plenty, the earth brought forth by handfuls. <sup>48</sup>And he gathered up all the food of the seven years which were in the land of Egypt, and laid up food in the cities. He laid up the food of the field which was around every city; he put it in among it. <sup>49</sup>And Joseph gathered grain like the sand of the sea, very much, until he quit numbering it; for it was without number.

<sup>50</sup>And two sons were born to Joseph before the years of famine came, whom Asenath the daughter of Potipherah priest of On bore to him. <sup>51</sup>And Joseph called the name of the firstborn Manasseh, saying, For God has made me forget all my toil and all my father's house. <sup>52</sup>And the name of the second he called Ephraim, saying, For God has caused me to be fruitful in the land of my affliction.

<sup>53</sup>And the seven years of plenty that was in the land of Egypt ended. <sup>54</sup>And the seven years of famine began to come, according as Joseph had said. And the famine was in all lands, but in all the land of Egypt there was bread. <sup>55</sup>And when all the land of Egypt was famished, the people cried to Pharaoh for bread. And Pharaoh said to all the Egyptians, Go to Joseph. What he says to you, do. <sup>56</sup>And the famine was over all the face of the earth. And Joseph opened all the storehouses, and sold to the Egyptians. And the famine was on the land of Egypt. <sup>57</sup>And all the earth came into Egypt to buy, to Joseph, because the famine was severe in all the earth.

CHAPTER 42

<sup>1</sup>And when Jacob saw that there was grain in Egypt, Jacob said to his sons, Why do you look upon one another? <sup>2</sup>And he said, Behold, I have heard that there is grain in Egypt. Go down there and buy for us from there, so that we may live and not die. <sup>3</sup>And Joseph's ten brothers went down to buy grain in Egypt. <sup>4</sup>But Benjamin, Joseph's brother, Jacob did not send with his brothers. For he said, Lest perhaps mischief happen to him.

<sup>5</sup>And the sons of Israel came to buy among those that came, for the famine was in the land of Canaan. <sup>6</sup>And Joseph was the ruler over the land. He was the one that sold to all the people of the land. And Joseph's brothers came and bowed down themselves before him, their faces to the earth. <sup>7</sup>And Joseph saw his brothers, and he knew them, but made himself strange to them, and spoke roughly to them. And he said to them, Where do you come from? And they said, From the land of Canaan to buy food. <sup>8</sup>And Joseph knew his brothers, but they did not know him. <sup>9</sup>And Joseph remembered the dreams which he dreamed of them, and said to them, You are spies! You have come to see the nakedness of the land.

<sup>10</sup>And they said to him, No, my lord, but your servants have come to buy food. <sup>11</sup>We are all one man's sons. We are honest; your servants are not spies. <sup>12</sup>And he said to them, No, but you have come to see the nakedness of the land. <sup>13</sup>And they said, Your servants are twelve brothers, the sons of one man in the land of Canaan. And behold, the youngest is this day with our father, and one is not. <sup>14</sup>And Joseph said to them, That is what I spoke to you, saying, You are spies! <sup>15</sup>By this you shall be proved; by the life of Pharaoh you shall not go forth from here unless your youngest brother comes here. <sup>16</sup>Send one of you, and let him bring your brother, and you shall be kept in prison so that your words may be proved, whether any truth is in you. Or else, by the life of Pharaoh, surely you are spies. <sup>17</sup>And he put them all together into custody three days.

<sup>18</sup>And Joseph said to them the third day, Do this and live. I fear God. <sup>19</sup>If you are honest, let one of your brothers be bound in the house of your prison. You go carry grain for the famine of your houses. <sup>20</sup>But bring your youngest brother to me, so that your words shall be proved true, and you shall not die. And they did so. <sup>21</sup>And they said one to another, We are truly guilty concerning our brother, in that we saw the anguish of his soul when he begged us, and we would not hear. Therefore this distress has come upon us. <sup>22</sup>And Reuben answered them, saying, Did I not speak to you saying, Do not sin against the youth? And you would not hear. Therefore, behold, also his blood is required. <sup>23</sup>And they did not know that Joseph understood, for the interpreter was between them. <sup>24</sup>And he turned from them, and wept. And he returned to them again and talked with them, and took Simeon from them and bound him before their eyes. <sup>25</sup>Then Joseph commanded their sacks to be filled with grain, and that every man's money be put back into his sack, and to give them provision for the way. And so he did to them.

<sup>26</sup>And they loaded their asses with grain, and departed from there. <sup>27</sup>And as one of them opened his sack to give his ass fodder in the inn, he saw his money. For, behold, it was in the mouth of the sack. <sup>28</sup>And he said to his brothers, My money has been put back. And, lo, it is even in my sack. And their hearts failed, and they were afraid, saying to one another, What is this God has done to us?

<sup>29</sup>And they came to Jacob their father, to the land of Canaan, and told him all that happened to them, saying, <sup>30</sup>The man, the lord of the land, spoke roughly to us, and took us for spies of the country. <sup>31</sup>And we said to him, We are honest, we are not spies. <sup>32</sup>We are twelve brothers, sons of our father. One is not, and the youngest is this day with our father in the land of Canaan. <sup>33</sup>And the man, the lord of the country, said to us, By this I shall know that you are honest. Leave one, your brother, with me, and take food for the famine of your households, and go. <sup>34</sup>And bring your youngest brother to me. Then I shall know that you are not spies, but that you are honest. And I will deliver you your brother, and you shall trade in the land.

<sup>35</sup>And when they emptied their sacks, behold, every man's bundle of money was in his sack. And when they and their father saw the bundles of money, they were afraid. <sup>36</sup>And Jacob their father said to them, You have bereaved me. Joseph is not, and Simeon is not, and you will take Benjamin. All these things are against me. <sup>37</sup>And Reuben spoke to his father, saying, Kill my two sons if I do not bring him to you. Deliver him into my hand, and I will bring him to you again. <sup>38</sup>And he said, My son shall not go down with you. For his brother is dead, and he is left alone. If mischief should happen to him by the way you go, then you shall bring down my gray hairs with sorrow to the grave.

CHAPTER 43

<sup>1</sup>And the famine was severe in the land. <sup>2</sup>And it happened, when they had eaten up the grain which they had brought out of Egypt, their father said to them, Go again, buy us a little food. <sup>3</sup>And Judah spoke to him, saying, The man solemnly protested to us, saying, You shall not see my face unless your brother is with you. <sup>4</sup>If you will send our brother with us, we will go down and buy you food. <sup>5</sup>But if you will not send him, we will not go down. For the man said to us, You shall not see my face unless your brother is with you. <sup>6</sup>And Israel said, Why have you dealt ill with me, to tell the man whether you had yet a brother? <sup>7</sup>And they said, The man asked us strictly of our state and of our kindred, saying, Is your father still alive? Have you yet another brother? And we told him according to the tenor of these words. Could we certainly know that he would say, Bring your brother down? <sup>8</sup>And Judah said to Israel his father, Send the boy with me, and we will arise and go, so that we may live and not die, both we and you, also our little ones. <sup>9</sup>I will be surety for him. You shall require him of my hand. If I do not bring him to you and set him before you, then let me bear the blame forever. <sup>10</sup>For unless we had lingered, surely now we would have returned the second time. <sup>11</sup>And their father Israel said to them, If it be so now, do this. Take of the best fruits of the land in your vessels, and bring a present down to the man; a little balm, and a little honey, spices, and myrrh, nuts, and almonds. <sup>12</sup>And take double money in your hand, and the money that was brought again in the mouth of your sacks, carry it again in your hand. Perhaps it was an oversight. <sup>13</sup>Take also your brother, and arise, go again to the man. <sup>14</sup>And God Almighty give you mercy before the man, so that he may send away your other brother and Benjamin. If I am bereaved, I am bereaved.

<sup>15</sup>And the men took that present, and they took double money in their hand, and Benjamin. And they rose up and went down to Egypt, and stood before Joseph. <sup>16</sup>And when Joseph saw Benjamin with them, he said to the ruler of his house, Bring the men into the house, and kill an animal and make ready. For the men shall dine with me at noon. <sup>17</sup>And the man did as Joseph said. And the man brought the men into Joseph's house. <sup>18</sup>And the men were afraid, because they were brought into Joseph's house. And they said, Because of the money that was returned in our sacks at the first time we are brought in, so that he may seek occasion against us, and fall upon us, and take us for bondmen, and our asses. <sup>19</sup>And they came near to the steward of Joseph's house, and they talked with him at the door of the house, <sup>20</sup>and said, Oh sir, we indeed came down the first time to buy food. <sup>21</sup>And it happened, when we came to the inn, that we opened our sacks, and, behold, every man's money was in the mouth of his sack, our money in full weight. And we have brought it again in our hands. <sup>22</sup>And we have brought down other money in our hands to buy food. We cannot tell who put our money in our sacks. <sup>23</sup>And he said, Peace to you, do not fear. Your God, and the God of your father, has given you treasure in your sacks. I had your money. And he brought Simeon out to them.

<sup>24</sup>And the man brought the men into Joseph's house, and gave them water, and they washed their feet. And he gave fodder to their asses. <sup>25</sup>And they made ready the presents for the coming of Joseph at noon. For they heard that they should eat bread there. <sup>26</sup>And when Joseph came home, they brought him the present in their hand into the house, and bowed themselves to him to the earth. <sup>27</sup>And he asked them as to their welfare, and said, Is your father well, the old man of whom you spoke? Is he still alive? <sup>28</sup>And they answered, Your servant, our father, is in good health. He is still alive. And they bowed down their heads and fell before him. <sup>29</sup>And he lifted up his eyes, and saw his brother Benjamin, his mother's son, and said, Is this your younger brother of whom you spoke to me? And he said, God bless you, my son. <sup>30</sup>And Joseph made haste, for his bowels yearned toward his brother. And he sought a place to weep. And he entered into his room and wept there. <sup>31</sup>And he washed his face, and went out, and controlled himself, and said, Set the bread on. <sup>32</sup>And they set it on for him by himself, and for them by themselves, and for the Egyptians who ate with him, by themselves, because the Egyptians may not eat bread with the Hebrews; for that is an abomination to the Egyptians. <sup>33</sup>And they sat before him, the firstborn according to his birthright, and the youngest according to his youth. And the men marveled at one another. <sup>34</sup>And one took portions to them from before him. But Benjamin's portion was five times as much as any of theirs. And they drank, and were merry with him.

CHAPTER 44

<sup>1</sup>And he commanded the steward of his house, saying, Fill the men's sacks with food, as much as they can carry, and put each one's money in his sack's mouth. <sup>2</sup>And put my cup, the silver cup, in the mouth of the sack of the youngest, and his grain money. And he did according to the word that Joseph had spoken. <sup>3</sup>As soon as the morning was light, the men were sent away, they and their asses. <sup>4</sup>They had gone out of the city, not having gone far. And Joseph said to his steward, Rise up, follow after the men and overtake them, and say to them, Why have you rewarded evil for good? <sup>5</sup>Is this not that in which my lord drinks, and by which indeed he divines? You have done evil in so doing.

<sup>6</sup>And he overtook them, and he spoke to them these words. <sup>7</sup>And they said to him, Why does your lord say these words? Far be it that your servants should do according to this thing. <sup>8</sup>Behold, the money which we found in our sack's mouth, we brought it in to you out of the land of Canaan. How then should we steal out of your lord's house silver or gold? <sup>9</sup>With whomever of your servants it may be found, both let him die, and we all will be my lord's bondmen. <sup>10</sup>And he said, Now also let it be according to your word. He with whom it is found shall be my servant, and you shall be blameless. <sup>11</sup>Then they speedily took down every man his sack to the ground, and each one opened his sack. <sup>12</sup>And he searched first at the oldest and with the youngest last. And the cup was found in Benjamin's sack.

<sup>13</sup>Then they tore their clothes, and each one loaded his ass and returned to the city. <sup>14</sup>And Judah and his brothers came to Joseph's house, for he was still there. And they fell before him to the earth. <sup>15</sup>And Joseph said to them, What deed is this that you have done? Do you not know that one like me I can certainly divine? <sup>16</sup>And Judah said, What shall we say to my lord? What shall we speak? Or how shall we clear ourselves? God has found out the iniquity of your servants. Behold, we are my lord's servants, both we and he also with whom the cup is found. <sup>17</sup>And he said, God forbid that I should do so. The man in whose hand the cup is found, he shall be my servant. And as for you, you go in peace to your father.

<sup>18</sup>And Judah came near him and said, O my lord, pray let your servant speak a word in my lord's ears, and do not let your anger burn against your servant, for you are even as Pharaoh. <sup>19</sup>My lord asked his servants, saying, Do you have a father or a brother? <sup>20</sup>And we said to my lord, We have a father, an old man, and a child of his old age, a little one. And his brother is dead, and he alone is left of his mother, and his father loves him. <sup>21</sup>And you said to your servants, Bring him down to me, that I may set my eyes upon him. <sup>22</sup>And we said to my lord, The boy cannot leave his father, for if he should leave his father, he would die. <sup>23</sup>And you said to your servants, Unless your youngest brother comes down with you, you shall see my face no more. <sup>24</sup>And it happened when we came up to your servant my father, we told him the words of my lord. <sup>25</sup>And our father said, Go again. Buy us a little food. <sup>26</sup>And we said, We cannot go down. If our youngest brother is with us, then we will go down, for we may not see the man's face unless our youngest brother is with us. <sup>27</sup>And your servant my father said to us, You know that my wife bore me two sons. <sup>28</sup>And the one went out from me, and I said, Surely he is torn in pieces. And I never saw him since. <sup>29</sup>And if you take this one also from me, and mischief befall him, you shall bring down my gray hairs with sorrow to the grave. <sup>30</sup>And now when I come to your servant my father, and the boy is not with us, since his life is bound up in his life, <sup>31</sup>it shall be, when he sees that the boy is not with us, he will die. And your servants shall bring down the gray hairs of your servant our father with sorrow to the grave. <sup>32</sup>For your servant became surety for the boy to my father, saying, If I do not bring him to you, then I shall bear the blame to my father forever. <sup>33</sup>And now please let your servant remain instead of the boy as a slave to my lord. And let the boy go up with his brothers. <sup>34</sup>For how shall I go up to my father, and the boy be not with me? Lest perhaps I see the evil that will find my father.

CHAPTER 45

<sup>1</sup>Then Joseph could not control himself before all those who stood by him. And he cried, Cause every man to go out from me! And no man stood before him while Joseph made himself known to his brothers. <sup>2</sup>And he wept aloud. And the Egyptians and the house of Pharaoh heard. <sup>3</sup>And Joseph said to his brothers, I am Joseph. Is my father still live? And his brothers could not answer him, for they were troubled at his presence. <sup>4</sup>And Joseph said to his brothers, Please come near me. And they came near. And he said, I am Joseph your brother, whom you sold into Egypt. <sup>5</sup>And now do not be grieved, nor angry with yourselves that you sold me here. For God sent me before you to preserve life. <sup>6</sup>For these two years the famine has been in the land, and there are still five years in which there shall neither be plowing nor harvest. <sup>7</sup>And God sent me before you to preserve for you a remnant in the earth, and to save your lives by a great deliverance. <sup>8</sup>And now you did not send me here, but God. And He has made me a father to Pharaoh, and lord of all his house, and a ruler over all the land of Egypt. <sup>9</sup>Hurry and go up to my father and say to him, So says your son Joseph, God has made me lord of all Egypt. Come down to me, do not wait. <sup>10</sup>And you shall dwell in the land of Goshen, and you shall be near to me, you and your sons and your sons' sons, and your flocks, and your herds, and all that you have. <sup>11</sup>And I will nourish you there, for there are still five years of famine, lest you and your household, and all that you have, come to poverty. <sup>12</sup>And, behold, your eyes see, and the eyes of my brother Benjamin, that it is my mouth that speaks to you. <sup>13</sup>And you shall tell my father of all my glory in Egypt, and of all that you have seen. And you shall hurry and bring down my father here. <sup>14</sup>And he fell upon his brother Benjamin's neck, and wept. And Benjamin wept upon his neck. <sup>15</sup>And he kissed all his brothers, and wept upon them. And afterwards his brothers talked with him.

<sup>16</sup>And the report was heard in Pharaoh's house, saying, Joseph's brothers have come. And it was good in the eyes of Pharaoh, and of his servants. <sup>17</sup>And Pharaoh said to Joseph, Say to your brothers, Do this; load your beasts and go into the land of Canaan, <sup>18</sup>and take your father and your households and come to me. And I will give you the good of the land of Egypt, and you shall eat the fat of the land. <sup>19</sup>Now you are commanded; do this. Take wagons out of the land of Egypt for your little ones, and for your wives, and bring your father, and come. <sup>20</sup>And do not regard your stuff, for the good of all the land of Egypt is yours. <sup>21</sup>And the sons of Israel did so. And Joseph gave them wagons according to the command of Pharaoh, and gave them provision for the way.<sup>22</sup>To all of them he gave each man changes of clothing, but to Benjamin he gave three hundred pieces of silver, and five changes of clothing.<sup>23</sup>And to his father he sent this: ten asses loaded with the good things of Egypt, and ten she-asses loaded with grain and bread and meat for his father by the way.<sup>24</sup>And he sent his brothers away, and they departed. And he said to them, Do not quarrel along the way.<sup>25</sup>And they went up out of Egypt, and came to the land of Canaan, to Jacob their father.<sup>26</sup>And they told him, saying, Joseph is still alive, and he is governor over all the land of Egypt. And Jacob's heart fainted, for he did not believe them.<sup>27</sup>And they told him all the words of Joseph, which he had said to them. And when he saw the wagons which Joseph had sent to carry him, the spirit of Jacob their father revived.<sup>28</sup>And Israel said, It is enough. Joseph my son is still alive. I will go and see him before I die.

CHAPTER 46

<sup>1</sup>And Israel took his journey with all that he had, and came to Beer-sheba, and offered sacrifices to the God of his father Isaac.<sup>2</sup>And God spoke to Israel in the visions of the night, and said, Jacob, Jacob! And he said, Here I am.<sup>3</sup>And He said, I am God, the God of your fathers. Do not fear to go down into Egypt, for I will make of you a great nation.<sup>4</sup>I will go down with you into Egypt, and I will also surely bring you up again. And Joseph shall put his hand on your eyes.

<sup>5</sup>And Jacob rose up from Beer-sheba. And the sons of Israel carried Jacob their father, and their little ones, and their wives, in the wagons which Pharaoh had sent to carry him.<sup>6</sup>And they took their cattle, and their goods which they had gotten in the land of Canaan, and came into Egypt, Jacob and all his seed with him.<sup>7</sup>His sons, and his sons' sons with him, his daughters, and his sons' daughters, and all his seed, he brought with him into Egypt.

<sup>8</sup>And these are the names of the sons of Israel who came into Egypt, Jacob and his sons: Reuben, Jacob's firstborn.<sup>9</sup>And the sons of Reuben: Hanoch, and Phallu, and Hezron, and Carmi.<sup>10</sup>And the sons of Simeon: Jemuel, and Jamin, and Ohad, and Jachin, and Zohar, and Shaul, the son of a woman of Canaan.<sup>11</sup>And the sons of Levi: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.<sup>12</sup>And the sons of Judah: Er and Onan, and Shelah, and Pharez, and Zarah. But Er and Onan died in the land of Canaan. And the sons of Pharez: Hezron and Hamul.<sup>13</sup>And the sons of Issachar: Tola, and Phuvah, and Job, and Shimron.<sup>14</sup>And the sons of Zebulun: Sered and Elon and Jahleel.<sup>15</sup>These are the sons of Leah, whom she bore to Jacob in Padan-aram, with his daughter Dinah. All the souls of his sons and his daughters were thirty-three.

<sup>16</sup>And the sons of Gad were Ziphion, and Haggi, Shuni, and Ezbon, Eri, and Arodi, and Areli.<sup>17</sup>And the sons of Asher: Jimnah, and Ishuah, and Isui, and Beriah, and their sister Serah. And the sons of Beriah: Heber and Malchiel.<sup>18</sup>These are the sons of Zilpah, whom Laban gave to Leah his daughter, and these whom she bore to Jacob were sixteen souls.

<sup>19</sup>The sons of Rachel, Jacob's wife, were Joseph and Benjamin.<sup>20</sup>And to Joseph in the land of Egypt were born Manasseh and Ephraim, whom Asenath the daughter of Potipherah the priest of On bore him.<sup>21</sup>And the sons of Benjamin: Belah and Becher, and Ashbel, Gera, and Naaman, Ehi, and Rosh, Muphim, and Huphim, and Ard.<sup>22</sup>These are the sons of Rachel, who were born to Jacob. All the souls were fourteen.<sup>23</sup>And the sons of Dan: Hushim.<sup>24</sup>And the sons of Naphtali: Jahzeel, and Guni, and Jezer, and Shillem.<sup>25</sup>These were the sons of Bilhah, whom Laban gave to Rachel his daughter, and she bore these to Jacob. All the souls were seven.

<sup>26</sup>All the souls that came with Jacob into Egypt, who came out of his loins, besides Jacob's sons' wives, all the souls were sixty-six.<sup>27</sup>And the sons of Joseph, who were born to him in Egypt, were two souls. All the souls of the house of Jacob, who came into Egypt, were seventy.

<sup>28</sup>And he sent Judah before him to Joseph, to direct his face to Goshen. <sup>29</sup>And they came into the land of Goshen. And Joseph made his chariot ready, and went up to meet Israel his father, to Goshen, and presented himself to him. And he fell on his neck, and wept on his neck a good while. <sup>30</sup>And Israel said to Joseph, Now let me die, since I have seen your face, because you are still alive. <sup>31</sup>And Joseph said to his brothers and to his father's house, I will go up and show Pharaoh, and say to him, My brothers and my father's house, who were in the land of Canaan, have come to me. <sup>32</sup>And the men are shepherds, for they have been men of cattle. And they have brought their flocks and their herds and all that they have. <sup>33</sup>And it shall be when Pharaoh shall call you, and shall say, What is your occupation? <sup>34</sup>Then you shall say, Your servants have been men of cattle from our youth even until now, both we and our fathers, so that you may live in the land of Goshen, for every shepherd is an abomination to the Egyptians.

CHAPTER 47

<sup>1</sup>Then Joseph came and told Pharaoh, and said, My father and my brothers, and their flocks, and their herds, and all that they have, have come out of the land of Canaan. <sup>2</sup>And behold, they are in the land of Goshen. And he took some of his brothers, five men, and presented them to Pharaoh. <sup>3</sup>And Pharaoh said to his brothers, What is your occupation? And they said to Pharaoh, Your servants are shepherds, both we and our fathers. <sup>4</sup>They said moreover to Pharaoh, For we have come to live in the land. For your servants have no pasture left for their flocks. For the famine is severe in the land of Canaan. And now please let your servants dwell in the land of Goshen. <sup>5</sup>And Pharaoh spoke to Joseph, saying, Your father and your brothers have come to you. <sup>6</sup>The land of Egypt is before you. Make your father and brothers to live in the best of the land; in the land of Goshen let them live. And if you know of any men of ability among them, then make them overseers of livestock, over what is mine.

<sup>7</sup>And Joseph brought in Jacob his father, and set him before Pharaoh. And Jacob blessed Pharaoh. <sup>8</sup>And Pharaoh said to Jacob, How many are the days of the years of your life? <sup>9</sup>And Jacob said to Pharaoh, The days of the years of my pilgrimage are a hundred and thirty years. Few and evil have been the days of the years of my life, and I have not attained to the days of the years of the life of my fathers in the days of their pilgrimage. <sup>10</sup>And Jacob blessed Pharaoh, and went out from before Pharaoh. <sup>11</sup>And Joseph placed his father and his brothers, and gave them a possession in the land of Egypt, in the best of the land, in the land of Rameses, as Pharaoh commanded. <sup>12</sup>And Joseph nourished his father and his brothers, and all his father's household, with bread, according to their families.

<sup>13</sup>And there was no bread in all the land, for the famine was very severe, so that the land of Egypt and all the land of Canaan fainted because of the famine. <sup>14</sup>And Joseph gathered up all the money that was found in the land of Egypt, and in the land of Canaan, for the grain which they bought. And Joseph brought the money into Pharaoh's house. <sup>15</sup>And when money failed in the land of Egypt, and in the land of Canaan, all the Egyptians came to Joseph and said, Give us bread, for why should we die in your presence? For the money has failed. <sup>16</sup>And Joseph said, Give your cattle, and I will give you for your cattle, if money has failed. <sup>17</sup>And they brought their cattle to Joseph. And Joseph gave them bread for their horses, and for their flocks, and for the cattle of the herds, and for the asses. And he fed them with bread for all their cattle for that year. <sup>18</sup>When that year was ended, they came to him the second year and said, We will not hide it from my lord, that our money has failed, also our herds of cattle, going to my lord. Nothing is left in the sight of my lord, but our bodies and our lands. <sup>19</sup>Why should we die before your eyes, both we and our land? Buy us and our land for bread, and we and our land will be servants for Pharaoh. And give us seed, that we may live and not die, that the land be not desolate. <sup>20</sup>And Joseph bought all the land of Egypt for Pharaoh, for the Egyptians sold every man his field, because the famine prevailed over them and the land became Pharaoh's. <sup>21</sup>And as for the people, he caused them to go into the cities, from one end of the borders of Egypt even to the other end of it. <sup>22</sup>Only he did not buy the land of the priests, for the priests had a portion from Pharaoh, and ate their portion which Pharaoh gave them. Therefore they did not sell their land. <sup>23</sup>And Joseph said to the people, Behold, I have bought you this day, and your land, for Pharaoh. Lo, here is seed for you, and you shall sow the land. <sup>24</sup>And it shall be, as you gather you shall give the fifth part to Pharaoh, and four parts shall be your own, for seed of the field, and for your food, and for those of your household, and for food for your little ones. <sup>25</sup>And they said, You have saved our lives. Let us find grace in the sight of my lord, and we will be Pharaoh's servants. <sup>26</sup>And Joseph made it a law of the land of Egypt to this day, that Pharaoh should have the fifth part, excepting only the land of the priests, which did not become Pharaoh's.

<sup>27</sup>And Israel lived in the land of Egypt, in the country of Goshen. And they had possession in it, and grew, and multiplied exceedingly. <sup>28</sup>And Jacob lived in the land of Egypt seventeen years. And the days of Jacob, the years of his life, were a hundred forty-seven years. <sup>29</sup>And the days of Israel to die drew near. And he called his son Joseph, and said to him, If now I have found grace in your sight, please put your hand under my thigh and deal kindly and truly with me. Please do not bury me in Egypt. <sup>30</sup>But I will lie with my fathers. You shall carry me out of Egypt and bury me in their burying-place. And he said, I will do as you have said. <sup>31</sup>And he said, Swear to me. And he swore to him. And Israel bowed on the head of the bed.

<sup>1</sup>And it happened after these things, that one told Joseph, Behold, your father is sick. And he took with him his two sons, Manasseh and Ephraim. <sup>2</sup>And one spoke to Jacob, and said, Behold, your son Joseph comes to you. And Israel strengthened himself, and sat on the bed. <sup>3</sup>And Jacob said to Joseph, God Almighty appeared to me at Luz in the land of Canaan, and blessed me. <sup>4</sup>And He said to me; Behold, I will make you fruitful and multiply you. And I will make of you a multitude of people, and will give this land to your seed after you for an everlasting possession. <sup>5</sup>And now your two sons, Ephraim and Manasseh, who are born to you in the land of Egypt before I came to you into Egypt, are mine; like Reuben and Simeon, they shall be mine. <sup>6</sup>And your issue, which you father after them, shall be yours, and shall be called after the name of their brothers in their inheritance. <sup>7</sup>And as for me, when I came from Padan, Rachel died beside me in the land of Canaan in the way, when there was still but a little way to come to Ephrath. And I buried her there in the way of Ephrath; it is Bethlehem.

<sup>8</sup>And Israel beheld Joseph's sons, and said, Who are these? <sup>9</sup>And Joseph said to his father, They are my sons, whom God has given me in this place. And he said, please bring them to me, and I will bless them. <sup>10</sup>And the eyes of Israel were dim for age, so that he could not see. And he brought them near him, and he kissed them and embraced them. <sup>11</sup>And Israel said to Joseph, I had not thought I would see your face, and, lo, God has showed me also your seed. <sup>12</sup>And Joseph brought them out from between his knees, and he bowed his face to the earth.

<sup>14</sup>And Israel stretched out his right hand, and laid it on Ephraim's head, who was the younger, and his left on Manasseh's head, crossing his hands. For Manasseh was the firstborn. <sup>15</sup>And he blessed Joseph and said, May God, before whom my fathers Abraham and Isaac walked, the God who fed me all my life to this day, <sup>16</sup>the Angel who redeemed me from all evil, bless the lads. And let my name be named on them, and the name of my fathers Abraham and Isaac, and let them grow like the fishes into a multitude in the midst of the earth.

<sup>17</sup>And Joseph saw that his father laid his right hand on the head of Ephraim, and it was evil in his eyes. And he held up his father's hand to remove it from Ephraim's head to Manasseh's head. <sup>18</sup>And Joseph said to his father, Not so, my father. For this is the firstborn. Put your right hand on his head. <sup>19</sup>And his father refused and said, I know, my son, I know. He also shall become a people, and he also shall be great, but truly his younger brother shall be greater than he is, and his seed shall become a multitude of nations. <sup>20</sup>And he blessed them that day, saying, In you shall Israel bless, saying, God make you as Ephraim and as Manasseh. And he put Ephraim before Manasseh. <sup>21</sup>And Israel said to Joseph, Behold, I die. But God shall be with you, and bring you again into the land of your fathers. <sup>22</sup>And I have given to you one portion above your brothers, which I took out of the hand of the Amorite with my sword and with my bow.

CHAPTER 49

<sup>1</sup>And Jacob called to his sons and said, Gather yourselves together, that I may tell you what shall happen to you in the last days. <sup>2</sup>Gather yourselves together, and hear, sons of Jacob, and listen to Israel your father.

<sup>3</sup>Reuben, you are my firstborn, my might, and the beginning of my strength, the excellency of dignity and the excellency of power. <sup>4</sup>Unstable as water, you shall not excel, because you went up to your father's bed; then you defiled it. He went up to my couch.

<sup>8</sup>Judah, may your brothers praise you. May your hand be in the neck of your enemies. May your father's sons bow before you. <sup>9</sup>Judah is a lion's whelp. My son, you have gone up from the prey. He stooped, he crouched like a lion; and like a lioness, who shall rouse him up? <sup>10</sup>The scepter shall not depart from Judah, nor a Lawgiver from between his feet, until Shiloh come. And the gathering of the people shall be to him. <sup>11</sup>Binding his foal to the vine, and his ass's colt to the choice vine, he washed his garments in wine, and his clothes in the blood of grapes. <sup>12</sup>His eyes shall be sparkling with wine, and his teeth whiter than milk.

<sup>13</sup>Zebulun shall live at the shore of the sea. And he shall be a haven for ships, and his border beside Sidon.

<sup>14</sup>Issachar is a strong ass crouching down between the sheepfolds. <sup>15</sup>And he saw that rest was good and that the land was pleasant. And he bowed his shoulder to bear, and became a tribute-slave.

<sup>22</sup>Joseph is a fruitful son, a fruitful son by a well, whose branches run over the wall. <sup>23</sup>The archers have sorely grieved him, and shot at him, and hated him. <sup>24</sup>But his bow abode in strength, and the arms of his hands were made strong by the hands of the mighty God of Jacob (from the Shepherd, the Rock of Israel); <sup>25</sup>even by the God of your father, who shall help you. And may the Almighty bless you with blessings of Heaven above, blessings of the deep that lies under, blessings of the breasts and of the womb. <sup>26</sup>The blessings of your father are above the blessings of my ancestors, to the utmost bound of the everlasting hills. They shall be on the head of Joseph, and on the crown of the head of him, the ruler, the leader of his brothers.

<sup>27</sup>Benjamin is a wolf that tears in pieces. In the morning he shall devour the prey, and at night he shall divide the spoil.

<sup>28</sup>All these are the twelve tribes of Israel. And this is what their father spoke to them, and blessed them; everyone according to his blessing he blessed them.

<sup>29</sup>And he charged them and said to them, I am to be gathered to my people. Bury me with my fathers in the cave that is in the field of Ephron the Hittite, <sup>30</sup>in the cave that is in the field of Machpelah, which is before Mamre, in the land of Canaan, the field which Abraham bought from Ephron the Hittite for a burying-place. <sup>31</sup>They buried Abraham and his wife Sarah there, and they buried Isaac and his wife Rebekah. And I buried Leah there; <sup>32</sup>the purchase of the field and the cave in it, from the sons of Heth. <sup>33</sup>And Jacob finished commanding his sons, and he gathered his feet into the bed. And he expired, and was gathered to his people.

CHAPTER 50

<sup>1</sup>And Joseph fell on his father's face, and wept on him, and kissed him. <sup>2</sup>And Joseph commanded his servants the physicians to embalm his father. And the physicians embalmed Israel. <sup>3</sup>And forty days were fulfilled for him, for so are fulfilled the days of those who are embalmed. And the Egyptians mourned for him seventy days. <sup>4</sup>And when the days of his mourning were past, Joseph spoke to the house of Pharaoh, saying, If now I have found grace in your eyes, I pray you speak in the ears of Pharaoh saying, <sup>5</sup>My father made me swear, saying, Lo, I die. You shall bury me in my grave which I have dug for me in the land of Canaan. Now therefore, I pray you, let me go up and bury my father, and I will come again. <sup>6</sup>And Pharaoh said, Go up and bury your father, according as he made you swear. <sup>7</sup>And Joseph went up to bury his father. And all the servants of Pharaoh went up with him, the elders of his house, and all the elders of the land of Egypt, <sup>8</sup>and all the house of Joseph, and his brothers, and his father's house. They left only their little ones and their flocks and their herds in the land of Goshen. <sup>9</sup>And both chariots and horsemen went up with him. And it was a very great company. <sup>10</sup>And they came to the threshing-floor of Atad, beyond Jordan, and there they mourned with a great and very sore lamentation. And he made a mourning for his father seven days. <sup>11</sup>And when the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, saw the mourning in the floor of Atad, they said, This is a grievous mourning to the Egyptians. Therefore the name of it was called Abel-mizraim, which is beyond Jordan. <sup>12</sup>And his sons did to him according as he commanded them. <sup>13</sup>For his sons carried him to the land of Canaan, and buried him in the cave of the field of Machpelah, which Abraham bought with the field for a possession of a burying-place from Ephron the Hittite, before Mamre.

<sup>14</sup>And Joseph returned to Egypt, he and his brothers, and all that went up with him to bury his father, after he had buried his father. <sup>15</sup>And when Joseph's brothers saw that their father was dead, they said, Joseph will perhaps hate us, and will certainly repay us all the evil which we did to him. <sup>16</sup>And they sent a messenger to Joseph, saying, Your father commanded before he died, saying, <sup>17</sup>So shall you say to Joseph, Forgive; please pardon now the trespass of your brothers, and their sin. For they did evil to you. And please forgive now the trespass of the servants of the God of your father. And Joseph wept when they spoke to him. <sup>18</sup>And his brothers also went and fell down before his face. And they said, Behold, we are your servants. <sup>19</sup>And Joseph said to them, Do not fear. For am I in the place of God? <sup>20</sup>But as for you, you thought evil against me, but God meant it for good, to bring to pass, as it is this day, to save a great many people alive. <sup>21</sup>And now do not fear. I will nourish you and your little ones. And he comforted them, and spoke kindly to them.

<sup>22</sup>And Joseph lived in Egypt, he and his father's house. And Joseph lived a hundred and ten years. <sup>23</sup>And Joseph saw Ephraim's sons of the third generation. Also the sons of Machir the son of Manasseh were born on Joseph's knees. <sup>24</sup>And Joseph said to his brothers, I die. And God will surely visit you, and bring you out of this land into the land which He swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob. <sup>25</sup>And Joseph took an oath of the sons of Israel, saying, God will surely visit you, and you shall carry up my bones from here. <sup>26</sup>So Joseph died, being a hundred and ten years old. And they embalmed him, and put him in a coffin in Egypt.

THE BOOK OF EXODUS

<sup>1</sup>And these were the names of the sons of Israel who came into Egypt. Every man and his household came with Jacob: <sup>2</sup>Reuben, Simeon, Levi, and Judah, <sup>3</sup>Issachar, Zebulun, and Benjamin, <sup>4</sup>Dan, and Naphtali, Gad, and Asher. <sup>5</sup>And all the souls that came out of the loins of Jacob were seventy souls, for Joseph was already in Egypt. <sup>6</sup>And Joseph died, and all his brothers, and all that generation. <sup>7</sup>And the sons of Israel were fruitful, and increased very much, and multiplied, and became exceedingly mighty. And the land was filled with them.

<sup>8</sup>And there arose a new king over Egypt, who did not know Joseph. <sup>9</sup>And he said to his people, Behold, the people of the sons of Israel are many and mightier than we. <sup>10</sup>Come, let us deal wisely with them, lest they multiply, and it will be when there comes a war, they join also to our enemies, and fight against us, and get out of the land. <sup>11</sup>And they set taskmasters over them to afflict them with their burdens. And they built treasure cities for Pharaoh, Pithon and Raamses. <sup>12</sup>But the more they afflicted them, the more they multiplied and grew. And they were grieved because of the sons of Israel. <sup>13</sup>And the Egyptians made the sons of Israel serve with harshness. <sup>14</sup>And they made their lives bitter with hard bondage, working in mortar and in brick, and in all kinds of service in the field. All the service in which they made them serve was with harshness.

<sup>15</sup>And the king of Egypt spoke to the Hebrew midwives, of which the name of the one was Shiphrah, and the name of the other Puah. <sup>16</sup>And he said, When you do the office of a midwife to the Hebrew women, and see them upon the stool, if it is a son, then you shall kill him. But if it is a daughter, then she shall live. <sup>17</sup>But the midwives feared God, and did not do as the king of Egypt commanded them, but saved alive the male children. <sup>18</sup>And the king of Egypt called for the midwives and said to them, Why have you done this thing, and have saved the male children alive? <sup>19</sup>And the midwives said to Pharaoh, Because the Hebrew women are not like the Egyptian women. For they are lively, and are delivered before the midwives come in to them. <sup>20</sup>And God dealt well with the midwives. And the people multiplied and became very mighty. <sup>21</sup>And it happened, because the midwives feared God, that He made them houses.

<sup>22</sup>And Pharaoh charged all his people, saying, Every son that is born you shall cast into the river, and every daughter you shall save alive.

CHAPTER 2

<sup>1</sup>And a man of the house of Levi took a daughter of Levi as his wife. <sup>2</sup>And the woman conceived and bore a son. And when she saw him, that he was a beautiful child, she hid him three months. <sup>3</sup>But when she could no longer hide him, she took an ark of papyrus for him, and daubed it with bitumen and with pitch, and put the child in it. And she laid it in the reeds by the river's edge. <sup>4</sup>And his sister stood afar off, to know what would be done to him.

<sup>5</sup>And the daughter of Pharaoh came down to wash at the river. And her maidens walked along by the riverside. And when she saw the ark among the reeds, she sent her maid to bring it. <sup>6</sup>And she opened it, and she saw the child. And behold, the babe wept. And she had pity on him, and said, This is one of the Hebrews' sons. <sup>7</sup>And his sister said to Pharaoh's daughter, Shall I go and call a nurse of the Hebrew women for you, that she may nurse the child for you? <sup>8</sup>And Pharaoh's daughter said to her, Go. And the girl went and called the child's mother. <sup>9</sup>And Pharaoh's daughter said to her, Take this child away and nurse it for me, and I will give your wages. And the woman took the child and nursed it.

<sup>10</sup>And the child grew, and she brought him to Pharaoh's daughter, and he became her son. And she called his name Moses. And she said, Because I took him out of the water.

<sup>11</sup>And it happened in those days, when Moses was grown, he went out to his brothers and looked upon their burdens. And he saw an Egyptian striking a Hebrew, one of his brothers. <sup>12</sup>And he looked this way and that way, and when he did not see anyone, he killed the Egyptian and hid him in the sand. <sup>13</sup>And when he went out the second day, behold, two men of the Hebrews strove together. And he said to him that did the wrong, Why do you strike your fellow? <sup>14</sup>And he said, Who made you a prince and a judge over us? Do you intend to kill me as you killed the Egyptian? And Moses feared, and said, Surely this thing is known. <sup>15</sup>And when Pharaoh heard this thing, he sought to kill Moses. But Moses fled from the face of Pharaoh, and lived in the land of Midian. And he sat down by a well.

<sup>16</sup>And the priest of Midian had seven daughters. And they came and drew water, and filled the troughs to water their father's flock. <sup>17</sup>And the shepherds came and drove them away. But Moses stood up and helped them, and watered their flock. <sup>18</sup>And when they came to Reuel their father, he said, How is it that you have come so soon today? <sup>19</sup>And they said, An Egyptian delivered us out of the hand of the shepherds, and also drew water for us and watered the flock. <sup>20</sup>And he said to his daughters, And where is he? Why then have you left the man? Call him, that he may eat bread. <sup>21</sup>And Moses was content to live with the man. And he gave Moses his daughter Zipporah. <sup>22</sup>And she bore a son, and he called his name Gershom. For he said, I have been a stranger in a strange land.

<sup>23</sup>And it happened after many days the king of Egypt died. And the sons of Israel sighed because of the bondage, and they cried, and their cry came up to God because of the bondage. <sup>24</sup>And God heard their groaning, and God remembered His covenant with Abraham, with Isaac, and with Jacob. <sup>25</sup>And God looked upon the sons of Israel, and God had respect for it.

CHAPTER 3

<sup>1</sup>And Moses kept the flock of his father-in-law Jethro, the priest of Midian. And he led the flock to the back side of the desert. And he came to the mountain of God, to Horeb. <sup>2</sup>And the Angel of the LORD appeared to him in a flame of fire, out of the midst of the bush. And he looked. And behold! The bush burned with fire! And the bush was not burned up. <sup>3</sup>And Moses said, I will now turn aside and see this great sight, why the bush is not burned up. <sup>4</sup>And when the LORD saw that he had turned aside to see, God called to him out of the midst of the bush, and said, Moses! Moses! And he said, Here I am. <sup>5</sup>And He said, Do not come here. Put off your shoes from your feet, for the place on which you stand is holy ground. <sup>6</sup>And He said, I am the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. And Moses hid his face, for he was afraid to look upon God.

<sup>7</sup>And the LORD said, I have surely seen the affliction of My people who are in Egypt. And I have heard their cry because of their taskmasters; for I know their sorrows. <sup>8</sup>And I am coming down to deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians, to bring them up out of that land to a good land, a large land, to a land flowing with milk and honey, to the place of the Canaanites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites and the Jebusites. <sup>9</sup>And now behold, the cry of the sons of Israel has come to Me. And I have also seen the oppression with which the Egyptians oppress them. <sup>10</sup>And now go, and I will send you to Pharaoh, that you may bring forth My people the sons of Israel out of Egypt.

<sup>11</sup>And Moses said to God, Who am I that I should go to Pharaoh, and that I should bring forth the sons of Israel out of Egypt? <sup>12</sup>And He said, I will certainly be with you. And this shall be a token to you, that I have sent you: When you have brought forth the people out of Egypt, you shall serve God upon this mountain. <sup>13</sup>And Moses said to God, Behold, when I come to the sons of Israel, and shall say to them, The God of your fathers has sent me to you — and they shall say to me, What is His name? — What shall I say to them? <sup>14</sup>And God said to Moses, I AM THAT I AM. And He said, So you shall say to the sons of Israel, I AM has sent me to you. <sup>15</sup>And God said to Moses again, You shall say this to the sons of Israel, Jehovah the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has sent me to you. This is My name forever, and this is My title from generation to generation. <sup>16</sup>Go, and gather the elders of Israel and say to them, Jehovah the God of your fathers has appeared to me, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, saying, I have surely visited you and have seen what is done to you in Egypt. <sup>17</sup>And I have said, I will bring you up out of the affliction of Egypt to the land of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, to a land flowing with milk and honey. <sup>18</sup>And they shall listen to your voice. And you shall come, you and the elders of Israel, to the king of Egypt. And you shall say to him, The LORD God of the Hebrews has met with us. And now let us go, we beseech you, three days' journey into the wilderness, that we may sacrifice to the LORD our God. <sup>19</sup>And I am sure that the king of Egypt will not let you go, no, not by a mighty hand. <sup>20</sup>And I will stretch out My hand and smite Egypt with all My wonders which I will do in the midst of it. And after that he will let you go. <sup>21</sup>And I will give this people favor in the sight of the Egyptians. And it shall be that when you go, you shall not go empty. <sup>22</sup>But every woman shall ask of her neighbor, and of her that stays in her house, jewels of silver and jewels of gold and clothing. And you shall put them upon your sons and upon your daughters. And you shall spoil the Egyptians.

CHAPTER 4

<sup>1</sup>And Moses answered and said, But, behold, they will not believe me nor listen to my voice. For they will say, The LORD has not appeared to you. <sup>2</sup>And the LORD said to him, What is this in your hand? And he said, A staff. <sup>3</sup>And He said, Throw it on the ground. And he threw it on the ground. And it became a serpent. And Moses ran from it. <sup>4</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, Put forth your hand and take it by the tail. And he put forth his hand and caught it, and it became a staff in his hand, <sup>5</sup>so that they may believe that the LORD God of their fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob, has appeared to you. <sup>6</sup>And the LORD said to him again, Now put your hand in your bosom. And he put his hand into his bosom. And when he took it out, behold, his hand was as leprous as snow. <sup>7</sup>And He said, Put your hand into your bosom again. And he put his hand into his bosom again. And he plucked it out of his bosom, and behold, it was turned again like his other flesh. <sup>8</sup>And it will be, if they will not believe you, neither listen to the voice of the first sign, then they will believe the voice of the latter sign. <sup>9</sup>And also it will be, if they will not believe these two signs, neither listen to your voice, then you shall take from the water of the river and pour it upon the dry land. And the water which you take out of the river shall become blood on the dry land. <sup>10</sup>And Moses said to the LORD, O my Lord, I am not a man of words, neither before now, nor since You have spoken to Your servant, but I am slow of speech and of a slow tongue. <sup>11</sup>And the LORD said to him, Who has made man's mouth? Or who makes the dumb, or deaf, or the seeing, or the blind? Have not I, the LORD? <sup>12</sup>And now go, and I will be with your mouth and teach you what you shall say.

<sup>13</sup>And he said, O my Lord, I pray You, send by the hand of him whom You will send. <sup>14</sup>And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Moses. And He said, Is not Aaron the Levite your brother? I know that he can speak well. And also, behold, he comes forth to meet you. And when he sees you, he will be glad in his heart. <sup>15</sup>And you shall speak to him, and put words in his mouth. And I will be with your mouth and with his mouth, and will teach you what you shall do. <sup>16</sup>And he shall be your spokesman to the people — he shall become your mouth, and you shall be to him instead of God. <sup>17</sup>And you shall take this rod in your hand, with which you shall do signs.

<sup>18</sup>And Moses went and returned to Jethro his father-in-law, and said to him, Please let me go and return to my brothers who are in Egypt and see if they are still alive. And Jethro said to Moses, Go in peace.

<sup>19</sup>And the LORD said to Moses in Midian, Go! Return to Egypt, for all the men who sought your life are dead. <sup>20</sup>And Moses took his wife and his sons, and set them upon an ass, and he returned to the land of Egypt. And Moses took the rod of God in his hand.

<sup>21</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, When you go to return into Egypt, see that you do all those wonders which I have put in your hand before Pharaoh; but I will harden his heart, that he shall not let the people go. <sup>22</sup>And you shall say to Pharaoh, Thus says the Lord: Israel is My son, My firstborn. <sup>23</sup>And I say to you, Let My son go, that he may serve Me. And if you refuse to let him go, behold, I will kill your son, your firstborn.

<sup>24</sup>And it happened by the way, in the inn, that the LORD met him and sought to kill him. <sup>25</sup>And Zipporah took a sharp stone, and cut off the foreskin of her son, and threw it at his feet, and said, Surely a bloody husband you are to me. <sup>26</sup>So He let him go. Then she said, You are a bloody husband, because of the circumcision.

<sup>27</sup>And the LORD said to Aaron, Go into the wilderness to meet Moses. And he went and met him in the mount of God, and kissed him. <sup>28</sup>And Moses told Aaron all the words of the LORD who had sent him, and all the signs which He had commanded him. <sup>29</sup>And Moses and Aaron went and gathered together all the elders of the sons of Israel. <sup>30</sup>And Aaron spoke all the words which the LORD had spoken to Moses, and did the signs in the sight of the people. <sup>31</sup>And the people believed. And when they heard that the LORD had visited the sons of Israel, and that He had looked upon their affliction, then they bowed their heads and worshipped.

CHAPTER 5

<sup>1</sup>And afterward Moses and Aaron went in and told Pharaoh, Thus says Jehovah, God of Israel: Let My people go, that they may hold a feast to Me in the wilderness. <sup>2</sup>And Pharaoh said, Who is Jehovah, that I should obey His voice to let Israel go? I do not know Jehovah, neither will I let Israel go. <sup>3</sup>And they said, The God of the Hebrews has met with us. Let us go, we pray you, three days' journey into the desert and sacrifice to the LORD our God, lest He fall upon us with plague or with the sword. <sup>4</sup>And the king of Egypt said to them, Moses and Aaron, why do you keep the people from their work? Get to your burdens!

<sup>5</sup>And Pharaoh said, Behold, the people of the land now are many, and you make them rest from their burdens. <sup>6</sup>And Pharaoh commanded the taskmasters of the people and their officers the same day, saying, <sup>7</sup>You shall no more give the people straw to make brick, as before. Let them go and gather straw for themselves. <sup>8</sup>And you shall lay upon them the number of bricks which they have made before now. You shall not take away from it. For they are idle; therefore they cry, saying, Let us go sacrifice to our God. <sup>9</sup>Let more work be laid upon the men, and let them labor in it. And do not let them regard vain words.

<sup>10</sup>And the taskmasters of the people and their officers went out. And they spoke to the people, saying, So says Pharaoh, I will not give you straw. <sup>11</sup>Go and get straw where you can find it, yet not any of your work shall be taken away. <sup>12</sup>So the people were scattered abroad through all the land of Egypt, to gather stubble for straw. <sup>13</sup>And the taskmasters hurried them, saying, Finish your works, the thing of a day, just as when there was straw. <sup>14</sup>And the overseers of the sons of Israel, whom Pharaoh's taskmasters had set over them, were beaten. And they demanded, Why have you not completed your task in making brick, both yesterday and today, as you did before?

<sup>15</sup>And the overseers of the sons of Israel came and cried to Pharaoh, saying, Why do you deal so with your servants? <sup>16</sup>There is no straw given to your servants, and they say to us, Make bricks! And behold, your servants are beaten, but the fault is in your own people. <sup>17</sup>But he said, You are idle! You are idle! Therefore you say, Let us go, let us sacrifice to the LORD. <sup>18</sup>Therefore go now and work, for there shall be no straw given to you; yet you shall deliver the number of bricks.

<sup>19</sup>And the overseers of the sons of Israel saw themselves in affliction, after it was said, You shall not take away from your bricks of your daily task.

<sup>20</sup>And they met Moses and Aaron, who stood in the way, as they came forth from Pharaoh. <sup>21</sup>And they said to them, The LORD look upon you and judge, because you have made our smell to be hated in the eyes of Pharaoh, and in the eyes of his servants, to put a sword in their hands to kill us. <sup>22</sup>And Moses returned to the LORD, and said, Lord, why have You treated this people ill? Why is it that You have sent me? <sup>23</sup>For since I came to Pharaoh to speak in Your name, he has done evil to this people. Neither have You delivered Your people at all.

CHAPTER 6

<sup>1</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, Now you shall see what I will do to Pharaoh. For with a strong hand he shall let them go, and with a strong hand he shall drive them out of his land.

<sup>2</sup>And God spoke to Moses, and said to him, I am Jehovah. <sup>3</sup>And I appeared to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, by the name of God Almighty. But I was not known to them by the name JEHOVAH. <sup>4</sup>And I also established My covenant with them, to give them the land of Canaan, the land of their pilgrimage, in which they were strangers. <sup>5</sup>And I have also heard the groaning of the sons of Israel, those whom the Egyptians are keeping in bondage. And I have remembered My covenant. <sup>6</sup>Therefore say to the sons of Israel, I am the LORD, and I will bring you out from under the burden of the Egyptians, and I will rescue you out of their bondage. And I will redeem you with a stretched-out arm, and with great judgments.

<sup>7</sup>And I will take you to Me for a people, and I will be to you a God. And you shall know that I am the LORD your God, who brings you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians. <sup>8</sup>And I will bring you in to the land concerning which I lifted up My hand to give it to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob. And I will give it to you for a heritage. I am the LORD! <sup>9</sup>And Moses said so to the sons of Israel. But they did not listen to Moses through shortness of spirit and through cruel bondage.

<sup>10</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>11</sup>Go in, speak to Pharaoh king of Egypt, that he let the sons of Israel go out of his land. <sup>12</sup>And Moses spoke before the LORD, saying, Behold, the sons of Israel have not listened to me. How then shall Pharaoh hear me, since I have lips that are not circumcised? <sup>13</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses and to Aaron, and gave them a charge to the sons of Israel, and to Pharaoh king of Egypt, to bring the sons of Israel out of the land of Egypt.

<sup>14</sup>These were the heads of their fathers' houses: The sons of Reuben the first-born of Israel: Hanoch and Pallu, Hezron and Carmi. These were the families of Reuben. <sup>15</sup>And the sons of Simeon: Jemuel, and Jamin, and Ohad, and Jachin, and Zohar, and Shaul, the son of a Canaanitess. These were the families of Simeon. <sup>16</sup>And these were the names of the sons of Levi, according to their generations: Gershon, and Kohath, and Merari. And the years of the life of Levi were a hundred and thirty-seven years. <sup>17</sup>The sons of Gershon: Libni, and Shimei, by their families. <sup>18</sup>And the sons of Kohath: Amram, and Izhar, and Hebron, and Uzziel. And the years of the life of Kohath were a hundred and thirty-three years. <sup>19</sup>And the sons of Merari: Mahli and Mushi. These were the families of Levi according to their generations.

<sup>20</sup>And Amram took Jochebed, his father's sister, for his wife. And she bore him Aaron and Moses. And the years of the life of Amram were a hundred and thirty-seven years. <sup>21</sup>And the sons of Izhar: Korah, and Nepheg, and Zichri. <sup>22</sup>And the sons of Uzziel: Mishael, and Elizaphan, and Zithri. <sup>23</sup>And Aaron took Elisheba, the daughter of Amminadab, sister of Nahshon, for his wife. And she bore him Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar. <sup>24</sup>And the sons of Korah were Assir, and Elkanah, and Abiasaph. These were the families of the Korahites. <sup>25</sup>And Aaron's son Eleazar took of the daughters of Putiel his wife. And she bore him Phinehas. These were the heads of the fathers of the Levites according to their families.

<sup>26</sup>It was Aaron and Moses to whom the LORD said, Bring out the sons of Israel from the land of Egypt according to their armies. <sup>27</sup>These were the ones who spoke to Pharaoh king of Egypt to bring out the sons of Israel from Egypt. It was Moses and Aaron.

<sup>28</sup>And it happened on the day when the LORD spoke to Moses in the land of Egypt, <sup>29</sup>that the LORD spoke to Moses saying, I am the LORD. You speak to Pharaoh king of Egypt all that I say to you. <sup>30</sup>And Moses said before the LORD, Behold, I am of uncircumcised lips, and how shall Pharaoh listen to me?

CHAPTER 7

<sup>1</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, See, I have made you a god to Pharaoh. And Aaron your brother shall be your prophet. <sup>2</sup>You shall speak all that I command you. And Aaron your brother shall speak to Pharaoh, that he send the sons of Israel out of his land. <sup>3</sup>And I will harden Pharaoh's heart and multiply My signs and My wonders in the land of Egypt. <sup>4</sup>But Pharaoh shall not listen to you, so that I may lay My hand upon Egypt, and bring My armies, My people the sons of Israel, out of the land of Egypt by great judgments. <sup>5</sup>And the Egyptians shall know that I am the LORD when I stretch forth My hand upon Egypt, and bring out the sons of Israel from among them. <sup>6</sup>And Moses and Aaron did as the LORD commanded them; so they did. <sup>7</sup>And Moses was eighty years old, and Aaron was eighty-three years old, when they spoke to Pharaoh.

<sup>8</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying: <sup>9</sup>When Pharaoh shall speak to you saying, Show a miracle for yourselves, you shall say to Aaron, Take your rod, and throw it in front of Pharaoh. It shall become a snake. <sup>10</sup>And Moses and Aaron went in to Pharaoh. And they did as the LORD had commanded. And Aaron threw down his rod in front of Pharaoh and in front of his servants, and it became a snake. <sup>11</sup>Then Pharaoh also called the wise men and the sorcerers. And they, the priests of Egypt, did the same with their secret arts. <sup>12</sup>For each man threw down his rod, and they became snakes. But Aaron's rod swallowed up their rods. <sup>13</sup>And He hardened Pharaoh's heart so that he did not listen to them, as the LORD had said.

<sup>14</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, Pharaoh's heart is hardened. He refuses to let the people go. <sup>15</sup>You go to Pharaoh in the morning. Lo, he goes out to the water. And you shall stand by the river's brink until he comes. And you shall take in your hand the rod which was turned to a snake. <sup>16</sup>And you shall say to him, The LORD God of the Hebrews has sent me to you, saying, Let My people go so that they may serve Me in the wilderness. And, behold, until now you would not hear. <sup>17</sup>Thus says the LORD, In this you shall know that I am the LORD. Behold! I will smite with the rod that is in my hand upon the waters in the river, and they shall be turned to blood. <sup>18</sup>And the fish in the river shall die, and the river shall stink. And the Egyptians shall hate to drink of the water of the river.

<sup>19</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses, Say to Aaron, Take your rod, and stretch out your hand upon the waters of Egypt, upon their streams, upon their canals, and upon their pools, and upon every reservoir of their waters, that they may become blood. And blood shall be throughout all the land of Egypt, both in wooden and in stone vessels. <sup>20</sup>And Moses and Aaron did so, as the LORD commanded. And he lifted up the rod and struck the waters that were in the river, in the sight of Pharaoh and in the sight of his servants. And all the waters in the river were turned to blood. <sup>21</sup>And the fish that was in the river died; and the river stank, and the Egyptians could not drink of the water of the river. And there was blood throughout all the land of Egypt. <sup>22</sup>And the priests of Egypt did so with their secret arts. And Pharaoh's heart was hardened, and he did not listen to them, as the LORD had said. <sup>23</sup>And Pharaoh turned and went into his house; And he did not set his heart to this also.

<sup>24</sup>And all the Egyptians dug all around the river for water to drink, for they could not drink of the water of the river. <sup>25</sup>And seven days were completed after the LORD had stricken the river.

CHAPTER 8

<sup>1</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses, Go to Pharaoh, and say to him: Thus says the LORD, Let my people go so that they may serve Me. <sup>2</sup>And if you refuse to let them go, behold, I will strike all your borders with frogs. <sup>3</sup>And the river shall bring forth frogs plentifully, which shall go up and come into your house, and into your bedroom, and upon your bed, and into the house of your servants, and upon your people, and into your ovens, and into your kneading troughs. <sup>4</sup>And the frogs shall come upon you, and upon your people, and upon all your servants.

<sup>5</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses, Say to Aaron: Stretch out your hand with your rod over the streams, over the rivers, and over the ponds, and cause frogs to come up upon the land of Egypt. <sup>6</sup>And Aaron stretched out his hand over the waters of Egypt, and the frogs came up and covered the land of Egypt. <sup>7</sup>And the priests did so with their secret arts, and brought up frogs upon the land of Egypt.

<sup>8</sup>And Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron, and said, Pray to the LORD that He may take away the frogs from me and from my people. And I will let the people go, so that they may sacrifice to the LORD. <sup>9</sup>And Moses said to Pharaoh, Glory over me! When shall I pray for you, and for your servants, and for your people, to destroy the frogs from you and your houses, so that they may remain in the river only? <sup>10</sup>And he said, Tomorrow. And he said, It shall be according to your word, so that you may know that there is none like the LORD our God. <sup>11</sup>And the frogs shall depart from you, and from your houses, and from your servants, and from your people. They shall remain in the river only. <sup>12</sup>And Moses and Aaron went out from Pharaoh. And Moses cried to the LORD because of the frogs which He had brought against Pharaoh. <sup>13</sup>And the LORD did according to the word of Moses. And the frogs died out of the houses, out of the villages, and out of the fields. <sup>14</sup>And they gathered them together in heaps. And the land stank. <sup>15</sup>But when Pharaoh saw that there was a breathing spell, he hardened his heart, and did not listen to them, even as the LORD had said.

<sup>16</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, Say to Aaron: Stretch out your rod, and strike the dust of the land, so that it may become lice throughout all the land of Egypt. <sup>17</sup>And they did so. For Aaron stretched out his hand with his rod and struck the dust of the earth. And it became lice in man and in beast. All the dust of the land became lice throughout all the land of Egypt. <sup>18</sup>And the priests did so with their secret arts to bring forth lice, but they could not. So there were lice upon man and upon beast. <sup>19</sup>And the priests said to Pharaoh, This is the finger of God. And Pharaoh's heart was hardened, and he did not listen to them, as the LORD had said.

<sup>20</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, Rise up early in the morning and stand before Pharaoh. Lo, he comes forth to the water. And say to him, Thus says the LORD: Let My people go, so that they may serve Me. <sup>21</sup>Else, if you will not let My people go, behold, I will send swarms of flies on you, and on your servants, and on your people, and into your houses. And the houses of the Egyptians shall be full of swarms of flies, and also the ground on which they are. <sup>22</sup>And in that day I will cut off the land of Goshen, in which My people live, so that no swarms of flies shall be there, so that you may know that I am Jehovah in the midst of the earth. <sup>23</sup>And I will put a dividing line between My people and your people. This miracle shall be tomorrow. <sup>24</sup>And the LORD did so. And teeming swarms of flies came into the house of Pharaoh, and into his servants' houses, and into all the land of Egypt. The land was destroyed because of the swarms.

<sup>25</sup>And Pharaoh called for Moses and for Aaron, and said, Go sacrifice to your God in the land. <sup>26</sup>And Moses said, It is not right for us to do so, for we shall sacrifice the abomination of the Egyptians to the LORD our God. Lo, shall we sacrifice the abomination of the Egyptians before their eyes, and will they not stone us? <sup>27</sup>We will go three days' journey into the wilderness, and sacrifice to the LORD our God, as He shall command us. <sup>28</sup>And Pharaoh said, I will let you go so that you may sacrifice to the LORD your God in the wilderness. Only you shall not go very far away. Pray for me.

<sup>29</sup>And Moses said, Behold, I will go out from you, and I will pray to the LORD that the swarms of flies may depart from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people, tomorrow. But do not let Pharaoh deal deceitfully any more in not letting the people go to sacrifice to the LORD. <sup>30</sup>And Moses went out from Pharaoh and prayed to the LORD. <sup>31</sup>And the LORD did according to the word of Moses. And He removed the swarms from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people. There remained not one. <sup>32</sup>And Pharaoh hardened his heart at this time also, neither would he let the people go.

CHAPTER 9

<sup>1</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, Go in to Pharaoh and tell him, Thus says the LORD God of the Hebrews: Let My people go so that they may serve Me. <sup>2</sup>For if you refuse to let them go, and will hold them still, <sup>3</sup>behold, the hand of the LORD is upon your cattle in the field, upon the horses, upon the asses, upon the camels, upon the oxen, and upon the sheep — a very grievous plague. <sup>4</sup>And the LORD shall separate between the cattle of Israel and the cattle of Egypt. And there shall nothing die of all that belongs to the sons of Israel. <sup>5</sup>And the LORD appointed a set time, saying, Tomorrow the LORD shall do this thing in the land. <sup>6</sup>And the LORD did that thing on the next day, and all the cattle of Egypt died. But of the cattle of the sons of Israel, not one died. <sup>7</sup>And Pharaoh sent, and, behold, there was not one of the cattle of the Israelites dead. And the heart of Pharaoh was hardened, and he did not let the people go.

<sup>8</sup>And the LORD said to Moses and Aaron, Take to yourselves handfuls of ashes of the furnace, and let Moses sprinkle it toward the sky in the sight of Pharaoh. <sup>9</sup>And it shall become small dust in all the land of Egypt, and shall be a boil breaking forth with sores upon man and upon beast, throughout all the land of Egypt. <sup>10</sup>And they took ashes of the furnace and stood before Pharaoh. And Moses sprinkled it up toward the sky, and it became a boil breaking forth with sores upon man and upon beast. <sup>11</sup>And the priests could not stand before Moses because of the boils, for the boil was upon the priests and upon all the Egyptians. <sup>12</sup>And the LORD hardened the heart of Pharaoh, and he did not listen to them, even as the LORD had spoken to Moses.

<sup>13</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, Rise up early in the morning, and stand before Pharaoh, and say to him, So says the LORD God of the Hebrews, Let My people go, so that they may serve Me. <sup>14</sup>For I will at this time send all My plagues upon your heart, and upon your servants, and upon your people, so that you may know that there is none like Me in all the earth. <sup>15</sup>For now I will stretch out My hand, that I may strike you and your people with plagues, and you shall be cut off from the earth. <sup>16</sup>And for this reason I have made you stand, to make you see My power, to declare it in all the land. <sup>17</sup>Do you still exalt yourself against My people, that you will not let them go? <sup>18</sup>Behold! Tomorrow about this time I will cause it to rain a very grievous hail, such as has not been in Egypt since the foundation of it even until now! <sup>19</sup>And send out, gather your cattle, and all that you have in the field. Upon every man and beast which shall be found in the field, and shall not be brought home, the hail shall come down upon them, and they shall die.

<sup>20</sup>He that feared the word of the LORD among the servants of Pharaoh made his servants and his cattle to flee into the houses. <sup>21</sup>And he that did not regard the word of the LORD left his servants and his cattle in the field. <sup>22</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, Stretch forth your hand toward heaven, so that there may be hail in all the land of Egypt, upon man, and upon beast, and upon every herb of the field, throughout the land of Egypt. <sup>23</sup>And Moses stretched forth his rod toward heaven. And the LORD sent thunder and hail, and the fire ran along upon the ground. And the LORD rained hail upon the land of Egypt. <sup>24</sup>And there was hail, and fire mingled with the hail, very grievous, such as there was none like it in all the land of Egypt since it became a nation. <sup>25</sup>And the hail struck throughout all the land of Egypt all that was in the field, both man and beast. And the hail struck every herb of the field, and broke every tree of the field. <sup>26</sup>Only in the land of Goshen, where the sons of Israel were, was there no hail.

<sup>27</sup>And Pharaoh sent and called for Moses and Aaron, and said to them, I have sinned this time. The LORD is righteous, and I and my people are wicked. <sup>28</sup>Pray to the LORD, for it is enough. Let there be no more mighty thunderings and hail. And I will let you go, and you shall stay no longer. <sup>29</sup>And Moses said to him, as soon as I go out of the city, I will spread abroad my hands to the LORD. The thunder shall stop, and the hail will not be any more, so that you may know that the earth is the LORD's. <sup>30</sup>But as for you and your servants, I know that you will not fear the LORD God.

<sup>31</sup>And the flax and the barley was stricken, for the barley was in the ear, and the flax was balled. <sup>32</sup>But the wheat and the rye were not stricken, for they had not grown up. <sup>33</sup>And Moses went out of the city from Pharaoh, and spread abroad his hands to the LORD. And the thunders and hail stopped, and the rain was not poured upon the earth. <sup>34</sup>And when Pharaoh saw that the rain and the hail and the thunders had ceased, he sinned still more and hardened his heart, he and his servants. <sup>35</sup>And the heart of Pharaoh was hardened, neither would he let the sons of Israel go, even as the LORD had spoken by Moses.

CHAPTER 10

<sup>1</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, Go in to Pharaoh, for I have hardened his heart and the heart of his servants, so that I might show these My signs before him, <sup>2</sup>and so that you may tell in the ears of your son, and of your son's son, what things I have worked in Egypt, and My signs which I have done among them, so that you may know that I am the LORD. <sup>3</sup>And Moses and Aaron came in to Pharaoh and said to him, So says the LORD God of the Hebrews, How long will you refuse to humble yourself before Me? Let My people go, so that they may serve Me. <sup>4</sup>Else, if you refuse to let My people go, behold, tomorrow I will bring the locusts into your coast. <sup>5</sup>And they shall cover the face of the earth, so that one cannot be able to see the earth. And they shall eat the rest of that which has escaped, which remains to you from the hail, and shall eat every tree which grows for you out of the field. <sup>6</sup>And they shall fill your houses, and the houses of all your servants, and the houses of all the Egyptians, which neither your fathers, nor your fathers' fathers have seen, since the day they were upon the earth until this day. And he turned himself and went out from Pharaoh.

<sup>7</sup>And Pharaoh's servants said to him, How long shall this man be a snare to us? Let the men go so that they may serve the LORD their God. Do you not yet know that Egypt is destroyed? <sup>8</sup>And Moses and Aaron were brought again to Pharaoh, and he said to them, Go! Serve the LORD your God. Who are the ones that shall go? <sup>9</sup>And Moses said, We will go with our young and with our old, with our sons and with our daughters. We will go with our flocks and with our herds. For we must hold a feast to the LORD. <sup>10</sup>And he said to them, May the LORD be so with you, as I send you and your little ones away. Watch out, for evil is before you. <sup>11</sup>Not so! You men go now and serve the LORD, for it is you who did desire it. And they were driven out from Pharaoh's presence.

<sup>12</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, Stretch out your hand over the land of Egypt for the locusts, that they may come up upon the land of Egypt and eat every herb of the land, all that the hail has left. <sup>13</sup>And Moses stretched forth his rod over the land of Egypt, and the LORD brought an east wind upon the land all that day and all the night. When it was morning, the east wind brought the locusts. <sup>14</sup>And the locusts went up over all the land of Egypt and rested in all the coasts of Egypt, very grievous. Before them there were no such locusts as they, neither after them shall be such. <sup>15</sup>For they covered the face of the whole earth so that the land was darkened. And they ate every herb of the land and all the fruit of the trees which the hail had left. And there did not remain any green thing in the trees, or in the herbs of the field, through all the land of Egypt. <sup>16</sup>Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron in haste. And he said, I have sinned against the LORD your God, and against you. <sup>17</sup>And now please, forgive my sin only this once, and pray to the LORD your God, that He may take away from me this death only. <sup>18</sup>And he went out from Pharaoh, and prayed to the LORD.

<sup>19</sup>And the LORD turned a mighty strong west wind, which took away the locusts and threw them into the Red Sea. There did not remain one locust in all the coasts of Egypt. <sup>20</sup>But the LORD hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he did not let the sons of Israel go.

<sup>21</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, Stretch out your hand toward heaven, that there may be darkness over the land of Egypt, so that one may even feel the darkness. <sup>22</sup>And Moses stretched forth his hand toward heaven. And there was a thick darkness in all the land of Egypt three days. <sup>23</sup>They did not see one another, nor did any rise from his place, for three days. But all the sons of Israel had light in their dwellings. <sup>24</sup>And Pharaoh called to Moses, and said, You go serve the LORD. Only let your flocks and your herds be left. Let your little ones also go with you. <sup>25</sup>And Moses said, You must give us also sacrifices and burnt offerings, so that we may sacrifice to the LORD our God. <sup>26</sup>Our cattle also shall go with us. There shall not be a hoof left behind. For we must take from them to serve the LORD our God. And we do not know with what we must serve the LORD until we come there. <sup>27</sup>But the LORD hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he would not let them go. <sup>28</sup>And Pharaoh said to him, Go away from me! Take heed to yourself; see my face no more. For in the day you see my face you shall die. <sup>29</sup>And Moses said, You have spoken well. I will never see your face again.

CHAPTER 11

<sup>1</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, I will still bring one plague yet on Pharaoh and on Egypt. Afterward he will let you go from here. When he shall let you go, he shall surely thrust you out from here altogether. <sup>2</sup>Speak now in the ears of the people, and let every man borrow from his neighbor, and every woman from her neighbor, jewels of silver and jewels of gold. <sup>3</sup>And the LORD gave the people favor in the sight of the Egyptians. And the man Moses was very great in the land of Egypt, in the sight of Pharaoh's servants, and in the sight of the people. <sup>4</sup>And Moses said, Thus says the LORD: About midnight I will go out into the midst of Egypt. <sup>5</sup>And all the firstborn in the land of Egypt shall die, from the firstborn of Pharaoh that sits upon his throne, even to the firstborn of the maid-servant that is behind the mill; also the firstborn of beasts. <sup>6</sup>And there shall be a great cry throughout all the land of Egypt, such as there was none like it, nor shall be like it any more. <sup>7</sup>But against any of the sons of Israel not even a dog shall move his tongue, against man or beast, so that you may know that the LORD puts a difference between the Egyptians and Israel. <sup>8</sup>And all these, your servants, shall come down to Me and bow themselves down to Me, saying, You and all the people that follow you get out. And after that I will go out. And he went out from Pharaoh in a great anger. <sup>9</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, Pharaoh shall not listen to you, so that My wonders may be multiplied in the land of Egypt. <sup>10</sup>And Moses and Aaron did all these wonders before Pharaoh. And the LORD hardened Pharaoh's heart so that he would not let the sons of Israel go out of his land.

CHAPTER 12

<sup>1</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt, saying, <sup>2</sup>This month shall be to you the beginning of months. It shall be the first month of the year to you. <sup>3</sup>Speak to all the congregation of Israel, saying, In the tenth of this month they shall take to them each man a lamb for his father's house, a lamb for a house. <sup>4</sup>And if the household is too little for the lamb, let him and his neighbor next to his house take it according to the number of the souls, each one, according to the eating of his mouth, you shall count concerning the lamb. <sup>5</sup>Your lamb shall be without blemish, a male of the first year. You shall take from the sheep or from the goats. <sup>6</sup>And you shall keep it up until the fourteenth day of the same month.

And the whole assembly of the congregation of Israel shall kill it in the evening. <sup>7</sup>And they shall take of the blood and strike on the two side posts and upon the upper door post of the houses in which they shall eat it. <sup>8</sup>And they shall eat the flesh in that night, roasted with fire, and unleavened bread. They shall eat it with bitter herbs. <sup>9</sup>Do not eat of it raw, nor boiled at all with water, but roasted with fire, its head with its legs, and with its inward parts. <sup>10</sup>And you shall not let any of it remain until the morning. And that which remains of it until the morning you shall burn with fire. <sup>11</sup>And you shall eat of it this way, with your loins girded, your shoes on your feet, and your staff in your hand. And you shall eat it in a hurry. It is the LORD's passover. <sup>12</sup>For I will pass through the land of Egypt this night, and will smite all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both man and beast. And I will execute judgment against all the princes of Egypt. I am the LORD. <sup>13</sup>And the blood shall be a token to you upon the houses where you are. And when I see the blood, I will pass over you. And the plague shall not be upon you for a destruction when I smite in the land of Egypt.

<sup>14</sup>And this day shall be a memorial to you. And you shall keep it as a feast to the LORD throughout your generations. You shall keep it as a feast by a law forever. <sup>15</sup>You shall eat unleavened bread seven days; even the first day you shall put away leaven out of your houses. For whoever eats leavened bread from the first day until the seventh day, that soul shall be cut off from Israel. <sup>16</sup>And on the first day shall be a holy gathering, and in the seventh day there shall be a holy gathering for you. No manner of work shall be done in them, except that which every man must eat, that only may be done by you. <sup>17</sup>And you shall keep the feast of unleavened bread. For in this same day I have brought your armies out of the land of Egypt. Therefore you shall keep this day in your generations by a law forever. <sup>18</sup>In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month at evening, you shall eat unleavened bread, until the twenty-first day of the month at evening. <sup>19</sup>Seven days there shall be no leaven found in your houses. For whoever eats that which is leavened, even that soul shall be cut off from the congregation of Israel, whether he is a stranger or born in the land. <sup>20</sup>You shall eat nothing leavened. In all your dwelling-places you shall eat unleavened bread.

<sup>21</sup>Then Moses called for all the elders of Israel and said to them, Draw out and take a lamb for yourselves according to your families, and kill the passover. <sup>22</sup>And you shall take a bunch of hyssop and dip in the blood in the bowl, and strike the lintel and the two side posts with the blood in the bowl. And none of you shall go out of the door of his house until the morning. <sup>23</sup>For the LORD will pass through to strike the Egyptians. And when He sees the blood upon the lintel, and on the two side posts, the LORD will pass over the door, and will not allow the destroyer to come into your houses to strike you.

<sup>24</sup>And you shall observe this thing for a law to you and to your sons forever. <sup>25</sup>And it shall come to pass, when you have come to the land which the LORD will give you, according as He has promised, that you shall keep this service. <sup>26</sup>And it will be, when your sons shall say to you, What do you mean by this service? <sup>27</sup>You shall say, It is the sacrifice of the LORD's passover, who passed over the houses of the sons of Israel in Egypt, when He struck the Egyptians and delivered our houses. And the people bowed the head and worshiped. <sup>28</sup>And the sons of Israel went away and did as the LORD had commanded Moses and Aaron; so they did.

<sup>29</sup>And it happened at midnight the LORD struck all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of Pharaoh that sat on his throne to the firstborn of the captive that was in the dungeon; also all the firstborn of cattle. <sup>30</sup>And Pharaoh rose up in the night, he and all his servants, and all the Egyptians. And there was a great cry in Egypt, for there was not a house where there was not one dead. <sup>31</sup>And he called for Moses and Aaron by night, and said, Rise up! Get away from my people, both you and the sons of Israel! And go serve the LORD, as you have said. <sup>32</sup>Also take your flocks and your herds, as you have said, and be gone. And bless me also.

<sup>33</sup>And the Egyptians were urging the people, that they might send them out of the land in a hurry. For they said, We are all dead. <sup>34</sup>And the people took their dough before it was leavened, their kneading-troughs being bound up in their clothes upon their shoulders. <sup>35</sup>And the sons of Israel did according to the word of Moses. And they borrowed jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and clothing from the Egyptians. <sup>36</sup>And the LORD gave the people favor in the sight of the Egyptians, so that they loaned to them. And they spoiled the Egyptians.

<sup>37</sup>And the sons of Israel journeyed from Rameses to Succoth, the men being about six hundred thousand men on foot, apart from little ones. <sup>38</sup>And also a mixed multitude went up with them, and flocks, and herds, very much cattle. <sup>39</sup>And they baked unleavened cakes of the dough which they brought out of Egypt, for it was not leavened, because they were thrust out of Egypt and could not stay, neither had they prepared any food for themselves.

<sup>40</sup>And the time that the sons of Israel lived in Egypt was four hundred and thirty years. <sup>41</sup>And it happened at the end of the four hundred and thirty years, even it was on this very day, all the armies of the LORD went out from the land of Egypt. <sup>42</sup>It is a night to be much kept to the LORD for bringing them out from the land of Egypt. This is that night of the LORD to be kept by all the sons of Israel in their generations.

<sup>43</sup>And the LORD said to Moses and Aaron, This is the ordinance of the Passover. No stranger shall eat of it. <sup>44</sup>But every man's servant that is bought for money, when you have circumcised him, then he shall eat of it. <sup>45</sup>A foreigner and a hired servant shall not eat of it. <sup>46</sup>It shall be eaten in one house. You shall not carry any of the flesh abroad out of the house. Neither shall you break a bone of it. <sup>47</sup>All the congregation of Israel shall keep it. <sup>48</sup>And when a stranger shall stay with you, and desires to keep the Passover to the LORD, let all his males be circumcised, and then let him come near and keep it. And he shall be as one that is born in the land. And no uncircumcised person shall eat of it. <sup>49</sup>There shall be one law to him that is homeborn, and to the stranger that stays among you.

<sup>50</sup>So all the sons of Israel did. Even as the LORD commanded Moses and Aaron, so they did. <sup>51</sup>And it happened the very same day, that the LORD did bring the sons of Israel out of the land of Egypt by their armies.

CHAPTER 13

<sup>1</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>2</sup>Sanctify all the first-born to Me, whatever opens the womb among the sons of Israel, of man and of beast. It is Mine.

<sup>3</sup>And Moses said to the people, Remember this day in which you came out of Egypt, out of the house of bondage. For the LORD brought you out from this place by the strength of His hand. There shall be no leavened bread eaten. <sup>4</sup>You came out this day in the month Abib. <sup>5</sup>And it shall be when the LORD shall bring you into the land of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, which He swore to your fathers to give you, a land flowing with milk and honey, that you shall keep this service in this month. <sup>6</sup>You shall eat unleavened bread seven days, and in the seventh day shall be a feast to the LORD. <sup>7</sup>Unleavened bread shall be eaten seven days. And there shall be no leavened bread seen with you, nor shall there be leaven seen with you in all your borders. <sup>8</sup>And you shall show your son in that day, saying, This is because of what the LORD did for me when I came out from Egypt. <sup>9</sup>And it shall be a sign to you upon your hand, and for a memorial between your eyes, that the LORD's law may be in your mouth. For the Lord has brought you out of Egypt with a strong hand. <sup>10</sup>You shall therefore keep this law in its season from year to year.

<sup>11</sup>And when the LORD shall bring you into the land of the Canaanites, as He swore to you and to your fathers, and shall give it to you, <sup>12</sup>you shall set apart to the LORD all that opens the womb, and every firstling that comes of any animal which you have; the males shall be the LORD's. <sup>13</sup>And every firstling of an ass you shall redeem with a lamb. And if you will not redeem it, then you shall break its neck. And all the firstborn of man among your sons you shall redeem. <sup>14</sup>And it shall be when your sons asks you in time to come, saying, What is this? you shall say to him, The LORD brought us out of Egypt by the strength of His hand, from the house of bondage. <sup>15</sup>And it happened when Pharaoh would hardly let us go, the LORD killed all the firstborn of the land of Egypt, both the firstborn of man, and the firstborn of animals. Therefore I sacrifice to the LORD all that opens the womb, that are males. But all the firstborn of my sons I redeem. <sup>16</sup>And it shall be for a token upon your hand, and for frontlets between your eyes. For the LORD brought us out from Egypt by strength of His hand.

<sup>17</sup>And it happened, when Pharaoh had let the people go, God did not lead them by the way of the land of the Philistines although that was near. For God said, Lest the people repent when they see war, and they return to Egypt. <sup>18</sup>But God led the people around, by the way of the wilderness of the Red Sea. And the sons of Israel went up armed out of the land of Egypt.

<sup>19</sup>And Moses took the bones of Joseph with him. For he had strictly sworn the sons of Israel, saying, God will surely visit you, and you shall carry my bones away from here with you.

<sup>20</sup>And they moved from Succoth and camped in Etham, in the edge of the wilderness. <sup>21</sup>And the LORD went before them by day in a pillar of a cloud, to lead them the right way, and by night in a pillar of fire, to give them light, to go by day and night. <sup>22</sup>He did not take away the pillar of the cloud by day, nor the pillar of fire by night, from before the people.

CHAPTER 14

<sup>1</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>2</sup>Speak to the sons of Israel that they turn and camp before Pihahiroth, between Migdol and the sea, over against Baal-zephon. You shall camp before it, by the sea. <sup>3</sup>For Pharaoh will say of the sons of Israel, They are tangled in the land; the wilderness has shut them in. <sup>4</sup>And I will harden Pharaoh's heart, that he will follow after them. And I will be honored upon Pharaoh, and upon all his army, so that the Egyptians may know that I am the LORD. And they did so.

<sup>5</sup>And the king of Egypt was told that the people fled. And the heart of Pharaoh and of his servants was turned against the people. And they said, Why have we done this, that we have let Israel go from serving us? <sup>6</sup>And he made his chariot ready, and took his people with him. <sup>7</sup>And he took six hundred chosen chariots, and all the chariots of Egypt, and captains over every one of them. <sup>8</sup>And the LORD hardened the heart of Pharaoh king of Egypt. And he pursued after the sons of Israel, and the sons of Israel went out with a high hand. <sup>9</sup>But the Egyptians pursued after them, all the horses and chariots of Pharaoh, and his horsemen, and his army. And they overtook them camping by the sea, beside Pihahiroth, before Baal-zephon.

<sup>10</sup>And when Pharaoh drew near, the sons of Israel lifted up their eyes. And, behold, the Egyptians marched after them. And they were very afraid. And the sons of Israel cried out to the LORD. <sup>11</sup>And they said to Moses, Have you taken us away to die in the wilderness because there were no graves in Egypt? Why have you dealt this way with us, to carry us forth out of Egypt? <sup>12</sup>Did we not tell you this word in Egypt, saying, Let us alone, so that we may serve the Egyptians? For it would have been better for us to serve the Egyptians, than that we should die in the wilderness.

<sup>13</sup>And Moses said to the people, Do not fear. Stand still and see the salvation of the LORD, which He will show you this day. For the Egyptians whom you have seen today, you shall never see them anymore. <sup>14</sup>The LORD shall fight for you, and you shall hold your peace.

<sup>15</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, Why do you cry to Me? Speak to the sons of Israel, that they go forward. <sup>16</sup>But lift up your rod and stretch out your hand over the sea, and divide it. And the sons of Israel shall go on dry ground through the midst of the sea. <sup>17</sup>And behold! I will harden the hearts of the Egyptians, and they shall follow them. And I will get honor for Me upon Pharaoh, and upon all his army, upon his chariots and upon his horsemen. <sup>18</sup>And the Egyptians shall know that I am the LORD when I have gotten honor for Me upon Pharaoh, upon his chariots, and upon his horsemen.

<sup>19</sup>And the Angel of God, the one who went before the camp of Israel, moved. And he went to the rear of them. And the pillar of the cloud went from in front of their face and it stood behind them. <sup>20</sup>And it came between the camp of the Egyptians and the camp of Israel. And it was a cloudy and dark night, but it gave light to the night, so that the one did not come near the other all night.

<sup>21</sup>And Moses stretched out his hand over the sea. And the LORD caused the sea to recede by a strong east wind all that night, and made the sea dry land, and the waters divided. <sup>22</sup>And the sons of Israel went into the midst of the sea upon the dry ground. And the waters were a wall to them on their right hand and on their left. <sup>23</sup>And the Egyptians pursued and went after them to the middle of the sea, all Pharaoh's horses, his chariots, and his horsemen. <sup>24</sup>And in the morning watch it happened that the LORD looked to the army of the Egyptians through the pillar of fire and of the cloud, and troubled the army of the Egyptians. <sup>25</sup>And He took off their chariot wheels, and made them go heavily, so that the Egyptians said, Let us flee from the face of Israel, for the LORD fights for them against the Egyptians.

<sup>26</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, Stretch out your hand over the sea, so that the waters may come again upon the Egyptians, upon their chariots, and upon their horsemen. <sup>27</sup>And Moses stretched forth his hand over the sea. And the sea returned to its strength when the morning appeared. And the Egyptians fled against it. And the LORD overthrew the Egyptians in the middle of the sea. <sup>28</sup>And the waters returned and covered the chariots and the horsemen, all the army of Pharaoh that came into the sea after them. There did not remain so much as one of them. <sup>29</sup>But the sons of Israel walked upon dry land in the middle of the sea. And the waters were a wall to them on their right hand and on their left.

<sup>30</sup>So the LORD saved Israel that day out of the hand of the Egyptians. And Israel saw the Egyptians dead upon the seashore. <sup>31</sup>And Israel saw that great work which the LORD did upon the Egyptians. And the people feared the LORD, and believed the LORD and His servant Moses.

CHAPTER 15

<sup>1</sup>Then the sons of Israel and Moses sang this song to the LORD, and spoke, saying, I will sing to the LORD, for He has triumphed gloriously; the horse and his rider He has thrown into the sea. <sup>2</sup>The LORD is my strength and song, and He has become my salvation. He is my God, and I will prepare Him a habitation, my father's God, and I will exalt Him. <sup>3</sup>The LORD is a Man of war; Jehovah is His name. <sup>4</sup>Pharaoh's chariots and his army He has thrown into the sea; his chosen captains also are drowned in the Red Sea. <sup>5</sup>The depths have covered them; they sank into the bottom like a stone. <sup>6</sup>Your right hand, O LORD, has become glorious in power. Your right hand, O LORD, has dashed the enemy in pieces. <sup>7</sup>And in the greatness of Your excellency You have overthrown them that rose up against You. You sent forth Your wrath, consuming them like stubble. <sup>8</sup>And with the blast of Your nostrils the waters were gathered together; the floods stood upright like a heap; the depths were curdled in the heart of the sea. <sup>9</sup>The enemy said, I will pursue, I will overtake, I will divide the spoil; my lust shall be satisfied upon them, I will draw my sword, my hand shall destroy them. <sup>10</sup>You blew with Your wind; the sea covered them. They sank like lead in the mighty waters. <sup>11</sup>Who is like You, O LORD, among the gods? Who is like You, glorious in holiness, fearful in praises, doing wonders? <sup>12</sup>You stretched out Your hand, the earth swallowed them. <sup>13</sup>You in Your mercy have led forth the people which You have redeemed. You have guided them in Your strength to Your holy habitation. <sup>14</sup>The people shall hear, being afraid. Sorrow shall take hold on the people of Philistia. <sup>15</sup>Then the princes of Edom shall be amazed. Trembling shall take hold upon the mighty men of Moab. All the people of Canaan shall melt away. <sup>16</sup>Fear and dread shall fall upon them. By the greatness of Your arm they shall be still as a stone, until Your people pass over, O LORD; until the people whom You have purchased pass over. <sup>17</sup>You shall bring them and plant them in the mountain of Your inheritance, the place, O LORD, You have made for You to dwell in; the Sanctuary, O LORD, which Your hands have established. <sup>18</sup>The LORD shall reign forever and ever.

<sup>19</sup>For the horse of Pharaoh went in with his chariots and with his horsemen into the sea, and the LORD brought again the waters of the sea upon them. But the sons of Israel went on dry land in the middle of the sea.

<sup>20</sup>And Miriam the prophetess, the sister of Aaron, took a timbrel in her hand. And all the women went out after her with timbrels and with dances. <sup>21</sup>And Miriam answered them, Sing to the LORD, for He has triumphed gloriously. The horse and his rider He has thrown into the sea.

<sup>22</sup>And Moses brought Israel from the Red Sea, and they went out into the wilderness of Shur. And they went three days in the wilderness, and found no water. <sup>23</sup>And when they came to Marah, they could not drink of the waters of Marah, because it was bitter. Therefore the name of it was called Marah. <sup>24</sup>And the people murmured against Moses, saying, What shall we drink? <sup>25</sup>And he cried to the LORD. And the LORD showed him a tree. And when he had cast it into the waters, the waters were made sweet. There he made a decree and a law for them, and there he proved them. <sup>26</sup>And he said, If you will carefully listen to the voice of the LORD your God, and will do that which is right in His sight, and will give ear to His commandments, and keep all His laws, I will put none of these diseases upon you, which I have brought upon the Egyptians; for I am the LORD who heals you.

<sup>27</sup>And they came to Elim, where there were twelve wells of water, and seventy palm trees. And they camped there by the waters.

CHAPTER 16

<sup>1</sup>And they took their journey from Elim, and all the congregation of the sons of Israel came into the wilderness of Sin, which is between Elim and Sinai, on the fifteenth day of the second month after their departing out of the land of Egypt. <sup>2</sup>And the whole congregation of the sons of Israel murmured against Moses and Aaron in the wilderness. <sup>3</sup>And the sons of Israel said to them, O that we had died by the hand of the LORD in the land of Egypt, when we sat by the flesh-pots, when we ate bread to the full! For you have brought us forth into this wilderness to kill this whole assembly with hunger.

<sup>4</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, Behold, I will rain bread from the heavens for you. And the people shall go out and gather a certain amount every day, that I may prove them, whether they will walk in My law or not. <sup>5</sup>And on the sixth day it shall happen, they shall prepare that which they bring in. And it shall be twice as much as they gather day by day. <sup>6</sup>And Moses and Aaron said to all the sons of Israel, At evening, then you shall know that the LORD has brought you out from the land of Egypt. <sup>7</sup>And in the morning, then you shall see the glory of the LORD. For He hears your murmurings against the LORD. And what are we, that you murmur against us? <sup>8</sup>And Moses said, You will see when the LORD shall give you flesh to eat in the evening and bread to the full in the morning, when the LORD hears your murmurings which you murmur against Him. And what are we? Your murmurings are not against us, but against the LORD.

<sup>9</sup>And Moses spoke to Aaron, Say to all the congregation of the sons of Israel, Come near before the LORD. For He has heard your murmurings. <sup>10</sup>And it happened as Aaron spoke to the whole congregation of the sons of Israel, they looked toward the wilderness. And behold! The glory of the LORD appeared in the cloud! <sup>11</sup>And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>12</sup>I have heard the murmurings of the sons of Israel. Speak to them, saying, You shall eat flesh at evening, and in the morning you shall be filled with bread. And you shall know that I am the LORD your God.

<sup>13</sup>And it happened at evening, the quails came up and covered the camp. And in the morning the dew lay all around the host. <sup>14</sup>And when the layer of dew had gone up, behold, there was a small round thing upon the face of the wilderness, small as the hoar-frost upon the ground. <sup>15</sup>And when the sons of Israel saw, they said, What is that? For they did not know what it was. And Moses said to them, This is the bread which the LORD has given you to eat. <sup>16</sup>This is the thing which the LORD has commanded: Each man gather of it according to his eating, an omer for every man, according to the number of your souls. Each one shall take for those who are in his camp. <sup>17</sup>And the sons of Israel did so, and gathered, some more, and some less. <sup>18</sup>And when they measured with an omer, he that gathered much had nothing over, and he that gathered little lacked nothing. They gathered each one according to his eating. <sup>19</sup>And Moses said, Let no man leave of it until the morning. <sup>20</sup>But they did not listen to Moses, but some of them left of it until the morning. And it became rotten with maggots, and stank. And Moses was angry with them.

<sup>21</sup>And they gathered it every morning, each man according to his eating. And when the sun became hot, it melted. <sup>22</sup>And it happened, on the sixth day they gathered twice as much bread, two omers for one. And all the rulers of the congregation came and told Moses. <sup>23</sup>And he said to them, This is that which the LORD has said, Tomorrow is the rest of the holy sabbath to the LORD. Bake what you will bake today, and boil what you will boil. And that which remains over, lay up for you to be kept until the morning. <sup>24</sup>And they laid it up until the morning, as Moses said. And it did not stink, neither was there any worm in it. <sup>25</sup>And Moses said, Eat that today. For today is a sabbath to the LORD. Today you shall not find it in the field. <sup>26</sup>Six days you shall gather it, but on the seventh day, the sabbath, in it there shall be none.

<sup>27</sup>And it happened some of the people went out on the seventh day in order to gather. And they did not find any. <sup>28</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, How long do you refuse to keep My commandments and My laws? <sup>29</sup>See, because the LORD has given you the sabbath, therefore He gives you the bread of two days on the sixth day. Each one stay in his place. Let not any one go out of his place on the seventh day. <sup>30</sup>So the people rested on the seventh day.

<sup>31</sup>And the house of Israel called the name of it Manna. And it was like coriander seed, white. And the taste of it was like wafers with honey. <sup>32</sup>And Moses said, This is the thing which the LORD commanded: Fill an omer of it to be kept for your generations, so that you may see the bread with which I have fed you in the wilderness, when I brought you forth from the land of Egypt. <sup>33</sup>And Moses said to Aaron, Take a pot and put an omer full of manna in it, and lay it up before the LORD, to be kept for your generations. <sup>34</sup>As the LORD commanded Moses, so Aaron laid it up before the Testimony, to be kept. <sup>35</sup>And the sons of Israel ate manna forty years, until they came to a land in which people lived. They ate manna until they came into the borders of the land of Canaan. <sup>36</sup>And an omer is the tenth part of an ephah.

CHAPTER 17

<sup>1</sup>And all the congregation of the sons of Israel journeyed from the wilderness of Sin, after their journey, according to the command of the Lord, and pitched in Rephidim. And there was no water for the people to drink. <sup>2</sup>And the people wrangled with Moses and said, Give us water that we may drink. And Moses said to them, Why do you wrangle with me? Why do you tempt the LORD? <sup>3</sup>And the people thirsted there for water. And the people murmured against Moses and said, Why is this, that You brought us up out of Egypt, to kill us and our sons and our cattle with thirst? <sup>4</sup>And Moses cried to the LORD, saying, What shall I do to this people? They are almost ready to stone me. <sup>5</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, Go on in front of the people, and take with you the elders of Israel. And take your rod with which you struck the river, in your hand, and go. <sup>6</sup>Behold, I will stand before you there upon the rock in Horeb. And you shall smite the rock, and there shall come water out of it, so that the people may drink. And Moses did so in the sight of the elders of Israel. <sup>7</sup>And he called the name of the place Massah, and Meribah, because of the wrangling of the sons of Israel, and because they tempted the LORD, saying, Is the LORD among us or not?

<sup>8</sup>Then Amalek came and fought with Israel in Rephidim. <sup>9</sup>And Moses said to Joshua, Choose us out men, and go out to fight with Amalek. Tomorrow I will stand on the top of the hill with the rod of God in my hand. <sup>10</sup>And Joshua did as Moses had said to him, and fought with Amalek. And Moses, Aaron, and Hur went up to the top of the hill. <sup>11</sup>And it happened when Moses held up his hand, Israel prevailed. And when he let down his hand, Amalek prevailed. <sup>12</sup>But Moses' hands became heavy. And they took a stone and put it under him, and he sat on it. And Aaron and Hur held up his hands, the one on the one side, and the other on the other side. And his hands were steady until the going of the sun. <sup>13</sup>And Joshua defeated Amalek and his people by the mouth of the sword.

<sup>14</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, Write this, a memorial in a book, and set it in the ears of Joshua, that I will utterly put out the remembrance of Amalek from under heaven. <sup>15</sup>And Moses built an altar, and called the name of it Jehovah My Banner. <sup>16</sup>And he said, A hand is on the throne of the LORD; war is to the LORD with Amalek from generation to generation.

CHAPTER 18

<sup>1</sup>When Jethro, the priest of Midian, Moses' father-in-law, heard of all that God had done for Moses and for Israel his people, that the LORD had brought Israel out of Egypt, <sup>2</sup>then Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, took Zipporah, Moses' wife, after he had sent her back, <sup>3</sup>and her two sons, of which the name of the one was Gershom (for he said, I have been an alien in a strange land), <sup>4</sup>and the name of the other was Eliezer (for the God of my father, my help, delivered me from the sword of Pharaoh.) <sup>5</sup>And Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, came with his sons and his wife to Moses in the wilderness, where he camped at the mount of God. <sup>6</sup>And he said to Moses, I, your father-in-law Jethro, have come to you, and your wife and her two sons with her.

<sup>7</sup>And Moses went out to meet his father-in-law, and bowed down to him, and kissed him. And they asked each other of their welfare. And they came into the tent. <sup>8</sup>And Moses told his father-in-law all that the LORD had done to Pharaoh and the Egyptians for Israel's sake, all the travail that had come upon them by the way, and how the LORD delivered them. <sup>9</sup>And Jethro rejoiced for all the goodness which the LORD had done to Israel, whom He had delivered out of the hand of the Egyptians. <sup>10</sup>And Jethro said, Blessed be the LORD, who has delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians and out of the hand of Pharaoh, and who has delivered the people from under the hand of the Egyptians. <sup>11</sup>Now I know that the LORD is greater than all gods; for in the thing in which they dealt proudly, He was above them.

<sup>12</sup>And Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, took a burnt offering and sacrifices for God. And Aaron came, and all the elders of Israel, to eat bread with Moses' father-in-law before God.

<sup>13</sup>And on the next day it happened that Moses sat to judge the people. And the people stood by Moses from the morning to the evening. <sup>14</sup>And when Moses' father-in-law saw all that he did to the people, he said, What is this thing which you do to the people? Why do you sit alone by yourself, and all the people stand by you from morning to evening? <sup>15</sup>And Moses said to his father-in-law, Because the people come to me to inquire of God. <sup>16</sup>When they have a matter, they come to me. And I judge between one and another, and I make known the statutes of God and His laws. <sup>17</sup>And Moses' father-in-law said to him, The thing that you do is not good. <sup>18</sup>You will surely wear away, both you and this people that is with you. For this thing is too heavy for you; you are not able to perform it alone. <sup>19</sup>Listen now to my voice; I will give you counsel, and God will be with you. You be for the people toward God, that you may bring the causes to God. <sup>20</sup>And you shall teach them ordinances and laws, and shall show them the way in which they must walk, and the work that they must do. <sup>21</sup>And you shall look out of all the people able men, such as fear God, men of truth, hating covetousness. And place such over them to be rulers of thousands, and rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens. <sup>22</sup>And let them judge the people at all times. And it shall be, every great matter they shall bring to you, but every small matter they shall judge. And make it easier for yourself, and they shall bear with you. <sup>23</sup>If you will do this thing, and God command you, then you shall be able to endure, and all this people shall also go to their place in peace.

<sup>24</sup>And Moses listened to the voice of his father-in-law, and did all that he had said. <sup>25</sup>And Moses chose able men out of all Israel, and made them heads over the people, rulers of thousands, rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens. <sup>26</sup>And they judged the people at all times. The hard causes they brought to Moses, but every small matter they judged themselves. <sup>27</sup>And Moses let his father-in-law depart. And he went his way into his own land.

CHAPTER 19

<sup>1</sup>In the third month when the sons of Israel had gone forth out of the land of Egypt, on this day they came to the wilderness of Sinai. <sup>2</sup>And they journeyed from Rephidim, and came to the desert of Sinai, and had pitched in the wilderness. And Israel camped there in front of the mount. <sup>3</sup>And Moses went up to God, and the LORD called to him out of the mountain, saying, You shall say to the house of Jacob, and tell the sons of Israel: <sup>4</sup>You have seen what I did to the Egyptians, and I bore you on eagles' wings and brought you to Myself. <sup>5</sup>And now if you will obey My voice indeed, and keep My covenant, then you shall be a peculiar treasure to Me above all people; for all the earth is Mine. <sup>6</sup>And you shall be to Me a kingdom of priests and a holy nation. These are the words which you shall speak to the sons of Israel.

<sup>7</sup>And Moses came and called for the elders of the people, and laid before their faces all these words which the LORD commanded him. <sup>8</sup>And all the people answered together and said, All that the LORD has spoken we will do. And Moses returned the words of the people to the LORD. <sup>9</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, Lo, I come to you in a thick cloud, that the people may hear when I speak with you, and believe you forever. And Moses told the words of the people to the LORD.

<sup>10</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, Go to the people and sanctify them today and tomorrow, and let them wash their clothes. <sup>11</sup>And be ready for the third day. For the third day the LORD will come down in the sight of all the people upon Mount Sinai. <sup>12</sup>And you shall set bounds to the people round about, saying, Take heed to yourselves. Do not go up into the mountain, or touch the border of it. Whoever touches the mountain shall be surely put to death. <sup>13</sup>There shall not be a hand to touch it, but that he shall surely be stoned or shot through; whether beast or man, it shall not live. When the trumpet sounds long, they shall come up to the mountain.

<sup>14</sup>And Moses went down from the mountain to the people, and sanctified the people. And they washed their clothes. <sup>15</sup>And he said to the people, Be ready for the third day. Do not approach a woman.

<sup>16</sup>And it happened on the third day in the morning, that there were thunders and lightnings, and a thick cloud upon the mountain. And the voice of the trumpet was exceedingly loud, so that all the people in the camp trembled. <sup>17</sup>And Moses brought the people out of the camp to meet with God. And they stood at the lower part of the mountain. <sup>18</sup>And Mount Sinai was smoking, all of it, because the LORD came down upon it in fire. And the smoke of it went up like the smoke of a furnace, and the whole mountain quaked greatly. <sup>19</sup>And when the voice of the trumpet sounded long, and became louder and louder, Moses spoke, and God answered him by a voice. <sup>20</sup>And the LORD came down upon Mount Sinai, on the top of the mountain. And the LORD called Moses to the top of the mountain, and Moses went up. <sup>21</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, Go down. Command the people, lest they break through to the LORD to gaze, and many of them perish. <sup>22</sup>And let the priests also, who come near to the LORD, sanctify themselves, lest the LORD break forth upon them. <sup>23</sup>And Moses said to the LORD, The people cannot come up to Mount Sinai. For You commanded us, saying, Set bounds around the mountain, and sanctify it. <sup>24</sup>And the LORD said to him, Away! You go down, and you shall come up, you and Aaron with you. But do not let the priests and the people break through to come up to the LORD, lest He break forth upon them. <sup>25</sup>And Moses went down to the people, and spoke to them.

CHAPTER 20

<sup>1</sup>And God spoke all these words, saying,

<sup>2</sup>I am the LORD your God, who has brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

<sup>3</sup>You shall have no other gods before Me.

<sup>4</sup>You shall not make to yourselves any graven image, or any likeness of anything that is in the heavens above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth. <sup>5</sup>You shall not bow yourself down to them, nor serve them. For I the LORD your God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the sons to the third and fourth generation of those that hate me, <sup>6</sup>and showing mercy to thousands of those that love Me and keep My commandment.

<sup>7</sup>You shall not take the name of the LORD your God in vain. For the LORD will not hold him guiltless that takes His name in vain.

<sup>8</sup>Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy. <sup>9</sup>Six days you shall labor and do all your work. <sup>10</sup>But the seventh day is the Sabbath of the LORD your God. You shall not do any work, you nor your son, nor your daughter, your man-servant, nor your maid-servant, nor your cattle, nor your stranger within your gates. <sup>11</sup>For in six days the LORD made the heavens and the earth, the sea, and all that is in them, and rested the seventh day. Therefore the LORD blessed the Sabbath day, and sanctified it.

<sup>12</sup>Honor your father and your mother, so that your days may be long upon the land which the LORD your God gives you.

<sup>17</sup>You shall not covet your neighbor's house. You shall not covet your neighbor's wife, nor his man-servant, nor his maid-servant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor anything that is your neighbor's.

<sup>18</sup>And all the people saw the thunderings, and the lightnings, and the noise of the trumpet, and the mountain smoking. And when the people saw, they moved, and stood afar off. <sup>19</sup>And they said to Moses, You speak with us, and we will hear. But let not God speak with us, lest we die. <sup>20</sup>And Moses said to the people, Do not fear, for God has come to test you, and so that His fear may be before your faces, so that you may not sin. <sup>21</sup>And the people stood afar off, and Moses drew near to the thick darkness where God was.

<sup>22</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, So you shall say to the sons of Israel, You have seen that I have talked with you from Heaven. <sup>23</sup>You shall not make with Me gods of silver, neither shall you make to you gods of gold.

<sup>24</sup>You shall make an altar of earth to Me, and shall sacrifice on it your burnt offerings and your peace offerings, your sheep and your oxen. In all places where I record My name I will come to you, and I will bless you. <sup>25</sup>And if you will make Me an altar of stone, you shall not build it of cut stone. For if you lift up your tool upon it, you have defiled it. <sup>26</sup>And you shall not go up by steps to My altar, that your nakedness be not uncovered on it.

<sup>2</sup>If you buy a Hebrew servant, he shall serve six years. And in the seventh he shall go out free for nothing. <sup>3</sup>If he came in by himself, he shall go out by himself. If he was married, then his wife shall go out with him. <sup>4</sup>If his master has given him a wife, and she has borne him sons or daughters, the wife and her children shall be her master's, and he shall go out by himself. <sup>5</sup>And if the servant shall plainly say, I love my master, my wife, and my sons. I do not want to go out free <sup>6</sup>his master shall bring him to the judges. He shall also bring him to the door or to the door-post. And his master shall bore his ear through with an awl, and he shall serve him forever.

<sup>7</sup>And if a man sells his daughter to be a maid-servant, she shall not go out as the men-servants do. <sup>8</sup>If she does not please her master, who has betrothed her to himself, then he shall let her be redeemed. He shall have no power to sell her to a strange nation, since he has dealt deceitfully with her. <sup>9</sup>And if he has betrothed her to his son, he shall deal with her as with daughters. <sup>10</sup>If he takes himself another wife, her food, her clothing, and her duty of marriage shall not be lessened. <sup>11</sup>And if he does not do these three to her, then she shall go out free without money.

<sup>12</sup>He that strikes a man, so that he dies, shall be surely put to death. <sup>13</sup>And if a man does not lie in wait, but God delivers him into his hand, then I will appoint you a place where he shall flee. <sup>14</sup>But if a man comes presumptuously upon his neighbor to slay him with guile, you shall take him from My altar, so that he may die. <sup>15</sup>And he that strikes his father or his mother shall surely be put to death. <sup>16</sup>And he that steals a man and sells him, or if he is found in his hand, he shall surely be put to death. <sup>17</sup>And he that curses his father or his mother shall surely be put to death. <sup>18</sup>And if men strive together, and one strikes another with a stone, or with his fist, and he does not die, but keeps his bed; <sup>19</sup>if he rises again and walks abroad upon his staff, then he that struck him shall be set free. Only he shall pay for the loss of his time, and shall cause him to be completely healed.

<sup>20</sup>And if a man strikes his servant, or his maid, with a rod, and he dies under his hand, he shall surely be punished. <sup>21</sup>But if he continues a day or two, he shall not be punished. For he is his money. <sup>22</sup>If men strive and strike a pregnant woman, so that her child comes out, and there is no injury, he shall surely be punished, according as the woman's husband will lay upon him. And he shall pay as the judges say. <sup>23</sup>And if any injury occurs, then you shall give life for life, <sup>24</sup>eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot, <sup>25</sup>burning for burning, wound for wound, stripe for stripe.

<sup>26</sup>And if a man strike the eye of his servant, or the eye of his maid, so that it perishes, he shall let him go free on account of his eye. <sup>27</sup>And if he strikes out his man-servant's tooth, or his maid-servant's tooth, he shall let him go free on account of his tooth.

<sup>28</sup>If an ox gores a man or woman so that they die, then the ox shall surely be stoned, and his flesh shall not be eaten. But the owner of the ox shall be set free. <sup>29</sup>But if the ox was apt to push with his horn in time past, and his owner has been told, and he has not kept him in, but that he has killed a man or a woman, the ox shall be stoned, and his owner also shall be put to death.

<sup>30</sup>If there is laid on him a sum of money, then he shall give for the ransom of his life whatever is laid upon him. <sup>31</sup>Whether he has gored a son, or has gored a daughter, according to this judgment it shall be done to him. <sup>32</sup>If the ox shall gore a man-servant or a maid-servant, he shall give to their master thirty shekels of silver, and the ox shall be stoned.

<sup>33</sup>And if a man shall open a pit, or if a man shall dig a pit, and not cover it, and an ox or an ass falls in it, <sup>34</sup>the owner of the pit shall make it good and give money to the owner of them. And the dead animal shall be his. <sup>35</sup>And in the event the ox of a man damages the ox of a neighbor, so that it dies, then they shall sell the living ox, and they shall divide the money of it. And they shall also divide the dead ox. <sup>36</sup>Or if it is known that the ox has been apt to gore in time past, and his owner has not kept him in, he shall surely pay ox for ox. And the dead shall be his own.

CHAPTER 22

<sup>1</sup>If a man shall steal an ox, or a sheep, and kill it or sell it, he shall restore five oxen for an ox, and four sheep for a sheep. <sup>2</sup>If a thief is found breaking in, and is struck so that he dies, no blood shall be shed for him. <sup>3</sup>If the sun is risen upon him, blood is due for him. He should repay in full. If he has nothing, then he shall be sold for his theft. <sup>4</sup>If the theft is certainly found in his hand alive, whether it is an ox, or an ass, or a sheep, he shall restore double.

<sup>5</sup>If a man causes a field or vineyard to be eaten, and shall put in his animal, and shall feed in another man's field; he shall repay from the best of his own field, and the best of his own vineyard.

<sup>6</sup>If fire breaks out and catches in thorns, so that the stacks of grain, or the standing grain, or the field, is burned up, he who kindled the fire shall surely repay in full.

<sup>7</sup>If a man shall deliver to his neighbor money or stuff to keep, and it is stolen out of the man's house; if the thief is found, let him pay double. <sup>8</sup>If the thief is not found, then the master of the house shall be brought to the judges, whether he has put his hand to his neighbor's goods.

<sup>9</sup>For every case of trespass, for ox, for ass, for sheep, for clothing, for any kind of lost thing, which another claims to be his, the cause of both parties shall come before the judges. Whom the judges shall condemn, he shall pay double to his neighbor. <sup>10</sup>If a man delivers to his neighbor an ass, or an ox, or a sheep, or any animal to keep, and it dies, or is hurt, or driven away, no one seeing, <sup>11</sup>an oath of the LORD be between them both, that he has not put his hand to his neighbor's goods. And the owner of it shall accept it, and he shall not make it good. <sup>12</sup>And if it is stolen from him, he shall fully repay the owner of it. <sup>13</sup>If it is torn in pieces, let him bring it for witness, and he shall not make good that which was torn.

<sup>14</sup>And if a man borrows from his neighbor, and it is hurt, or dies, and the owner of it not with it, he shall surely make it good. <sup>15</sup>If the owner of it is with it, he shall not make it good. If it is hired, it came for its hire.

<sup>18</sup>You shall not allow a witch to live.

<sup>21</sup>You shall neither vex a stranger nor oppress him, for you were strangers in the land of Egypt. <sup>22</sup>You shall not afflict any widow or fatherless child. <sup>23</sup>If you afflict them in any way, and they cry at all to Me, I will surely hear their cry. <sup>24</sup>And My wrath shall become hot, and I will kill you with the sword, and your wives shall be widows, and your sons fatherless.

<sup>25</sup>If you lend money to one of My people who is poor beside you, you shall not be to him as a money-lender, neither shall you lay upon him interest. <sup>26</sup>If you at all take your neighbor's clothing as a pledge, you shall deliver it to him by the time the sun goes down. <sup>27</sup>For that is his covering only, it is his clothing for his skin. In what shall he sleep? And it will be, when he cries to Me, I will hear, for I am gracious.

<sup>28</sup>You shall not revile God, nor curse the ruler of your people.

<sup>29</sup>You shall not delay to offer the first of your ripe fruits and of your sap. You shall give the firstborn of your sons to Me. <sup>30</sup>Likewise you shall do with your oxen and with your sheep; it shall be with its dam seven days. On the eighth day you shall give it to Me. <sup>31</sup>And you shall be holy men to Me. Neither shall you eat flesh torn by beasts in the field. You shall throw it to the dogs.

CHAPTER 23

<sup>1</sup>You shall not raise a false report. Do not put your hand with the wicked to be an unrighteous witness. <sup>2</sup>You shall not follow a multitude to do evil. Neither shall you speak in a cause in order to follow many in order to wrest judgment. <sup>3</sup>And you should not favor a poor man in his cause.

<sup>4</sup>If you meet your enemy's ox or his ass going astray, you shall surely bring it back to him again. <sup>5</sup>If you see the ass of him who hates you lying under his burden, and would hold back from helping him, you shall surely help him.

<sup>6</sup>You shall not pervert the judgment of your poor in his cause. <sup>7</sup>Keep far from a false matter, and do not kill the innocent and righteous. For I will not justify the wicked. <sup>8</sup>And you shall take no gift, for the gift blinds the wise and perverts the words of the righteous.

<sup>9</sup>Also you shall not oppress a stranger. For you know the heart of a stranger, since you were strangers in the land of Egypt.

<sup>10</sup>And you shall sow your land six years, and shall gather in the fruits of it. <sup>11</sup>But the seventh year you shall let it rest and lie still, so that the poor of your people may eat. And what they leave, the animals of the field shall eat. In the same way you shall deal with your vineyard and with your oliveyard.

<sup>12</sup>You shall do your work six days, and on the seventh day you shall rest, so that your ox and your ass may rest, and the son of your handmaid, and the stranger, may be refreshed. <sup>13</sup>And be watchful in all that I have said to you. And make no mention of the name of other gods, neither let it be heard out of your mouth.

<sup>14</sup>You shall keep a feast to Me three times in the year. <sup>15</sup>You shall keep the Feast of Unleavened Bread. You shall eat unleavened bread seven days, as I commanded you, in the time appointed of the month Abib, for in it you came out of Egypt. And no one shall appear before Me empty.

<sup>16</sup>Also the Feast of Harvest, the first-fruits of your labors, which you have sown in the field. Also the Feast of Ingathering, in the end of the year, when you have gathered in your labors out of the field. <sup>17</sup>Three times in the year all your males shall appear before the Lord God.

<sup>18</sup>You shall not offer the blood of My sacrifice with leavened bread, neither shall the fat of My sacrifice remain until the morning. <sup>19</sup>The first of the first-fruits of your land you shall bring into the house of the LORD your God. You shall not boil a kid in its mother's milk.

<sup>20</sup>Behold, I send an Angel before you, to keep you in the way, and to bring you in the way, and to bring you to the place which I have prepared. <sup>21</sup>Beware of Him, and obey His voice. Do not provoke Him, for He will not pardon your transgressions. For My name is in Him. <sup>22</sup>But if you shall indeed obey His voice, and do all that I speak, then I will be an enemy to your enemies, and a foe to your foes. <sup>23</sup>For My Angel shall go before you and bring you in to the Amorites, and the Hittites, and the Perizzites, and the Canaanites, and the Jebusites. And I will cut them off.

<sup>24</sup>You shall not bow down to their gods, nor serve them. And you shall not do according to their works. But you shall surely pull them down, and surely you shall smash their images. <sup>25</sup>And you shall serve the LORD your God, and He shall bless your bread and your water. And I will take sickness away from the midst of you. <sup>26</sup>Nothing shall cast their young, nor be barren in your land. The number of your days I will fulfill. <sup>27</sup>I will send My fear before you, and will destroy all the people to whom you shall come. And I will make all your enemies turn their backs to you. <sup>28</sup>And I will send hornets before you, which shall drive out the Hivite, the Canaanite, and the Hittite before you. <sup>29</sup>I will not drive them out from before you in one year, lest the land become a waste, and the beast of the field multiply against you. <sup>30</sup>By little and little I will drive them out from before you, until you have increased, and inherit the land. <sup>31</sup>And I will stretch your bounds from the Red Sea even to the Sea of the Philistines, and from the desert to the river. For I will deliver the inhabitants of the land into your hand, and you shall drive them out before you. <sup>32</sup>You shall make no covenant with them or with their gods. <sup>33</sup>They shall not dwell in your land lest they make you sin against Me. For if you serve their gods, it surely will be a snare to you.

CHAPTER 24

<sup>1</sup>And He said to Moses, Come up to the LORD, you and Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel. And bow yourselves afar off. <sup>2</sup>And Moses alone shall come near the LORD, but they shall not come near. Neither shall the people go up with him. <sup>3</sup>And Moses came and told the people all the words of the LORD, and all the judgments. And all the people answered with one voice and said, All the words which the LORD has said, we will do. <sup>4</sup>And Moses wrote all the words of the LORD, and rose up early in the morning, and built an altar under the hill and twelve pillars according to the twelve tribes of Israel. <sup>5</sup>And he sent young men of the sons of Israel who offered burnt offerings, and sacrificed peace offerings of oxen to the LORD. <sup>6</sup>And Moses took half of the blood, and put it in basins, and half of the blood he sprinkled on the altar. <sup>7</sup>And he took the book of the covenant, and read in the ears of the people. And they said, All that the LORD has said we will do, and be obedient. <sup>8</sup>And Moses took the blood and sprinkled it on the people, and said, Behold the blood of the covenant, which the LORD has made with you concerning all these words.

<sup>9</sup>And Moses went up, and Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel. <sup>10</sup>And they saw the God of Israel. And there was under His feet as it were a paved work of a sapphire stone, and as it were the body of heaven in clearness. <sup>11</sup>And upon the nobles of the sons of Israel he did not lay his hands. Also they saw God, and ate and drank.

<sup>12</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, Come up to Me in the mountain, and be there. And I will give you tablets of stone, and a law, and commandments which I have written, so that you may teach them. <sup>13</sup>And Moses rose up, and his attendant Joshua. And Moses went up into the mountain of God. <sup>14</sup>And he said to the elders, You stay here for us until we come again to you. And behold, Aaron and Hur are with you. If any man has any matters to do, let him come to them. <sup>15</sup>And Moses went up into the mountain, and a cloud covered the mountain. <sup>16</sup>And the glory of the LORD abode upon Mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it six days. And the seventh day He called to Moses out of the midst of the cloud. <sup>17</sup>And the sight of the glory of the LORD was like devouring fire on the top of the mountain in the eyes of the sons of Israel. <sup>18</sup>And Moses went into the midst of the cloud, and went up into the mountain. And Moses was in the mountain forty days and forty nights.

CHAPTER 25

<sup>1</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>2</sup>Speak to the sons of Israel that they bring Me an offering. You shall take an offering from every man that gives it willingly with his heart. <sup>3</sup>And this is the offering which you shall take of them: gold, and silver, and brass, <sup>4</sup>and blue, and purple, and scarlet, and bleached linen, and goats' hair, <sup>5</sup>and rams' skins dyed red, and badgers' skins, and acacia-wood, <sup>6</sup>oil for the light, spices for anointing oil and for sweet incense, <sup>7</sup>onyx stones, and stones to be set in the ephod and in the breastplate. <sup>8</sup>And let them make Me a sanctuary, so that I may dwell among them. <sup>9</sup>According to all that I show you, the pattern of the tabernacle, and the pattern of all the instruments of it, even so you shall make it.

<sup>10</sup>And they shall make an ark of acacia-wood. Two and a half cubits shall be the length of it, and a cubit and a half the breadth of it, and a cubit and a half the height of it. <sup>11</sup>And you shall overlay it with pure gold. You shall overlay it inside and out, and shall make on it a crown of gold all around. <sup>12</sup>And you shall cast four rings of gold for it, and shall put it on its four feet. And two rings shall be in the one side of it, and two rings in the other side of it. <sup>13</sup>And you shall make staves of acacia-wood, and overlay them with gold. <sup>14</sup>And you shall put the staves into the rings by the sides of the ark, so that the ark may be carried with them. <sup>15</sup>And the staves shall be in the rings of the ark. They shall not be taken from it. <sup>16</sup>And you shall put into the ark the testimony which I shall give you.

<sup>17</sup>And you shall make a mercy-seat of pure gold. Two and a half cubits shall be the length of it, and a cubit and a half the breadth of it. <sup>18</sup>And you shall make two cherubs of gold; of beaten work you shall make them, in the two ends of the mercy-seat. <sup>19</sup>And make one cherub on the one end, and the other cherub on the other end. From the mercy-seat you shall make the cherubs, on the two ends of it. <sup>20</sup>And the cherubs shall stretch forth their wings on high, covering the mercy-seat with their wings, and their faces each toward the other; toward the mercy-seat shall the cherubs' faces be. <sup>21</sup>And you shall put the mercy-seat above, upon the ark. And you shall put the testimony that I shall give you, in the ark. <sup>22</sup>And I will meet with you there, and I will talk with you from above the mercy-seat, from between the two cherubs on the ark of the testimony, of all things which I will give you in commandment to the sons of Israel.

<sup>23</sup>You shall also make a table of acacia-wood, its length two cubits and its breadth a cubit, and its height a cubit and a half. <sup>24</sup>And you shall overlay it with pure gold, and make to this a crown of gold all around. <sup>25</sup>And you shall make to it a border of a hand's breadth round about. And you shall make a golden crown to the border of it, all around. <sup>26</sup>And you shall make for it four rings of gold, and put the rings in the four corners that are on the four feet of it. <sup>27</sup>The rings shall be adjoining the border as places for the staves to carry the table. <sup>28</sup>And you shall make the staves of acacia-wood and overlay them with gold, so that the table may be carried with them. <sup>29</sup>And you shall make its dishes, and its spoons, and its covers, and its sacrificial cups with which a drink-offering is made. You shall make them of pure gold. <sup>30</sup>And you shall set upon the table showbread before Me always.

<sup>31</sup>And you shall make a lampstand of pure gold. The lampstand shall be made of beaten work — its shaft, and its branches, its cups, its knobs, and its blossoms, shall be from it. <sup>32</sup>And six branches shall come out of the sides of it — three branches of the lampstand out of the one side, and three branches of the lampstand out of the other side. <sup>33</sup>Three almond-like cups on the one branch, with knob and blossom; and three almond-like cups on the one branch, with knob and blossom — so for the six branches, those going out of the lampstand.<sup>34</sup> And in the lampstand shall be four almond-like cups, with their knobs and their blossoms;<sup>35</sup> and a knob under two branches of it, and a knob under two branches of it, and a knob under two branches of it, according to the six branches, those going out of the lampstand.<sup>36</sup> Their knobs and their branches shall be of it, all of it one beaten work of pure gold.<sup>37</sup> And you shall make the seven lamps of it. And one shall light the lamps of it, so that they may give light on its face.<sup>38</sup> And the tongs of it, and its snuff-dishes shall be of pure gold.<sup>39</sup> One shall make it of a talent of pure gold, with all these vessels.<sup>40</sup> And see that you make them after their pattern, which was shown you in the mountain.

CHAPTER 26

<sup>1</sup>And you shall make the tabernacle with ten curtains of fine twined bleached linen, and blue, and purple, and scarlet. You shall make them with cherubs, of the work of a cunning workman.<sup>2</sup>The length of one curtain shall be twenty-eight cubits, and the breadth of one curtain four cubits. And every one of the curtains shall have one measure.<sup>3</sup>The five curtains shall be coupled together to one another. And five curtains shall be coupled together, each to its sister.<sup>4</sup>And you shall make loops of blue, from the end at the juncture; and so you shall do at the edge of the last curtain, at the second juncture.<sup>5</sup>You shall make fifty loops in the one curtain, and you shall make fifty loops in the end of the curtain which is at second juncture, the corresponding loops each to her sister.<sup>6</sup>You shall make fifty clasps of gold, and you shall join the curtains each to her sister by the clasps. And it shall be one tabernacle.

<sup>7</sup>And you shall make curtains of goats' hair to be a covering over the tabernacle. You shall make eleven curtains.<sup>8</sup>The length of one curtain shall be thirty cubits, and the breadth of one curtain four cubits, one measure to the eleven curtains.<sup>9</sup>And you shall join five curtains by themselves, and six curtains by themselves. And you shall double the sixth curtain in the forefront of the tabernacle.<sup>10</sup>And you shall make fifty loops on the edge of one curtain, the last at the juncture, and fifty loops in the edge of the curtain that joins.<sup>11</sup>And you shall make fifty clasps of bronze, and put the clasps into the loops, and couple the tent together, so that it may be one.<sup>12</sup>And the rest that remains of the curtains of the tent, the half curtain that remains, shall hang over the backside of the tabernacle.<sup>13</sup>And the cubit from this side, and the cubit from that side that remains in the length of the curtains of the tent shall be hung over the sides of the tabernacle, from this and from that side, to cover it.<sup>14</sup>And you shall make a covering for the tent of rams' skins dyed red, and a covering above of badgers' skins.

<sup>15</sup>And you shall make boards for the tabernacle of acacia-wood standing up.<sup>16</sup>Ten cubits shall be the length of one board, and a cubit and a half shall be the breadth of one board.<sup>17</sup>There shall be two pins in one board, each connected to its sister-piece. So you shall do for all the boards of the tabernacle.<sup>18</sup>And you shall make the boards for the tabernacle, twenty boards on the south side southward.<sup>19</sup>And you shall make forty sockets of silver for the twenty boards — two sockets under one board for its two pins, and two sockets under another board for its two pins.<sup>20</sup>And for the second side of the tabernacle on the north side shall be twenty boards,<sup>21</sup>and their forty sockets of silver, two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board.<sup>22</sup>And for the sides of the tabernacle westward you shall make six boards.<sup>23</sup>And you shall make two boards for the corners of the tabernacle in the sides.<sup>24</sup>And they shall be coupled together beneath, and they shall be coupled together above the head of it to one ring. So it shall be for them both. They shall be for the two corners.<sup>25</sup>And there shall be eight boards, and their sockets of silver, sixteen sockets — two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board.

<sup>26</sup>And you shall make bars of acacia-wood, five for the boards of the one side of the tabernacle, <sup>27</sup>and five bars for the boards of the other side of the tabernacle; and five bars for the side of the tabernacle, for the two sides westward. <sup>28</sup>And the middle bar in the midst of the boards shall reach from end to end. <sup>29</sup>And you shall overlay the boards with gold, and you shall make their rings of gold, housings for the bars. And you shall overlay the bars with gold.

<sup>30</sup>And you shall rear up the tabernacle according to the pattern of it which was shown you in the mountain. <sup>31</sup>And you shall make a veil of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined bleached linen of embroidered work. It shall be made with cherubs. <sup>32</sup>And you shall hang it upon four pillars of acacia-wood overlaid with gold. Their hooks shall be of gold, upon the four sockets of silver.

<sup>33</sup>And you shall hang up the veil under the clasps, that you may bring the ark of the testimony in there within the veil. And the veil shall divide for you between the holy place and the Holy of Holies. <sup>34</sup>And you shall put the mercy-seat upon the ark of the testimony in the Holy of Holies. <sup>35</sup>And you shall set the table outside the veil, and the lampstand over against the table on the side of the tabernacle toward the south. And you shall put the table on the north side.

<sup>36</sup>And you shall make a screen for the door of the tent, of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined bleached linen, worked with needlework. <sup>37</sup>And you shall make five pillars of acacia-wood for the screen, and overlay them with gold; their hooks shall be of gold. And you shall cast five sockets of bronze for them.

CHAPTER 27

<sup>1</sup>And you shall make an altar of acacia-wood, five cubits long and five cubits broad. The altar shall be square. And the height of it shall be three cubits. <sup>2</sup>And you shall make the horns of it upon the four corners of it. Its horns shall be of the same, and you shall overlay it with bronze. <sup>3</sup>And you shall make its pans to receive its ashes, and its shovels, and its basins, and its flesh-hooks, and its fire-pans. All the vessels of it you shall make of bronze. <sup>4</sup>And you shall make for it a grate of network of bronze. And upon the net you shall make four bronze rings in the four corners of it. <sup>5</sup>And you shall put it under the compass of the altar beneath, so that the net may be even to the midst of the altar. <sup>6</sup>And you shall make staves for the altar, staves of acacia-wood, and overlay them with bronze. <sup>7</sup>And the staves shall be put into the rings, and the staves shall be upon the two sides of the altar, to carry it. <sup>8</sup>You shall make it hollow with boards; as it was shown you in the mountain, so shall they make it.

<sup>9</sup>And you shall make the court of the tabernacle. For the south side southward there shall be hangings for the court of fine twined bleached linen, of a hundred cubits long for one side. <sup>10</sup>And the twenty pillars of it, and their twenty sockets, shall be of bronze. The hooks of the pillars and their bands shall be of silver. <sup>11</sup>And likewise for the north side in length there shall be hangings of a hundred cubits long. And its twenty pillars and their twenty sockets shall be of bronze. The hooks of the pillars and their bands shall be of silver. <sup>12</sup>And for the breadth of the court on the west side shall be hangings of fifty cubits. Their pillars shall be ten, and their sockets ten. <sup>13</sup>And the breadth of the court on the east side eastward shall be fifty cubits. <sup>14</sup>The hangings of one side of the gate shall be fifteen cubits. Their pillars shall be three, and their sockets three; <sup>15</sup>and on the other side hangings of fifteen cubits; their pillars three, and their sockets three. <sup>16</sup>And for the gate of the court shall be a screen of twenty cubits, of blue and purple and scarlet, and fine twined bleached linen, worked with needlework; their pillars four, and their sockets four. <sup>17</sup>All the pillars around the court shall be banded with silver; their hooks silver, and their sockets of bronze.

<sup>18</sup>The length of the court shall be a hundred cubits, and the breadth fifty cubits everywhere, and the height five cubits of fine twined bleached linen, and their sockets of bronze. <sup>19</sup>All the vessels of the tabernacle in all the service of it, and all the pins of it, and all the pins of the court, shall be of bronze.

<sup>20</sup>And you shall command the sons of Israel that they bring you pure olive oil beaten for the light, to cause the lamp to burn always <sup>21</sup>in the tabernacle of the congregation, outside the veil which is before the testimony. Aaron and his sons shall order it from evening to morning before the LORD. It shall be a statute forever to their generations on behalf of the sons of Israel.

CHAPTER 28

<sup>1</sup>And you shall take to yourself Aaron your brother, and his sons with him, from among the sons of Israel, so that he may minister to Me in the priest's office: Aaron and Aaron's sons, Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar. <sup>2</sup>And you shall make holy garments for Aaron your brother, for glory and for beauty. <sup>3</sup>And you shall speak to all who are wise-hearted, whom I have filled with the spirit of wisdom, that they make Aaron's garments to consecrate him, so that he may minister to Me in the priest's office. <sup>4</sup>And these are the garments which they shall make: a breast-pocket, and an ephod, and a robe, and an embroidered coat, a miter, and a girdle. And they shall make holy garments for Aaron your brother, and his sons, so that he may minister to Me in the priest's office.

<sup>5</sup>And they shall take gold, and blue, and purple, and scarlet, and bleached linen.

<sup>6</sup>And they shall make the ephod of gold, of blue, and of purple, of scarlet, and fine twined bleached linen, with embroidered work. <sup>7</sup>It shall have the two shoulder-pieces of it joined at the two edges of it. And so it shall be joined together. <sup>8</sup>And the embroidered girdle of the ephod, which is upon it, shall be of the same, according to the work of it — of gold, of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined bleached linen.

<sup>9</sup>And you shall take two onyx stones, and you shall engrave on them the names of the sons of Israel. <sup>10</sup>Six of their names shall be on one stone, and six of the remaining names on the other stone, according to their birth. <sup>11</sup>With the work of an engraver in stone, like the engravings of a signet, you shall engrave the two stones with the names of the sons of Israel. You shall make them to be set in settings of gold. <sup>12</sup>And you shall put the two stones upon the shoulders of the ephod for stones of memorial to the sons of Israel. And Aaron shall bear their names before the LORD upon his two shoulders for a memorial.

<sup>13</sup>And you shall make plaited work of gold, <sup>14</sup>and two chains of pure gold at the ends. You shall make them of woven work, and fasten the woven chains to the plaited work.

<sup>15</sup>And you shall make the breast-pocket of judgment with embroidered work. After the work of the ephod you shall make it; of gold, blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined bleached linen, you shall make it. <sup>16</sup>It shall be square, doubled; a span the length of it, and a span the breadth of it. <sup>17</sup>And you shall set in it settings of stones, four rows of stones. The first row shall be a sardius, topaz, and carbuncle in the first row. <sup>18</sup>And the second row: an emerald, a sapphire, and a diamond. <sup>19</sup>And the third row: an opal, an agate, and an amethyst. <sup>20</sup>And the fourth row: a beryl, and an onyx, and a jasper. They shall be set in gold in their fillings. <sup>21</sup>And the stones shall be with the names of the sons of Israel, twelve, according to their names, like the engravings of a signet. They shall be each one with his name according to the twelve tribes.

<sup>22</sup>And you shall make chains upon the breast-pocket at the ends; woven work of pure gold. <sup>23</sup>And you shall make upon the breast-pocket two rings of gold, and shall put the two rings on the two ends of the breast-pocket. <sup>24</sup>And you shall put the two woven chains of gold in the two rings on the ends of the breast-pocket. <sup>25</sup>And the two ends of the two cords you shall fasten on the two plaitings, and put them on the shoulder-pieces of the ephod before it. <sup>26</sup>And you shall make two rings of gold, and you shall put them upon the two ends of the breast-pocket in the border of it, which is in the side of the ephod inward. <sup>27</sup>And you shall make two rings of gold, and shall put them on the two sides of the ephod underneath, toward the front of it, near its joining, above the embroidered girdle of the ephod. <sup>28</sup>And they shall bind the breast-pocket by its rings to the rings of the ephod with a lace of blue, that it may be above the embroidered girdle of the ephod, and so that the breast-pocket may not be loosed from the ephod. <sup>29</sup>And Aaron shall bear the names of the sons of Israel in the breast-pocket of judgment upon his heart, when he goes in to the holy place, for a memorial before the LORD continually. <sup>30</sup>And you shall put in the breast-pocket of judgment the Urim and the Thummim. And they shall be upon Aaron's heart, when he goes in before the LORD. And Aaron shall bear the judgment of the sons of Israel upon his heart before the LORD continually.

<sup>31</sup>And you shall make the robe of the ephod all of blue. <sup>32</sup>And there shall be a hole in the top of it, in its middle; a binding shall be all around its mouth, of woven work. It shall be like the mouth of a corselet; it may not be torn. <sup>33</sup>And on its hem you shall make pomegranates of blue, and of purple, and of scarlet, all around its hem. And bells of gold shall be between them all around. <sup>34</sup>There shall be a golden bell and a pomegranate, a golden bell and a pomegranate, upon the hem of the robe all around. <sup>35</sup>And it shall be on Aaron to serve. And his sound shall be heard when he goes in to the holy place before the LORD, and when he comes out, so that he will not die.

<sup>36</sup>And you shall make a plate of pure gold, and carve on it, like the engravings of a signet, HOLINESS TO JEHOVAH. <sup>37</sup>And you shall put it on a blue lace, so that it may be on the miter; on the front of the miter it shall be. <sup>38</sup>And it shall be on Aaron's forehead, so that Aaron may bear the iniquity of the holy things which the sons of Israel shall hallow in all their holy gifts. And it shall always be on his forehead, so that they may be accepted before the LORD.

<sup>39</sup>And you shall weave the tunic of bleached linen, and you shall make the miter of bleached linen, and you shall make the girdle of needlework. <sup>40</sup>And you shall make tunics for Aaron's sons, and you shall make for them girdles, and bonnets you shall make for them, for glory and for beauty. <sup>41</sup>And you shall clothe Aaron your brother, and his sons with him. And you shall anoint them, and you shall consecrate them, and you shall sanctify them, so that they may minister to Me in the priest's office. <sup>42</sup>And you shall make them linen breeches to cover the naked flesh; from the loins even to the thighs they shall reach. <sup>43</sup>And they shall be upon Aaron, and upon his sons, when they come in to the tabernacle of the congregation, or when they come near the altar to minister in the holy place; so that they do not bear iniquity, and die. It shall be a statute forever to him and his seed after him.

CHAPTER 29

<sup>1</sup>And this is the thing that you shall do to them, to hallow them to minister to Me in the priest's office. Take one young bull, the son of the herd, and two rams without blemish, <sup>2</sup>and unleavened bread, and cakes unleavened mixed with oil, and wafers unleavened anointed with oil. You shall make them of wheat flour. <sup>3</sup>And you shall put them into one basket, and bring them in the basket, with the bull and the two rams. <sup>4</sup>And you shall bring Aaron and his sons to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and shall wash them with water. <sup>5</sup>And you shall take the garments, and clothe Aaron with the tunic, and the robe of the ephod, and the ephod, and the breast-pocket, and gird him with the embroidered girdle of the ephod. <sup>6</sup>And you shall put the miter upon his head, and put the holy crown upon the miter. <sup>7</sup>Then you shall take the anointing oil, and pour on his head, and anoint him. <sup>8</sup>And you shall bring his sons and clothe them with tunics. <sup>9</sup>And you shall gird them with girdles, Aaron and his sons, and put the bonnets on them. And the priest's office shall be theirs for an everlasting statute. And you shall consecrate Aaron and his sons. <sup>10</sup>And you shall cause a bull to be brought before the tabernacle of the congregation. And Aaron and his sons shall put their hands upon the head of the bull. <sup>11</sup>And you shall kill the bull before the LORD, by the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. <sup>12</sup>And you shall take of the blood of the bull, and put it on the horns of the altar with your finger, and pour all the blood beside the bottom of the altar. <sup>13</sup>And you shall take all the fat that covers the inward parts, and the lobe on the liver, and the two kidneys, and the fat on them, and burn them upon the altar. <sup>14</sup>But the flesh of the bull, and its skin, and its dung, you shall burn with fire outside the camp. It is a sin offering.

<sup>15</sup>And you shall also take one ram. And Aaron and his sons shall put their hands upon the head of the ram. <sup>16</sup>And you shall kill the ram, and you shall take its blood and sprinkle all round upon the altar. <sup>17</sup>And you shall cut the ram in pieces, and you shall wash its inward parts and its legs, and put them with its pieces and with its head. <sup>18</sup>And you shall burn the whole ram upon the altar. It is a burnt offering to the LORD. It is a sweet savor, an offering made by fire to the LORD.

<sup>19</sup>And you shall take the other ram. And Aaron and his sons shall put their hands upon the head of the ram. <sup>20</sup>Then you shall kill the ram, and take of its blood, and put it upon the tip of the right ear of Aaron, and upon the tip of the right ear of his sons, and upon the thumb of their right hand, and upon the great toe of their right foot, and sprinkle the blood upon the altar all around. <sup>21</sup>And you shall take of the blood on the altar, and of the anointing oil, and sprinkle it on Aaron, and on his garments, and on his sons, and on the garments of his sons with him. And he shall be hallowed, and his garments, and his sons, and his sons' garments with him. <sup>22</sup>Also you shall take from the ram the fat and the rump, and the fat that covers the inward parts, and the lobe on the liver, and the two kidneys and the fat that is on them, and the right shoulder, for it is a ram of consecration; <sup>23</sup>and one loaf of bread, and one cake of oiled bread, and one wafer out of the basket of the unleavened bread that is before the LORD. <sup>24</sup>And you shall put all in the hands of Aaron and in the hands of his sons, and shall wave them for a wave offering before the LORD. <sup>25</sup>And you shall receive them from their hands, and burn them upon the altar for a burnt offering, for a sweet savor before the LORD. It is an offering made by fire to the LORD.

<sup>26</sup>And you shall take the breast of the ram of Aaron's consecration and wave it for a wave offering before the LORD. And it shall be your part. <sup>27</sup>And you shall sanctify the breast of the wave offering, and the shoulder of the heave offering, which is waved, and which is lifted from the ram of the consecration, from what is Aaron's, and from what is for his sons. <sup>28</sup>And it shall be Aaron's and his sons' by a statute forever from the sons of Israel. For it is a heave offering. And it shall be a heave offering from the sons of Israel of the sacrifices of their peace offerings, even their heave offering to the LORD.

<sup>29</sup>And the holy robes of Aaron shall be his sons' after him, to be anointed in them and consecrated in them. <sup>30</sup>The one of his sons that is priest in his place shall put them on seven days, when he comes into the tabernacle of the congregation to minister in the holy place.

<sup>31</sup>And you shall take the ram of the consecration, and boil its flesh in the holy place. <sup>32</sup>And Aaron and his sons shall eat the flesh of the ram and the bread that is in the basket, by the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. <sup>33</sup>And they shall eat those things with which the atonement was made, to consecrate and to sanctify them. But a stranger shall not eat of them, because they are holy. <sup>34</sup>And if any of the flesh of the consecrations, or of the bread, remains until the morning, then you shall burn the remainder with fire. It shall not be eaten, because it is holy.

<sup>35</sup>And so you shall do to Aaron and to his sons according to all things which I have commanded you. You shall consecrate them seven days. <sup>36</sup>And you shall offer every day a bull, a sin offering for atonement. And you shall cleanse the altar when you have made an atonement, and you shall anoint it to sanctify it. <sup>37</sup>You shall make an atonement for the altar seven days, and sanctify it. And it shall be a most holy altar. Whatever touches the altar shall be holy.

<sup>38</sup>And this is what you shall offer upon the altar: two lambs of the first year day by day forever. <sup>39</sup>The one lamb you shall offer in the morning, and the other lamb you shall offer at evening. <sup>40</sup>And with the one lamb a tenth part of flour mixed with the fourth part of a hin of beaten oil, and the fourth part of a hin of wine, a drink offering. <sup>41</sup>And you shall offer the other lamb at evening; you shall do to it according to the meal offering of the morning, and according to its drink offering, for a sweet smell, an offering made by fire to the LORD. <sup>42</sup>This shall be a burnt offering forever throughout your generations, at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation before the LORD, where I will meet you, to speak there to you. <sup>43</sup>And there I will meet with the sons of Israel, and Israel shall be sanctified by My glory. <sup>44</sup>And I will sanctify the tabernacle of the congregation and the altar. I will also sanctify both Aaron and his sons to minister to Me in the priest's office. <sup>45</sup>And I will dwell among the sons of Israel, and will be their God. <sup>46</sup>And they shall know that I am the LORD their God, who brought them forth out of the land of Egypt so that I may dwell among them. I am the LORD their God.

CHAPTER 30

<sup>1</sup>And you shall make an altar to burn incense upon. You shall make it of acacia-wood. <sup>2</sup>A cubit shall be its length, and a cubit its breadth. It shall be square. And two cubits shall be the height of it, its horns shall be from itself. <sup>3</sup>And you shall overlay it with pure gold, the top of it, and the sides of it all around, and the horns of it. And you shall make to it a crown of gold all around. <sup>4</sup>And you shall make two golden rings to it under the crown of it, by the two corners of it, upon the two sides of it you shall make it. And they shall be housings for the staves to bear it with. <sup>5</sup>And you shall make the staves of acacia-wood and overlay them with gold. <sup>6</sup>And you shall put it before the veil that is by the ark of the testimony, in front of the mercy-seat that is beside the testimony, where I will meet with you. <sup>7</sup>And Aaron shall burn sweet incense on it every morning; when he dresses the lamps he shall burn incense upon it. <sup>8</sup>And when Aaron lights the lamps at evening, he shall burn incense upon it, a perpetual incense before the LORD throughout your generations. <sup>9</sup>You shall offer no strange incense on it, nor burnt sacrifice, nor meal offering. Neither shall you pour drink offering on it. <sup>10</sup>And Aaron shall make an atonement upon the horns of it once in a year with the blood of the sin offerings of atonement. He shall make atonement once in the year throughout your generations. It is most holy to the LORD.

<sup>11</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, <sup>12</sup>When you count the sons of Israel, of those who are to be counted, then they shall each man give a ransom for his soul to the LORD when you number them, so that there may be no plague among them when you number them. <sup>13</sup>They shall give this, every one that passes among those who are counted, half a shekel after the shekel of the sanctuary (a shekel is twenty gerahs); a half shekel shall be the offering of the LORD. <sup>14</sup>Everyone that passes among those who are numbered, from twenty years old and above, shall give an offering to the LORD. <sup>15</sup>The rich shall not give more, and the poor shall not give less, than half a shekel, when they give an offering to the LORD to make an atonement for your souls. <sup>16</sup>And you shall take the atonement money of the sons of Israel, and shall appoint it for the service of the tabernacle of the congregation, so that it may be a memorial to the sons of Israel before the LORD, to make an atonement for your souls.

<sup>17</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>18</sup>You shall also make a laver of bronze and its foot also of bronze, for washing. And you shall put it between the tabernacle of the congregation and the altar. And you shall put water in it, <sup>19</sup>for Aaron and his sons shall wash their hands and their feet there. <sup>20</sup>When they go into the tabernacle of the congregation, they shall wash with water so that they do not die. Or when they come near to the altar to minister, to burn an offering made by fire to the LORD, <sup>21</sup>they shall wash their hands and their feet, so that they do not die. And it shall be a statute forever to them, to him and to his seed throughout their generations.

<sup>22</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>23</sup>Take also to you principal spices, five hundred shekels of pure myrrh, and half as much of sweet cinnamon, even two hundred and fifty shekels, and two hundred and fifty shekels of sweet calamus, <sup>24</sup>and five hundred of cassia, after the shekel of the sanctuary, and a hin of olive oil. <sup>25</sup>And you shall make it an oil of holy ointment, an ointment compound after the art of the perfumer. It shall be a holy anointing oil. <sup>26</sup>And you shall anoint the tabernacle of the congregation with it, and the ark of the testimony, <sup>27</sup>and the table and all its vessels, and the lampstand and its vessels, and the altar of incense, <sup>28</sup>and the altar of burnt offerings with all its vessels, and the laver and its foot. <sup>29</sup>And you shall sanctify them so that they may be most holy. Whatever touches them shall be holy. <sup>30</sup>And you shall anoint Aaron and his sons and consecrate them, so that they may minister to Me in the priest's office. <sup>31</sup>And you shall speak to the sons of Israel saying, This shall be a holy anointing oil to Me throughout your generations. <sup>32</sup>It shall not be poured upon man's flesh, neither shall you make any other like it, according to the way it is made. It is holy, and it shall be holy to you. <sup>33</sup>Whoever compounds any like it, or whoever puts any of it upon a stranger, shall even be cut off from his people. <sup>34</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, Take to yourself sweet spices, stacte, and onycha, and galbanum; sweet spices with pure frankincense. There shall be the same of each. <sup>35</sup>And you shall make it a perfume, an incense according to the art of the perfumer, salted, pure and holy. <sup>36</sup>And you shall beat some of it very small, and put it before the testimony in the tabernacle of the congregation, where I will meet with you. It shall be most holy to you. <sup>37</sup>And the perfume which you shall make, you shall not make any for yourselves according to the way it is made. It shall be holy to you for the LORD. <sup>38</sup>Whoever shall make any like that, to smell of it, shall even be cut off from his people.

CHAPTER 31

<sup>1</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>2</sup>Behold, I have called by name Bezaleel, the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah. <sup>3</sup>And I have filled him with the spirit of God, in wisdom, and in understanding, and in knowledge, and in all manner of workmanship, <sup>4</sup>in order to work out cunning works; to work in gold, and in silver, and in bronze, <sup>5</sup>and in cutting of stones, to set them, and in carving of timber, to work in all manner of workmanship. <sup>6</sup>And behold, I have given to him Aholiab, the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan. And I have put wisdom in the hearts of all those who are wise-hearted, so that they may make all that I have commanded you: <sup>7</sup>the tabernacle of the congregation, and the ark of the testimony, and the mercy-seat that is upon it, and all the vessels of the tabernacle, <sup>8</sup>and the table and its vessels, and the pure lampstand with all its vessels, and the altar of incense, <sup>9</sup>and the altar of burnt offering with all its vessels, and the laver and its base, <sup>10</sup>and the cloths of service, and the holy garments for Aaron the priest, and the garments of his sons, to minister in the priest's office, <sup>11</sup>and the anointing oil, and sweet incense for the holy place. According to all that I have commanded you, they shall do.

<sup>12</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, <sup>13</sup>Speak also to the sons of Israel saying, Truly you shall keep My sabbaths. For it is a sign between Me and you throughout your generations, to know that I am the LORD who sanctifies you. <sup>14</sup>You shall keep the Sabbath therefore, for it is holy to you. Everyone that defiles it shall surely be put to death. For whoever does any work in it, that soul shall be cut off from among his people. <sup>15</sup>Six days may work be done, but on the seventh is the sabbath of rest, holy to the LORD. Whoever does any work in the Sabbath day, he shall surely be put to death. <sup>16</sup>Therefore the sons of Israel shall keep the Sabbath, to observe the Sabbath throughout their generations, for an everlasting covenant. <sup>17</sup>It is a sign between Me and the sons of Israel forever. For in six days the LORD made the heavens and the earth, and on the seventh day He rested, and was refreshed.

<sup>18</sup>And He gave to Moses, when He had made an end of speaking with him upon Mount Sinai, two tablets of the testimony, tablets of stone, written by the finger of God.

CHAPTER 32

<sup>1</sup>And the people saw that Moses delayed to come down from the mountain, and the people gathered themselves to Aaron. And they said to him, Up! Make us gods who shall go before us. For this Moses, the man who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him. <sup>2</sup>And Aaron said to them, Break off the golden earrings which are in the ears of your wives, of your sons, and of your daughters, and bring them to me. <sup>3</sup>And all the people broke off the golden earrings which were in their ears, and brought them to Aaron. <sup>4</sup>And he took them from their hand, and fashioned it with an engraving tool. And he made it a molten calf. And they said, These are your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt. <sup>5</sup>And when Aaron saw, he built an altar before it. And Aaron made proclamation and said, Tomorrow is a feast to Jehovah. <sup>6</sup>And they rose up early on the next day and offered burnt offerings, and brought peace offerings. And the people sat down to eat and to drink, and rose up to play.

<sup>7</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, Go! Get down, for your people, whom you brought out of the land of Egypt, have corrupted themselves. <sup>8</sup>They have turned aside quickly out of the way which I commanded them. They have made them a molten calf, and have worshiped it, and have sacrificed to it, and said, These are your gods, O Israel, who have brought you up out of the land of Egypt. <sup>9</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, I have seen this people, and behold, it is a stiff-necked people. <sup>10</sup>And now leave Me alone, so that My wrath may become hot against them and so that I may consume them. And I will make of you a great nation. <sup>11</sup>And Moses prayed to the LORD his God, and said, LORD, why does Your wrath become hot against Your people whom You have brought forth out of the land of Egypt with great power and with a mighty hand? <sup>12</sup>Why should the Egyptians speak and say, He brought them out for harm, to kill them in the mountains and to consume them from the face of the earth? Turn from Your fierce wrath, and repent of this evil against Your people. <sup>13</sup>Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, Your servants, to whom You swore by Your own self, and said to them, I will multiply your seed as the stars of heaven, and all this land that I have spoken of will I give to your seed, and they shall inherit it forever. <sup>14</sup>And the LORD repented of the evil which He spoke of doing to His people.

<sup>15</sup>And Moses turned, and went down from the mountain, and the two tablets of the testimony were in his hand. The tablets were written on both sides; on the one side and on the other. <sup>16</sup>And the tablets were the work of God, and the writing was the writing of God. It was engraved on the tablets. <sup>17</sup>And Joshua heard the voice of the people in their shouting. And he said to Moses, A sound of war in the camp! <sup>18</sup>And he said, It is not a sound of a cry of victory, nor a sound of the cry of defeat. I am hearing the sound of singing. <sup>19</sup>And it happened, as he came near to the camp and saw the calf and dances, the anger of Moses became hot, and he threw the tablets out of his hands, and broke them at the bottom of the mountain. <sup>20</sup>And he took the calf which they had made and burned it in the fire, and ground it to powder, and dropped it upon the water, and made the sons of Israel drink it.

<sup>21</sup>And Moses said to Aaron, What did this people do to you, that you have brought so great a sin upon them? <sup>22</sup>And Aaron said, Let not the anger of my lord become hot. You know the people, that they are set on mischief. <sup>23</sup>For they said to me, Make us gods who shall go before us. For this Moses, the man that brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him. <sup>24</sup>And I said to them, Whoever has any gold, let them break it off. And they gave it to me, and I threw it into the fire, and there came out this calf.

<sup>25</sup>And when Moses saw that the people were naked, (for Aaron had made them naked to their shame among their enemies,) <sup>26</sup>then Moses stood in the gate of the camp and said, Who is on the LORD's side? Come to me. And all the sons of Levi gathered themselves to him. <sup>27</sup>And he said to them, Thus says the LORD God of Israel: Each man put his sword by his side, and go in and out from gate to gate throughout the camp, and kill each one his brother, and each one his neighbor, and each one his kindred. <sup>28</sup>And the sons of Levi did according to the word of Moses. And there fell of the people that day about three thousand men. <sup>29</sup>For Moses had said, Consecrate yourselves today to the LORD, since each one has been against his son, and against his brother, and in order to give you a blessing today.

<sup>30</sup>And it happened on the next day, Moses said to the people, You have sinned a great sin. And now I will go up to the LORD. Perhaps I shall make an atonement for your sin. <sup>31</sup>And Moses returned to the LORD, and said, Oh, this people have sinned a great sin, and have made themselves gods of gold. <sup>32</sup>And now will You forgive their sin! And if not, I pray You, blot me out of Your book which You have written. <sup>33</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, Whoever has sinned against Me, I will blot him out of My book. <sup>34</sup>And now go, lead the people to the place of which I have spoken to you. Behold, My Angel shall go before you. And in the day of My visitation I will visit their sin upon them.<sup>35</sup> And the LORD plagued the people because they made the calf, which Aaron made.

CHAPTER 33

<sup>1</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, Come, go up from here, you and the people whom you have brought up out of the land of Egypt, to the land which I swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, saying, To your seed I will give it.<sup>2</sup> And I will send an angel before you. And I will drive out the Canaanite, the Amorite, and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite;<sup>3</sup> to a land flowing with milk and honey. For I will not go up in the midst of you, for you are a stiff-necked people, lest I consume you in the way.

<sup>4</sup>And the people heard these evil tidings, and they mourned, and did not put any ornaments on himself.<sup>5</sup> And the LORD had said to Moses, Say to the sons of Israel, You are a stiff-necked people. I will come up into the midst of you in a moment, and I will consume you. And now put off your ornaments from you, that I may know what to do with you.<sup>6</sup> And the sons of Israel stripped themselves of their ornaments by Mount Horeb.

<sup>7</sup>And Moses took the tabernacle and pitched it outside the camp, afar off from the camp, and called it the tabernacle of the congregation. And it happened that everyone who sought the LORD went out to the tabernacle of the congregation, which was outside the camp.<sup>8</sup> And it happened as Moses went out to the tabernacle, all the people rose up, and each man stood at his tent door and looked after Moses until he had gone into the tabernacle.<sup>9</sup> And it happened as Moses went into the tabernacle, the cloudy pillar descended and stood at the door of the tabernacle, and the LORD talked with Moses.<sup>10</sup> And all the people saw the cloudy pillar stand at the tabernacle door. And all the people rose up and worshiped, each man in his tent door.<sup>11</sup> And the LORD would speak to Moses face to face, as a man speaks to his friend. And he turned again to the camp. But his servant, Joshua the son of Nun, a young man, did not leave the tabernacle.

<sup>12</sup>And Moses said to the LORD, Behold, You say to me, Bring up this people. And You have not let me know whom You will send with me. Yet You have said, I know you by name, and you have also found grace in My sight.<sup>13</sup> Now therefore, I pray You, if I have found grace in Your sight, show me now Your way, that I may know You, that I may find grace in Your sight. And consider that this nation is Your people.<sup>14</sup> And He said, My presence shall go with you, and I will give you rest.<sup>15</sup> And he said to Him, If Your presence does not go with me, do not carry us up from here.<sup>16</sup> For in what shall it be known here that I and Your people have found grace in Your sight? Is it not in that You go with us? So we shall be separated, I and Your people, from all the people that are upon the face of the earth.

<sup>17</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, I will do this thing also that you have spoken. For you have found grace in My sight, and I know you by name.<sup>18</sup> And he said, I beseech You, Show me Your glory.<sup>19</sup> And He said, I will make all My goodness pass before you, and I will proclaim the name of the LORD before you. And I will be gracious to whom I will be gracious, and will have mercy on whom I will have mercy.<sup>20</sup> And He said, You cannot see My face. For there shall no man see Me and live.<sup>21</sup> And the LORD said, Behold! There is a place by Me, and you shall stand upon a rock.<sup>22</sup> And it will be, while My glory passes by, I will put you in a cleft of the rock, and will cover you with My hand while I pass by.<sup>23</sup> And I will take away My hand, and you shall see My back parts. But My face shall not be seen.

CHAPTER 34

<sup>1</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, cut out two tablets of stone like the first. And I will write upon the tablets the words that were in the first tablets which you broke. <sup>2</sup>And be ready in the morning, and come up in the morning to Mount Sinai, and present yourself there to Me in the top of the mountain. <sup>3</sup>And no man shall come up with you, neither let any man be seen throughout all the mountain. Also do not let the flocks nor herds feed before that mountain.

<sup>4</sup>And he cut out two tablets of stone like the first. And Moses rose up early in the morning and went up to Mount Sinai, as the LORD had commanded him, and took in his hand the two tablets of stone. <sup>5</sup>And the LORD came down in the cloud, and stood with him there, and proclaimed the name of the LORD. <sup>6</sup>And the LORD passed by before him and proclaimed, The LORD, The LORD God, merciful and gracious, long-suffering, and abundant in goodness and truth, <sup>7</sup>keeping mercy for thousands, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin, and who will by no means clear the guilty — visiting the iniquity of fathers on the sons, and on the sons of sons, to the third and to the fourth generation. <sup>8</sup>And Moses made haste and bowed toward the earth, and worshiped. <sup>9</sup>And he said, If now I have found grace in Your sight, O LORD, I pray You, let my Lord go among us. For it is a stiff-necked people. And pardon our iniquity and our sin, and take us for Your inheritance.

<sup>10</sup>And He said, Behold! I make a covenant. Before all your people I will do marvels such as have not been done in all the earth, nor in any nation. And all the people in whose midst you are shall see the work of the LORD, for it is a terrible thing that I will do with you. <sup>11</sup>Observe that which I command you this day. Behold! I drive out before you the Amorite, and the Canaanite, and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, and the Hivite, and the Jebusite. <sup>12</sup>Take heed to yourself, lest you make a covenant with the people of the land where you go, lest it be for a snare in the midst of you. <sup>13</sup>But you shall destroy their altars, break their images, and cut down their groves. <sup>14</sup>For you shall worship no other god. For the LORD, whose name is Jealous, is a jealous God; <sup>15</sup>lest you make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land, and they go whoring after their gods, and do sacrifice to their gods, and call you, and you eat of his sacrifice; <sup>16</sup>and lest you take from their daughters for your sons, and their daughters go whoring after their gods and make your sons go whoring after their gods. <sup>17</sup>You shall make you no molten gods.

<sup>18</sup>You shall keep the feast of unleavened bread. You shall eat unleavened bread seven days, as I commanded you, in the time of the month Abib. For in the month Abib you came out from Egypt. <sup>19</sup>All that opens the womb is Mine. And every firstling among your cattle, ox or sheep, is Mine. <sup>20</sup>But the firstling of an ass you shall redeem with a lamb. And if you do not redeem it, then you shall break its neck. All the firstborn of your sons you shall redeem. And none shall appear before Me empty.

<sup>21</sup>You shall work six days, but on the seventh day you shall rest. In plowing time and in harvest you shall rest. <sup>22</sup>And you shall observe the Feast of Weeks, of the first-fruits of wheat harvest, and the Feast of Ingathering at the year's end. <sup>23</sup>Three times in the year your men shall appear before the Lord God, the God of Israel. <sup>24</sup>For I will cast out the nations before you and enlarge your borders. Neither shall any man desire your land when you shall go up to appear before the LORD your God three times in the year. <sup>25</sup>You shall not offer the blood of My sacrifice with leaven. Neither shall the sacrifice of the feast of the Passover be left to the morning. <sup>26</sup>The first of the first-fruits of your land you shall bring to the house of the LORD your God. You shall not boil a kid in its mother's milk.

<sup>27</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, Write these words for yourself; for on the mouth of these words I have made a covenant with you and with Israel. <sup>28</sup>And he was there with the LORD forty days and forty nights. He neither ate bread, nor drank water. And He wrote upon the tablets the words of the covenant, the ten commandments.

<sup>29</sup>And it happened as Moses was going down from the mountain of Sinai, the two tablets of the testimony being in Moses' hand as he went down from the mountain, Moses did not know that the skin of his face had become luminous through His speaking with him. <sup>30</sup>And Aaron and all the sons of Israel saw Moses, and behold, the skin of his face shone. And they were afraid to come near him. <sup>31</sup>And Moses called to them. And Aaron and all the rulers of the congregation returned to him, and Moses talked with them. <sup>32</sup>And afterward all the sons of Israel came near. And he gave them in commandment all that the LORD had spoken with him in Mount Sinai. <sup>33</sup>And Moses finished speaking with them, and he put a veil on his face. <sup>34</sup>But when Moses went in before the LORD to speak with Him, he took the veil off until he came out. And he came out and spoke to the sons of Israel that which he was commanded. <sup>35</sup>And the sons of Israel saw the face of Moses, that the skin of Moses' face shone. And Moses put the veil upon his face again, until he went in to speak with Him.

CHAPTER 35

<sup>1</sup>And Moses gathered all the congregation of the sons of Israel together and said to them, These are the words which the LORD has commanded, that you should do them. <sup>2</sup>Six days shall work be done, but on the seventh day there shall be to you a holy day, a sabbath of rest to the LORD. Whoever does work in it shall be put to death. <sup>3</sup>You shall kindle no fire throughout your living places upon the Sabbath day.

<sup>4</sup>And Moses spoke to all the congregation of the sons of Israel saying, This is the thing which the LORD commanded. He said, <sup>5</sup>Take from among you an offering to the LORD. Whoever is of a willing heart, let him bring it, an offering of the LORD: gold, and silver, and bronze, <sup>6</sup>and blue, and purple, and scarlet, and bleached linen, and goats hair, <sup>7</sup>and rams' skins dyed red, and badgers' skins, and acacia-wood, <sup>8</sup>and oil for the light, and spices for anointing oil, and for the sweet incense, <sup>9</sup>and onyx stones, and stones to be set for the ephod and for the breast-pocket. <sup>10</sup>And every wise-hearted one among you shall come and make all that the LORD has commanded: <sup>11</sup>the tabernacle, its tent, its covering, its clasps, and its boards, its bars, its pillars, and its sockets. <sup>12</sup>And make the ark and the staves of it, the mercy-seat, and the veil of the covering, <sup>13</sup>the table, and its staves, and all its vessels, and showbread, <sup>14</sup>also the lampstand for the light, and its vessels, and its lamp, with the oil for the light, <sup>15</sup>and the incense altar, and its staves, and the anointing oil, and the sweet incense, and the hanging of the door at the entering in of the tabernacle. <sup>16</sup>And make the altar of burnt offering, with its bronze grate, its staves, and all its vessels, the laver and its base, <sup>17</sup>the hangings of the court, its pillars and their sockets, and the hanging, for the door of the court, <sup>18</sup>the pins of the tabernacle, and the pins of the court, and their cords, <sup>19</sup>the cloths of service, to do service in the holy place, the holy garments for Aaron the priest, and the garments of his sons, to minister in the priest's office.

<sup>20</sup>And all the congregation of the sons of Israel departed from the presence of Moses. <sup>21</sup>And they came, every one whose heart stirred him up, and every one whom His spirit made willing. They brought the LORD's offering to the work of the tabernacle of the congregation, and for all His service, and for the holy garments. <sup>22</sup>And the men came in together with the women, as many as were willing-hearted, bringing bracelets and earrings, and rings and tablets, all jewels of gold. And everyone who offered waved a wave offering of gold to the LORD. <sup>23</sup>And everyone with whom was found blue, and purple, and scarlet, and bleached linen, and goats' hair, and red skins of rams, and badgers' skins, brought them. <sup>24</sup>Everyone that offered an offering of silver and bronze brought the LORD's offering. And everyone with whom was found acacia-wood for any work of the service, brought it. <sup>25</sup>And every wise-hearted woman spun with her hands. And they brought spun yarn, blue, and purple, scarlet, and bleached linen. <sup>26</sup>And all the women whose hearts were lifted up in wisdom spun goats' hair. <sup>27</sup>And the rulers brought onyx stones, and stones to be set, for the ephod and for the breast-pocket. <sup>28</sup>And they brought spice and oil, for the light and for the anointing oil and for the sweet incense. <sup>29</sup>The sons of Israel brought a willing offering to the LORD, every man and woman whose heart made them willing to bring for all kinds of work which the LORD had commanded to be made by the hand of Moses.

<sup>30</sup>And Moses said to the sons of Israel, See, the LORD has called the son of Uri the son of Hur, by the name Bezaleel, of the tribe of Judah. <sup>31</sup>And He has filled him with the spirit of God in wisdom, in understanding, and in knowledge, and in all kinds of work, <sup>32</sup>and to work out skillful works, to work in gold, and in silver, and in bronze, <sup>33</sup>and in the cutting of stones to set, and in carving of wood, to make any kind of skillful work. <sup>34</sup>And He has put in his heart that he may teach, he and Aholiab the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan. <sup>35</sup>He has filled them with wisdom of heart to work all kinds of work; of the carver, and of the skillful worker, and of the embroiderer, in blue, and in purple, in scarlet, and in bleached linen, and of the weaver, of those who do any work, and of those who work out artful work.

CHAPTER 36

<sup>1</sup>And Bezaleel and Aholiab shall work with everyone wise of heart to whom the LORD has given wisdom and intelligence, to know how to do every work of the service of the holy place, concerning all which the LORD had commanded.

<sup>2</sup>And Moses called Bezaleel and Aholiab, and every wise-hearted man in whose heart the LORD had put wisdom, even everyone whose heart stirred him up to come, to do the work. <sup>3</sup>And they received all the offerings from Moses, the offering which the sons of Israel had brought for the work of the service of the sanctuary, to make it. And they still brought to him free offerings every morning. <sup>4</sup>And all the wise men who worked all the work of the sanctuary came, every man from his work which they made.

<sup>5</sup>And they spoke to Moses, saying, The people bring much more than enough for the service of the work which the LORD commanded to make. <sup>6</sup>And Moses commanded, and they caused it to be known throughout the camp, saying, Let neither man nor woman make any more work for the offering of the sanctuary. And the people were kept from bringing. <sup>7</sup>For the stuff which they had was enough for all the work to make it, and too much.

<sup>8</sup>And every wise-hearted man among them that worked the work of the tabernacle, made ten curtains of fine twined bleached linen, and blue, and purple, and scarlet. He made them with cherubs of skillful work. <sup>9</sup>The length of one curtain was twenty-eight cubits, and the breadth of one curtain was four cubits. The curtains were all of one size. <sup>10</sup>And he coupled the five curtains to one another, and he coupled the other five curtains to one another. <sup>11</sup>And he made loops of blue on the edge of one curtain from the edge in the coupling. Likewise he made loops in the outermost side, in the coupling of the second curtain. <sup>12</sup>He made fifty loops in one curtain, and he made fifty loops in the edge of the curtain which was in the coupling of the second. The loops held one to another. <sup>13</sup>And he made fifty clasps of gold, and coupled the curtains to one another with the clasps. And it became one tabernacle.

<sup>14</sup>And he made curtains of goats' hair for the tent over the tabernacle. He made eleven curtains. <sup>15</sup>The length of one curtain was thirty cubits, and four cubits the breadth of one curtain. The eleven curtains were of one size. <sup>16</sup>And he coupled five curtains by themselves, and six curtains by themselves. <sup>17</sup>And he made fifty loops on the outermost edge of the curtain in the coupling, and he made fifty loops upon the edge of the curtains which coupled the second. <sup>18</sup>And he made fifty clasps of bronze to couple the tent together, so that it might be one. <sup>19</sup>And he made a covering for the tent of rams' skins dyed red, and a covering of badgers' skins above.

<sup>20</sup>And he made boards for the tabernacle of acacia-wood, standing up. <sup>21</sup>The length of a board was ten cubits, and the breadth of a board was one and a half cubits. <sup>22</sup>One board had two pins, equally distant from one another. So he made for all the boards of the tabernacle.

<sup>23</sup>And he made boards for the tabernacle, twenty boards for the south side southward. <sup>24</sup>And he made forty sockets of silver under the twenty boards, two sockets under one board for its two pins, and two sockets under another board for its two pins. <sup>25</sup>And for the other side of the tabernacle, toward the north, he made twenty boards, <sup>26</sup>and their forty sockets were of silver; two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board. <sup>27</sup>And he made six boards for the sides of the tabernacle westward.

<sup>28</sup>And he made two boards for the corners of the tabernacle in the two sides. <sup>29</sup>And they were coupled beneath, and coupled together at the head of it, to one ring. So he did to both of them in both the corners. <sup>30</sup>And there were eight boards. And their sockets were sixteen sockets of silver, two sockets under every board.

<sup>35</sup>And he made a veil of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined bleached linen. He made it the work of an artisan, with cherubs. <sup>36</sup>And he made for it four pillars of acacia. And he overlaid them with gold. Their hooks were of gold, and he cast four sockets of silver for them.

<sup>37</sup>And he made a hanging for the tabernacle door, blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined bleached linen, of needlework; <sup>38</sup>and the five pillars of it, and their hooks. And he overlaid their capitals and their fillets with gold, but their five sockets were of bronze.

CHAPTER 37

<sup>1</sup>And Bezaleel made the ark of acacia-wood: two cubits and a half long, and a cubit and a half wide, and a cubit and a half high. <sup>2</sup>And he overlaid it with pure gold inside and out, and made a crown of gold around it. <sup>3</sup>And he cast four rings of gold for it, for the corners of it, even two rings on the one side of it and two rings on the other side of it. <sup>4</sup>And he made staves of acacia-wood and overlaid them with gold. <sup>5</sup>And he put the staves into the rings by the sides of the ark, in order to bear the ark. <sup>6</sup>And he made the mercy-seat of pure gold. The length of it was two cubits and a half, and the breadth of it one cubit and a half. <sup>7</sup>And he made two cherubs of gold on the two ends of the mercy-seat. He made them beaten out of one piece, <sup>8</sup>one cherub here at one end, and one cherub there at the other end. He made the cherubs out of the mercy-seat on the two ends of it. <sup>9</sup>And the cherubim spread out their wings on high, covering with their wings over the mercy-seat, their faces each toward the other. The faces of the cherubs were toward the mercy-seat.

<sup>10</sup>And he made the table of acacia-wood. The length of it was two cubits, and the breadth of it was a cubit, and the height of it was a cubit and a half. <sup>11</sup>And he overlaid it with pure gold, and made for it a crown of gold all around. <sup>12</sup>Also he made for it a border all around, of a hand's breadth. And he made a crown of gold for the border of it all around. <sup>13</sup>And he cast for it four rings of gold, and put the rings on the four corners that were in the four feet of it. <sup>14</sup>The rings were near the border, the housings for the staves to carry the table. <sup>15</sup>And he made the staves of acacia-wood, and overlaid them with gold, to carry the table. <sup>16</sup>And he made the vessels which were on the table, its dishes and its spoons, and its bowls, and its covers to cover it, of pure gold. <sup>17</sup>And he made the lampstand of pure gold. He made the lampstand of beaten work; its shaft and its branch, its cups, its knobs, and its blossoms, were of the same. <sup>18</sup>And six branches went out of the sides of it; three branches of the lampstand out of the one side of it, and three branches of the lampstand out of the other side of it. <sup>19</sup>Three almond-like cups were on the one branch, a knob and a blossom; and three almond-like cups on the one branch, a knob and a blossom. So throughout the six branches going out of the lampstand.

<sup>20</sup>And on the lampstand were four almond-like cups, its knobs and its blossoms. <sup>21</sup>And a knob was under two branches of the same, and a knob under two branches of the same, and a knob under two branches of the same, to the six branches going out of it. <sup>22</sup>Their knobs and their branches were of the same; all of it was one beaten work of pure gold. <sup>23</sup>And he made its seven lamps, and its snuffers, and its snuff-dishes, of pure gold. <sup>24</sup>He made it of a talent of pure gold, and all the vessels of it.

<sup>25</sup>And he made the incense altar of acacia-wood. The length of it was a cubit, and the breadth of it a cubit, — square. And the height of it was two cubits. The horns of it were of the same. <sup>26</sup>And he overlaid it with pure gold, the top of it and the sides of it all around, and the horns of it. Also he made a crown of gold all around it. <sup>27</sup>And he made two rings of gold for it under the crown of it, by the two corners of it, upon the two sides of it, to be places for the staves to bear it with. <sup>28</sup>And he made the staves of acacia-wood, and overlaid them with gold. <sup>29</sup>And he made the holy anointing oil, and the pure incense of sweet spices, according to the work of the perfumer.

CHAPTER 38

<sup>1</sup>And he made the altar of burnt offering of acacia-wood. Its length was five cubits, and its breadth five cubits, square; and its height three cubits. <sup>2</sup>And he made its horns on its four corners. Its horns were of it. And he overlaid it with bronze. <sup>3</sup>And he made all the vessels of the altar, the pots, and the shovels, and the basins, the flesh-hooks, and the fire-pans. All the vessels of it he made of bronze. <sup>4</sup>And he made a bronze grate of network for the altar, under the compass of it, beneath to the middle of it. <sup>5</sup>And he cast four rings for the four ends of the grate of bronze, places for the staves. <sup>6</sup>And he made the staves of acacia-wood and overlaid them with bronze. <sup>7</sup>And he put the staves into the rings on the sides of the altar, to bear it with. He made the altar hollow with boards.

<sup>8</sup>And he made the laver of bronze, and its base bronze, out of the mirrors of serving women who assembled at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

<sup>9</sup>And he made the court. On the south side southward the hangings of the court were of fine twined bleached linen, a hundred cubits. <sup>10</sup>Their pillars were twenty, and their bronze sockets twenty. The hooks of the pillar and their bands were of silver. <sup>11</sup>And for the north side, a hundred by the cubit, their pillars twenty, and their twenty sockets bronze. The hooks of the pillars and their bands were of silver. <sup>12</sup>And for the west side were hangings of fifty cubits, their pillars ten, and their sockets ten. The hooks of the pillars and their bands were of silver. <sup>13</sup>And for the east side eastward fifty cubits. <sup>14</sup>The hangings of the one side were fifteen cubits, and their pillars three, and their sockets three. <sup>15</sup>And for the other side of the court gate, on this hand and that hand, were hangings of fifteen cubits, their pillars three, and their sockets three. <sup>16</sup>All the hangings of the court all around were of fine twined bleached linen. <sup>17</sup>And the sockets for the pillars were of bronze. The hooks of the pillars and their bands were of silver. And the overlaying of their capitals was of silver. And all the pillars of the court were banded with silver. <sup>18</sup>And the hanging for the gate of the court was needlework: blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined bleached linen. And it was twenty cubits long, and the height and the width five cubits, to match the hangings of the court. <sup>19</sup>And the pillars were four, and their bronze sockets four; their hooks silver, and the overlaying of their capitals and their bands silver. <sup>20</sup>And all the pins of the tabernacle and of the court all around, were of bronze.

<sup>21</sup>This is the sum of the tabernacle, of the tabernacle of testimony, as it was counted, according to the command of Moses, for the service of the Levites by the hand of Ithamar, son to Aaron the priest. <sup>22</sup>And Bezaleel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah, made all that the LORD commanded Moses. <sup>23</sup>And with him was Aholiab the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, an engraver, and a skillful workman, and an embroiderer in blue and in purple and in scarlet and bleached linen. <sup>24</sup>All the gold that was used for the work in all the work of the holy place, even the gold of the offering, was twenty-nine talents and seven hundred thirty shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary. <sup>25</sup>And the silver from those who were numbered of the congregation was a hundred talents, and seventeen hundred seventy-five shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; <sup>26</sup>a bekah for every man, half a shekel, after the shekel of the sanctuary, for everyone that went to be numbered, from twenty years old and upward, for six hundred three thousand, five hundred fifty men. <sup>27</sup>And the sockets of the sanctuary were cast of the hundred talents of silver, and the sockets of the veil also, a hundred sockets of the hundred talents, a talent for a socket. <sup>28</sup>And he made hooks for the pillars out of the seventeen hundred seventy-five shekels, and overlaid their capitals and joined them.

<sup>29</sup>And the bronze of the wave offering was seventy talents, and twenty-four hundred shekels, <sup>30</sup>and with it he made the sockets to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and the bronze altar, and the bronze grate for it, and all the vessels of the altar, <sup>31</sup>and the sockets of the court all around, and the sockets of the court gate, and all the pins of the tabernacle, and all the pins of the court all around.

CHAPTER 39

<sup>1</sup>And of the blue, and purple, and scarlet, they made woven garments for ministering in the holy place. And they made the holy garments for Aaron, even as the LORD commanded Moses.

<sup>2</sup>And he made the ephod of gold, blue, purple, and scarlet, and fine twined bleached linen. <sup>3</sup>And they beat the gold into thin plates, and cut threads to work it into the blue, and into the purple, and into the scarlet, and into the bleached linen, with embroidered work. <sup>4</sup>They made shoulder-pieces for it, to couple it together. It was coupled together by the two edges. <sup>5</sup>And the embroidered girdle of its ephod, which was on it, was of it, according to its work; gold, blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined bleached linen, even as the LORD commanded Moses. <sup>6</sup>And they made stones of onyx set in plaited work of gold, engraved as signets are engraved, with the names of the sons of Israel. <sup>7</sup>And he put them on the shoulders of the ephod, stones for a memorial to the sons of Israel, even as the LORD commanded Moses.

<sup>8</sup>And he made the breast-pocket a work of an artisan, like the work of the ephod, of gold, blue, purple, and scarlet, and fine twined bleached linen. <sup>9</sup>It was square. They made the breast-pocket double. The length of it was a span, and the breadth of it was a span. It was doubled. <sup>10</sup>And they set four rows of stones in it. One row was a ruby, a topaz, and a carbuncle, the first row. <sup>11</sup>And the second row: an emerald, a sapphire, and a diamond. <sup>12</sup>And the third row: a jacinth, an agate, and an amethyst. <sup>13</sup>And the fourth row: a chrysolite, an agate, and a jasper; set in plaited work of gold in their settings. <sup>14</sup>And the stones were according to the names of the sons of Israel, twelve, according to their names, like the engravings of a signet, every one with its name according to the twelve tribes. <sup>15</sup>And they made chains upon the breast-pocket, at the ends, of woven work of pure gold. <sup>16</sup>And they made two plaitings of gold and two gold rings. And they put the two rings on the two ends of the breast-pocket. <sup>17</sup>And they put the two cords of gold in the two rings on the ends of the breast-pocket. <sup>18</sup>And the two ends of the two cords were fastened in the two plaitings. And they put them on the shoulder-pieces of the ephod, on its front. <sup>19</sup>And they made two rings of gold. And they put them on the two ends of the breast-pocket, on its border, on the side of the ephod inward. <sup>20</sup>And they made two golden rings, and put them on the two sides of the ephod underneath, toward the front of it, near the other coupling of it, above the embroidered girdle of the ephod. <sup>21</sup>And they bound the breast-pocket by its rings to the rings of the ephod with a lace of blue, so that it might be above the embroidered girdle of the ephod, and so that the breast-pocket might not be loosened from the ephod, even as the LORD commanded Moses.

<sup>27</sup>And they made the tunics of bleached linen of woven work for Aaron and for his sons. <sup>28</sup>And they made a miter of bleached linen, and ornamental bonnets of bleached linen, and linen breeches of fine twined bleached linen, <sup>29</sup>and a girdle of fine twined bleached linen, and blue, and purple, and scarlet, of needlework, even as the LORD commanded Moses.

<sup>30</sup>And they made the plate of the holy crown of pure gold, and wrote upon it an inscription of the engravings of a signet, HOLINESS TO THE LORD. <sup>31</sup>And they tied a lace of blue to it, in order to fasten it on high upon the miter, even as the LORD commanded Moses.

<sup>32</sup>And all the work of the tabernacle of the tent of the congregation was finished. And the sons of Israel did according to all that the LORD commanded Moses. So they did.

<sup>33</sup>And they brought the tabernacle to Moses, the tent, and all its furniture, its clasps, its boards, its bars, and its pillars, and its sockets, <sup>34</sup>and the covering of rams' skins dyed red, and the covering of badgers' skins, and the veil of the covering, <sup>35</sup>the ark of the testimony, and its staves, and the mercy-seat, <sup>36</sup>the table, and all its vessels, and the showbread, <sup>37</sup>the pure lampstand, its lamps, even the lamps to be set in order, and all the vessels of it, and the oil for light, <sup>38</sup>and the golden altar, and the anointing oil, and the sweet incense, and the hanging for the tabernacle door, <sup>39</sup>the bronze altar, and its grate of bronze, its staves, and all its vessels, the laver and its base, <sup>40</sup>the hangings of the court, its pillars and its sockets, and the hanging for the court gate, its cords, and its pins, and all the vessels of the service of the tabernacle for the tent of the congregation, <sup>41</sup>the woven garments for ministering in the holy place, and the holy garments for Aaron the priest, and his sons' garments, to minister in the priest's office. <sup>42</sup>According to all that the LORD commanded Moses, so the sons of Israel made all the work. <sup>43</sup>And Moses looked upon all the work, and, behold, they had done it. As the LORD commanded, even so they had done it. And Moses blessed them.

CHAPTER 40

<sup>1</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>2</sup>You shall set up the tabernacle of the tent of the congregation on the first day of the first month. <sup>3</sup>And you shall put the ark of the testimony in it, and cover the ark with the veil. <sup>4</sup>And you shall bring the table in, and set in order the things that are to be set in order upon it. And you shall bring the lampstand in and light the lamps of it. <sup>5</sup>And you shall set the altar of gold for the incense in front of the ark of the testimony, and put the hanging of the door to the tabernacle. <sup>6</sup>And you shall set the altar of the burnt offering in front of the door of the tabernacle of the tent of the congregation. <sup>7</sup>And you shall set the laver between the tent of the congregation and the altar, and shall put water in it. <sup>8</sup>And you shall set up the court all around, and hang up the hanging at the court gate. <sup>9</sup>And you shall take the anointing oil and anoint the tabernacle, and all in it, and shall hallow it and all the vessels of it. And it shall be holy. <sup>10</sup>And you shall anoint the altar of the burnt offering, and all its vessels, and sanctify the altar. And it shall be a most holy altar.

<sup>11</sup>And you shall anoint the laver and its base, and sanctify it. <sup>12</sup>And you shall bring Aaron and his sons to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and wash them with water. <sup>13</sup>And you shall put the holy garments on Aaron, and anoint him and sanctify him, so that he may minister to Me in the priest's office. <sup>14</sup>And you shall bring his sons and clothe them with tunics. <sup>15</sup>And you shall anoint them, even as you anointed their father, so that they may minister to Me in the priest's office. For their anointing shall surely be an everlasting priesthood for their generations. <sup>16</sup>And Moses did so. According to all that the LORD commanded him, so he did.

<sup>17</sup>And it will be in the first month in the second year, on the first of the month, the tabernacle was reared up. <sup>18</sup>And Moses reared up the tabernacle and fastened its sockets, and set up its boards, and put in its bars, and reared up its pillars: <sup>19</sup>And he spread the tent over the tabernacle and put the covering of the tent above upon it, even as the LORD commanded Moses. <sup>20</sup>And he took and placed the Testimony into the ark, and set the staves on the ark, and put the mercy-seat on the ark from above. <sup>21</sup>And he brought the ark into the tabernacle and set up the veil of the covering, and covered the Ark of Testimony, even as the LORD commanded Moses. <sup>22</sup>And he put the table in the tent of the congregation, on the side of the tabernacle northward, outside the veil. <sup>23</sup>And he set the bread in order upon it before the LORD, even as the LORD had commanded Moses.

<sup>29</sup>And he put the altar of burnt offering by the door of the tabernacle of the tent of the congregation, and offered on it the burnt offering and the meal offering, even as the LORD commanded Moses. <sup>30</sup>And he set the laver between the tent of the congregation and the altar, and put water there, to wash with. <sup>31</sup>And Moses and Aaron and his sons washed their hands and their feet there. <sup>32</sup>When they went into the tent of the congregation, and when they came near the altar, they washed, even as the LORD commanded Moses. <sup>33</sup>And he reared up the court all around the tabernacle and the altar, and set up the hanging of the court gate. And Moses finished the work.

<sup>34</sup>And the cloud covered the tabernacle of the congregation, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle. <sup>35</sup>And Moses was not able to enter into the tabernacle of the congregation because the cloud stayed on it, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle. <sup>36</sup>And when the cloud was taken up from over the tabernacle, the sons of Israel journeyed on in all their journeys. <sup>37</sup>But if the cloud was not taken up, then they did not journey until the day that it was taken up. <sup>38</sup>For the cloud of the LORD was upon the tabernacle by day, and fire was on it by night, in the sight of all the house of Israel, in all their journeys.

CHAPTER 1

<sup>1</sup>And the LORD called to Moses and spoke to him out of the tabernacle of the congregation, saying,

<sup>2</sup>Speak to the sons of Israel and say to them, If any one of you brings an offering to the LORD, you shall bring your offering of the cattle, of the herd and of the flock. <sup>3</sup>If his offering is a burnt sacrifice of the herd, let him offer a male without blemish. He shall offer it of his own voluntary will at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation before the LORD. <sup>4</sup>And he shall put his hand on the head of the burnt offering. And it shall be accepted for him to make atonement for him. <sup>5</sup>And he shall kill the bull before the LORD. And the priests, Aaron's sons, shall bring the blood and sprinkle the blood all around on the altar that is by the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. <sup>6</sup>And he shall skin the burnt offering and cut it into its pieces. <sup>7</sup>And the sons of Aaron the priest shall put fire on the altar and lay the wood in order on the fire. <sup>8</sup>And the priests, Aaron's sons, shall lay the parts, the head and the fat, in order on the wood that is on the altar. <sup>9</sup>But its innards and its legs he shall wash in water. And the priest shall burn all on the altar, a burnt sacrifice, an offering made by fire, of a sweet savor to the LORD.

<sup>10</sup>And if his offering is of the flocks, of the sheep, or of the goats, for a burnt offering, he shall bring a male without blemish. <sup>11</sup>And he shall kill it on the side of the altar northward before the LORD. And the priests, Aaron's sons, shall sprinkle its blood all around on the altar. <sup>12</sup>And he shall cut it into its pieces, with its head and its fat. And the priest shall lay them in order on the wood that is on the fire, which is on the altar. <sup>13</sup>But he shall wash the innards and the legs with water; and the priest shall bring it all, and burn it on the altar. It is a burnt sacrifice, an offering made by fire, of a sweet savor to the LORD.

<sup>14</sup>And if the burnt sacrifice for his offering to the LORD is out of fowls, then he shall bring his offering of turtle-doves or of young pigeons. <sup>15</sup>And the priest shall bring it to the altar, and wring off its head and burn it on the altar. And its blood shall be wrung out at the side of the altar. <sup>16</sup>And he shall pluck away its crop with its feathers, and throw it beside the altar on the east part, by the place of the ashes. <sup>17</sup>And he shall cut it in two with the wings of it, not dividing it in two. And the priest shall burn it on the altar, on the wood that is on the fire. It is a burnt sacrifice, an offering made by fire, of a sweet savor to the LORD.

CHAPTER 2

<sup>1</sup>And when anyone will offer a food offering to the LORD, his offering shall be of fine flour. And he shall pour oil on it and put frankincense on it. <sup>2</sup>And he shall bring it to Aaron's sons, the priests. And he shall take out of it his handful of flour and of the oil of it, with all the frankincense of it. And the priest shall burn the memorial of it on the altar, an offering made by fire, of a sweet savor to the LORD. <sup>3</sup>And the rest of the food offering shall be Aaron's and his sons', most holy of the offerings of the LORD made by fire. <sup>4</sup>And if you bring a sacrifice of a food offering baked in the oven, it shall be unleavened cakes of fine flour mingled with oil, or unleavened wafers anointed with oil. <sup>5</sup>And if your offering is a food offering on the griddle, your offering shall be of fine flour unleavened, mixed with oil. <sup>6</sup>You shall break it in pieces and pour oil on it. It is a food offering.

<sup>7</sup>And if your offering is a food offering in the frying pan, it shall be made of fine flour with oil. <sup>8</sup>And you shall bring the food offering that is made of these things to the LORD. And when it is presented to the priest, he shall bring it to the altar. <sup>9</sup>And the priest shall take from the food offering a memorial of it, and shall burn it on the altar. It is an offering made by fire, of a sweet savor to the LORD. <sup>10</sup>And that which is left of the food offering shall be Aaron's and his sons: it is most holy of the offerings of the LORD made by fire. <sup>11</sup>Any food offering which you shall bring to the LORD shall not be made with leaven. For you shall burn no leaven, nor any honey, in any offering of the LORD made by fire.

<sup>12</sup>As an offering of the first-fruits, you shall bring them to the LORD. But they shall not be burned on the altar for a sweet savor. <sup>13</sup>And every sacrifice of your food offering shall you season with salt. And you shall not allow the salt of the covenant of your God to be lacking from your food offering. You shall offer salt with all your offerings. <sup>14</sup>And if you bring a food offering of your first-fruits to the LORD, you shall bring near for the food offering of your first-fruits green ears roasted by fire; kernels of a garden you shall bring near your first-fruits for a food offering. <sup>15</sup>And you shall put oil on it and lay frankincense on it. It is a food offering. <sup>16</sup>And the priest shall burn it as incense with its memorial offering from its kernels and from its oil, besides all its frankincense, a fire offering to the LORD.

CHAPTER 3

<sup>1</sup>And if his offering is a sacrifice of peace offering, if he offers from the herd, whether it is a male or female, he shall offer it without blemish before the LORD. <sup>2</sup>And he shall lay his hand on the head of his offering, and kill it at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. And the priests, Aaron's sons, shall sprinkle the blood on the altar all around. <sup>3</sup>And he shall bring near from the sacrifice the peace offering, a fire offering to the LORD. The fat that covers the inward parts, all the fat that is on the inward parts, <sup>4</sup>and the two kidneys, and the fat on them, on the loins, and the fold above the liver, with the kidneys. <sup>5</sup>And Aaron's sons shall burn it on the altar, on the burnt sacrifice on the wood, which is on the fire. It is an offering made by fire, of a sweet savor to the LORD.

<sup>6</sup>And if his offering for a sacrifice of peace offering to the LORD is of the flocks, male or female, he shall bring it without blemish. <sup>7</sup>If he is bringing near a sheep for his offering, then he shall bring it near before the LORD. <sup>8</sup>And he shall lay his hand on the head of his offering and kill it before the tabernacle of the congregation. And Aaron's sons shall sprinkle the blood of it round about on the altar. <sup>9</sup>And he shall offer of the sacrifice of the peace offering, a fire offering to the LORD. He shall take away its fat, all its fat next to the backbone, and all the fat that covers the inward parts, and all the fat that is on the inward parts, <sup>10</sup>and the two kidneys, and the fat that is on them, which is on the loins, and the fold above the liver, beside the kidneys. <sup>11</sup>And the priest shall burn it as incense on the altar, bread of the fire offering to the LORD.

<sup>12</sup>And if his offering is a goat, then he shall bring it near before the LORD. <sup>13</sup>And he shall lay his hand on its head and kill it before the tabernacle of the congregation. And the sons of Aaron shall sprinkle the blood of it on the altar round about. <sup>14</sup>And he shall offer his offering of it, a fire offering to the LORD. And he shall take away the fat that covers the inward parts, and all the fat on the inward parts, <sup>15</sup>and the two kidneys, and the fat on them, which is on the loins, and the fold above the liver, with the kidneys. <sup>16</sup>And the priest shall burn them on the altar, bread of the fire offering for a sweet savor. All the fat is the LORD's.

<sup>17</sup>It shall be a statute forever for your generations throughout all your dwellings, that you eat neither fat nor blood.

CHAPTER 4

<sup>1</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, <sup>2</sup>Speak to the sons of Israel, saying: If a soul shall sin through ignorance against any of the commandments of the LORD concerning things which ought not to be done, and shall do any one of them — <sup>3</sup>for if the priest who is anointed sins, resulting in guilt to the people — then he shall bring for his sin, which he has sinned, a bullock, a son of the herd, a perfect one, to the LORD for a sin offering. <sup>4</sup>And he shall bring the bullock to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation before the LORD, and he shall lay his hand on the bullock's head, and kill the bullock before the LORD. <sup>5</sup>And the priest who is anointed shall take of the bullock's blood, and shall bring it to the tabernacle of the congregation. <sup>6</sup>And the priest shall dip his finger in the blood and sprinkle of the blood seven times before the LORD, at the front of the veil of the holy place. <sup>7</sup>And the priest shall put some of the blood on the horns of the altar of sweet incense before the LORD, which is in the tabernacle of the congregation. And he shall pour all the blood of the bull at the bottom of the altar of burnt offering, which is at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. <sup>8</sup>And he shall lift up from it all the fat of the bull for the sin offering; the fat that covers the inward parts, and all the fat on the inward parts, <sup>9</sup>and the two kidneys, and the fat on them, beside the loins, and the fold above the liver, with the kidneys. <sup>10</sup>Even as it was lifted from the bull of the sacrifice of peace offerings, the priest shall burn them on the altar of the burnt offering. <sup>11</sup>And the skin of the bull, and all its flesh, with its head, and with its legs, and its inward parts, and its dung, <sup>12</sup>even the whole bull shall he carry forth outside the camp to a clean place, where the ashes are poured out, and burn it on the wood with fire. It shall be burned where the ashes are poured out.

<sup>13</sup>And if the whole congregation of Israel sins through ignorance, and the thing is hidden from the eyes of the assembly, and if they do that which ought not to be done to any of all the commands of the LORD, and are guilty; <sup>14</sup>when the sin is known which they have sinned against, then the congregation shall bring near a young bull for the sin, and bring him before the tabernacle of the congregation. <sup>15</sup>And the elders of the congregation shall lay their hands on the head of the bull before the LORD, and the bull shall be killed before the LORD. <sup>16</sup>And the priest that is anointed shall bring of the bull's blood to the tabernacle of the congregation. <sup>17</sup>And the priest shall dip his finger in the blood and sprinkle seven times before the LORD, before the veil. <sup>18</sup>And he shall put some of the blood on the horns of the altar which is before the LORD, which is in the tabernacle of the congregation. And he shall pour out all the blood at the bottom of the altar of burnt offering, which is at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. <sup>19</sup>And he shall take all its fat from it and burn it on the altar. <sup>20</sup>And he shall do with the bull as he did with the bull for a sin offering; so shall he do to it. And the priest shall make an atonement for them, and it shall be forgiven them. <sup>21</sup>And he shall carry forth the bull outside the camp, and burn it as he burned the first bull. It is a sin offering for the congregation.

<sup>22</sup>When a ruler has sinned and through ignorance has acted against one of the commands of the LORD his God, which not is to be done, and is guilty — <sup>23</sup>or if his sin which he has sinned shall be made known to him, he shall bring his offering, a kid of the goats, a male without blemish. <sup>24</sup>And he shall lay his hand on the head of the goat and kill it in the place where he kills the burnt offering before the LORD. It is a sin offering. <sup>25</sup>And the priest shall take of the blood of the sin offering with his finger, and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and shall pour out its blood at the bottom of the altar of burnt offering. <sup>26</sup>And he shall burn all its fat on the altar, as the fat of the sacrifice of peace offerings. And the priest shall make an atonement for him for his sin, and it shall be forgiven him.

<sup>27</sup>And if any one of the people of the land sins through ignorance, by doing that which is not to be done against one of the commands of the LORD, and is guilty — <sup>28</sup>or if his sin which he has sinned shall be made known to him, then he shall bring his offering, a ewe of the goats, a female without blemish, for his sin which he has sinned. <sup>29</sup>And he shall lay his hand on the head of the sin offering, and kill the sin offering in the place of the burnt offering. <sup>30</sup>And the priest shall take of the blood of it with his finger and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and shall pour out all the blood of it at the bottom of the altar. <sup>31</sup>And he shall take away all the fat of it, as the fat is taken away from off the sacrifice of peace offering. And the priest shall burn it on the altar for a sweet savor to the LORD. And the priest shall make an atonement for him, and it shall be forgiven him.

<sup>32</sup>And if he brings a lamb for a sin offering, he shall bring a female without blemish. <sup>33</sup>And he shall lay his hand on the head of the sin offering, and kill it for a sin offering in the place where he kills the burnt offering. <sup>34</sup>And the priest shall take of the blood of the sin offering with his finger and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and shall pour out all the blood of it at the bottom of the altar. <sup>35</sup>And he shall take away all the fat of it, as the fat of the lamb is taken away from the sacrifice of the peace offerings. And the priest shall burn them on the altar, on the fire offerings to the LORD. And the priest shall make an atonement for his sin that he has sinned, and it shall be forgiven him.

CHAPTER 5

<sup>1</sup>And if a soul sins and hears the voice of swearing, and is a witness, and he has seen or known, if he does not tell it, then he shall bear his iniquity. <sup>2</sup>Or if a soul touches any unclean thing, whether it is a dead body of an unclean beast, or a dead body of unclean cattle, or the dead body of unclean swarming things, and if it is hidden from him that he is unclean and guilty — <sup>3</sup>or if he touches the uncleanness of man, whatever uncleanness it is that a man shall be defiled with, and it is hidden from him, and he knows, then he shall be guilty. <sup>4</sup>Or if a soul swears, pronouncing with his lips to do evil or to do good, whatever it is that a man shall pronounce with an oath, and it is hidden from him, and he knows, then he shall be guilty in one of these. <sup>5</sup>And when he shall be guilty in one of these, he shall confess that in which he has sinned. <sup>6</sup>And he shall bring his trespass offering to the LORD for his sin which he has sinned, a female from the flock, a lamb or a kid of the goats, for a sin offering. And the priest shall make an atonement for him for his sin.

<sup>7</sup>And if his hand cannot reach to a lamb, then he shall bring for his trespass which he has committed, two turtle-doves or two young pigeons to the LORD — one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering. <sup>8</sup>And he shall bring them to the priest, who shall offer for the sin offering first, and shall wring off its head from its neck, but shall not divide it. <sup>9</sup>And he shall sprinkle of the blood of the sin offering on the side of the altar, and the rest of the blood shall be wrung out at the bottom of the altar. It is a sin offering. <sup>10</sup>And he shall offer the second for a burnt offering, according to the ordinance. And the priest shall make an atonement for him for his sin which he has sinned, and it shall be forgiven him.

<sup>11</sup>But if he is not able to bring two turtle-doves, or two young pigeons, then he that sinned shall bring for his offering the tenth part of an ephah of fine flour for a sin offering. He shall put no oil on it, neither shall he put frankincense on it. For it is a sin offering. <sup>12</sup>And he shall bring it to the priest, and the priest shall take his handful of it, a memorial of it, and burn it on the altar, according to the fire offering to the LORD. It is a sin offering. <sup>13</sup>And the priest shall make an atonement for him regarding his sin that he has sinned in one of these, and it shall be forgiven him. And the rest shall be the priest's, as a food offering.

<sup>14</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>15</sup>If a soul commits a trespass and sins through ignorance in the holy things of the LORD, then he shall bring for his trespass to the LORD a ram without blemish out of the flocks, together with an amount set by you, by shekels of silver, after the shekel of the sanctuary, for a trespass offering. <sup>16</sup>And he shall make it good in which he has sinned, in the holy thing, and he shall add the fifth part of it, and give it to the priest. And the priest shall make an atonement for him with the ram of the trespass offering, and it shall be forgiven him. <sup>17</sup>And if a soul sins, and he has done that which ought not to be done, any one from all the commands of the LORD, and does not know, and he is guilty and bears his iniquity; <sup>18</sup>then he shall bring a ram without blemish out of the flock, together with an amount set by you, for a trespass offering, to the priest. And the priest shall make an atonement for his ignorance in which he erred without knowing it, and it shall be forgiven him. <sup>19</sup>It is a trespass offering. He has certainly trespassed against the LORD.

CHAPTER 6

<sup>1</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>2</sup>If a soul sins, and unfaithfully commits a trespass against the LORD, and lies to his neighbor as to a deposit — or as to security, or by robbery, or has extorted his neighbor — <sup>3</sup>or has found that which was lost and lies concerning it and swears falsely — in any of all these that a man does, sinning in it, <sup>4</sup>then, it shall be, because he has sinned and is guilty, he shall pay back that which he got by robbery; or if he robbed the thing extorted; or the deposit which had been deposited with him; or the lost thing which he had found; <sup>5</sup>or all that which he swore about falsely, — he shall even repay it in its principal, and the fifth part he shall add to it, to whomever it belongs. He shall give it on the day of his guilt offering. <sup>6</sup>And he shall bring his trespass offering to the LORD, a ram without blemish out of the flock, together with an amount set by you, for a trespass offering, to the priest. <sup>7</sup>And the priest shall make an atonement for him before the LORD, and it shall be forgiven him for anything of all that he has done in trespassing in it.

<sup>8</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>9</sup>Command Aaron and his sons, saying, This is the law of the burnt offering. It is the burnt offering for burning on the altar all night to the morning, and the fire of the altar shall be burning in it. <sup>10</sup>And the priest shall put on his linen garment. And he shall put his linen breeches on his flesh and take up the ashes which the fire has consumed with the burnt offering on the altar. And he shall put them beside the altar. <sup>11</sup>And he shall strip off his garments and put on other garments, and carry forth the ashes outside the camp to a clean place. <sup>12</sup>And the fire on the altar shall be kept burning it. It shall not be put out. And the priest shall burn wood on it every morning, and lay the burnt offering in order on it. And he shall burn on it the fat of the peace offerings. <sup>13</sup>The fire shall always be burning on the altar. It shall never go out.

<sup>14</sup>And this is the law of the food offering. The sons of Aaron shall offer it before the LORD before the altar. <sup>15</sup>And he shall take from it his handful of the flour of the food offering, and of the oil of it, and all the frankincense which is on the food offering, and shall burn it on the altar for a sweet savor, the memorial of it, to the LORD. <sup>16</sup>And the rest of it Aaron and his sons shall eat. It shall be eaten with unleavened bread in the holy place. They shall eat it in the court of the tabernacle of the congregation. <sup>17</sup>It shall not be baked with leaven. I have given it as their portion of My offerings made by fire. It is most holy, as is the sin offering, and as the trespass offering is.<sup>18</sup> All the males among the sons of Aaron shall eat of it. It shall be a statute forever in your generations concerning the offerings of the LORD made by fire. Everyone that touches them shall be holy.

<sup>19</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, <sup>20</sup>This is the offering of Aaron and of his sons, which they shall offer to the LORD in the day when he is anointed, the tenth part of an ephah of fine flour for a continual food offering, half of it in the morning and half of it at night. <sup>21</sup>It shall be made in a pan with oil. When it is baked, you shall bring it in. And you shall offer the baked pieces of the food offering, a sweet savor to the LORD. <sup>22</sup>And the priest of his sons, who is anointed in his stead, shall offer it. It is a statute forever to the LORD. It shall be wholly burnt. <sup>23</sup>For every food offering for the priest shall be wholly burnt. It shall not be eaten.

<sup>24</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, <sup>25</sup>Speak to Aaron and to his sons, saying, This is the law of the sin offering. In the place where the burnt offering is killed, the sin offering shall be killed before the LORD. It is most holy. <sup>26</sup>The priest who offers it for sin shall eat it. It shall be eaten in the holy place, in the court of the tabernacle of the congregation. <sup>27</sup>Whatever shall touch the flesh of it shall be holy. And when the blood of it is sprinkled on any garment, you shall wash that on which it was sprinkled in the holy place. <sup>28</sup>But the earthen vessel in which it is boiled shall be broken. And if it is boiled in a bronze pot, it shall be both scoured and rinsed in water. <sup>29</sup>All the males among the priests shall eat of it. It is most holy. <sup>30</sup>And no sin offering, of which any of the blood is brought into the tabernacle of the congregation for atonement in the holy place, shall be eaten. It shall be burned up in the fire.

CHAPTER 7

<sup>1</sup>And this is the law of the trespass offering. It is most holy. <sup>2</sup>In the place where they kill the burnt offering, they shall kill the trespass offering. And he shall sprinkle the blood of it round about on the altar. <sup>3</sup>And he shall offer all its fat; he shall offer the fat tail of it, and the fat that covers the innards, <sup>4</sup>and the two kidneys, and the fat on them, on the loins, and the fold that is above the liver, beside the kidneys, he shall take it away. <sup>5</sup>And the priest shall burn them on the altar for a fire offering to the LORD. It is a trespass offering. <sup>6</sup>Every male among the priests shall eat of it. It shall be eaten in the holy place. It is most holy. <sup>7</sup>As the sin offering, so is the trespass offering. There is one law for them. The priest that makes atonement with it shall have it. <sup>8</sup>And the priest that offers any man's burnt offering, that priest shall have the skin of the burnt offering which he has offered for himself. <sup>9</sup>And all the food offering that is baked in the oven, and all that is dressed in the frying-pan and on the griddle, shall be the priest's that offers it. <sup>10</sup>And every food offering mixed with oil, or dry, shall all the sons of Aaron have, one like another.

<sup>11</sup>And this is the law of the sacrifice of peace offerings which he shall offer to the LORD. <sup>12</sup>If he offers it for a thanksgiving, then he shall offer with the sacrifice of thanksgiving unleavened cakes mixed with oil, and unleavened wafers anointed with oil, and cakes mixed with oil, of fine flour, fried. <sup>13</sup>Besides the cakes, he shall offer for his offering leavened bread with the sacrifice of thanksgiving of his peace offerings. <sup>14</sup>And from it he shall offer one cake out of the whole sacrifice for a heave offering to the LORD. It shall be the priest's that sprinkles the blood of the peace offerings. <sup>15</sup>And the flesh of the sacrifice of his peace offerings for thanksgiving shall be eaten the same day that it is offered. He shall not leave any of it until the morning. <sup>16</sup>But if the sacrifice of his offering is a vow, or a voluntary offering, it shall be eaten the same day that he offers his sacrifice. And on the next day also the rest of it shall be eaten. <sup>17</sup>But the rest of the flesh of the sacrifice on the third day shall be burned with fire. <sup>18</sup>And if any of the flesh of the sacrifice of the peace offerings is eaten at all the third day, it shall not be accepted, neither shall it be imputed to him who offers it. It shall be an abomination, and the soul that eats of it shall bear his iniquity.

<sup>19</sup>And the flesh that touches any unclean thing shall not be eaten. It shall be burned with fire. And as for the flesh, all who are clean shall eat of it. <sup>20</sup>But the soul that eats of the flesh of the sacrifice of peace offerings that pertain to the LORD, having his uncleanness on him, even that soul shall be cut off from his people. <sup>21</sup>And the soul that shall touch any unclean thing, like the uncleanness of man, or any unclean animal, or an abominable unclean thing, and eat of the flesh of the sacrifice of peace offerings which pertain to the LORD, even that soul shall be cut off from his people.

<sup>22</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, <sup>23</sup>Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, You shall not eat any fat of ox, or of sheep, or of goat. <sup>24</sup>And the fat of a dead body, and the fat of a thing torn, may be used in any other use. But you shall in no way eat it. <sup>25</sup>For whoever eats the fat of the beast of which men offer an offering made by fire to the LORD, even the soul that eats it shall be cut off from his people. <sup>26</sup>And you shall not eat any blood, of fowl or of beast, in any of your dwellings. <sup>27</sup>Any soul who eats any blood, even that soul shall be cut off from his people.

<sup>28</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, <sup>29</sup>Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, He who offers the sacrifice of his peace offerings to the LORD, shall bring his sacrifice to the LORD of the sacrifice of his peace offerings. <sup>30</sup>His own hands shall bring in the fire offerings of the LORD. He shall bring the fat with the breast, so that the breast may be waved for a wave-offering before the LORD. <sup>31</sup>And the priest shall burn the fat on the altar. But the breast shall be Aaron's and his sons'. <sup>32</sup>And you shall give the right shoulder to the priest for a heave offering of the sacrifices of your peace offerings. <sup>33</sup>He among the sons of Aaron who offers the blood of the peace offerings, and the fat, shall have the right shoulder for his part. <sup>34</sup>For I have taken the wave breast and the heave shoulder from the sons of Israel, from the sacrifices of their peace offerings, and have given them to Aaron the priest and to his sons by a statute forever from among the sons of Israel. <sup>35</sup>This is the portion of the anointing of Aaron, and of the anointing of his sons, out of the offerings of the LORD made by fire, in the day He presented them to minister to the LORD in the priest's office, <sup>36</sup>which the LORD commanded to be given to them of the sons of Israel, in the day that He anointed them as a statute forever throughout their generations.

<sup>37</sup>This is the law of the burnt offering, of the food offering, and of the sin offering, and of the trespass offering, and of the consecrations, and of the sacrifices of the peace offerings, <sup>38</sup>which the LORD commanded Moses in Mount Sinai, in the day that He commanded the sons of Israel to offer their sacrifices to the LORD, in the wilderness of Sinai.

CHAPTER 8

<sup>1</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>2</sup>Take Aaron, and his sons with him, and the garments, and the anointing oil, and a bull for the sin offering, and two rams, and a basket of unleavened bread. <sup>3</sup>And gather all the congregation together to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. <sup>4</sup>And Moses did as the LORD had commanded him. And the assembly was gathered together to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

<sup>5</sup>And Moses said to the congregation, This is the thing which the LORD commanded to be done. <sup>6</sup>And Moses brought Aaron and his sons, and washed them with water. <sup>7</sup>And he put on him the tunic, and girded him with the girdle, and clothed him with the robe, and put the ephod on him, and girded him with the embroidered girdle of the ephod, and bound it to him with it. <sup>8</sup>And he put the breast-pocket on him. Also he put in the breast-pocket the Urim and the Thummim. <sup>9</sup>And he put the miter on his head. Also he put the golden plate, the holy crown, on the miter, on his forehead, even as the LORD commanded Moses.

<sup>10</sup>And Moses took the anointing oil and anointed the tabernacle and all that was in it, and sanctified them. <sup>11</sup>And he sprinkled some of it on the altar seven times, and anointed the altar and all its vessels, both the laver and its base, to sanctify them. <sup>12</sup>And he poured of the anointing oil on Aaron's head and anointed him, to sanctify him. <sup>13</sup>And Moses brought Aaron's sons and put tunics on them, and girded them with girdles, and bound bonnets on them, even as the LORD commanded Moses.

<sup>14</sup>And he brought the bull for the sin offering. And Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the bull for the sin offering. <sup>15</sup>And he killed it. And Moses took the blood and put it on the horns of the altar round about with his finger, and purified the altar, and poured the blood at the bottom of the altar, and sanctified it, to make reconciliation on it. <sup>16</sup>And he took all the fat on the innards, and the fold above the liver, and the two kidneys and their fat, and Moses burned it on the altar. <sup>17</sup>But the bull and its hide, its flesh and its dung, he burned with fire outside the camp, even as the LORD commanded Moses.

<sup>31</sup>And Moses said to Aaron and to his sons, Boil the flesh at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. And eat it there with the bread in the basket of consecrations, as I have commanded, saying, Aaron and his sons shall eat it. <sup>32</sup>And that which remains of the flesh and of the bread you shall burn with fire. <sup>33</sup>You shall not go out of the door of the tabernacle of the congregation seven days, until the days of your consecration are at an end. For He shall consecrate you seven days. <sup>34</sup>As He has done this day, the LORD has commanded you to do, to make an atonement for you. <sup>35</sup>And you shall remain at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation day and night seven days, and keep the charge of the LORD, so that you do not die. For so I am commanded. <sup>36</sup>And Aaron and his sons did all the things which the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses.

CHAPTER 9

<sup>1</sup>And it happened on the eighth day that Moses called Aaron and his sons, and the elders of Israel. <sup>2</sup>And he said to Aaron, Take a young calf for a sin offering, and a ram without blemish for a burnt offering, and offer before the LORD. <sup>3</sup>And to the sons of Israel you shall speak, saying, Take a kid of the goats for a sin offering, and a calf and a lamb of the first year, all without blemish, for a burnt offering. <sup>4</sup>Also take a bull and a ram for peace offerings, to sacrifice before the LORD. Also take a food offering mixed with oil. For today the LORD will appear to you. <sup>5</sup>And they brought that which Moses commanded before the tabernacle of the congregation. And all the congregation drew near and stood before the LORD. <sup>6</sup>And Moses said, This is the thing which the LORD commanded that you should do. And the glory of the LORD shall appear to you. <sup>7</sup>And Moses said to Aaron, Go to the altar, and offer your sin offering and your burnt offerings, and make an atonement for yourself and for the people. And offer the offering of the people, and make an atonement for them, even as the LORD commanded. <sup>8</sup>Aaron then went to the altar and killed the calf of the sin offering, which was for himself. <sup>9</sup>And the sons of Aaron brought the blood to him. And he dipped his finger in the blood and put it on the horns of the altar, and poured out the blood at the bottom of the altar. <sup>10</sup>But he burned the fat and the kidneys and the fold above the liver of the sin offering on the altar, even as the LORD commanded Moses. <sup>11</sup>And he burned the flesh and the hide with fire outside the camp.

<sup>12</sup>And he killed the burnt offering. And Aaron's sons presented to him the blood, which he sprinkled round about on the altar. <sup>13</sup>And they presented the burnt offering to him, with the pieces of it, and the head. And he burned them on the altar. <sup>14</sup>And he washed the innards and the legs, and burned them on the burnt offering on the altar. <sup>15</sup>And he brought the people's offering. And he took the goat, the sin offering for the people, and killed it and offered it for sin as the first. <sup>16</sup>And he brought the burnt offering and offered it according to the ordinance. <sup>17</sup>And he brought the food offering and took a handful of it, and burned it on the altar beside the burnt sacrifice of the morning. <sup>18</sup>He also killed the bull and the ram for a sacrifice of peace offerings for the people. And Aaron's sons presented to him the blood, which he sprinkled on the altar round about. <sup>19</sup>And they brought the fat of the bull and of the ram, the fat tail, and that which covers the inward parts, and the kidneys, and the fold above the liver. <sup>20</sup>And they put the fat on the breasts, and he burned the fat on the altar. <sup>21</sup>And the breasts and the right shoulder Aaron waved for a wave offering before the Lord, as Moses commanded.

<sup>22</sup>And Aaron lifted up his hands toward the people, and blessed them, and came down from offering the sin offering and the burnt offering and peace offerings. <sup>23</sup>And Moses and Aaron went into the tabernacle of the congregation, and came out and blessed the people. And the glory of the LORD appeared to all the people. <sup>24</sup>And there came a fire out from before the LORD, and burned up the burnt offering and the fat on the altar. And when all the people saw it, they shouted and fell on their faces.

CHAPTER 10

<sup>1</sup>And Nadab and Abihu, the sons of Aaron, each took his censer and put fire in it, and put incense on it, and offered strange fire before the LORD, which He did not command them to do. <sup>2</sup>And there went out fire from the LORD and devoured them, and they died before the LORD. <sup>3</sup>Then Moses said to Aaron, It is that which the LORD spoke, saying, I will be sanctified in them that come near me, and before all the people I will be glorified. And Aaron held his peace. <sup>4</sup>And Moses called Mishael and Elzaphan, the sons of Uzziel, the uncle of Aaron, and said to them, Come near, carry your brothers from before the sanctuary out of the camp. <sup>5</sup>And they came near and carried them in their coats out of the camp, as Moses had said. <sup>6</sup>And Moses said to Aaron and to Eleazar and Ithamar his sons, Do not uncover your heads nor tear your clothes, lest you die, and lest wrath come on all the people. But let your brothers, the whole of Israel, mourn the burning which the LORD has kindled. <sup>7</sup>And you shall not go out of the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, lest you die. For the anointing oil of the LORD is on you. And they did according to the word of Moses.

<sup>8</sup>And the LORD spoke to Aaron, saying, <sup>9</sup>Do not drink wine nor strong drink, neither you nor your sons with you, when you go into the tabernacle of the congregation, lest you die, a statute forever throughout your generations. <sup>10</sup>And it is so that you may put a difference between holy and unholy, and between unclean and clean <sup>11</sup>and so that you may teach the sons of Israel all the statutes which the LORD has spoken to them by the hand of Moses.

<sup>12</sup>And Moses spoke to Aaron, and to Eleazar and to Ithamar his sons that were left, Take the food offering that remains of the offerings of the LORD made by fire, and eat it without leaven beside the altar. For it is most holy. <sup>13</sup>And you shall eat in the holy place, because it is your due, and your sons' due, of the fire offerings of the LORD made by fire. For so I am commanded. <sup>14</sup>And the wave breast and heave shoulder you shall eat in a clean place, you, and your sons and your daughters with you. For they have been given for your portion and the portion of your sons out of the sacrifices of peace offerings of the sons of Israel. <sup>15</sup>The heave shoulder and the wave breast they shall bring with the fire offerings of the fat, to wave for a wave offering before the LORD. And it shall be yours, and your sons' with you, by a statute forever, even as the LORD has commanded.

<sup>16</sup>And Moses carefully looked for the goat of the sin offering. And behold, it was burned! And he was angry with Eleazar and Ithamar, the sons of Aaron left alive, saying, <sup>17</sup>Why have you not eaten the sin offering in the holy place, since it is most holy, and He has given it to you to bear the iniquity of the congregation, to make atonement for them before the LORD? <sup>18</sup>Behold! The blood of it was not brought within the holy place! You should indeed have eaten it in the holy place, as I commanded. <sup>19</sup>And Aaron said to Moses, Behold, this day they have offered their sin offering and their burnt offering before the LORD. And such things have happened to me. And if I had eaten the sin offering today, should it have been accepted in the sight of the LORD? <sup>20</sup>And Moses heard, and it was good in his eyes.

CHAPTER 11

<sup>1</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying to them, <sup>2</sup>Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, These are the animals which you shall eat among all the animals that are in the earth. <sup>3</sup>Whatever divides the hoof, and is cloven-footed, chewing the cud, among the animals, that you shall eat. <sup>4</sup>Only, you shall not eat

these of them that chew the cud, or of them that divide the hoof: the camel, for he chews the cud but does not divide the hoof; he is unclean to you.<sup>5</sup> And the coney, because he chews the cud but does not divide the hoof; he is unclean to you.<sup>6</sup> And the hare, because he chews the cud but does not divide the hoof; he is unclean to you.<sup>7</sup> And the swine, though he divides the hoof and is cloven-footed, yet he does not chew the cud; he is unclean to you.<sup>8</sup> You shall not eat of their flesh, and you shall not touch their dead body. They are unclean to you.

<sup>9</sup>These you shall eat of all that are in the waters: whatever has fins and scales in the waters, in the seas, and in the rivers, them you shall eat.<sup>10</sup> And all that have not fins and scales in the seas, and in the rivers, of all that move in the waters, and of any living thing that is in the waters, they shall be an abomination to you.<sup>11</sup> They shall even be an abomination to you. You shall not eat of their flesh, but you shall have their carcasses in abomination.<sup>12</sup> Whatever has no fins nor scales in the waters shall be an abomination to you.

<sup>13</sup>And you shall have these in abomination among the fowls. They shall not be eaten, they are an abomination: the eagle, and the black vulture, and the bearded vulture,<sup>14</sup> and the kite, and the falcon, according to its kind; <sup>15</sup>every raven according to its kind; <sup>16</sup>and the ostrich, and the great owl, and the gull, and small hawks, <sup>17</sup>and the little owl, and the cormorant, and the eared owl; <sup>18</sup>and the barn owl, and the pelican, and the owl-vulture; <sup>19</sup>and the stork, the heron according to its kind, and the hoopoe, and the bat.

<sup>24</sup>And you shall be unclean for these. Whoever touches their dead body shall be unclean until the evening.<sup>25</sup> And whoever carries the carcass of them shall wash his clothes and be unclean until the evening; <sup>26</sup>even every living thing which divides the hoof, and is not cloven-footed, nor chews the cud, they are unclean to you. Everyone that touches them shall be unclean.<sup>27</sup> And whatever goes on its paws, among all the living things that go on all four, those are unclean to you. Whoever touches their dead body shall be unclean until the evening.<sup>28</sup> And he that carries their dead bodies shall wash his clothes and be unclean until the evening. They are unclean to you.

<sup>29</sup>These also shall be unclean to you among the swarming things that swarm on the earth: the weasel, and the mouse, and the great lizard after its kind; <sup>30</sup>and the gecko, and the monitor, and the lizard, and the sand lizard, and the brown owl.<sup>31</sup> These are unclean to you among all that swarm. Whoever touches them when they are dead shall be unclean until the evening.<sup>32</sup> And whatever shall fall on any of them when they are dead, shall be unclean, whether any vessel of wood, or clothing, or skin, or sack; whatever vessel in which work is done, it must be put into water, and it shall be unclean to the evening. So it shall be cleaned.<sup>33</sup> And every earthen vessel in which any of them falls, whatever is in it shall be unclean. And you shall break it.<sup>34</sup> Of all food which may be eaten, that on which such water comes shall be unclean. And all drink that may be drunk in every such vessel shall be unclean.<sup>35</sup> And every thing on which any part of their dead body falls shall be unclean; whether it is the oven, or ranges for pots, they shall be broken down. They are unclean, and shall be unclean to you.<sup>36</sup> But a fountain or pit, in which there is a collection of water, shall be clean. But that which touches their dead body shall be unclean. <sup>37</sup>And if any of their dead body falls on any sowing seed which is to be sown, it shall be clean. <sup>38</sup>But if any water is put on the seed, and any part of the dead body falls on it, it shall be unclean to you.

<sup>39</sup>And if any animal among those you may eat dies, he that touches its dead body shall be unclean until the evening. <sup>40</sup>And he that eats of its dead body shall wash his clothes and be unclean until the evening. He also that carries its body shall wash his clothes and be unclean until the evening. <sup>41</sup>And every swarming thing that swarms on the earth shall be an abomination. It shall not be eaten. <sup>42</sup>Anything going on its belly, and any going on all four, and all having many feet, even every swarming thing that swarms on the earth, you shall not eat them. For they are an abomination. <sup>43</sup>You shall not defile yourselves with any swarming thing that swarms, neither shall you make yourselves unclean with them, so that you should be defiled by them. <sup>44</sup>For I am the LORD your God, and you shall sanctify yourselves, and you shall be holy, for I am holy. Neither shall you defile yourselves with any kind of swarming thing that swarms on the earth. <sup>45</sup>For I am the LORD who brings you up out of the land of Egypt, to be your God. You shall therefore be holy, for I am holy. <sup>46</sup>This is the law of the animals, and of the fowl, and of every living creature that moves in the waters, and of every creature that swarms on the earth, <sup>47</sup>to make a difference between the unclean and the clean, and between the beast that may be eaten and the beast that may not be eaten.

CHAPTER 12

<sup>1</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, <sup>2</sup>Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, If a woman has conceived seed and has borne a male, then she shall be unclean seven days; as on the days of her menstrual impurity she shall be unclean. <sup>3</sup>And in the eighth day the flesh of his foreskin shall be circumcised. <sup>4</sup>And she shall then continue in the blood of her purifying thirty-three days. She shall touch no holy thing, nor come into the sanctuary, until the days of her purifying are fulfilled. <sup>5</sup>But if she bears a female, then she shall be unclean two weeks, as in her menstruation. And she shall continue in the blood of her purifying sixty-six days. <sup>6</sup>And when the days of her purifying are fulfilled, for a son or for a daughter, she shall bring a lamb of the first year for a burnt offering, and a young pigeon or a turtle-dove, for a sin offering to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, to the priest. <sup>7</sup>And He shall offer it before the LORD, and make an atonement for her. And she shall be cleansed from the issue of her blood. This is the law for her that has borne a male or a female. <sup>8</sup>And if her hand cannot reach to a lamb, then she shall bring two turtle-doves or two young pigeons. The one shall be for a burnt offering, and the other for a sin offering. And the priest shall make an atonement for her, and she shall be cleansed.

CHAPTER 13

<sup>1</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying, <sup>2</sup>When a man has a rising in the skin of his flesh, a scab or bright spot, and it is in the skin of his flesh like the plague of leprosy, then he shall be brought to Aaron the priest, or to one of his sons the priests. <sup>3</sup>And the priest shall look on the plague in the skin of the flesh. And when the hair in the plague has turned white, and the plague in sight is deeper than the skin of his flesh, it is a plague of leprosy. And the priest shall look on him and shall pronounce him unclean. <sup>4</sup>And if the bright spot is white in the skin of his flesh, and in sight is not deeper than the skin, and the hair of it has not turned white, then the priest shall shut him up that has the plague seven days. <sup>5</sup>And the priest shall look on him the seventh day. And behold, if the plague in his sight is stayed; the plague has not spread in the skin, then the priest shall shut him up seven days more. <sup>6</sup>And the priest shall look on him again in the seventh day. And, behold, if the plague is somewhat dark; the plague has not spread in the skin, the priest shall pronounce him clean. It is a scab. And he shall wash his clothes and be clean. <sup>7</sup>But if the scab spreads much abroad in the skin after he has been seen by the priest for his cleansing, he shall be seen by the priest again. <sup>8</sup>And if the priest sees that the scab spreads in the skin, behold, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean. It is a leprosy.

<sup>9</sup>When the plague of leprosy is in a man, then he shall be brought to the priest. <sup>10</sup>And the priest shall look. And, behold, if the rising is white in the skin, and it has turned the hair white and there is live raw flesh in the rising, <sup>11</sup>it is an old leprosy in the skin of his flesh. And the priest shall pronounce him unclean, and shall not shut him up, for he is unclean. <sup>12</sup>And if a leprosy breaks out greatly on the skin, and the leprosy covers all the skin of the one who has the plague from his head even to his foot, wherever the priest looks, <sup>13</sup>then the priest shall look. And behold, if the leprosy has covered all his flesh, he shall pronounce him clean that has the plague. It has all turned white. He is clean. <sup>14</sup>But when raw flesh appears in him, he shall be unclean. <sup>15</sup>And the priest shall look on the raw flesh, and pronounce him to be unclean. The raw flesh is unclean; it is a leprosy. <sup>16</sup>Or if the raw flesh turns again and is changed to white, he shall come to the priest. <sup>17</sup>And the priest shall look on him. And, behold, the plague has turned to white, then the priest shall pronounce him clean that has the plague. He is clean.

<sup>29</sup>If a man or woman has a plague on the head or the beard, <sup>30</sup>then the priest shall see the plague. And behold, if it is in sight deeper than the skin, and a yellow thin hair is in it, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean. It is a dry scab, a leprosy on the head or beard. <sup>31</sup>And if the priest looks on the plague of the scab, and behold, it is not in sight deeper than the skin, and no black hair is in it, then the priest shall shut him up that has the plague of the scab seven days. <sup>32</sup>And in the seventh day the priest shall look on the plague. And behold, if the scab does not spread, and no yellow hair is in it, and the scab is not in sight deeper than the skin, <sup>33</sup>he shall be shaven, but shall not shave the scab. And the priest shall shut up the one who has the scab seven days more. <sup>34</sup>And in the seventh day the priest shall look on the scab. And behold, if the scab has not spread in the skin, nor is in sight deeper than the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him clean. And he shall wash his clothes and be clean.<sup>35</sup> But if the scab spreads very much in the skin after his cleansing,<sup>36</sup> then the priest shall look on him, and behold, if the scab is spread in the skin, the priest shall not look for yellow hair. He is unclean.<sup>37</sup> But if in his eyes the scab is stabilized, and black hair is growing up in it, the scab is healed. He is clean, and the priest shall pronounce him clean.<sup>38</sup> Also if a man or a woman has bright spots in the skin of their flesh, white bright spots,<sup>39</sup> then the priest shall look. And behold, if bright spots are in the skin of their flesh, it is a pale spot that grows in the skin. He is clean.

<sup>45</sup>And as for the leper in whom the plague is, his clothes shall be torn, and his head shall be bare, and he shall put a covering on his upper lip, and shall cry, Unclean! Unclean!<sup>46</sup> All the days in which the plague is in him he shall be defiled. He is unclean. He shall live alone. His dwelling shall be outside the camp.<sup>47</sup> And if there is any garment that has the plague of leprosy in it, in a wool garment or a linen garment,<sup>48</sup> or in the warp or in the woof, of linen or of wool — or in a skin or in anything of skin,<sup>49</sup> and if the plague is greenish or reddish in the garment or in the skin, either in the warp or in the woof, or in anything of skin, it is a plague of leprosy. And it shall be shown to the priest.<sup>50</sup> And the priest shall look on the plague, and shut up that which has the plague seven days.<sup>51</sup> And he shall look on the plague on the seventh day. If the plague is spread in the garment, either in the warp or in the woof, or in any skin or in any work that is made of skin, the plague is a fretting leprosy. It is unclean.<sup>52</sup> And he shall burn that garment, whether warp or woof, in wool or in linen, or anything of skin in which the plague is. For it is a fretting leprosy. It shall be burned in the fire.<sup>53</sup> And if the priest shall look, and behold, the plague has not spread in the garment, either in the warp or the woof, or anything of skin,<sup>54</sup> then the priest shall command that they wash the thing in which the plague is. And he shall shut it up seven days more.<sup>55</sup> And the priest shall look on the plague after it is washed, and behold, if the plague has not changed its color and the plague has not spread; it is unclean. You shall burn it in the fire. It is a sunken spot, whether it is eaten away in the inside of it, or in the outside of it.<sup>56</sup> And if the priest looks, and behold, the plague is somewhat dark after the washing of it, then he shall tear it out of the garment, or out of the skin, or out of the warp, or out of the woof.<sup>57</sup> And if it appears still in the garment, or in the warp or in the woof, or in anything of skin, it is a spreading plague. You shall burn that in which the plague is with fire.<sup>58</sup> And the garment which you shall wash - either warp or woof, or whatever thing of skin it is - if the plague has departed from them, then it shall be washed a second time, and shall be clean.

<sup>59</sup>This is the law of the plague of leprosy in a garment of woolen or linen, either in the warp or woof or anything of skins, to pronounce it clean or to pronounce it unclean.

CHAPTER 14

<sup>1</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>2</sup>This shall be the law of the leper in the day of his cleansing. He shall be brought to the priest. <sup>3</sup>And the priest shall go forth out of the camp. And the priest shall look, and behold, if the plague of leprosy is healed in the leper, <sup>4</sup>then the priest shall command to take two clean live birds for him that is to be cleansed, and cedar wood, and scarlet, and hyssop. <sup>5</sup>And the priest shall command that one of the birds be killed in an earthen vessel over running water. <sup>6</sup>He shall take the living bird, and the cedar wood and the scarlet and the hyssop, and shall dip them and the living bird in the blood of the bird that was killed, over the running water. <sup>7</sup>And he shall sprinkle on him that is to be cleansed from the leprosy seven times, and shall pronounce him clean, and shall let the living bird loose into the open field. <sup>8</sup>And he that is to be cleansed shall wash his clothes, and shave off all his hair, and wash himself in water so that he may be clean. And after that he shall come into the camp, and shall stay outside his tent seven days. <sup>9</sup>But on the seventh day he shall shave all his hair off his head and his beard and his eye-brows; even all his hair shall he shave off. And he shall wash his clothes. He also shall wash his flesh in water, and he shall be clean.

<sup>10</sup>And on the eighth day he shall take two male lambs without blemish, and one ewe lamb of the first year without blemish, and three-tenth parts of fine flour for a food offering, mixed with oil, and one log of oil. <sup>11</sup>And the priest that makes him clean shall present the man that is to be made clean, and those things, before the LORD at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. <sup>12</sup>And the priest shall take one male lamb and offer him for a trespass offering, and the log of oil, and wave them for a wave offering before the LORD. <sup>13</sup>And he shall kill the lamb in the place where he shall kill the sin offering and the burnt offering, in the holy place. For as the sin offering is the priest's, so is the trespass offering. It is most holy. <sup>14</sup>And the priest shall take some of the blood of the trespass offering, and the priest shall put it on the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and on the thumb of his right hand, and on the great toe of his right foot. <sup>15</sup>And the priest shall take from the log of oil and pour into the palm of his own left hand. <sup>16</sup>And the priest shall dip his right finger in the oil in his left hand and shall sprinkle of the oil with his finger seven times before the LORD. <sup>17</sup>And of the rest of the oil in his hand, the priest shall put on the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and on the thumb of his right hand, and on the great toe of his right foot, on the blood of the trespass offering. <sup>18</sup>And the rest of the oil in the priest's hand he shall pour on the head of him that is to be cleansed. And the priest shall make an atonement for him before the LORD. <sup>19</sup>And the priest shall offer the sin offering and make an atonement for him that is to be cleansed from his uncleanness. And afterward he shall kill the burnt offering. <sup>20</sup>And the priest shall offer the burnt offering and the food offering on the altar. And the priest shall make an atonement for him, and he shall be clean.

<sup>21</sup>And if he is poor and cannot get so much, then he shall take one lamb for a trespass offering to be waved, to make an atonement for him, and one-tenth part of fine flour mixed with oil for a food offering, and a log of oil, <sup>22</sup>and two turtle-doves or two young pigeons, such as he is able to get. And the one shall be a sin offering, and the other a burnt offering. <sup>23</sup>And he shall bring them on the eighth day for his cleansing to the priest, to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation before the LORD. <sup>24</sup>And the priest shall take the lamb of the trespass offering, and the log of oil, and the priest shall wave them for a wave offering before the LORD. <sup>25</sup>And he shall kill the lamb of the trespass offering. And the priest shall take from the blood of the trespass offering, and put it on the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and on the thumb of his right hand, and on the great toe of his right foot. <sup>26</sup>And the priest shall pour of the oil into the palm of his own left hand. <sup>27</sup>And the priest shall sprinkle with his right finger of the oil that is in his left hand seven times before the LORD. <sup>28</sup>And the priest shall put of the oil in his hand on the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and on the thumb of his right hand, and on the great toe of his right foot, on the place of the blood of the trespass offering. <sup>29</sup>And the rest of the oil in the priest's hand he shall put on the head of him that is to be cleansed, to make an atonement for him before the LORD. <sup>30</sup>And he shall offer the one of the turtle-doves, or of the young pigeons, such as he is able to get, <sup>31</sup>even such as he is able to get, the one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering, with the food offering. And the priest shall make an atonement for him that is to be cleansed before the LORD. <sup>32</sup>This is the law of him in whom is the plague of leprosy, whose hand is not able to get that which pertains to his cleansing.

<sup>33</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying, <sup>34</sup>When you come into the land of Canaan which I give you for a possession, and I put the plague of leprosy in a house of the land of your possession, <sup>35</sup>and if he that owns the house shall come and tell the priest, saying, A plague is seen by me in the house; <sup>36</sup>then the priest shall command that they empty the house before the priest goes to see the plague, so that all that is in the house may not become unclean. And afterwards the priest shall go in to see the house. <sup>37</sup>And he shall look on the plague. And behold, if the plague is in the walls of the house with hollow streaks, greenish or reddish, which in sight are lower than the wall, <sup>38</sup>then the priest shall go out of the house to the door of the house, and shut up the house seven days. <sup>39</sup>And the priest shall come again the seventh day and shall look. And behold, if the plague has spread in the walls of the house, <sup>40</sup>then the priest shall command that they take away the stones in which the plague is, and they shall throw them into an unclean place outside the city. <sup>41</sup>And he shall cause the house to be scraped inside all around, and they shall pour out the dust that they scrape off outside the city in an unclean place. <sup>42</sup>And they shall take other stones and put them in the place of those stones. And he shall take other mortar and shall plaster the house.

<sup>43</sup>And if the plague comes again and breaks out in the house after he has taken away the stones and after he has scraped the house, and after it is plastered, <sup>44</sup>then the priest shall come and look. And behold, if the plague has spread in the house, it is a fretting leprosy in the house. It is unclean. <sup>45</sup>And he shall break down the house, the stones of it, and the timber of it, and all the mortar of the house, and he shall carry them out of the city into an unclean place. <sup>46</sup>And he that goes into the house all the days that it is shut up shall be unclean until the evening. <sup>47</sup>And he that lies in the house shall wash his clothes. And he that eats in the house shall wash his clothes.

<sup>48</sup>And if the priest shall come in and look on it, and, behold, the plague has not spread in the house after the house was plastered, then the priest shall pronounce the house clean because the plague is healed. <sup>49</sup>And he shall take two birds to cleanse the house, and cedar-wood, and scarlet dye, and hyssop. <sup>50</sup>And he shall kill one of the birds in an earthen vessel over running water. <sup>51</sup>And he shall take the cedar wood, and the hyssop, and the scarlet dye, and the living bird, and dip them in the blood of the slain bird and in the running water, and sprinkle the house seven times. <sup>52</sup>And he shall cleanse the house with the blood of the bird, and with the running water, and with the living bird, and with the cedar wood, and with the hyssop, and with the scarlet. <sup>53</sup>But he shall let the living bird go out of the city into the open fields, and make an atonement for the house. And it shall be clean.

CHAPTER 15

<sup>1</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying, <sup>2</sup>Speak to the sons of Israel and say to them, When any man has a discharge from his flesh; he is unclean because of his issue. <sup>3</sup>And this shall be his uncleanness in his issue. His flesh has run with his issue, or his flesh is stopped from his issue, it is his uncleanness. <sup>4</sup>Every bed on which he who discharges lies is unclean. And everything on which he sits shall be unclean. <sup>5</sup>And whoever touches his bed shall wash his clothes and bathe in water, and be unclean until the evening. <sup>6</sup>And he that sits on anything on which he sat that has the issue, shall wash his clothes and bathe in water, and be unclean until the evening. <sup>7</sup>And he that touches the flesh of him that has the issue shall wash his clothes, and bathe in water, and be unclean until the evening. <sup>8</sup>And if he that has the issue spits on him that is clean, then he shall wash his clothes, and bathe in water, and be unclean until the evening. <sup>9</sup>And whatever saddle he that has the issue rides on shall be unclean. <sup>10</sup>And whoever touches anything that was under him shall be unclean until the evening. And he that carries any of those things shall wash his clothes, and bathe in water, and be unclean until the evening. <sup>11</sup>And whomever he touches that has the issue, and has not rinsed his hands in water, he shall wash his clothes and bathe in water, and be unclean until the evening. <sup>12</sup>And the earthen vessel that he touches who has the issue shall be broken. And every vessel of wood shall be rinsed in water.

<sup>13</sup>And when he that has an issue is cleansed of his issue, then he shall number seven days to himself for his cleansing, and wash his clothes, and bathe his flesh in running water, and shall be clean. <sup>14</sup>And on the eighth day he shall take two turtle-doves to himself, or two young pigeons, and come before the LORD to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and give them to the priest. <sup>15</sup>And the priest shall offer them, the one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering. And the priest shall make an atonement for him before the LORD for his issue.

<sup>16</sup>And if any man's semen passes from him, then he shall wash all his flesh in water and be unclean until the evening. <sup>17</sup>And every garment and every skin on which the semen shall be, it shall be washed with water, and be unclean until the evening. <sup>18</sup>And the woman with whom a man shall lie with outflow of semen shall both bathe in water and be unclean until the evening. <sup>19</sup>And if a woman has an issue, and her issue in her flesh is blood, she shall be in her separation seven days. And whoever touches her shall be unclean until the evening. <sup>20</sup>And everything that she lies on in her separation shall be unclean. Everything also that she sits on shall be unclean. <sup>21</sup>And whoever touches her bed shall wash his clothes, and bathe in water, and be unclean until the evening. <sup>22</sup>And whoever touches anything that she sat on, shall wash his clothes and bathe in water, and be unclean until the evening. <sup>23</sup>And if it is on the bed or on anything on which she sits, when he touches it, he shall be unclean until the evening. <sup>24</sup>And if any man lies with her at all, and her blood is on him, he shall be unclean seven days. And all the bed on which he lies shall be unclean.

<sup>25</sup>And if a woman has an issue of her blood many days out of the time of her impurity, or if it runs beyond the time of her impurity, all the days of the issue of her uncleanness shall be as the days of her impurity. She is unclean. <sup>26</sup>Every bed on which she lies all the days of her issue shall be to her as the bed of her impurity.

And whatever she sits on shall be unclean, as the uncleanness of her impurity. <sup>27</sup>And whoever touches those things shall be unclean, and shall wash his clothes and bathe in water, and be unclean until the evening. <sup>28</sup>But if she is cleansed of her issue, then she shall number to herself seven days, and after that she shall be clean. <sup>29</sup>And on the eighth day she shall take two turtle-doves to her, or two young pigeons, and bring them to the priest, to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. <sup>30</sup>And the priest shall offer the one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering. And the priest shall make atonement for her before the LORD for the issue of her uncleanness.

<sup>31</sup>So you shall separate the sons of Israel from their uncleanness, so that they do not die in their uncleanness when they defile My tabernacle that is among them. <sup>32</sup>This is the law of him that has an issue, and of him whose semen goes from him and is defiled with it, <sup>33</sup>and of her that is menstruating, and of him that has an issue, of the man, and of the woman, and of him that lies with her that is unclean.

CHAPTER 16

<sup>1</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses after the death of the two sons of Aaron, when they offered before the LORD and died; <sup>2</sup>and the LORD said to Moses, Speak to Aaron your brother, that he does not come at all times into the holy place within the veil before the mercy-seat, which is on the Ark, so that he will not die. For I will appear in the cloud on the mercy-seat. <sup>3</sup>Aaron shall come into the holy place this way: with a young bull, a son of the herd, for a sin offering, and a ram for a burnt offering. <sup>4</sup>He shall put on the holy linen coat, and he shall have the linen breeches on his flesh, and shall be girded with a linen girdle, and with the linen miter he shall be dressed. These are holy garments. And he shall wash his flesh in water and put them on. <sup>5</sup>And he shall take from the congregation of the sons of Israel two kids of the goats for a sin offering, and one ram for a burnt offering. <sup>6</sup>And Aaron shall offer his bull of the sin offering which is for himself, and make an atonement for himself and for his house. <sup>7</sup>And he shall take the two goats and present them before the LORD at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. <sup>8</sup>And Aaron shall cast lots on the two goats; one lot for the LORD and the other lot for the scapegoat. <sup>9</sup>And Aaron shall bring the goat on which the LORD's lot fell, and offer it for a sin offering. <sup>10</sup>But the goat on which the lot fell to be the scapegoat shall be presented alive before the LORD, to make an atonement with him, to let him go for a scapegoat into the wilderness. <sup>11</sup>And Aaron shall bring the bull of the sin offering which is for himself, and shall atone for himself and for his house, and shall kill the bull of the sin offering which is for himself. <sup>12</sup>And he shall take a censer full of coals of fire from off the altar before Jehovah, and his hands full of fragrant perfumes beaten small, and bring it within the veil. <sup>13</sup>And he shall put the incense on the fire before the LORD. And the cloud of the incense shall cover the mercy-seat that is on the Testimony. And he shall not die. <sup>14</sup>And he shall take of the blood of the bull and shall sprinkle with his finger on the front of the mercy-seat eastward. And he shall sprinkle at the front of the mercy-seat seven times.

<sup>15</sup>Then he shall kill the goat of the sin offering that is for the people, and bring its blood inside the veil. And he shall do with that blood as he did with the blood of the bull, and sprinkle it on the mercy-seat and before the mercy-seat. <sup>16</sup>And he shall make an atonement for the holy place, because of the uncleanness of the sons of Israel, and because of their transgressions in all their sins. And so he shall do for the tabernacle of the congregation which remains with them in the midst of their uncleanness. <sup>17</sup>And there shall be no man in the tabernacle of the congregation when he goes in to make an atonement in the holy place, until he comes out and has made an atonement for himself, and for his household, and for all the congregation of Israel. <sup>18</sup>And he shall go out to the altar that is before the LORD and make an atonement for it. And he shall take of the blood of the bull, and of the blood of the goat, and put it on the horns of the altar round about. <sup>19</sup>And he shall sprinkle of the blood on it with his finger seven times and cleanse it, and hallow it from the uncleanness of the sons of Israel.

<sup>20</sup>And when he has made an end of reconciling the holy place and the tabernacle of the congregation and the altar, he shall bring the live goat. <sup>21</sup>And Aaron shall lay both his hands on the head of the live goat, and confess over him all the sins of the sons of Israel, and all their transgressions in all their sins, putting them on the head of the goat, and shall send away by the hand of a chosen man into the wilderness. <sup>22</sup>And the goat shall bear on him all their sins to a land in which no one lives. And he shall let the goat go in the wilderness.

<sup>23</sup>And Aaron shall come into the tabernacle of the congregation, and shall strip off the linen garments which he put on when he went into the holy place, and shall leave them there. <sup>24</sup>And he shall wash his flesh with water in the holy place, and put on his garments, and come forth and offer his burnt offering, and the burnt offering of the people, and make an atonement for himself and for the people. <sup>25</sup>And the fat of the sin offering shall he burn on the altar. <sup>26</sup>And he that let go the goat for the scapegoat shall wash his clothes and bathe his flesh in water, and afterward come into the camp. <sup>27</sup>And the bull for the sin offering, and the goat for the sin offering, whose blood was brought in to make atonement in the holy place, shall they carry forth outside the camp. And they shall burn their skins in the fire, and their flesh and their dung. <sup>28</sup>And he who burns them shall wash his clothes and bathe his flesh in water, and afterward he shall come into the camp.

<sup>29</sup>And it shall be a statute forever to you: in the seventh month, on the tenth day of the month, you shall afflict your souls and do no work at all, the homeborn and the alien who is staying among you. <sup>30</sup>For on that day an atonement shall be made for you, to cleanse you, so that you may be clean from all your sins before the LORD. <sup>31</sup>It shall be a sabbath of rest to you, and you shall afflict your souls, by a statute forever. <sup>32</sup>And the priest whom He shall anoint, and whom he shall consecrate to minister in the priest's office in his father's stead, shall make the atonement and shall put on the linen clothes, the holy garments. <sup>33</sup>And he shall make an atonement for the holy sanctuary, and he shall make an atonement for the tabernacle of the congregation, and for the altar; and he shall make an atonement for the priests and for all the people of the congregation. <sup>34</sup>And this shall be an everlasting statute to you, to make an atonement for the sons of Israel for their sins once a year. And he did as the LORD commanded Moses.

CHAPTER 17

<sup>1</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, <sup>2</sup>Speak to Aaron and to his sons, and to all the sons of Israel, and say to them, This is the thing which the LORD has commanded, saying, <sup>3</sup>Any man of the house of Israel who kills an ox or lamb or goat in the camp, or kills it out of the camp, <sup>4</sup>and does not bring it to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, to offer as offering to the LORD before the tabernacle of the LORD, blood shall be charged to that man; he has shed blood. And that man shall be cut off from among his people, <sup>5</sup>so that the sons of Israel may bring their sacrifices which they offer in the open field, even that they may bring them to the LORD, to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, to the priest, and offer them for peace offerings to the LORD. <sup>6</sup>And the priest shall sprinkle the blood on the altar of the LORD at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and burn the fat for a sweet savor to the LORD. <sup>7</sup>And they shall no more offer their sacrifices to devils, after whom they have gone whoring. This shall be a statute forever to them throughout their generations. <sup>8</sup>And you shall say to them, Any man of the house of Israel, or of the strangers who are staying among you, offers a burnt offering or sacrifice, <sup>9</sup>and does not bring it to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation to offer it to the LORD, even that man shall be cut off from among his people. <sup>10</sup>And any man of the house of Israel, or of the strangers that are staying among you, eats any kind of blood, I will even set My face against that soul who eats blood, and will cut him off from among his people. <sup>11</sup>For the life of the flesh is in the blood. And I have given it to you on the altar to make an atonement for your souls. For it is the blood that makes an atonement for the soul. <sup>12</sup>Therefore I said to the sons of Israel, No soul of you shall eat blood, neither shall any stranger that is staying among you eat blood. <sup>13</sup>And any man of the sons of Israel, or of the strangers that are staying among you, hunts, who catches any beast or fowl that may be eaten, he shall even pour out its blood and cover it with dust. <sup>14</sup>For it is the life of all flesh. Its blood is for the life of it. Therefore I said to the sons of Israel, You shall eat the blood of no kind of flesh. For the life of all flesh is its blood. Whoever eats it shall be cut off.

<sup>15</sup>And any soul that eats a dead body, or a torn thing, whether it is one of your own country or a stranger, he shall both wash his clothes and bathe in water, and be unclean until the evening. Then he shall be clean. <sup>16</sup>But if he does not wash, nor bathe his flesh, then he shall bear his iniquity.

CHAPTER 18

<sup>1</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>2</sup>Speak to the sons of Israel and say to them, I am the LORD your God. <sup>3</sup>You shall not do like the doings of the land of Egypt in which you lived. And you shall not do like the doings of the land of Canaan, where I bring you. Neither shall you walk in their ordinances. <sup>4</sup>You shall do My judgments and keep My ordinances, to walk in them. I am the LORD your God. <sup>5</sup>And you shall keep My statutes and My judgments, which if a man does, he shall live in them. I am the LORD.

<sup>6</sup>None of you shall approach to any who are near of kin to him, to uncover their nakedness. I am the LORD. <sup>7</sup>You shall not uncover the nakedness of your father or the nakedness of your mother. She is your mother; you shall not uncover her nakedness. <sup>8</sup>You shall not uncover the nakedness of your father's wife. It is your father's nakedness. <sup>9</sup>You shall not uncover the nakedness of your sister, the daughter of your father or the daughter of your mother, born at home or born away. Their nakedness you shall not uncover. <sup>10</sup>The nakedness of your son's daughter, or of your daughter's daughter, you shall not uncover their nakedness. For theirs is your own nakedness. <sup>11</sup>You shall not uncover the nakedness of the daughter of your father's wife, begotten of your father. She is your sister. You shall not uncover her nakedness. <sup>12</sup>You shall not uncover the nakedness of your father's sister. She is your father's near kinswoman. <sup>13</sup>You shall not uncover the nakedness of your mother's sister. For she is your mother's near kinswoman. <sup>14</sup>You shall not uncover the nakedness of your father's brother. You shall not approach his wife. She is your aunt. <sup>15</sup>You shall not uncover the nakedness of your daughter-in-law. She is your son's wife. You shall not uncover her nakedness. <sup>16</sup>You shall not uncover the nakedness of your brother's wife. It is your brother's nakedness. <sup>17</sup>You shall not uncover the nakedness of a woman and her daughter, neither shall you take her son's daughter, or her daughter's daughter, to uncover her nakedness. For they are her near kinswomen; it is wickedness. <sup>18</sup>And you shall not take a wife to her sister, to vex her, to uncover her nakedness, beside the other in her life time.

<sup>19</sup>Also you shall not approach to a woman to uncover her nakedness in the impurity of her uncleanness. <sup>20</sup>And you shall not lie carnally with your neighbor's wife, to defile yourself with her. <sup>21</sup>And you shall not let any of your seed pass through the fire to Molech, neither shall you profane the name of your God. I am the LORD. <sup>22</sup>You shall not lie with mankind as with womankind. It is abomination to God. <sup>23</sup>And you shall not lie with any animal to defile yourself with it. And a woman shall not stand before an animal to lie down to it. It is a shameful mixing.

<sup>24</sup>Do not defile yourselves in any of these things. For in all these the nations are defiled, which I cast out before you. <sup>25</sup>And the land is defiled. Therefore I visit its wickedness on it, and the land itself vomits out those who live in it. <sup>26</sup>You shall therefore keep My statutes and My judgments, and shall not commit any of these abominations, neither shall any of your nation, nor any stranger that lives among you. <sup>27</sup>For the men of the land who were before you have done all these abominations, and the land is defiled. <sup>28</sup>You shall not do these so that the land may not spue you out also when you defile it, as it spued out the nations that were before you. <sup>29</sup>For whoever shall commit any of these abominations, even the souls who commit them shall be cut off from among their people. <sup>30</sup>And you shall keep My ordinance, that you do not commit any of these abominable customs which were committed before you, and that you do not defile yourselves in them. I am the LORD your God.

CHAPTER 19

<sup>1</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>2</sup>Speak to all the congregation of the sons of Israel and say to them, You shall be holy, for I the LORD your God am holy. <sup>3</sup>You shall each man fear his mother and his father, and keep My sabbaths. I am the LORD your God. <sup>4</sup>Do not turn to idols, nor make molten gods to yourselves. I am the LORD your God. <sup>5</sup>And if you offer a sacrifice of peace offerings to the LORD, you shall offer it at your own will. <sup>6</sup>It shall be eaten the same day you offer it, and on the next day. And if anything remains until the third day, it shall be burned in the fire. <sup>7</sup>And if it is eaten at all on the third day, it is abominable. It shall not be accepted. <sup>8</sup>And anyone that eats it shall bear his iniquity, because he has profaned the holy thing of the LORD. And that soul shall be cut off from among his people.

<sup>9</sup>And when you reap the harvest of your land, you shall not wholly reap the corners of your field. And you shall not gather the gleanings of your harvest. <sup>10</sup>And you shall not glean your vineyard. And you shall not gather every grape of your vineyard. You shall leave them for the poor and the stranger. I am the LORD your God.

<sup>11</sup>You shall not steal, nor lie, nor be deceitful to one another. <sup>12</sup>And you shall not swear by My name falsely; nor shall you profane the name of your God. I am the LORD. <sup>13</sup>You shall not defraud your neighbor nor rob him. The wages of him who is hired shall not stay with you all night until the morning. <sup>14</sup>You shall not curse the deaf, nor put a stumbling-block before the blind, but shall fear your God. I am the LORD. <sup>15</sup>You shall do no unrighteousness in judgment. You shall not respect the person of the poor, nor honor the person of the mighty; but you shall judge your neighbor in righteousness. <sup>16</sup>You shall not go up and down as a talebearer among your people. And you shall not stand against the blood of your neighbor. I am the LORD. <sup>17</sup>You shall not hate your brother in your heart. You shall always rebuke your neighbor, and not allow sin on him. <sup>18</sup>You shall not avenge, nor bear any grudge against the sons of your people; but you shall love your neighbor as yourself. I am the LORD.

<sup>19</sup>You shall keep My statutes. You shall not let your cattle breed with a different kind. You shall not sow your field with mixed seed. And you shall not allow clothing mingled of linen and wool to come on you.

<sup>20</sup>And whoever lies carnally with a woman who is a bondwoman, betrothed to a husband and not at all redeemed, nor freedom given her, there shall be an inquest. They shall not be put to death, because she was not free. <sup>21</sup>And he shall bring his trespass offering to the LORD, to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, even a ram for a trespass offering. <sup>22</sup>And the priest shall make an atonement for him with the ram of the trespass offering before the LORD for his sin which he has done. And the sin which he has done shall be forgiven him. <sup>23</sup>And when you shall come into the land, and shall have planted all kinds of trees for food, then you shall count the fruit of them as uncircumcised. It shall be uncircumcised three years to you. It shall not be eaten. <sup>24</sup>But in the fourth year all the fruit of them shall be holy to praise the LORD. <sup>25</sup>And in the fifth year you shall eat of the fruit of it, so that it may yield to you its increase. I am the LORD your God.

<sup>26</sup>You shall not eat anything with the blood. You shall not divine, nor conjure spirits. <sup>27</sup>You shall not round the side of your head, nor mar the edge of your beard. <sup>28</sup>You shall not make any cuttings in your flesh for the dead, nor print any marks on you. I am the LORD. <sup>29</sup>You shall not prostitute your daughter, to cause her to be a whore, lest the land fall to whoredom and the land become full of wickedness. <sup>30</sup>You shall keep My sabbaths and respect My sanctuary. I am the LORD.

<sup>31</sup>You shall not regard those that have familiar spirits, nor seek to wizards to be defiled by them. I am the LORD your God. <sup>32</sup>You shall rise up before the hoary head and honor the face of the old man, and fear your God. I am the LORD. <sup>33</sup>And if a stranger lives with you in your land, you shall not oppress him. <sup>34</sup>But the stranger that dwells with you shall be to you as one born among you, and you shall love him as yourself. For you were strangers in the land of Egypt. I am the LORD your God. <sup>35</sup>You shall do no unrighteousness in judgment, in measures and weights, or in quantity. <sup>36</sup>You shall have just balances, just weights, a just ephah, and a just hin. I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt. <sup>37</sup>And you shall observe all My statutes and all My judgments, and do them. I am the LORD.

CHAPTER 20

<sup>1</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>2</sup>Again you shall say to the sons of Israel, Any man of the sons of Israel or of the strangers who live in Israel, that gives any of his seed to Molech, he shall surely be put to death. The people of the land shall stone him with stones. <sup>3</sup>And I will set My face against that man, and will cut him off from among his people, because he has given of his seed to Molech, to defile My sanctuary, and to profane My holy name. <sup>4</sup>And if the people of the land in any way hide their eyes from the man when he gives of his seed to Molech, and do not kill him, <sup>5</sup>then I will set My face against that man and against his family, and will cut him off, and all that go lusting after him to commit adultery with Molech, from among their people.

<sup>6</sup>And the soul that turns to those who have familiar spirits, and to wizards, to go lusting after them, I will even set My face against that soul, and will cut him off from among his people. <sup>7</sup>And you shall sanctify yourselves, and be holy. For I am the LORD your God. <sup>8</sup>And you shall keep My statutes and do them. I the LORD sanctify you.<sup>9</sup> And any man who curses his father or his mother shall surely be put to death. He has cursed his father or his mother; his blood shall be on him.

<sup>10</sup>And a man who commits adultery with a man's wife, who commits adultery with his neighbor's wife, the adulterer and the adulteress shall surely be put to death. <sup>11</sup>And the man who lies with his father's wife has uncovered his father's nakedness. Both of them shall surely be put to death. Their blood shall be on them. <sup>12</sup>And if a man lies with his daughter-in-law, both of them shall surely be put to death. They have made a shameful mixture; their blood shall be on them. <sup>13</sup>If a man also lies with mankind, as he lies with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination. They shall surely be put to death. Their blood shall be on them. <sup>14</sup>And if a man takes a wife and her mother, it is wickedness. They shall be burned with fire, both he and they, so that there may be no wickedness among you. <sup>15</sup>And if a man lies with an animal, he shall surely be put to death. And you shall kill the animal. <sup>16</sup>And if a woman goes up to any animal and lies down with it, you shall kill the woman and the animal. They shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be on them. <sup>17</sup>And if a man shall take his sister, his father's daughter, or his mother's daughter, and see her nakedness, and she see his nakedness, it is a wicked thing. And they shall be cut off in the sight of their people. He has uncovered his sister's nakedness; he shall bear his iniquity. <sup>18</sup>And if a man shall lie with a woman having her sickness, and shall uncover her nakedness, he has discovered her fountain, and she has uncovered the fountain of her blood. And both of them shall be cut off from among their people. <sup>19</sup>And you shall not uncover the nakedness of your mother's sister, nor of your father's sister. For he uncovers his near kin. They shall bear their iniquity. <sup>20</sup>And if a man shall lie with his uncle's wife, he has uncovered his uncle's nakedness. They shall bear their sin. They shall die childless. <sup>21</sup>And if a man shall take his brother's wife, it is an unclean thing. He has uncovered his brother's nakedness; they shall be childless.

<sup>22</sup>You shall therefore keep all My statutes and all My judgments, and do them, so that the land where I bring you to live shall not spit you out. <sup>23</sup>And you shall not walk in the ways of the nation which I cast out before you. For they committed all these things, and therefore I hated them. <sup>24</sup>But I have said to you, You shall inherit their land, and I will give it to you to possess it, a land that flows with milk and honey. I am the LORD your God, who has separated you from the nations. <sup>25</sup>And you shall make a difference between clean animals and unclean, and between unclean fowls and clean. And you shall not make your souls hateful by beast, or by fowl, or by any kind of living thing that creeps on the ground, which I have separated from you as unclean. <sup>26</sup>And you shall be holy to Me. For I, the LORD, am holy, and have severed you from the nations, so that you should be Mine. <sup>27</sup>A man also or woman that has a familiar spirit, or that is a wizard, shall surely be put to death. They shall stone them with stones. Their blood is on them.

CHAPTER 21

<sup>1</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, Speak to the priests, the sons of Aaron, and say to them, There shall none be defiled for the dead among his people. <sup>2</sup>But for his kin that is near him, for his mother and for his father and for his son and for his daughter and for his brother <sup>3</sup>and for his sister, a virgin, who is near to him, who has had no husband, for her he may be defiled. <sup>4</sup>He shall not defile himself, being a chief man among his people, to defile himself. <sup>5</sup>They shall not make baldness on their head, nor shall they shave the edge of their beard, nor make any cuttings in their flesh. <sup>6</sup>They shall be holy to their God and not profane the name of their God. For they offer the offerings of the LORD made by fire, the bread of their God. Therefore they shall be holy. <sup>7</sup>They shall not take a wife who is a whore, or defiled. Neither shall they take a woman put away from her husband. For he is holy to his God. <sup>8</sup>And you shall sanctify him, for he offers the bread of your God. He shall be holy to you. For I am holy, the LORD who sanctifies you. <sup>9</sup>And the daughter of any priest, if she profanes herself by playing the whore, she profanes her father. She shall be burned with fire. <sup>10</sup>And the high priest among his brothers, on whose head the anointing oil was poured and who is consecrated to put on the garments, shall not uncover his head nor tear his clothes. <sup>11</sup>Neither shall he come near to any dead person, nor defile himself for his father nor for his mother. <sup>12</sup>Neither shall he go out of the sanctuary, nor profane the sanctuary of his God; for the crown of the anointing oil of his God is on him. I am the LORD. <sup>13</sup>And he shall take a wife in her virginity. <sup>14</sup>He shall not take a widow or a divorced woman, or profane, or a harlot, but he shall take a virgin of his own people to wife. <sup>15</sup>And he shall not defile his seed among his people. For I the LORD do sanctify him.

<sup>16</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>17</sup>Speak to Aaron, No man of your seed in their generations shall draw near to offer the bread of his God if there is any blemish in him. <sup>18</sup>For no man in whom there is a blemish shall draw near, a blind man, or a lame man, or disfigured, or deformed, <sup>19</sup>or a man that is broken-footed, or broken-handed, <sup>20</sup>or crooked-backed, or a crushed one, or who has a blemish in his eye, or a scurvy or scabbed person, or one with crushed testicles. <sup>21</sup>No man of the seed of Aaron, the priest, in whom there is a blemish shall come near to offer the offerings of the LORD made by fire. He has a blemish; he shall not come near to offer the bread of his God. <sup>22</sup>He shall eat the bread of his God, both of the most holy and of the holy. <sup>23</sup>Only he shall not go in to the veil, nor come near to the altar, because he has a blemish; so that he does not profane My sanctuaries. For I the LORD do sanctify them. <sup>24</sup>And Moses told Aaron and his sons, and all the sons of Israel.

CHAPTER 22

<sup>1</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>2</sup>Speak to Aaron and to his sons, that they set themselves apart from the holy things of the sons of Israel, and that they do not profane My holy name in what they devote to Me. I am the LORD. <sup>3</sup>Say to them, Any man of all your seed among your generations who draws near to the holy things, which the sons of Israel set apart to the Lord — if he has his uncleanness on him, that soul shall be cut off from My presence. I am the LORD. <sup>4</sup>Any man of the seed of Aaron who is a leper, or has a running issue, he shall not eat of the holy things until he is clean. And he who touches any uncleanness of a person, or a man whose semen has gone out from him, <sup>5</sup>or a man who touches any swarming thing by which he may be made unclean, or touches a man who is unclean to him, by any uncleanness he has, <sup>6</sup>the soul which has touched it shall be unclean until evening. And he shall not eat of the holy things unless he washes his flesh with water. <sup>7</sup>And when the sun is down, he shall be clean, and shall afterward eat of the holy things, because it is his food. <sup>8</sup>He shall not eat that which dies of itself, or is torn, to defile himself with them. I am the LORD. <sup>9</sup>And they shall keep My ordinance, lest they bear sin for it, that they may not die for it when they defile it. I the LORD sanctify them.

<sup>10</sup>There shall no stranger eat of the holy things. A stranger staying with the priest, or a hired servant, shall not eat of the holy thing. <sup>11</sup>But if the priest buys a soul with his money, he shall eat of it. And he that is born in his house shall eat of his food. <sup>12</sup>And a priest's daughter, when she belongs to a man, a stranger, she may not eat of an offering of the holy things. <sup>13</sup>But if the priest's daughter is a widow, or divorced, and has no child, and has returned to her father's house, as in her youth, she shall eat of her father's food. But no stranger shall eat of it. <sup>14</sup>And if a man eats a holy thing without knowing it, then he shall put the fifth part to it, and shall give to the priest with the holy thing. <sup>15</sup>And they shall not profane the holy things of the sons of Israel which they offer to the LORD, <sup>16</sup>and so load on them the iniquity of the guilt offering in their eating of their holy things. For I am the LORD who sanctifies them.

<sup>17</sup>And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>18</sup>Speak to Aaron and to his sons and to all the sons of Israel, and say to them: Any man of the house of Israel, or of the strangers in Israel, who offers his sacrifices for his vows, for all his free-will offerings, which they will offer to the LORD for a burnt offering, <sup>19</sup>you shall offer at your own will a male without blemish, of the cattle, of the sheep, or of the goats. <sup>20</sup>You shall not offer that which has a blemish. For it shall not be acceptable for you. <sup>21</sup>And when a man offers a sacrifice of peace offerings to the LORD to carry out his vow, or a free-will offering in cattle or sheep, it shall be perfect to be accepted. There shall be no blemish in them. <sup>22</sup>Blind, or broken, or maimed, or having a flow, or having scurvy, or scabbed, you shall not offer these to the LORD, nor make an offering by fire of them on the altar to the LORD. <sup>23</sup>As to a bull or a sheep that is deformed or dwarfed, you may offer that for a free-will offering. But for a vow it shall not be accepted. <sup>24</sup>You shall not offer to the LORD that which is bruised or crushed, or broken or cut. You shall not make any offering of it in your land. <sup>25</sup>And you shall not offer the bread of your God out of the hand of a son of a stranger, or any of these, because their uncleanness is in them, and blemishes are in them. They shall not be accepted for you.

<sup>26</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>27</sup>When a bull or a lamb or a goat is brought forth, then it shall be seven days under the dam. And from the eighth day and from then on, it shall be accepted for a fire offering to the LORD. <sup>28</sup>But a bull or sheep, it and its young one, you shall not kill it in one day. <sup>29</sup>And when you will offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving to the LORD, offer it at your own will. <sup>30</sup>On the same day it shall be eaten up. You shall leave none of it until the next day. I am the LORD.

<sup>31</sup>And you shall keep My commandments, and do them. I am the LORD. <sup>32</sup>And you shall not profane My holy name. But I will be holy among the sons of Israel. I am the LORD who makes you holy, <sup>33</sup>who brought you out of the land of Egypt, to be your God. I am the LORD.

CHAPTER 23

<sup>1</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>2</sup>Speak to the sons of Israel and say to them, The feasts of the LORD, which you shall proclaim to be holy convocations, even these are My feasts. <sup>3</sup>Six days shall work be done, but the seventh day is the sabbath of rest, a holy convocation. You shall not do any work. It is a sabbath to the LORD in all your dwellings.

<sup>4</sup>These are the feasts of the LORD, holy convocations which you shall proclaim in their seasons. <sup>5</sup>In the fourteenth day of the first month, between the evenings, is the LORD's Passover, <sup>6</sup>and on the fifteenth day of the same month is the Feast of Unleavened Bread to the LORD. You must eat unleavened bread seven days. <sup>7</sup>On the first day you shall have a holy convocation. You shall do no work of labor in these days, <sup>8</sup>but you shall offer a fire offering to the LORD seven days. In the seventh day is a holy convocation. You shall do no work of labor.

<sup>9</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>10</sup>Speak to the sons of Israel and say to them, When you have come into the land which I give to you, and shall reap the harvest of it, then you shall bring a sheaf of the first-fruits of your harvest to the priest. <sup>11</sup>And he shall wave the sheaf before the LORD to be received for you. On the next day after the sabbath the priest shall wave it. <sup>12</sup>And you shall offer that day when you wave the sheaf, a male lamb without blemish of the first year for a burnt offering to the LORD. <sup>13</sup>And its food offering shall be two-tenth parts of fine flour mixed with oil, a fire offering to the LORD for a sweet savor. And the drink offering of it shall be of wine, the fourth part of a hin. <sup>14</sup>And you shall eat neither bread, nor parched grain, nor green ears, until the same day, until you have brought an offering to your God. It shall be a statute forever throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

<sup>15</sup>And you shall count to you from the next day after the sabbath, from the day that you brought the sheaf of the wave offering; seven sabbaths shall be complete. <sup>16</sup>To the next day after the seventh sabbath you shall number fifty days. And you shall offer a new food offering to the LORD. <sup>17</sup>You shall bring out of your homes two wave loaves of two-tenth parts. They shall be of fine flour. They shall be baked with leaven. They are the first-fruits to the LORD. <sup>18</sup>And you shall offer with the bread seven lambs without blemish of the first year, and one young bull, and two rams. They shall be for a burnt offering to the LORD, with their food offering, and their drink offerings, a fire offering of sweet savor to the LORD. <sup>19</sup>Then you shall sacrifice one kid of the goats for a sin offering, and two lambs of the first year for a sacrifice of peace offerings. <sup>20</sup>And the priest shall wave them with the bread of the first-fruits, a wave offering before the LORD, with the two lambs. They shall be holy to the LORD for the priest. <sup>21</sup>And you shall proclaim on the same day that it may be a holy convocation to you. You shall do no work of labor. It shall be a statute forever in all your dwellings throughout your generations.

<sup>22</sup>And when you reap the harvest of your land, you shall not completely clean the land, neither shall you gather any gleanings of your harvest. You shall leave them to the poor and to the stranger. I am the LORD your God.

<sup>23</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>24</sup>Speak to the sons of Israel saying: In the seventh month, in the first day of the month, you shall have a sabbath, a memorial of blowing of trumpets, a holy convocation. <sup>25</sup>You shall do no work of labor but you shall offer a fire offering to the LORD.

<sup>26</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>27</sup>Also, on the tenth of this seventh month, this is a day of atonement. It shall be a holy convocation to you. And you shall afflict your souls and offer a fire offering to the LORD. <sup>28</sup>And you shall do no work in that same day, for it is a day of atonement, in order to make an atonement for you before the LORD your God. <sup>29</sup>For any soul who is not humbled in that same day, he shall be cut off from among his people. <sup>30</sup>And any soul who does any work in that same day, the same soul will I destroy from among his people. <sup>31</sup>You shall do no kind of work. It shall be a statute forever throughout your generations in all your dwellings. <sup>32</sup>It shall be to you a sabbath of rest, and you shall humble your souls. In the ninth of the month, from evening to evening, you shall keep your sabbath.

<sup>33</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, <sup>34</sup>Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, The fifteenth day of this seventh month shall be the Feast of Tabernacles for seven days to the LORD. <sup>35</sup>On the first day shall be a holy convocation. You shall do no work of labor. <sup>36</sup>Seven days you shall offer an offering made by fire to the LORD. On the eighth day shall be a holy convocation to you. And you shall offer a fire offering to the LORD. It is a solemn assembly. And you shall do no work of labor.

<sup>37</sup>These are the feasts of the LORD which you shall proclaim to be holy convocations, to offer a fire offering to the LORD, a burnt offering and a food offering, a sacrifice, and drink offerings, everything on its day; <sup>38</sup>besides the sabbath of the LORD, and besides your gifts, and besides all your vows, and besides all your free-will offerings which you give to the LORD.

<sup>39</sup>Also in the fifteenth day of the seventh month, when you have gathered in the fruit of the land, you shall keep a feast to the LORD seven days. On the first day shall be a sabbath, and on the eighth day shall be a sabbath. <sup>40</sup>And you shall take the fruit of majestic trees for yourselves on the first day, branches of palm trees, and the boughs of thick trees, and willows of the brook. And you shall rejoice before the LORD your God seven days. <sup>41</sup>And you shall keep it a feast to the LORD seven days in the year. It shall be a statute forever in your generations. You shall keep it in the seventh month. <sup>42</sup>You shall live in booths seven days. All that are born Israelites shall live in booths, <sup>43</sup>so that your generations may know that I made the sons of Israel live in booths when I brought them out of the land of Egypt. I am the LORD your God. <sup>44</sup>And Moses declared the feasts of the LORD to the sons of Israel.

CHAPTER 24

<sup>1</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>2</sup>Command the sons of Israel that they bring to you pure olive oil, beaten, for the light, to cause the lamps to burn continually. <sup>3</sup>Aaron shall order it from evening until the morning before the LORD forever outside the veil of the testimony, in the tabernacle of the congregation. It shall be a statute forever in your generations. <sup>4</sup>He shall order the lamps on the pure lampstand before the LORD forever. <sup>5</sup>And you shall take fine flour and bake twelve cakes of it. Two-tenth parts shall be in one cake. <sup>6</sup>And you shall set them in two rows, six on a row, on the pure table before the LORD. <sup>7</sup>And you shall put pure frankincense on each row, so that it may be on the bread for a memorial, a fire offering to the LORD. <sup>8</sup>Every sabbath he shall set it in order before the LORD forever, from the sons of Israel by an everlasting covenant. <sup>9</sup>And it shall be Aaron's and his sons'. And they shall eat it in the holy place, for it is most holy to him of the fire offerings of the LORD, by a never-ending statute.

<sup>10</sup>And the son of a woman of Israel, whose father was an Egyptian, went out among the sons of Israel. And this son of the woman of Israel and a man of Israel struggled together in the camp. <sup>11</sup>And the son of the woman of Israel blasphemed the name of the LORD, and cursed. And they brought him to Moses. (And his mother's name was Shelomith, the daughter of Dibri, of the tribe of Dan.) <sup>12</sup>And they put him under guard, so that the mind of the LORD might be declared to them. <sup>13</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, <sup>14</sup>Bring forth him who has cursed outside the camp. And let all that heard lay their hands on his head. Let all the congregation stone him. <sup>15</sup>And you shall speak to the sons of Israel saying, Whoever curses his God shall bear his sin. <sup>16</sup>And he that blasphemes the Name of the LORD shall surely be put to death. All the congregation shall surely stone him. And the stranger as well, even as he that is born in the land; when he blasphemes the Name, he shall be put to death.

<sup>17</sup>And he who kills any man shall surely be put to death. <sup>18</sup>And he who kills an animal shall make it good, animal for animal. <sup>19</sup>And if a man causes a blemish in his neighbor, as he has done, so shall it be done to him: <sup>20</sup>break for break, eye for eye, tooth for tooth. As he has caused a blemish in a man, so shall it be done to him. <sup>21</sup>And he who kills an animal shall restore it. And he who kills a man shall be put to death. <sup>22</sup>You shall have one kind of law, as well for the stranger as for one of your own country. For I am the LORD your God.

<sup>23</sup>And Moses spoke to the sons of Israel that they should bring him forth who had cursed outside the camp, and stone him with stones. And the sons of Israel did as the LORD commanded Moses.

CHAPTER 25

<sup>1</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses in Mount Sinai, saying, <sup>2</sup>Speak to the sons of Israel and say to them, When you come into the land which I give you, then shall the land keep a sabbath to the LORD. <sup>3</sup>You shall sow your field six years, and you shall prune your vineyard six years, and gather in the fruit of it. <sup>4</sup>But in the seventh year shall be a sabbath of rest to the land, a sabbath for the LORD. You shall neither sow your field, nor prune your vineyard. <sup>5</sup>You shall not reap that which grows of its own accord of your harvest, neither gather the grapes of your undressed vine. It is a year of rest to the land. <sup>6</sup>And the sabbath of the land shall be food for you, for you and for your servant, and for your slavegirl and for your hired servant, and for your stranger who stays with you, <sup>7</sup>and for your cattle, and for the beasts that are in your land, shall all the increase of it be for food.

<sup>8</sup>And you shall number seven sabbaths of years to you, seven times seven years. And the time of the seven sabbaths of years shall be forty-nine years to you. <sup>9</sup>Then you shall cause the trumpet of the jubilee to sound on the tenth of the seventh month; in the day of atonement shall you make the trumpet sound throughout all your land. <sup>10</sup>And you shall make the fiftieth year holy, and proclaim liberty throughout the land to all those who live in it. It shall be a jubilee to you, and you shall return each man to his possession, and you shall return each man to his family. <sup>11</sup>That fiftieth year shall be a jubilee to you. You shall not sow, neither reap that which grows of itself in it, nor gather in it of your undressed vine. <sup>12</sup>For it is the jubilee. It shall be holy to you. You shall eat the increase of it out of the field. <sup>13</sup>In the year of this jubilee you shall return each man to his possession. <sup>14</sup>And if you sell anything to your neighbor, or buy from your neighbor's hand, you shall not oppress one another. <sup>15</sup>According to the number of years after the jubilee you shall buy of your neighbor, according to the number of the fruits he shall sell to you. <sup>16</sup>According to the number of years you shall increase the price of it, and according to the fewness of years you shall diminish the price of it, for he is selling to you the number of crops. <sup>17</sup>And you shall not oppress one another. But you shall fear your God. For I am the LORD your God.

<sup>18</sup>And you shall do My statutes, and keep My judgments and do them. And you shall dwell in the land in safety. <sup>19</sup>And the land shall yield its fruits, and you shall eat your fill and dwell in it in safety. <sup>20</sup>And if you shall say, What shall we eat the seventh year? Behold, we shall not sow nor gather in our increase! <sup>21</sup>Then I will command My blessing on you in the sixth year, and it shall bring forth fruit for three years. <sup>22</sup>And you shall sow the eighth year, and eat of old fruit until the ninth year; until its fruits come in, you shall eat of the old fruit. <sup>23</sup>The land shall not be sold forever; for the land is Mine. For you are strangers and pilgrims with Me. <sup>24</sup>And in all the land of your possession you shall grant a redemption for the land.

<sup>25</sup>If your brother has become poor, and has sold away some of his possessions, and if any of his relatives come to redeem it, then he shall redeem that which his brother sold. <sup>26</sup>And if the man has nobody to redeem it, and he himself is able to redeem it, <sup>27</sup>then let him count the years of the sale of it, and restore the overplus to the man to whom he sold it, so that he may return to his possession. <sup>28</sup>But if he is not able to restore to him, then that which is sold shall remain in the hand of him that has bought it until the year of jubilee. And in the jubilee it shall go out, and he shall return to his possession. <sup>29</sup>And if a man sells a dwelling house in a walled city, then he may redeem it within a whole year after it is sold. He may redeem it within a full year. <sup>30</sup>And if it is not redeemed within the time of a full year, then the house that is in the walled city shall be made sure forever to him who bought it throughout his generations. It shall not go out in the jubilee. <sup>31</sup>But the houses of the villages which have no walls round about them shall be counted as the fields of the country. They may be redeemed, and they shall go out in the jubilee.<sup>32</sup> As to the cities of the Levites, the houses of the cities of their possession, the Levites shall have a never-ending redemption.<sup>33</sup> And if a man purchases a house from the Levites, then the house that was sold and the city of his possession shall go out in the year of jubilee. For the house of the cities of the Levites are their possession among the sons of Israel.<sup>34</sup> But the field of the suburbs of their cities may not be sold, for it is theirs forever.

<sup>35</sup> And if your brother has become poor, and his hand has failed with you, then you shall help him; yes, even if he is a stranger or a visitor, so that he may live with you.<sup>36</sup> You shall take no interest from him, or increase. But you shall fear your God, so that your brother may live with you.<sup>37</sup> You shall not give him your money on interest, nor lend him your food for increase.<sup>38</sup> I am the LORD your God who brought you forth out of the land of Egypt, to give you the land of Canaan and to be your God.

<sup>39</sup> And if your brother who lives beside you has become poor, and is sold to you, you shall not compel him to serve as a bond-servant.<sup>40</sup> As a hired servant, as a sojourner, he shall be with you, and shall serve you until the year of jubilee.<sup>41</sup> And he shall depart from you, he and his sons with him, and shall return to his own family. And he shall return to the possession of his fathers.<sup>42</sup> For they are My servants, whom I brought forth out of the land of Egypt. They shall not be sold as bondmen.<sup>43</sup> You shall not rule over him with rigor, but shall fear your God.<sup>44</sup> Both your bondmen, and your bondmaids whom you shall have, shall be of the nations that are round about you. You shall buy bondmen and bondmaids from them.<sup>45</sup> And also you may buy of the sons of the tenants that live among you; you shall buy from them and from their families that are with you, whom they fathered in your land. And they shall be yours.<sup>46</sup> And you shall take them as an inheritance for your sons after you, to hold for a possession; you may lay service on them forever. But you shall not rule over your brothers, the sons of Israel, over one another, with harshness.

<sup>47</sup> And if a visitor or stranger becomes rich among you, and your brother who dwells beside him becomes poor and sells himself to the stranger or visitor by you, or to the offshoot of the stranger's family,<sup>48</sup> after he is sold he may be redeemed again. One of his brothers may redeem him; <sup>49</sup> either his uncle or his uncle's son may redeem him, or any that is near of kin to him of his family may redeem him. Or if he is able, he may redeem himself.<sup>50</sup> And he shall count with him that bought him from the year that he was sold to him, until the year of jubilee. And the price of his sale shall be according to the number of years, according to the time of a hired servant it shall be with him.<sup>51</sup> If there are still many years, he shall give again the price of his redemption out of the money that he was bought for, according to the years.<sup>52</sup> And if there remain but few years to the year of jubilee, then he shall count with him, and according to his years he shall give him again the price of his redemption.<sup>53</sup> As a yearly hired servant he shall be with him. And the other shall not rule with harshness over him in your sight.<sup>54</sup> And if he is not redeemed in this way, then he shall go out in the year of jubilee, he and his sons with him.<sup>55</sup> For to Me the sons of Israel are servants. They are My servants whom I brought forth out of the land of Egypt. I am the LORD your God.

CHAPTER 26

<sup>1</sup> You shall make no idols to yourselves; and you shall not set up for yourselves graven images, or a memorial pillar. And you shall not set up any image of stone in your land in order to bow down to it. For I am the LORD your God.<sup>2</sup> You shall keep My sabbaths and revere My sanctuary. I am the LORD. <sup>3</sup>If you walk in My statutes and keep My commandments and do them, <sup>4</sup>then I will give you rain in due season, and the land shall yield her increase, and the trees of the field shall yield their fruit. <sup>5</sup>And your threshing shall reach to the vintage, and the vintage shall reach to the sowing time. And you shall eat your bread to the full, and dwell in your land safely. <sup>6</sup>And I will give peace in the land, and you shall lie down and none shall make you afraid. And I will cause evil beasts to cease out of the land, neither shall the sword go through your land. <sup>7</sup>And you shall chase your enemies, and they shall fall before you by the sword. <sup>8</sup>And five of you shall chase a hundred, and a hundred of you shall put ten thousand to flight. And your enemies shall fall by the sword in front of you. <sup>9</sup>For I will have respect to you, and make you fruitful, and multiply you, and establish My covenant with you. <sup>10</sup>And you shall eat of the old provision, and bring forth the old because of the new. <sup>11</sup>And I will set My tabernacle among you. And My soul shall not abhor you. <sup>12</sup>And I will walk among you and will be your God, and you shall be My people. <sup>13</sup>I am the LORD your God, who brought you forth out of the land of Egypt so that you should not be their bondmen. And I have broken the bonds of your yoke, and made you go upright.

<sup>14</sup>But if you will not listen to Me, and will not do all these commandments, <sup>15</sup>and if you shall despise My statutes, or if your soul hates My judgments, so that you will not do all My commandments, so that you break My covenant; <sup>16</sup>I will also do this to you: I will even appoint terror over you, consumption, and burning fever that shall consume the eyes and cause sorrow of heart. And you shall sow your seed in vain, for your enemies shall eat it. <sup>17</sup>And I will set My face against you, and you shall be slain before your enemies. They that hate you shall reign over you. And you shall flee when none pursues you. <sup>18</sup>And if you will not yet listen to Me for all this, then I will punish you seven times more for your sins. <sup>19</sup>And I will break the pride of your power, and I will make your heaven like iron and your earth like bronze. <sup>20</sup>And your strength shall be spent in vain. For your land shall not yield its increase, neither shall the trees of the field yield their fruits. <sup>21</sup>And if you walk contrary to Me, and will not listen to Me, I will bring seven times more plagues on you according to your sins. <sup>22</sup>I will also send wild beasts among you, who shall rob you of your sons and destroy your cattle, and make you few in number. And your ways shall be deserted. <sup>23</sup>And if you will not be reformed by Me by these things, but will still walk contrary to Me, <sup>24</sup>then I will walk contrary to you and will punish you seven times more for your sins. <sup>25</sup>And I will bring a sword on you that shall execute the vengeance of the covenant. And when you are gathered together inside your cities, I will send the plague among you. And you shall be delivered into the hand of the enemy. <sup>26</sup>When I have broken the staff of your bread, ten women shall bake your bread in one oven, and they shall deliver you your bread again by weight. And you shall eat and not be satisfied.

<sup>27</sup>And if you will not for all of this listen to Me, but will walk contrary to Me, <sup>28</sup>then I will walk contrary to you also in fury. And I, even I, will chastise you seven times for your sins. <sup>29</sup>And you shall eat the flesh of your sons, and the flesh of your daughters you shall eat. <sup>30</sup>And I will destroy your high places and cut down your images, and throw your carcasses on the carcasses of your idols, and My soul shall despise you. <sup>31</sup>And I will make your cities waste and cause your sanctuaries to be deserted. And I will not smell the savor of your sweet odors. <sup>32</sup>And I will turn the land into wasteland. And your enemies who dwell in it shall be astonished at it. <sup>33</sup>And I will scatter you among the heathen, and will draw out a sword after you. And your land shall be waste, and your cities waste.

<sup>34</sup>Then shall the land enjoy its sabbaths, as long as it lies waste, and you are in your enemies' land; then shall the land rest and enjoy its sabbaths. <sup>35</sup>As long as it lies waste it shall rest, because it did not rest in your sabbaths when you lived on it. <sup>36</sup>And on those of you that are left I will send a faintness into their hearts in the lands of their enemies. And the sound of a driven leaf shall chase them, and they shall flee as if fleeing from a sword. And they shall fall when none pursues. <sup>37</sup>And they shall fall on one another, as if it were before a sword, when none pursues. And you shall have no power to stand before your enemies. <sup>38</sup>And you shall perish among the heathen, and the land of your enemies shall eat you up. <sup>39</sup>And they that are left of you shall pine away in their wilful sin in your enemies' lands. And also they shall pine away with them in the perversities of their fathers. <sup>40</sup>If they shall confess their wilfulness and the wilfulness of their fathers, with their sin which they sinned against Me, and that also they have walked contrary to Me; <sup>41</sup>I also have walked contrary to them and have brought them into the land of their enemies. If then their uncircumcised hearts are humbled, and they then pay for their iniquity, <sup>42</sup>then I will remember My covenant with Jacob, and also My covenant with Isaac, and also My covenant with Abraham I will remember. And I will remember the land. <sup>43</sup>The land also shall be left of them, and shall enjoy its sabbaths, while it lies waste without them. And they shall accept the punishment of their iniquities; because, even because they despised My judgments, and because their soul hated My statutes. <sup>44</sup>And yet for all that, when they are in the land of their enemies, I will not cast them away, neither will I hate them, to destroy them utterly and to break My covenant with them. For I am the LORD their God. <sup>45</sup>But for their sakes, I will remember the covenant of their ancestors, whom I brought forth out of the land of Egypt in the sight of the heathen, so that I might be their God. I am the LORD.

<sup>46</sup>These are the statutes and judgments and laws, which the Lord made between Him and the sons of Israel in Mount Sinai by the hand of Moses.

CHAPTER 27

<sup>1</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>2</sup>Speak to the sons of Israel and say to them, When a man shall make a special vow, the persons shall be for the LORD by your evaluation. <sup>3</sup>And your judgment shall be of the male from twenty years old even to sixty years old, even your judgment shall be fifty shekels of silver, after the shekel of the sanctuary. <sup>4</sup>And if it is a female, then your judgment shall be thirty shekels. <sup>5</sup>And if from five years old to twenty years old, then your judgment shall be of the male twenty shekels, and for the female ten shekels. <sup>6</sup>And if from a month old to five years old, then your judgment shall be of the male five shekels of silver, and for the female your judgment shall be three shekels of silver. <sup>7</sup>And if from sixty years old and above, if it is a male then your judgment shall be fifteen shekels, and for the female ten shekels. <sup>8</sup>But if he is poorer than your judgment, then he shall present himself before the priest, and the priest shall value him. The priest shall value him according to the ability of him who vowed.

<sup>9</sup>And if it is an animal of which they bring an offering to the LORD, all that one gives of such to the LORD shall be holy. <sup>10</sup>He shall not alter it nor change it, a good for a bad, or a bad for a good. And if he shall at all change animal for animal, then it and the exchange of it shall be holy. <sup>11</sup>And if it is any unclean animal, of which they do not offer a sacrifice to the LORD, then he shall present the animal before the priest. <sup>12</sup>And the priest shall value it, whether it is good or bad. As you the priest value it, so shall it be. <sup>13</sup>But if he will at all redeem it, then he shall add a fifth part of it to what you judged. <sup>14</sup>And when a man shall sanctify his house to be holy to the LORD, then the priest shall judge it, whether it is good or bad. As the priest shall judge it, so shall it stand. <sup>15</sup>And if he who sanctified it desires to redeem his house, then he shall add the fifth part of the money of your judgment to it, and it shall be his. <sup>16</sup>And if a man shall sanctify to the LORD some part of a field that he owns, then your judgment shall be according to the seed of it; a homer of barley seed at fifty shekels of silver. <sup>17</sup>If he sanctifies his field from the year of jubilee, according to your judgment it shall stand. <sup>18</sup>But if he sanctifies his field after the jubilee, then the priest shall reckon to him the money according to the years that remain, even until the year of jubilee, and it shall be taken from your estimation. <sup>19</sup>And if he who sanctified the field desires in any way to redeem it, then he shall add the fifth part of the money of your estimation to it, and it shall be made sure to him. <sup>20</sup>And if he will not redeem the field, or if he has sold the field to another man, it shall not be redeemed any more. <sup>21</sup>But the field, when it goes out in the jubilee, shall be holy to the LORD, as a field devoted. The possession of it shall be the priest's. <sup>22</sup>And if a man sanctifies to the LORD a field which he has bought, which is not of the fields he owns, <sup>23</sup>then the priest shall count to him the worth of your estimation, until the year of jubilee. And he shall give your estimation in that day, a holy thing to the LORD. <sup>24</sup>In the year of the jubilee the field shall return to him from whom it was bought, to him who owns it in the land. <sup>25</sup>And all your judgments shall be according to the shekel of the sanctuary, twenty gerahs shall be the shekel. <sup>26</sup>However, the firstborn of an animal, which should be the LORD's firstborn, no man shall sanctify it, whether it is an ox, or sheep, it is the LORD's. <sup>27</sup>And if it is of an unclean animal, then he shall redeem it according to your estimation, and shall add a fifth part of it to it. Or if it is not redeemed, then it shall be sold according to your estimation. <sup>28</sup>However, no devoted thing that a man shall devote to the LORD of all that he has, either of man or animal, or of the field of his possession, shall be sold or redeemed. Every devoted thing is most holy to the LORD. <sup>29</sup>Nothing devoted, which shall be devoted of men, shall be redeemed, but shall surely be put to death. <sup>30</sup>And all the tithe of the land, whether of the seed of the land, or of the fruit of the tree, is the LORD's. It is holy to the LORD.

<sup>31</sup>And if a man will at all redeem anything of his tithes, he shall add to it the fifth part of it. <sup>32</sup>And all the tithe of the herd, or of the flock, all that passes under the rod, a tenth shall be holy to the LORD. <sup>33</sup>He shall not search whether it is good or bad, neither shall he change it. And if he changes it at all, then both it and the change of it shall be holy. It shall not be redeemed.

THE BOOK OF NUMBERS

CHAPTER 1

<sup>1</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, in the tabernacle of the congregation, on the first day of the second month, in the second year after they had come out of the land of Egypt, saying, <sup>2</sup>Take the sum of all the congregation of the sons of Israel, according to their families, by the house of their fathers, with the number of names, every male by their heads, <sup>3</sup>from twenty years old and upward, all that are able to go forth to war in Israel. You and Aaron shall number them by their armies. <sup>4</sup>And with you there shall be a man of every tribe, each one head of the house of his fathers. <sup>5</sup>And these are the names of the men that shall stand with you: Of the tribe of Reuben, Elizur, the son of Shedeur; <sup>6</sup>Of Simeon, Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai; <sup>7</sup>of Judah, Nahshon the son of Amminadab; <sup>8</sup>of Issachar, Nethaneel the son of Zuar; <sup>9</sup>of Zebulun, Eliab the son of Helon; <sup>10</sup>of the sons of Joseph; of Ephraim, Elishama the son of Ammihud; of Manasseh, Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur; <sup>11</sup>of Benjamin, Abidan the son of Gideoni; <sup>12</sup>of Dan, Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai; <sup>13</sup>of Asher, Pagiel the son of Ocran; <sup>14</sup>of Gad, Eliasaph the son of Deuel; <sup>15</sup>of Naphtali, Ahira the son of Enan. <sup>16</sup>These were the noted ones of the congregation, rulers of the tribes of their fathers, heads of thousands in Israel.

<sup>17</sup>And Moses and Aaron took these men who are called by name. <sup>18</sup>And they gathered all the congregation together on the first day of the second month. And they declared their pedigrees according to their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, by their heads. <sup>19</sup>As the LORD commanded Moses, so he numbered them in the wilderness of Sinai.

<sup>20</sup>And the sons of Reuben, Israel's oldest son, by their generations, according to their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, by their heads, every male from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war: <sup>21</sup>those numbered of them, of the tribe of Reuben were forty-six thousand, five hundred.

<sup>22</sup>Of the sons of Simeon, by their generations, according to their families, by the house of their fathers, those that were numbered of them, according to the number of the names, by their heads, every male from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war: <sup>23</sup>those numbered of them, of the tribe of Simeon, were fifty-nine thousand, three hundred.

<sup>24</sup>Of the sons of Gad, by their generations, according to their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war: <sup>25</sup>those numbered of the tribe of Gad, were forty-five thousand, six hundred and fifty.

<sup>26</sup>Of the sons of Judah, by their generations, according to their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war: <sup>27</sup>those numbered of them, of the tribe of Judah, were seventy-four thousand, six hundred.

<sup>28</sup>Of the sons of Issachar, by their generations, according to their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war: <sup>29</sup>those numbered of them, of the tribe of Issachar, were fifty-four thousand, four hundred.

<sup>30</sup>Of the sons of Zebulun, by their generations, according to their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war: <sup>31</sup>those numbered of them, of the tribe of Zebulun, were fifty-seven thousand, four hundred.

<sup>32</sup>Of the sons of Joseph, of the sons of Ephraim, by their generations, according to their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war: <sup>33</sup>those numbered of them, of the tribe of Ephraim, were forty thousand, five hundred.

<sup>34</sup>Of the sons of Manasseh, by their generations, according to their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war: <sup>35</sup>those numbered of them, of the tribe of Manasseh, were thirty-two thousand, two hundred.

<sup>36</sup>Of the sons of Benjamin, by their generations, according to their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war: <sup>37</sup>those numbered of them, of the tribe of Benjamin, were thirty-five thousand, four hundred.

<sup>38</sup>Of the sons of Dan, by their generations, according to their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war: <sup>39</sup>those numbered of them, of the tribe of Dan, were sixty-two thousand, seven hundred.

<sup>40</sup>Of the sons of Asher, by their generations, according to their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war: <sup>41</sup>those numbered of them, of the tribe of Asher, were forty-one thousand, five hundred.

<sup>42</sup>Of the sons of Naphtali, by their generations, according to their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war: <sup>43</sup>those were numbered of them, of the tribe of Naphtali, were fifty-three thousand, four hundred.

<sup>44</sup>These are those who were numbered, whom Moses and Aaron numbered, and the rulers of Israel numbered, being twelve men. Each one was for the house of his fathers. <sup>45</sup>And all those that were numbered of the sons of Israel, by the house of their fathers, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war in Israel: <sup>46</sup>even all those who were numbered were six hundred three thousand, five hundred and fifty.

<sup>47</sup>But the Levites, according to the tribe of their fathers, were not numbered among them. <sup>48</sup>For the LORD had spoken to Moses saying, <sup>49</sup>Only you shall not number the tribe of Levi, neither take the sum of them among the sons of Israel. <sup>50</sup>But you shall set the Levites over the tabernacle of testimony, and over all its vessels, and over all its things. They shall carry the tabernacle and all its vessels. And they shall serve it, and shall camp around the tabernacle. <sup>51</sup>And when the tabernacle sets forth, the Levites shall take it down. And when the tabernacle is to be pitched, the Levites shall set it up. And the stranger who comes near shall be put to death. <sup>52</sup>And the sons of Israel shall pitch their tents, each man by his own camp, and each man by his own banner, throughout their armies. <sup>53</sup>But the Levites shall pitch around the tabernacle of testimony, so that there may be no wrath upon the congregation of the sons of Israel. And the Levites shall keep the charge of the tabernacle of testimony. <sup>54</sup>And the sons of Israel did according to all that the LORD commanded Moses. So they did.

<sup>1</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying, <sup>2</sup>Every man of the sons of Israel shall pitch by his own banner, with the banner of their father's house. They shall pitch far off, around the tabernacle of the congregation. <sup>3</sup>And those who pitch on the east side toward the rising of the sun shall be those of the banner of the camp of Judah, throughout their armies. And Nahshon the son of Amminadab shall be captain of the sons of Judah. <sup>4</sup>And his army, and those that were numbered of them, were seventy-four thousand, six hundred. <sup>5</sup>And those that pitch next to him shall be the tribe of Issachar. And Nethaneel the son of Zuar shall be captain of the sons of Issachar. <sup>6</sup>And his army, and those that were numbered of them were fifty-four thousand, and four hundred.

<sup>7</sup>And the tribe of Zebulun; the ruler of the sons of Zebulun shall be Eliab the son of Helon. <sup>8</sup>And his army, and those numbered of them were fifty-seven thousand and four hundred. <sup>9</sup>All that were numbered of the camp of Judah were a hundred and eighty-six thousand and four hundred, by their armies. They shall set forth first.

<sup>10</sup>On the south side shall be the standard of the camp of Reuben, according to their armies; the ruler of the sons of Reuben shall be Elizur the son of Shedeur.

<sup>11</sup>And his army, and those numbered of it, were forty-six thousand, five hundred.

<sup>12</sup>And those who pitch beside him shall be the tribe of Simeon. And the captain of the sons of Simeon shall be Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai. <sup>13</sup>And his army, and those numbered of them, were fifty-nine thousand, three hundred. <sup>14</sup>Then the tribe of Gad. And the captain of the sons of Gad shall be Eliasaph the son of Deuel.

<sup>15</sup>And his army, and those numbered of them, were forty-five thousand, six hundred and fifty. <sup>16</sup>All that were numbered in the camp of Reuben were a hundred fifty-one thousand, four hundred and fifty, throughout their armies. And they shall go forward in the second rank.

<sup>17</sup>And the tabernacle of the congregation shall go forward with the camp of the Levites in the midst of the camp. As they camp, so they shall go forward, each man in his place, by their banners.

<sup>18</sup>On the west side shall be the banner of the camp of Ephraim, according to their armies. And the captain of the sons of Ephraim shall be Elishama the son of Ammihud.

<sup>19</sup>And his army, and those numbered with them, were forty thousand, five hundred. <sup>20</sup>And beside him shall be the tribe of Manasseh. And the captain of the sons of Manasseh shall be Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur.

<sup>21</sup>And his army, and those numbered of them, were thirty-two thousand, two hundred.

<sup>25</sup>The banner of the camp of Dan shall be on the north side of their armies. And the captain of the sons of Dan shall be Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai.

<sup>26</sup>And his army, and those numbered of them, were sixty-two thousand, seven hundred. <sup>27</sup>And those that camp beside him shall be the tribe of Asher. And the captain of the sons of Asher shall be Pagiel the son of Ocran.

<sup>28</sup>And his army, and those numbered of them, were forty-one thousand, five hundred. <sup>29</sup>Then the tribe of Naphtali. And the captain of the sons of Naphtali shall be Ahira the son of Enan.

<sup>30</sup>And his army, and those numbered of them, were fifty-three thousand, four hundred. <sup>31</sup>All those who were numbered in the camp of Dan were a hundred fifty-seven thousand, six hundred. They shall go last with their banners.

<sup>32</sup>These are those numbered of the sons of Israel, by the house of their fathers. All those numbered of the camps throughout their armies were six hundred three thousand, five hundred and fifty. <sup>33</sup>But the Levites were not numbered among the sons of Israel, even as the LORD commanded Moses.

<sup>34</sup>And the sons of Israel did according to all that the LORD commanded Moses. So they pitched by their banners, and so they went forward, everyone according to their families, according to the house of their fathers.

CHAPTER 3

<sup>5</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, <sup>6</sup>Bring the tribe of Levi near, and present them before Aaron the priest, so that they may minister to him. <sup>7</sup>And they shall keep his charge and the charge of the whole congregation before the tabernacle of the congregation, to do the service of the tabernacle. <sup>8</sup>And they shall keep all the instruments of the tabernacle of the congregation, and the charge of the sons of Israel, to do the service of the tabernacle. <sup>9</sup>And you shall give the Levites to Aaron and to his son. They are wholly given to him out of the sons of Israel. <sup>10</sup>And you shall appoint Aaron and his sons, and they shall wait on their priest's office. And the stranger who comes near shall be put to death.

<sup>11</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, <sup>12</sup>And I, behold, I have taken the Levites from among the sons of Israel instead of all the first-born that opens the womb among the sons of Israel. Therefore the Levites shall be Mine. <sup>13</sup>Because all the first-born are mine. On the day that I struck all the first-born in the sons of Egypt I made all the first-born in Israel holy to Me, both man and animal. They shall be Mine. I am the LORD.

<sup>14</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai saying, <sup>15</sup>Number the sons of Levi according to the house of their fathers, by their families. You shall number them, every male from a month old and upward. <sup>16</sup>And Moses numbered them according to the word of the LORD, as he was commanded. <sup>17</sup>And these were the sons of Levi by their names: Gershon, and Kohath, and Merari. <sup>18</sup>And these were the names of the sons of Gershon by their families: Libni and Shimei. <sup>19</sup>And the sons of Kohath by their families: Amram and Izehar, Hebron and Uzziel. <sup>20</sup>And the sons of Merari by their families: Mahli and Mushi. These were the families of the Levites according to the house of their fathers.

<sup>21</sup>Of Gershon was the family of the Libnites, and the family of the Shimites. These are the families of the Gershonites. <sup>22</sup>Those who were numbered of them, according to the number of all the males, from a month old and upward; those numbered of them were seven thousand, five hundred. <sup>23</sup>The families of the Gershonites shall pitch behind the tabernacle westward. <sup>24</sup>And the chief of the house of the father of the Gershonites shall be Eliasaph the son of Lael. <sup>25</sup>And the charge of the sons of Gershon in the tabernacle of the congregation shall be the tabernacle, and the tent, and the covering of it, and the hanging for the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, <sup>26</sup>and the hangings of the court, and the curtain for the door of the court which is by the tabernacle and by the altar all around, and the cords of it, for all the service of it.

<sup>27</sup>And of Kohath was the family of the Amramites, and the family of the Izeharites, the family of the Hebronites, and the family of the Uzzielites. These were the families of the Kohathites. <sup>28</sup>In number, all the males, from a month old and upward, were eight thousand and six hundred, keeping the charge of the sanctuary.<sup>29</sup>The families of the sons of Kohath shall pitch on the side of the tabernacle southward. <sup>30</sup>And the chief of the house of the father of the families of the Kohathites shall be Elizaphan the son of Uzziel. <sup>31</sup>And their charge shall be the ark, and the table, and the lampstand, and the altars, and the vessels of the sanctuary with which they minister, and the hanging, and all the service of it. <sup>32</sup>And Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest shall be chief over the leaders of the Levites, having the oversight of the ones who keep the charge of the sanctuary.

<sup>33</sup>Of Merari was the family of the Mahlites and the family of the Mushites. These are the families of Merari. <sup>34</sup>And those numbered of them, according to the number of all the males from a month old and upward, were six thousand and two hundred. <sup>35</sup>And the chief of the house of the father of the families of Merari was Zurriel the son of Abihail. They pitched on the side of the tabernacle northward. <sup>36</sup>And the office and charge of the sons of Merari shall be the boards of the tabernacle, and its bars, and its pillars, and its sockets, and its vessels, and all its service, <sup>37</sup>and the pillars of the court all around, and their sockets, and their pins, and their cords.

<sup>38</sup>And those who camp before the tabernacle toward the east, before the tabernacle of the congregation eastward, shall be Moses, and Aaron and his sons, keeping the charge of the sanctuary for the charge of the sons of Israel. And the stranger that comes near shall be put to death. <sup>39</sup>All who were numbered of the Levites, whom Moses and Aaron numbered at the commandment of the LORD, throughout their families, all the males from a month old and upward, were twenty-two thousand.

<sup>40</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, Number all the first-born of the males of the sons of Israel from a month old and upward, and take the number of their names. <sup>41</sup>You shall take the Levites for Me, I am the LORD, in the place of all the first-born among the sons of Israel; and the cattle of the Levites instead of all the firstlings among the cattle of the sons of Israel. <sup>42</sup>And as the LORD commanded him, Moses numbered all the first-born among the sons of Israel. <sup>43</sup>And all the first-born males by the number of names, from a month old and upward, of those numbered of them, were twenty-two thousand two hundred and seventy-three.

<sup>44</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, <sup>45</sup>Take the Levites instead of all the first-born among the sons of Israel, and the cattle of the Levites instead of their cattle. And the Levites shall be Mine. I am the LORD. <sup>46</sup>And for those that are to be redeemed of the two hundred and seventy-three of the first-born of the sons of Israel, who are more than the Levites, <sup>47</sup>you shall even take five shekels each by the head, according to the shekel of the sanctuary you shall take. (The shekel is twenty gerahs.) <sup>48</sup>And you shall give to Aaron, and to his sons, the money with which the number of them left over is to be redeemed. <sup>49</sup>And Moses took the redemption money from those who were over and above the ones who were redeemed by the Levites. <sup>50</sup>He took the money from the first-born of the sons of Israel: one thousand three hundred and sixty-five shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary. <sup>51</sup>And Moses gave the money from those who were redeemed to Aaron and to his sons, according to the word of the LORD, as the LORD commanded Moses.

CHAPTER 4

<sup>1</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying, <sup>2</sup>Take the sum of the sons of Kohath from among the sons of Levi, according to their families, by the house of their fathers, <sup>3</sup>from thirty years old and upward even to fifty years, all that enter into the host, to do the work in the tabernacle of the congregation. <sup>4</sup>This shall be the service of the sons of Kohath in the tabernacle of the congregation, about the most holy things. <sup>5</sup>And when the camp sets forth, Aaron and his sons shall come, and they shall take down the covering veil and cover the ark of testimony with it. <sup>6</sup>And they shall put on it the covering of badgers' skins, and shall spread over it a cloth wholly of blue, and shall put in its staves. <sup>7</sup>And they shall spread a cloth of blue upon the table of showbread, and put the dishes on it, and the spoons, and the bowls, and covers to cover it with. And the continual bread shall be on it. <sup>8</sup>And they shall spread upon them a cloth of scarlet and cover it with a covering of badgers' skins, and they shall put in its staves. <sup>9</sup>And they shall take a cloth of blue and cover the lampstand of the light, and its lamps, and its tongs, and its snuff-dishes, and all the oil vessels of it, with which they serve it. <sup>10</sup>And they shall put it and all the vessels of it inside a covering of badgers' skins, and shall put it upon a bar.

<sup>11</sup>And upon the golden altar they shall spread a cloth of blue, and cover it with a covering of badgers' skins, and they shall put the staves into it. <sup>12</sup>And they shall take all the instruments of ministry with which they serve in the sanctuary, and put them in a cloth of blue, and cover them with a covering of badgers' skins, and shall put them on a bar. <sup>13</sup>And they shall take away the ashes from the altar, and spread a purple cloth on it. <sup>14</sup>And they shall put on it all its vessels, with which they minister about it: the censers, the flesh-hooks, and the shovels, and the basins, all the vessels of the altar. And they shall spread upon it a covering of badgers' skins, and put the staves into it. <sup>15</sup>And when Aaron and his sons have made an end of covering the sanctuary, and all the vessels of the sanctuary, when the camp is to set forward, then after that the sons of Kohath shall come to carry it. But they shall not touch any holy thing lest they die. These are the burden of the sons of Kohath in the tabernacle of the congregation.

<sup>16</sup>And to the office of Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest belongs the oil for the light, and the sweet incense, and the daily food offering, and the anointing oil, the oversight of all the tabernacle and of all that is in it, in the sanctuary and in its vessels.

<sup>17</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying, <sup>18</sup>Do not cut off the tribe of the families of the Kohathites from among the Levites. <sup>19</sup>But do this to them, and they shall live and not die when they approach the most holy things. Aaron and his sons shall go in and appoint each one of them to his service and to his burden. <sup>20</sup>But they shall not go in to watch when the holy things are covered, lest they die.

<sup>21</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>22</sup>Take also the sum of the sons of Gershon throughout the houses of their fathers by their families. <sup>23</sup>From thirty years old and upward to fifty years old you shall number them, all that enter in to perform the service, to do the work in the tabernacle of the congregation. <sup>24</sup>This is the service of the families of the Gershonites, to serve and to carry burdens. <sup>25</sup>And they shall carry the curtains of the tabernacle, and the tabernacle of the congregation, its covering, and the covering of the badgers' skins that is above upon it, and the hanging for the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, <sup>26</sup>and the hangings of the court, and the hanging for the door of the gate of the court, which is by the tabernacle and by the altar all around, and their cords, and all the instruments of their service, and all that is made for them. So they shall serve. <sup>27</sup>At the appointment of Aaron and his sons shall be all the service of the sons of the Gershonites, in all their burdens and in all their service. And you shall appoint all their burdens to the ones in charge. <sup>28</sup>This is the service of the families of the sons of Gershon in the tabernacle of the congregation. And their charge shall be under the hand of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest.

<sup>29</sup>You shall number the sons of Merari according to their families, by the house of their fathers. <sup>30</sup>You shall number them from thirty years old and upward even to fifty years old, everyone who enters into the service, to do the work of the tabernacle of the congregation. <sup>31</sup>And this is the charge of their burden, according to all their service in the tabernacle of the congregation: the boards of the tabernacle, and its bars, and its pillars, and its sockets, <sup>32</sup>and the pillars of the court all around, and their sockets, and their pins, and their cords, with all their instruments, and with all their service. And you shall count the instruments of the charge of their burden by name. <sup>33</sup>This is the service of the families of the sons of Merari, according to all their service, in the tabernacle of the congregation under the hand of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest.

<sup>34</sup>And Moses and Aaron and the leaders of the congregation numbered the sons of the Kohathites according to their families, and according to the house of their fathers. <sup>35</sup>They numbered them from thirty years old and upward even to fifty years old, everyone that entered into the service, for the work in the tabernacle of the congregation. <sup>36</sup>And those numbered of them by their families were two thousand seven hundred and fifty. <sup>37</sup>These were the ones that were numbered of the families of the Kohathites, all that might do service in the tabernacle of the congregation, which Moses and Aaron numbered according to the commandment of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

<sup>38</sup>And those that were numbered of the sons of Gershon throughout their families, and by the house of their fathers, <sup>39</sup>from thirty years old and upward even to fifty years old, everyone that enters into the service for the work in the tabernacle of the congregation, <sup>40</sup>even those that were numbered of them throughout their families, by the house of their fathers, were two thousand six hundred and thirty. <sup>41</sup>These are the ones numbered of the families of the sons of Gershon, of all that might do service in the tabernacle of the congregation, whom Moses and Aaron numbered according to the commandment of the LORD.

<sup>42</sup>And those numbered of the families of the sons of Merari, throughout their families, by the house of their fathers, <sup>43</sup>from thirty years old and upward even to fifty years old, everyone that enters into the service for the work in the tabernacle of the congregation, <sup>44</sup>even those numbered of them according to their families, were three thousand, two hundred. <sup>45</sup>These are those numbered of the sons of Merari, whom Moses and Aaron numbered according to the word of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

<sup>46</sup>All those numbered of the Levites, whom Moses and Aaron and the rulers of Israel numbered, according to their families and according to the house of their fathers, <sup>47</sup>from thirty years old and upward even to fifty years old, everyone that came to do the service of the ministry and the service of the burden in the tabernacle of the congregation, <sup>48</sup>even those numbered of them were eight thousand, five hundred and eighty. <sup>49</sup>According to the commandment of the LORD they were numbered by the hand of Moses, everyone according to his service and according to his burden. So they were numbered by him as the LORD commanded Moses.

CHAPTER 5

<sup>1</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>2</sup>Command the sons of Israel that they put out of the camp every leper and everyone that has an issue, and whoever is defiled by the dead. <sup>3</sup>You shall put out both male and female. You shall put them outside the camp so that they do not defile their camps in the midst of which I dwell. <sup>4</sup>And the sons of Israel did so, and put them out outside the camp. Even as the LORD spoke to Moses, so the sons of Israel did.

<sup>5</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>6</sup>Speak to the sons of Israel: When a man or woman shall commit any sin that men commit, to commit a trespass against the LORD, and that person is guilty, <sup>7</sup>then they shall confess their sin which they have done. And he shall make good his wrong in full, and add to it one fifth of it, and give it to him against whom he has sinned. <sup>8</sup>But if the man has no kinsman to whom he may pay for the wrong, let the trespass be given to the LORD, to the priest, besides the ram of the atonement by which an atonement shall be made for him. <sup>9</sup>And every offering of all the holy things of the sons of Israel which they shall bring to the priest, shall be his. <sup>10</sup>And every man's devoted things shall be his. Whatever any man gives the priest, it shall be his.

<sup>11</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>12</sup>Speak to the sons of Israel and say to them, If any man's wife go aside and be unfaithful to him, <sup>13</sup>and a man lie with her carnally, and if it is hidden from the eyes of her husband and is kept hidden, and she is defiled, and there is no witness against her, neither is she taken in the act; <sup>14</sup>and if the spirit of jealousy comes upon him and he is jealous of his wife, and she is defiled — or if the spirit of jealousy comes upon him and he is jealous of his wife, and she is not defiled — <sup>15</sup>then the man shall bring his wife to the priest. And he shall bring her offering for her, the tenth of an ephah of barley meal. He shall pour no oil upon it, nor put frankincense on it, for it is an offering of jealousy, a reminding offering, bringing iniquity to mind. <sup>16</sup>And the priest shall bring her near and set her before the LORD <sup>17</sup>And the priest shall take holy water in an earthen vessel. And the priest shall take of the dust that is in the floor of the tabernacle and put it into the water. <sup>18</sup>And the priest shall set the woman before the LORD, and uncover the woman's head, and put the reminding offering in her hands, which is the jealousy offering. And the priest shall have in his hand the bitter water that causes the curse. <sup>19</sup>And the priest shall charge her by an oath, and say to the woman, If no man has lain with you, and if you have not gone aside to uncleanness, being under your husband, you are free from this bitter water that causes the curse. <sup>20</sup>But if you have gone aside, being under your husband, and if you are defiled and some man has lain with you besides your husband, <sup>21</sup>then the priest shall charge the woman with an oath of cursing. And the priest shall say to the woman, The LORD make you a curse and an oath among your people, when the LORD makes your thigh to fall away and your belly to swell. <sup>22</sup>And this water that causes the curse shall go into your bowels to make your belly swell and your thigh fall away. And the woman shall say, Amen, amen. <sup>23</sup>And the priest shall write these curses in a book, and he shall blot them out with the bitter water. <sup>24</sup>And he shall cause the woman to drink the bitter water that causes the curse. And the water that causes the curse shall enter into her and become bitter. <sup>25</sup>Then the priest shall take the jealousy offering out of the woman's hand and shall wave the offering before the LORD, and offer it upon the altar. <sup>26</sup>And the priest shall take a handful of the offering, as a memorial of it, and burn it upon the altar, and afterward he shall cause the woman to drink the water. <sup>27</sup>And when he has made her drink the water, then it shall be, if she is defiled and has been unfaithful to her husband, the water that causes the curse shall enter into her and become bitter. And her belly shall swell, and her thigh shall fall away. And the woman shall be a curse among her people. <sup>28</sup>And if the woman is not defiled, but is clean, then she shall be free, and shall conceive seed. <sup>29</sup>This is the law of jealousies when a woman goes aside, being under her husband, and is defiled. <sup>30</sup>Or when the spirit of jealousy comes on him, and he is jealous over his wife, and shall set the woman before the LORD, and the priest shall execute upon her all this law. <sup>31</sup>Then shall the man be guiltless from iniquity, and this woman shall bear her iniquity.

CHAPTER 6

<sup>1</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>2</sup>Speak to the sons of Israel, and say to them, When either man or woman shall separate in order to vow a vow of a Nazarite, in order to separate to the LORD, <sup>3</sup>he shall separate from wine and strong drink and shall drink no vinegar of wine, or vinegar of strong drink; neither shall he drink any liquor of grapes, nor eat moist grapes or dried. <sup>4</sup>All the days of his Nazariteship he shall eat nothing that is made of the vine tree, from the kernels even to the husk. <sup>5</sup>All the days of his vow to separate, no razor shall come upon his head. Until the days are fulfilled in which he separates to the LORD, he shall be holy. He shall let the locks of the hair of his head grow. <sup>6</sup>All the days that he separates to the LORD, he shall not come near any dead body. <sup>7</sup>He shall not make himself unclean for his father, or for his mother, or for his brother, or for his sister, when they die, because the consecration of his God is upon his head. <sup>8</sup>All the days of his separation he is holy to the LORD. <sup>9</sup>And if any man dies very suddenly beside him, and he has defiled the head of his consecration, then he shall shave his head in the day of his cleansing, on the seventh day he shall shave it. <sup>10</sup>And on the eighth day he shall bring two turtle-doves or two young pigeons to the priest, to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. <sup>11</sup>And the priest shall offer the one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering, and make an atonement for him, because he sinned by the dead, and shall make his head holy that same day. <sup>12</sup>And he shall set apart to the LORD the days of his separation, and shall bring a lamb of the first year for a guilt offering. But the days that were before shall be lost, because his separation was defiled.

<sup>13</sup>And this is the law of the Nazarite, when the days of his separation are fulfilled. He shall be brought to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. <sup>14</sup>And he shall offer his offering to the LORD: one male lamb of the first year without blemish for a burnt offering, and one ewe lamb of the first year without blemish for a sin offering, and one ram without blemish for peace offerings, <sup>15</sup>and a basket of unleavened bread, cakes of fine flour mixed with oil, and wafers of unleavened bread anointed with oil, and their food offerings and their drink offerings. <sup>16</sup>And the priest shall bring them before the LORD and shall offer his sin offerings and his burnt offering. <sup>17</sup>And he shall offer the ram for a sacrifice of peace offerings to the LORD, with the basket of unleavened bread. The priest shall offer also his food offering and his drink offering. <sup>18</sup>And the Nazarite shall shave the head of his separation at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and shall take the hair of the head of his separation and put it in the fire under the sacrifice of the peace offerings. <sup>19</sup>And the priest shall take the boiled shoulder of the ram and one unleavened cake out of the basket, and one unleavened wafer, and shall put them upon the hands of the Nazarite, after his separation has been shaved. <sup>20</sup>And the priest shall wave them for a wave offering before the LORD. This is holy for the priest, with the wave breast and heave shoulder. And afterward the Nazarite may drink wine. <sup>21</sup>This is the law of the Nazarite who has vowed his offering to the LORD for his separation, besides that which he is able to get. According to the vow which he vowed, so he must do according to the law of his separation.

<sup>22</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>23</sup>Speak to Aaron and to his sons saying, In this way you shall bless the sons of Israel, saying to them, <sup>24</sup>The LORD bless you and keep you. <sup>25</sup>The LORD make His face shine upon you and be gracious to you. <sup>26</sup>The LORD lift up His face to you and give you peace. <sup>27</sup>And they shall put My name upon the sons of Israel. And I will bless them.

CHAPTER 7

<sup>1</sup>And it happened on the day that Moses had fully set up the tabernacle, and had anointed it and sanctified it, and all the instruments of it, both the altar and all the vessels of it, and had anointed them and sanctified them, <sup>2</sup>the rulers of Israel offered, those who were heads of the house of their fathers, who were the rulers of the tribes and were over them that were numbered. <sup>3</sup>And they brought their offerings before the LORD: six covered wagons and twelve oxen, a wagon for two of the rulers, and an ox for each one. And they brought them before the tabernacle. <sup>4</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, <sup>5</sup>Take it from them so that they may be used in doing the service of the tabernacle of the congregation. And you shall give them to the Levites, to every man according to his service. <sup>6</sup>And Moses took the wagons and the oxen and gave them to the Levites. <sup>7</sup>He gave two wagons and four oxen to the sons of Gershon, according to their service. <sup>8</sup>And he gave four wagons and eight oxen to the sons of Merari, according to their service, under the hand of Ithamar, the son of Aaron the priest. <sup>9</sup>But to the sons of Kohath he did not give any, because the service of the sanctuary belonging to them was that which they should carry upon their shoulders. <sup>10</sup>And the rulers offered for the dedication of the altar in the day that it was anointed, even the rulers offered their offering before the altar. <sup>11</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, They shall offer their offering, each ruler on his day, for the dedication of the altar.

<sup>12</sup>And he that offered his offering the first day was Nahshon the son of Amminadab, of the tribe of Judah. <sup>13</sup>And his offering was one silver platter. The weight of it was a hundred and thirty shekels. And he offered one silver bowl of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them were full of fine flour mixed with oil for a food offering; <sup>14</sup>one spoon of ten shekels of gold, full of incense; <sup>15</sup>one young bull, one ram, one lamb of the first year for a burnt offering; <sup>16</sup>one kid of the goats for a sin offering; <sup>17</sup>and for a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, five lambs of the first year. This was the offering of Nahshon the son of Amminadab.

<sup>18</sup>On the second day Nethaneel the son of Zuar, ruler of Issachar, offered. <sup>19</sup>He offered for his offering one silver platter, the weight of which was a hundred and thirty shekels; one silver bowl of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a food offering; <sup>20</sup>one spoon of gold of ten shekels, full of incense; <sup>21</sup>one young bull, one ram, one lamb of the first year for a burnt offering; <sup>22</sup>one kid of the goats for a sin offering; <sup>23</sup>and for a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, five lambs of the first year. This was the offering of Nethaneel the son of Zuar.

<sup>24</sup>On the third day Eliab the son of Helon, ruler of the sons of Zebulun, offered. <sup>25</sup>His offering was one silver platter, the weight of which was a hundred and thirty shekels; one silver bowl of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a food offering; <sup>26</sup>one golden spoon of ten shekels, full of incense; <sup>27</sup>one young bull, one ram, one lamb of the first year for a burnt offering; <sup>28</sup>one kid of the goats for a sin offering; <sup>29</sup>and for a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, five lambs of the first year. This was the offering of Eliab the son of Helon.

<sup>30</sup>On the fourth day Elizur the son of Shedeur, ruler of the sons of Reuben, offered. <sup>31</sup>His offering was one silver platter of the weight of a hundred and thirty shekels; one silver bowl of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a food offering; <sup>32</sup>one golden spoon of ten shekels, full of incense; <sup>33</sup>one young bull, one ram, one lamb of the first year for a burnt offering; <sup>34</sup>one kid of the goats for a sin offering; <sup>35</sup>and for a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, five lambs of the first year. This was the offering of Elizur the son of Shedeur.

<sup>36</sup>On the fifth day Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai, ruler of the sons of Simeon, offered. <sup>37</sup>His offering was one silver platter of the weight of a hundred and thirty shekels; one silver bowl of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a food offering; <sup>38</sup>one golden spoon of ten shekels, full of incense; <sup>39</sup>one young bull, one ram, one lamb of the first year for a burnt offering; <sup>40</sup>one kid of the goats for a sin offering; <sup>41</sup>and for a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, five lambs of the first year. This was the offering of Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai.

<sup>42</sup>On the sixth day Eliasaph the son of Deuel, ruler of the sons of Gad, offered. <sup>43</sup>His offering was one silver platter of the weight of a hundred and thirty shekels; one silver bowl of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a food offering; <sup>44</sup>one golden spoon of ten shekels, full of incense; <sup>45</sup>one young bull, one ram, one lamb of the first year for a burnt offering; <sup>46</sup>one kid of the goats for a sin offering; <sup>47</sup>and for a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, five lambs of the first year. This was the offering Eliasaph the son of Deuel.

<sup>48</sup>On the seventh day Elishama the son of Ammihud, ruler of the sons of Ephraim, offered. <sup>49</sup>His offering was one silver platter of the weight of a hundred and thirty shekels; one silver bowl of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a food offering; <sup>50</sup>one golden spoon of ten shekels, full of incense; <sup>51</sup>one young bull, one ram, one lamb of the first year for a burnt offering; <sup>52</sup>one kid of the goats for a sin offering; <sup>53</sup>and for a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, five lambs of the first year. This was the offering of Elishama the son of Ammihud.

<sup>54</sup>On the eighth day Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur, ruler of the sons of Manasseh, offered. <sup>55</sup>His offering was one silver platter of the weight of a hundred and thirty shekels; one silver bowl of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a food offering; <sup>56</sup>one golden spoon of ten shekels, full of incense; <sup>57</sup>one young bull; one ram; one lamb of the first year for a burnt offering; <sup>58</sup>one kid of the goats for a sin offering; <sup>59</sup>and for a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, five lambs of the first year. This was the offering of Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur.

<sup>60</sup>On the ninth day Abidan the son of Gideoni, ruler of the sons of Benjamin, offered. <sup>61</sup>His offering was one silver platter of the weight of a hundred and thirty shekels; one silver bowl of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a food offering; <sup>62</sup>one golden spoon of ten shekels, full of incense; <sup>63</sup>one young bull, one ram, one lamb of the first year for a burnt offering; <sup>64</sup>one kid of the goats for a sin offering; <sup>65</sup>and for a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, five lambs of the first year. This was the offering of Abidan the son of Gideoni.

<sup>66</sup>On the tenth day Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai, ruler of the sons of Dan, offered. <sup>67</sup>His offering was one silver platter of the weight of a hundred and thirty shekels; one silver bowl of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a food offering; <sup>68</sup>one golden spoon of ten shekels, full of incense; <sup>69</sup>one young bull, one ram, one lamb of the first year for a burnt offering; <sup>70</sup>one kid of the goats for a sin offering; <sup>71</sup>and for a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, five lambs of the first year. This was the offering of Ahiezer son of Ammishaddai.

<sup>72</sup>On the eleventh day Pagiel the son of Ocran, ruler of the sons of Asher, offered. <sup>73</sup>His offering was one silver platter of the weight of a hundred and thirty shekels; one silver bowl of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a food offering; <sup>74</sup>one golden spoon of ten shekels, full of incense; <sup>75</sup>one young bull, one ram, one lamb of the first year for a burnt offering; <sup>76</sup>one kid of the goats for a sin offering; <sup>77</sup>and for a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, five lambs of the first year. This was the offering of Pagiel the son of Ocran.

<sup>78</sup>On the twelfth day Ahira the son of Enan, ruler of the sons of Naphtali, offered. <sup>79</sup>His offering was one silver platter of the weight of a hundred and thirty shekels; one silver bowl of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a food offering; <sup>80</sup>one golden spoon of ten shekels, full of incense; <sup>81</sup>one young bull, one ram, one lamb of the first year for a burnt offering; <sup>82</sup>one kid of the goats for a sin offering; <sup>83</sup>and for a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, five lambs of the first year. This was the offering of Ahira the son of Enan.

<sup>84</sup>This was the dedication of the altar, in the day when it was anointed, by the rulers of Israel: twelve platters of silver, twelve silver bowls, twelve golden spoons. <sup>85</sup>Each platter of silver weighed a hundred and thirty shekels, each bowl seventy. All the silver vessels weighed two thousand and four hundred shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary. <sup>86</sup>The golden spoons were twelve, full of incense, ten shekels apiece, according to the shekel of the sanctuary. All the gold of the spoons was a hundred and twenty shekels. <sup>87</sup>All the oxen for the burnt offerings were twelve bulls, the rams twelve, the lambs of the first year twelve, with their food offering. And the kids of the goats for a sin offering twelve. <sup>88</sup>And all the oxen for the sacrifice of the peace offerings were twenty-four bulls, the rams sixty, the male goats sixty, the lambs of the first year sixty. This was the dedication of the altar after it was anointed.

<sup>89</sup>And when Moses had gone into the tabernacle of the congregation to speak with Him, then he heard the voice of One speaking to him from the mercy-seat on the ark of testimony, from between the two cherubs.

CHAPTER 8

<sup>1</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, <sup>2</sup>Speak to Aaron, and say to him, When you light the lamps, the seven lamps shall give light in front of the lampstand. <sup>3</sup>And Aaron did so. He lighted the lamps of it over against the lampstand, as the LORD commanded Moses. <sup>4</sup>And this work of the lampstand was of beaten gold, to its base and to its blossoms; it was beaten work. According to the pattern which the LORD had showed Moses, so he made the lampstand.

<sup>5</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, <sup>6</sup>Take the Levites from among the sons of Israel, and purify them. <sup>7</sup>And in this way shall you do to them to purify them. Sprinkle water of sin-offering on them, and let them shave all their flesh, and let them wash their clothes, and make themselves clean. <sup>8</sup>Then let them take a young bull with its food offering, fine flour mixed with oil, and another young bull shall you take for a sin offering. <sup>9</sup>And you shall bring the Levites before the tabernacle of the congregation. And you shall gather the whole assembly of the sons of Israel together. <sup>10</sup>And you shall bring the Levites before the LORD. And the sons of Israel shall put their hands upon the Levites. <sup>11</sup>And Aaron shall offer the Levites before the LORD for an offering of the sons of Israel, so that they may do the service of the LORD.

<sup>12</sup>And the Levites shall lay their hands upon the heads of the bulls. And you shall offer the one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering, to the LORD, to make an atonement for the Levites. <sup>13</sup>And you shall set the Levites before Aaron, and before his sons, and offer them for an offering to the LORD. <sup>14</sup>So you shall separate the Levites from among the sons of Israel. And the Levites shall be Mine. <sup>15</sup>And after that the Levites shall go in to do the service of the tabernacle of the congregation. And you shall purify them and offer them for a wave offering. <sup>16</sup>For they are wholly given to Me from among the sons of Israel, instead of those that open every womb. The first-born of all the sons of Israel, I have taken them to Me. <sup>17</sup>For all the first-born of the sons of Israel are Mine, both man and animal. On the day that I struck every first-born in the land of Egypt I set them apart for Myself. <sup>18</sup>And I have taken the Levites for all the first-born of the sons of Israel. <sup>19</sup>And I have given the Levites as a gift to Aaron and to his sons from among the sons of Israel, to do the service of the sons of Israel in the tabernacle of the congregation, and to make an atonement for the sons of Israel, so that there may be no plague among the sons of Israel when the sons of Israel come near the sanctuary.

<sup>20</sup>And Moses and Aaron and all the congregation of the sons of Israel did to the Levites according to all that the LORD commanded Moses concerning the Levites. So the sons of Israel did to them. <sup>21</sup>And the Levites were purified, and they washed their clothes. And Aaron offered them, an offering before the LORD. And Aaron made an atonement for them to purify them. <sup>22</sup>And after that the Levites went in to do their service in the tabernacle of the congregation before Aaron and before his sons. Even as the LORD had commanded Moses concerning the Levites, so they did to them.

<sup>23</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, <sup>24</sup>This is that which pertains to the Levites. From twenty-five years old and upward they shall go in to wait upon the service of the tabernacle of the congregation. <sup>25</sup>And from the age of fifty years they shall stop waiting upon the service, and shall serve no more. <sup>26</sup>But they shall minister with their brothers in the tabernacle of the congregation, to keep the charge, and shall do no service. So you shall do to the Levites as to their duties.

CHAPTER 9

<sup>1</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, in the first month of the second year after they had come out of the land of Egypt, saying, <sup>2</sup>Let the sons of Israel also keep the Passover at its appointed time. <sup>3</sup>In the fourteenth day of this month, at evening, you shall keep it in its appointed time. You shall keep it according to all the rites of it, and according to all the ceremonies of it. <sup>4</sup>And Moses spoke to the sons of Israel that they should keep the Passover. <sup>5</sup>And they kept the Passover on the fourteenth day of the first month at evening in the wilderness of Sinai. According to all that the LORD commanded Moses, so all the sons of Israel did.

<sup>6</sup>And there were certain men who were defiled by the dead body of a man, so that they could not keep the Passover on that day. And they came before Moses and before Aaron on that day. <sup>7</sup>And those men said to him, We are defiled by the dead body of a man. Why are we kept back that we may not offer an offering of the LORD in its appointed time among the sons of Israel? <sup>8</sup>And Moses said to them, Stand still, and I will hear what the LORD will command about you. <sup>9</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, <sup>10</sup>Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, If any man of you or of your posterity shall be unclean because of a dead body, or in a journey afar off, he shall still keep the Passover to the LORD. <sup>11</sup>They shall keep it the fourteenth day of the second month at evening, eating it with unleavened bread and bitter herbs. <sup>12</sup>They shall leave none of it until the morning, nor break any bone of it. According to all the ordinances of the Passover they shall keep it.

<sup>13</sup>But the man that is clean, and is not in a journey, and holds back from keeping the Passover, even the same soul shall be cut off from among his people. Because he did not bring the offering of the LORD in His appointed time, that man shall bear his sin. <sup>14</sup>And if a stranger shall live among you, and desires to keep the Passover to the LORD, he shall do according to the ordinance of the Passover, and according to the manner of it. You shall have one ordinance, both for the stranger and for him that was born in the land.

<sup>15</sup>And on the day that the tabernacle was reared up, the cloud covered the tabernacle, the tent of the testimony. And at evening it was upon the tabernacle, looking like fire, until the morning. <sup>16</sup>So it was always. The cloud covered it, and it looked like fire by night. <sup>17</sup>And when the cloud was taken up from the tabernacle, then after that the sons of Israel journeyed. And in the place where the cloud stayed, there the sons of Israel pitched their tents. <sup>18</sup>At the command of the LORD the sons of Israel journey, and at the command of the LORD they pitched. As long as the cloud stayed upon the tabernacle they rested in their tents. <sup>19</sup>And when the cloud stayed long upon the tabernacle many days, then the sons of Israel kept the charge of the LORD and did not journey. <sup>20</sup>And so when the cloud was a few days upon the tabernacle, according to the command of the LORD they remained in their tents, and according to the command of the LORD they journeyed.

<sup>21</sup>And so when the cloud stayed from evening to the morning, and the cloud was taken up in the morning, then they journeyed. Whether by day or by night that the cloud was taken up, they journeyed. <sup>22</sup>Or two days, or a month, or a year, that the cloud stayed upon the tabernacle, remaining on it, the sons of Israel stayed in their tents and did not journey. But when it was taken up, they journeyed. <sup>23</sup>At the command of the LORD they rested in the tents, and at the command of the LORD they journeyed. They kept the charge of the LORD at the command of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

CHAPTER 10

<sup>1</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, <sup>2</sup>Make two trumpets of silver. You shall make them of beaten work. And they shall be used for the calling of the assembly and for causing the camps to go forward. <sup>3</sup>And when they shall blow with them, all the assembly shall gather themselves to you at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. <sup>4</sup>And if they blow with one, then the rulers who are heads of the thousands of Israel shall gather themselves to you. <sup>5</sup>When you blow an alarm, then the camps that lie on the east parts shall go forward. <sup>6</sup>When you blow an alarm the second time, then the camps that lie on the south side shall take their journey. They shall blow an alarm for their journeys. <sup>7</sup>But when the congregation is to be gathered together, you shall blow, but you shall not sound an alarm. <sup>8</sup>And the sons of Aaron, the priests, shall blow with the trumpets. And they shall be to you for an ordinance forever throughout your generations. <sup>9</sup>And if you go to war in your land against the enemy who fights against you, then you shall blow an alarm with the trumpets. And you shall be remembered before the LORD your God, and you shall be saved from your enemies. <sup>10</sup>Also in the day of your gladness, and in your solemn days, and in the beginnings of your months, you shall blow with the trumpets over your burnt offerings, and over the sacrifices of your peace offerings, so that they may be to you for a memorial before your GOD. I am the LORD your God.

<sup>11</sup>And on the twentieth of the second month, in the second year, the cloud was taken up from the tabernacle of the testimony. <sup>12</sup>And the sons of Israel took their journeyings out of the land of Sinai. And the cloud rested in the wilderness of Paran. <sup>13</sup>And they first took their journey according to the command of the LORD by the hand of Moses. <sup>14</sup>In the front went the banner of the camp of Judah according to their armies. And over his army was Nahshon the son of Amminadab. <sup>15</sup>And over the army of the tribe of the sons of Issachar was Nethaneel the son of Zuar. <sup>16</sup>And over the army of the tribe of Zebulun was Eliab the son of Helon. <sup>17</sup>And the tabernacle was taken down. And the sons of Gershon and the sons of Merari went forward carrying the tabernacle. <sup>18</sup>And the banner of the camp of Reuben went forward according to their armies. And over his army was Elizur the son of Shedeur. <sup>19</sup>And over the army of the tribe of the sons of Simeon was Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai. <sup>20</sup>And over the army of the tribe of Gad was Eliasaph the son of Deuel. <sup>21</sup>And the Kohathites went forward carrying the sanctuary. And the tabernacle was set up before they came. <sup>22</sup>And the banner of the camp of the sons of Ephraim went forward according to their armies. And over his army was Elishama the son of Ammihud. <sup>23</sup>And over the army of the tribe of the sons of Manasseh was Gamaliel of Pedahzur. <sup>24</sup>And over the army of the tribe of the sons of Benjamin was Abidan the son of Gideoni.

<sup>25</sup>And the banner of the camp of the sons of Dan set forward, the rear guard of all the camps throughout their army. And over his army was Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai. <sup>26</sup>And over the army of the tribe of the sons of Asher was Pagiel, the son of Ocran. <sup>27</sup>And over the army of the tribe of the sons of Naphtali was Ahira the son of Enan. <sup>28</sup>These were the journeyings of the sons of Israel according to their armies when they went forward.

<sup>29</sup>And Moses said to Hobab the son of Reuel the Midianite, Moses' father-in-law: We are going to the place of which the LORD said, I will give it to you. Come with us, and we will do you good. For the LORD has spoken good concerning Israel. <sup>30</sup>And he said to him, I will not go, but I will go to my own land and to my kindred. <sup>31</sup>And he said, Please do not leave us, because you know how we are to camp in the wilderness, and so you may be to us for eyes. <sup>32</sup>And if you go with us, whatever goodness the LORD shall do to us, the same will we do to you.

<sup>33</sup>And they moved three days' journey from the mountain of the LORD. And the ark of the covenant of the LORD went before them in the three days' journey, to look for a resting-place for them. <sup>34</sup>And the cloud of the LORD was upon them by day, when they went out of the camp. <sup>35</sup>And it happened when the ark went forward, Moses said, Rise up, LORD, and let Your enemies be scattered, and let those who hate You flee before You. <sup>36</sup>And when it rested, he said, Return, O LORD, to the many thousands of Israel.

CHAPTER 11

<sup>1</sup>And the people were evil, as those complaining in the ears of the LORD. And the LORD heard, and His anger was kindled. And the fire of the LORD burned among them and burned up those who were in the outermost parts of the camp. <sup>2</sup>And the people cried to Moses. And when Moses prayed to the LORD, the fire was put out. <sup>3</sup>And he called the name of the place Taberah, because the fire of the LORD burned among them.

<sup>4</sup>And the mixed multitude in their midst lusted with great lust. And the sons of Israel also cried again, and said, Who shall give us flesh to eat? <sup>5</sup>We remember the fish which we ate freely in Egypt, the cucumbers, and the melons, and the leeks, and the onions, and the garlic. <sup>6</sup>But now our soul is dried away; there is nothing at all besides this manna before our eyes. <sup>7</sup>And the manna was like coriander seed, and the color of it was like the color of bdellium. <sup>8</sup>The people went around and gathered, and ground it in mills, or beat it in a mortar, and baked in pans, and made cakes of it. And the taste of it was like the taste of fresh oil.

<sup>9</sup>And when the dew fell upon the camp in the night, the manna fell upon it.

<sup>10</sup>Then Moses heard the people weeping throughout their families, every man in the door of his tent. And the anger of the LORD was kindled greatly. Moses also was displeased. <sup>11</sup>And Moses said to the LORD, Why have You afflicted Your servant? And why have I not found favor in Your sight, so that You lay the burden of all this people upon me? <sup>12</sup>Have I conceived all this people? Did I bring them forth, that You should say to me, Carry them in your bosom like a nursing father carries the sucking child, to the land which You swore to their fathers? <sup>13</sup>From where should I get flesh to give to all this people? For they weep to me, saying, Give us flesh that we may eat. <sup>14</sup>I am not able to bear all this people alone, because it is too heavy for me. <sup>15</sup>And if You are going to deal this way with me, I beg You to kill me at once, if I have found favor in Your sight, and let me not see my misery.

<sup>16</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, Gather to Me seventy men of the elders of Israel, whom you know to be the elders of the people, and the officers over them. And bring them to the tabernacle of the congregation so that they may stand there with you. <sup>17</sup>And I will come down and talk with you there. And I will take of the spirit on you, and will put it on them, and they shall bear the burden of the people with you so that you do not bear it yourself alone. <sup>18</sup>And say to the people, Sanctify yourselves for tomorrow, and you shall eat flesh. For you have wept in the ears of the Lord, saying, Who shall give us flesh to eat, for it was well with us in Egypt? Therefore the LORD will give you flesh, and you shall eat. <sup>19</sup>You shall not eat one day, nor two days, nor five days, nor ten days, nor twenty days. <sup>20</sup>Even a whole month, until it comes out at your nostrils, and it is hateful to you, because you have despised the LORD among you, and have wept before Him, saying, Why did we come out of Egypt?

<sup>21</sup>And Moses said, The people among whom I am are six hundred thousand footmen. And You have said, I will give them flesh so that they may eat a whole month! <sup>22</sup>Shall the flocks and the herds be killed, to be enough for them? Or shall all the fish of the sea be gathered together for them, to be enough for them? <sup>23</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, Has the LORD's hand become short? You shall see now whether or not My word shall come to pass to you. <sup>24</sup>And Moses went out and told the people the words of the LORD, and gathered the seventy men of the elders of the people, and set them all around the tabernacle. <sup>25</sup>And the LORD came down in a cloud and spoke to him, and took of the spirit on him and gave it to the seventy elders. And it happened when the Spirit rested upon them, they prophesied. But they never did so again. <sup>26</sup>But two of the men stayed in the camp; the name of the one was Eldad, and the name of the other was Medad. And the Spirit rested upon them. And they were of those who were written, but did not go out to the tabernacle. And they prophesied in the camp. <sup>27</sup>And a young man ran and told Moses, and said, Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp. <sup>28</sup>And Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of Moses, one of his young men, answered and said, My lord Moses, make them cease. <sup>29</sup>And Moses said to him, Are you jealous for my sake? Would God that all the LORD's people were prophets, that the LORD would put His Spirit upon them! <sup>30</sup>And Moses went into the camp, he and the elders of Israel.

<sup>31</sup>And a wind went forth from the LORD. And it brought quails from the sea and let fall by the camp, about a day's journey on this side, and about a day's journey on the other side, all around the camp, and about two cubits high upon the face of the earth. <sup>32</sup>And the people stood up all that day and all night, and all the next day, and they gathered the quails. And he that gathered least gathered ten homers. And they spread them out for themselves all around the camp.<sup>33</sup> And while the flesh was yet between their teeth, before it was chewed, the wrath of the LORD was kindled against the people, and the LORD struck the people with a very great plague.<sup>34</sup> And he called the name of that place Graves of Lust, because there they buried the people that lusted.

<sup>35</sup>And the people moved from the Graves of Lust to Hazeroth, and stayed at Hazeroth.

CHAPTER 12

<sup>1</sup>And Miriam and Aaron spoke against Moses because of the Cushite woman whom he had taken. For he had taken a Cushite woman.<sup>2</sup> And they said, Has the LORD indeed spoken only by Moses? Has He not also spoken by us? And the LORD heard.<sup>3</sup> (Now the man Moses was very meek, more than all the men on the face of the earth.)<sup>4</sup> And the LORD spoke suddenly to Moses and to Aaron and to Miriam, You three come out to the tabernacle of the congregation. And the three came out.<sup>5</sup> And the LORD came down in the pillar of the cloud and stood in the door of the tabernacle, and called Aaron and Miriam. And they both came forth.<sup>6</sup> And He said, Hear now My words. If there is a prophet among you, I the LORD will make Myself known to him in a vision, and will speak to him in a dream.<sup>7</sup> Not so, My servant Moses. He is faithful in all My house.<sup>8</sup> I will speak with him mouth to mouth, even clearly, and not in dark speeches. And he shall behold the likeness of the LORD. Why then were you not afraid to speak against My servant Moses?<sup>9</sup> And the anger of the LORD was kindled against them, and He moved.<sup>10</sup> And the cloud moved from the tabernacle. And behold! Miriam became leprous, as snow. And Aaron looked on Miriam, and behold, she was leprous.<sup>11</sup> And Aaron said to Moses, Oh, my lord, I beg you, do not lay upon us the sin in which we have done foolishly, and in which we have sinned.<sup>12</sup> Let her not be like one dead, of whom the flesh is half gone when he comes out of his mother's womb.<sup>13</sup> And Moses cried to the LORD saying, Heal her now, O God, I beseech You.

<sup>14</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, If her father had but spit in her face, should she not be ashamed seven days? Let her be shut out from the camp seven days, and after that let her be received.<sup>15</sup> And Miriam was shut out from the camp seven days. And the people did not journey until Miriam was brought in.<sup>16</sup> And afterward the people moved from Hazeroth, and pitched in the wilderness of Paran.

CHAPTER 13

<sup>1</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses saying,<sup>2</sup> Send men so that they may search the land of Canaan, which I give to the sons of Israel. You shall send a man from every tribe of their fathers, everyone a ruler among them.<sup>3</sup> And Moses by the command of the LORD sent them from the wilderness of Paran. All those men were heads of the sons of Israel.<sup>4</sup> And these were their names: Of the tribe of Reuben, Shammua the son of Zaccur.<sup>5</sup> Of the tribe of Simeon, Shaphat the son of Hori.<sup>6</sup> Of the tribe of Judah, Caleb the son of Jephunneh.<sup>7</sup> Of the tribe of Issachar, Igal the son of Joseph.<sup>8</sup> Of the tribe of Ephraim, Oshea the son of Nun.<sup>9</sup> Of the tribe of Benjamin, Palti the son of Raphu.<sup>10</sup> Of the tribe of Zebulun, Gaddiel the son of Sodi.<sup>11</sup> Of the tribe of Joseph, of the tribe of Manasseh, Gaddi the son of Susi.<sup>12</sup> Of the tribe of Dan, Ammiel the son of Gemalli.<sup>13</sup> Of the tribe of Asher, Sethur the son of Michael.<sup>14</sup> Of the tribe of Naphtali, Nahbi the son of Vophsi.<sup>15</sup> Of the tribe of Gad, Geuel the son of Machi.<sup>16</sup> These were the names of the men whom Moses sent to spy out the land. And Moses called Oshea the son of Nun Joshua.

<sup>17</sup>And Moses sent them to spy out the land of Canaan, and said to them, Go up this way, southward, and go up into the mountain. <sup>18</sup>And see the land, what it is, and the people that live in it, whether it is strong or weak, few or many. <sup>19</sup>And see what the land is that they live in, whether it is good or bad; and what cities they dwell in, whether in tents or in strongholds; <sup>20</sup>and what the land is, whether fat or lean, whether there is wood in it or not. And be of good courage, and bring of the fruit of the land. Now the time was the time of first ripe grapes.

<sup>21</sup>So they went up and searched the land from the wilderness of Zin to Rehob, as men come to Hamath. <sup>22</sup>And they went up by the south and came to Hebron, where Ahiman, Sheshai, and Talmai, the sons of Anak were. (Now Hebron was built seven years before Zoan in Egypt.) <sup>23</sup>And they came to the valley of Eshcol and cut from there a branch with one cluster of grapes. And they carried it between two men upon a staff, and some of the pomegranates and of the figs. <sup>24</sup>The place was called the valley of Eshcol because of the clusters of grapes which the sons of Israel cut down from there.

<sup>25</sup>And they returned from spying out the land after forty days. <sup>26</sup>And they left and came to Moses and to Aaron, and to all the congregation of the sons of Israel, to the wilderness of Paran, to Kadesh. And they brought back word to them and to all the congregation, and showed them the fruit of the land. <sup>27</sup>And they told him and said, We came to the land where you sent us, and surely it flows with milk and honey. And this is the fruit of it. <sup>28</sup>However, the people that dwell in the land are strong, and the cities are walled, very great. And also we saw the children of Anak there. <sup>29</sup>The Amalekites dwell in the land of the south, and the Hittites, and the Jebusites, and the Amorites dwell in the mountains. And the Canaanites dwell by the sea and by the coast of Jordan. <sup>30</sup>And Caleb stilled the people before Moses and said, Let us go up at once and possess it. For we are well able to overcome it. <sup>31</sup>But the men that went up with him said, We are not able to go up against the people, for they are stronger than we. <sup>32</sup>And they brought up an evil report of the land which they had searched to the sons of Israel, saying, The land through which we have gone to search it, is a land that eats up those who live in it. And all the people whom we saw in it were men of stature. <sup>33</sup>And there we saw the giants, the sons of Anak, of the giants. And we were in our own sight like grasshoppers, and so we were in their sight.

CHAPTER 14

<sup>1</sup>And all the congregation lifted up their voice and cried. And the people wept that night. <sup>2</sup>And all the sons of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron. And the whole congregation said to them, Oh that we had died in the land of Egypt! Or, Oh that we had died in the wilderness! <sup>3</sup>And why has the LORD brought us into this land to fall by the sword, so that our wives and our sons should be a prey? Would it not be better for us to return to Egypt? <sup>4</sup>And they said to one another, Let us make a captain, and let us return to Egypt. <sup>5</sup>And Moses and Aaron fell on their faces before all the assembly of the congregation of the sons of Israel. <sup>6</sup>And Joshua the son of Nun, and Caleb the son of Jephunneh, of those that searched the land, tore their clothes. <sup>7</sup>And they spoke to all the company of the sons of Israel saying, The land which we passed through to search is an exceedingly good land. <sup>8</sup>If the LORD delights in us, then He will bring us into this land and give it to us, a land which flows with milk and honey. <sup>9</sup>Only do not rebel against the LORD, neither fear the people of the land. For they are bread for us. Their protection has moved from them, and the LORD is with us. Do not fear them. <sup>10</sup>But all the congregation said to stone them with stones. And the glory of the LORD appeared in the tabernacle of the congregation before all the sons of Israel.

<sup>11</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, How long will this people provoke Me? And how long will it be before they believe Me, for all the signs which I have shown among them? <sup>12</sup>I will strike them with the pestilence and will disinherit them, and will make of you a greater nation and mightier than they. <sup>13</sup>And Moses said to the LORD, Then the Egyptians will hear, for You have brought up this people in Your might from among them. <sup>14</sup>And they will say to the inhabitant of this land. They have heard that You, LORD, are among this people, who is seen eye to eye. You are the LORD, and Your cloud stands over them, and You go before them in a pillar of cloud by day, and in a pillar of fire by night. <sup>15</sup>And will you kill this people as one man? Then the nations who have heard Your fame will speak, saying, <sup>16</sup>Because the LORD was not able to bring this people into the land which He swore to them, therefore He has slain them in the wilderness. <sup>17</sup>And now, I beseech You, let the power of my Lord be great, according as You have spoken, saying, <sup>18</sup>The LORD is long-suffering, and of great mercy, forgiving iniquity and transgression, and by no means clearing the guilty, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the sons to the third and fourth generation. <sup>19</sup>I beseech You, pardon the iniquity of this people according to the greatness of Your mercy, and as You have forgiven this people from Egypt even until now.

<sup>20</sup>And the LORD said, I have pardoned according to your word. <sup>21</sup>But truly, as I live, all the earth shall be filled with the glory of the LORD. <sup>22</sup>Because all those men who have seen My glory and My miracles, which I did in Egypt and in the wilderness, and have tempted Me now these ten times, and have not listened to My voice, <sup>23</sup>surely they shall not see the land which I swore to their fathers, neither shall any of them that provoked Me see it. <sup>24</sup>But My servant Caleb, because he had another spirit with him, and has followed Me fully, I will bring him into the land into which he went. And his seed shall possess it. <sup>25</sup>(Now the Amalekites and the Canaanites lived in the valley.) Tomorrow turn and go into the wilderness by the way of the Red Sea.

<sup>26</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying, <sup>27</sup>How long shall I bear with this evil congregation, which murmurs against Me? I have heard the murmurings of the sons of Israel which they murmur against Me. <sup>28</sup>Say to them, As I live, says the LORD, as you have spoken in My ears, so I will do to you. <sup>29</sup>Your dead bodies shall fall in this wilderness, and all that were numbered of you, according to your whole number, from twenty years old and upward, who have murmured against Me, <sup>30</sup>you shall certainly not come into the land which I swore to make you live in, except Caleb the son of Jephunneh, and Joshua the son of Nun. <sup>31</sup>But your little ones, which you said should be a prey, I will bring them in and they shall know the land which you have despised. <sup>32</sup>But as for you, your bodies shall fall in this wilderness. <sup>33</sup>And your sons shall wander in the wilderness forty years and bear your fornications, until your dead bodies have wasted in the wilderness. <sup>34</sup>According to the number of the days in which you searched the land — forty days — each day for a year you shall bear your iniquities, forty years; and you shall know my breaking off. <sup>35</sup>I the LORD have spoken; I will surely do it to all this evil congregation who are gathered together against Me. They shall be destroyed in this wilderness, and there they shall die.

<sup>36</sup>And the men whom Moses sent to spy out the land, who returned and made all the congregation to murmur against him, by bringing up an evil report upon the land, <sup>37</sup>even those men that brought up the evil report upon the land died by the plague before the LORD. <sup>38</sup>But Joshua the son of Nun, and Caleb the son of Jephunneh, of the men that went to spy out the land, lived. <sup>39</sup>And Moses told these sayings to all the sons of Israel. And the people mourned greatly. <sup>40</sup>And they rose up early in the morning and went up to the top of the mountain, saying, Lo, we are here, and will go up to the place which the LORD has promised, for we have sinned. <sup>41</sup>And Moses said, Why do you now go beyond the command of the LORD, since it shall not be blessed? <sup>42</sup>Do not go up, for the LORD is not among you. And shall you not be beaten before your enemies? <sup>43</sup>For the Amalekites and the Canaanites are there before you, and you shall fall by the sword. Because you have turned away from the LORD, therefore the LORD will not be with you. <sup>44</sup>But they presumed to go up to the hilltop. But the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and Moses, did not leave the camp. <sup>45</sup>And the Amalekites and the Canaanites who were living in that mountain came down and struck them, and beat them down, to Hormah.

CHAPTER 15

<sup>1</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, <sup>2</sup>Speak to the sons of Israel and say to them, When you have come into the land of your dwelling places, which I give to you, <sup>3</sup>and will make an offering by fire to the LORD, a burnt offering or a sacrifice in performing a vow, or in a free-will offering, or in your solemn feasts, to make a sweet savor to the LORD, from the herd or from the flock, <sup>4</sup>then he who offers his offering to the LORD shall bring a food offering of a tenth deal of flour mixed with the fourth of a hin of oil. <sup>5</sup>And the fourth of a hin of wine for a drink offering shall you prepare with the burnt offering, or sacrifice, for one lamb. <sup>6</sup>Or for a ram, you shall prepare a food offering, two-tenths parts of flour mixed with the third of a hin of oil. <sup>7</sup>And for a drink offering you shall offer the third of a hin of wine for a sweet savor to the LORD. <sup>8</sup>And when you prepare a bull, a burnt offering, or a sacrifice in performing a vow, or peace offerings to the LORD, <sup>9</sup>then he shall bring with the bull, a food offering of three-tenths parts of flour mixed with half a hin of oil. <sup>10</sup>And you shall bring for a drink offering half a hin of wine, an offering made by fire, of a sweet savor to the LORD. <sup>11</sup>So it shall be done for one bull, or for one ram, or for a lamb, or a kid. <sup>12</sup>According to the number that you shall prepare, so you shall do to everyone according to their number. <sup>13</sup>All that are born of the country shall do these things in this way, in offering an offering made by fire, of a sweet savor to the LORD. <sup>14</sup>And if a stranger stays with you, or whoever is among you in your generations, and will offer an offering made by fire of a sweet savor to the LORD; as you do, so he shall do. <sup>15</sup>One ordinance for you of the congregation and also for the stranger that stays with you, an ordinance forever in your generations. As you are, so the stranger shall be before the LORD. <sup>16</sup>One law and one way shall be for you and for the stranger that lives with you.

<sup>17</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, <sup>18</sup>Speak to the sons of Israel and say to them, When you come into the land where I bring you, <sup>19</sup>then when you eat of the bread of the land, you shall offer up a heave offering to the LORD. <sup>20</sup>You shall offer up a cake of the first of your dough, a heave offering, as the heave offering of the threshing-floor, so you shall lift it up. <sup>21</sup>Of the first of your dough you shall give to the LORD a heave offering in your generations. <sup>22</sup>And if you have erred and have not done all these commandments which the LORD has spoken to Moses' <sup>23</sup>all that the LORD has commanded you by the hand of Moses from the day that the LORD commanded, and onward in your generations, <sup>24</sup>then if it is committed by ignorance without the knowledge of the congregation, all the congregation shall offer up one young bull for a burnt offering, for a sweet savor to the LORD, with its food offering and its drink offering, according to the ordinance, and one kid of the goats for a sin offering. <sup>25</sup>And the priest shall make an atonement for all the congregation of the sons of Israel, and it shall be forgiven them, for it is ignorance. And they shall bring their offering, a sacrifice made by fire to the LORD, and their sin offering before the LORD, for their ignorance. <sup>26</sup>And it shall be forgiven all the congregation of the sons of Israel and the stranger that lives among them, since all the people were in ignorance.

<sup>27</sup>And if one soul sins through ignorance, then he shall bring a female goat of the first year for a sin offering. <sup>28</sup>And the priest shall make an atonement for the soul that errs, when he sins by ignorance before the LORD, to make an atonement for him. And it shall be forgiven him. <sup>29</sup>And you shall have one law for him who acts through ignorance; for him that is home-born among the sons of Israel and for the stranger that stays among them. <sup>30</sup>But the soul who acts with a high hand, whether home-born or of the stranger, the same blasphemes the LORD. And that soul shall be cut off from among his people. <sup>31</sup>Because he has despised the word of the LORD and has broken His commandment, that soul shall be utterly cut off. His iniquity shall be upon him.

<sup>32</sup>And while the sons of Israel were in the wilderness, they found a man gathering sticks on the sabbath day. <sup>33</sup>And those who found him gathering sticks brought him to Moses and Aaron and to all the congregation. <sup>34</sup>And they put him under guard because it had not been clearly said what should be done to him. <sup>35</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, The man shall surely be put to death. All the congregation shall stone him with stones outside the camp. <sup>36</sup>And all the congregation brought him outside the camp and stoned him with stones, and he died, even as the LORD commanded Moses.

<sup>37</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, <sup>38</sup>Speak to the sons of Israel and command them that they make fringes in the borders of their garments throughout their generations, and that they put upon the fringe of the borders a ribbon of blue. <sup>39</sup>And it shall be to you for a fringe, that you may look upon it and remember all the commands of the LORD, and do them; and so that you do not seek after your own heart and your own eyes, after which you go astray, <sup>40</sup>that you may remember and do all My command, and be holy to your God. <sup>41</sup>I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, to be your God. I am the LORD your God.

CHAPTER 16

<sup>1</sup>Now Korah, the son of Izhar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi, took both Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab, and On, the son of Peleth, sons of Reuben; <sup>2</sup>even they rose up before Moses with some of the sons of Israel, two hundred and fifty rulers of the assembly, elect men in the congregation, men who were well-known. <sup>3</sup>And they gathered themselves together against Moses and Aaron, and said to them, You take too much upon you, since all the congregation are holy, every one of them, and the LORD is among them. Why then do you lift yourselves up above the congregation of the LORD?

<sup>4</sup>And Moses heard and fell on his face. <sup>5</sup>And he spoke to Korah and to all his company, saying, Even tomorrow the LORD will show who are His, and him who is holy, and will cause him to come near to Him; even him whom He has chosen, He will cause to come near to Him. <sup>6</sup>Do this. Take censers, Korah and all his company, <sup>7</sup>and put fire in them, and put incense in them before the LORD tomorrow. And the man whom the LORD chooses, he shall be holy. You take too much upon you, sons of Levi! <sup>8</sup>And Moses said to Korah, Hear now you sons of Levi; <sup>9</sup>is it only a small thing to you that the God of Israel has separated you from the congregation of Israel, to bring you near Himself to do the service of the tabernacle of the LORD and to stand before the congregation to minister to them? <sup>10</sup>And He has brought you near, and all your brothers the sons of Levi with you. And do you seek the priesthood also? <sup>11</sup>For this cause you and all your company are gathered together against the LORD. And what is Aaron, that you murmur against him?

<sup>12</sup>And Moses sent to call Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab. And they said, We will not come up. <sup>13</sup>Is it a small thing that you have brought us up out of a land that flows with milk and honey, to kill us in the wilderness, but must you also seize dominion over us? <sup>14</sup>Besides, you have not brought us into a land that flows with milk and honey, nor given us inheritance in fields and vineyards. Will you put out the eyes of these men? We will not come up. <sup>15</sup>And Moses was very angry, and said to the LORD, Do not respect their offering. I have not taken one ass from them, neither have I hurt one of them. <sup>16</sup>And Moses said to Korah, Stand before the LORD, you and all your company — you and they, and Aaron, tomorrow. <sup>17</sup>And every man take his censer and put incense in them, and let every man bring his censer before the LORD, two hundred and fifty censers, you also, and Aaron, each with his censer. <sup>18</sup>And every man took his censer and put fire in them, and laid incense on it, and stood in the door of the tabernacle of the congregation with Moses and Aaron. <sup>19</sup>And Korah gathered all the congregation against them, to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. And the glory of the LORD appeared to all the congregation.

<sup>20</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying, <sup>21</sup>Separate yourselves from among this congregation, so that I may devour them in a moment. <sup>22</sup>And they fell upon their faces and said, O God, the God of the spirits of all flesh, shall one man sin and will You be angry with all the congregation? <sup>23</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, <sup>24</sup>Speak to the congregation saying, Get away from the tent of Korah and Dathan and Abiram. <sup>25</sup>And Moses rose up and went to Dathan and Abiram. And the elders of Israel followed him. <sup>26</sup>And he spoke to the congregation, saying, I pray you, get away from the tents of these wicked men. And touch nothing of theirs lest you be destroyed in all their sins. <sup>27</sup>So they got away from the tent of Korah, Dathan and Abiram, on every side. And Dathan and Abiram came out and stood in the door of their tents, and their wives, and their sons, and their little sons. <sup>28</sup>And Moses said, By this you shall know that the LORD has sent me to do all these works, and that not from my own heart. <sup>29</sup>If these men die the common death of all men, or if they are visited according to the examination of all men, the LORD has not sent me. <sup>30</sup>But if the LORD makes a new thing, and the earth opens her mouth and swallows them up with all that they have, and they go down alive into the pit, then you shall understand that these men have provoked the LORD. <sup>31</sup>And it happened, as he had made an end of speaking all these words, the ground under them split apart. <sup>32</sup>And the earth opened her mouth and swallowed them up, and their houses, and all the men who were for Korah, and all their goods. <sup>33</sup>They and all that they had went down alive into the pit, and the earth closed upon them. And they perished from among the congregation. <sup>34</sup>And all Israel around them fled at their cry. For they said, Lest the earth swallow us up. <sup>35</sup>And there came out a fire from the LORD and burned up the two hundred and fifty men who offered incense.

<sup>36</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, <sup>37</sup>Speak to Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest, that he take up the censers out of the burning, and scatter the fire yonder. For they are holy. <sup>38</sup>The censers of these sinners against their own souls, let them make them into broad plates, a covering for the altar; for they offered them before the LORD, therefore they are made holy. And they shall be a sign to the sons of Israel. <sup>39</sup>And Eleazar the priest took the bronze censers, the ones with which those who had been burned up had offered, and they were made into broad plates, a covering of the altar, <sup>40</sup>a memorial to the sons of Israel, that no stranger not of the seed of Aaron may come near to offer incense before the LORD, so that he may not be as Korah and as his company — as the LORD said to him by the hand of Moses.

<sup>41</sup>But on the next day all the congregation of the sons of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron saying, You have killed the people of the LORD. <sup>42</sup>And it happened when the congregation was gathered together against Moses and against Aaron, they looked toward the tabernacle of the congregation. And behold! The cloud covered it, and the glory of the LORD appeared. <sup>43</sup>And Moses and Aaron came before the tabernacle of the congregation. <sup>44</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, <sup>45</sup>Get away from this congregation so that I may consume them as in a moment. And they fell upon their faces. <sup>46</sup>And Moses said to Aaron, Take a censer, and put fire in it from the altar, and put on incense, and go quickly to the congregation and make an atonement for them. For wrath has gone out from the LORD. The plague has begun. <sup>47</sup>And Aaron did as Moses commanded and ran into the midst of the congregation. And behold! The plague had begun among the people. And he put on incense, and made an atonement for the people. <sup>48</sup>And he stood between the dead and the living, and the plague was stayed. <sup>49</sup>And those who died in the plague were fourteen thousand, seven hundred, besides the ones who died about the matter of Korah. <sup>50</sup>And Aaron returned to Moses to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and the plague was stayed.

<sup>1</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, <sup>2</sup>Speak to the sons of Israel, and take a rod from each of them for a father's house, of all their rulers, for the house of their fathers, twelve rods. Write every man's name upon his rod. <sup>3</sup>And you shall write Aaron's name upon the rod of Levi. For one rod shall be for the head of the house of their fathers. <sup>4</sup>And you shall lay them up in the tabernacle of the congregation before the testimony, where I will meet with you. <sup>5</sup>And it shall be, the rod of the man whom I shall choose shall blossom. And I will make to cease from Me the murmurings of the sons of Israel by which they murmur against you. <sup>6</sup>And Moses spoke to the sons of Israel, and every one of their rulers gave him a rod for each ruler, for their fathers' house, twelve rods. And the rod of Aaron was among their rods.

<sup>7</sup>And Moses laid up the rods before the LORD in the tabernacle of witness. <sup>8</sup>And it happened on the next day Moses went into the tabernacle of witness. And behold! The rod of Aaron for the house of Levi had budded and had brought forth buds, and had bloomed, and had yielded almonds. <sup>9</sup>And Moses brought out all the rods from before the LORD to all the sons of Israel. And they looked, and each one took his rod.

<sup>10</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, Bring Aaron's rod again before the testimony, to be kept as a token against the rebels. And you shall completely take away their murmurings from Me so that they do not die. <sup>11</sup>And Moses did as the LORD commanded him, so he did.

<sup>12</sup>And the sons of Israel spoke to Moses saying, Behold, we die, we perish, we all perish. <sup>13</sup>Whoever comes near the tabernacle of the LORD shall die. Shall we be consumed to die?

CHAPTER 18

<sup>1</sup>And the LORD said to Aaron, You and your sons, and your father's house with you shall bear the iniquity of the sanctuary. And you and your sons with you shall bear the iniquity of the priesthood. <sup>2</sup>And bring your brothers also of the tribe of Levi, the tribe of your father with you, so that they may be joined to you and minister to you, you and your sons with you, before the tabernacle of witness. <sup>3</sup>And they shall keep your charge and the charge of all the tabernacle. Only they shall not come near the vessels of the sanctuary and the altar, so that neither they nor you also may die. <sup>4</sup>And they shall be joined to you, and keep the charge of the tabernacle of the congregation, for all the service of the tabernacle. And a stranger shall not come near you. <sup>5</sup>And you shall keep the charge of the sanctuary and the charge of the altar, so that there may be no wrath any more upon the sons of Israel. <sup>6</sup>And I, behold, I have taken your brothers the Levites from among the sons of Israel. They are given to you as a gift for the LORD, to do the service of the tabernacle of the congregation. <sup>7</sup>Therefore you and your sons with you shall keep your priests' office for everything of the altar and inside the veil. And you shall serve. I have given your priest's office as a service of gift. And the stranger that comes near shall be put to death.

<sup>8</sup>And the LORD spoke to Aaron, Behold, I have also given you the charge of My heave offerings of all the holy things of the sons of Israel. I have given them to you for the anointing, and to your sons, by an ordinance forever. <sup>9</sup>This shall be yours of the most holy things, reserved from the fire, every sacrifice of theirs, every food offering of theirs, and every trespass offering of theirs, which they shall give Me. These are most holy for you and for your sons. <sup>10</sup>You shall eat it in the holy of holies. Every male shall eat it. It shall be holy to you. <sup>11</sup>And this is yours, the heave offering of their gift, with all the wave offerings of the sons of Israel. I have given them to you and to your sons and to your daughters with you, by a statute forever. Everyone that is clean in your house shall eat it. <sup>12</sup>All the best of the oil, and all the best of the wine, and of the wheat, the first-fruits of them which they shall offer to the LORD, I have given them to you. <sup>13</sup>The first fruits of all that is in the land, which they shall bring to the LORD, shall be yours. Everyone that is clean in your house shall eat of it. <sup>14</sup>Everything devoted in Israel shall be yours. <sup>15</sup>Everything that opens the womb in all flesh, which they bring to the LORD, of men or animals, shall be yours. Nevertheless, the first-born of man you shall surely redeem, and the first-born of unclean animals you shall redeem. <sup>16</sup>And those that are to be redeemed from a month old you shall redeem, according to your judgment for the money of five shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, which is twenty gerahs. <sup>17</sup>But the first-born of a cow, or the first-born of a sheep, or the first-born of a goat, you shall not redeem. They are holy. You shall sprinkle their blood upon the altar, and shall burn their fat, an offering made by fire, for a sweet savor to the LORD. <sup>18</sup>And their flesh shall be yours, as the wave breast and as the right shoulder are yours. <sup>19</sup>All the heave offerings of the holy things, which the sons of Israel offer to the LORD, I have given you and your sons and your daughters with you, by a law forever. It is a covenant of salt forever before the LORD to you and to your seed with you.

<sup>20</sup>And the LORD said to Aaron, You shall have no inheritance in their land, neither shall you have any part among them. I am your part and your inheritance among the sons of Israel. <sup>21</sup>And behold, I have given the sons of Levi all the tenth in Israel for an inheritance, for their service which they serve, the service of the tabernacle of the congregation. <sup>22</sup>Neither must the sons of Israel come near the tabernacle of the congregation from now on, lest they bear sin and die. <sup>23</sup>But the Levites shall do the service of the tabernacle of the congregation, and they shall bear their iniquity, a statute forever throughout your generations, that among the sons of Israel they have no inheritance. <sup>24</sup>But the tithes of the sons of Israel, which they offer as a heave offering to the LORD, I have given to the Levites to inherit.

Therefore I have said to them, Among the sons of Israel they shall have no inheritance.

<sup>25</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, <sup>26</sup>And you shall speak to the Levites, and you shall say to them, When you take tithes from the sons of Israel, which I have given you from them for your inheritance, then you shall offer up a heave offering of it for the LORD, a tenth of the tithe. <sup>27</sup>And your heave offering shall be credited to you as grain of the threshing-floor, and as the fullness of the wine-press. <sup>28</sup>So you also shall offer a heave offering to the LORD of all your tithes which you receive from the sons of Israel. And you shall give from it the LORD's offering to Aaron the priest. <sup>29</sup>Out of all your gifts you shall offer every heave offering of the LORD, of all the best of it, the holy part of it out of it. <sup>30</sup>And you shall say to them, When you have lifted up the best of it, then it shall be credited to the Levites as the increase of the threshing-floor, and as the increase of the wine-press. <sup>31</sup>And you shall eat it in every place, you and your households. For it is your reward for your service in the tabernacle of the congregation. <sup>32</sup>And you shall bear no sin because of it, when you have lifted up the best of it. Neither shall you defile the holy things of the sons of Israel, lest you die.

CHAPTER 19

<sup>1</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses and to Aaron saying, <sup>2</sup>This is the ordinance of the law which the LORD has commanded, saying, Speak to the sons of Israel that they bring you a red heifer, a perfect one, in which there is no blemish, on which no yoke ever came. <sup>3</sup>And you shall give it to Eleazar the priest that he may bring it forth outside the camp. And he shall kill her before his face. <sup>4</sup>And Eleazar the priest shall take of its blood with his finger and sprinkle of its blood directly before the tabernacle of the congregation seven times. <sup>5</sup>And he shall burn the heifer in his sight, its skin and its flesh and its blood with its dung, he shall burn. <sup>6</sup>And the priest shall take cedar-wood and hyssop and scarlet, and throw it into the midst of the burning of the heifer. <sup>7</sup>Then the priest shall wash his clothes, and he shall bathe his flesh in water. And afterward he shall come into the camp, and the priest shall be unclean until the evening. <sup>8</sup>And he who burns her shall wash his clothes in water and bathe his flesh in water, and shall be unclean until the evening. <sup>9</sup>And a man that is clean shall gather up the ashes of the heifer, and lay up outside the camp in a clean place, and it shall be kept for the congregation of the sons of Israel for a water of separation. It is a cleansing for sin.

<sup>10</sup>And he who gathers the ashes of the heifer shall wash his clothes and be unclean until the evening. And it shall be to the sons of Israel, and to the stranger that lives among them, for a statute forever.

<sup>11</sup>He who touches the dead body of any man shall be unclean seven days. <sup>12</sup>He shall purify himself with it on the third day, and on the seventh day he shall be clean. But if he does not purify himself the third day, then the seventh day he shall not be clean. <sup>13</sup>Whoever touches the dead body of any man that is dead, and does not purify himself, defiles the tabernacle of the LORD. And that soul shall be cut off from Israel. Because the water of separation was not sprinkled upon him, he shall be unclean. His uncleanness is still upon him.

<sup>14</sup>This is the law when a man dies in a tent. All that come into the tent, and all in the tent, shall be unclean seven days. <sup>15</sup>And every open vessel which has no covering bound upon it, it is unclean. <sup>16</sup>And whoever touches one that is killed with a sword in the open fields, or a dead body, or a bone of a man, or a grave, shall be unclean seven days. <sup>17</sup>And for the unclean they shall take of the ashes of the burnt heifer of cleansing for sin, and running water shall be put to it in a vessel. <sup>18</sup>And a clean person shall take hyssop and dip in the water, and sprinkle upon the tent and upon all the vessels, and upon the persons that were there, and upon him that touched a bone, or one killed, or one dead, or a grave. <sup>19</sup>And the clean person shall sprinkle on the unclean on the third day, and on the seventh day. And on the seventh day he shall purify himself, and wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water. And he shall be clean at evening. <sup>20</sup>But the man that shall be unclean, and shall not purify himself, that soul shall be cut off from among the congregation, because he has defiled the sanctuary of the LORD. The water of separation has not been sprinkled upon him. He is unclean. <sup>21</sup>And it shall be a perpetual law to them, that he who sprinkles the water of separation shall wash his clothes. And he that touches the water of separation shall be unclean until evening. <sup>22</sup>And whatever the unclean touches shall be unclean. And the soul who touches shall be unclean until evening.

CHAPTER 20

<sup>1</sup>Then the sons of Israel came, the whole congregation, into the desert of Zin in the first month. And the people stayed in Kadesh. And Miriam died there and was buried there. <sup>2</sup>And there was no water for the congregation. And they gathered themselves together against Moses and against Aaron. <sup>3</sup>And the people contended with Moses and spoke, saying, Oh that we had died when our brothers died before the LORD! <sup>4</sup>And why have you brought up the congregation of the LORD into this wilderness, so that we and our cattle should die there? <sup>5</sup>And why have you made us to come up out of Egypt, to bring us into this evil place? It is no place of seed or of figs or of vines or of pomegranates. And there is no water to drink. <sup>6</sup>And Moses and Aaron went from the presence of the assembly to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and they fell upon their faces. And the glory of the LORD appeared to them.

<sup>7</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, <sup>8</sup>Take the rod, and gather the assembly together, you and Aaron your brother, and speak to the rock before their eyes. And it shall give forth its water, and you shall bring forth to them water out of the rock. So you shall give the congregation and their animals drink. <sup>9</sup>And Moses took the rod from before the LORD as He commanded him. <sup>10</sup>And Moses and Aaron gathered the congregation together before the rock, and he said to them, Hear now you rebels. Must we bring water for you out of this rock? <sup>11</sup>And Moses lifted up his hand, and with his rod he struck the rock twice. And the water came out plentifully, and the congregation and their animals drank. <sup>12</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, Because you did not believe Me, to sanctify Me in the eyes of the sons of Israel, therefore you shall not bring this congregation into the land which I have given them.

<sup>13</sup>These are the Waters of Strife, because the sons of Israel fought with the LORD, and He showed Himself holy among them.

<sup>14</sup>And Moses sent messengers from Kadesh to the king of Edom, so says your brother Israel, You know all the trouble that has happened to us, <sup>15</sup>how our fathers went down into Egypt, and we have lived in Egypt a long time. And the Egyptians troubled us and our fathers. <sup>16</sup>And when we cried to the LORD, He heard our voice and sent an Angel, and has brought us forth out of Egypt. And behold! We are in Kadesh, a city in the outermost part of your border. <sup>17</sup>Let us pass, I pray you, through your country. We will not pass through the fields, nor through the vineyards, neither will we drink of the water of the wells. We will go by the king's highway. We will not turn to the right hand nor to the left until we have passed your borders. <sup>18</sup>And Edom said to him, You shall not pass by me, lest I come out against you with the sword. <sup>19</sup>And the sons of Israel said to him, We will go by the highway. And if I and my cattle drink of your water, then I will pay for it. Without doing anything, I will only go through on my feet. <sup>20</sup>And he said, You shall not go through. And Edom came out against him with many people, and with a strong hand. <sup>21</sup>So Edom refused to give Israel passage through his border. Therefore Israel turned away from him.

<sup>22</sup>And the sons of Israel, the whole congregation, moved from Kadesh and came to Mount Hor. <sup>23</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron in Mount Hor, by the border of the land of Edom, saying, <sup>24</sup>Aaron shall be gathered to his people. For he shall not enter into the land which I have given to the sons of Israel, because you rebelled against My word at the Waters of Strife. <sup>25</sup>Take Aaron and Eleazar his son, and bring them up to Mount Hor. <sup>26</sup>And strip Aaron of his garments, and put them upon Eleazar his son. And Aaron shall be gathered to his people, and shall die there. <sup>27</sup>And Moses did as the LORD commanded. And they went up into Mount Hor in the sight of all the congregation. <sup>28</sup>And Moses stripped Aaron of his garments, and put them upon Eleazar his son. And Aaron died there in the top of the mount. And Moses and Eleazar came down from the mountain. <sup>29</sup>And when all the congregation saw that Aaron was dead, they mourned for Aaron thirty days, all the house of Israel.

CHAPTER 21

<sup>1</sup>And king Arad the Canaanite, who lived in the south, heard that Israel came by the way of the spies, then he fought against Israel and took prisoners of them. <sup>2</sup>And Israel vowed a vow to the LORD and said, If You will indeed deliver this people into my hand, then I will completely destroy their cities. <sup>3</sup>And the LORD listened to the voice of Israel and delivered up the Canaanites. And they completely destroyed them and their cities. And he called the name of the place Hormah.

<sup>4</sup>And they moved from Mount Hor by the way of the Red Sea, to go around the land of Edom. And the soul of the people was very discouraged because of the way. <sup>5</sup>And the people spoke against God and against Moses, Why have you brought us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness? For there is no bread, neither is there any water. And our soul hates this light bread. <sup>6</sup>And the LORD sent fiery serpents among the people, and they bit the people. And many people of Israel died. <sup>7</sup>And the people came to Moses and said, We have sinned, for we have spoken against the LORD and against you. Pray to the LORD that He take away the serpents from us. And Moses prayed for the people. <sup>8</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, Make a fiery serpent and set it on a pole. And it shall be when anyone sees it, he shall live. <sup>9</sup>And Moses made a serpent of brass, and put it upon a pole. And it happened that if a serpent had bitten any man, when he looked upon the serpent of brass, he lived.

<sup>10</sup>And the sons of Israel went forward and pitched in Oboth. <sup>11</sup>And they moved from Oboth and pitched at Ije-abarim in the wilderness before Moab, toward the sunrise. <sup>12</sup>From there they moved and pitched in the valley of Zered. <sup>13</sup>From there they moved and pitched on the other side of Arnon, in the wilderness that comes out of the borders of the Amorites; for Arnon is in the border of Moab, between Moab and the Amorites. <sup>14</sup>Therefore it is said in the book of the wars of the LORD, what He did in the Red Sea, and in the brooks of Arnon, <sup>15</sup>and at the stream of the brooks that goes down to the dwelling of Ar and lies upon the border of Moab. <sup>16</sup>And from there they went to Beer. That is the well of which the LORD spoke to Moses, Gather the people together, and I will give them water.

And from the wilderness they went to Mattanah,<sup>19</sup> and from Mattanah to Nahaliel, and from Nahaliel to Bemoth,<sup>20</sup> and from Bemoth in the valley, in the country of Moab, they worked to the top of Pisgah, which looks toward the wilderness.

<sup>21</sup>And Israel sent messengers to Sihon king of the Amorites, saying, <sup>22</sup>Let me pass through your land. We will not turn into the fields or into the vineyards. We will not drink the waters of the well. We will go along by the king's highway until we are past your borders. <sup>23</sup>And Sihon would not allow Israel to pass through his border. But Sihon gathered all his people together, and went out against Israel in the wilderness. And he came to Jahaz and fought against Israel. <sup>24</sup>And Israel struck him with the edge of the sword and possessed his land from Arnon to Jabbok, even to the sons of Ammon. For the border of the sons of Ammon was strong. <sup>25</sup>And Israel took all these cities. And Israel lived in all the cities of the Amorites in Heshbon, and in all its villages. <sup>26</sup>For Heshbon was the city of Sihon the king of the Amorites, who had fought against the former king of Moab and had taken all his land out of his hand, even to Arnon. <sup>27</sup>Therefore they who speak in proverbs say, Come into Heshbon. Let the city of Sihon be built and prepared. <sup>28</sup>For there has gone out a fire from Heshbon, a flame from the city of Sihon. It has consumed Ar of Moab, the lords of the high places of Arnon. <sup>29</sup>Woe to you, Moab! You are undone, O people of Chemosh! He has given his sons to be runaways, and his daughters to go into captivity, to Sihon king of the Amorites. <sup>30</sup>We have cast them down. Heshbon has perished even to Dibon, and we have laid them waste even to Nophah which is to Medeba.

<sup>32</sup>And Moses sent to spy out Jaazer, and they took the villages of it and drove out the Amorites there. <sup>33</sup>And they turned and went up by the way of Bashan. And Og the king of Bashan went out against them, he and all his people, to the battle at Edrei. <sup>34</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, Do not fear him, for I have delivered him into your hand, and all his people and his land. And you shall do to him as you did to Sihon king of the Amorites who lived at Heshbon. <sup>35</sup>So they struck him and his sons and all his people, until there was none left him alive. And they possessed his land.

CHAPTER 22

<sup>1</sup>And the sons of Israel went forward and pitched in the plains of Moab on this side Jordan by Jericho.

<sup>2</sup>And Balak the son of Zippor saw all that Israel had done to the Amorites. <sup>3</sup>And Moab was much afraid of the people because they were many. And Moab was worried because of the sons of Israel. <sup>4</sup>And Moab said to the elders of Midian, Now this company is licking up all around us, as the ox licks up the grass of the field. And Balak the son of Zippor was king of the Moabites at that time. <sup>5</sup>He sent messengers therefore to Balaam the son of Beor, to Pethor, by the river of the land of the sons of his people, to call him, saying, Behold! A people come out from Egypt. Behold! They cover the face of the earth, and they are staying across from me. <sup>6</sup>Therefore, I pray you, come now and curse this people for me. For they are too mighty for me. Perhaps I shall prevail so that we may strike them, and so that I may drive them out of the land. For I know that he whom you bless is blessed, and he whom you curse is cursed.

<sup>7</sup>And the elders of Moab and the elders of Midian moved with the rewards of divination in their hand. And they came to Balaam and spoke the words of Balak to him. <sup>8</sup>And he said to them, stay here tonight, and I will bring you word again, as the LORD shall speak to me. And the leaders of Moab stayed with Balaam.

<sup>9</sup>And God came to Balaam and said, What men are these with you? <sup>10</sup>And Balaam said to God, Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, has sent to me, saying, <sup>11</sup>Behold! A people has come out of Egypt which covers the face of the earth. Come now, curse them for me. Perhaps, I shall be able to overcome them and drive them out. <sup>12</sup>And God said to Balaam, You shall not go with them. You shall not curse the people, for they are blessed. <sup>13</sup>And Balaam rose up in the morning and said to the leaders of Balak, Go into your land, for the LORD refuses to let me go with you.

<sup>14</sup>And the leaders of Moab rose up. And they went to Balak and said, Balaam refuses to come with us.

<sup>15</sup>And Balak sent leaders again, more and more honorable than those. <sup>16</sup>And they came to Balaam and said to him, So says Balak the son of Zippor, Please let nothing hinder you from coming to me. <sup>17</sup>For I will raise you up to very great honor, and I will do whatever you say to me. Please come then and curse this people for me. <sup>18</sup>And Balaam answered and said to the servants of Balak, If Balak would give me his house full of silver and gold, I cannot go beyond the word of the LORD my God, to do less or more. <sup>19</sup>But please now stay here also this night so that I may know what more the LORD will say to me. <sup>20</sup>And God came to Balaam at night and said to him, If the men come to call you, rise up, go with them. But still, the word which I shall say to you, that you shall do. <sup>21</sup>And Balaam rose up in the morning and saddled his ass, and went with the rulers of Moab.

<sup>22</sup>And God's anger was kindled because he went. And the Angel of the LORD stood in the way as an enemy against him. And he was riding upon his ass, and his two servants with him. <sup>23</sup>And the ass saw the Angel of the LORD standing in the way, and His sword drawn in His hand. And the ass turned aside out of the way and went into the field. And Balaam struck the ass, to turn her into the way. <sup>24</sup>But the Angel of the LORD stood in a path of the vineyards, a wall on this side, and a wall on that side. <sup>25</sup>And when the ass saw the Angel of the LORD, she pushed herself into the wall and crushed Balaam's foot against the wall. And he struck her again. <sup>26</sup>And the Angel of the LORD went further and stood in a narrow place, where there was no way to turn either to the right hand or to the left. <sup>27</sup>And when the ass saw the Angel of the LORD, she fell down under Balaam. And Balaam's anger was kindled, and he struck the ass with a staff. <sup>28</sup>And the LORD opened the mouth of the ass, and she said to Balaam, What have I done to you, that you have beaten me these three times? <sup>29</sup>And Balaam said to the ass, Because you have mocked me. I wish there were a sword in my hand, for now I would kill you. <sup>30</sup>And the ass said to Balaam, Am I not your ass, upon which you have ridden ever since I was yours, to this day? Was I ever known to do so to you? And he said, No. <sup>31</sup>Then the LORD opened the eyes of Balaam, and he saw the Angel of the LORD standing in the way, and His sword drawn in His hand. And he bowed down his head, and fell on his face. <sup>32</sup>And the Angel of the LORD said to him, Why have you beaten your ass these three times? Behold! I went out to be an enemy to you, because your way is perverse before Me. <sup>33</sup>And the ass saw Me and turned from Me these three times. Unless she had turned from Me, surely now I also would have killed you and saved her alive. <sup>34</sup>And Balaam said to the Angel of the LORD, I have sinned. For I did not know that You stood in the way against me. Now therefore, if it displeases You, I will go back again. <sup>35</sup>And the Angel of the LORD said to Balaam, Go with the men. But only the word that I shall speak to you, that you shall speak. So Balaam went with the leaders of Balak.

<sup>36</sup>And when Balak heard that Balaam had come, he went out to meet him, to a city of Moab, in the border of Arnon, which is in the outermost border. <sup>37</sup>And Balak said to Balaam, Did I not earnestly send to you to call you? Why did you not come to me? Am I not able indeed to lift you up to honor? <sup>38</sup>And Balaam said to Balak, Lo, I have come to you. Have I now any power at all to say anything? The word that God puts in my mouth, that I shall speak. <sup>39</sup>And Balaam went with Balak, and they came to Kirjath-huzoth. <sup>40</sup>And Balak offered oxen and sheep, and sent to Balaam and to the leaders that were with him. <sup>41</sup>And it happened on the next day Balak took Balaam and brought him up into the high places of Baal, so that from there he might see the edge of the people.

CHAPTER 23

<sup>1</sup>And Balaam said to Balak, Build me here seven altars, and prepare here seven oxen and seven rams for me. <sup>2</sup>And Balak did as Balaam had spoken. And Balak and Balaam offered on the altar a bull and a ram. <sup>3</sup>And Balaam said to Balak, Stand by your burnt offering, and I will go. Perhaps the LORD will come to meet me. And whatever He shows me I will tell you. And he went to a high place. <sup>4</sup>And God met Balaam. And he said to Him, I have prepared seven altars, and I have offered upon the altar a bull and a ram. <sup>5</sup>And the LORD put a word in Balaam's mouth and said, Return to Balak, and so you shall speak. <sup>6</sup>And he returned to him. And lo, he stood by his burnt sacrifice, he and all the leaders of Moab. <sup>7</sup>And he took up his parable, and said, Balak the king of Moab has brought me from Aram, out of the mountains of the east, saying, Come, curse Jacob for me, and come, defy Israel. <sup>8</sup>How shall I curse him whom God has not cursed? Or how shall I defy him whom the LORD has not defied? <sup>9</sup>For from the top of the rocks I see him, and from the hills I behold him. Lo, the people shall dwell alone, and shall not be counted among the nations. <sup>10</sup>Who can count the dust of Jacob, and the number of the fourth of Israel? Let me die the death of the righteous, and let my last end be like his! <sup>11</sup>And Balak said to Balaam, What have you done to me? I took you to curse my enemies, and behold, you have kept on blessing them! <sup>12</sup>And he answered and said, Must I not be careful to speak that which the LORD has put in my mouth?

<sup>13</sup>And Balak said to him, Please come with me to another place from where you may see them. You shall see only its edge, and shall not see them all. And curse them from there for me. <sup>14</sup>And he brought him into the field of Zophim, to the top of Pisgah, and built seven altars and offered a bull and a ram on every altar. <sup>15</sup>And he said to Balak, Stand here by your burnt offering while I meet Him yonder. <sup>16</sup>And the LORD met Balaam and put a word in his mouth, and said, Go again to Balak and say this. <sup>17</sup>And when he came to him, behold, he stood by his burnt offering, and the leaders of Moab were with him. And Balak said to him, What has the LORD spoken? <sup>18</sup>And he took up his parable and said, Rise up, Balak, and hear. Listen to me, son of Zippor. <sup>19</sup>God is not a man that He should lie, neither is He the son of man that He should repent. Has He said, and shall He not do it? Or has He spoken, and shall He not make it good? <sup>20</sup>Behold, I have received word to bless. And He has blessed, and I cannot reverse it. <sup>21</sup>He has not seen iniquity in Jacob, neither has He seen perverseness in Israel. The LORD his God is with him, and the shout of a king among them. <sup>22</sup>God brought them out of Egypt. He has, as it were, the strength of an ox. <sup>23</sup>Surely, there is no spell against Jacob, nor any fortune-telling against Israel. According to this time it shall be said of Jacob and of Israel, What God has worked! <sup>24</sup>Behold, the people shall rise up like a great lion, and lift up himself like a young lion. He shall not lie down until he eats of the prey and drinks the blood of the slain. <sup>25</sup>And Balak said to Balaam, Neither curse them at all nor bless them at all. <sup>26</sup>But Balaam answered and said to Balak, Did I not tell you, saying, All that the LORD speaks, that I must do? <sup>27</sup>And Balak said to Balaam, Please, come. I will bring you into another place. Perhaps it will please God that you will curse them for me from there. <sup>28</sup>And Balak brought Balaam to the top of Peor that looks toward Jeshimon. <sup>29</sup>And Balaam said to Balak, Build seven altars here for me, and prepare seven bulls and seven rams here for me. <sup>30</sup>And Balak did as Balaam had said, and offered a bull and a ram on the altar.

CHAPTER 24

<sup>1</sup>And Balaam saw that it pleased the LORD to bless Israel, and he did not go, as at other times, to seek for secret arts, but he set his face toward the wilderness. <sup>2</sup>And Balaam lifted up his eyes, and he saw Israel pitched, according to their tribes. And the Spirit of God came upon him. <sup>3</sup>And he took up his parable, and said, Balaam the son of Beor has said, and the man whose eyes are open has said; <sup>4</sup>he has said; he who heard the words of God, who saw the vision of the Almighty, falling down but having his eyes open; <sup>5</sup>How goodly are your tents, O Jacob, your tabernacles, O Israel! <sup>6</sup>They are spread forth like the valleys, like gardens by the river's side, like the trees of aloes which the LORD has planted, like cedar trees beside the waters. <sup>7</sup>He shall pour the water out of his buckets, and his seed shall be in many waters. And his king shall be higher than Agag, and his kingdom shall be exalted. <sup>8</sup>God brought him forth out of Egypt. He has as it were the strength of an ox. He shall eat up the nations his enemies, and shall break their bones, and pierce them through with his arrows. <sup>9</sup>He crouched. He lay down as a lion, and as a great lion. Who shall stir him up? Blessed is he who blesses you, and cursed he who curses you.

<sup>10</sup>And Balak's anger was kindled against Balaam. And he struck his hands together. And Balak said to Balaam, I called you to curse my enemies, and behold, you have kept on blessing these three times. <sup>11</sup>Therefore now flee to your place. I thought to lift you up to great honor, but lo, the LORD has kept you back from honor. <sup>12</sup>And Balaam said to Balak, Did I not speak also to your messengers whom you sent to me, saying, <sup>13</sup>If Balak would give me his house full of silver and gold, I cannot go beyond the mouth of the LORD, to do good or bad of my own mind. What the LORD said, that I will speak. <sup>14</sup>And now, behold, I go to my people. Come! I will make known to you what this people shall do to your people in the latter days. <sup>15</sup>And he took up his parable, and said, Balaam the son of Beor has said, and the man whose eyes are open has said; <sup>16</sup>he has said, he who heard the words of God and knew the knowledge of the Most High, who sees the vision of the Almighty, falling down but having his eyes open; <sup>17</sup>I shall see him, but not now. I shall behold him, but not near. There shall come a Star out of Jacob, and a Scepter shall rise out of Israel. and shall strike the corners of Moab, and destroy all the sons of tumult. <sup>18</sup>And Edom shall be a possession. Seir also shall be a possession for his enemies. And Israel shall do valiantly. <sup>19</sup>Out of Jacob shall come He who shall have dominion and shall destroy him who remains of the city.

<sup>20</sup>And when he looked on Amalek, he took up his parable and said, Amalek was the first of the nations. But his latter end is to destruction. <sup>21</sup>And he looked on the Kenites, and took up his parable and said, Strong is your dwelling-place, and you put your nest in a rock. <sup>22</sup>But the Kenites shall be wasted until Assyria shall carry you away captive.

<sup>23</sup>And he took up his parable and said, Alas, who shall live when God does this! <sup>24</sup>And ships shall come from the coast of Chittim, and shall afflict Assyria and shall afflict Eber, and he also shall perish forever.

<sup>25</sup>And Balaam rose up, and went and returned to his place. And Balak also went his way.

CHAPTER 25

<sup>1</sup>And Israel lived in Shittim, and the people began to fornicate with the daughters of Moab. <sup>2</sup>And they called the people to the sacrifices of their gods. And the people ate and bowed down to their gods. <sup>3</sup>And Israel joined himself to Baal-peor. And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel. <sup>4</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, Take all the heads of the people and hang them up before the LORD against the sun, so that the fierce anger of the LORD may be turned away from Israel. <sup>5</sup>And Moses said to the judges of Israel, Every one of you kill his men who were joined to Baal-peor. <sup>6</sup>And behold! One of the sons of Israel came and brought to his brothers a woman of Midian, before the eyes of Moses, and before all the congregation of the sons of Israel, who were weeping before the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. <sup>7</sup>And when Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, saw it, he rose up from among the congregation and took a spear in his hand. <sup>8</sup>And he went after the man of Israel into the tent, and thrust both of them through, the man of Israel, and the woman, through her belly. So the plague was stayed from the sons of Israel. <sup>9</sup>And those that died in the plague were twenty-four thousand.

<sup>10</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, <sup>11</sup>Phinehas the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, has turned My wrath away from the sons of Israel while he was zealous for My sake among them, so that I did not destroy the sons of Israel in My jealousy. <sup>12</sup>Therefore say, Behold! I give him My covenant of peace. <sup>13</sup>And he shall have it, and his seed after him, the covenant of an everlasting priesthood, because he was zealous for his God, and made an atonement for the sons of Israel. <sup>14</sup>And the name of the Israelite who was killed, he who was struck with the woman of Midian, was Zimri, the son of Salu, ruler of a chief house of the Simeonites. <sup>15</sup>And the Midianite woman's name who was killed was Cosbi, the daughter of Zur. He was head over a people, and of a chief house in Midian.

<sup>16</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, <sup>17</sup>Trouble the Midianites and strike them. <sup>18</sup>For they trouble you with their lies, with which they have deceived you in the matter of Peor, and in the matter of Cozbi the daughter of a ruler of Midian, their sister, who was stricken in the day of the plague because of Peor.

CHAPTER 26

<sup>1</sup>And it happened after the plague, the LORD spoke to Moses and to Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, saying, <sup>2</sup>Take the sum of all the congregation of the sons of Israel, from twenty years old and upward, throughout their fathers' house, all that are able to go to war in Israel. <sup>3</sup>And Moses and Eleazar the priest spoke with them in the plains of Moab beside Jordan at Jericho, saying, <sup>4</sup>Count the people from twenty years old and upward, as the LORD commanded Moses and the sons of Israel, who came out of the land of Egypt.

<sup>5</sup>Reuben, the first-born of Israel, the sons of Reuben, Hanoch of whom comes the family of the Hanochites; of Pallu the family of the Palluites; <sup>6</sup>of Hezron the family of the Hezronites; of Carmi, the family of the Carmites — <sup>7</sup>these are the families of the Reubenites. And were their numbered ones, forty-three thousand, seven hundred and thirty. <sup>8</sup>And the sons of Pallu were Eliab. <sup>9</sup>And the sons of Eliab, Nemuel, and Dathan and Abiram. This is that Dathan and Abiram who were famous in the congregation, who fought against Moses and against Aaron in the company of Korah, when they fought against the LORD. <sup>10</sup>And the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them up together with Korah, when that company died, when the fire devoured two hundred and fifty men. And they became a sign. <sup>11</sup>However the sons of Korah did not die.

<sup>12</sup>The sons of Simeon according to their families: of Nemuel, the family of the Nemuelites; of Jamin, the family of the Jaminites; of Jachin, the family of the Jachinites; <sup>13</sup>of Zerah, the family of the Zarhites; of Shaul, the family of the Shaulites — <sup>14</sup>these are the families of the Simeonites, twenty-two thousand, two hundred. <sup>15</sup>The sons of Gad according to their families: of Zephon, the family of the Zephonites; of Haggi, the family of the Haggites; of Shuni, the family of the Shunites; <sup>16</sup>of Ozni, the family of the Oznites; of Eri, the family of the Erites; <sup>17</sup>of Arod, the family of the Arodites; of Areli, the family of the Arelites — <sup>18</sup>these are the families of the sons of Gad by their numbered ones, forty thousand and five hundred.

<sup>19</sup>The sons of Judah: Er and Onan. And Er and Onan died in the land of Canaan. <sup>20</sup>And the sons of Judah according to their families: of Shelah, the family of the Shelanites; of Pharez, the family of the Pharzites; of Zerah, the family of the Zarhites. <sup>21</sup>And the sons of Pharez: of Hezron, the family of the Hezronites; of Hamul, the family of the Hamulites — <sup>22</sup>these are the families of Judah by their numbered ones, seventy-six thousand and five hundred.

<sup>26</sup>The sons of Zebulun according to their families: of Sered, the family of the Sardites; of Elon, the family of the Elonites; of Jahleel, the family of the Jahleecites — <sup>27</sup>these are the families of the Zebulunites by their numbered ones, sixty thousand, five hundred.

<sup>28</sup>The sons of Joseph according to their families: Manasseh and Ephraim. <sup>29</sup>The sons of Manasseh: of Machir, the family of the Machirites. And Machir fathered Gilead; of Gilead, the family of the Gileadites — <sup>30</sup>these are the sons of Gilead: of Jeezer, the family of the Jeezerites; of Helek, the family of the Helekites. <sup>31</sup>And of Asriel, the family of the Asrielites; and of Shechem, the family of the Shechemites; <sup>32</sup>and of Shemida, the family of the Shemidaites; and of Hephher, the family of the Hepherites. <sup>33</sup>And Zelophehad the son of Hephher had no sons, but daughters. And the names of the daughters of Zelophehad: Mahlah, and Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah — <sup>34</sup>these are the families of Manasseh, by their numbered ones, fifty-two thousand, seven hundred.

<sup>35</sup>These are the sons of Ephraim according to their families: of Shuthelah, the family of the Shuthalhites; of Becher, the family of the Bachrites; of Tahan, the family of the Tahanites — <sup>36</sup>And these are the sons of Shuthelah: of Eran, the family of the Eranites — <sup>37</sup>these are the families of the sons of Ephraim by their numbered ones, thirty-two thousand, five hundred. These are the sons of Joseph according to their families.

<sup>38</sup>The sons of Benjamin according to their families: of Bela, the family of the Belaites; of Ashbel, the family of the Ashbelites; of Ahiram, the family of the Ahiramites; <sup>39</sup>of Shupham, the family of the Shuphamites; of Hupham, the family of the Huphamites; <sup>40</sup>And the sons of Bela were Ard and Naaman. Of Ard, the family of the Ardites; of Naaman, the family of the Naamites — <sup>41</sup>these are the sons of Benjamin according to their families, and their numbered ones, forty-five thousand, six hundred.

<sup>42</sup>These are the sons of Dan according to their families: of Shuham, the families of the Shuhamites. These are the families of Dan according to their families. <sup>43</sup>All the families of the Shuhamites, by their numbered ones, sixty-four thousand, four hundred.

<sup>51</sup>These were the numbered ones of the sons of Israel, six hundred one thousand, seven hundred and thirty.

<sup>52</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, <sup>53</sup>To these the land shall be divided for an inheritance according to the number of names. <sup>54</sup>To many you shall give the more inheritance, and to few you shall give the less inheritance; each by the mouth of his numbered ones shall be given his inheritance. <sup>55</sup>But the land shall be divided by lot. According to the names of the tribes of their fathers they shall inherit. <sup>56</sup>According to the lot shall the possession of it be divided between many and few.

<sup>57</sup>And these are the numbered ones of the Levites according to their families: of Gershon, the family of the Gershonites; of Kohath, the family of the Kohathites; of Merari, the family of the Merarites. <sup>58</sup>These are the families of the Levites: the family of the Libnites, the family of the Hebronites, the family of the Mahlites, the family of the Mushites; the family of the Korathites.

And Korah fathered Amram. <sup>59</sup>And the name of Amram's wife was Jochebed, the daughter of Levi, whom one bore to Levi in Egypt. And she bore to Amram Aaron and Moses, and Miriam their sister. <sup>60</sup>And to Aaron was born Nadab, and Abihu, Eleazer, and Ithamar. <sup>61</sup>And Nadab and Abihu died when they offered strange fire before the LORD. <sup>62</sup>And their numbered ones, twenty-three thousand, all males from a month old and upward. For they were not numbered among the sons of Israel, because there was no inheritance given them among the sons of Israel.

<sup>63</sup>These are those numbered by Moses and Eleazar the priest, who numbered the sons of Israel in the plains of Moab beside Jordan at Jericho. <sup>64</sup>But among these there was not a man of them whom Moses and Aaron the priest numbered, when they numbered the sons of Israel in the wilderness of Sinai. <sup>65</sup>For the LORD had said of them, They shall surely die in the wilderness. And there was not a man left of them, except Caleb the son of Jephunneh and Joshua the son of Nun.

CHAPTER 27

<sup>1</sup>And came the daughters of Zelophehad, the son of Hephher, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, of the families of Manasseh, the son of Joseph. And these are the names of his daughters: Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah. <sup>2</sup>And they stood before Moses and before Eleazar the priest, and before the rulers and all the congregation, by the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, saying, <sup>3</sup>Our father died in the wilderness, and he was not in the company of those who gathered themselves together against the LORD in the company of Korah, but died in his own sin, and had no sons. <sup>4</sup>Why should the name of our father be taken away from among his family, because he has no son? Therefore give us a possession among the brothers of our father. <sup>5</sup>And Moses brought their cause before the LORD. <sup>6</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

<sup>7</sup>The daughters of Zelophehad speak right. You shall surely give them a possession of an inheritance among their father's brothers. And you shall cause the inheritance of their father to pass to them. <sup>8</sup>And you shall speak to the sons of Israel, saying, When a man dies, and has no son, then you shall cause his inheritance to pass to his daughter. <sup>9</sup>And if he has no daughter, then you shall give his inheritance to his brothers. <sup>10</sup>And if he has no brothers, then you shall give his inheritance to his father's brothers. <sup>11</sup>And if his father has no brothers, then you shall give his inheritance to his kinsman that is next to him of his family, and he shall possess it. And it shall be to the sons of Israel a statute of judgment, as the LORD commanded Moses.

<sup>12</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, Get up into this Mount Abarim and see the land which I have given to the sons of Israel. <sup>13</sup>And when you have seen it, you also shall be gathered to your people as Aaron your brother was gathered. <sup>14</sup>For you rebelled against My command in the desert of Zin, in the strife of the congregation, to sanctify Me at the water before their eyes — they were the Waters of Strife in Kadesh in the wilderness of Zin.

<sup>15</sup>And Moses spoke to the LORD, saying, <sup>16</sup>Let the LORD, the God of the spirits of all flesh, set a man over the congregation <sup>17</sup>who may go out before them, and who may go in before them, and who may lead them out, and who may bring them in, so that the congregation of the LORD may not be as sheep which have no shepherd. <sup>18</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, Take Joshua the son of Nun, a man in whom is the Spirit, and lay your hand upon him. <sup>19</sup>And set him before Eleazar the priest, and before all the congregation, and give him a charge in their sight. <sup>20</sup>And you shall put of your honor on him, so that all the congregation of the sons of Israel may be obedient. <sup>21</sup>And he shall stand before Eleazar the priest, who shall ask for him according to the judgment of Urim before the LORD. At his word they shall go out, and at his word they shall come in, he and all the sons of Israel with him, even all the congregation. <sup>22</sup>And Moses did as the LORD commanded him. And he took Joshua and set him before Eleazar the priest and before all the congregation. <sup>23</sup>And he laid his hands upon him and gave him a charge, even as the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses.

CHAPTER 28

<sup>1</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>2</sup>Command the sons of Israel, and say to them, My offering and My bread for My sacrifices made by fire, a sweet savor to Me, you shall be careful to offer to Me in their due season. <sup>3</sup>And you shall say to them, This is the fire offering which you shall offer to the LORD: two lambs of the first year without spot day by day, a continual burnt offering. <sup>4</sup>The one lamb you shall offer in the morning, and the other lamb you shall offer at evening. <sup>5</sup>And a tenth of an ephah of flour for a food offering, mixed with the fourth of a hin of beaten oil. <sup>6</sup>It is a continual burnt offering which was ordained in Mount Sinai for a sweet savor, a fire offering to the LORD, <sup>7</sup>and its drink offering shall be the fourth of a hin for the one lamb. Pour a drink offering of strong drink to the LORD in the holy place. <sup>8</sup>And the other lamb you shall offer between the evenings, even as the food offering of the morning, and as its drink offering, you shall offer it, a fire offering, a sweet savor to the LORD. <sup>9</sup>And on the sabbath day two rams of the first year without spot, and two-tenth deals of flour for a food offering, mixed with oil, and its drink offering; <sup>10</sup>this is the burnt offering of every sabbath, besides the continual burnt offering, and its drink offering.

<sup>11</sup>And in the beginning of your months you shall offer a burnt offering to the LORD: two young bulls, and one ram, seven lambs of the first year without spot, <sup>12</sup>and three tenth deals of flour for a food offering, mixed with oil, for one bull, and two-tenth deals of flour for a food offering, mixed with oil, for one ram; <sup>13</sup>and a separate tenth deal of flour mixed with oil for a food offering to one lamb, for a burnt offering of a sweet savor, a fire offering to the LORD. <sup>14</sup>And their drink offerings shall be half a hin of wine to a bull, and the third of a hin to a ram, and a fourth a hin to a lamb. This is the burnt offering of every month throughout the months of the year. <sup>15</sup>And one kid of the goats for a sin offering to the LORD shall be offered, besides the continual burnt offering and its drink offering.

<sup>16</sup>And in the fourteenth day of the first month is the Passover of the LORD. <sup>17</sup>And in the fifteenth day of this month is the feast. Seven days shall unleavened bread be eaten. <sup>18</sup>In the first day shall be a holy convocation. You shall do no kind of laboring work. <sup>19</sup>But you shall offer a fire offering for a burnt offering to the LORD: two young bulls, and one ram, and seven lambs of the first year. They shall be to you without blemish. <sup>20</sup>And their food offering shall be of flour mixed with oil: three tenth deals you shall offer for a bull, and two tenth deals for a ram. <sup>21</sup>You shall prepare one tenth part for the one lamb, and for the seven lambs; <sup>22</sup>and one goat, a sin offering to make an atonement for you. <sup>23</sup>You shall offer these besides the burnt offering in the morning, which is for a continual burnt offering. <sup>24</sup>In this way you shall offer daily, seven days, the bread of the fire offering, a sweet savor to the LORD. It shall be offered besides the continual burnt offering and its drink offering. <sup>25</sup>And on the seventh day you shall have a holy convocation. You shall do no laboring work. <sup>26</sup>And in the day of the first-fruits, when you bring a new food offering to the LORD in your feast of weeks, you shall have a holy convocation. You shall do no laboring work. <sup>27</sup>And you shall offer the burnt offering for a sweet savor to the LORD: two young bulls, one ram, seven lambs of the first year <sup>28</sup>and their food offering of flour mixed with oil, three tenth deals to one bull, two tenth deals to one ram, <sup>29</sup>one tenth deal to one lamb, for the seven lambs, <sup>30</sup>one kid of the goats, to make an atonement for you. <sup>31</sup>You shall offer them besides the continual burnt offering and its food offering and their drink offerings. They shall be to you without blemish.

CHAPTER 29

<sup>1</sup>And in the seventh month, on the first of the month, you shall have a holy convocation. You shall do no laboring work. It is a day of blowing the trumpets to you. <sup>2</sup>And you shall offer a burnt offering for a sweet savor to the LORD: one young bull, one ram, seven lambs of the first year without blemish. <sup>3</sup>And their food offering shall be flour mixed with oil, three tenth deals for a bull, two tenth deals for a ram, <sup>4</sup>and one tenth deal for one lamb, for the seven lambs, <sup>5</sup>and one kid of the goats for a sin offering to make an atonement for you; <sup>6</sup>besides the burnt offering of the month, and its food offering, and the daily burnt offering, and its food offering, and their drink offerings, according to their ordinance, for a sweet savor, a fire offering to the LORD.

<sup>7</sup>And you shall have a holy convocation on the tenth of this seventh month. And you shall afflict your souls. You shall not do any work. <sup>8</sup>But you shall offer a burnt offering to the LORD for a sweet savor: one young bull, one ram, seven lambs of the first year. They shall be to you without blemish. <sup>9</sup>And their food offering shall be flour mixed with oil, three tenth deals to a bull, two tenth deals to one ram, <sup>10</sup>one tenth part for the one lamb, for the seven lambs; <sup>11</sup>one kid of the goats for a sin offering, besides the sin offering of atonement and the continual burnt offering and the food offering of it, and their drink offerings.

<sup>12</sup>And on the fifteenth day of the seventh month you shall have a holy convocation. You shall do no laboring work, and you shall keep a feast to the LORD seven days. <sup>13</sup>And you shall offer a burnt offering, a fire offering, of a sweet savor to the LORD: thirteen young bulls, two rams, fourteen lambs of the first year. They shall be without blemish. <sup>14</sup>And their food offering shall be flour, mixed with oil, three tenth deals to every bull of the thirteen bulls, two tenth deals to each ram of the two rams, <sup>15</sup>and one tenth deal to each of the fourteen lambs; <sup>16</sup>and one kid of the goats for a sin offering, besides the continual burnt offering, its food offering, and its drink offering. <sup>17</sup>And on the second day you shall offer twelve young bulls, two rams, fourteen lambs of the first year without spot; <sup>18</sup>and their food offering and their drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, shall be according to their number, according to the law; <sup>19</sup>and one kid of the goats for a sin offering, besides the continual burnt offering and its food offering, and their drink offerings. <sup>20</sup>And on the third day eleven bulls, two rams, fourteen lambs of the first year without blemish. <sup>21</sup>And their food offering and their drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, shall be according to their number, according to the law; <sup>22</sup>and one goat for a sin offering, besides the continual burnt offering and its food offering and its drink offering. <sup>23</sup>And on the fourth day ten bulls, two rams, fourteen lambs of the first year without blemish. <sup>24</sup>Their food offering and their drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, shall be according to their number, according to the law; <sup>25</sup>and one kid of the goats for a sin offering, besides the continual burnt offering, its food offering, and its drink offering. <sup>26</sup>And on the fifth day nine bulls, two rams, fourteen lambs of the first year without spot. <sup>27</sup>And their food offering and their drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, shall be according to their number, according to the law; <sup>28</sup>and one goat for a sin offering, besides the continual burnt offering and its food offering and its drink offering. <sup>29</sup>And on the sixth day eight bulls, two rams, fourteen lambs of the first year without blemish; <sup>30</sup>and their food offering and their drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, for the lambs, shall be according to their number, according to the law; <sup>31</sup>and one goat for a sin offering, besides the continual burnt offering, its food offering, and its drink offering. <sup>32</sup>And on the seventh day seven bulls, two rams, and fourteen lambs of the first year without blemish; <sup>33</sup>and their food offering and their drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, shall be according to their number, according to the law; <sup>34</sup>and one goat for a sin offering, besides the continual burnt offering, its food offering, and its drink offering.

<sup>35</sup>On the eighth day you shall have a solemn assembly. You shall do no laboring work. <sup>36</sup>But you shall offer a burnt offering, a fire offering of a sweet savor to the LORD: one bull, one ram, seven lambs of the first year without blemish; <sup>37</sup>their food offering and their drink offerings for the bull, for the ram, and for the lambs, according to their number, according to the law; <sup>38</sup>and one goat for a sin offering, besides the continual burnt offering, and its food offering and its drink offering. <sup>39</sup>You shall prepare these to the LORD in your appointed seasons, besides your vows and your free-will offerings, for your burnt offerings, and for your food offerings, and for your drink offerings, and for your peace offerings. <sup>40</sup>And Moses told the sons of Israel according to all that the LORD commanded Moses.

CHAPTER 30

<sup>1</sup>And Moses spoke to the heads of the tribes concerning the sons of Israel, saying, This is the thing which the LORD has commanded: <sup>2</sup>If a man vows a vow to the LORD, or swears an oath to bind his soul with a bond, he shall not break his word. He shall do according to all that comes out of his mouth. <sup>3</sup>If a woman also vows a vow to the LORD, and binds herself by a bond, being in her father's house in her youth, <sup>4</sup>and if her father hears her vow and her bond with which she has bound her soul, and if her father is silent as to her, then all her vows shall stand, and every bond with which she has bound her soul shall stand. <sup>5</sup>But if her father does not allow her in the day that he hears, not any of her vows or of her bonds with which she has bound her soul shall stand. And the LORD shall forgive her because her father did not allow her. <sup>6</sup>And if she had a husband when she vowed, or if she said anything rash out of her lips with which she bound her soul, <sup>7</sup>and if her husband heard and is silent as to her in the day that he heard it, then her vows shall stand, and her bonds with which she bound her soul shall stand. <sup>8</sup>But if her husband did not allow her on the day that he heard it, then he shall make her vow which she vowed, and that which she uttered with her lips, with which she bound her soul, of no effect. And the LORD shall forgive her. <sup>9</sup>But every vow of a widow and of her who is divorced, all which she has bound on her soul shall stand against her. <sup>10</sup>And if she vowed in her husband's house, or bound her soul by a bond with an oath, <sup>11</sup>and if her husband heard and is silent as to her, and did not forbid her, then all her vows shall stand, and every bond with which she bound her soul shall stand. <sup>12</sup>But if her husband has certainly broken them on the day he heard, whatever comes out of her lips, concerning her vows or concerning the bond of her soul, shall not stand. Her husband has broken them. And the LORD shall forgive her.

<sup>13</sup>Every vow and every binding oath to afflict the soul, her husband may establish it, or her husband may break it. <sup>14</sup>But if her husband is altogether silent as to her from day to day, then he establishes all her vows or all her bonds which are upon her. He confirms them, because he was silent as to her in the day that he heard. <sup>15</sup>But if he at all breaks them after he has heard, then he shall take away her iniquity.

<sup>16</sup>These are the statutes which the LORD commanded Moses, between a man and his wife, between the father and his daughter in her youth in her father's house.

CHAPTER 31

<sup>1</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, <sup>2</sup>Avenge the sons of Israel from the Midianites. Afterward you shall be gathered to your people. <sup>3</sup>And Moses spoke to the people saying, Arm some of yourselves to the war, and let them go against the Midianites, and avenge the LORD from Midian. <sup>4</sup>You shall send to the war a thousand from every tribe, throughout all the tribes of Israel. <sup>5</sup>So they were delivered out of the thousands of Israel, a thousand of every tribe, twelve thousand armed for war. <sup>6</sup>And Moses sent them to the war, a thousand of every tribe. He sent them and Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, to the war, with the holy instruments and the trumpets to blow in his hand. <sup>7</sup>And they warred against the Midianites, as the LORD commanded Moses. And they killed all the males. <sup>8</sup>And they killed the kings of Midian, besides the rest of them that were killed. They killed: Evi, and Rekem, and Zur, and Hur, and Iba, five kings of Midian. They also killed Balaam the son of Beor with the sword. <sup>9</sup>And the sons of Israel took all the women of Midian captive, and their little ones, and the spoil of all their cattle, and all their flocks, and all their goods. <sup>10</sup>And they burned with fire all their cities, their homes, and all their towers. <sup>11</sup>And they took all the spoil and all the prey of men and animals. <sup>12</sup>And they brought the captives, and the prey, and the spoil, to Moses and to Eleazar the priest, and to the congregation of the sons of Israel, to the camp at the plains of Moab, which are beside Jordan, at Jericho.

<sup>13</sup>And Moses and Eleazar the priest, and all the rulers of the congregation, went forth to meet them outside the camp. <sup>14</sup>And Moses was angry with the officers of the army, the captains over thousands and captains over hundreds, who came from the battle. <sup>15</sup>And Moses said to them, Have you saved all the women alive? <sup>16</sup>Behold, these caused the sons of Israel, through the counsel of Balaam, to commit sin against the LORD in the matter of Peor, and the plague was on the congregation of the LORD. <sup>17</sup>And now kill every male among the little ones, and kill every woman that has known man by lying with him. <sup>18</sup>But all the female children that have not known a man by lying with him, keep alive for yourselves. <sup>19</sup>And stay outside the camp seven days. Whosoever has killed any person, and whoever has touched any dead one, purify yourselves and your captives on the third day and on the seventh day. <sup>20</sup>And purify all clothing, and all that is made of skins, and all work of goats' hair, and all things made of wood.

<sup>21</sup>And Eleazar the priest said to the men of war who went to battle, This is the ordinance of the law which the LORD commanded Moses. <sup>22</sup>Only the gold and the silver, the bronze, the iron, the tin, and the lead, <sup>23</sup>everything that can stand the fire, you shall make go through the fire, and it shall be clean. Only it shall be purified with the water of separation. And all that cannot stand the fire you shall make go through the water. <sup>24</sup>And you shall wash your clothes on the seventh day, and you shall be clean, and afterwards you shall come into the camp.

<sup>25</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, <sup>26</sup>Count the prey that was taken of man and of animal, you and Eleazar the priest and the heads of the fathers of the congregation. <sup>27</sup>And divide the prey into two parts: between those who took the war upon themselves, who went out to battle, and between all the congregation. <sup>28</sup>And levy a tax for the LORD from the men of war who went out to battle: one soul of five hundred, of the persons and of the beeves, and of the asses, and of the sheep. <sup>29</sup>Take from their half and give it to Eleazar the priest, a heave offering to the LORD. <sup>30</sup>And from the sons of Israel's half you shall take one portion of fifty, of the persons, of the beeves, of the asses, of the flocks, of all kinds of animals, and give them to the Levites who keep the charge of the tabernacle of the LORD. <sup>31</sup>And Moses and Eleazar the priest did as the LORD commanded Moses. <sup>32</sup>And the prize, the rest of the spoil which the men of war had captured, was six hundred and seventy-five thousand sheep, <sup>33</sup>seventy-two thousand beef cattle, <sup>34</sup>sixty-one thousand asses, <sup>35</sup>and thirty-two thousand persons in all, of women that had not known a man by lying with a male. <sup>36</sup>And the half, the portion of those who went out to war, the number of the flock was three hundred thirty-seven thousand, five hundred; <sup>37</sup>and the LORD's tax of the sheep was six hundred and seventy-five. <sup>38</sup>And the beef cattle were thirty-six thousand, of which the LORD's tax was seventy-two. <sup>39</sup>And the asses, thirty thousand, five hundred, of which the LORD's tax was sixty-one. <sup>40</sup>And the persons were sixteen thousand, of which the LORD's tax was thirty-two persons. <sup>41</sup>And Moses gave the tax, the LORD's heave offering, to Eleazar the priest, as the LORD commanded Moses.

<sup>48</sup>And the officers who were over thousands of the army, over the captains of thousands and captains of hundreds, came near Moses. <sup>49</sup>And they said to Moses, Your servants have counted the men of war who are under our charge, and there is not one man of us lacking. <sup>50</sup>And we bring an offering for the LORD, what every man has found, of jewels of gold, chains, and bracelets, rings, earrings, and tablets, to make an atonement for our souls before the LORD. <sup>51</sup>And Moses and Eleazar the priest took the gold from them, all crafted things. <sup>52</sup>And all the gold of the offering that they offered up to the LORD, of the captains of thousands, and of the captains of hundreds, was sixteen thousand, seven hundred and fifty shekels. <sup>53</sup>For the men of war had taken spoil, every man for himself. <sup>54</sup>And Moses and Eleazar took the gold of the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and brought it into the tabernacle of the congregation, for a memorial for the sons of Israel before the LORD.

CHAPTER 32

<sup>1</sup>And the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad had a very great multitude of cattle. And when they saw the land of Jazer, and the land of Gilead, behold, the place was a place for cattle. <sup>2</sup>And came the sons of Gad and the sons of Reuben and spoke to Moses and to Eleazar the priest, and to the rulers of the congregation, saying, <sup>3</sup>Ataroth, and Dibon, and Jazer, and Nimrah, and Heshbon, and Elealeh, and Shebam, and Nebo, and Beon, <sup>4</sup>the land which the LORD struck before the congregation of Israel, is a land for cattle, and your servants have cattle. <sup>5</sup>And, they said, If we have found grace in your sight, let this land be given to your servants for a possession; do not bring us over Jordan. <sup>6</sup>And Moses said to the sons of Gad and to the sons of Reuben, Shall your brothers go to war, and shall you sit here? <sup>7</sup>And why do you break the heart of the sons of Israel from going over into the land which the LORD has given them? <sup>8</sup>So your fathers did when I sent them from Kadesh-barnea to see the land. <sup>9</sup>For when they went up into the valley of Eshcol and saw the land, they broke the hearts of the sons of Israel, so that they should not go into the land which the LORD had given them. <sup>10</sup>And the LORD's anger was kindled the same time, and He swore, saying, <sup>11</sup>Surely, none of the men that came up out of Egypt, from twenty years old and up, shall see the land which I swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, because they have not fully followed Me, <sup>12</sup>except Caleb the son of Jephunneh, the Kenezite, and Joshua the son of Nun, for they have fully followed the LORD. <sup>13</sup>And the LORD's anger was kindled against Israel, and He made them wander in the wilderness forty years until all the generation which had done evil in the sight of the LORD was destroyed. <sup>14</sup>And behold, you are risen up in your fathers' stead, an increase of sinful men, to add still more to the fierce anger of the LORD toward Israel. <sup>15</sup>For if you turn away from after Him, He will yet again leave them in the wilderness. And you shall destroy all this people.

<sup>16</sup>And they came near to him and said, We will build sheep-folds here for our cattle, and cities for our little ones, <sup>17</sup>but we ourselves will go ready armed before the sons of Israel until we have brought them to their place. And our little ones shall live in the fenced cities because of those who live in the land. <sup>18</sup>We will not return to our houses until the sons of Israel have inherited every man his inheritance. <sup>19</sup>For we will not inherit with them on the other side of Jordan, or forward, because our inheritance has fallen to us on this side of Jordan, eastward. <sup>20</sup>And Moses said to them, If you will do this thing, if you will go armed before the LORD to war, <sup>21</sup>and all of you will go armed over Jordan before the LORD until He has driven out His enemies from before Him, <sup>22</sup>and the land is subdued before the LORD, then afterwards you shall return and be guiltless before the LORD and before Israel. And this land shall be your possession before the LORD. <sup>23</sup>But if you will not do so, behold, you have sinned against the LORD. And be sure your sin will find you out. <sup>24</sup>Build cities for your little ones and folds for your sheep, and do that which has come out of your mouth.<sup>25</sup> And the sons of Gad and the sons of Reuben spoke to Moses saying, Your servants will do as my lord commands.<sup>26</sup> Our little ones, our wives, our flocks, and all our cattle, shall be there in the cities of Gilead.<sup>27</sup> But your servants will go over, every man armed for war, before the LORD to battle, as my lord says.<sup>28</sup> So Moses commanded Eleazar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the chief fathers of the tribes of the sons of Israel regarding them.<sup>29</sup> And Moses said to them, If the sons of Gad and the sons of Reuben will go with you over Jordan, every man armed to battle before the LORD, and the land shall be humbled before you, then you shall give them the land of Gilead for a possession.<sup>30</sup> But if they will not go over with you armed, they shall have possessions among you in the land of Canaan.<sup>31</sup> And the sons of Gad and the sons of Reuben answered, saying, As the LORD has said to your servants, so we will do.<sup>32</sup> We will go over armed before the LORD into the land of Canaan, so that the possession of our inheritance on this side Jordan may be ours.<sup>33</sup> And Moses gave to them, to the sons of Gad and to the sons of Reuben, and to the half the tribe of Manasseh the son of Joseph, the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites, and the kingdom of Og king of Bashan, the land with its cities in the borders, the cities of the land all around.

<sup>34</sup>And the sons of Gad built Dibon and Ataroth and Aroer.<sup>35</sup> And Atroth, Shophan, and Jaazer, and Jogbehah,<sup>36</sup> and Beth-nimrah, and Beth-haran, fortified cities. And they built folds for sheep.<sup>37</sup> And the sons of Reuben built Heshbon, and Elealeh, and Kirjath-aim,<sup>38</sup> and Nebo, and Baal-meon (their names being changed) and Shibmah, and they gave other names to the cities which they built.<sup>39</sup> And the sons of Machir the son of Manasseh went to Gilead and took it, and put out the Amorite which was in it.<sup>40</sup> And Moses gave Gilead to Machir the son of Manasseh, and he lived in it.<sup>41</sup> And Jair the son of Manasseh went and took the small towns of it, and called them Havoth-Jair.<sup>42</sup> And Nobah went and took Kenath and its villages, and called it Nobah after his own name.

CHAPTER 33

<sup>1</sup>These are the journeys of the sons of Israel, who went forth out of the land of Egypt with their armies under the hand of Moses and Aaron.<sup>2</sup> And Moses wrote their goings out according to their journeys by the command of the LORD. And these are their journeys according to their starting-places.<sup>3</sup> And they moved from Rameses in the first month, on the fifteenth day of the first month. On the next day after the Passover the sons of Israel went out with a high hand in the sight of all the Egyptians.<sup>4</sup> For the Egyptians buried all their first-born whom the LORD had stricken among them. The LORD also executed judgments upon their gods.<sup>5</sup> And the sons of Israel moved from Rameses and pitched in Succoth.<sup>6</sup> And they moved from Succoth and pitched in Etham, in the edge of the wilderness.<sup>7</sup> And they moved from Etham and turned again to Pihahiroth which is in front of Baal-zephon. And they pitched in front of Migdol.<sup>8</sup> And they moved from before Pihahiroth and passed through the middle of the sea into the wilderness, and went three days' journey in the wilderness of Etham, and pitched in Maah.<sup>9</sup> And they moved from Marah and came to Elim. And in Elim were twelve fountains of water — and seventy palm trees. And they pitched there.<sup>10</sup> And they moved from Elim and pitched by the Red Sea.<sup>11</sup> And they moved from the Red Sea and pitched in the wilderness of Sin.<sup>12</sup> And they took their journey out of the wilderness of Sin and pitched in Dophkah.<sup>13</sup> And they moved from Dophkah and pitched in Alush.<sup>14</sup> And they moved from Alush and pitched at Rephidim, where there was no water for the people to drink.<sup>15</sup> And they moved from Rephidim and pitched in the wilderness of Sinal.<sup>16</sup> And they moved from the wilderness of

Sinai and pitched at Kibroth-hattaavah.<sup>17</sup> And they moved from Kibroth-hattaavah and pitched at Hazeroth.<sup>18</sup> And they moved from Hazeroth and pitched in Rithmah.<sup>19</sup> And they moved from Rithmah and pitched at Rimmon-parez.<sup>20</sup> And they moved from Rimmon-parez and pitched in Libnah.<sup>21</sup> And they moved from Libnah and pitched at Rissah.<sup>22</sup> And they journeyed from Rissah and pitched in Kehelathah.<sup>23</sup> And they went from Kehelathah and pitched in Mount Shapher.<sup>24</sup> And they moved from Mount Shapher and pitched in Haradah.<sup>25</sup> And they moved from Haradah and pitched in Makheloth.<sup>26</sup> And they moved from Makheloth and pitched at Tahath.<sup>27</sup> And they moved from Tahath and pitched at Tarah.<sup>28</sup> And they removed from Tarah and pitched in Mithcah.<sup>29</sup> And they went from Mithcah and pitched in Hashmonah.<sup>30</sup> And they moved from Hashmonah and pitched at Moseroth.<sup>31</sup> And they moved from Moseroth and pitched in Bene-jaakan.<sup>32</sup> And they moved from Bene-jaakan and pitched at the Hole of the Cleft.<sup>33</sup> And they went from the Hole of the Cleft and pitched in Jotbathah.<sup>34</sup> And they moved from Jotbathah and pitched at Ebronah.<sup>35</sup> And they moved from Ebronah and pitched at Ezion-geber.<sup>36</sup> And they moved from Ezion-geber and pitched in the wilderness of Zin, which is Kadesh.<sup>37</sup> And they moved from Kadesh and pitched in Mount Hor, in the edge of the land of Edom.<sup>38</sup> And Aaron the priest went up to Mount Hor at the commandment of the LORD and died there, in the fortieth year after the sons of Israel had come up out of the land of Egypt, in the first of the fifth month.<sup>39</sup> And Aaron was a hundred and twenty-three years old when he died in Mount Hor.

<sup>40</sup>And king Arad the Canaanite, who lived in the south in the land of Canaan, heard of the coming of the sons of Israel.<sup>41</sup> And they moved from Mount Hor and pitched in Zalmonah.<sup>42</sup> And they moved from Zalmonah and pitched in Punon.<sup>43</sup> And they moved from Punon and pitched in Oboth.<sup>44</sup> And they moved from Oboth and pitched in Ije-Abarim, in the border of Moab.<sup>45</sup> And they moved from Ije-Abarim and pitched in Dibon-gad.<sup>46</sup> And they moved from Dibon-gad and pitched in Almon-diblathaim.<sup>47</sup> And they moved from Almon-diblathaim and pitched in the mountains of Abarim, before Nebo.<sup>48</sup> And they moved from the mountains of Abarim and pitched in the plains of Moab by Jordan near Jericho.<sup>49</sup> And they pitched by Jordan, from Beth-jesimoth to Abel-shittim in the plains of Moab.

<sup>50</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses in the plains of Moab beside Jordan, at near Jericho, saying,<sup>51</sup>Speak to the sons of Israel and say to them, When you have passed over Jordan into the land of Canaan,<sup>52</sup>then you shall drive out all those who live in the land from before you, and destroy all their carved images, and destroy all their molded images and pluck down all their high places.<sup>53</sup>And you shall put out the land-owners and live in it. For I have given you the land to possess it.<sup>54</sup>And you shall divide the land by lot for an inheritance among your families. And you shall give the more inheritance to the many; to the few you shall give the less inheritance. Every man's inheritance shall be in the place where his lot falls; according to the tribes of your fathers you shall inherit.<sup>55</sup>But if you will not drive out the people of the land from before you, then it will be, those of them whom you let remain shall be pricks in your eyes and thorns in your sides, and they shall trouble you in the land in which you live.<sup>56</sup>And it shall be as I thought to do to them, so I shall do to you.

CHAPTER 34

<sup>1</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses saying,<sup>2</sup>Command the sons of Israel and say to them: When you come into the land of Canaan, this is the land that shall fall to you for an inheritance, the land of Canaan with its borders.<sup>3</sup>And your south quarter shall be from the wilderness of Zin along by the coast of Edom, and your south border shall be the furthest coast of the Salt Sea eastward. <sup>4</sup>And your border shall turn from the south to the ascent of Akrabbim and pass on to Zin. And its border shall be from the south to Kadesh-barnea, and shall go on to Hazar-addar, and pass on to Azmon. <sup>5</sup>And the border shall turn from Azmon to the river of Egypt, and the end of it shall be at the sea. <sup>6</sup>And for the western border, you shall even have the Great Sea for a border. This shall be your west border. <sup>7</sup>And this shall be your northern border. From the Great Sea you shall point out for you Mount Hor. <sup>8</sup>From Mount Hor you shall point your border to the entrance of Hamath. And the end of the border shall be at Zedad. <sup>9</sup>And the border shall go on to Ziphron, and the end of it shall be at Hazar-enan. This shall be your north border. <sup>10</sup>And you shall point out your east border from Hazar-enan to Shepham. <sup>11</sup>And the coast shall go down from Shepham to Riblah, on the east side of Ain. And the border shall go down, and shall reach to the side of the sea of Chinnereth eastward. <sup>12</sup>And the border shall go down to Jordan, and the end of it shall be at the Salt Sea. This shall be your land with the borders of it all around.

<sup>13</sup>And Moses commanded the sons of Israel saying, This is the land which you shall inherit by lot, which the LORD commanded to give to the nine tribes and to the half tribe. <sup>14</sup>For the tribe of the sons of Reuben according to the house of their fathers, and the tribe of the sons of Gad according to the house of their fathers, have received their inheritance. And half the tribe of Manasseh have received their inheritance. <sup>15</sup>The two tribes and the half tribe have received their inheritance on this side Jordan near Jericho eastward, toward the sunrise.

<sup>16</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, <sup>17</sup>These are the names of the men who shall divide the land to you: Eleazar the priest and Joshua the son of Nun. <sup>18</sup>And you shall take one ruler from every tribe, to divide the land by inheritance. <sup>19</sup>And the names of the men are these. Of the tribe of Judah, Caleb the son of Jephunneh. <sup>20</sup>And of the tribe of the sons of Simeon, Shemuel the son of Ammihud. <sup>21</sup>And of the tribe of Benjamin, Elidad the son of Chislon. <sup>22</sup>And the ruler of the tribe of the sons of Dan, Bukki the son of Jogli. <sup>23</sup>The ruler of the sons of Joseph, for the tribe of the sons of Manasseh, Hanniel the son of Ephod. <sup>24</sup>And the ruler of the tribe of the sons of Ephraim, Kemuel the son of Shiptan. <sup>25</sup>And the ruler of the tribe of the sons of Zebulun, Elizaphan the son of Parnach. <sup>26</sup>And the ruler of the tribe of the sons of Issachar, Paltiel, the son of Azzan. <sup>27</sup>And the ruler of the tribe of the sons of Asher, Ahihud the son of Shelomi. <sup>28</sup>And the ruler of the tribe of the sons of Naphtali, Pedahel the son of Ammihud. <sup>29</sup>These are the ones to whom the LORD commanded to divide the inheritance to the sons of Israel in the land of Canaan.

CHAPTER 35

<sup>1</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses in the plains of Moab beside Jordan, at Jericho, saying, <sup>2</sup>Command the sons of Israel that they give to the Levites, from the inheritance of their possessions cities to live in. And you shall also give to the Levites suburbs for the cities all around them. <sup>3</sup>And they shall have the cities to live in. And the suburbs of them shall be for their cattle, and for their goods, and for all their animals. <sup>4</sup>And the suburbs of the cities which you shall give to the Levites shall reach from the wall of the city and outward a thousand cubits all around. <sup>5</sup>And you shall measure from outside the city on the east side two thousand cubits, and on the south side two thousand cubits, and on the west side two thousand cubits, and on the north side two thousand cubits. And the city shall be in the middle. This shall be to them the suburbs of the cities. <sup>6</sup>And among the cities which you shall give to the Levites there shall be six cities for refuge, which you shall appoint for the manslayer, so that he may flee there. And you shall add forty-two cities to them. <sup>7</sup>All the cities which you shall give to the Levites, forty-eight cities. You shall give them with their suburbs. <sup>8</sup>And the cities which you shall give shall be of the possessions of the sons of Israel. You shall give many from those who have many. But from those who have few you shall give few. Everyone shall give of his cities to the Levites according to his inheritance which he inherits.

<sup>9</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, <sup>10</sup>Speak to the sons of Israel and say to them, When you have come over Jordan into the land of Canaan, <sup>11</sup>then you shall choose cities to be cities of refuge for you, so that the slayer who kills any person through error may flee there. <sup>12</sup>And they shall be to you cities for refuge from the avenger, so that the manslayer does not die until he stands before the congregation in judgment. <sup>13</sup>And of those cities which you shall give, you shall have six cities for refuge. <sup>14</sup>You shall give three cities on this side Jordan, and you shall give three cities in the land of Canaan to be cities of refuge. <sup>15</sup>These six cities shall be a refuge for the sons of Israel, and for the stranger, and for anyone who stays among them, so that everyone who kills any person through error may flee there. <sup>16</sup>And if he strikes him with an instrument of iron, so that he dies, he is a murderer. The murderer shall surely be put to death. <sup>17</sup>And if he strikes him by throwing a stone, with which he may die, and if he dies, he is a murderer. The murderer shall surely be put to death. <sup>18</sup>Or if he strikes him with a hand weapon of wood, with which he may die, and if he dies, he is a murderer. The murderer shall surely be put to death. <sup>19</sup>The revenger of blood himself shall kill the murderer. When he meets him, he shall kill him. <sup>20</sup>And if he stabs him from hatred, or hurls at him by lying in wait, so that he dies, <sup>21</sup>or in hatred strikes him with his hand so that he dies, he who struck him shall surely be put to death. For he is a murderer. The revenger of blood will kill the murderer when he meets him. <sup>22</sup>But if he stabs him suddenly without hatred, or has thrown something on him without lying in wait, <sup>23</sup>or with any stone with which a man may die if he does not see, and throws it upon him so that he dies, and was not his enemy, neither sought his harm, <sup>24</sup>then the congregation shall judge between the one who kills and the revenger of blood according to these judgments. <sup>25</sup>And the congregation shall deliver the one who kills out of the hand of the revenger of blood. And the congregation shall send him back to the city of his refuge, to which he had fled. And he shall stay in it until the death of the high priest who was anointed with the holy oil. <sup>26</sup>But if the one who killed shall at any time come outside the border of the city of his refuge to which he had fled, <sup>27</sup>and if the revenger of blood finds him outside the borders of the city of his refuge, and if the revenger of blood kills the slayer, he shall not be guilty of blood <sup>28</sup>because he should have remained in the city of his refuge until the death of the high priest. But after the death of the high priest the one who killed shall return to the land of his possession. <sup>29</sup>So these things shall be for a statute of judgment to you throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

<sup>30</sup>Whoever kills any person, the murderer shall be put to death by the mouth of witnesses. But one witness shall not testify against any person to cause him to die. <sup>31</sup>And you shall take no atonement for the life of a murderer who is guilty of death. But he shall surely be put to death. <sup>32</sup>And you shall take no atonement for him who has fled to the city of his refuge, so that he should come again to live in the land until the death of the high priest. <sup>33</sup>So you shall not defile the land in which you are. For blood defiles the land. And the land cannot be cleansed of the blood that is shed in it, except by the blood of him that shed it. <sup>34</sup>So do not defile the land which you shall inhabit, in which I dwell. For I the LORD dwell among the sons of Israel.

CHAPTER 36

<sup>1</sup>And the chief fathers of the families of the sons of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, of the families of the sons of Joseph, came near and spoke before Moses, and before the rulers, the chief fathers of the sons of Israel. <sup>2</sup>And they said, The LORD commanded my lord to give the land for an inheritance by lot to the sons of Israel. And my lord was commanded by the LORD to give the inheritance of Zelophehad our brother to his daughters. <sup>3</sup>And if they are married to any of the sons of the tribes of the sons of Israel, then shall their inheritance be taken from the inheritance of our fathers and shall be put to the inheritance of the tribe to which they are received. So it shall be taken from the lot of our inheritance. <sup>4</sup>And when the jubilee of the sons of Israel shall come, then their inheritance shall be put to the inheritance of the tribe into which they are received. So their inheritance shall be taken away from the inheritance of the tribe of our fathers.

<sup>5</sup>And Moses commanded the sons of Israel according to the word of the LORD saying, The tribe of the sons of Joseph has said well. <sup>6</sup>This is the thing which the LORD commands concerning the daughters of Zelophehad, saying, Let them marry to whom they think best. Only they shall marry into the family of the tribe of their father. <sup>7</sup>So the inheritance of the sons of Israel shall not be moved from tribe to tribe. For every one of the sons of Israel shall keep himself to the inheritance of the tribe of his fathers. <sup>8</sup>And every daughter that possesses an inheritance in any tribe of the sons of Israel shall be wife to one of the family of the tribe of her father, so that the sons of Israel may each one enjoy the inheritance of his fathers. <sup>9</sup>And the inheritance shall not move from one tribe to another tribe. But every one of the tribes of the sons of Israel shall keep himself to his own inheritance. <sup>10</sup>Even as the LORD commanded Moses, so the daughters of Zelophehad did. <sup>11</sup>For Mahlah, Tirzah, and Hoglah, and Milcah, and Noah, the daughters of Zelophehad, were married to their father's brothers' sons. <sup>12</sup>They were married into the families of the sons of Manasseh the son of Joseph, and their inheritance remained in the tribe of the family of their father.

<sup>13</sup>These are the commandments and the judgments which the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses to the sons of Israel in the plains of Moab beside Jordan, at Jericho.

THE BOOK OF DEUTERONOMY

CHAPTER 1

<sup>1</sup>These are the words which Moses spoke to all Israel beyond Jordan in the wilderness, in the plain opposite the Red Sea, between Paran and Tophel and Laban and Hazeroth and Dizahab, <sup>2</sup>eleven days from Horeb by way of Mount Seir to Kadesh-barnea. <sup>3</sup>And it happened, in the fortieth year, in the eleventh month, on the first of the month, Moses spoke to the sons of Israel according to all that Jehovah had commanded him concerning them; <sup>4</sup>after he had smitten Sihon the king of the Amorites, who lived in Heshbon, and Og the king of Bashan, who lived in Ashtaroth in Edrei, <sup>5</sup>beyond the Jordan, in the land of Moab, Moses began to explain this law, saying, <sup>6</sup>Jehovah our God spoke to us in Horeb, saying, You have had enough of dwelling in this mountain. <sup>7</sup>Turn and take your journey, and enter the hill-country of the Amorites, and to all its neighboring places, in the Arabah in the hill-country, and in the low country, and in the south, and in the shore of the sea, the land of the Canaanites and of Lebanon, to the great river, the river Euphrates. <sup>8</sup>Behold, I have set before you the land; go in and possess the land which the LORD has sworn to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give to them and to their seed after them.

<sup>9</sup>And I spoke to you at that time, saying, I am not able to bear you by myself. <sup>10</sup>Jehovah your God has multiplied you, and, behold, today you are as the stars of heaven for multitude. <sup>11</sup>May the LORD make you a thousand times more than you are, and bless you as He has said to you! <sup>12</sup>How can I by myself bear your pressure and your burden, and your strife? <sup>13</sup>Give wise and understanding men, and those known to your tribes, and I will appoint them rulers over you. <sup>14</sup>And you answered me and said, The thing which you have spoken is good to do. <sup>15</sup>And I took the chiefs of your tribes, wise and noted men, and made them heads over you, captains over thousands, and captains over hundreds, and captains over fifties, and captains over tens, and officers among your tribes. <sup>16</sup>And I commanded your judges at that time saying, Hear the causes between your brothers, and judge righteously between a man and his brother, and the stranger with him. <sup>17</sup>You shall not respect persons in judgment. You shall hear the small as well as the great. You shall not be afraid of the face of man, for the judgment is God's. And the cause that is too hard for you, bring to me, and I will hear it. <sup>18</sup>And I commanded you at that time all the things which you should do.

<sup>19</sup>And when we departed from Horeb, we went through all that great and terrible wilderness which you saw by the way of the mountain of the Amorites, as the LORD our God commanded us. And we came to Kadesh-barnea. <sup>20</sup>And I said to you, You have come to the mountain of the Amorites, which the LORD our God has given unto us. <sup>21</sup>Behold, the LORD your God has set the land before you. Go up. Possess it, even as the LORD God of your fathers has said to you. Do not fear, neither be troubled. <sup>22</sup>And you came near to me, every one of you, and said, We will send men before us, and they shall search out the land and bring us word again by what way we must go up, and into what cities we shall come. <sup>23</sup>And the saying pleased me very much. And I took twelve men of you, one of a tribe. <sup>24</sup>And they turned and went up into the mountain and came to the valley of Eshcol, and searched it out. <sup>25</sup>And they took of the fruit of the land in their hands, and brought it down to us, and brought us word again and said, It is a good land which the LORD our God gives us. <sup>26</sup>But you would not go up, but rebelled against the command of the LORD your God. <sup>27</sup>And you murmured in your tents and said, Because the LORD hates us, He has brought us forth out of the land of Egypt to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites, to destroy us. <sup>28</sup>Where shall we go up? Our brothers have broken our hearts, saying, We have seen there a people greater and taller than we are. The cities are great and walled up to heaven. And also we have seen the sons of the giants.

<sup>29</sup>Then I said to you, Do not dread them nor be afraid of them. <sup>30</sup>The LORD your God who goes before you shall fight for you, according to all that He did for you in Egypt before your eyes, <sup>31</sup>and in the wilderness where you have seen how the LORD your God carried you, as a man carries his son, in all the way that you went until you came into this place. <sup>32</sup>Yet in this thing you did not believe the LORD your God, <sup>33</sup>who went in the way before you to search you out a place to pitch your tents, in fire by night, to show you by what way you should go, and in a cloud by day.

<sup>34</sup>And the LORD heard the voice of your words, and was angry and swore, saying, <sup>35</sup>Surely there shall not one of these men of this evil generation see that good land, which I swore to give to your fathers, <sup>36</sup>except Caleb the son of Jephunneh; he shall see it, and to him I will give the land that he has trodden upon, and to his sons, because he has fully followed the LORD. <sup>37</sup>Also the LORD was angry with me for your sakes, saying, You also shall not go in there. <sup>38</sup>Joshua the son of Nun, who stands before you, he shall go in there. Make him strong, for he shall cause Israel to inherit it. <sup>39</sup>And your little ones, who you said would be a prey, and your sons who in that day had no knowledge between good and evil, they shall go in there. And I will give it to them, and they shall possess it. <sup>40</sup>But you turn and journey into the wilderness by the way of the Red Sea.

<sup>41</sup>And you answered and said to me, We have sinned against the LORD; we will go up and fight according to all that the LORD our God commanded us. And when each one of you had buckled on his weapons of war, you were ready to go up into the hill. <sup>42</sup>But the LORD said to me, Say to them, Do not go up, nor fight, for I am not among you, you will be beaten by your enemies. <sup>43</sup>So I spoke to you. And you would not hear, but rebelled against the command of the LORD, and went presumptuously into the hill. <sup>44</sup>And the Amorites who lived in that mountain came out against you and chased you, even as bees do, and destroyed you in Seir, to Hormah. <sup>45</sup>And you returned and wept before the LORD. But the LORD would not listen to your voice, nor give ear to you. <sup>46</sup>So you stayed in Kadesh many days, according to the days that you remained.

CHAPTER 2

<sup>1</sup>Then we turned and took our journey into the wilderness by the way of the Red Sea, as the LORD spoke to me. And we went around Mount Seir many days. <sup>2</sup>And the LORD spoke to me, saying, <sup>3</sup>You have gone around this mountain long enough. Turn northward. <sup>4</sup>And command the people saying, You are to pass through the border of your brothers, the sons of Esau, who dwell in Seir. And they shall be afraid of you. Therefore be careful. <sup>5</sup>Do not meddle with them, for I will not give you of their land, no, not so much as a foot breadth, because I have given Mount Seir to Esau for a possession. <sup>6</sup>You shall buy food from them for money, so that you may eat. And you shall also buy water from them for money, so that you may drink. <sup>7</sup>For the LORD your God has blessed you in all the works of your hand. He knows your walking through this great wilderness. The LORD your God has been with you these forty years. You have lacked nothing.

<sup>8</sup>And when we left our brothers the sons of Esau who lived in Seir, through the way of the plain from Elath, and from Ezion-geber, we turned and passed by the way of the wilderness of Moab. <sup>9</sup>And the LORD said to me, Do not besiege the Moab, nor fight with them in battle. For I will not give you any of their land for a possession. Because I have given Ar to the sons of Lot for a possession. <sup>10</sup>The Emim lived there in times past, a great people, who were many and tall like the giants. <sup>11</sup>And they were known as giants, like the sons of Anak, but the Moabites called them Emim. <sup>12</sup>The Horim also lived in Seir in times past. But the sons of Esau took their place when they had destroyed them from before them, and lived in their place; as Israel did to the land of his possession, which the LORD gave to them. <sup>13</sup>Now rise up and cross over the brook Zered. And we went over the brook Zered.

<sup>14</sup>And the days in which we came from Kadesh-barnea, until we had come over the brook Zered were thirty-eight years; until the end of all the generation. The men of war were destroyed from the midst of the camp, as the LORD swore to them. <sup>15</sup>And the hand of the LORD was against them, to destroy them from among the camp, until they were consumed.

<sup>16</sup>And it happened, when all the men of war had finished dying from among the people, <sup>17</sup>the LORD spoke to me, saying, <sup>18</sup>today you are to pass over through Ar, the coast of Moab. <sup>19</sup>And when you come near, across from the sons of Ammon, do not trouble them nor meddle with them. For I will not give you any possessions from the land of the sons of Ammon, because I have given it to the sons of Lot for a possession. <sup>20</sup>It also was known to be a land of giants. Giants lived there in past times. And the Ammonites call them Zamzumim, <sup>21</sup>a great and plentiful people, and tall, like the sons of Anak, but the LORD destroyed them before them. And they took their place and lived in their place, <sup>22</sup>as He did to the sons of Esau who lived in Seir, when he destroyed the Horim from before them. And they took their place and lived in their place even to this day. <sup>23</sup>And the Avvim who lived in villages as far as Azzar, the Caphtorim, who came forth out of Caphtor destroyed them, and lived in their place. <sup>24</sup>Rise up, set out and cross over the river Arnon. Behold! I have given into your hand Sihon the Amorite king of Heshbon, and his land. Begin to possess, and fight with him in battle. <sup>25</sup>Today, I will begin to put your dread and your fear upon the nations under the whole heaven; who shall hear report of you, and shall tremble and be in anguish because of you.

<sup>26</sup>And I sent messengers out of the wilderness of Kedemoth to Sihon king of Heshbon with words of peace, saying, <sup>27</sup>Let me pass through your land. I will go along by the highway. I will neither turn to the right hand nor to the left. <sup>28</sup>You shall sell me food for money, so that I may eat, and give me water for money so that I may drink. Only I will pass through on my feet, <sup>29</sup>as the sons of Esau who live in Seir, and the Moabites who live in Ar, did to me, until I shall cross over Jordan into the land which the LORD our God gives us. <sup>30</sup>But Sihon king of Heshbon would not let us pass by him. For the LORD your God hardened his spirit and made his heart stubborn so that He might deliver him into your hands, as it is this day.

<sup>31</sup>And the LORD said to me, Behold, I have begun to give Sihon and his land before you. Begin to possess it so that you may inherit his land. <sup>32</sup>Then Sihon came out against us, he and all his people, to fight at Jahaz. <sup>33</sup>And the LORD our God delivered him before us. And we struck him and his sons and all his people. <sup>34</sup>And we took all his cities at that time and completely destroyed the men and the women and the little ones of every city. We left none to remain. <sup>35</sup>Only we took the cattle for ourselves, and we took the spoil of the cities. <sup>36</sup>From Aroer, by the brink of the river of Arnon, and the city by the river, even unto Gilead, there was not one city too strong for us. The LORD our God delivered all to us. <sup>37</sup>Only to the land of the sons of Ammon you did not come, to any place of the river Jabbok, nor to the cities in the mountains, nor to whatever the LORD our God denied us.

CHAPTER 3

<sup>1</sup>And we turned and went up the way to Bashan. And Og the king of Bashan came out against us, he and all his people, to battle at Edrei. <sup>2</sup>And the LORD said to me, Do not fear him, for I will deliver him and all his people, and his land, into your hand. And you shall do to him as you did to Sihon king of the Amorites, who lived at Heshbon. <sup>3</sup>So the LORD our God delivered Og into our hands also, the king of Bashan, and all his people. And we struck him until none was left remaining to him. <sup>4</sup>And we took all his cities at that time. There was not a city which we did not take from them, sixty cities, all the region of Argob, the kingdom of Og in Bashan. <sup>5</sup>All these cities were fenced with high walls, gates, and bars; besides a good many unwallied towns. <sup>6</sup>And we completely destroyed them, as we did to Sihon king of Heshbon, completely destroying the men, women, and children of every city. <sup>7</sup>But we took the cattle and the spoil of the cities as a prize for ourselves.

<sup>8</sup>And we took at that time out of the hand of the two kings of the Amorites the land on this side Jordan, from the river of Arnon to Mount Hermon, <sup>9</sup>(the Hermon which the Sidonians call Sirion, and the Amorites call it Shenir). <sup>10</sup>All the cities of the plain, and all Gilead, and all Bashan, and Salchah and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan were taken. <sup>11</sup>For only Og king of Bashan remained of the rest of the giants. Behold! His bedstead was a bedstead of iron. Is it not in Rabbath of the sons of Ammon? Nine cubits was its length, and four cubits its width, according to the cubit of a man. <sup>12</sup>And this is the land which we possessed at that time, from Aroer by the river Arnon, and half of Mount Gilead, and its cities, I gave to the men of Reuben and of Gad. <sup>13</sup>And the rest of Gilead, and all Bashan, the kingdom of Og, I gave to the half tribe of Manasseh, all the region of Argob, with all Bashan, which was called the land of giants. <sup>14</sup>Jair the son of Manasseh took all the country of Argob to the coasts of Geshuri and Maachathi. And he called them after his own name, Bashan (Towns of Jair) to this day. <sup>15</sup>And I gave Gilead to Machir. <sup>16</sup>And to the Reubenites and to the Gadites I gave from Gilead even to the river Arnon, half the valley, and the border even to the river Jabbok, the border of the sons of Ammon, <sup>17</sup>the plain also, and Jordan, and the border of it, from Chinnereth even to the sea of the plain, the Salt Sea, under The Slopes of Pisgah eastward.

<sup>18</sup>And I commanded you at that time saying, The LORD your God has given you this land to possess it. You shall pass over armed before your brothers the sons of Israel, all the sons of might. <sup>19</sup>But your wives and your little ones, and your cattle, (I know that you have much cattle), shall stay in your cities which I have given you <sup>20</sup>until the LORD has given rest to your brothers, as well as to you, and they also possess the land which the LORD your God has given them beyond Jordan. And then you shall each one return to his possessions which I have given you. <sup>21</sup>And I commanded Joshua at that time saying, Your eyes have seen all that the LORD your God has done to these two kings. So the LORD shall do to all the kingdoms where you pass. <sup>22</sup>You shall not fear them. For the LORD your God shall fight for you.

<sup>23</sup>And I begged the LORD at that time saying, <sup>24</sup>O, LORD God, You have begun to show Your servant Your greatness, and Your mighty hand. For what God is there in heaven or in earth who can do according to Your works, and according to Your might? <sup>25</sup>I pray you, let me go over and see the good land beyond Jordan, this good hill-country and Lebanon. <sup>26</sup>But the LORD was angry with me because of you and would not hear me. And the LORD said to me, Let it be enough for you. Speak no more to Me of this matter. <sup>27</sup>Go up into the top of Pisgah and lift up your eyes westward and northward and southward and eastward, and behold it with your eyes. For you shall not go over this Jordan. <sup>28</sup>But charge Joshua, and encourage him, and strengthen him. For he shall go over before this people, and he shall cause them to inherit the land which you shall see. <sup>29</sup>So we stayed in the valley over against Beth-peor.

CHAPTER 4

<sup>1</sup>And now, Israel, listen to the statutes and to the judgments which I teach you, in order to do them, so that you may live and go in and possess the land which the LORD God of your fathers gives you. <sup>2</sup>You shall not add to the word which I command you, neither shall you take away from it, so that you may keep the commands of the LORD your God which I command you. <sup>3</sup>Your eyes have seen what the LORD did because of Baal-peor. For the LORD your God has destroyed from among you all the men that followed Baal-peor. <sup>4</sup>And you who held fast to the LORD your God are alive, every one of you, this day. <sup>5</sup>Behold, I have taught you statutes and judgments, even as the LORD my God commanded me, so that you should do so in the land where you go to possess it. <sup>6</sup>And you shall keep and do them, for this is your wisdom and your understanding in the sight of the nations, which shall hear all these statutes and say, Surely this great nation is a wise and understanding people. <sup>7</sup>For who is a great nation whose God is coming near to them, as Jehovah your God is, in all our calling on him? <sup>8</sup>And who is a great nation whose statutes and judgments are so righteous as all this law which I set before you today?

<sup>9</sup>Only take heed to yourself and keep your soul carefully, lest you forget the things which your eyes have seen, and lest they depart from your heart all the days of your life. But teach them to your sons, and your sons' sons. <sup>10</sup>Remember the day that you stood before the LORD your God in Horeb, when the LORD said to me, Gather the people to Me, and I will make them hear My words so that they may learn to fear Me all the days that they shall live upon the earth, and they may teach their sons. <sup>11</sup>And you came near and stood under the mountain. And the mountain burned with fire to the midst of heaven, with darkness, clouds, and thick darkness. <sup>12</sup>And the LORD spoke to you out of the midst of the fire. You heard the voice of the words, but saw no likeness, only a voice.

<sup>13</sup>And He declared to you His covenant which He commanded you to perform, ten commandments. And He wrote them on two tablets of stone. <sup>14</sup>And the LORD commanded me at that time to teach you statutes and judgments so that you might do them in the land where you go over to possess it. <sup>15</sup>Therefore take good heed to yourselves, for you saw no kind of likeness on the day the LORD spoke to you in Horeb out of the midst of the fire, <sup>16</sup>lest you act corruptly and make yourselves a graven image, the likeness of any figure, the likeness of male or female, <sup>17</sup>the likeness of any beast on the earth, the likeness of any winged fowl that flies in the air, <sup>18</sup>the likeness of anything that creeps on the ground, the likeness of any fish in the waters beneath the earth; <sup>19</sup>and lest you lift up your eyes to the heavens, and when you see the sun, and the moon, and the stars, all the host of heaven, lest you should be driven to worship them and serve them, which the LORD your God has allotted to all nations under all the heavens. <sup>20</sup>But the LORD has taken you and brought you out from the iron furnace, out of Egypt, to be to Him a people of inheritance, as you are today. <sup>21</sup>And the LORD was angry with me for your sakes, and swore that I should not go over Jordan, and that I should not go in to that good land which the LORD your God gives you for an inheritance. <sup>22</sup>But I must die in this land; I must not go over Jordan. But you shall go over and possess that good land. <sup>23</sup>Take heed to yourselves, lest you forget the covenant of the LORD your God, which He made with you, and make you a graven image, a likeness of anything which the LORD your God has forbidden you. <sup>24</sup>For the LORD your God is a consuming fire, a jealous God.

<sup>25</sup>When you shall father sons and sons's sons, and when you shall have remained long in the land and have dealt corruptly by making a graven image, the likeness of any, and shall do evil in the sight of the LORD your God, to provoke Him to anger, <sup>26</sup>I call Heaven and earth to witness against you this day, that you shall soon utterly perish from off the land which you are crossing over Jordan to possess. You shall not prolong your days upon it, but shall utterly be destroyed.

<sup>27</sup>And the LORD shall scatter you among the nations, and you shall be left few in number among the nations where the LORD shall drive you. <sup>28</sup>And there you shall serve gods, the work of men's hands, wood and stone, which neither see nor hear nor eat nor smell. <sup>29</sup>But if you shall seek the LORD your God from there, you shall find Him, if you seek Him with all your heart and with all your soul. <sup>30</sup>When you are in trouble and when all these things have found you in the latter days, then you shall return to the LORD your God and shall be obedient to His voice. <sup>31</sup>For the LORD your God is a merciful God; He will not forsake you, nor destroy you, nor forget the covenant of your fathers which He swore to them.

<sup>32</sup>For ask now of the days past, which were before you, since the day that God created man upon the earth, and from the one end of the heavens to the other, where there has been a thing as great as this, or has been heard any like it. <sup>33</sup>Did people ever hear the voice of God speaking out of the midst of the fire as you have heard and live? <sup>34</sup>Or has God gone forth to take a nation for himself from the midst of a nation, by trials, by signs, and by wonders, and by war, and by a mighty hand, and by a stretched out arm, and by great terrors, according to all that the LORD your God did for you in Egypt before your eyes? <sup>35</sup>It was shown to you so that you might know that Jehovah is God, and no one else beside Him. <sup>36</sup>He made you hear His voice out of Heaven so that He might teach you. And He showed you His great fire upon earth. And you heard His words out of the midst of the fire. <sup>37</sup>And because He loved your fathers, therefore He chose their seed after them, and brought you out in His sight with His mighty power out of Egypt, <sup>38</sup>in order to drive out from before you nations greater and mightier than you, to bring you in, to give you their land for an inheritance, as it is this day. <sup>39</sup>Therefore, know this day and consider within your heart, that the LORD is God in Heaven above and on the earth beneath. There is no other. <sup>40</sup>Therefore, you shall keep his statutes and His commandments which I command you this day, so that it may go well with you and with your sons after you, and so that you may make your days longer upon the earth which the LORD your God gives you forever.

<sup>41</sup>Then Moses separated three cities on this side Jordan towards the sunrise, <sup>42</sup>so that the slayer might be there, he who should kill his neighbor through error and who did not hate him in times past, and he fleeing to one of these cities might live. <sup>43</sup>They were Bezer in the wilderness, in the plain country, of the Reubenites; and Ramoth in Gilead of the Gadites; and Golan in Bashan, for the Manassites.

Hermon, <sup>49</sup>and all the plain on this side Jordan eastward, even to the sea of the plain, under the springs of Pisgah.

CHAPTER 5

<sup>1</sup>And Moses called all Israel and said to them, Hear, O Israel, the statutes and judgments which I speak in your ears this day, so that you may learn them and keep and do them. <sup>2</sup>The LORD our God made a covenant with us in Horeb. <sup>3</sup>The LORD did not make this covenant with our fathers, but with us, even us, all of us here, alive today. <sup>4</sup>The LORD talked with you face to face in the mountain out of the midst of the fire; <sup>5</sup>I stood between the LORD and you at that time, to show you the word of the LORD, for you were afraid because of the fire, and did not go up into the mountain, saying, <sup>6</sup>I am the LORD your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage.

<sup>7</sup>You shall have no other gods besides Me.

<sup>8</sup>You shall not make a graven image for you, any likeness of anything that is in the heavens above, or in the earth beneath, or in the waters beneath the earth. <sup>9</sup>You shall not bow yourself down to them, nor serve them. For I the LORD your God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the sons to the third and fourth generation of those who hate Me, <sup>10</sup>and showing mercy to thousands of those who love Me and keep My commandments.

<sup>11</sup>You shall not take the name of the LORD your God in vain, for the LORD will not acquit him who takes His name in vain.

<sup>12</sup>Keep the sabbath day to sanctify it, as the LORD your God has commanded you. <sup>13</sup>Six days you shall labor and do all your work. <sup>14</sup>But the seventh day shall be the sabbath of the LORD your God. In it you shall not do any work, you, nor your son, nor your daughter, nor your man-servant, nor your maid-servant, nor your ox, nor your ass, nor any of your cattle, nor your stranger inside your gates, so that your man-servant and your maid-servant may rest like yourself. <sup>15</sup>And remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt, and the LORD your God brought you out from there with a mighty hand and with a stretched-out arm. Therefore the LORD your God commanded you to keep the sabbath day.

<sup>16</sup>Honor your father and your mother, as the LORD your God has commanded you, so that your days may be made longer, and that it may go well with you in the land which the LORD your God gives you.

<sup>21</sup>And you shall not lust after your neighbor's wife, nor shall you covet your neighbor's house, his field, or his man-servant, or his maid-servant, his ox, or his ass, or anything that is your neighbor's.

<sup>22</sup>The LORD spoke these words to all your assembly in the mountain out of the midst of the fire, of the cloud, and of the thick darkness, with a great voice. And he added no more. And he wrote them in two tablets of stone and delivered them to me. <sup>23</sup>And it happened when you heard the voice out of the midst of the darkness, for the mountain burned with fire, you came near me, all the heads of your tribes and your elders, <sup>24</sup>and you said, Behold! The LORD our God has shown us His glory and His greatness, and we have heard His voice out of the midst of the fire. We have seen today that God talks with man and that He lives. <sup>25</sup>Now therefore why should we die? For this great fire will consume us. If we hear the voice of the LORD our God any more, then we shall die. <sup>26</sup>For who of all flesh has heard the voice of the living God speaking out of the midst of the fire, as we have, and lived? <sup>27</sup>You go near and hear all that the LORD our God shall say. And you speak to us all that the LORD our God shall speak to you, and we will hear and act. <sup>28</sup>And the LORD heard the voice of your words when you spoke to me. And the LORD said to me, I have heard the voice of the words of this people, which they have spoken to you. They have well said all that they have spoken. <sup>29</sup>Oh that there were such a heart in them that they would fear Me and keep all My commandments always, so that it might be well with them and with their sons forever! <sup>30</sup>Go say to them, Go into your tents again. <sup>31</sup>But as for you, you stand here by Me, and I will speak to you all the commandments and the statutes and the judgments which you shall teach them, that they may do them in the land which I am giving them, to possess it. <sup>32</sup>And you shall be careful to do as the LORD your God has commanded you. You shall not turn aside to the right hand or to the left. <sup>33</sup>You shall walk in all the ways which the LORD your God has commanded you so that you may live and that good may be to you, and you may make your days longer in the land which you shall possess.

CHAPTER 6

<sup>1</sup>And these are the commandments, the statutes, and the judgments, which the LORD our God commanded to teach you so that you might do them in the land where you go, to possess it, <sup>2</sup>that you might fear the LORD your God, to keep all His statutes and His commandments which I command you, you, and your son, and your son's son, all the days of your life, and so that your days may be prolonged. <sup>3</sup>Then hear, O, Israel, and be careful to do it, so that it may be well with you, and that you may greatly multiply, as the LORD God of our fathers has promised you, in the land that flows with milk and honey.

<sup>4</sup>Hear, O, Israel. The LORD our God is one LORD. <sup>5</sup>And you shall love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your might. <sup>6</sup>And these words which I command you this day shall be in your heart. <sup>7</sup>And you shall carefully teach them to your sons, and shall talk of them when you sit in your house and when you walk by the way, and when you lie down, and when you rise up. <sup>8</sup>And you shall bind them for a sign upon your hand, and they shall be as frontlets between your eyes. <sup>9</sup>And you shall write them upon the posts of your house, and on your gates. <sup>10</sup>And when the LORD your God has brought you into the land which He swore to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give you great and goodly cities which you did not build, <sup>11</sup>and houses full of every good thing which you did not fill, and wells which are dug, but which you did not dig, vineyards and olive trees which you did not plant, and you shall eat and be full. <sup>12</sup>You shall be on guard lest you forget the LORD who brought you forth out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage. <sup>13</sup>You shall fear the LORD your God and serve Him, and shall swear by His name. <sup>14</sup>You shall not go after other gods, of the gods of the people all around you, <sup>15</sup>for the LORD your God is a jealous God among you, lest the anger of the LORD your God be kindled against you and destroy you from off the face of the earth.

<sup>16</sup>You shall not tempt the LORD your God as you tempted in Massah. <sup>17</sup>You shall carefully keep the commandments of the LORD your God, and His testimonies, and His statutes which He has commanded you. <sup>18</sup>And you shall do the right and good in the sight of the LORD, so that it may be well with you, and so that you may go in and possess the good land which the LORD swore to your fathers, <sup>19</sup>to cast out all your enemies from before you, as the LORD has spoken.

<sup>20</sup>When your son asks you in time to come, saying, What are the testimonies, and the statutes and the judgments which the LORD our God has commanded you? <sup>21</sup>Then you shall say to your son, We were Pharaoh's slaves in Egypt, and the LORD brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand.<sup>22</sup> And the LORD showed signs and wonders, great and evil signs, upon Egypt, upon Pharaoh and upon all his household, before our eyes.<sup>23</sup> And He brought us out from there so that He might bring us in to give us the land which He swore to our fathers.<sup>24</sup> And the LORD commanded us to do all these statutes, to fear the LORD our God, for our good always, so that He might preserve us alive, as it is today.<sup>25</sup> And if we are careful to do all these commandments before the LORD our God, as He has commanded us, it shall be our righteousness.

CHAPTER 7

<sup>1</sup>When the LORD your God shall bring you into the land where you go to possess it, and has cast out many nations before you, the Hittites, and the Girgashites, and the Amorites, and the Canaanites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, seven nations greater and mightier than you,<sup>2</sup> and the LORD your God shall deliver them before you, you shall crush them, completely destroy them. You shall make no covenant with them nor show mercy to them.<sup>3</sup> Nor shall you make marriages with them. You shall not give your daughter to his son, nor shall you take his daughter to your son.<sup>4</sup> For they will turn away your son from following Me, so that they may serve other gods. So the anger of the LORD will be kindled against you and will destroy you suddenly.<sup>5</sup> But you shall deal with them in this way: you shall destroy their altars and break down their images, and cut down their groves and burn their graven images with fire.

<sup>6</sup>For you are a holy people to the LORD your God. The LORD your God has chosen you to be a special people to Himself, above all people that are upon the face of the earth.<sup>7</sup> The LORD did not set His love upon you, nor choose you, because you were more in number than any people, for you were the fewest of all people.<sup>8</sup> But because the LORD loved you, and because He would keep the oath which He had sworn to your fathers, the LORD has brought you out with a mighty hand and redeemed you out of the house of slavery, from the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt.<sup>9</sup> Therefore, know that the LORD your God, He is God, the faithful God who keeps covenant and mercy with them that love Him and keep His commandments, to a thousand generations.<sup>10</sup> And he repays those who hate Him to their face, to destroy them. He will not be slow to repay him who hates Him. He will repay him to his face.<sup>11</sup> And you shall keep the commandments and the statutes and the judgments which I command you today, to do them.

<sup>12</sup>And it shall be, because you listen to these judgments and keep and do them, the LORD your God shall keep to you the covenant and the mercy which He swore to your fathers.<sup>13</sup> And He will love you and bless you and multiply you. He will also bless the fruit of your womb, and the fruit of your land, your grain, and your wine, and your oil, the increase of your cattle, and the flocks of your sheep, in the land which He swore to your fathers to give you.<sup>14</sup> You shall be blessed above all people. There shall not be male or female barren among you or among your cattle.<sup>15</sup> And the LORD will take away from you all sickness, and will put none of the evil diseases of Egypt which you know upon you. But He will lay them upon all who hate you.<sup>16</sup> And you shall destroy all the people which the LORD your God shall deliver you. Your eye shall have no pity upon them, neither shall you serve their gods, for they will be a snare to you.

<sup>17</sup>If you shall say in your heart, These nations are more than I; how can I throw them out? <sup>18</sup>You shall not be afraid of them, but shall well remember what the LORD your God did to Pharaoh and to all Egypt.<sup>19</sup> Remember the great temptations which your eyes saw, and the signs, and the wonders, and the mighty hand, and the stretched-out arm by which the Lord your God brought you out.

So shall the LORD your God do to all the people of whom you are afraid. <sup>20</sup>And the LORD your God will send the hornet among them, until the ones who are left, and who hide themselves from you, are destroyed.

<sup>21</sup>You shall not be afraid of them, for the LORD your God is among you, a mighty and terrible God. <sup>22</sup>And the LORD your God will put out those nations before you by little and little. You may not destroy them at once, lest the beasts of the field increase upon you. <sup>23</sup>And the LORD your God shall deliver them to you, and shall destroy them with a mighty ruin until they are destroyed. <sup>24</sup>And He shall deliver their kings into your hand, and you shall destroy their name from under the heavens. No man shall be able to stand before you until you have destroyed them. <sup>25</sup>You shall burn the graven images of their gods with fire. You shall not desire the silver or gold on them, nor take it for yourself, so that you may not be snared in it. For it is an abomination to the LORD your God. <sup>26</sup>And you shall not bring an abomination into your house, lest you be a cursed thing like it. You shall utterly hate it, and you shall utterly despise it. For it is a cursed thing.

CHAPTER 8

<sup>1</sup>All the commandments which I command you this day shall you be careful to do, that you may live and multiply and go in and possess the land which the LORD swore to your fathers. <sup>2</sup>And you shall remember all the way which the LORD your God led you these forty years in the wilderness in order to humble you, to prove you, to know what is in your heart, whether you would keep His commandments or not. <sup>3</sup>And He humbled you and allowed you to hunger, and then He fed you with manna, which you did not know, neither did your fathers know it, so that He might make you know that man shall not live by bread alone. But man shall live by every word that comes out of the mouth of the LORD. <sup>4</sup>Your clothing did not wear out on you, nor did your foot swell, these forty years. <sup>5</sup>You shall also consider in your heart that as a man chastens his son, so the LORD your God chastens you. <sup>6</sup>And you shall keep the commandments of the LORD your God, to walk in His ways and to fear him. <sup>7</sup>For the LORD your God brings you into a good land, a land of brooks of water, of fountains and depths that spring out of valleys and hills, <sup>8</sup>a land of wheat and barley and vines and fig trees and pomegranates, a land of olive oil and honey, <sup>9</sup>a land in which you shall eat bread without want. You shall not lack anything in it. It is a land whose stones are iron, and out of whose hills you may dig copper. <sup>10</sup>When you have eaten and are full, then you shall bless the LORD your God for the good land which He has given you.

<sup>11</sup>Beware that you do not forget the LORD your God, in not keeping His commandments, and His judgments, and His statutes, which I command you today, <sup>12</sup>lest when you have eaten and are full and have built goodly houses and lived in them, <sup>13</sup>and when your herds and your flocks multiply, and your silver and your gold is multiplied, and all that you have is multiplied, <sup>14</sup>then your heart might be lifted up, and you might forget the LORD your God who brought you forth out of the land of Egypt, from the house of slavery. <sup>15</sup>He led you through the great and terrible wilderness, with fiery serpents and scorpions and thirsty wastes, where there was no water, who brought you forth water out of the rock of flint, <sup>16</sup>who fed you in the wilderness with manna which your fathers did not know, so that He might humble you and so that He might prove you, to do you good in the end, <sup>17</sup>and so that you might not say in your heart, My power and the might of my hand has gotten me this wealth. <sup>18</sup>But you shall remember the LORD your God, for it is He who gives you power to get wealth, so that He may confirm His covenant which He has sworn to your fathers, as it is today.

<sup>19</sup>And it shall be if you do at all forget the LORD your God and walk after other gods and serve them and worship them, I testify against you today that you shall surely perish. <sup>20</sup>As the nations whom the LORD destroys before your face, so you shall perish because you would not listen to the voice of the LORD your God.

CHAPTER 9

<sup>1</sup>Hear, O, Israel! You are to pass over Jordan today, to go in to possess nations greater and mightier than you, cities great and fenced up to heaven, <sup>2</sup>a people great and tall, the sons of the giants, whom you know and have heard it said, Who can stand before the sons of Anak! <sup>3</sup>Therefore, understand today that the LORD your God is He who goes over before you. Like a consuming fire, He shall destroy them, and He shall bring them down before your face. So you shall drive them out and destroy them quickly, as the LORD has said to you. <sup>4</sup>Do not speak in your heart, after the LORD your God has cast them out from before you, saying: For my righteousness, the LORD has brought me in to possess this land. But for the wickedness of these nations, the LORD your God drives them out from before you. <sup>5</sup>Not for your righteousness, or for the uprightness of your heart, do you go to possess their land. But for the wickedness of these nations the LORD your God drives them out from before you, so that He may perform the word which the LORD swore to your fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. <sup>6</sup>Therefore, understand that the LORD your God does not give you this good land, to possess it, for your righteousness. For you are a stiff-necked people.

<sup>7</sup>Remember, and do not forget, how you provoked the LORD your God to wrath in the wilderness. From the day you departed out of the land of Egypt, until you came to this place, you have been rebellious against the LORD. <sup>8</sup>Also in Horeb you provoked the LORD to wrath, so that the LORD was angry with you to have destroyed you. <sup>9</sup>When I had gone up into the mountain to receive the tablets of stone, the tablets of the covenant which the LORD made with you, then I stayed in the mountain forty days and forty nights. I did not either eat bread nor drink water. <sup>10</sup>And the LORD delivered to me two tablets of stone written with the finger of God, and on them according to all the words which the LORD spoke with you in the mountain out of the midst of the fire in the day of the assembly. <sup>11</sup>And at the end of forty days and forty nights the LORD gave me the two tables of stone, the tables of the covenant. <sup>12</sup>And the LORD said to me, Arise! Get down quickly from here, for your people whom you have brought forth out of Egypt have corrupted. They have quickly turned aside out of the way which I commanded them. They have made them a molten image. <sup>13</sup>And the LORD spoke to me saying: I have seen this people, and, behold, it is a stiff-necked people. <sup>14</sup>Let Me alone, so that I may destroy them and blot out their name from under heaven. And I will make of you a nation mightier and greater than they are. <sup>15</sup>So I turned and came down from the mountain, and the mountain burned with fire. And the two tables of the covenant were in my two hands. <sup>16</sup>And I looked, and behold! You had sinned against the LORD your God, and had made you a molten calf. You had turned aside quickly out of the way which the LORD had commanded you. <sup>17</sup>And I took the two tablets and threw them out of my hands and broke them before your eyes. <sup>18</sup>And I fell down before the LORD, as at the first, forty days and forty nights. I neither ate bread nor drank water, because of all your sins which you sinned in doing wickedly in the sight of the LORD to provoke Him to anger. <sup>19</sup>For I was afraid of the anger and fury with which the LORD was angry against you to destroy you. But the LORD listened to me at that time also. <sup>20</sup>And the LORD was very angry with Aaron to have destroyed him. And I prayed for Aaron also at the same time. <sup>21</sup>And I took your sin, the calf which you had made, and burned it with fire, and stamped it, grinding it very small, until it was as small as dust. And I threw the dust of it into the brook that descended out of the mountain.

<sup>22</sup>And at Taberah, and at Massah, and at the Graves of Lust, you provoked the LORD to anger. <sup>23</sup>And when the LORD sent you from Kadesh-barnea, saying: Go up and possess the land which I have given you, then you rebelled against the commandment of the LORD your God, and you did not believe Him, nor listened to His voice. <sup>24</sup>You have been rebellious against the LORD from the day that I knew you. <sup>25</sup>And I fell down before the LORD forty days and forty nights, as I fell down at the first, because the LORD had said He would destroy you. <sup>26</sup>I prayed therefore to the LORD and said, O, Lord God, do not destroy Your people and Your inheritance which You have redeemed through Your greatness, which You have brought forth out of Egypt with a mighty hand. <sup>27</sup>Remember Your servants, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. Do not look to the stubbornness of this people, nor to their wickedness, nor to their sin, <sup>28</sup>lest the land from where You bring us out say, Because the LORD was not able to bring them into the land which He promised them, and because He hated them, He has brought them out to kill them in the wilderness. <sup>29</sup>Yet they are Your people and Your inheritance which You brought out by Your mighty power and by Your stretched-out arm.

CHAPTER 10

<sup>1</sup>At that time the LORD said to me: Cut out two tablets of stone like the first, and come up to Me into the mountain, and make an ark of wood. <sup>2</sup>And I will write on the tablets the words that were in the first tablets which you broke, and you shall put them in the ark. <sup>3</sup>And I made an ark of acacia-wood, and cut out two tablets of stone like the first, and went up into the mountain, having the two tablets in my hand. <sup>4</sup>And He wrote on the tablets, according to the first writing, the ten commandments which the LORD spoke to you in the mountain out of the midst of the fire in the day of the assembly. And the LORD gave them to me. <sup>5</sup>And I turned myself and came down from the mountain, and put the tablets in the ark which I had made. And there they are, as the LORD commanded me.

<sup>6</sup>And the sons of Israel took their journey from Beeroth of the sons of Jaakan to Mosera. There Aaron died, and there he was buried. And Eleazar his son served in the priest's office in his place. <sup>7</sup>From there they moved to Gudgodah, and from Gudgodah to Jotbath, a land of rivers of waters. <sup>8</sup>At that time the LORD separated the tribe of Levi to carry the ark of the covenant of the LORD, to stand before the LORD to minister to Him, and to bless in His name, until today. <sup>9</sup>Therefore Levi has no part nor inheritance with his brothers. The LORD is his inheritance, according as the LORD your God promised him. <sup>10</sup>And I stayed in the mountain, according to the first time, forty days and forty nights. And the LORD listened to me at that time also. The LORD would not destroy you. <sup>11</sup>And the LORD said to me, Arise, Go before the people, causing them to go in and possess the land which I swore to their fathers to give to them.

<sup>12</sup>And now, Israel, what does the LORD your God ask of you, but to fear the LORD your God, to walk in all His ways, and to love Him, and to serve the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul, <sup>13</sup>to keep the commandments of the LORD, and His statutes, which I command you today for your good? <sup>14</sup>Behold, the heaven and the heaven of heavens belongs to the LORD your God, the earth also, with all in it. <sup>15</sup>Only the LORD had a delight in your fathers to love them, and He chose their seed after them, you above all people, as it is today. <sup>16</sup>Therefore, circumcise the foreskin of your heart, and be no longer stiff-necked.

<sup>17</sup>For the LORD your God is God of gods, and Lord of lords, a great God, a mighty, and a terrible God, who does not respect persons nor take bribes. <sup>18</sup>He executes justice for the fatherless and widow, and loves the stranger in giving him food and clothing. <sup>19</sup>Therefore love the stranger, for you were strangers in the land of Egypt. <sup>20</sup>You shall fear the LORD your God. You shall serve Him, and you shall hold fast to Him, and swear by His name. <sup>21</sup>He is your praise, and He is your God, who has done for you these great and terrible things which your eyes have seen. <sup>22</sup>Your fathers went down into Egypt with seventy persons. And now the LORD your God has made you as the stars of the heavens for multitude.

CHAPTER 11

<sup>1</sup>Therefore you shall love the LORD your God, and keep His charge and His statutes and His judgments and His commandments always. <sup>2</sup>And you know today – for I do not speak with your sons who have not known and who have not seen the chastisement of the LORD your God – His greatness, His mighty hand, and His stretched-out arm, <sup>3</sup>and His miracles, and His acts which He did in the midst of Egypt, to Pharaoh the king of Egypt and to all his land. <sup>4</sup>And you know what He did to the army of Egypt, to their horses and to their chariots, how He made the water of the Red Sea to overflow them as they pursued after you, and the LORD has destroyed them to today. <sup>5</sup>And you know what He did to you in the wilderness until you came into this place, <sup>6</sup>and what He did to Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab the son of Reuben, how the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them up, and their households, and their tents, and all the substance in their possession, in the midst of all Israel. <sup>7</sup>But your eyes have seen all the great acts of the LORD which He did. <sup>8</sup>Therefore you shall keep all the commandments which I command you today, so that you may be strong and go in and possess the land where you go to possess it, <sup>9</sup>and so that you may make your days longer in the land which the LORD swore to your fathers to give to them and to their seed a land that flows with milk and honey. <sup>10</sup>For the land into which you go to possess it, is not as the land of Egypt from which you came out, where you sowed your seed and watered it with your foot, like a garden of herbs. <sup>11</sup>But the land which you are entering to possess is a land of hills and valleys, drinking water from the rain of heaven. <sup>12</sup>It is a land which the LORD your God cares for. The eyes of the LORD your God are always upon it, from the beginning of the year even to the end of the year.

<sup>13</sup>And it will be, if you will listen carefully to My commandments which I command you today, to love the LORD and to serve Him with all your heart and with all your soul, <sup>14</sup>I will give the rain of your land in its due season, the first rain and the latter rain, that you may gather in your grain and your wine and your oil. <sup>15</sup>And I will send grass in your fields for your cattle so that you may eat and be full. <sup>16</sup>Take heed to yourselves that your heart may not be deceived, and you turn aside and serve other gods, and worship them. <sup>17</sup>And then the LORD's wrath may be kindled against you, and He may shut up the heaven so that there will be no rain, and so that the land will not yield her fruit, and you perish quickly from off the good land which the LORD gives you. <sup>18</sup>Therefore you shall lay up these my words in your heart and in your soul, and bind them for a sign upon your hand, so that they may be as frontlets between your eyes. <sup>19</sup>And you shall teach them to your sons, speaking of them when you sit in your house, and when you walk by the way, when you lie down, and when you rise up. <sup>20</sup>And you shall write them upon the door posts of your house, and upon your gates, <sup>21</sup>so that your days and the days of your sons may be multiplied in the land which the LORD swore to give to your fathers, like the days of the heavens upon the earth. <sup>22</sup>For if you will carefully keep all these commandments which I command you, to do them, to love the LORD your God, to walk in all His ways, and to hold fast to Him,<sup>23</sup> then the LORD will drive out all these nations from before you, and you shall possess greater and mightier nations than yourself.<sup>24</sup> Every place on which the soles of your feet shall tread shall be yours, from the wilderness and Lebanon, from the river, the river Euphrates, even to the furthest sea shall your border be.<sup>25</sup> There shall no man be able to stand before you, for the LORD your God shall lay the fear of you and the dread of you upon all the land that you shall tread upon, as He has said to you.

<sup>26</sup>Behold, I set before you today a blessing and a curse:<sup>27</sup> A blessing if you obey the commandments of the LORD your God which I command you today,<sup>28</sup> and a curse if you will not obey the commandments of the LORD your God, but will turn aside out of the way which I command you today, to go after other gods which you have not known.<sup>29</sup> And it will be, when the LORD your God has brought you into the land where you go to possess it, you shall put the blessing upon Mount Gerizim, and the curse upon Mount Ebal.<sup>30</sup> Are they not on the other side Jordan, by the way where the sun goes down, in the land of the Canaanites, who dwell in the plain over against Gilgal beside the plains of Moreh?<sup>31</sup> For you shall pass over Jordan to go in to possess the land which the LORD your God gives you, and you shall possess it and dwell in it.<sup>32</sup> And you shall be careful to do all the statutes and judgments which I set before you today.

CHAPTER 12

<sup>1</sup>These are the statutes and judgments which you shall be careful to do in the land which the LORD God of your fathers gives you to possess, all the days that you live upon the earth.<sup>2</sup> You shall completely destroy all the places in which the nations which you shall possess served their gods, on the high mountains and on the hills and under every green tree.<sup>3</sup> And you shall overthrow their altars and break their pillars, and burn their groves with fire. And you shall cut down the carved images of their gods, and destroy their names out of that place.<sup>4</sup> You shall not do so to the LORD your God.<sup>5</sup> But to the place which the LORD your God shall choose out of all your tribes to put His name there, even to His dwelling place you shall seek, and there you shall come.<sup>6</sup> And there you shall bring your burnt offerings, and your sacrifices, and your tithes, and heave offerings of your hand, and your vows, and your free-will offerings, and the first-born of your herds and of your flocks.<sup>7</sup> And there you shall eat before the LORD your God, and you shall rejoice in all that you put your hand to, you and your households in which the LORD your God has blessed you.<sup>8</sup> You shall not do according to all that we do here today, each man doing whatever is right in his own eyes.<sup>9</sup> For you have not as yet come to the rest and to the inheritance which the LORD your God gives you.<sup>10</sup> But when you go over Jordan and live in the land which the LORD your God gives you to inherit, and He gives you rest from all your enemies round about, so that you live in safety,<sup>11</sup> then there shall be a place which the LORD your God shall choose to cause His name to dwell there. There you shall bring all that I command you, your burnt offerings, and your sacrifices, your tithes, and the heave offering of your hand, and all your choice vows which you vow to the LORD.<sup>12</sup> And you shall rejoice before the LORD your God, you, your sons, your daughters, your men-servants, your female-servants, and the Levite that is within your gates (because he has no part nor inheritance with you).<sup>13</sup> Take heed to yourself that you do not offer your burnt offering in every place that you see.<sup>14</sup> But in the place which the LORD shall choose in one of your tribes, there you shall offer your burnt offering, and there you shall do all that I command you.

<sup>15</sup>However, you may kill and eat flesh in all your gates, whatever your soul desires, according to the blessing of the LORD your God which He has given you, the unclean and the clean may eat of it, as of the gazelle, and as of the hart. <sup>16</sup>Only you shall not eat the blood. You shall pour it on the earth like water. <sup>17</sup>You may not eat inside your gates the tithe of your grain or of your wine or of your oil, or the first-born of your herds or of your flock, or any of your vows which you vow, or your free-will offerings or the heave offering of your hand. <sup>18</sup>But you must eat them before the LORD your God in the place which the LORD your God shall choose, you, and your son, and your daughter, and your man-servant, and your maid-servant, and the Levite within your gates. And you shall rejoice before the LORD your God in all that you put your hands to. <sup>19</sup>Take heed to yourself that you do not forsake the Levite as long as you live on the earth. <sup>20</sup>When the LORD your God shall make your border larger, as He has promised you, and you shall say, I will eat flesh, because your soul longs to eat flesh; you may eat flesh, whatever your soul desires. <sup>21</sup>If the place which the LORD your God has chosen to put his name there is too far from you, then you shall kill of your herd and of your flock which the LORD has given you, as I have commanded you, and you shall eat in your gates whatever your soul desires. <sup>22</sup>Even as the gazelle and the hart is eaten, so you shall eat them. The unclean and the clean shall eat of them alike. <sup>23</sup>Only be sure that you do not eat the blood. For the blood is the life. And you may not eat the life with the flesh. <sup>24</sup>You shall not eat it. You shall pour it on the earth like water. <sup>25</sup>You shall not eat it, so that it may go well with you and with your sons after you, when you shall do what is right in the sight of the LORD. <sup>26</sup>Only your holy things which you have, and your vows, you shall take and go to the place which the LORD shall choose. <sup>27</sup>And you shall offer your burnt offerings, the flesh and the blood, on the altar of the LORD your God. And the blood of your sacrifices shall be poured out on the altar of the LORD your God, and you shall eat the flesh. <sup>28</sup>Be careful to hear all these words which I command you, so that it may go well with you and with your sons after you forever, when you do the good and right in the sight of the LORD your God. <sup>29</sup>When the LORD your God shall cut off the nations before you, where you go to possess them, and you take their place and dwell in their land, <sup>30</sup>take heed to yourself that you do not become snared by following them, after they are destroyed from before you. And be careful that you do not ask about their gods, saying, How did these nations serve their gods that I too may do likewise? <sup>31</sup>You shall not do so to the LORD your God. For every abomination to the LORD, which He hates, they have done to their gods; even their sons and their daughters they have burned in the fire to their gods. <sup>32</sup>Whatever thing I command you, be careful to do it. You shall not add to it, nor take away from it.

CHAPTER 13

<sup>1</sup>If a prophet rises among you, or a dreamer of dreams, and gives you a sign or a wonder, <sup>2</sup>and the sign or the wonder which he tells you comes to pass, of which he said, Let us go after other gods which you have not known, and let us serve them, <sup>3</sup>you shall not listen to the words of that prophet or that dreamer of dreams. For the LORD your God is testing you to know whether you love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul. <sup>4</sup>You shall walk after the LORD your God and fear Him, and keep His commandments, and obey His voice, and you shall serve Him and hold fast to Him. <sup>5</sup>And that prophet or that dreamer of dreams shall be put to death, because he has spoken to turn you away from the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt and redeemed you out of the house of bondage, to lure you out of the way which the LORD your

God commanded you to walk in. So you shall put the evil away from the midst of you.

<sup>6</sup>If your brother, the son of your mother, or your son, or your daughter, or the wife of your bosom, or your friend who is like your own soul, lures you secretly, saying, Let us go and serve other gods which you have not known, you nor your fathers, <sup>7</sup>that is, of the gods of the people who are round about you, near you or far off from you, from the one end of the earth even to the other end of the earth, <sup>8</sup>you shall not consent to him or listen to him. Nor shall your eye pity him, nor shall you spare, nor shall you hide him. <sup>9</sup>But you shall surely kill him. Your hand shall be first on him to put him to death, and afterwards the hand of all the people. <sup>10</sup>And you shall stone him with stones so that he dies, because he has sought to lure you away from the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage. <sup>11</sup>And all Israel shall hear, and fear, and shall do no more any such wickedness as this among you.

<sup>12</sup>If, in one of your cities which the LORD your God has given you to dwell in, you shall hear someone saying, <sup>13</sup>Men, the sons of Belial, have gone out from among you and have withdrawn those who live in their city, saying, Let us go and serve other gods, which you have not known, <sup>14</sup>then you shall inquire and make search, and ask carefully. And behold, if it is true, and the thing is certain, that such an abomination is done among you, <sup>15</sup>you shall surely strike those who live in that city with the edge of the sword, destroying it completely, and all that is in it, and all the cattle of it, with the edge of the sword. <sup>16</sup>And you shall gather all the spoil of it into the middle of its street, and shall burn the city with fire, and all its spoil, every bit of it, for the LORD your God. And it shall be a heap forever. It shall not be built again. <sup>17</sup>And let nothing of the cursed thing cling to your hand, so that the LORD may turn from the heat of his anger and show you mercy, and have pity on you, and multiply you as He has sworn to your fathers, <sup>18</sup>when you shall listen to the voice of the LORD your God, to keep all His commandments which I command you today, to do the right in the eyes of the LORD your God.

CHAPTER 14

<sup>1</sup>You are the sons of the LORD your God. You shall not cut yourselves nor make any baldness between your eyes for the dead. <sup>2</sup>For you are a holy people to the LORD your God, and the LORD has chosen you to be a peculiar people to Himself, above all the nations that are on the earth. <sup>3</sup>You shall not eat anything hateful to God. <sup>4</sup>These are the animals which you shall eat: the ox, the sheep, and the goat, <sup>5</sup>the hart, and the gazelle, and the fallow deer, and the wild goat, and the mountain goat, and the wild ox, and the mountain-sheep. <sup>6</sup>And every animal that divides the hoof, and divides it into two hooves, and chews the cud among the animals, that you shall eat. <sup>7</sup>But these you shall not eat, of those which chew the cud, or of those that divide the cloven hoof: the camel, and the hare, and the coney, for they chew the cud, but do not divide the hoof. They are unclean to you. <sup>8</sup>And the swine, because it divides the hoof but does not chew the cud; it is unclean to you. You shall not eat of their flesh nor touch their dead body. <sup>9</sup>These you shall eat of all that are in the waters: all that have fins and scales you shall eat. <sup>10</sup>And whatever does not have fins and scales you shall not eat. It is unclean to you. <sup>11</sup>You shall eat all clean birds. <sup>12</sup>But you shall not eat of these: the eagle, and the ossifrage, and the ospray, <sup>13</sup>and the falcon, and the kite, and the vulture after its kind, <sup>14</sup>and every raven after its kind, <sup>15</sup>and the owl, and the night hawk, and the cuckoo, and the hawk after its kind, <sup>16</sup>the little owl, and the great owl, and the swan, <sup>17</sup>and the pelican, and the gier eagle, and the cormorant, <sup>18</sup>and the stork, and the heron after its kind, and the lap-wing, and the bat. <sup>19</sup>And every creeping thing that flies is unclean to you. They shall not be eaten. <sup>20</sup>You may eat all clean fowls. <sup>21</sup>You shall not eat anything that dies of itself. You shall deliver it to the stranger that is in your gates, so that he may eat it. Or you may sell it to a stranger. For you are a holy people to the LORD your God. You shall not boil a kid in its mother's milk. <sup>22</sup>You shall truly tithe all the increase of your seed that the field brings forth year by year. <sup>23</sup>And you shall eat before the LORD your God in the place which He shall choose to place His name there, the tithe of your grain, of your wine, and of your oil, and the first-born of your herds and of your flocks so that you may learn to fear the LORD your God always. <sup>24</sup>And if the way is too long for you, so that you are not able to carry it, or if the place is too far from you, which the LORD your God shall choose to set His name there, when the LORD your God has blessed you, <sup>25</sup>then you shall turn it into money and bind up the money in your hand, and shall go to the place which the LORD your God shall choose. <sup>26</sup>And you shall pay that money for whatever your soul desires, for oxen, or for sheep, or for wine, or for strong drink, or for whatever your soul desires. And you shall eat there before the LORD your God, and you shall rejoice, you and your household <sup>27</sup>and the Levite within your gates, you shall not forsake him, for he has no part nor inheritance with you. <sup>28</sup>At the end of three years you shall bring forth all the tithe of your increase the same year, and shall lay it up inside your gates. <sup>29</sup>And the Levite, because he has no part nor inheritance with you, and the stranger, and the fatherless, and the widow, who are inside your gates, shall come, and shall eat and be satisfied, so that the LORD may bless you in all the work of your hand which you do.

CHAPTER 15

<sup>1</sup>At the end of every seven years you shall make a release. <sup>2</sup>And this is the manner of the release. Every man who has a loan to his neighbor shall release it. He shall not exact it from his neighbor, or from his brother, because it is called the LORD's release. <sup>3</sup>You may exact it from a foreigner, but your hand shall release that which is yours with your brother, <sup>4</sup>except when there shall be no poor among you. For the LORD shall greatly bless you in the land which the LORD your God gives you for an inheritance to possess it, <sup>5</sup>only if you carefully listen to the voice of the LORD your God to be careful to do all these commandments which I command you today. <sup>6</sup>For the LORD your God blesses you as He promised you. And you shall lend to many nations, but you shall not borrow. And you shall reign over many nations, but they shall not reign over you. <sup>7</sup>If there is among you a poor man of one of your brothers inside any of your gates in your land which the LORD your God gives you, you shall not harden your heart nor shut your hand from your poor brother. <sup>8</sup>But you shall open your hand wide to him, and shall surely lend him enough for his need, that which he lacks. <sup>9</sup>Beware that there is not a thought in your wicked heart, saying, The seventh year, the year of release, is at hand, and your eye may be evil against your poor brother, and you give him nothing. And he may cry to the LORD against you, and it is sin to you. <sup>10</sup>You shall surely give to him, and your heart shall not be grieved when you give to him, because for this thing the LORD your God shall bless you in all your works, and in all that you put your hand to. <sup>11</sup>For the poor shall never cease out of the land. Therefore, I command you saying, You shall open your hand wide to your brother, to your poor, and to your needy, in your land.

<sup>12</sup>If your brother, a Hebrew man or a Hebrew woman, is sold to you and serves you six years, then in the seventh year you shall let him go free from you. <sup>13</sup>And when you send him out free from you, you shall not let him go away empty. <sup>14</sup>You shall surround him from your flock, and from your grain floor, and from your wine-press, with what the LORD your God has blessed you, you shall give to him. <sup>15</sup>And you shall remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt, and the LORD your God redeemed you. Therefore I command you this thing today. <sup>16</sup>And if he says to you, I will not go away from you, because he loves you and your house, because he is happy with you, <sup>17</sup>then you shall take an awl and put it through his ear to the door, and he shall be your servant forever. And also to your maid-servant you shall do so. <sup>18</sup>It shall not seem hard to you when you send him away from you free, for he has been worth a double hired servant in serving you six years. And the LORD your God shall bless you in all that you do.

<sup>19</sup>All the first-born males that come from your herd and from your flock, you shall set apart to the LORD your God. You shall do no work with the first-born of your bull, nor shear the first-born of your sheep. <sup>20</sup>You shall eat before the LORD your God year by year in the place which the LORD shall choose, you and your household. <sup>21</sup>And if there is a blemish in it, lame, or blind, any ill blemish, you shall not sacrifice it to the LORD your God. <sup>22</sup>You shall eat it inside your gates. The unclean and the unclean shall eat it alike, as the gazelle, and as the hart. <sup>23</sup>Only you shall not eat the blood of it. You shall pour it on the ground like water.

CHAPTER 16

<sup>1</sup>Observe the month Abib, and keep the Passover to the LORD your God. For in the month of Abib, the LORD your God brought you forth out of Egypt by night. <sup>2</sup>You shall therefore sacrifice the Passover to the LORD your God, of the flock and the herd, in the place which the LORD shall choose to place His name there. <sup>3</sup>You shall eat no leavened bread with it. Seven days you shall eat unleavened bread with it, the bread of affliction, for you came forth out of the land of Egypt in haste. This is so that you may remember the day that you came forth out of the land of Egypt all the days of your life. <sup>4</sup>And there shall be no leavened bread seen with you in all your borders for seven days. Nor shall any of the flesh which you sacrificed in the first day at evening remain all night until the morning. <sup>5</sup>You may not sacrifice the Passover within any of your gates, which the LORD your God gives you, <sup>6</sup>but at the place which the LORD your God shall choose to place His name in, there you shall sacrifice the Passover at evening, at the going down of the sun, at the time that you came forth out of Egypt. <sup>7</sup>And you shall roast and eat in the place which the LORD your God shall choose. And in the morning you shall turn and go to your tents. <sup>8</sup>Six days you shall eat unleavened bread. And on the seventh day shall be a solemn assembly to the LORD your God. You shall do no work.

<sup>9</sup>You shall count seven weeks to yourselves. Begin to count the seven weeks from the time you began to put the sickle to the grain. <sup>10</sup>And you shall keep the Feast of Weeks to the LORD your God with a measure of a free-will offering of your hand, which you shall give according as the LORD your God has blessed you. <sup>11</sup>And you shall rejoice before the LORD your God, you, and your son, and your daughter, and your man-servant, and your maid-servant, and the Levite inside your gates, and the stranger, and the fatherless, and the widow, those among you, in the place which the LORD your God has chosen to place His name there. <sup>12</sup>And you shall remember that you were a slave in Egypt. And you shall be careful to do these statutes.

<sup>13</sup>You shall keep the Feast of Tabernacles seven days after you have gathered in your grain and your wine. <sup>14</sup>And you shall rejoice in your feast, you, and your son, and your daughter, and your man-servant, and your maid-servant, and the Levite, the stranger, and the fatherless, and the widow inside your gates. <sup>15</sup>Seven days you shall keep a solemn feast to the LORD your God in the place which the LORD your God shall choose. Because the LORD your God shall bless you in all your increase, and in all the works of your hands, therefore you shall surely rejoice. <sup>16</sup>Three times in a year shall all your males appear before the LORD your God in the place which He shall choose: in the Feast of Unleavened Bread, and in the Feast of Weeks, and in the Feast of Tabernacles. And they shall not appear before the LORD empty. <sup>17</sup>Each with his gift in his hand, according to the blessing of the LORD your God, which He has given you.

<sup>18</sup>You shall appoint judges and officers for yourself in all your gates which the LORD your God gives you, tribe by tribe. And they shall judge the people with righteous judgment. <sup>19</sup>You shall not pervert judgment; you shall not respect persons, nor take a gift. For a gift blinds the eyes of the wise and perverts the words of the righteous. <sup>20</sup>You shall follow that which is altogether just, that you may live and inherit the land which the LORD your God gives you.

<sup>21</sup>You shall not plant a grove of any trees near the altar of the LORD your God which you shall make. <sup>22</sup>Nor shall you set up an image, which the LORD your God hates.

CHAPTER 17

<sup>1</sup>You shall not sacrifice to the LORD your God any bull or sheep in which there is a blemish, any unseemly thing, for that is an abomination to the LORD your God.

<sup>2</sup>If there is found among you, inside any of your gates which the LORD your God gives you, a man or woman who has worked wickedness in the sight of the LORD your God, in breaking His covenant, <sup>3</sup>and has gone and served other gods and worshiped them, either the sun, or moon, or any of the host of heaven, which I have not commanded, <sup>4</sup>and if it is told you, and you have heard and inquired carefully, and, behold, it is true and the thing is certain, such abomination is done in Israel; <sup>5</sup>then you shall bring forth that man or that woman who has committed that wicked thing, to your gates, even that man or that woman, and shall stone them with stones until they die. <sup>6</sup>At the mouth of two witnesses or three witnesses shall he that is worthy of death be put to death. At the mouth of one witness he shall not be put to death. <sup>7</sup>The hands of the witnesses shall be first on him to put him to death, and afterwards the hands of all the people. So you shall put the evil away from among you.

<sup>8</sup>If there arises a matter too hard for you in judgment, between blood and blood, between plea and plea, and between stroke and stroke, matters of controversy within your gates, then you shall arise and go up to the place which the LORD your God shall choose. <sup>9</sup>And you shall come to the priests the Levites, and to the judge that shall be in those days, and ask. And they shall show you the sentence of judgment. <sup>10</sup>And you shall do according to the sentence which they declare to you from that place which the LORD shall choose. And you shall be careful to do according to all that they tell you. <sup>11</sup>According to the sentence of the law which they shall teach you and according to the judgment which they shall tell you, you shall do. You shall not turn aside from the sentence which they shall show you, to the right hand or the left. <sup>12</sup>And the man that acts proudly and will not listen to the priest who stands to minister there before the LORD your God, or to the judge, even that man shall die. And you shall put away the evil from Israel. <sup>13</sup>And all the people shall hear and fear, and not be presumptuous any more.

<sup>14</sup>When you come to the land which the LORD your God gives you, and shall possess it and shall live in it and shall say, I will set a king over me, like all the nations around me, <sup>15</sup>you shall surely set a king over you, whom the LORD your God shall choose. You shall set a king over you from among your brothers. You may not set a stranger over you, who is not your brother. <sup>16</sup>But he shall not multiply horses to himself, nor cause the people to return to Egypt, to the end that he should multiply horses, because the LORD has said to you, You shall return no more that way from now on. <sup>17</sup>Nor shall he multiply wives to himself, so that his heart does not turn away. Nor shall he greatly multiply silver and gold to himself. <sup>18</sup>And when he sits on the throne of his kingdom, he shall write a copy of this law in a book from before the priests the Levites. <sup>19</sup>And it shall be with him, and he shall read it all the days of his life, so that he may learn to fear the LORD his God, to keep all the words of this law, and these statutes, to do them, <sup>20</sup>so that his heart may not be lifted up above his brothers, and that he does not turn aside from the commandment, to the right hand or the left, so that he may make his days longer in his kingdom, he and his sons, in the midst of Israel.

CHAPTER 18

<sup>1</sup>The priests, the Levites, all the tribe of Levi, shall have no part nor inheritance with Israel. They shall eat the offerings of the LORD made by fire, and His inheritance. <sup>2</sup>Therefore they shall have no inheritance among their brothers. The LORD is their inheritance, as He has said to them. <sup>3</sup>And this shall be the priest's due from the people, from those that offer a sacrifice, whether ox or sheep. And they shall give to the priest the shoulder and the two cheeks, and the stomach. <sup>4</sup>You shall also give him the first-fruit of your grain, of your wine, and of your oil, and the first of the fleece of your sheep. <sup>5</sup>For the LORD your God has chosen him out of all your tribes, to stand to minister in the name of the LORD, him and his sons forever. <sup>6</sup>And if a Levite comes from any of your gates out of all Israel, where he lived, and come with all the desire of his mind to the place which the LORD shall choose, <sup>7</sup>then he shall minister in the name of the LORD his God, as all his brothers and Levites who stand there before the LORD. <sup>8</sup>They shall have the same portions to eat, besides that which comes from the sale of the inheritance from his father.

<sup>9</sup>When you come to the land which the LORD your God gives you, you shall not learn to do according to the abominations of those nations. <sup>10</sup>There shall not be found among you anyone who makes his son or his daughter to pass through the fire, or that uses divination, an observer of clouds, or a fortune-teller, or a witch, <sup>11</sup>or a charmer, or a consulter with familiar spirits, or a wizard, or one who calls to the dead. <sup>12</sup>For all that do these things are an abomination to the LORD. And because of these abominations the LORD your God drives them out from before you. <sup>13</sup>You shall be perfect with the LORD your God. <sup>14</sup>For these nations whom you shall possess listened to observers of clouds and to diviners. But as for you, the LORD your God has not allowed you to do so.

<sup>15</sup>The LORD your God will raise up to you a Prophet from the midst of you, of your brothers, One like me. To Him you shall listen, <sup>16</sup>according to all that you desired of the LORD your God in Horeb in the day of the assembly, saying: Let me not hear again the voice of the LORD my God, neither let me see this great fire any more, so that I do not die. <sup>17</sup>And the LORD said to me, They have spoken well what they have spoken. <sup>18</sup>I will raise them up a Prophet from among their brothers, like you, and will put My words in His mouth. And He shall speak to them all that I shall command Him. <sup>19</sup>And it shall happen, whatever man will not listen to My words which He shall speak in My name, I will require it of him. <sup>20</sup>But the prophet who shall presume to speak in My name which I have not commanded him to speak or who shall speak in the name of other gods, even that prophet shall die. <sup>21</sup>And if you say in your heart, How shall we know the word which the LORD has not spoken? <sup>22</sup>When a prophet speaks in the name of the LORD, if the thing does not follow nor come to pass, that is the thing which the LORD has not spoken. The prophet has spoken it presumptuously. You shall not be afraid of him.

CHAPTER 19

<sup>1</sup>When the LORD your God has cut off the nations whose land the LORD your God gives you, and when you take their place and live in their cities and in their houses, <sup>2</sup>you shall separate three cities for you in the middle of your land, which the LORD your God gives you to possess it. <sup>3</sup>You shall prepare you a way, and divide the borders of your land which the LORD your God gives you to inherit, into three parts, so that every slayer may flee there. <sup>4</sup>And this is the case of the slayer who shall flee there that he may live: whoever in error kills his neighbor whom he did not hate him before, <sup>5</sup>even he who goes into the wood with his neighbor to cut wood, and his hand brings a stroke with the axe to cut down the tree, and the head slips from the wood and lights on his neighbor so that he dies; he shall flee to one of those cities and live, <sup>6</sup>so that the avenger of the blood may not pursue the slayer while his heart is hot, and overtake him because the way is long, and kill him, and he had no sentence of worthy of death, for he did not hate him in time past. <sup>7</sup>Therefore I command you saying, You shall separate three cities for you. <sup>8</sup>And if the LORD your God makes your border larger, as He has sworn to your fathers, and gives you all the land which He promised to give to your fathers; <sup>9</sup>if you will keep all these commandments which I command you today, to do them, to love the LORD your God, and to walk always in His ways. Then you shall add three more cities to these three <sup>10</sup>so that innocent blood may not be shed in your land which the LORD your God gives you for an inheritance and blood may not be on you. <sup>11</sup>But if a man hates his neighbor and lies in wait for him and rises up against him and strikes his life from him, so that he dies, and flees to one of these cities, <sup>12</sup>then the elders of his city shall send and bring him away from there and deliver him into the hand of the avenger of blood so that he may die. <sup>13</sup>Your eye shall not pity him, but you shall put away innocent blood from Israel, so that it may go well with you.

<sup>14</sup>You may not remove your neighbor's landmark, which those in the past have set in your inheritance, which you shall inherit in the land which the LORD your God gives you to possess it.

<sup>15</sup>One witness shall not rise up against a man for any iniquity, or for any sin, in any sin that he sins. At the mouth of two witnesses, or at the mouth of three witnesses, shall the matter be made sure. <sup>16</sup>If a false witness rises up against any man to testify a falling away against him, <sup>17</sup>then both the men who are disagreeing shall stand before the LORD, before the priests and the judges which shall be in those days. <sup>18</sup>And the judges shall make careful inquiry. And behold, if the witness is a false witness and has testified falsely against his brother, <sup>19</sup>then you shall do to him as he had thought to have done to his brother. So you shall put the evil away from among you. <sup>20</sup>And those who remain shall hear and fear, and shall from then on commit no such evil among you. <sup>21</sup>And your eye shall not pity. Life shall go for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot.

CHAPTER 20

<sup>1</sup>When you go out to battle against your enemies and see horses and chariots, a people more than you, do not be afraid of them. For the LORD your God is with you, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt. <sup>2</sup>And when you have come near to the battle, the priest shall go up and speak to the people, <sup>3</sup>and shall say to them, Hear, O, Israel, today you go up to battle against your enemies. Do not let your hearts faint, do not fear, and do not tremble, neither be terrified because of them. <sup>4</sup>For the LORD your God is He who goes with you to fight for you against your enemies, to save you. <sup>5</sup>And the officers shall speak to the people saying, What man is there that has built a new house and has not dedicated it? Let him go and return to his house, lest he die in the battle and another man dedicate it. <sup>6</sup>And what man is there that has planted a vineyard and has not eaten of it? Let him go and return to his house, lest he die in the battle and another man eat of it. <sup>7</sup>And what man is there that has become engaged to a wife and has not taken her? Let him go and return to his house, lest he die in the battle and another man take her. <sup>8</sup>And the officers shall speak further to the people, and they shall say, What man is there that is fearful and faint-hearted? Let him go and return to his house, lest his brothers' heart faint as well as his heart. <sup>9</sup>And when the officers have made an end of speaking to the people, they shall make captains of the armies to lead the people.

<sup>10</sup>When you come near a city to fight against it, then shout peace to it. <sup>11</sup>And if it makes the answer of peace and opens to you, then all the people found in it shall pay tax to you, and they shall serve you. <sup>12</sup>But if it will make no peace with you, but will make war against you, then you shall besiege it. <sup>13</sup>And when the LORD your God has delivered it into your hands, you shall strike every male of it with the edge of the sword. <sup>14</sup>But the women, and the little ones, and the cattle, and all that it is in the city, all the spoil of it, you shall take to yourself. And you shall eat the spoil of your enemies, which the LORD your God has given you. <sup>15</sup>So you shall do to all the cities which are very far off from you, which are not of the cities of these nations. <sup>16</sup>But of the cities of these people, which the LORD your God gives you for an inheritance, you shall save alive nothing that breathes. <sup>17</sup>But you shall utterly destroy them: the Hittites, and the Amorites, the Canaanites, and the Perizzites, the Hivites and the Jebusites; as the LORD your God has commanded you, <sup>18</sup>so that they may not teach you to do according to all their abominations which they have done to their gods. So you would sin against the LORD your God.

<sup>19</sup>When you shall besiege a city a long time in making war against it to take it, you shall not destroy its trees by forcing an axe against them. For you may eat of them, and you shall not cut them down. For is the tree of the field a man that it should go before you to lay siege? <sup>20</sup>Only the trees which you know that they are not trees for food, you shall destroy and cut them down. And you shall build bulwarks against the city that makes war with you, until it is subdued.

CHAPTER 21

<sup>1</sup>If one is found dead in the land which the LORD your God gives you to possess it, lying in the field, and it is not known who has killed him, <sup>2</sup>then your elders and your judges shall come forth. And they shall measure to the cities which are around him who is dead. <sup>3</sup>And the city nearest to the slain one, even the elders of that city shall take a heifer which has not been worked with, which has not drawn in the yoke. <sup>4</sup>And the elders of that city shall bring down the heifer to a rough valley, which is neither plowed nor sown, and shall strike off the heifer's neck there in the valley. <sup>5</sup>And the priests, the sons of Levi, shall come near. For the LORD your God has chosen them to minister to him, and to bless in the name of the LORD, and by their word shall every controversy and every stroke be tried. <sup>6</sup>And all the elders of that city nearest to the slain one, shall wash their hands over the heifer that has been beheaded in the valley. <sup>7</sup>And they shall answer and say, Our hands have not shed this blood, neither have our eyes seen. <sup>8</sup>Be merciful, O

LORD, to Your people Israel, whom You have redeemed, and do not lay innocent blood to the charge of Your people Israel. And the blood shall be forgiven them. <sup>9</sup>So you shall put away innocent blood from among you, when you do what is right in the sight of the LORD.

<sup>10</sup>When you go forth to war against your enemies, and the LORD your God has delivered them into your hands and you have taken them captive, <sup>11</sup>and see among the captives a beautiful woman, and have a desire to her, that you would have her for your wife, <sup>12</sup>then you shall bring her home to your house. And she shall shave her head and dress her nails. <sup>13</sup>And she shall put the clothing of her captivity off her, and shall remain in your house, and shall sorrow for her father and her mother a full month. And after that you shall go in to her and be her husband, and she shall be your wife. <sup>14</sup>And if you have no delight in her, then you shall let her go where she will. But you shall not sell her at all for money, you shall not make a slave of her, because you have humbled her. <sup>15</sup>If a man has two wives, one beloved and another hated, and they have borne him sons, the beloved and the hated; and if the first-born son was of her that was hated, <sup>16</sup>then it shall be when he makes his sons to inherit what he has, he may not make the son of the beloved first-born before the son of the hated one, he who is truly the first-born. <sup>17</sup>But he shall acknowledge the son of the hated as the first-born by giving him a double portion of all that he has. For he is the beginning of his strength. The right of the first-born is his.

<sup>18</sup>If a man has a son who is stubborn and rebels, who will not obey the voice of his father or the voice of his mother and when they have chastened him he will not listen to them, <sup>19</sup>then his father and his mother shall lay hold on him and bring him out to the elders of his city, and to the gate of his place. <sup>20</sup>And they shall say to the elders of his city, this son of ours is stubborn and rebellious. He will not obey our voice. He is a glutton and a drunkard. <sup>21</sup>And all the men of his city shall stone him with stones so that he dies. So shall you put evil away from you, and all Israel shall hear and fear.

<sup>22</sup>And if a man has committed a sin worthy of death, and if he is put to death and you hang him on a tree, <sup>23</sup>his body shall not remain all night on the tree. But you shall surely bury him that day (for he that is hanged is accursed of God), so that your land may not be defiled, which the LORD your God gives you for an inheritance.

CHAPTER 22

<sup>1</sup>You shall not see your brother's ox or his sheep go astray and hide yourself from them. You shall surely bring them again to your brother. <sup>2</sup>And if your brother is not near you, or if you do not know him, then you shall bring it into your own house, and it shall be with you until your brother seeks after it, and you shall give it back to him again. <sup>3</sup>In the same way you shall do with his ass. And so shall you do with his clothing. And with any lost thing of your brother's, which he has lost and you have found, you shall do the same. You may not hide yourself. <sup>4</sup>You shall not see your brother's ass or his ox fall down by the way, and hide yourself from them. You shall surely help him to lift them up again.

<sup>5</sup>The woman shall not wear that which pertains to a man, neither shall a man put a woman's garment on. For all that do so are abominable to the LORD your God. <sup>6</sup>If a bird's nest happens to be before you in the way in any tree, or on the ground, whether young ones or eggs, and the dam sitting on the young or on the eggs, you shall not take the dam with the young. <sup>7</sup>You shall in every case let the dam go and take the young for yourself, so that it may be well with you, and you may make your days longer. <sup>8</sup>When you build a new house, then you shall make a guard rail for your roof, so that you do not bring blood on your house, if any man falls from there. <sup>9</sup>You shall not sow your vineyard with different kinds of seeds, lest the fruit of your seed which you have sown and the fruit of your vineyard be defiled. <sup>10</sup>You shall not plow with an ox and an ass together. <sup>11</sup>You shall not wear a garment of different kinds, of wool and linen together. <sup>12</sup>You shall make three tassels on the four corners of your cloak with which you cover.

<sup>13</sup>If any man takes a wife and goes in to her, and hates her, <sup>14</sup>and makes shameful charges against her, and brings up an evil name on her, and says, I took this woman, and when I came to her, I did not find her a maiden, <sup>15</sup>then shall the father of the girl, and her mother, take and bring tokens of the girl's virginity to the elders of the city in the gate. <sup>16</sup>And the girl's father shall say to the elders, I gave my daughter to this man to wife, and he hates her. <sup>17</sup>And, lo, he has made shameful charges against her, saying, I have not found your daughter a maiden. And yet these are tokens of my daughter's virginity. And they shall spread the cloth before the elders of the city. <sup>18</sup>And the elders of that city shall take that man and punish him. <sup>19</sup>And they shall fine him a hundred shekels of silver, and give them to the father of the girl, because he has brought an evil name on a virgin of Israel. And she shall be his wife. He may not put her away all his days. <sup>20</sup>But if this thing is true and tokens of virginity are not found for the girl, <sup>21</sup>then they shall bring the girl out to the door of her father's house, and the men of her city shall stone her with stones so that she dies because she has done foolishness in Israel to play the harlot in her father's house. So you shall put evil away from among you.

<sup>22</sup>If a man is found lying with a woman married to a husband, then they shall both of them die, the man that lay with the woman, and the woman. So you shall put away evil from Israel. <sup>23</sup>If a girl who is a virgin is engaged to a husband, and a man finds her in the city and lies with her, <sup>24</sup>then you shall bring them both out to the gate of that city, and you shall stone them with stones that they die; the girl because she did not cry out in the city, and the man because he has humbled his neighbor's wife. So you shall put away evil from among you. <sup>25</sup>But if a man finds an engaged girl in the field, and the man forces her and lies with her, then only the man that lay with her shall die. <sup>26</sup>But you shall do nothing to the girl. No sin worthy of death is in the girl; for as when a man rises against his neighbor and slays him, even so is this matter. <sup>27</sup>For he found her in the field, the engaged girl cried out, but there was none to save her.

<sup>28</sup>If a man finds a girl, a virgin not engaged, and lays hold on her, and lies with her, and they are found, <sup>29</sup>then the man who lay with her shall give to the girl's father fifty shekels of silver, and she shall be his wife. Because he has humbled her, he may not put her away all his days. <sup>30</sup>A man shall not take his father's wife, nor uncover his father's skirt.

CHAPTER 23

<sup>1</sup>He whose testicles are crushed, or who has his male member cut off, shall not enter into the congregation of the LORD. <sup>2</sup>A bastard shall not enter into the congregation of the LORD. Even to his tenth generation he shall not enter into the congregation of the LORD.

<sup>3</sup>An Ammonite or Moabite shall not enter into the congregation of the LORD. Even to their tenth generation they shall not enter into the congregation of the LORD forever, <sup>4</sup>because they did not meet you with bread and with water in the way when you came forth out of Egypt, and because they hired against you Balaam the son of Beor, of Pethor of Mesopotamia, to curse you. <sup>5</sup>But the LORD your God would not listen to Balaam, but the LORD your God turned the curse to a blessing to you, because the LORD your God loved you. <sup>6</sup>You shall not seek their peace nor their prosperity all your days forever. <sup>7</sup>You shall not despise an Edomite, for he is your brother. You shall not despise an Egyptian, because you were a stranger in his land. <sup>8</sup>The sons that are born to them shall enter into the congregation of the LORD in their third generation.

<sup>9</sup>When the army goes forth against your enemies, then keep yourself from every wicked thing. <sup>10</sup>If there is among you any man who is not clean because of an accident at night, then he shall go outside the camp. He shall not come inside the camp. <sup>11</sup>And it shall be as evening turns, he shall wash with water. And when the sun is down, he shall come into the camp. <sup>12</sup>You shall also have a place outside the camp where you shall go forth. <sup>13</sup>And you shall have a paddle on your weapon. And when you sit down outside, you shall dig with it, and shall turn back and cover that which comes from you. <sup>14</sup>For the LORD your God walks in the middle of your camp, to deliver you and to give up your enemies before you. Therefore your camp shall be holy, so that He may see no unclean thing in you and turn away from you.

<sup>15</sup>You shall not deliver to his master the servant who has escaped from his master to you. <sup>16</sup>He shall live with you, among you, in that place which he shall choose in one of your gates, where it seems good to him. You shall not oppress him. <sup>17</sup>There shall be no harlot of the daughters of Israel, nor a sodomite of the sons of Israel. <sup>18</sup>You shall not bring the hire of a harlot, or the price of a dog, into the house of the LORD your God for any vow. For even both these are hateful to the LORD your God.

<sup>19</sup>You shall not lend for interest to your brother, interest of money, interest of food, interest of anything that is loaned on interest. <sup>20</sup>You may lend on interest to a stranger, but you shall not lend on interest to your brother, so that the LORD your God may bless you in all that you set your hand to in the land where you go to possess it.

<sup>21</sup>When you shall vow a vow to the LORD your God, you shall not wait to pay it, for the LORD your God will surely require it of you, and it would be sin in you. <sup>22</sup>But if you shall cease to vow, it shall be no sin in you. <sup>23</sup>That which has gone out of your lips you shall keep and perform, even a free-will offering, according as you have vowed to the LORD your God, which you have promised with your mouth. <sup>24</sup>When you come into your neighbor's vineyard, then you may eat grapes to your fill at your own pleasure, but you shall not put any in your vessel. <sup>25</sup>When you come into the standing grain of your neighbor, then you may pluck the heads with your hand, but you shall not move a sickle into your neighbor's standing grain.

CHAPTER 24

<sup>1</sup>When a man has taken a wife and married her, and it happens that she finds no favor in his eyes, because he has found some uncleanness in her, then let him write her a bill of divorce and put it in her hand, and send her out of his house. <sup>2</sup>And when she has departed from his house, she may go and be another man's; <sup>3</sup>and the latter husband hates her and writes her a bill of divorcement and puts it in her hand and sends her out of his house; or the latter husband dies, he who took her to be his wife <sup>4</sup>her former husband, who sent her away, may not take her again to be his wife after she is defiled. For that is hateful before the LORD. And you shall not cause the land to sin, which the LORD your God gives you for an inheritance.

<sup>5</sup>When a man has taken a new wife, he shall not go out to war, neither shall he be charged with any business. He shall be free at home one year, and shall cheer up his wife whom he has taken. <sup>6</sup>No man shall take the lower or the upper millstone to pledge, for he takes a man's life to pledge. <sup>7</sup>If a man is found stealing any of his brothers, the sons of Israel, and makes a slave of him, or sells him, then that thief shall die. And you shall put evil away from among you.

<sup>8</sup>Be careful in the plague of leprosy, that you watch carefully and do according to all that the priests the Levites shall teach you. As I commanded them, you shall be careful to do. <sup>9</sup>Remember what the LORD your God did to Miriam by the wayside, after you had come forth out of Egypt. <sup>10</sup>When you loan anything to your brother, you shall not go into his house to bring forth his pledge. <sup>11</sup>You shall stand outside, and the man to whom you loan shall bring the pledge outside to you. <sup>12</sup>And if the man is poor, you shall not sleep with his pledge. <sup>13</sup>You shall certainly give back to him the pledge when the sun goes down, that he may sleep in his own clothing, and bless you. And it shall be righteousness to you before the LORD your God.

<sup>14</sup>You shall not oppress a hired servant who is poor and needy, of your brothers, or of your strangers that are in your land within your gates. <sup>15</sup>At his day you shall give him his hire, neither shall the sun go down on it. For he is poor and sets his heart on it; lest he cry against you to the LORD, and it shall be sin to you. <sup>16</sup>The fathers shall not be put to death for the sons, neither shall the sons be put to death for the fathers. Every man shall be put to death for his own sin. <sup>17</sup>You shall not pervert the rightful judgment of the stranger nor of the fatherless; nor take a widow's clothing to pledge. <sup>18</sup>But you shall remember that you were a slave in Egypt, and the LORD your God redeemed you from there. Therefore I command you to do this thing.

<sup>19</sup>When you cut down your harvest in your field, and have forgotten a sheaf in the field, you shall not go again to bring it. It shall be for the stranger, for the fatherless, and for the widow; so that the LORD your God may bless you in all the work of your hands. <sup>20</sup>When you beat your olive tree, you shall not go over the boughs again. It shall be for the stranger, for the fatherless, and for the widow. <sup>21</sup>When you gather the grapes from your vineyard, you shall not glean afterward. It shall be for the stranger, for the fatherless, and for the widow. <sup>22</sup>And you shall remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt. Therefore I command you to do this thing.

CHAPTER 25

<sup>1</sup>If there is a controversy between men, and they come to judgment, and they have been judged, and the righteous one is declared righteous, and the wrongdoer declared guilty, <sup>2</sup>then it shall be, if the wrongdoer is worthy to be beaten, the judge shall cause him to lie down and to fall down. And one shall strike him in his presence, enough for his wrong, by a certain number. <sup>3</sup>He may give him forty stripes, no more, lest he should exceed and beat him above these with many stripes, then your brother would be dishonored before your eyes.

<sup>4</sup>You shall not muzzle an ox when he treads out the grain. <sup>5</sup>If brothers live together, and one of them dies and has no child, the wife of the dead shall not marry outside to a stranger. Her husband's brother shall go in to her and take her as a wife for himself, and perform the duty of a husband's brother to her. <sup>6</sup>And it shall be, the first-born whom she bears shall succeed in the name of his dead brother, so that his name may not be put out of Israel. <sup>7</sup>And if the man does not want to take his brother's wife, then let his brother's wife go up to the gate to the elders and say, My husband's brother refuses to raise up a name in Israel to his brother. He will not perform my levirate. <sup>8</sup>Then the elders of his city shall call him and speak to him. And if he stands and says, I do not desire to take her, <sup>9</sup>then his brother's wife shall come to him in the presence of his elders, and take off his shoe from his foot, and spit in his face, and shall answer and say, So shall it be done to that man who will not build up his brother's house. <sup>10</sup>And his name shall be called in Israel, The house of him who has his shoe taken off.

<sup>11</sup>When men strive together with one another, and the wife of the one draws near to deliver her husband out of the hand of him who strikes him, and puts forth her hand and takes him by the secret parts, <sup>12</sup>then you shall cut off her hand. Your eye shall not pity.

<sup>13</sup>You shall not have in your bag two kinds of weights, a great stone and a small. <sup>14</sup> You shall not have in your house two kinds of measures, a great ephah and a small. <sup>15</sup>You shall have a perfect and just weight, a perfect and just measure you shall have, so that your days may be lengthened in the land which the LORD your God gives you. <sup>16</sup>For all that do such things, all that do unrighteousness, are hateful to the LORD your God.

<sup>17</sup>Remember what Amalek did to you by the way, when you came forth out of Egypt, <sup>18</sup>how he met you by the way and struck those of you who were behind, all the feeble behind you, when you were faint and weary. And he did not fear God. <sup>19</sup>And it shall be when the LORD your God has given you rest from all your enemies round about in the land which the LORD your God gives you for an inheritance to possess it, you shall blot out the remembrance of Amalek from under heaven. You shall not forget.

CHAPTER 26

<sup>1</sup>And it shall be, when you have come into the land which the LORD your God gives you for an inheritance, and possess it, and live in it, <sup>2</sup>you shall take of the first of all the fruit of the earth which you shall bring of your land that the LORD your God gives you, and you shall put it in a basket, and shall go to the place which the LORD your God shall choose to place His name there. <sup>3</sup>And you shall go to the priest in those days, and say to him, I profess today to the LORD your God that I have come into the land which the LORD swore to our fathers to give us. <sup>4</sup>And the priest shall take the basket out of your hand and set it down before the altar of the LORD your God. <sup>5</sup>And you shall speak and say before the LORD your God, My father was a Syrian ready to perish. And he went down to Egypt, and stayed there with a few, and became there a nation, great, mighty, and many. <sup>6</sup>And the Egyptians ill-treated us, and afflicted us, and laid hard bondage on us. <sup>7</sup>And when we cried to the LORD God of our fathers, the LORD heard our voice and looked on our afflictions and our labor and our oppression. <sup>8</sup>And the LORD brought us forth out of Egypt with a mighty hand, and with an outstretched arm, and with fearful might, and with miracles and with wonders. <sup>9</sup>And He has brought us into this place, and has given us this land, a land that flows with milk and honey. <sup>10</sup>And now, behold, I have brought the first-fruits of the land which You, O LORD, have given me. And you shall set it before the LORD your God, and worship before the LORD your God. <sup>11</sup>And you shall rejoice in all the good which the LORD your God has given to you, and to your house; you, and the Levite, and the stranger in your midst.

<sup>12</sup>When you have made an end of tithing all the tithes of your increase the third year, the year of tithing, and have given it to the Levite, the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow (that they may eat inside your gates and be filled), <sup>13</sup>then you shall say before the LORD your God, I have brought away the holy things out of my house, and also have given them to the Levite, and to the stranger, to the fatherless, and to the widow, according to all Your commandments which You have commanded me. I have not broken Your commandments, neither have I forgotten. <sup>14</sup>I have not eaten of it in my mourning, neither have I put any of it away for unclean use, nor have I given of it for the dead. I have listened to the voice of the LORD my God, and have done according to all that You have commanded me. <sup>15</sup>Look down from Your holy dwelling, from Heaven, and bless Your people Israel and the land which You have given us, as You swore to our fathers, a land that flows with milk and honey.

<sup>16</sup>Today the LORD your God has commanded you to do these statutes and judgments. You therefore shall keep and do them with all your heart and with all your soul. <sup>17</sup>You have today said that the LORD is your God, and that you would walk in His ways, and keep His statutes and His commandments and His judgments, and listen to His voice. <sup>18</sup>And the LORD has taken you today to be His peculiar people, as He has promised you, and that you should keep all His commandments, <sup>19</sup>and to make you high above all nations which he has made, in praise and in name and in honor, and that you may be a holy people to the LORD your God, even as He has spoken.

CHAPTER 27

<sup>1</sup>And Moses with the elders of Israel commanded the people saying, Keep all the commandments which I command you today. <sup>2</sup>And it will be, on the day when you shall pass over Jordan to the land which the LORD your God gives you, you shall set up great stones and plaster them with plaster. <sup>3</sup>And you shall write on them all the words of the law when you have passed over, so that you may go in to the land which the LORD your God gives you, a land that flows with milk and honey, as the LORD God of your fathers has promised you. <sup>4</sup>Therefore when you have gone over Jordan, you shall set up these stones which I command you today, in Mount Ebal. And you shall plaster them with plaster. <sup>5</sup>And you shall build an altar there to the LORD your God, an altar of stones. You shall not lift up any iron tool on them. <sup>6</sup>You shall build the altar of the LORD your God of uncut stones, and you shall offer burnt offerings on it to the LORD your God. <sup>7</sup>And you shall offer peace offerings, and shall eat there, and rejoice before the LORD your God. <sup>8</sup>And you shall write all the words of this law very plainly on the stones.

<sup>9</sup>And Moses and the priests the Levites spoke to all Israel, saying: Take heed and listen, O Israel. Today you have become the people of the LORD your God. <sup>10</sup>You shall therefore obey the voice of the LORD your God, and do His commandments and His statutes which I command you today. <sup>11</sup>And Moses charged the people the same day, saying, <sup>12</sup>These shall stand on Mount Gerizim to bless the people when you have come over Jordan: Simeon, and Levi, and Judah, and Issachar, and Joseph, and Benjamin. <sup>13</sup>And these shall stand on Mount Ebal to curse: Reuben, Gad, and Asher, and Zebulun, Dan, and Naphtali. <sup>14</sup>And the Levites shall speak and say to all the men of Israel with a loud voice, <sup>15</sup>Cursed is the man that makes any graven or molten image, an abomination to the LORD, the work of the hands of the craftsman, and puts it in a secret place. And all the people shall answer and say, Amen. <sup>16</sup>Cursed is he who thinks lightly of his father or his mother. And all the people shall say, Amen. <sup>17</sup>Cursed is he who removes his neighbor's landmark. And all the people shall say, Amen. <sup>18</sup>Cursed is he who makes the blind to wander out of the way. And all the people shall say, Amen. <sup>19</sup>Cursed is he who perverts the judgment of the stranger, fatherless, and widow. And all the people shall say, Amen. <sup>20</sup>Cursed is he who lies with his father's wife, because he uncovers his father's skirt. And all the people shall say, Amen. <sup>21</sup>Cursed is he who lies with any kind of animal. And all the people shall say, Amen. <sup>22</sup>Cursed is he who lies with his sister, the daughter of his father or the daughter of his mother. And all the people shall say, Amen. <sup>23</sup>Cursed is he who lies with his mother-in-law. And all the people shall say, Amen.

<sup>24</sup>Cursed is he who strikes his neighbor secretly. And all the people shall say, Amen. <sup>25</sup>Cursed is he who takes reward to kill an innocent person. And all the people shall say, Amen. <sup>26</sup>Cursed is he who does not confirm all the words of this law, to do them. And all the people shall say, Amen.

CHAPTER 28

<sup>1</sup>And it will be, if you shall listen carefully to the voice of the LORD your God, to observe and to do all His commandments which I command you today, the LORD your God will set you on high above all nations of the earth. <sup>2</sup>And all these blessings shall come on you and overtake you, if you will listen to the voice of the LORD your God. <sup>3</sup>You shall be blessed in the city, and be blessed in the field. <sup>4</sup>The fruit of your body shall be blessed, and the fruit of your ground, and the fruit of your cattle, the increase of your cows, and the flocks of your sheep. <sup>5</sup>Your basket and your store shall be blessed. <sup>6</sup>You shall be blessed when you come in, and blessed when you go out.

<sup>7</sup>The LORD shall cause your enemies that rise up against you to be stricken before your face. They shall come out against you one way, and flee before you seven ways. <sup>8</sup>The LORD shall command the blessing on you in your storehouses, and all that you set your hand to. And He shall bless you in the land which the LORD your God gives you. <sup>9</sup>The LORD shall establish you a holy people to Himself, as He has sworn to you, if you shall keep the commandments of the LORD your God and walk in His ways. <sup>10</sup>And all the people of the earth shall see that you are called by the name of the LORD, and they shall be afraid of you. <sup>11</sup>And the LORD shall prosper in goods, in the fruit of your body, and in the fruit of your cattle, and in the fruit of your ground, in the land which the LORD swore to your fathers to give you. <sup>12</sup>The LORD shall open to you His good treasure, the heaven to give the rain to your land in its season, and to bless all the work of your hand. And you shall loan to many nations, and you shall not borrow. <sup>13</sup>And the LORD shall make you the head, and not the tail. And you shall be always above, and you shall not be beneath, if you listen to the commandments of the LORD your God, which I command you today, to observe and to do them. <sup>14</sup>And you shall not go aside from any of the words which I command you today, to the right hand or the left, to go after other gods to serve them.

<sup>15</sup>And it shall be, if you will not listen to the voice of the LORD your God, to observe and to do all His commandments and His statutes which I command you today, all these curses shall come on you and overtake you. <sup>16</sup>You shall be cursed in the city, and cursed in the field. <sup>17</sup>Your basket and your store shall be cursed. <sup>18</sup>The fruit of your body shall be cursed, and the fruit of your land, the increase of your cows, and the flocks of your sheep. <sup>19</sup>You shall be cursed when you come in, and cursed when you go out. <sup>20</sup>The LORD shall send on you cursing, vexation, and rebuke, in all that you set your hand to do, until you are destroyed, and until you perish quickly, because of the wickedness of your doings by which you have forsaken Me. <sup>21</sup>The LORD shall make the plague cling to you until He has consumed you from off the land where you go to possess it. <sup>22</sup>The LORD shall strike you with lung disease and with a fever, and with an inflammation, and with an extreme burning, and with the sword, and with blasting, and with mildew. And they shall pursue you until you perish. <sup>23</sup>And your heavens over your head shall be bronze, and the earth that is under you iron. <sup>24</sup>The LORD shall make the rain of your land powder and dust. It shall come down from the heavens on you until you are destroyed. <sup>25</sup>The LORD shall cause you to be stricken before your enemies. You shall go out one way against them, and flee seven ways before them. And you shall be a trembling to all the kingdoms of the earth. <sup>26</sup>And your body shall be food to all birds of the air, and to the beasts of the earth. And no man shall frighten them away.

<sup>27</sup>The LORD will strike you with the boils of Egypt, and with the hemorrhoids, and with the scab, and with the itch, of which you cannot be healed. <sup>28</sup>The LORD shall strike you with madness and blindness, and astonishment of heart. <sup>29</sup>And you shall grope at noonday, as the blind gropes in darkness, and you shall not prosper in your ways. And you shall always be pressed down and spoiled forever, and no man shall save you. <sup>30</sup>You shall become engaged to a wife, and another man shall lie with her. You shall build a house, and you shall not live in it. You shall plant a vineyard, and you shall not gather the grapes of it. <sup>31</sup>Your ox shall be slain before your eyes, and you shall not eat of it. Your ass shall be violently taken away from before your face, and shall not be restored to you, your sheep given to your enemies, and you shall have none to rescue them. <sup>32</sup>Your sons and your daughters shall be given to another people, and your eyes shall look and fail for them all the day long. And there shall be no power in your hand. <sup>33</sup>The fruit of your land, and all your labors, shall be eaten up by a nation which you do not know. And you shall always be oppressed and crushed, <sup>34</sup>and you shall be mad because of that which you shall see with the sight of your eyes. <sup>35</sup>The LORD shall strike you in the knees and in the legs with a sore boil that cannot be healed, from the sole of your foot to the top of your head.

<sup>36</sup>The LORD shall bring you, and your king which you shall set over you, to a nation which neither you nor your fathers have known. And there you shall serve other gods, wood and stone. <sup>37</sup>And you shall become an astonishment, a proverb, and a by-word among all nations where the LORD shall lead you. <sup>38</sup>You shall carry much seed out into the field, and shall gather little in, for the locust shall eat it. <sup>39</sup>You shall plant vineyards and dress them, but shall neither drink the wine nor gather, for the worms shall eat them. <sup>40</sup>You shall have olive trees throughout all your coasts, but you shall not anoint with the oil, for your olive shall drop off its fruit. <sup>41</sup>You shall father sons and daughters, but you shall not enjoy them, for they shall go into captivity. <sup>42</sup>All your trees and the fruit of your land the locust shall possess. <sup>43</sup>The stranger within you shall get up above you very high, and you shall come down very low. <sup>44</sup>He shall loan to you, and you shall not loan to him. He shall be the head, and you shall be the tail. <sup>45</sup>And all these curses shall come on you, and shall pursue you and overtake you, until you are destroyed, because you did not listen to the voice of the LORD your God, to keep His commandments and His statutes which He commanded you. <sup>46</sup>And they shall be on you for a sign and for a wonder, and on your seed forever.

<sup>47</sup>Because you did not serve the LORD your God with joyfulness and with gladness of heart for the abundance of all things; <sup>48</sup>therefore you shall serve your enemies which the LORD shall send against you, in hunger, and in thirst, and in nakedness, and in the lack of all things. And he shall put a yoke of iron on your neck until he has destroyed you. <sup>49</sup>The LORD shall bring a nation against you from far, from the end of the earth, as the eagle flies; a nation whose tongue you shall not understand, <sup>50</sup>a nation fierce of face who shall not regard the person of the old, nor show favor to the young. <sup>51</sup>And he shall eat the fruit of your cattle and the fruit of your land, until you are destroyed. He shall not leave you grain, wine, or oil, the increase of your cows, or flocks of your sheep, until he has destroyed you. <sup>52</sup>And he shall besiege you in all your gates until your high and fenced walls in which you trusted come down, throughout all the land. And he shall besiege you in all your gates throughout all your land which the LORD your God has given you. <sup>53</sup>And you shall eat the fruit of your own body, the flesh of your sons and of your daughters, which the LORD your God has given you, in the siege and in the difficulty with which your enemies shall distress you.<sup>54</sup> The man that is tender among you, and very delicate, his eye shall be evil toward his brother and toward the wife of his bosom, and toward the rest of his sons which he has left;<sup>55</sup> so that he will not give to any of them of the flesh of his sons whom he shall eat, because he has nothing left to him in the siege and in the difficulty with which your enemies shall distress you in all your gates.<sup>56</sup> The tender and delicate woman among you, who would not have ventured to set the sole of her foot on the ground for delicateness and tenderness, her eye shall be evil toward the husband of her bosom, and toward her son, and toward her daughter,<sup>57</sup> and toward her young one who comes out from between her feet, and toward her sons whom she shall bear. For she shall eat them secretly for lack of all things, in the siege and straitness with which your enemies shall distress you in your gates.

<sup>58</sup>If you will not observe to do all the words of this law that are written in this book, that you may fear this glorious and fearful name, THE LORD YOUR GOD,<sup>59</sup> then the LORD will make your plagues remarkable, and the plagues of your seed, great and persistent plagues; with evil and long-lasting sicknesses.<sup>60</sup> Also, He will bring on you all the diseases of Egypt which you were afraid of. And they shall cling to you.<sup>61</sup> Also, every sickness and every plague which is not written in the book of this law, the LORD will bring them on you until you are destroyed.<sup>62</sup> And you shall be left few in number, whereas you were as the stars of the heavens for multitude, because you would not obey the voice of the LORD your God.<sup>63</sup> And it shall be, as the LORD rejoiced over you to do you good and to multiply you, so the LORD will rejoice over you to destroy you and to bring you to nothing. And you shall be plucked from off the land where you go to possess it.

<sup>64</sup>And the LORD shall scatter you among all people, from the one end of the earth even to the other, and you shall serve other gods there, which neither you nor your father have known, wood and stone.<sup>65</sup> And among these nations you shall find no ease, neither shall the sole of your foot have rest. But the LORD shall give you there a trembling heart and failing of eyes and sorrow of mind.<sup>66</sup> And your life shall hang in doubt before you, and you shall fear day and night, and shall have no assurance of your life.<sup>67</sup> In the morning you shall say, Oh that it were evening! And at evening you shall say, Oh that it were morning! — for the fear of your heart with which you shall fear, and for the sight of your eyes which you shall see.<sup>68</sup> And the LORD shall bring you into Egypt again with ships, by the way of which I said to you, You shall see it no more again. And there you shall be sold to your enemies for men-slaves and women-slaves, and no man shall buy you.

CHAPTER 29

<sup>1</sup>These are the words of the covenant which the LORD commanded Moses to make with the sons of Israel in the land of Moab, besides the covenant which He made with them in Horeb.<sup>2</sup> And Moses called to all Israel and said to them, You have seen all that the LORD did before your eyes in the land of Egypt to Pharaoh and to all his servants, and to all his land.<sup>3</sup> Your eyes have seen the great temptations, the signs, and those great miracles.<sup>4</sup> Yet the LORD has not given you a heart to perceive, and eyes to see, and ears to hear, until today.<sup>5</sup> And I have led you forty years in the wilderness. Your clothes have not become old on you, and your shoe has not become old on your foot.<sup>6</sup> You have not eaten bread, neither have you drunk wine or strong drink, so that you might know that I am the LORD your God.<sup>7</sup> And when you came to this place, Sihon the king of Heshbon, and Og the king of Bashan, came out against us to battle, and we struck them.<sup>8</sup> And we took their land and gave it for an inheritance to the Reubenites and to the Gadites and to the half tribe of Manasseh. <sup>9</sup>Therefore, keep the words of this covenant and do them, so that you may prosper in all that you do.

<sup>10</sup>You stand today, all of you, before the LORD your God; your captains of your tribes, your elders, and your officers, all the men of Israel, <sup>11</sup>your little ones, your wives, and your stranger that is in your camp, from the cutter of your wood to the drawer of your water; <sup>12</sup>so that you should enter into covenant with the LORD your God, and into His oath, which the LORD your God makes you today; <sup>13</sup>that He may establish you today for a people to Himself, and that He may be a God to you, as He has said to you, and as He has sworn to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob. <sup>14</sup>Nor do I make this covenant and this oath with you only, <sup>15</sup>but with him who stands here with us today before the LORD our God, and also with him that is not here with us today. <sup>16</sup>(For you know how we have lived in the land of Egypt, and how we came through the nations which you passed. <sup>17</sup>And you have seen their abominations and their idols, wood and stone, silver and gold, which were among them) <sup>18</sup>lest there should be among you man, or woman, or family, or tribe, whose heart turns away today from the LORD our God, to go serve the gods of these nations; lest there should be among you today a root that bears gall and wormwood, <sup>19</sup>and lest it come to pass, when he hears the words of this curse, that he bless himself in his heart saying, I shall have peace, though I walk in the imagination of my heart, to add drunkenness to thirst. <sup>20</sup>The LORD will not spare him, but then the anger of the LORD and His jealousy shall smoke against that man, and all the curses that are written in this book shall lie on him, and the LORD shall blot out his name from under heaven. <sup>21</sup>And the LORD shall set him apart to evil out of all the tribes of Israel, according to all the curses of the covenant that are written in this book of the law; <sup>22</sup>so that the generation to come of your sons that shall rise up after you, and the stranger that shall come from a far land, shall say (when they see the plagues of that land, and the sicknesses which the LORD has laid on it) <sup>23</sup>the whole land shall be burned with brimstone, and salt; it shall not be sown; nor shall it sprout; nor shall there be any grass in it. It shall be like the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah, Admah, and Zeboim, which the LORD overthrew in His anger, and in His wrath, <sup>24</sup>even all nations shall say, Why has the LORD done this to this land? For what is the heat of this great anger? <sup>25</sup>Then men shall say, Because they have forsaken the covenant of the LORD God of their fathers, which He made with them when He brought them forth out of the land of Egypt. <sup>26</sup>For they went and served other gods, and worshiped them, gods whom they did not know, and who had not given to them any portion. <sup>27</sup>And the anger of the LORD was kindled against this land, to bring on it all the curses that are written in this book. <sup>28</sup>And the LORD rooted them out of their land in anger and wrath, and in great indignation, and cast them into another land, as it is today.

<sup>29</sup>The secret things belong to the LORD our God, but those things which are revealed belong to us and to our sons forever, so that we may do all the words of this law.

CHAPTER 30

<sup>1</sup>And when all these things have come on you, the blessing and the curse which I have set before you, and when you shall call them to mind among all the nations where the LORD your God has driven you, <sup>2</sup>and shall return to the LORD your God and shall obey His voice according to all that I command you today, you and your sons, with all your heart, and with all your soul, <sup>3</sup>then the LORD your God will turn your captivity. And He will have compassion on you, and will return and gather you from all the nations where the LORD your God has scattered you. <sup>4</sup>If you are driven out into the outermost parts of the heavens, the LORD your God will gather you from there, and He will bring you from there. <sup>5</sup>And the LORD your God will bring you into the land which your fathers possessed, and you shall possess it. And He will do you good, and multiply you above your fathers. <sup>6</sup>And the LORD your God will circumcise your heart and the heart of your seed, to love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul, so that you may live. <sup>7</sup>And the LORD your God will put all these curses on your enemies, and on those that hate you, who persecuted you. <sup>8</sup>And you shall return and, obey the voice of the LORD, and do all His commandments which I command you today. <sup>9</sup>And the LORD your God will make you have plenty in every work of your hand, in the fruit of your body, and in the fruit of your cattle, and in the fruit of your land, for good. For the LORD will again rejoice over you for good, as He rejoiced over your fathers; <sup>10</sup>if you shall listen to the voice of the LORD your God, to keep His commandments and His statutes which are written in this book of the law, and if you turn to the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul.

<sup>11</sup>For this commandment which I command you today is not hidden from you, neither is it far off. <sup>12</sup>It is not in Heaven, that you should say, Who shall go up for us to Heaven, and bring it to us, so that we may hear it and do it? <sup>13</sup>Nor is it beyond the sea, so that you should say, Who shall go over the sea for us, and bring it to us, so that we may hear it and do it? <sup>14</sup>But the word is very near you, in your mouth and in your heart, so that you may do it.

<sup>15</sup>Behold! I have set before you today life and good, and death and evil, <sup>16</sup>in that I command you today to love the LORD your God, to walk in His ways, and to keep His commandments and His statutes and His judgments, so that you may live and multiply. And the LORD your God shall bless you in the land where you go to possess it. <sup>17</sup>But if your heart turns away, so that you will not hear, but shall be drawn away and worship other gods and serve them, <sup>18</sup>I declare to you today that you shall surely perish; you shall not prolong your days on the land where you pass over Jordan to go to possess it. <sup>19</sup>I call Heaven and earth to record today against you. I have set before you life and death, blessing and cursing. Therefore, choose life, so that both you and your seed may live, <sup>20</sup>so that you may love the LORD your God, and that you may obey His voice, and that you may cling to Him. For He is your life and the length of your days, so that you may dwell in the land which the LORD swore to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give them.

CHAPTER 31

<sup>1</sup>And Moses went and spoke these words to all Israel. <sup>2</sup>And he said to them, I am a hundred twenty years old today. I can no more go out and come in. Also the LORD has said to me, You shall not go over this Jordan. <sup>3</sup>The LORD your God will go over before you. He will destroy these nations from before you, and you shall possess them. Joshua shall go over before you, as the LORD has said. <sup>4</sup>And the LORD shall do to them as He did to Sihon and to Og, kings of the Amorites, and to the land of those whom He destroyed. <sup>5</sup>And the LORD shall give them up before your face, so that you may do to them according to the commandments which I have commanded you. <sup>6</sup>Be strong and of a good courage. Do not fear nor be afraid of them. For the LORD your God is He who goes with you. He will not fail you nor forsake you. <sup>7</sup>And Moses called to Joshua and said to him in the sight of all Israel, Be strong and of a good courage. For you must go with this people to the land which the LORD has sworn to their fathers to give them, and you shall cause them to inherit it. <sup>8</sup>And the LORD is He who goes before you. He will be with you; He will not fail you nor forsake you. Do not fear; nor be dismayed.

<sup>9</sup>And Moses wrote this law and delivered it to the priests, the sons of Levi, who carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and to all the elders of Israel. <sup>10</sup>And Moses commanded them, saying: At the end of seven years, at the set time of the year of release, in the feast of tabernacles, <sup>11</sup>when all Israel has come to appear before the LORD your God in the place which He shall choose, you shall read this law before all Israel in their hearing. <sup>12</sup>Gather the people together, men and women and sons, and your stranger who is within your gates, so that they may hear and that they may learn and fear the LORD your God, and be careful to do all the words of this law, <sup>13</sup>and that their sons who have not known may hear and learn to fear the LORD your God, as long as you live in the land where you go over Jordan to possess it.

<sup>14</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, Behold, your days are coming near when you must die. Call Joshua and present yourselves in the tabernacle of the congregation, so that I may give him a charge. And Moses and Joshua went. And they presented themselves in the tabernacle of the congregation. <sup>15</sup>And the LORD appeared in the tabernacle in a pillar of a cloud. And the pillar of the cloud stood over the door of the tabernacle. <sup>16</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, Behold, you shall sleep with your fathers. And this people shall rise up and go lusting after the gods of the strangers of the land into which they are going, into their midst. And they will forsake Me and break My covenant which I have made with them. <sup>17</sup>Then My anger shall be kindled against them in that day, and I will forsake them. And I will hide My face from them, and they shall be devoured, and many evils and troubles shall befall them, so that they will say in that day, Have not these evils come on us because our God is not among us? <sup>18</sup>And I will surely hide My face in that day for all the evils which they have done, in that they have turned to other gods. <sup>19</sup>And now, therefore, write this song for you, and teach it to the sons of Israel. Put it in their mouths so that this song may be a witness for Me against the sons of Israel. <sup>20</sup>For when I shall have brought them into the land which I swore to their fathers, the land that flows with milk and honey, and they shall have eaten and filled themselves, and have become fat, then they will turn to other gods and serve them, and provoke Me and break My covenant. <sup>21</sup>And it happened when many evils and troubles have befallen them, this song shall testify against them as a witness. For it shall not be forgotten out of the mouths of their seed. For I know their imagination which they do, even now, before I have brought them into the land which I swore.

<sup>22</sup>And Moses wrote this song the same day, and taught it to the sons of Israel. <sup>23</sup>And he commanded Joshua the son of Nun, and said: Be strong and of a good courage. For you shall bring the sons of Israel into the land which I swore to them, and I will be with you. <sup>24</sup>And it happened when Moses had made an end of writing the words of this law in a book, until they were finished, <sup>25</sup>Moses commanded the Levites who carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD, saying, <sup>26</sup>Take this book of the law, and put it in the side of the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God, so that it may be there for a witness against you. <sup>27</sup>For I know your rebellion and your stiff neck. Behold, while I am still alive with you today, you have been rebellious against the LORD. And how much more after my death? <sup>28</sup>Gather to me all the elders of your tribes, and your officers, so that I may speak these words in their ears, and call Heaven and earth to record against them. <sup>29</sup>For I know that after my death you will become utterly corrupt, and turn aside from the way which I have commanded you. And evil will befall you in the latter days, because you will do evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke Him to anger through the work of your hands.

<sup>30</sup>And Moses spoke in the ears of all the congregation of Israel the words of this song, until their conclusion.

CHAPTER 32

<sup>1</sup>Give ear, O heavens, and I will speak; and hear, O earth, the words of my mouth. <sup>2</sup>My doctrine shall drop as the rain; my speech shall drop down as the dew, as the small rain on the tender plant, and as the showers on the grass; <sup>3</sup>because I will proclaim the name of the LORD, ascribe greatness to our God. <sup>4</sup>He is the Rock; His work is perfect. For all His ways are just, a God of faithfulness, and without evil; just and upright is He. <sup>5</sup>They have corrupted themselves; they are not His sons; it is their blemish; they are a crooked and perverse generation.

<sup>6</sup>Do you thus give back to the LORD, O foolish people? Is He not your Father who bought you? Has He not made you and established you? <sup>7</sup>Remember the days of old; consider the years of many generations. Ask your father, and he will show you; your elders, and they will tell you. <sup>8</sup>When the Most High divided to the nations their inheritance, when He separated the sons of Adam, He set the bounds of the people according to the number of the sons of Israel. <sup>9</sup>For the LORD's portion is His people. Jacob is the lot of His inheritance. <sup>10</sup>He found him in a desert land, and in the deserted, howling wilderness. He led him about, He instructed him, He kept him as the apple of His eye. <sup>11</sup>As an eagle stirs up her nest, flutters over her young, spreads abroad her wings, takes them and bears them on her wings, <sup>12</sup>the LORD alone led him, and there was no strange god with him. <sup>13</sup>He made him ride on the high places of the earth, so that he might eat the increase of the fields. And He made him suck honey out of the rock, and oil out of the flinty rock, <sup>14</sup>butter from cows, and milk from sheep, with fat of lambs, and rams of the breed of Bashan, and goats, with the fat of kidneys of wheat. And you drank the pure blood of the grape.

<sup>15</sup>But Jeshurun grew fat and kicked. You grew fat, thick, and satisfied. Then he forsook God who made him, and lightly esteemed the Rock of his salvation. <sup>16</sup>They provoked Him to jealousy with strange gods; with abominations they provoked Him to anger. <sup>17</sup>They sacrificed to devils, not to God; to gods whom they knew not, to new ones newly come up, whom your fathers did not fear. <sup>18</sup>You are not mindful of the Rock who brought you forth, and have forgotten God who formed you. <sup>19</sup>And when the LORD saw it, He despised them because of the provoking of His sons and of His daughters. <sup>20</sup>And He said, I will hide My face from them; I will see what their end shall be. For they are a very perverse generation, sons in whom is no faithfulness. <sup>21</sup>They have moved Me to jealousy with a no-god. They have provoked Me to anger with their vanities. And I will move them to jealousy with a no-people. I will provoke them to anger with a foolish nation. <sup>22</sup>For a fire is kindled in My anger, and shall burn to the lowest hell, and shall consume the earth with its increase, and set on fire the foundations of the mountains. <sup>23</sup>I will heap mischief on them. I will spend My arrows on them. <sup>24</sup>Exhaustion by famine, and consumed by burning heat, and destruction, and the teeth of beasts I will send on them, with the poison of serpents of the dust. <sup>25</sup>The sword outside, and the terror inside, shall destroy both the young man and the virgin, the suckling also with the man of grey hairs.

<sup>26</sup>I said I would dash them to pieces; I would make the memory of them to cease from among men, <sup>27</sup>were it not the provocation of an enemy I feared, lest their enemies should misconstrue; lest they should say, Our hand is high and the LORD has not done all this. <sup>28</sup>For they are a nation without wisdom, neither is there any understanding in them. <sup>29</sup>If they were wise, they would understand this; they would consider their latter end! <sup>30</sup>How shall one chase a thousand, and two put ten thousand to flight, unless their Rock had sold them and the LORD had shut them up? <sup>31</sup>For their rock is not as our Rock, even our enemies themselves being judges. <sup>32</sup>For their vine is of the vine of Sodom, and of the fields of Gomorrah. Their grapes are grapes of gall. Their clusters are bitter. <sup>33</sup>Their wine is the poison of serpents, and the cruel venom of asps. <sup>34</sup>Is not this laid up in store with Me and sealed up among My treasures? <sup>35</sup>Vengeance and retribution belong to Me. Their foot shall slide in time, for the day of their calamity is at hand, and the things that shall come on them make haste. <sup>36</sup>For the LORD shall judge His people and turn Himself around for His servants when He sees that their power is gone, and only the imprisoned and the abandoned remain. <sup>37</sup>And He shall say, Where are their gods, their rock in whom they trusted? <sup>38</sup>Who ate the fat of their sacrifices and drank the wine of their drink offerings? Let them rise up and help you; let it be your hiding place.

<sup>39</sup>See now that I, I am He, and there is no god with me. I kill, and I make alive — I wound and I heal; and there is no deliverer of My hand. <sup>40</sup>For I lift up My hand to Heaven and say, I live forever! <sup>41</sup>If I sharpen My glittering sword, and if My hand takes hold in judgment, I will give vengeance to My enemies and will reward those that hate Me. <sup>42</sup>I will make My arrows drunk with blood, and My sword shall devour flesh, with the blood of the slain and of the captives, from the hairy scalp of the enemy.

<sup>43</sup>Rejoice, O, nations, with His people; for He will avenge the blood of His servants, and will render vengeance to His foes and will be merciful to His land, to His people.

<sup>44</sup>And Moses came and spoke all the words of this song in the ears of the people, he and Joshua the son of Nun. <sup>45</sup>And Moses made an end of speaking all these words to all Israel. <sup>46</sup>And he said to them, Set your hearts to all the words which I testify among you today, which you shall command your sons to observe and to do, all the words of this law. <sup>47</sup>For it is not a vain thing for you, because it is your life. And by this you shall prolong your days in the land where you go over Jordan, there to possess it.

<sup>48</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses that same day, saying, <sup>49</sup>Go up into Mount Abarim, to Mount Nebo in the land of Moab, which is opposite Jericho; and behold the land of Canaan which I am giving to the sons of Israel for a possession. <sup>50</sup>And die in the mountain where you go up, and be gathered to your people, as Aaron your brother died in Mount Hor and was gathered to his people, <sup>51</sup>because you sinned against Me among the sons of Israel at the waters of Meribah-Kadesh, in the wilderness of Zin, because you did not sanctify Me in the midst of the sons of Israel. <sup>52</sup>Yet you shall see the land before you, but you shall not go there to the land which I am giving to the sons of Israel.

CHAPTER 33

<sup>1</sup>And this is the blessing with which Moses the man of God blessed the sons of Israel before his death. <sup>2</sup>And he said: The LORD came from Sinai and rose up from Seir to them. He shone forth from Mount Paran, and He came with ten thousands of saints. From His right hand went a fiery law for them. <sup>3</sup>Yea, He loved the people. All His saints are in Your hand, and they sat down at Your feet. Everyone shall receive of Your words. <sup>4</sup>Moses commanded us a law, the inheritance of the congregation. <sup>5</sup>And he was king in Jeshurun, when the heads of the people and the tribes of Israel were gathered together.

<sup>6</sup>Let Reuben live and not die, and let not his men be few. <sup>7</sup>And this for Judah: And he said, Hear, LORD, the voice of Judah, and bring him to his people. Let his hands be sufficient for him, and You shall be a help to him from his enemies. <sup>8</sup>And of Levi he said, Let Your Thummim and Your Urim be with Your holy one whom You proved at Massah; You strove with him at the waters of Meribah, <sup>9</sup>who said to his father and to his mother, I have not seen him; and he has not acknowledged his brothers, nor knew his own son, for they have observed Your word and kept Your covenant. <sup>10</sup>Let them teach Jacob Your judgments, and Israel Your law. Let them put incense before You and whole burnt sacrifice on Your altar. <sup>11</sup>O, LORD, bless what is his, and accept the work of his hands. Strike through the loins of those who rise against him, and of those who hate him, that they should not rise again.

<sup>12</sup>Of Benjamin he said, The beloved of the LORD shall live in safety beside Him, and shall cover him all the day long, and He shall live between his shoulders. <sup>13</sup>And of Joseph he said, Blessed of the LORD be his land, with the precious things of the heavens, for the dew, and for the deep that crouches beneath, <sup>14</sup>and for the precious fruits brought forth by the sun, and for the precious things put forth by the moon, <sup>15</sup>and with the first of the ancient mountains, and for the precious things of the everlasting hills, <sup>16</sup>and for the precious things of the earth and fullness of it, and for the good-will of Him who lived in the Bush. Let the blessing come on the head of Joseph, and on the top of the head of him who was separated from his brothers. <sup>17</sup>His glory is like the first-born of his bull, and his horns are like the horns of an ox. With them he shall push the people together to the ends of the earth. And they are the ten thousands of Ephraim, and they are the thousands of Manasseh.

<sup>18</sup>And of Zebulun he said, Rejoice, Zebulun, in your going out, and, Issachar in your tents. <sup>19</sup>They shall call the people to the mountain. There they shall offer sacrifices of righteousness, for they shall suck the bounty of the seas and treasures hidden in the sand. <sup>20</sup>And of Gad he said, Blessed is he who makes Gad greater. He lives as a lion and tears the arm with the crown of the head. <sup>21</sup>And he provided the first part for himself, because there was the portion of the lawgiver hidden. And he came with the heads of the people. He executed the justice of the LORD, and His judgments with Israel. <sup>22</sup>And of Dan he said, Dan is a lion's whelp. He shall leap from Bashan. <sup>23</sup>And of Naphtali he said, O Naphtali, satisfied with favor, and full with the blessing of the LORD, possess the west and the south. <sup>24</sup>And of Asher he said, Asher shall be blessed with sons, let him be pleasing to his brothers, and let him dip his foot in oil. <sup>25</sup>Your shoes shall be iron and bronze. And as your days, so shall your strength be.

<sup>26</sup>There is none like the God of Jeshurun, who rides on the heaven to your help, and in His majesty on the clouds. <sup>27</sup>The eternal God is your refuge, and underneath are the everlasting arms. And He shall throw the enemy out from before you, and shall say, Destroy! <sup>28</sup>And Israel shall dwell in safety alone; the fountain of Jacob in a land of grain and wine; and his heavens shall drop down dew. <sup>29</sup>Blessed are you, O Israel! Who is like you, O people saved by the LORD, the shield of your help, and who is the sword of your excellency! And your enemies shall be found liars to you, and you shall tread on their high places.

CHAPTER 34

<sup>1</sup>And Moses went up from the plains of Moab to the mountain of Nebo, to the top of Pisgah that is opposite Jericho. And the LORD showed him all the land of Gilcad, to Dan, <sup>2</sup>and all Naphtali, and the land of Ephraim and Manasseh, and all the land of Judah, to the furthest sea, <sup>3</sup>and the south, and the plain of the valley of Jericho, the city of palm trees, to Zoar. <sup>4</sup>And the LORD said to him, This is the land which I swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, saying, I will give it to your seed. I have caused you to see it with your eyes, but you shall not go over there. <sup>5</sup>And Moses the servant of the LORD died there in the land of Moab, according to the word of the LORD. <sup>6</sup>And He buried him in a valley in the land of Moab, opposite Beth-peor. But no man knows of his grave to today. <sup>7</sup>And Moses was a hundred and twenty years old when he died. His eye was not dim, nor had he lost any of his natural strength.

<sup>8</sup>And the sons of Israel wept for Moses in the plains of Moab thirty days. And the days of weeping and mourning for Moses were ended. <sup>9</sup>And Joshua the son of Nun was full of the spirit of wisdom, for Moses had laid his hands on him. And the sons of Israel listened to him, and did as the LORD commanded Moses. <sup>10</sup>And never since has a prophet like Moses arisen in Israel, whom the LORD knew face to face, <sup>11</sup>in all the signs and the wonders which the LORD sent him to do in the land of Egypt, to Pharaoh, and to all his servants, and to all his land, <sup>12</sup>and in all that mighty hand, and in all the great terror which Moses showed in the eyes of all Israel.

THE BOOK OF JOSHUA

CHAPTER 1

<sup>1</sup>And it happened after the death of Moses the servant of the LORD, the LORD spoke to Joshua the son of Nun, Moses' minister, saying, <sup>2</sup>My servant Moses is dead. Now, therefore, arise, go over this Jordan, you and all this people to the land which I give to them, to the sons of Israel. <sup>3</sup>Every place that the sole of your foot shall tread upon, I have given that to you, as I said to Moses. <sup>4</sup>From the wilderness and this Lebanon even to the great river, the river Euphrates, all the land of the Hittites, and to the Great Sea toward the going down of the sun, shall be your border. <sup>5</sup>No man shall be able to stand before you all the days of your life. As I was with Moses, so I will be with you. I will not fail you nor forsake you. <sup>6</sup>Be strong and of good courage. For you shall divide the land for an inheritance to this people, the land which I swore to their fathers, to give it to them. <sup>7</sup>Only be strong and very courageous so that you may be careful to do according to all the law which My servant Moses commanded you. Do not turn from it to the right hand or to the left, so that you may be blessed wherever you go. <sup>8</sup>This book of the law shall not depart out of your hand, but you shall meditate on it by day and by night, so that you may be careful to do according to all that is written in it. For then you shall make your way blessed, and then you shall have good success. <sup>9</sup>Have I not commanded you? Be strong and of good courage. Do not be afraid, neither be dismayed. For the LORD your God is with you in all places where you go.

<sup>10</sup>Then Joshua commanded the officers of the people saying, <sup>11</sup>Pass through the host, and command the people, saying, Prepare food for yourselves, for within three days you are crossing over this Jordan, to go in to possess the land which the LORD your God is giving you to possess it.

<sup>12</sup>And Joshua spoke to the Reubenites and to the Gadites and to half the tribe of Manasseh, saying: <sup>13</sup>Remember the word which Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you saying, The LORD your God has given you rest and has given you this land. <sup>14</sup>Your wives, your little ones, and your cattle shall remain in the land which Moses gave you on this side Jordan. But you shall go armed before your brothers, all the mighty men of valor, and help them <sup>15</sup>until the LORD has given your brothers rest, even as you, and they also have possessed the land which the LORD your God gives them; and you shall return to the land of your possession and enjoy it, which Moses the LORD's servant gave you on this side Jordan, towards the sunrise. <sup>16</sup>And they answered Joshua, saying: We will do all that you command us, and wherever you send us we will go. <sup>17</sup>Just as we listened to Moses in all things, so we will listen to you. Only may the LORD your God be with you as He was with Moses. <sup>18</sup>Whoever rebels against your command and will not listen to your words in all that you command him, he shall be put to death. Only be strong and of a good courage.

CHAPTER 2

<sup>1</sup>And Joshua the son of Nun sent out of Shittim two men to spy secretly, saying, Go look over the land, even Jericho. And they went and came to the house of a harlot named Rahab. And they stayed there. <sup>2</sup>And the king of Jericho was told about it, saying, Behold, men from the sons of Israel came in here tonight, to search out the country. <sup>3</sup>And the king of Jericho sent to Rahab, saying, Bring out the men that have come to you, those who have entered into your house. For they have come to search out all the country. <sup>4</sup>And the woman took the two men and hid them. And she said, Two men came to me, but I did not know where they came from. <sup>5</sup>And it happened when it was dark, at the time of shutting the gate, the men went out. Where the men went I do not know. Go after them quickly, for you shall overtake them. <sup>6</sup>But she had brought them up to the roof of the house, and had hidden them with the stalks of flax which she had laid in order upon the roof. <sup>7</sup>And the men went after them on the way to Jordan, to the fords. And as soon as they who went after them had gone out, they shut the gate.

<sup>8</sup>And before they had laid down, she came up to them on the roof. <sup>9</sup>And she said to the men, I know that the LORD has given you the land, and that your terror has fallen on us, and that all those who live in the land faint because of you. <sup>10</sup>For we have heard how the LORD dried up the water of the Red Sea for you when you came out of Egypt, and what you did to the two kings of the Amorites that were on the other side Jordan, Sihon and Og, whom you utterly destroyed. <sup>11</sup>And we had heard, and our hearts melted, nor did any more spirit remain in any man, because of you. For the LORD your God, He is God in Heaven above and in earth beneath. <sup>12</sup>Now therefore, I pray you, swear to me by the LORD, since I have shown you kindness, that you will also show kindness to my father's house. And give me a true token, <sup>13</sup>and shall save alive my father and my mother, and my brothers and my sisters, and all that they have, and deliver our lives from death. <sup>14</sup>And the men answered her, Our life shall be for yours, if you do not tell our business. And when the LORD has given us the land, we will deal kindly and truly with you.

<sup>15</sup>Then she let them go down by a cord through the window. For her house was on the town wall, and she lived on the wall. <sup>16</sup>And she said to them, Get up into the mountain lest the pursuers meet you. And hide yourselves there three days until they have returned. And afterward you may go your way. <sup>17</sup>And the men said to her, We will be blameless of this oath to you which you have made us swear. <sup>18</sup>Behold, when we come into the land, you shall set this line of scarlet thread in the window from which you let us down. And you shall bring your father and your mother, and your brothers, and all your father's household, home to you. <sup>19</sup>And it shall be, whoever shall go out of the doors of your house into the street, his blood shall be on his head, and we will be blameless. And whoever shall be with you in the house, his blood shall be on our head if a hand is on him. <sup>20</sup>And it shall be, if you tell our business, then we will be free of the oath which you have made us swear to you. <sup>21</sup>And she said, Let it be according to your word. And she sent them away, and they departed. And she set the scarlet line in the window.

<sup>22</sup>And they went and came to the mountain, and stayed there three days until those who went after them had returned. And those who went after them looked for them throughout all the way, but did not find them. <sup>23</sup>And the two men returned. And they went down from the mountain, and passed over, and came to Joshua the son of Nun. And they told him all that happened to them. <sup>24</sup>And they said to Joshua, Truly the LORD has delivered all the land into our hands, for even all those who live in the country faint because of us.

CHAPTER 3

<sup>1</sup>And Joshua rose early in the morning. And they moved from Shittim and came to Jordan, he and all the sons of Israel, and lodged there before they passed over. <sup>2</sup>And it happened after three days the officers went through the host. <sup>3</sup>And they commanded the people saying, When you see the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God, and the priests the Levites bearing it, then you shall move from your place and go after it. <sup>4</sup>Yet there shall be a space, about two thousand cubits by measure, between you and it. Do not come near it, so that you may know the way by which you must go. For you have not passed this way before now. <sup>5</sup>And Joshua said to the people, Sanctify yourselves, for tomorrow the LORD will do wonders among you. <sup>6</sup>And Joshua spoke to the priests saying, Take up the ark of the covenant and pass over before the people. And they took up the ark of the covenant and went before the people.

<sup>7</sup>And the LORD said to Joshua, Today, I will begin to magnify you in the sight of all Israel so that they may know that I will be with you, as I was with Moses. <sup>8</sup>And you shall command the priests that carry the ark of the covenant, saying, When you have come to the brink of the water of Jordan, you shall stand still in Jordan. <sup>9</sup>And Joshua said to the sons of Israel, Come here and hear the words of the LORD your God. <sup>10</sup>And Joshua said, By this you shall know that the living God is among you, and He will without fail drive out from before you the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Hivites, and the Perizzites, and the Girgashites, and the Amorites, and the Jebusites. <sup>11</sup>Behold, the ark of the covenant of the Lord of all the earth passes over before you into Jordan. <sup>12</sup>And now take yourselves twelve men out of the tribes of Israel, out of every tribe a man. <sup>13</sup>And it shall be, as soon as the soles of the feet of the priests that carry the ark of the LORD, the Lord of all the earth, shall rest in the waters of Jordan, the waters of Jordan shall be cut off from the waters that come down from above. And they shall stand all in a heap.

<sup>14</sup>And it happened, when the people moved from their tents to pass over Jordan, and as the priests carried the ark of the covenant before the people, <sup>15</sup>and as those who bore the ark had come to Jordan, and the feet of the priests that bore the ark were dipped in the edge of the water (for Jordan overflows all its banks, all the time of harvest); <sup>16</sup>that the waters which came down from above stopped and rose up all in a heap, very far from the city Adam that is beside Zaretan. And those that came down toward the sea of the plain, the Salt Sea, were completely cut off. And the people passed over right across from Jericho. <sup>17</sup>And the priests who bore the ark of the covenant of the LORD stood firm on dry ground in the middle of Jordan. And all the Israelites passed over on dry ground, until all the people had passed completely over Jordan.

CHAPTER 4

<sup>1</sup>And it happened when all the people had completely passed over the Jordan, the LORD spoke to Joshua saying, <sup>2</sup>Take twelve men for you out of the people, a man out of every tribe, <sup>3</sup>and command them saying, Take twelve stones from here, out of the middle of Jordan, out of the place where the priests' feet stood firm. And you shall carry them over with you, and leave them in the place where you shall stay tonight. <sup>4</sup>Then Joshua called the twelve men whom he had prepared from the sons of Israel, a man out of every tribe. <sup>5</sup>And Joshua said to them, Pass over in front of the ark of the LORD your God into the middle of the Jordan. And every man take a stone on his shoulder, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Israel, <sup>6</sup>so that this may be a sign to you when your sons ask in time to come, saying, What do you mean by these stones? <sup>7</sup>Then you shall answer them, The waters of Jordan were cut off before the ark of the covenant of the LORD. When it passed over Jordan, the waters of Jordan were cut off, and these stones shall be for a memorial to the sons of Israel forever. <sup>8</sup>And the sons of Israel did as Joshua commanded. And they took up twelve stones out of the middle of the Jordan, as the LORD spoke to Joshua, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Israel, and carried them over with them to the place where they stayed, and laid them down there. <sup>9</sup>And Joshua set up twelve stones in the middle of Jordan, in the place where the feet of the priests who carried the ark of the covenant, stood. And they are there to this day. <sup>10</sup>For the priests who bore the ark stood in the middle of the Jordan until everything was finished, all that the LORD commanded Joshua to speak to the people, according to all that Moses commanded Joshua. And the people hurried and passed over.

<sup>11</sup>And it happened, when all the people had completely passed over, the ark of the LORD and the priests passed over before the people. <sup>12</sup>And the sons of Reuben, and the sons of Gad, and half the tribe of Manasseh, passed over armed in front of the sons of Israel, as Moses spoke to them; <sup>13</sup>about forty thousand armed men of the army passed over before the LORD, to the plains of Jericho.

<sup>14</sup>On that day the LORD made Joshua great in the sight of all Israel. And they feared him, even as they feared Moses, all the days of his life.

<sup>15</sup>And the LORD spoke to Joshua, saying, <sup>16</sup>Command the priests who bear the ark of the testimony, that they come up out of the Jordan. <sup>17</sup>Joshua, therefore, commanded the priests saying, Come up out of the Jordan. <sup>18</sup>And it happened, when the priests who carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD had come up out of the midst of the Jordan, the soles of the feet of the priests were lifted up to the dry land, the waters of the Jordan returned to their place and flowed over all its banks, as before. <sup>19</sup>And the people came up out of the Jordan on the tenth of the first month, and camped in Gilgal, in the east border of Jericho. <sup>20</sup>And those twelve stones which they took out of the Jordan, Joshua pitched in Gilgal. <sup>21</sup>And he spoke to the sons of Israel saying, When your sons shall ask their fathers in time to come, saying, What do these stones mean? <sup>22</sup>Then you shall let your sons know, saying, Israel came over this Jordan on dry land. <sup>23</sup>For the LORD your God dried up the waters of Jordan from before you until you had passed over, even as the LORD your God did to the Red Sea which He dried up from before us until we had gone over; <sup>24</sup>so that all the people of the earth might know the hand of the LORD, that it is mighty and so that you might fear the LORD your God forever.

CHAPTER 5

<sup>1</sup>And it happened, when all the kings of the Amorites who were on the west side of the Jordan, and all the kings of the Canaanites who were by the sea, heard that the LORD had dried up the waters of Jordan in front of the sons of Israel until we had passed over, that their hearts melted. Neither was there spirit in them any more, because of the sons of Israel.

<sup>2</sup>At that time the LORD said to Joshua, Make sharp knives for yourselves and circumcise the sons of Israel again, the second time. <sup>3</sup>And Joshua made sharp knives and circumcised the sons of Israel at the hill of the foreskins. <sup>4</sup>And this is the reason why Joshua circumcised. All the people that came out of Egypt, the males, all the men of war, died in the wilderness by the wayside, after they came out of Egypt. <sup>5</sup>For all the people who came out were circumcised. But all the people born in the wilderness by the wayside, as they came forth out of Egypt, had not been circumcised. <sup>6</sup>For the sons of Israel walked forty years in the wilderness, until all the people, the men of war, who came out of Egypt, were destroyed, because they did not obey the voice of the LORD. To them the LORD swore that He would not show them the land which the LORD swore to their fathers that He would give us, a land that flows with milk and honey. <sup>7</sup>And Joshua circumcised their sons, whom He raised up in their place. For they were not circumcised, because they had not been circumcised by the wayside. <sup>8</sup>And when they had finished circumcising all the people, it came to pass that they stayed in their places in the camp until they were well.

<sup>9</sup>And the LORD said to Joshua, Today I have rolled away the reproach of Egypt from you. Therefore, the name of the place is called Gilgal to this day.

<sup>10</sup>And the sons of Israel camped in Gilgal and kept the Passover on the fourteenth day of the month at evening in the plains of Jericho. <sup>11</sup>And they ate of the old grain of the land on the next day after the Passover, unleavened cakes and roasted grain in the same day. <sup>12</sup>And the manna stopped on the next day after they had eaten the old grain of the land. And there was no more manna to the sons of Israel, but they ate the fruit of the land of Canaan that year.

<sup>13</sup>And it happened, when Joshua was beside Jericho, he lifted up his eyes and looked. And, behold, there stood a Man over against him with His sword drawn in His hand. And Joshua went to Him and said to Him, Are You for us, or for our foes? <sup>14</sup>And He said, No, but I have come as the Captain of the army of the LORD. And Joshua fell on his face to the earth. And he worshiped and said to Him, What does my Lord say to His servant? <sup>15</sup>And the Captain of the LORD's army said to Joshua, Take your shoe off your foot, for the place on which you stand is holy. And Joshua did so.

CHAPTER 6

<sup>1</sup>And Jericho was completely shut up because of the sons of Israel. None went out and none came in. <sup>2</sup>And the LORD said to Joshua, See, I have given Jericho into your hand, and the king of it, and the mighty men of war. <sup>3</sup>And you shall go around the city, all the men of war. Go around the city once. So you shall do for six days. <sup>4</sup>And seven priests shall bear seven trumpets of rams' horns in front of the ark. And the seventh day you shall go around the city seven times, and the priests shall blow with the trumpets. <sup>5</sup>And it shall be when they make a long blast with the ram's horn, and when you hear the sound of the trumpet, all the people shall shout with a great shout. And the wall of the city shall fall down flat, and the people shall go up, each man straight before him. <sup>6</sup>And Joshua the son of Nun called the priests and said to them, Take up the ark of the covenant, and let seven priests carry seven trumpets of rams' horns in front of the ark of the LORD. <sup>7</sup>And he said to the people, Pass on, and go around the city. And let him who is armed pass on in front of the ark of the LORD.

<sup>8</sup>And it happened when Joshua had spoken to the people, the seven priests bearing the seven trumpets of rams' horns passed on before the LORD and blew the trumpets. And the ark of the covenant of the LORD followed them. <sup>9</sup>And the armed men went before the priests who blew with the trumpets. And the gathering army came after the ark, as the priests were going on and blowing with the trumpets. <sup>10</sup>And Joshua had commanded the people saying, You shall not shout nor make any noise with your voice, neither shall any word come out of your mouth until the day I tell you to shout. Then you shall shout. <sup>11</sup>And the ark of the LORD went around the city, going around it once. And they came into the camp and stayed in the camp. <sup>12</sup>And Joshua rose early in the morning, and the priests took up the ark of the LORD. <sup>13</sup>And seven priests carrying seven trumpets of rams' horns before the ark of the LORD went on without stopping and blew with the trumpets. And the armed men went in front of them. But the rear guard came after the ark of the LORD as the priests were going on and blowing with the trumpets. <sup>14</sup>And the second day they went around the city once, and returned to the camp. So they did six days.

<sup>15</sup>And it happened on the seventh day they rose early, at the dawning of the day, and circled the city in the same way seven times. Only on that day did they go around the city seven times. <sup>16</sup>And it happened, at the seventh time, when the priest blew with the trumpets, Joshua said to the people, Shout! For the LORD has given you the city! <sup>17</sup>And the city shall be devoted to the LORD, it and all in it. Only Rahab the harlot shall live, she and all with her in the house, because she hid the messengers that we sent. <sup>18</sup>And you surely shall keep yourselves from the cursed thing, lest you make yourselves cursed when you take of the cursed thing, and make the camp of Israel a curse, and trouble it. <sup>19</sup>But all the silver and gold, and vessels of bronze and iron, are devoted to the LORD. They shall come into the treasury of the LORD. <sup>20</sup>And the people shouted when the priests blew with the trumpets. And it happened when the people heard the sound of the trumpet, and the people shouted with a great shout, the wall fell down flat, so that the people went up into the city, each man straight before him. And they took the city. <sup>21</sup>And they completely destroyed all in the city, both man and woman, young and old, and ox, and sheep, and ass, with the edge of the sword.

<sup>22</sup>And Joshua had said to the two men who had spied out the country, Go into the harlot's house, and bring the woman out from there, and all that she has, as you swore to her. <sup>23</sup>And the young men who were spies went in and brought Rahab out, and her father and her mother, and her brothers, and all that she had. And they brought out all her kindred and left them outside the camp of Israel. <sup>24</sup>And they burned the city with fire, and all that was in it. Only the silver and the gold, and the vessels of bronze and iron, they put into the treasury of the house of the LORD. <sup>25</sup>And Joshua saved Rahab the harlot alive, and her father's household, and all that she had. And she lives in Israel to this day, because she hid the messengers whom Joshua sent to spy out Jericho.

<sup>26</sup>And Joshua charged them at that time saying, Cursed before the LORD is the man who rises up and builds this city of Jericho. He shall lay the foundation of it in his first-born, and in his youngest son he shall set up the gates of it.

<sup>27</sup>And the LORD was with Joshua. And his fame was throughout all the country.

CHAPTER 7

<sup>1</sup>But the sons of Israel committed a sin in the cursed thing. For Achan, the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, took of the thing which was cursed. And the anger of the LORD was kindled against the sons of Israel. <sup>2</sup>And Joshua sent men from Jericho to Ai, which is beside Beth-aven, on the east side of Bethel. And he spoke to them, saying, Go up and look over the country. And the men went up and looked at Ai. <sup>3</sup>And they returned to Joshua and said to him, Let not all the people go up. But let about two or three thousand men go up and strike Ai. Do not make all the people labor there, for they are few. <sup>4</sup>And about three thousand men of the people went up there. And they fled before the men of Ai. <sup>5</sup>And the men of Ai struck about thirty-six men of them, for they chased them from before the gate to Shebarim, and struck them in the road going down. Therefore the hearts of the people melted and became as water. <sup>6</sup>And Joshua tore his clothes and fell to the earth on his face before the ark of the LORD until the eventide, he and the elders of Israel, and put dust on their heads. <sup>7</sup>And Joshua said, Alas, O Lord God, why have You at all brought this people over Jordan to deliver us into the hands of the Amorites, to destroy us? And, oh that we had been content and lived on the other side Jordan! <sup>8</sup>O, Lord, what shall I say when Israel turns their backs before their enemies? <sup>9</sup>For the Canaanites and all the inhabitants of the land shall hear, and shall surround us, and shall cut off our name from the earth. And what will You do for Your great name?

<sup>10</sup>And the LORD said to Joshua, Get up! Why do you lie on your face this way?

<sup>11</sup>Israel has sinned, and they have also broken My covenant which I commanded them. For they have even taken of the cursed things, and have also stolen and pretended falsely. And they have even put it among their own stuff. <sup>12</sup>And the sons of Israel could not stand before their enemies. They will turn their backs before their enemies, because they have become cursed. I will not be with you again, unless you destroy the one who is cursed from among you. <sup>13</sup>Up! Sanctify the people and say, Sanctify yourselves for tomorrow. For thus says the LORD God of Israel, A cursed thing is in the midst of you, O Israel. You cannot stand before your enemies until you take away the cursed thing from among you. <sup>14</sup>And in the morning, you shall be brought according to your tribes. And the tribe which the LORD takes shall come, according to its families. And the family which the LORD shall take shall come by households. And the household which the LORD shall take shall come man by man. <sup>15</sup>And it shall be, he who is taken with the cursed thing shall be burned with fire, he and all he has, because he has broken the covenant of the LORD, and because he has done wickedness in Israel. <sup>16</sup>And Joshua rose up early in the morning, and brought Israel by their tribes. And the tribe of Judah was taken. <sup>17</sup>And he brought the families of Judah. And he took the family of the Zarahites. And he took the family of the Zarahites man by man. And Zabdi was taken. <sup>18</sup>And he brought his household man by man. And Achan, the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerach, of the tribe of Judah, was taken. <sup>19</sup>And Joshua said to Achan, My son, I pray you, give glory to the LORD God of Israel, and make confession to Him. And tell me now what you have done. Do not hide it from me. <sup>20</sup>And Achan answered Joshua and said, Indeed I have sinned against the LORD God of Israel, and this is what I have done. <sup>21</sup>When I saw among the spoil a goodly robe of Shinar, and two hundred shekels of silver, and a wedge of gold of fifty shekels weight, I coveted them and took them. And behold, they are hidden in the earth in the middle of my tent, and the silver under it.

<sup>22</sup>And Joshua sent messengers, and they ran into the tent. And behold, it was hidden in his tent, and the silver under it. <sup>23</sup>And they took them out of the middle of the tent, and brought them to Joshua, and to all the sons of Israel. And they laid them out before the LORD. <sup>24</sup>And Joshua, and all Israel with him, took Achan the son of Zerach, and the silver, and the garment, and the wedge of gold, and his sons, and his daughters, and his oxen, and his asses, and his sheep, and his tent, and all that he had. And they brought them to the valley of Achor. <sup>25</sup>And Joshua said, Why have you troubled us? The LORD shall trouble you this day. And all Israel stoned him with stones, and burned them with fire, after they had stoned them with stones. <sup>26</sup>And they raised over him a great heap of stones to this day. And the LORD turned from the greatness of His anger. Therefore, the name of that valley is called, The valley of Achor, to this day.

CHAPTER 8

<sup>1</sup>And the LORD said to Joshua, Do not fear, nor be dismayed. Take all the people of war with you, and arise, go up to Ai. See, I have given into your hand the king of Ai, and his people, and his city, and his land. <sup>2</sup>And you shall do to Ai and its king as you did to Jericho and its king. Only its spoil, and its cattle, you shall take for a prize for yourselves. Lay an ambush for the city behind it. <sup>3</sup>So Joshua and all the people of war arose to go up against Ai. And Joshua chose out thirty thousand men of war and sent them away by night. <sup>4</sup>And he commanded them, saying, Behold, you shall lie in wait, opposite the city, behind the city. Do not go very far from the city, but all of you be ready. <sup>5</sup>And I, and all the people with me, shall go toward the city. And it shall be, when they come out against us, as at the first, we will flee before them, <sup>6</sup>(for they will come out after us,) until we have drawn them out of the city. For they will say, They flee before us, even as at the first. And we will flee before them. <sup>7</sup>Then you shall rise up from the ambush, and seize on the city; for the LORD your God will deliver it into your hand. <sup>8</sup>And it shall be, when you have taken the city, you shall set the city on fire, according to the command of the LORD you shall do. See, I have commanded you. <sup>9</sup>And Joshua sent them out. And they went to lie in ambush, and stayed between Bethel and Ai, on the west side of Ai. But Joshua stayed that night among the people.

<sup>10</sup>And Joshua rose up early in the morning and counted the people. And they went up, he and the elders of Israel, to Ai. <sup>11</sup>And all the people of war with him went up and drew near. And they came before the city, and pitched on the north side of Ai. And a valley was between them and Ai. <sup>12</sup>And he took about five thousand men, and set them to lie in ambush between Bethel and Ai, on the west side of the city. <sup>13</sup>And when they had set the people, all the army that was on the north of the city, and those of them who lay in wait on the west of the city, Joshua went that night into the middle of the valley. <sup>14</sup>And it happened, when the king of Ai saw, they hurried and rose up early. And the men of the city went out to do battle against Israel, he and all his people, at the time appointed, before the plain. But he did not know that there were some lying in ambush against him behind the city. <sup>15</sup>And Joshua and all Israel acted as if they were beaten before them, and fled by the way of the wilderness. <sup>16</sup>And all the people in Ai were called together to run after them. And they ran after Joshua, and were drawn away from the city. <sup>17</sup>And there was not a man left in Ai or Bethel, who did not go after Israel. And they left the city open, and ran after Israel.

<sup>18</sup>And the LORD said to Joshua, Stretch out the spear in your hand toward Ai, for I will give it into your hand. And Joshua stretched out the spear in his hand toward the city. <sup>19</sup>And the ambush arose quickly out of their place, and ran as soon as he had stretched out his hand. And they entered into the city, and took it, and hurried and set the city on fire. <sup>20</sup>And the men of Ai looked behind them and saw. And, behold, the smoke of the city went up into the sky, and they had no power to flee this way or that way. And the people who fled to the wilderness turned back on those who ran after them. <sup>21</sup>And when Joshua and all Israel saw that the ambush had taken the city, and that the smoke of the city went up, then they turned again and killed the men of Ai. <sup>22</sup>And the others came out of the city against them. So they were in the middle of Israel, some on this side, and some on that side. And they struck them so that they let none of them remain or escape. <sup>23</sup>And they took the king of Ai, and brought him to Joshua.

<sup>24</sup>And it happened, when Israel had made an end of killing all those who lived in Ai, in the field and in the wilderness where they chased them, and when they had all fallen on the edge of the sword until they were gone, all the Israelites returned to Ai and struck it with the edge of the sword. <sup>25</sup>And all who fell that day, both of men and women, were twelve thousand, all the men of Ai. <sup>26</sup>For Joshua did not draw his hand back, with which he stretched out the spear, until he had utterly destroyed all the people of Ai. <sup>27</sup>Only Israel took the cattle and the spoil of that city for a prize for themselves, according to the word of the LORD which He commanded Joshua. <sup>28</sup>And Joshua burned Ai, and made it a heap forever, a ruin to this day. <sup>29</sup>And he hanged the king of Ai on a tree until evening. And as soon as the sun was down, Joshua commanded that they should take his body down from the tree and throw it down at the entrance to the gate of the city, and raise on it a great heap of stones, to this day.

<sup>30</sup>Then Joshua built an altar to the LORD God of Israel in Mount Ebal, <sup>31</sup>as Moses the servant of the LORD commanded the sons of Israel, as it is written in the book of the law of Moses, an altar of whole stones over which no man has lifted any iron. And they offered on it burnt offerings to the LORD, and sacrificed peace offerings. <sup>32</sup>And he wrote there on the stones a copy of the law of Moses, which he wrote in the presence of the sons of Israel. <sup>33</sup>And all Israel, and their elders and officers, and their judges, stood on this side of the ark, and on that side, before the priests the Levites who bore the ark of the covenant of the LORD, as well the stranger as he that was born among them, half of them over against Mount Gerizim, and half of them over against Mount Ebal, as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded before that they should bless all the people of Israel.<sup>34</sup> And afterward he read all the words of the law, the blessings and cursings, according to all that is written in the book of the law.<sup>35</sup> There was not a word of all that Moses commanded, which Joshua did not read before all the congregation of Israel, with the women and the little ones, and the strangers that walked among them.

CHAPTER 9

<sup>1</sup>And it happened, when all the kings who were on this side Jordan, in the hills and in the valleys, and in all the coasts of the great sea over against Lebanon heard, the Hittite, and the Amorite, the Canaanite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite, <sup>2</sup>they all, with one mind, gathered themselves together to fight with Joshua and with Israel.

<sup>3</sup>And when those who lived in Gibeon heard what Joshua had done to Jericho and to Ai, <sup>4</sup>they worked slyly. For they came and acted as if they were ambassadors. And they took old sacks on their asses, and old and torn and bound up wineskins, <sup>5</sup>and old and patched sandals on their feet, and old clothes on them. And all the bread they had taken was dry and moldy. <sup>6</sup>And they went to Joshua to the camp at Gilgal, and said to him and to the men of Israel, We have come from a far country. Now therefore, make a treaty with us. <sup>7</sup>And the men of Israel said to the Hivites, Perhaps you are living among us, and how shall we make a treaty with you? <sup>8</sup>And they said to Joshua, We are your servants. And Joshua said to them, Who are you, and from where do you come? <sup>9</sup>And they said to him, Your servants have come from a very far country, because of the name of the LORD your God. For we have heard of His fame and all that He did in Egypt, <sup>10</sup>and all that He did to the two kings of the Amorites who were beyond Jordan, to Sihon king of Heshbon, and to Og king of Bashan, who was at Ashtaroth. <sup>11</sup>And our elders and all those who live in our country spoke to us saying, Take provisions with you for the journey, and go to meet them. Say to them, We are your servants. And now make a treaty with us. <sup>12</sup>We took this bread hot for our provision out of our houses on the day we came out to go to you. But now, see, it is dry, and it is moldy. <sup>13</sup>And these wineskins which we filled were new. And, see, they are torn. And these clothes and shoes of ours have become old because of the very long journey. <sup>14</sup>And they received the men because of their provisions, and did not ask at the mouth of the LORD. <sup>15</sup>And Joshua made peace with them, and made a treaty with them, to let them live. And the rulers of the congregation swore to them.

<sup>16</sup>And it happened at the end of three days after they had made a treaty with them, they heard that they were their neighbors and that they lived among them. <sup>17</sup>And the sons of Israel journeyed and came to their cities on the third day. Now their cities were Gibeon, and Chephirah, and Beeroth, and Kirjath-jearim. <sup>18</sup>And the sons of Israel did not strike them, because the rulers of the congregation had sworn to them by the LORD God of Israel. And all the congregation murmured against the rulers. <sup>19</sup>But all the rulers said to the congregation, We have sworn to them by the LORD God of Israel. Now, therefore, we may not touch them. <sup>20</sup>This we will do to them. We will even let them live, lest wrath be on us because of the oath which we swore to them. <sup>21</sup>And the rulers said to them, Let them live, but let them be woodcutters and drawers of water to all the congregation, as the rulers had promised them.

<sup>22</sup>And Joshua called for them, and he spoke to them, saying, Why have you fooled us saying, We are very far from you, when you dwell among us? <sup>23</sup>And now you are cursed, and there shall none of you be freed from being slaves and woodcutters and drawers of water for the house of my God. <sup>24</sup>And they answered Joshua and said, Because it was certainly told your servants how the LORD your God commanded His servant Moses to give you all the land, and to destroy all those who lived in the land from before you; therefore, we were very much afraid of our lives because of you, and have done this thing. <sup>25</sup>And now, behold, we are in your hand. As it seems good and right to you to do to us, do it. <sup>26</sup>And so he did to them, and delivered them out of the hand of the sons of Israel, so that they did not kill them. <sup>27</sup>And Joshua made them that day woodcutters and drawers of water for the congregation, and for the altar of the LORD, even to this day, in the place which He should choose.

CHAPTER 10

<sup>1</sup>And it happened, when Adoni-bezek king of Jerusalem had heard how Joshua had taken Ai and had utterly destroyed it (as he had done to Jericho and its king, so he had done to Ai and its king) and how the inhabitants of Gibeon had made peace with Israel and were among them, <sup>2</sup>they feared greatly, because Gibeon was a great city, like one of the royal cities, and because it was greater than Ai, and all of its men were mighty. <sup>3</sup>And Adoni-bezek king of Jerusalem sent to Hoham king of Hebron, and to Piram king of Jarmuth, and to Japhia king of Lachish, and to Debir king of Eglon, saying, <sup>4</sup>Come up to me, and help me, so that we may strike Gibeon. For it has made peace with Joshua and with the sons of Israel. <sup>5</sup>And the five kings of the Amorites, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, the king of Eglon, gathered themselves together. And they went up, they and all their armies, and camped before Gibeon, and made war against it. <sup>6</sup>And the men of Gibeon sent to Joshua to the camp to Gilgal, saying, Do not withhold your hand from your servants. Come up to us quickly, and save us, and help us. For all the kings of the Amorites who dwell in the mountains have gathered together against us. <sup>7</sup>So Joshua went up from Gilgal, he and all the people of war with him, and all the mighty men of war.

<sup>8</sup>And the LORD said to Joshua, Do not fear them, for I have delivered them into your hands. There shall not a man of them stand before you. <sup>9</sup>And Joshua came to them suddenly, coming up from Gilgal all night. <sup>10</sup>And the LORD troubled them before Israel, and killed them with a great slaughter at Gibeon, and chased them along the way that goes up to Beth-horon, and struck them to Azekah, and to Makedah. <sup>11</sup>And it happened, as they fled from before Israel, and were in the descent of Beth-horon, the LORD cast down great stones from the heavens on them to Azekah, and they died. The many who died from hailstones were more than the sons of Israel killed with the sword.

<sup>12</sup>Then Joshua spoke to the LORD in the day when the LORD delivered up the Amorites before the sons of Israel, and he said in the sight of Israel, Sun! Stand still on Gibeon! And, moon! Stay in the valley of Aijalon! <sup>13</sup>And the sun stood still, and the moon stayed, until the people had avenged themselves on their enemies. Is this not written in the book of Jasher? And the sun stood still in the midst of the heavens, and did not hasten to go down about a whole day. <sup>14</sup>And there was no day like that before it or after it, that the LORD listened to the voice of a man. For the LORD fought for Israel.

<sup>15</sup>And Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, to the camp to Gilgal. <sup>16</sup>But these five kings fled and hid themselves in a cave at Makkedah. <sup>17</sup>And it was told to Joshua, saying, The five kings have been found hidden in a cave at Makkedah. <sup>18</sup>And Joshua said, Roll great stones on the mouth of the cave, and set men by it in order to keep them. <sup>19</sup>And do not stay. Pursue your enemies and strike the ones who are behind. Do not allow them to enter into their cities. For the LORD your God has delivered them into your hand. <sup>20</sup>And it happened, when Joshua and the sons of Israel had made an end of killing them with a very great slaughter until they were gone, the rest of those who remained entered into fortified cities. <sup>21</sup>And all the people returned in peace to the camp to Joshua at Makkedah. None moved his tongue against any of the sons of Israel.

<sup>22</sup>And Joshua said, Open the mouth of the cave, and bring those five kings out of the cave to me. <sup>23</sup>And they did so, and brought those five kings out of the cave to him: the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, the king of Eglon. <sup>24</sup>And it happened, when they brought out those kings to Joshua, he called for all the men of Israel. And he said to the captains of the men of war who went with him, Come here and put your feet on the necks of these kings. And they came up and put their feet on their necks. <sup>25</sup>And Joshua said to them, Do not fear nor be dismayed. Be strong and of good courage. For so shall the LORD do to all your enemies against whom you fight. <sup>26</sup>And afterward Joshua struck them and killed them, and hanged them on five trees. And they were hanging on the trees until the evening. <sup>27</sup>And it happened at the time of the going down of the sun, Joshua commanded, and they took them down off the trees and threw them into the cave in which they had been hidden, and laid great stones in the cave's mouth, which remain until this very day. <sup>28</sup>And that day Joshua took Makkedah and struck it with the edge of the sword, and he utterly destroyed the king of it, them, and every soul in it. He let none remain. And he did to the king of Makkedah as he did to the king of Jericho.

<sup>29</sup>And Joshua passed from Makkedah, and all Israel with him, to Libnah, and fought against Libnah. <sup>30</sup>And the LORD delivered it also, and its king, into the hand of Israel. And he struck it with the edge of the sword, and every soul in it. He let none remain in it, but did to its king as he did to the king of Jericho. <sup>31</sup>And Joshua passed from Libnah, and all Israel with him, to Lachish, and camped against it, and fought against it. <sup>32</sup>And the LORD delivered Lachish into the hand of Israel, who took it on the second day, and struck it with the edge of the sword, and every soul in it, according to all that he had done to Libnah.

<sup>33</sup>Then Horam, king of Gezer, came up to help Lachish. And Joshua struck him and his people until he had left him none remaining. <sup>34</sup>And from Lachish Joshua passed to Eglon, and all Israel with him. And they camped against it and fought against it. <sup>35</sup>And they took it on that day, and struck it with the edge of the sword; and every soul in it he completely destroyed that day, according to all that he had done to Lachish. <sup>36</sup>And Joshua went on from Eglon, and all Israel with him, to Hebron. And they fought against it. <sup>37</sup>And they took it, and struck it with the edge of the sword, and its king, and all its cities, and every soul in it. He left none remaining, according to all that he had done to Eglon, but destroyed it, and all the souls that were in it.

<sup>38</sup>And Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, to Debir, and fought against it. <sup>39</sup>And he took it, and its king, and all its cities. And they struck them with the edge of the sword, and destroyed every soul in it. He left none remaining. As he had done to Hebron, so he did to Debir, and to its king, as he had done also to Libnah, and to her king. <sup>40</sup>And Joshua struck all the country of the hills, and of the south, and of the valley, and of the springs, and all their kings. He left none remaining, but destroyed all that breathed, as the LORD God of Israel commanded. <sup>41</sup>And Joshua struck them from Kadesh-barnea even to Gaza, and all the land of Goshen, even to Gibeon. <sup>42</sup>And Joshua took all these kings and their land at one time, because the LORD God of Israel fought for Israel. <sup>43</sup>And Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, to the camp to Gilgal.

CHAPTER 11

<sup>1</sup>And it happened when Jabin, king of Hazor, had heard, he sent to Jobab king of Madon, and to the king of Shimron, and to the king of Achshaph, <sup>2</sup>and to the kings on the north of the mountains, and of the plains south of Chinneroth, and in the valley, and in the borders of Dor on the west, <sup>3</sup>and to the Canaanite on the east and on the west, and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, and the Jebusite in the mountains, and to the Hivite under Hermon, in the land of Mizpeh. <sup>4</sup>And they went out, they and all their armies with them, many people, even as the sand on the seashore in multitude, with very many horses and chariots. <sup>5</sup>And when all these kings had met together, they came and pitched together at the waters of Merom, to fight against Israel.

<sup>6</sup>And the LORD said to Joshua, Do not be afraid because of them, for tomorrow about this time I will deliver them up; all killed before Israel. You shall hamstring their horses and burn their chariots with fire. <sup>7</sup>And Joshua came suddenly, and all the people of war with him, against them by the waters of Merom. And they fell on them. <sup>8</sup>And the LORD delivered them into the hand of Israel, who struck them and chased them to great Sidon, and to the salt pits, and to the valley of Mizpeh eastward. And they struck them until they left them none remaining. <sup>9</sup>And Joshua did to them as the LORD commanded him. He hamstringed their horses and burned their chariots with fire. <sup>10</sup>And Joshua at that time turned back and took Hazor, and struck its king with the sword. For Hazor formerly was the head of all those kingdoms. <sup>11</sup>And they struck every soul in it with the edge of the sword, destroying them. And he left none breathing. And he burned Hazor with fire. <sup>12</sup>And Joshua took all the cities of those kings, and all the kings of them. And he struck them with the edge of the sword. He destroyed them, as Moses the servant of the LORD commanded. <sup>13</sup>But Israel did not burn any of them, the cities that stood in their strength, except Hazor only. Joshua did burn it. <sup>14</sup>And all the spoil of these cities and the cattle the sons of Israel took for a prize to themselves. But they struck every man with the edge of the sword, until they had destroyed them. They left none breathing.

<sup>15</sup>As the LORD commanded Moses His servant, so did Moses command Joshua, and so Joshua did. He left nothing undone of all that the LORD commanded Moses. <sup>16</sup>So Joshua took all that land, the hills, and all the south country, and all the land of Goshen, and the valley, and the plain, and the mountains of Israel, and its lowlands, <sup>17</sup>even from mount Halak that goes up to Seir, even to Baal-gad in the valley of Lebanon under Mount Hermon. And he took all their kings, and struck them and killed them. <sup>18</sup>Joshua made war a long time with all those kings. <sup>19</sup>There was not a city that made peace with the sons of Israel, except the Hivites, the inhabitants of Gibeon. All others they took in battle. <sup>20</sup>For it was of the LORD to harden their hearts so that they should come against Israel in battle, so that they might be destroyed, so that they might have no favor, but that He might destroy them, as the LORD commanded Moses.

in Ashdod there remained some. <sup>23</sup>And Joshua took the whole land, according to all that the LORD commanded Moses. And Joshua gave it for an inheritance to Israel according to their divisions by their tribes. And the land rested from war.

CHAPTER 12

<sup>1</sup>And these are the kings of the land, whom the sons of Israel struck and whose land they possessed on the other side Jordan toward the rising of the sun, from the river Arnon to mount Hermon, and all the plain on the east: <sup>2</sup>Sihon king of the Amorites, who lived in Heshbon and ruled from Aroer, which is on the bank of the river Arnon, and from the middle of the river, and from half Gilead, even to the river Jabbok, the border of the sons of Ammon; <sup>3</sup>and from the plain to the sea of Chinneroth on the east, and to the sea of the plain, the Salt Sea on the east, the way to Beth-jeshimoth, and from the south, under Ashdoth-pisgah. <sup>4</sup>And they struck the coast of Og king of Bashan, of the rest of the giants, who lived at Ashtaroth and at Edrei, <sup>5</sup>and reigned in mount Hermon and in Salcah, and in all Bashan, to the border of the Geshurites and the Maachathites, and half Gilead, the border of Sihon king of Heshbon. <sup>6</sup>Moses the servant of the LORD and the sons of Israel struck them. And Moses the servant of the LORD gave it for a possession to the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh.

<sup>7</sup>And these are the kings of the land which Joshua and the sons of Israel struck on this side Jordan, on the west, from Baal-gad in the valley of Lebanon even to the mount Halak that goes up to Seir, which Joshua gave to the tribes of Israel for a possession according to their divisions; <sup>8</sup>in the mountains, and in the valleys, and in the plains, and in the springs, and in the wilderness, and in the south country – the Hittites, the Amorites, and the Canaanites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites: <sup>9</sup>The king of Jericho, one; the king of Ai, which is beside Bethel, one; <sup>10</sup>the king of Jerusalem, one; the king of Hebron, one; <sup>11</sup>the king of Jarmuth, one; the king of Lachish, one; <sup>12</sup>the king of Eglon, one; the king of Gezer, one; <sup>13</sup>the king of Debir, one; the king of Geder, one; <sup>14</sup>the king of Hormah, one; the king of Arad, one; <sup>15</sup>the king of Libnah, one; the king of Adullam, one; <sup>16</sup>the king of Makkedah, one; the king of Bethel, one; <sup>17</sup>the king of Tappuah, one; the king of Hephher, one; <sup>18</sup>the king of Aphek, one; the king of Lasharon, one; <sup>19</sup>the king of Madon, one; the king of Hazor, one; <sup>20</sup>the king of Shimron-meron, one; the king of Achshaph, one; <sup>21</sup>the king of Taanach, one; the king of Megiddo, one; <sup>22</sup>the king of Kedesh, one; the king of Jokneam of Carmel, one; <sup>23</sup>the king of Dor in the coast of Dor, one; the king of the nations of Gilgal, one; <sup>24</sup>the king of Tirzah, one. All the kings were thirty-one.

CHAPTER 13

<sup>1</sup>Now Joshua was old, going on in days. And the LORD said to him, You are old and far along in days, and there remains yet very much land to be possessed. <sup>2</sup>This is the land that still remains: all the borders of the Philistines, and all Geshuri, <sup>3</sup>from Sihor, which is before Egypt, even to the borders of Ekron northward, which is counted to the Canaanite, five lords of the Philistines of Gaza, of Ashdod, of Eshkalon, of Gath, and of Ekron; also the Avim. <sup>4</sup>From the south, all the land of the Canaanites, and Mearah, the Sidonians, to Aphek, to the borders of the Amorites. <sup>5</sup>And the land of the Gibletes, and all Lebanon, toward the sunrise, from Baal-gad under Mount Hermon to the border of Hamath, <sup>6</sup>all the inhabitants from the hills; I will expel them, from Lebanon to the Burning Waters, and all the Sidonians, from before the sons of Israel. Only you divide it by lot to the Israelites for an inheritance, as I have commanded you.

<sup>7</sup>And, therefore, divide this land for an inheritance to the nine tribes and the half tribe of Manasseh, <sup>8</sup>with whom the Reubenites and the Gadites have received their inheritance which Moses gave them beyond Jordan eastward, as Moses the servant of the LORD gave them, <sup>9</sup>from Aroer, that is upon the bank of the river Arnon, and the city in the midst of the river, and all the plain of Medeba, to Dibon; <sup>10</sup>and all the cities of Sihon king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon, to the border of the sons of Ammon; <sup>11</sup>and Gilead, and the border of the Geshurites and Maachathites, and all mount Hermon, and all Bashan to Salcah, <sup>12</sup>all the kingdom of Og in Bashan (who reigned in Ashtaroth and in Edrei; he remained of the rest of the giants) — and Moses struck them and expelled them. <sup>13</sup>But the sons of Israel did not put out the Geshurites and the Maachathites, but the Geshurites and the Maachathites dwell among the Israelites until this day. <sup>14</sup>Only he gave no inheritance to the tribe of Levi. The sacrifices of the LORD God of Israel made by fire are their inheritance, as He said to them.

<sup>15</sup>And Moses gave to the tribe of the sons of Reuben inheritance according to their families. <sup>16</sup>And their coast was from Aroer on the bank of the river Arnon, and the city in the midst of the river, and all the plain by Medeba. <sup>17</sup>He gave them Heshbon and all its cities in the plain, Dibon, and Bamoth-baal, and Beth-baal-meon, <sup>18</sup>and Jahazah, and Kedemoth, and Mephaath, <sup>19</sup>and Kirjath-aim, and Sibmah, and Zareth-shahar in the mountain of the valley, <sup>20</sup>and Beth-peor, and Ashdoth-pisgah, and Beth-jeshimoth, <sup>21</sup>and all the cities of the plain, and all the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon (whom Moses struck with the rulers of Midian, Evi, and Rekem, and Zur, and Hur, and Reba, rulers of Sihon, the inhabitants of the land).

<sup>22</sup>The sons of Israel also killed Balaam the son of Beor, the diviner, with the sword, among their slain. <sup>23</sup>And the border of the sons of Reuben was Jordan, and its border. This was the inheritance of the sons of Reuben according to their families, the cities and its villages.

<sup>24</sup>And Moses gave inheritance to the tribe of Gad, to the sons of Gad according to their families. <sup>25</sup>And their coast was Jazer, and all the cities of Gilead, and half the land of the sons of Ammon, to Aroer, before Rabbah, <sup>26</sup>and from Heshbon to Ramoth-mizpeh, and Betonim, and from Mahanaim to the border of Debir. <sup>27</sup>And in the valley he gave them Beth-aram, and Beth-nimrah, and Succoth, and Zaphon, the rest of the kingdom of Sihon king of Heshbon, Jordan and its border, even to the edge of the Sea of Chinnereth on the east side Jordan eastward. <sup>28</sup>This is the inheritance of the sons of Gad according to their families, the cities, and their villages. <sup>29</sup>And Moses gave inheritance to the half tribe of Manasseh, and this was of the half tribe of the sons of Manasseh by their families. <sup>30</sup>And their border was from Mahanaim, all Bashan, all the kingdom of Og king of Bashan, and all the towns of Jair, which are in Bashan, sixty cities. <sup>31</sup>And half Gilead, and Ashtaroth, and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan, were given to the sons of Machir the son of Manasseh, even to their half of the sons of Machir by their families. <sup>32</sup>These are they whom Moses caused to inherit in the plains of Moab, on the other side Jordan by Jericho, eastward. <sup>33</sup>But to the tribe of Levi Moses gave no inheritance. The LORD God of Israel was their inheritance, as He said to them.

CHAPTER 14

<sup>1</sup>And these are they of the sons of Israel who inherited in the land of Canaan, whom Eleazar the priest and Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the sons of Israel, gave out for inheritance to them. <sup>2</sup>Their inheritance was by lot, as the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses, for the nine tribes, and for the half tribe. <sup>3</sup>For Moses had given the inheritance of two tribes and a half tribe on the other side Jordan. But to the Levites he gave no inheritance among them. <sup>4</sup>For the sons of Joseph were two tribes, Manasseh and Ephraim. And they gave no part to the Levites in the land, except cities to live in, with their suburbs for their cattle and for their substance. <sup>5</sup>As the LORD commanded Moses, so the sons of Israel did, and they divided the land.

<sup>6</sup>Then the sons of Judah came to Joshua in Gilgal. And Caleb, the son of Jephunneh the Kenezite, said to him, You know the thing that the LORD said to Moses the man of God in Kadesh-barnea regarding you and me. <sup>7</sup>I was forty years old when Moses the servant of the LORD sent me from Kadesh-barnea to spy out the land. And I brought him word again as it was in my heart. <sup>8</sup>But my brothers that went up with me made the heart of the people melt; yet I fully followed the LORD my God. <sup>9</sup>And Moses swore on that day, saying, Surely the land on which your feet have trodden shall be your inheritance, and your sons' forever because you have fully followed the LORD my God. <sup>10</sup>And now, behold, the LORD has kept me alive these forty-five years as He said, even since the LORD spoke this word to Moses, while Israel wandered in the wilderness. And now, lo, I am eighty-five years old today. <sup>11</sup>As yet I am as strong today as I was in the day that Moses sent me. As my strength was then, even so is my strength now, for war, both to go out and to come in. <sup>12</sup>And now give me this mountain of which the LORD spoke on that day. For you heard in that day how the giants were there, and that the cities were great and fortified. If the LORD will be with me, then I will be able to drive them out, as the LORD said. <sup>13</sup>And Joshua blessed him, and gave Hebron to Caleb the son of Jephunneh for an inheritance. <sup>14</sup>And Hebron became the inheritance of Caleb, the son of Jephunneh the Kenezite, to this day, because he fully followed the LORD God of Israel. <sup>15</sup>And the name of Hebron before was Kirjath-arba; that one was a great man among the giants.

And the land had rest from war.

CHAPTER 15

<sup>1</sup>This then was the lot of the tribe of the sons of Judah by their families: to the border of Edom, the wilderness of Zin in the extreme south. <sup>2</sup>And their south border was from the end of the Salt Sea, from the bay that looks southward. <sup>3</sup>And it went out southward to the ascent of Acrabbim, and passed on to Zin, and went up on the south of Kadesh-barnea, and was passed to Hezron, and went up toward Adar, and turned toward Karkaa, <sup>4</sup>and passed on to Azmon, and went out by the torrent of Egypt. And the boundary line was at the Sea. This shall be your south border. <sup>5</sup>And the east border, the Salt Sea to the end of Jordan. <sup>6</sup>And their border in the north quarter was from the bay of the sea at the end of Jordan. And the border went up to Beth-hoglah, and passed along by the north of Beth-arabah. And the border went up to the stone of Bohan the son of Reuben; <sup>7</sup>And the border went up toward Debir from the valley of Achor, and so northward, looking toward Gilgal, before the going up to Adummim, which is on the south side of the river. And the border passed toward the waters of En-shemesh, and its boundary was at En-rogel. <sup>8</sup>And the border went up by the valley of the son of Hinnom to the south side of the Jebusite. It is Jerusalem. And the border went up to the top of the mountain that lies before the valley of Hinnom westward, at the end of the Valley of the Giants northward. <sup>9</sup>And the border was drawn from the top of the hill to the fountain of the water of Nephtoah, and went out to the cities of mount Ephron. And the border was drawn to Baalah; it is Kirjath-jearim. <sup>10</sup>And the border went around from Baalah westward to Mount Seir, and passed along to the side of mount Jearim; it is Chesalon, on the north side, and went down to Beth-shemesh, and passed on to Timnah. <sup>11</sup>And the border went to the side of Ekron northward, and the border was drawn to Shikkaron and passed along to Mount Baalah, and went out to Jabneel. And the boundary line was at the Sea. <sup>12</sup>And the west border was to the Great Sea, and the coast. This is the border of the sons of Judah all around according to their families.

<sup>13</sup>And he gave a part among the sons of Judah to Caleb the son of Jephunneh, according to the command of the LORD to Joshua, even the city of Arba the father of Anak; it is Hebron. <sup>14</sup>And Caleb drove out the three sons of Anak, Sheshai, and Ahiman, and Talmi, the sons of Anak, from there. <sup>15</sup>And he went up from there to those who lived in Debir. And the name of Debir before was Kirjath-sepher. <sup>16</sup>And Caleb said, He who smites Kirjath-sepher, and takes it, I will give my daughter Achsah to him for a wife. <sup>17</sup>And Othniel the son of Kenaz, the brother of Caleb, took it. And he gave him Achsah his daughter for a wife. <sup>18</sup>And it happened as she came, she moved him to ask a field from her father. And she dismounted from her ass. And Caleb said to her, What do you desire? <sup>19</sup>She answered, Give me a blessing, for you have given me a south land. Give me also springs of water. And he gave her the upper springs and the lower springs.

<sup>48</sup>And in the mountains, Shamir, and Jattir, and Socoh, <sup>49</sup>and Dannah, and Kirjath-sannah; Debir; <sup>50</sup>and Anab, and Estemoh, and Anim, <sup>51</sup>and Goshen, and Holon, and Giloh; eleven cities and their villages; <sup>52</sup>Arab, and Dumah, and Eshean, <sup>53</sup>and Janum, and Beth-tappuah, and Aphekah, <sup>54</sup>and Humtah, and Kirjath-arba; it is Hebron; and Zior; nine cities and their villages — <sup>55</sup>Maon, Carmel, and Ziph, and Juttah, <sup>56</sup>and Jezreel, and Jokdeam, and Zanoah, <sup>57</sup>Cain, Gibeah, and Timnah; ten cities and their villages; <sup>58</sup>Halhul, Beth-zur, and Gedor, <sup>59</sup>and Maarath, and Beth-anoth, and Eltekon; six cities and their villages — <sup>60</sup>Kirjath-baal; it is Kirjath-jearim; and Rabbah; two cities and their villages. <sup>61</sup>In the wilderness, Beth-arabah, Middin, and Secacah, <sup>62</sup>and Nibshan, and the city of Salt, and En-gedi; six cities and their villages.

<sup>63</sup>As for the Jebusites, the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the sons of Judah could not drive them out. But the Jebusites live with the sons of Judah at Jerusalem to this day.

CHAPTER 16

<sup>1</sup>And the lot of the sons of Joseph fell from Jordan by Jericho, to the water of Jericho on the east, to the wilderness that goes up from Jericho through Mount Bethel, <sup>2</sup>and goes out from Bethel to Luz, and passes along to the borders of the Archites, to Ataroth; <sup>3</sup>and it goes down westward to the border of the Japhletites, to the border of Beth-horon the lower, and to Gezer. And its boundary was at the sea. <sup>4</sup>And the sons of Joseph, Manasseh and Ephraim, took their inheritance. <sup>5</sup>And the border of the sons of Ephraim was by their families: the border of their inheritance on the east side was Ataroth-addar, to Beth-horon the upper. <sup>6</sup>And the border went out toward the sea to Michmethah on the north side. And the border went about eastward to Taanath-shiloh, and passed by it on the east to Janohah. <sup>7</sup>And it went down from Janohah to Ataroth, and to Naarath, and came again to Jericho, and went out at Jordan. <sup>8</sup>The border went out from Tappuah westward to the river Kanah. And the boundary was at the sea. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Ephraim by their families.

<sup>9</sup>And the separate cities for the sons of Ephraim were among the inheritance of the sons of Manasseh, all the cities with their villages. <sup>10</sup>And they did not drive out the Canaanites who lived in Gezer. But the Canaanites live among the Ephraimites until this day, and serve under tribute.

CHAPTER 17

<sup>1</sup>There was also a lot for the tribe of Manasseh (for he was the first-born of Joseph); for Machir, the first-born of Manasseh, the father of Gilead because he was a man of war, therefore he had Gilead and Bashan. <sup>2</sup>There was also a lot for the rest of the sons of Manasseh by their families: for the sons of Abiezer, and for the sons of Helek, and for the sons of Asriel, and for the sons of Shechem, and for the sons of Hephher, and for the sons of Shemida; these were the sons of Manasseh the son of Joseph, by their families. <sup>3</sup>But Zelophehad the son of Hephher, the sons of Gilead, the sons of Machir, the son of Manasseh, had no sons, but daughters. And these were the names of his daughters: Mahlah, and Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah. <sup>4</sup>And they came near before Eleazar the priest and before Joshua the son of Nun, and before the rulers, saying, The LORD commanded Moses to give us an inheritance among our brothers. And according to the command of the LORD he gave them an inheritance among the brothers of their father. <sup>5</sup>And there fell ten portions to Manasseh, besides the land of Gilead and Bashan, which were on the other side Jordan; <sup>6</sup>because the daughters of Manasseh had an inheritance among his sons. And the rest of Manasseh's sons had the land of Gilead.

<sup>7</sup>And the border of Manasseh was from Asher to Michmethah before Shechem. And the border went up to the right to the inhabitants of En-tappuah. <sup>8</sup>Manasseh had the land of Tappuah, but Tappuah on the border of Manasseh belonged to the sons of Ephraim. <sup>9</sup>And the border went down to the river Kanah, southward of the river. These cities of Ephraim are among the cities of Manasseh. And the border of Manasseh was on the north of the river, and the boundary was at the sea. <sup>10</sup>Southward it was Ephraim's, and northward it was Manasseh's. And the sea is its border. And they met together in Asher on the north, and in Issachar on the east. <sup>11</sup>And Manasseh had in Issachar and in Asher Beth-shean and its towns, and Ibleam and its towns, and those who lived in Dor and its towns, and those who lived in Endor and its towns, and those who lived in Taanach and its towns, and those who lived in Megiddo and its towns, even three regions. <sup>12</sup>Yet the sons of Manasseh could not drive out those who lived in those cities, but the Canaanites wanted to live in that land. <sup>13</sup>And it happened when the sons of Israel had become strong, they put the Canaanites to tribute. But they did not completely drive them out.

<sup>14</sup>The sons of Joseph spoke to Joshua saying, Why have you given me one lot and one portion to inherit, since I am a great people, because the LORD has blessed me until now? <sup>15</sup>And Joshua answered them, If you are a great people, and if mount Ephraim is too narrow for you, get up to the wood country and cut down more for yourself there in the land of the Perizzites and of the giants. <sup>16</sup>And the sons of Joseph said, The hill is not enough for us. And all the Canaanites who live in the land of the valley have chariots of iron, those who are of Beth-shean and its towns, and those who are of the valley of Jezreel. <sup>17</sup>And Joshua spoke to the house of Joseph, even to Ephraim and to Manasseh, saying, You are a great people and have great power. You shall not have one lot. <sup>18</sup>But the mountain shall be yours, for it is a forest, and you shall cut it down. And the outer limits of it shall be yours. For you shall drive out the Canaanites, even though they have iron chariots and though they are strong.

CHAPTER 18

<sup>1</sup>And all the congregation of the sons of Israel gathered at Shiloh, and set up the tabernacle of the congregation there. And the land was subdued before them.

<sup>2</sup>And there remained among the sons of Israel seven tribes which had not yet received their inheritance. <sup>3</sup>And Joshua said to the sons of Israel, How long will you be weak in going to possess the land which the LORD God of your fathers has given you? <sup>4</sup>Give from among you three men for each tribe. And I will send them, and they shall rise and go through the land and map it according to the inheritance of them. And they shall come to me. <sup>5</sup>And they shall divide it into seven parts. Judah shall stay within their border on the south, and the house of Joseph shall stay within their borders on the north. <sup>6</sup>And you shall map the land into seven parts and bring it here to me, so that I may cast lots here for you before the LORD our God. <sup>7</sup>But the Levites have no part among you. For the priesthood of the LORD is their inheritance. And Gad and Reuben and half the tribe of Manasseh have received their inheritance beyond Jordan on the east, which Moses the servant of the LORD gave them.

<sup>8</sup>And the men arose and went away. And Joshua charged those who went to map the land, saying, Go and walk through the land, and map it, and come again to me so that I may here cast lots for you before the LORD in Shiloh. <sup>9</sup>And the men went and passed through the land, and mapped it into seven parts in a book, and they came to Joshua, to the host at Shiloh. <sup>10</sup>And Joshua cast lots for them in Shiloh before the LORD. And Joshua divided the land to the sons of Israel there, according to their divisions.

Kirjath-jearim, a city of the sons of Judah. This was the west quarter. <sup>15</sup>And the south quarter was from the end of Kirjath-jearim; and the border went out westward, and went out to the spring of the waters of Nephtoah; <sup>16</sup>and the border went down to the end of the mountain that is before the valley of the sons of Hinnom, which is the Valley of the Giants northward, and went down the valley of Hinnom to the side of the Jebusite on the south, and went down to En-rogel. <sup>17</sup>And it was drawn from the north and went out to En-shemesh, and went out toward Gelliloth, which is across from the ascent of Adummim, and went down to the stone of Bohan the son of Reuben, <sup>18</sup>and passed along toward the side over against Arabah northward, and went down to Arabah. <sup>19</sup>And the border passed along to the side of Beth-hoglah northward. And the boundary was at the north tongue of the Salt Sea, at the south end of Jordan. This was the south border. <sup>20</sup>And Jordan was the border of it on the east side. This was the inheritance of the sons of Benjamin, according to its borders all around, according to their families.

<sup>21</sup>And the cities of the tribe of the sons of Benjamin according to their families were Jericho, and Beth-hoglah, and the valley of Keziz, <sup>22</sup>and Beth-arabah, and Zemaraim, and Bethel, <sup>23</sup>and Avvim, and Parah, and Ophrah, <sup>24</sup>and Cephbar-haam-monai, and Ophni, and Gaba; twelve cities and their villages; <sup>25</sup>Gibeon, and Ramah, and Beeroth, <sup>26</sup>and Mizpeh, and Cephirah, and Mozah, <sup>27</sup>and Rekem, and Irpeel, and Taralah, <sup>28</sup>and Zelah, Eleph, and Jebusi, which is Jerusalem; Gibeath, Kirjath; fourteen cities and their villages. This is the inheritance of the sons of Benjamin according to their families.

CHAPTER 19

<sup>1</sup>And the second lot came forth to Simeon, for the tribe of the sons of Simeon according to their families. And their inheritance was inside the inheritance of the sons of Judah. <sup>2</sup>And they had in their inheritance Beer-sheba, or Sheba, and Moladah, <sup>3</sup>and Hazar-shual, and Balah, and Azem, <sup>4</sup>and Eltolad, and Bethul, and Hormah, <sup>5</sup>and Ziklag, and Beth-marcaboth, and Hazar-susah, <sup>6</sup>and Beth-lebaoth, and Sharuhin; thirteen cities and their villages — <sup>7</sup>Ain, Remmon, and Ether, and Ashan; four cities and their villages, <sup>8</sup>and all the villages that were round about these cities to Baalath-beer, Ramah of the south. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Simeon according to their families. <sup>9</sup>The inheritance of the sons of Simeon was out of the portion of the sons of Judah. For the part of the sons of Judah was too much for them; therefore the sons of Simeon had their inheritance within their inheritance.

<sup>10</sup>And the third lot came up for the sons of Zebulun according to their families. And the border of their inheritance was to Sarid. <sup>11</sup>And their border went up toward the sea, and Maralah, and reached to Dabbasheth, and reached to the river that is before Jokneam, <sup>12</sup>and turned from Sarid eastward toward the sunrise to the border of The Flames of Tabor, and then goes out to Daberath, and goes up to Japhia, <sup>13</sup>and from there it passes on along on the east to Gittah-hepher, to Ittah-kazin, and goes out to Rimmon-methoar, to Neah. <sup>14</sup>And the border compasses it on the north side to Hannathon. And its edges were in the valley of Jiphthahel, <sup>15</sup>and Kattath, and Naballal, and Shimron, and Idalah, and Bethlehem; twelve cities with their villages. <sup>16</sup>This is the inheritance of the sons of Zebulun according to their families, these cities with their villages.

Beth-pazzez. <sup>22</sup>And the border reaches to Tabor, and Shahazimah, and Beth-shemesh. And the edges of their border were at Jordan; sixteen cities with their villages. <sup>23</sup>This is the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Issachar according to their families, the cities and their villages.

<sup>24</sup>And the fifth lot came out for the tribe of the sons of Asher according to their families. <sup>25</sup>And their border was Helkath, and Hali, and Beten, and Achshaph, <sup>26</sup>and Alammelech, and Amad, and Misheal; and reaches to Carmel westward, and to Shihor-libnath; <sup>27</sup>and turns toward the sunrise to Beth-dagon, and reaches to Zebulun, and to the valley of Jiphthahel toward the north of Beth-emek, and Neiel, and goes out to Cabul on the left hand, <sup>28</sup>and Hebron, and Rehob, and Hammon, and Kanah, to great Sidon; <sup>29</sup>and the border turns to Ramah, and to the strong city Tyre. And the border turns to Hosah, and the boundaries of it are at the sea from the line to Achzib, <sup>30</sup>and Ummah, and Aphek, and Rehob; twenty-two cities and their villages. <sup>31</sup>This is the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Asher according to their families, these cities with their villages.

<sup>32</sup>The sixth lot came out to the sons of Naphtali, for the sons of Naphtali according to their families. <sup>33</sup>And their border was from Heleph, from Allon to Zaananim, and Adami, Nekeb, and Jabneel, to Lakum. And its boundaries were at Jordan. <sup>34</sup>And the border turns west toward Aznoth-tabor, and goes out from there to Hukkuk, and reached to Zebulun on the south side, and reaches to Asher on the west side, and to Judah on Jordan toward the sunrise. <sup>35</sup>And the fortified cities are Ziddim, Zer, and Hammath, Rakkath, and Chinnereth, and <sup>36</sup>Adamah, and Ramah, and Hazor, <sup>37</sup>and Kedesh, and Edrei, and En-hazor, <sup>38</sup>and Iron, and Migdalel, Horem, and Beth-anath, and Beth-shemesh; nineteen cities and their villages. <sup>39</sup>This is the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Naphtali according to their families, the cities and their villages.

<sup>40</sup>The seventh lot came out for the tribe of the sons of Dan according to their families. <sup>41</sup>And the border of their inheritance was Zorah, and Eshtaol, and Ir-shemesh, <sup>42</sup>and Shaalabbin, and Ajalon, and Jethlah, <sup>43</sup>and Elon, and Timnathah, and Ekron, <sup>44</sup>and Eltekeh, and Gibbethon, and Baalath, <sup>45</sup>and Jehud, and Beneberak, and Gath-rimmon, <sup>46</sup>and Mejarcon, and Rakkon, with the border before Japho. <sup>47</sup>And the border of the sons of Dan came out too little for them. And the sons of Dan went up to fight against Leshem, and took it, and struck it with the edge of the sword, and possessed it, and lived in it. And they called Leshem Dan, after the name of their father Dan. <sup>48</sup>This is the inheritance of the tribe of Dan, by their families, these cities and their villages.

<sup>49</sup>When they had made an end of dividing the land for inheritance by their borders, the sons of Israel gave an inheritance to Joshua the son of Nun among them. <sup>50</sup>According to the command of Jehovah they gave him the city which he asked, Timnath-serah in mount Ephraim. And he built the city and lived in it.

<sup>51</sup>These are the inheritances which Eleazar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the sons of Israel divided for an inheritance by lot in Shiloh before Jehovah, at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. And they finished dividing the land.

CHAPTER 20

<sup>1</sup>And the LORD spoke to Joshua, saying, <sup>2</sup>Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, Appoint cities of refuge for you, as I have spoken to you by the hand of Moses; <sup>3</sup>that the manslayer who in innocence strikes anyone mortally, without knowing, may flee there. And they shall be your refuge from the avenger of blood. <sup>4</sup>And he shall flee to one of those cities, and shall stand at the entrance of the gate of the city, and shall declare his cause in the ears of the elders of that city. And they shall take him into the city to themselves, and he shall live with them.<sup>5</sup> And if the avenger of blood pursues him, then they shall not deliver the manslayer into his hand, for he has struck his neighbor without knowing, and did not hate him in past time.<sup>6</sup> And he shall live in that city until he stands before the congregation for judgment, until the death of the high priest who is in those days. Then the manslayer shall return and come to his city, and to his house, to the city from where he fled.

<sup>7</sup>And they set apart Kadesh in Galilee, in the hills of Naphtali; and Shechem in the hills of Ephraim; and Kirjath-arba; it is Hebron; in the hills of Judah.<sup>8</sup> And beyond the Jordan, at Jericho eastward, they gave Bezer in the wilderness, on the tableland out of the tribe of Reuben; and Ramoth in Gilead out of the tribe of Gad; and Golan in Bashan out of the tribe of Manasseh.<sup>9</sup> These were the appointed cities for all the sons of Israel, and for the alien who was living in their midst, that he who had killed anyone without knowing might flee there, and not die by the hand of the avenger of blood, until he stood before the congregation.

CHAPTER 21

<sup>1</sup>And the heads of the fathers of the Levites came near to Eleazar the priest, and to Joshua the son of Nun, and to the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the sons of Israel.<sup>2</sup> And they spoke to them in Shiloh, in the land of Canaan, saying, the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses to give cities to us to live in, and their suburbs for our cattle.<sup>3</sup> And the sons of Israel gave to the Levites out of their inheritance these cities and their suburbs, at the command of the LORD: <sup>4</sup>And the lot came out for the families of the Kohathites. And the sons of Aaron the priest, of the Levites, had by lot out of the tribe of Judah, and out of the tribe of Simeon, and out of the tribe of Benjamin, thirteen cities.<sup>5</sup> And the rest of the sons of Kohath had by lot out of the families of the tribe of Ephraim, and out of the tribe of Dan, and out of the half tribe of Manasseh, ten cities.<sup>6</sup> And the sons of Gershon had by lot out of the families of the tribe of Issachar, and out of the tribe of Asher, and out of the tribe of Naphtali, and out of the half tribe of Manasseh in Bashan, thirteen cities.<sup>7</sup> The sons of Merari by their families had out of the tribe of Reuben, and out of the tribe of Gad, and out of the tribe of Zebulun, twelve cities.<sup>8</sup> And the sons of Israel gave by lot to the Levites these cities with their suburbs, as the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses.

<sup>9</sup>And they gave out of the tribe of Judah, and out of the tribe of Simeon, these cities which are called by name,<sup>10</sup> which the sons of Aaron had, being of the families of the Kohathites, who were of the sons of Levi, for theirs was the first lot.<sup>11</sup> And they gave them the city of Arba; it is Hebron; in the hills of Judah, with its suburbs around it.<sup>12</sup> But the fields of the city of Arba, and its villages, they gave to Caleb the son of Jephunneh for his own.

<sup>13</sup>And to the sons of Aaron the priest they gave Hebron and its suburbs as a city of refuge for the manslayer, and Libnah and its suburbs,<sup>14</sup> and Jattir and its suburbs, and Eshtemoa and its suburbs,<sup>15</sup> and Helon and its suburbs, and Debir and its suburbs,<sup>16</sup> and Ain and its suburbs, and Juttah and its open lands, and Beth-shemesh and its suburbs.<sup>17</sup> And out of the tribe of Benjamin, Gibeon and its suburbs, Geba and its suburbs,<sup>18</sup> Anathoth and its suburbs, and Almon and its suburbs; four cities.<sup>19</sup> And all the cities of the sons of Aaron the priest were thirteen cities.

<sup>20</sup>And the families of the sons of Kohath, the Levites who were left of the sons of Kohath, even they had the cities of their lot out of Ephraim.<sup>21</sup> And they gave them Shechem and its suburbs in mount Ephraim as a city of refuge for the manslayer, and Gezer and its suburbs,<sup>2</sup> and Kibzaim and its suburbs, and Beth-horon and its suburbs; four cities.<sup>23</sup> And out of the tribe of Dan, Eltekeh and suburbs, Gibbethon and its suburbs,<sup>24</sup> Aijalon and its suburbs, Gath-rimmon and its suburbs; four cities.<sup>25</sup> And out of the half tribe of Manasseh, Tanach and its suburbs, and Gath-rimmon and its suburbs; two cities.<sup>26</sup> All the cities were ten, and their suburbs, for the families of the sons of Kohath that were left.

<sup>27</sup> And to the sons of Gershon, of the families of the Levites, from the half tribe of Manasseh, Golan in Bashan and its suburbs as a city of refuge for the manslayer, and Beesh-terah and its suburbs; two cities.<sup>28</sup> And from the tribe of Issachar, Kishon and its suburbs, and Dabareh and its suburbs,<sup>29</sup> Jarmuth and its suburbs, En-gannim and its suburbs; four cities.<sup>30</sup> And out of the tribe of Asher, Mishal and its suburbs,<sup>31</sup> Helkath and its suburbs, and Rehob and its suburbs.<sup>32</sup> And out of the tribe of Naphtali, Kedesh in Galilee and its suburbs as a city of refuge for the manslayer, and Hammoth-dor and its suburbs, and Kartan and its suburbs; three cities.<sup>33</sup> All the cities of the Gershonites according to their families were thirteen cities and their suburbs.

<sup>34</sup> And to the families of the sons of Merari, the rest of the Levites, out of the tribe of Zebulun, Jokneam and its suburbs, and Kartah and its suburbs,<sup>35</sup> Dimnah and its suburbs, Nahalal and its suburbs; four cities.<sup>36</sup> And out of the tribe of Reuben, Bezer and its suburbs, and Jahazah and its suburbs,<sup>37</sup> Kedemoth and its suburbs, and Mephaath and its suburbs; four cities.<sup>38</sup> And out of tribe of Gad, Ramoth in Gilead and its suburbs as a city of refuge for the manslayer, and Mahanaim and its suburbs,<sup>39</sup> Heshbon and its suburbs, Jazer and its suburbs; four cities in all.<sup>40</sup> All the cities for the sons of Merari which were left of the families of the Levites, were by their lot twelve cities.<sup>41</sup> All the cities of the Levites within the possession of the sons of Israel were forty-eight cities and their suburbs.<sup>42</sup> These cities were each one with their suburbs around them.

<sup>43</sup> And the LORD gave to Israel all the land which He swore to give to their fathers. And they possessed it, and lived in it.<sup>44</sup> And the LORD gave them rest round about, according to all that He swore to their fathers. And not a man of all their enemies stood before them. Jehovah delivered all their enemies into their hand.<sup>45</sup> Not any good thing which the LORD had spoken to the house of Israel failed. All came to pass.

CHAPTER 22

<sup>1</sup> Then Joshua called for the Reubenites and the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh,<sup>2</sup> and said to them, You have done all that which Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you. And you have listened to my voice, to all that I have commanded you.<sup>3</sup> You have not left your brothers these many days until today, and have kept the observance of the command of the LORD your God.<sup>4</sup> And now Jehovah your God has given rest to your brothers, as He spoke to them. And now turn and go to your tents, to the land of your possession, which Moses the servant of the LORD has given to you beyond the Jordan.<sup>5</sup> Only, diligently take heed to do the commands and the law which Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, to love the LORD your God, and to walk in all His ways, and to keep His commandments, and to cleave to Him, and to serve Him with all your heart and with all your soul.<sup>6</sup> And Joshua blessed them and sent them away. And they went to their tents.

<sup>7</sup> And to the half tribe of Manasseh, Moses had given possession in Bashan. And to its other half Joshua had given possession with their brothers beyond the Jordan westward. And also when Joshua had sent them away to their tents, then he blessed them.<sup>8</sup> And he spoke to them, saying, You are returning to your tents and your treasures, and with very much cattle, with silver, and with gold, and with bronze, and with iron, and with very much clothing. Divide the spoil of your enemies with your brothers. <sup>9</sup>And the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad and the half tribe of Manasseh returned. And they departed from the sons of Israel out of Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan, to go to the land of Gilead, to the land of their possession, of which they were possessed, according to the word of the LORD by the hand of Moses. <sup>10</sup>And when they came to the borders of Jordan that are in the land of Canaan, the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad and the half tribe of Manasseh built an altar of grand appearance there by Jordan. <sup>11</sup>And the sons of Israel heard, Behold, the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad and the half tribe of Manasseh have built an altar over against the land of Canaan, in the borders of Jordan, at the passage of the sons of Israel. <sup>12</sup>And when the sons of Israel heard, the whole congregation of the sons of Israel gathered themselves together at Shiloh to go to war against them. <sup>13</sup>And the sons of Israel sent Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest to the sons of Reuben, and to the sons of Gad, and to the half tribe of Manasseh, into the land of Gilead. <sup>14</sup>And with him went ten rulers, a ruler from each of the chief houses throughout all the tribes of Israel. And each one was a head of the house of their fathers among the thousands of Israel. <sup>15</sup>And they came to the sons of Reuben, and to the sons of Gad, and to the half tribe of Manasseh, to the land of Gilead, and they spoke with them saying, <sup>16</sup>So says all the congregation of the LORD: What trespass is this that you have committed against the God of Israel, to turn away today from following the LORD, in that you have built an altar for you so that you might rebel this day against the LORD? <sup>17</sup>Is the iniquity of Peor too little for us, from which we have not been made clean until today, although there was a plague in the congregation of the LORD; <sup>18</sup>but must you turn away today from following the LORD? You rebel today against the LORD, and tomorrow He will be angry with all the congregation of Israel. <sup>19</sup>But surely if the land of your possession is unclean, pass over to the land of the possession of the LORD in which the LORD's tabernacle dwells, and take possession among us. But do not rebel against the LORD, nor rebel against us in building an altar for yourselves besides the altar of the LORD our God. <sup>20</sup>Did not Achan the son of Zerah commit a sin in the cursed thing, and did not wrath fall on all the congregation of Israel? And that man did not perish alone in his iniquity.

<sup>21</sup>And the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad and the half tribe of Manasseh answered and said to the heads of the thousands of Israel, <sup>22</sup>The LORD God of gods, the LORD God of gods knows, and Israel shall know if it is in rebellion or in transgression against the LORD (do not save us today), <sup>23</sup>that if we have built us an altar to turn from following the LORD. Or if we have built an altar to offer on it burnt offering or food offering, or if to offer peace offerings on it, let the LORD Himself require it. <sup>24</sup>And if we have not done it for fear of this thing, saying, In time to come your sons might speak to our sons, saying, What have you to do with the LORD God of Israel? <sup>25</sup>For the LORD has made Jordan a border between us and you, sons of Reuben and sons of Gad. You have no part in the LORD. And your sons shall make our sons stop fearing the LORD. <sup>26</sup>And we said, Let us now prepare to build us an altar, not for burnt offering, nor for sacrifice, <sup>27</sup>but it shall be a witness between us and you, and our generations after us, so that we might do the service of the LORD before Him with our burnt offerings and with our sacrifices and with our peace offerings; so that your sons may not say to our sons in time to come, You have no part in the LORD. <sup>28</sup>And we said that when they should say so to us or to our generations in time to come, that we may say, Behold the pattern of the altar of the LORD which our fathers made, not for burnt offerings nor for sacrifices, but it is a witness between us and you. <sup>29</sup>God forbid that we should rebel against the LORD and turn this day from following the LORD, to build an altar for burnt offerings, for food offerings, or for sacrifices, besides the altar of the LORD our God that is before His tabernacle!

<sup>30</sup>And Phinehas the priest, and the rulers of the congregation and heads of the thousands of Israel who were with him, heard the words that the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad and the sons of Manasseh spoke, it pleased them. <sup>31</sup>And Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest said to the sons of Reuben and to the sons of Gad and to the half tribe of Manasseh, Today we see that the LORD is among us, because you have not committed this sin against the LORD. Now you have delivered the sons of Israel out of the hand of the LORD.

<sup>32</sup>And Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, and the rulers, returned from the sons of Reuben, and from the sons of Gad, out of the land of Gilead, to the land of Canaan, and to the sons of Israel, and brought them word again. <sup>33</sup>And the thing pleased the sons of Israel. And the sons of Israel blessed God and did not intend to go up against them in battle, to destroy the land in which the sons of Reuben and Gad lived. <sup>34</sup>And the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad proclaimed regarding the altar, that it was a witness between us that Jehovah is God.

CHAPTER 23

<sup>1</sup>And it happened, after the LORD had given rest to Israel from all their enemies round about, Joshua became old and far along in days. <sup>2</sup>And Joshua called for all Israel, for their elders and for their heads, and for their judges, and for their officers, and said to them, I am old and far along in days. <sup>3</sup>And you have seen all that the LORD your God has done to all these nations because of you. For the LORD your God is He who has fought for you. <sup>4</sup>Behold, I have divided to you by lot these nations that are left to be an inheritance for your tribes, from Jordan, with all the nations that I have cut off, even to the great sea westward. <sup>5</sup>And the LORD your God shall put them out from before you, and drive them out of your sight. And you shall possess their land, as the LORD your God has promised to you. <sup>6</sup>And be very courageous to keep and to do all that is written in the book of the law of Moses, so that you do not turn aside from it to the right hand or to the left; <sup>7</sup>so that you do not come among these nations, these that remain among you; neither make mention of the name of their gods, nor cause to swear by them, neither serve them, nor bow yourselves to them. <sup>8</sup>But cleave to the LORD your God, as you have done to this day. <sup>9</sup>For the LORD has driven out from before you great and strong nations. But as for you, no man has been able to stand before you to this day. <sup>10</sup>One man of you shall chase a thousand. For the LORD your God is He who fights for you, as He has promised you. <sup>11</sup>And take good heed to yourselves that you love the LORD your God. <sup>12</sup>Otherwise, if you go back in any way, and hold to those left of these nations, these that remain among you, and shall marry them and go in to them and they to you, <sup>13</sup>know for a certainty that the LORD your God will no more drive out these nations from before you. But they shall be snares and traps to you, and whips in your sides, and thorns in your eyes, until you perish from off this good land which the LORD your God has given you.

<sup>14</sup>And behold, today I am going the way of all the earth. And you know in all your hearts and in all your souls that not one thing has failed of all the good things which the LORD your God spoke concerning you. All have come to pass to you. Not one thing of it has failed. <sup>15</sup>And it shall be, as every good thing which the LORD your God promised you have come on you, so shall the LORD bring on you all evil things until He has destroyed you from off this good land which the LORD your God has given you.<sup>16</sup>When you transgress the covenant of the LORD your God, which He commanded you, and have gone and served other gods, and bowed yourselves to them, then shall the anger of the LORD be kindled against you, and you shall perish quickly from off the good land which He has given to you.

CHAPTER 24

<sup>1</sup>And Joshua gathered all the tribes of Israel to Shechem, and called for the elders of Israel, and for their heads, and for their judges, and for their officers. And they presented themselves before God. <sup>2</sup>And Joshua said to all the people, So says the LORD God of Israel, Your fathers Beyond the River in times past, Terah the father of Abraham, and the father of Nahor, and they served other gods. <sup>3</sup>And I took your father Abraham from Beyond the River, and led him throughout all the land of Canaan, and multiplied his seed and gave him Isaac. <sup>4</sup>And I gave to Isaac Jacob and Esau. And I gave Esau Mount Seir for his own, but Jacob and his sons went down to Egypt. <sup>5</sup>I sent Moses also, and Aaron, and I plagued Egypt, according to that which I did among them. And afterward I brought you out. <sup>6</sup>And I brought your fathers out of Egypt. And you came to the sea, and the Egyptians followed after your fathers with chariots and horsemen to the Red Sea. <sup>7</sup>And when they cried to the LORD, He put darkness between you and the Egyptians, and brought the sea on them and covered them. And your eyes have seen what I have done in Egypt. And you lived in the wilderness a long time. <sup>8</sup>And I brought you into the land of the Amorites who lived on the other side Jordan. And they fought with you, and I gave them into your hand so that you might possess their land. And I destroyed them from before you. <sup>9</sup>Then Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, arose and warred against Israel, and sent and called Balaam the son of Beor to curse you. <sup>10</sup>But I would not listen to Balaam. And he still blessed you. And I delivered you out of his hand. <sup>11</sup>And you went over Jordan and came to Jericho. And the men of Jericho fought against you, the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Girgashites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites. And I delivered them into your hand. <sup>12</sup>And I sent the hornet before you, which drove them out from before you, the two kings of the Amorites, not with your sword, nor with your bow. <sup>13</sup>And I have given you a land for which you did not labor, and cities which you did not build, and you live in them. And you now eat of the vineyards and oliveyards which you did not plant.

<sup>14</sup>And know the LORD, and serve Him in sincerity and truth. And put away the gods which your fathers served on the other side of the flood, and in Egypt, and serve the LORD. <sup>15</sup>And if it seems evil to you to serve the LORD, choose this day whom you will serve, whether the gods which your fathers served that were Beyond the River, or the gods of the Amorites in whose land you live. But as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD. <sup>16</sup>And the people answered and said, God forbid that we should forsake the LORD to serve other gods. <sup>17</sup>For the LORD our God is He who brought us and our fathers up out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage. And He did those great wonders in our sight, and kept us in all our way in which we went and among all the people through whom we passed. <sup>18</sup>And the LORD drove out from before us all the people, even the Amorites who lived in the land. And we will also serve the LORD, for He is our God.

<sup>19</sup>And Joshua said to the people, You cannot serve the LORD, for He is a holy God. He is a jealous God. He will not forgive your transgressions nor your sins.

<sup>20</sup>If you forsake the LORD and serve strange gods, then He will turn and do you harm, and destroy you after He has done you good. <sup>21</sup>And the people said to Joshua, No, but we will serve the LORD. <sup>22</sup>And Joshua said to the people, You are witnesses against yourselves that you have chosen the LORD, to serve Him. And they said, We are witnesses. <sup>23</sup>And now put away the strange gods among you, and incline your heart to the LORD God of Israel. <sup>24</sup>And the people said to Joshua, We will serve the LORD our God, and His voice we will obey. <sup>25</sup>And Joshua made a covenant with the people that day, and set them a statute and an ordinance in Shechem. <sup>26</sup>And Joshua wrote these words in the book of the law of God, and took a great stone and set it up there under an oak by the sanctuary of the LORD. <sup>27</sup>And Joshua said to all the people, Behold, this stone shall be a witness to us, for it has heard all the words of the LORD which He spoke to us. It shall therefore be a witness to you, lest you deny your God. <sup>28</sup>And Joshua sent away the people, each man to his inheritance.

<sup>29</sup>And it happened after these things, Joshua, the son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died, being a hundred and ten years old. <sup>30</sup>And they buried him in the border of his inheritance in Timnath-serah in mount Ephraim, on the north side of the hill of Gaash. <sup>31</sup>And Israel served the LORD all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders who outlived Joshua, and who had known all the works of the LORD that He had done for Israel.

<sup>32</sup>And the bones of Joseph, which the sons of Israel brought up out of Egypt, they buried in Shechem, in a piece of ground which Jacob bought from the sons of Hamor the father of Shechem for a hundred pieces of silver. And it became the inheritance of the sons of Joseph. <sup>33</sup>And Eleazar the son of Aaron died. And they buried him in a hill belonging to Phinehas his son, which was given him in mount Ephraim.

THE BOOK OF JUDGES

CHAPTER 1

<sup>1</sup>And it happened after the death of Joshua, the children of Israel asked the LORD, saying, Who shall go up first for us against the Canaanites to fight against them? <sup>2</sup>And the LORD said, Judah shall go up. Behold, I have delivered the land into his hand. <sup>3</sup>And Judah said to Simeon his brother, Come up with me into my lot so that we may fight against the Canaanites. And I likewise will go with you into your lot. So Simeon went with him. <sup>4</sup>And Judah went up. And the LORD delivered the Canaanites and the Perizzites into their hand. And they killed ten thousand men of them in Bezek. <sup>5</sup>And they found Adoni-bezek in Bezek. And, they fought against him, and they killed the Canaanites and the Perizzites. <sup>6</sup>And Adoni-bezek fled. And they ran after him and caught him, and cut off his thumbs and his big toes. <sup>7</sup>And Adoni-bezek said, Seventy kings with their thumbs and big toes cut off have gathered under my table. As I have done, so God has requited me. And they brought him to Jerusalem, and he died there.

<sup>8</sup>And the sons of Judah had fought against Jerusalem, and had taken it, and had struck it with the edge of the sword, and had set the city on fire. <sup>9</sup>And afterward the sons of Judah went down to fight against the Canaanites who lived in the mountain, and in the south, and in the valley. <sup>10</sup>And Judah went against the Canaanites who lived in Hebron; (and the name of Hebron before was Kirjath-arba). And they killed Sheshai, and Ahiman, and Talmai. <sup>11</sup>And from there he went against those who lived in Debir. And the name of Debir before was Kirjath-sepher. <sup>12</sup>And Caleb said, He, who strikes Kirjath-sepher and takes it, I will give Achsah my daughter to him for a wife. <sup>13</sup>And Othniel, the son of Caleb's younger brother Kenaz, took it. And he gave him Achsah his daughter for a wife. <sup>14</sup>And it happened when she came, she moved him to ask for a field from her father. And she dismounted from her ass. And Caleb said to her, What do you desire? <sup>15</sup>And she said to him, Give me a blessing. For you have given me a south land. Give me also springs of water. And Caleb gave her the upper springs and the lower springs.

<sup>16</sup>And the sons of the Kenite, Moses' father-in-law, went up out of the city of palm trees with the sons of Judah into the wilderness of Judah, which is in the south of Arad. And they went and lived among the people. <sup>17</sup>And Judah went with Simeon his brother, and they killed the Canaanites who lived in Zephath and destroyed it. And the name of the city was called Hormah. <sup>18</sup>Also Judah took Gaza with its border, and Askelon with its border, and Ekron with its border. <sup>19</sup>And the LORD was with Judah. And he drove out those who lived in the mountain. But he could not drive out those who lived in the valley, because they had chariots of iron. <sup>20</sup>And they gave Hebron to Caleb, as Moses said. And he drove out the three sons of Anak from there. <sup>21</sup>And the sons of Benjamin did not drive out the Jebusites who lived in Jerusalem. But the Jebusites live with the sons of Benjamin in Jerusalem to this day.

<sup>22</sup>And the house of Joseph also went up against Bethel, and the LORD was with them. <sup>23</sup>And the house of Joseph sent to spy out Bethel. And the name of the city before was Luz. <sup>24</sup>And the spies saw a man come forth out of the city, and they said to him, Please show us the gate into the city, and we will show you mercy. <sup>25</sup>And when he showed them the gate into the city, they struck the city with the edge of the sword. But they let the man and all his family go. <sup>26</sup>And the man went into the land of the Hittites and built a city, and called the name of it Luz, which is the name of it to this day.

<sup>27</sup>And Manasseh had not driven out those who lived in Beth-shean and its towns, nor Taanach and its towns, nor those who lived in Dor and its towns, nor those who lived in Ibleam and its towns, nor those who lived in Megiddo and its towns. But the Canaanites desired to stay in that land. <sup>28</sup>And it happened, when Israel was strong, that they put the Canaanites to tribute, and did not drive them out. <sup>29</sup>And Ephraim did not drive out the Canaanites who lived in Gezer, but the Canaanites lived in Gezer among them.

<sup>30</sup>And Zebulun did not drive out those who lived in Kitron, nor those who lived in Nahalol. But the Canaanites lived among them and became tributaries. <sup>31</sup>And Asher did not drive out those who lived in Accho, and the inhabitants of Sidon, and Achlab, and Achzib, and Helbah, and Aphik, and Rehob. <sup>32</sup>But the Asherites lived among the Canaanites, those who lived in the land, for they did not drive them out.

<sup>33</sup>And Naphtali did not drive out those who lived in Beth-shemesh, and the inhabitants of Beth-anath, and they lived among the Canaanites, those who lived in the land. But those who lived in Beth-shemesh and Beth-anath became tributaries.

<sup>34</sup>And the Amorites forced the sons of Dan into the mountain. For they would not allow them to come down to the valley. <sup>35</sup>But the Amorites desired to stay in Mount Heres in Aijalon, and in Shaalbim. Yet the hand of the house of Joseph won out so that they became tributaries. <sup>36</sup>And the border of the Amorites was from the going up to Akkrabbim, from the rock and upward.

CHAPTER 2

<sup>1</sup>And an Angel of the LORD came up from Gilgal to Bochim, and said, I made you go up out of Egypt, and have brought you into the land which I swore to your fathers. And I said, I will never break My covenant with you. <sup>2</sup>And you shall make no treaty with those who live in this land. You shall throw down their altars. But you have not obeyed My voice. Why have you done this? <sup>3</sup>And I also said, I will not drive them out from before you, but they shall be thorns in your sides, and their gods shall be a snare to you. <sup>4</sup>And it happened when the Angel of the LORD spoke these words to all the sons of Israel, the people lifted up their voices and wept. <sup>5</sup>And they called the name of that place Bochim. And they sacrificed there to the LORD.

<sup>6</sup>And when Joshua had let the people go, the sons of Israel left, each man to his inheritance, to possess the land. <sup>7</sup>And the people served the LORD all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders that outlived Joshua, who had seen all the great works of the LORD that He did for Israel. <sup>8</sup>And Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died, being a hundred and ten years old. <sup>9</sup>And they buried him in the border of his inheritance in Timnath-heres, in mount Ephraim, on the north side of the hill Gaash. <sup>10</sup>And also all that generation were gathered to their fathers. And there arose another generation after them who did not know the LORD, nor even the works which He had done for Israel.

<sup>11</sup>And the sons of Israel did evil in the sight of the LORD, and served Baals. <sup>12</sup>And they forsook the LORD God of their fathers, who brought them out of the land of Egypt. And they followed other gods of the gods of the people who were around them, and bowed themselves to them, and provoked the LORD to anger. <sup>13</sup>And they forsook the LORD and served Baal and Ashtaroth.

<sup>14</sup>And the anger of the LORD was hot against Israel, and He delivered them into the hands of spoilers who spoiled them. And He sold them into the hands of their enemies round about, so that they could not any longer stand before their enemies. <sup>15</sup>Wherever they went out, the hand of the LORD was against them for evil, as the LORD had said, and as the LORD had sworn to them. And they were greatly distressed. <sup>16</sup>But the LORD raised up judges who delivered them out of the hand of those who spoiled them. <sup>17</sup>And yet they would not listen to their judges, but they went lusting after other gods, and bowed themselves to them. They turned quickly out of the way which their fathers walked in, for they had obeyed the commandments of the LORD; these did not do so. <sup>18</sup>And when the LORD raised judges up for them, then the LORD was with the judge, and delivered them out of the hand of their enemies all the days of the judge. For it grieved the LORD because of their groanings caused by the ones who oppressed them and troubled them. <sup>19</sup>And it happened when the judge was dead, they returned and made themselves more rotten than their fathers in following other gods to serve them, and to bow down to them. They did not cease from their own doings nor from their stubborn way. <sup>20</sup>And the anger of the LORD glowed against Israel. And He said, Because this nation has transgressed My covenant which I commanded their fathers, and has not listened to My voice, <sup>21</sup>I also from now on will not drive out any from before them, of the nations that Joshua left when he died; <sup>22</sup>so that by them I may test Israel, whether they are keeping the way of the LORD, to go in it, as their fathers kept it, or not. <sup>23</sup>And the LORD left those nations, without driving them out quickly. And He did not deliver them into the hand of Joshua.

CHAPTER 3

<sup>12</sup>And the sons of Israel did evil again in the sight of the LORD. And the LORD made Eglon the king of Moab strong against Israel because they had done evil in the sight of the LORD. <sup>13</sup>And he gathered to him the sons of Ammon and Amalek. And he went forth and struck Israel, and took the city of palm trees. <sup>14</sup>So the sons of Israel served Eglon the king of Moab eighteen years. <sup>15</sup>But when the sons of Israel cried to the LORD, the LORD raised them up a deliverer, Ehud the son of Gera, a Benjamite, a left-handed man. And the sons of Israel sent a present to Eglon the king of Moab by him. <sup>16</sup>But Ehud made himself a dagger which had two edges, a cubit long. And he tied it under his clothing upon his right thigh. <sup>17</sup>And he brought the present to Eglon king of Moab. And Eglon was a very fat man. <sup>18</sup>And when he had finished offering the present, he sent away the people who carried the present. <sup>19</sup>But he himself turned again from the graven images that were by Gilgal, and said, I have a secret message for you, O, king. And he said, Keep silence. And all that stood by him went out from him. <sup>20</sup>And Ehud came to him. And he was sitting in the cool roof room which he had for himself alone. And Ehud said, I have a message from God to you. And he rose out of his seat. <sup>21</sup>And Ehud put forth his left hand and took the dagger from his right thigh, and thrust it into his belly. <sup>22</sup>And the haft also went in after the blade. And the fat closed upon the blade, so that he could not draw the dagger out of his belly. And the dung came out. <sup>23</sup>Then Ehud went forth through the porch, and shut the doors of the room upon him, and locked them. <sup>24</sup>When he had gone out, his servants came. And when they saw that, behold, the doors of the parlor were locked, they said, Surely he eases himself in his cool roof room. <sup>25</sup>And they stayed until they were ashamed. And, behold, he did not open the doors of the room. And they took a key and opened them. And behold, their lord had fallen down dead on the earth.

<sup>26</sup>And Ehud escaped while they waited, and passed beyond the graven images, and escaped to Seirath. <sup>27</sup>And when he had come, he blew a trumpet in the mountain of Ephraim, and the sons of Israel went down with him from the mountain, and he before them. <sup>28</sup>And he said to them, Follow after me. For the LORD has delivered your enemies the Moabites into your hand. And they went down after him and took the fords of Jordan toward Moab, and did not allow a man to pass over. <sup>29</sup>And they killed about ten thousand of the men of Moab at that time, all lusty, and all men of might. And there did not escape a man. <sup>30</sup>So Moab was subdued under the hand of Israel that day. And the land had rest eighty years.

<sup>31</sup>And after him was Shamgar the son of Anath, who killed six hundred men of the Philistines with an ox goad. And he also delivered Israel.

CHAPTER 4

<sup>1</sup>And the sons of Israel again did evil in the sight of the LORD when Ehud was dead. <sup>2</sup>And the LORD sold them into the hand of Jabin king of Canaan, who ruled in Hazor. The captain of his host was Sisera who lived in Harosheth of the nations. <sup>3</sup>And the sons of Israel cried to the LORD, for he had nine hundred chariots of iron. And he mightily oppressed the sons of Israel twenty years.

<sup>4</sup>And Deborah, a prophetess, the wife of Lapidoth, judged Israel at that time. <sup>5</sup>And she lived under the palm tree of Deborah between Ramah and Bethel in mount Ephraim. And the sons of Israel came up to her for judgment. <sup>6</sup>And she sent and called for Barak the son of Abinoam out of Kedesh in Naphtali, and said to him, Has not the LORD God of Israel commanded, saying, Go and draw toward mount Tabor, and take with you ten thousand men of the sons of Naphtali and of the sons of Zebulun? <sup>7</sup>And I will draw Sisera to you, the captain of Jabin's army, at the river Kishon, together with his chariots and his multitude. And I will deliver him into your hands. <sup>8</sup>And Barak said to her, If you will go with me, then I will go. But if you will not go with me, I will not go. <sup>9</sup>And she said, I will surely go with you. But the journey that you take shall not be for your honor, for the LORD shall sell Sisera into the hand of a woman. And Deborah arose, and went with Barak to Kedesh.

<sup>10</sup>And Barak called Zebulun and Naphtali to Kedesh. And he went up with ten thousand men at his feet. And Deborah went up with him. <sup>11</sup>And Heber the Kenite, of the sons of Hobab the father-in-law of Moses, had separated himself from the Kenites and pitched his tent toward the plain of Zaanaim, near Kedesh. <sup>12</sup>And they told Sisera that Barak the son of Abinoam had gone up to mount Tabor. <sup>13</sup>And Sisera gathered together all his chariots, nine hundred chariots of iron, and all the people with him, from Harosheth of the nations to the river of Kishon. <sup>14</sup>And Deborah said to Barak, Up! For this is the day in which the LORD has delivered Sisera into your hand. Has not the LORD gone out before you? So Barak went down from mount Tabor, and ten thousand men after him. <sup>15</sup>And the LORD struck Sisera, and all the chariots, and all the army, with the edge of the sword in front of Barak, so that Sisera got down from the chariot and fled on his feet. <sup>16</sup>But Barak pursued after the chariots and after the army, to Harosheth of the nations. And all the army of Sisera fell by the edge of the sword. There was not a man left. <sup>17</sup>And Sisera fled on his feet to the tent of Jael, the wife of Heber the Kenite. For there was peace between Jabin the king of Hazor and the house of Heber the Kenite. <sup>18</sup>And Jael went out to meet Sisera, and said to him, Turn in my lord, turn in to me. Do not fear. When he had turned in to her into the tent, she covered him with a rug. <sup>19</sup>And he said to her, Please give me a little water to drink, for I am thirsty. And she opened a bottle of milk and gave him a drink, and covered him. <sup>20</sup>Again he said to her, Stand in the door of the tent, and when any man comes asking of you, saying, Is there any man here? You shall say, No. <sup>21</sup>Then Jael, Heber's wife, took a peg of the tent and put a hammer in her hand, and went softly to him, and struck the peg into his temples, and beat it into the ground. For he was fast asleep and weary. So he died.

<sup>22</sup>And behold, as Barak followed Sisera, Jael came out to meet him and said to him, Come and I will show you the man whom you seek. And when he came into her tent, behold, Sisera lay dead, and the peg was in his temples. <sup>23</sup>And on that day God subdued Jabin the king of Canaan before the sons of Israel. <sup>24</sup>And the hand of the sons of Israel prospered, and prevailed against Jabin the king of Canaan, until they had destroyed Jabin king of Canaan.

CHAPTER 5

<sup>1</sup>Then Deborah and Barak the son of Abinoam sang on that day, saying, <sup>2</sup>Praise the LORD for the avenging of Israel, when the people willingly offered themselves. <sup>3</sup>Hear, O, kings. Give ear, O, princes. I, even I, will sing to the LORD I will sing to the LORD God of Israel. <sup>4</sup>LORD, when You went out of Seir, when You marched out of the field of Edom, the earth trembled and the heavens dropped, the clouds also dropped water. <sup>5</sup>The mountains melted from before the LORD, even that Sinai from before the LORD God of Israel. <sup>6</sup>In the days of Shamgar the son of Anath, in the days of Jael, the highways were empty, and the travelers walked through crooked ways. <sup>7</sup>The leaders ceased in Israel until I, Deborah, arose; until I arose, a mother in Israel. <sup>8</sup>They chose new gods; then war was in the gates. Was there a shield or spear seen among forty thousand in Israel? <sup>9</sup>My heart is toward the lawgivers of Israel who offered themselves willingly among the people. Bless the LORD. <sup>10</sup>Speak, you who ride on asses, you who sit in judgment and walk by the way. <sup>11</sup>Louder than the voice of the dividers between the watering places, there shall they tell again the righteous acts of the LORD, the righteous acts of His leaders in Israel. Then shall the people of the LORD go down to the gates.

<sup>12</sup>Awake, awake, Deborah. Awake, awake, sing a song Arise, Barak, lead your captivity captive, son of Abinoam. <sup>13</sup>Then He made him who remains to have dominion over the nobles among the people. The LORD made me have dominion over the mighty. <sup>14</sup>Out of Ephraim there was a root of them against Amalek; after you, Benjamin, with your peoples. Out of Machir came down commanders, and out of Zebulun came they who handle the pen of the writer. <sup>15</sup>And the rulers of Issachar were with Deborah, even Issachar, and also Barak. He was sent on foot into the valley. There were great thoughts of heart for the divisions of Reuben. <sup>16</sup>Why did you stay among the sheepfolds to hear the bleating of the flocks? For in the divisions of Reuben there were great searchings of heart. <sup>17</sup>Gilead stayed beyond Jordan. And why did Dan remain in ships? Asher continued on the seashore and remained in his havens. <sup>18</sup>Zebulun and Naphtali were a people who put their lives in danger of death in the high places of the field. <sup>19</sup>Kings came and fought. Then the kings of Canaan fought in Taanach by the waters of Megiddo. They took no gain of money. <sup>20</sup>They fought from heaven; the stars in their courses fought against Sisera. <sup>21</sup>The river of Kishon swept them away, that ancient river, the river Kishon. O my soul, you trampled in strength. <sup>22</sup>Then did the hooves of horses beat, from the galloping, the galloping of their mighty ones. <sup>23</sup>Curse Meroz, said the Angel of the LORD; curse the people of it bitterly, because they did not come to the help of the LORD, to the help of the LORD against the mighty.

<sup>24</sup>Blessed among women shall Jacl the wife of Heber the Kenite be. She shall be blessed above women in the tent. <sup>25</sup>He asked for water, and she gave him milk. She brought forth butter in a lordly dish. <sup>26</sup>She put her hand to the peg, and her right hand to the workman's hammer. With the hammer she struck Sisera. She struck off his head, she pierced and struck through his temples. <sup>27</sup>He bowed between her feet, he fell, he lay down. Where he bowed, there he fell down dead. <sup>28</sup>The mother of Sisera looked out a window, and cried through the lattice, Why is his chariot so long in coming? Why do the wheels of his chariot wait? <sup>29</sup>Her wise ladies answered her, yea, she returned answer to herself, <sup>30</sup>Do they not find and divide the spoil? A womb, two wombs to a man's head, to Sisera a prize of dyed garments, a prize of many colors of embroidered dyed garments for the necks of those that take the spoil. <sup>31</sup>So let all Your enemies perish, O LORD. But let them that love Him be like the sun when He goes forth in His might.

And the land had rest forty years.

CHAPTER 6

<sup>1</sup>And the sons of Israel did evil in the sight of the LORD. And the LORD delivered them into the hand of Midian seven years. <sup>2</sup>And the hand of Midian prevailed against Israel. Because of the hand of the Midianites, the sons of Israel made themselves the dens which are in the mountains, and caves and strongholds. <sup>3</sup>And so it was, when Israel had sown, that the Midianites came up, and the Amalekites, and the sons of the east, even they came up against them. <sup>4</sup>And they camped against them and destroyed the increase of the earth, until you come to Gaza. And they left no food for Israel, neither sheep nor ox nor ass. <sup>5</sup>For they came up with their cattle and their tents, and they came as grasshoppers for multitude, both they and their camels were without number. And they entered into the land to destroy it. <sup>6</sup>And Israel was made very poor because of the Midianites. And the sons of Israel cried to the LORD.

<sup>7</sup>And it happened, when the sons of Israel cried to the LORD because of the Midianites, <sup>8</sup>the LORD sent a prophet to the sons of Israel, who said to them, So says the LORD God of Israel: I brought you up from Egypt and brought you forth out of the house of bondage. <sup>9</sup>And I delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all who oppressed you, and drove them out from before you and gave you their land. <sup>10</sup>And I said to you, I am the LORD your God. Do not fear the gods of the Amorites in whose land you live. But you have not obeyed My voice.

<sup>11</sup>And the Angel of the LORD came and sat under an oak which was in Ophrah, which belonged to Joash the Abiezrite. And his son Gideon threshed wheat by the wine-press, to hide it from the Midianites. <sup>12</sup>And the Angel of the LORD appeared to him, and said to him, The LORD is with you, mighty man of power. <sup>13</sup>And Gideon said to Him, O, my Lord, if the LORD is with us, why then has all this happened to us? And where are all His miracles which our fathers told us of, saying, Did not the LORD bring us up from Egypt? But now the LORD has forsaken us, and delivered us into the hands of the Midianites. <sup>14</sup>And the LORD looked upon him and said, Go in your might, and you shall save Israel from the hand of the Midianites. Have I not sent you? <sup>15</sup>And he said to him, O, my Lord, with what shall I save Israel? Behold, my family is poor in Manasseh, and I am the least in my father's house. <sup>16</sup>And the LORD said to him, Surely, I will be with you, and you shall strike the Midianites as one man. <sup>17</sup>And he said to Him, If now I have found grace in Your sight, then show me a sign that You talk with me. <sup>18</sup>Do not depart from here, I pray, until I come to You, and bring forth my food offering and set it before You. And He said, I will stay until you come again. <sup>19</sup>And Gideon went in and made ready a kid and unleavened cakes of an ephah of flour. He put the flesh in a basket, and he put the broth in a pot, and brought it out to Him to the oak, and offered it. <sup>20</sup>And the Angel of God said to him, Take the flesh and the unleavened cakes and lay on this rock, and pour out the broth. And he did so. <sup>21</sup>Then the Angel of the LORD put forth the end of the staff that was in His hand and touched the flesh and the unleavened cakes. And there rose up fire out of the rock and burned up the flesh and the unleavened cakes. Then the Angel of the LORD went away out of his sight. <sup>22</sup>And when Gideon saw that He was the Angel of the LORD, Gideon said, Alas, O Lord God! Because I have seen the Angel of the LORD face to face. <sup>23</sup>And the LORD said to him, Peace to you. Do not fear. You shall not die. <sup>24</sup>Then Gideon built an altar there to the LORD, and called it Jehovah-shalom. It is yet in Ophrah of the Abiezrites to this day.

<sup>25</sup>And it happened on that night the LORD said to him, Take your father's young bull, even the second bull of seven years, and throw down the altar of Baal which your father has, and cut down the grove by it. <sup>26</sup>And build an altar to the LORD your God upon the top of this rock, in an orderly manner, and take the second bull and offer a burnt sacrifice with the wood of the grove which you shall cut down. <sup>27</sup>Then Gideon took ten men of his servants, and did as the LORD had said to him. And so it was, because he feared his father's household and the men of the city, that he could not do by day. So he did it by night. <sup>28</sup>And when the men of the city arose early in the morning, behold, the altar of Baal was cast down, and the grove which was by it was cut down, and the second bull had been offered upon the altar that was built. <sup>29</sup>And they said to one another, Who has done this thing? And when they inquired and asked, they said, Gideon the son of Joash has done this thing. <sup>30</sup>Then the men of the city said to Joash, Bring out your son so that he may die, because he has cast down the altar of Baal, and because he had cut down the grove by it. <sup>31</sup>And Joash said to all that stood against him, Will you plead for Baal? Will you save him? He who contends for him shall be killed by the morning. If he is a god, let him plead for himself, because one has cast down his altar. <sup>32</sup>And on that day he called him Jerubbaal, saying, Let Baal contend against him because he has thrown down his altar.

<sup>33</sup>Then all the Midianites and the Amalekites, and the sons of the east were gathered together, and went over and pitched in the valley of Jezreel. <sup>34</sup>But the spirit of the LORD came to Gideon, and he blew a trumpet. And he called the Abiezrites after him. <sup>35</sup>And he sent messengers throughout all Manasseh, who also were gathered after him. And he sent messengers to Asher, and to Zebulun, and to Naphtali. And they came up to meet them.

<sup>36</sup>And Gideon said to God, If You will save Israel by my hand, as You have said, <sup>37</sup>Behold, I will put a fleece of wool in the grain-floor. And if the dew is on the fleece only, and dry upon all the ground, then I shall know that You will save Israel by my hand, as You have said. <sup>38</sup>And it was so. For he rose up early in the morning and gathered the fleece together, and wrung the dew out of the fleece, a bowl full of water. <sup>39</sup>And Gideon said to God, Let not Your anger be hot against me, and I will speak but this once. I pray You, let me test but this once with the fleece. Let it now be dry only upon the fleece, and upon all the ground let there be dew. <sup>40</sup>And God did so that night. For it was dry upon the fleece only, and there was dew on all the ground.

CHAPTER 7

<sup>1</sup>And Jerub-baal — he is Gideon — and all the people that were with him, rose up early and pitched beside the well of Harod, so that the army of the Midianites was on the north side of them, by the hill of Moreh, in the valley. <sup>2</sup>And the LORD said to Gideon, The people who are with you are too many for Me to give the Midianites into their hands, lest Israel boast themselves against Me, saying, My own hand has saved me. <sup>3</sup>Now, therefore, speak in the ears of the people, saying, Whoever is fearful and afraid, let him return and go away early from Mount Gilead. And twenty-two thousand of the people returned. And there remained ten thousand. <sup>4</sup>And the LORD said to Gideon, The people are still too many. Bring them down to the water, and I will separate them for you there. It shall be that of whom I say to you, This shall go with you, the same shall go with you. And of whomever I say to you, This shall not go with you, the same shall not go. <sup>5</sup>And he brought down the people to the water. And the LORD said to Gideon, Everyone who laps the water with his tongue, like a dog laps, you shall set him by himself; also everyone who bows down upon his knees to drink. <sup>6</sup>And the number of them who lapped, putting their hand to their mouth, was three hundred men. But all the rest of the people bowed down upon their knees to drink water. <sup>7</sup>And the LORD said to Gideon, I will save you by the three hundred men who lapped, and will deliver the Midianites into your hand. And let all the other people go, each man to his place. <sup>8</sup>And the people took provisions in their hand, and their trumpets. And he sent away all the rest of Israel, each man to his tent, and kept those three hundred men. And the army of Midian was below him in the valley.

<sup>9</sup>And it happened on that night, the LORD said to him, Arise, go down to the army, for I have delivered it into your hand. <sup>10</sup>But if you fear to go down, go with Purah your servant down to the army. <sup>11</sup>And you shall hear what they shall say. And afterward your hands shall be strengthened to go down to the army. Then he went down with Purah his servant to the edge of the ranks in the army. <sup>12</sup>And the Midianites and the Amalekites, and all the sons of the east lay along in the valley like grasshoppers for multitude, and their camels without number, like the sand by the seaside for multitude.

<sup>13</sup>And when Gideon had come, behold, a man told a dream to his fellow, and said, Behold, I dreamed a dream, and lo, a cake of barley bread tumbled into the host of Midian, and came to a tent, and struck it so that it fell, and overturned it, so that the tent lay along. <sup>14</sup>And his fellow answered and said, This is nothing else except the sword of Gideon the son of Joash, a man of Israel. For into his hand God has delivered Midian and all the army. <sup>15</sup>And it happened, when Gideon heard the telling of the dream and the meaning of it, he worshiped. And he returned to the army of Israel, and said, Arise! For the LORD has delivered the host of Midian into your hand. <sup>16</sup>And he divided the three hundred men into three companies. And he put a trumpet in every man's hand, with empty pitchers, and torches inside the pitchers. <sup>17</sup>And he said to them, Look on me, and do likewise. And, behold, when I come to the edge of the camp, it shall be, as I do, so you shall do. <sup>18</sup>When I blow with a trumpet, I and all who are with me, then you blow the trumpets also on every side of all the camp, and shout, For Jehovah and for Gideon.

<sup>19</sup>So Gideon and the hundred men with him came to the edge of the camp in the beginning of the middle watch. And they had but newly set the watch. And they blew the trumpets and broke the pitchers that were in their hands. <sup>20</sup>And the three companies blew the trumpets and broke the pitchers and held the torches in their left hands and the trumpets in their right hands to blow. And they cried, A sword for Jehovah and for Gideon! <sup>21</sup>And they stood, each man in his place, all around the camp. And all the army ran, and cried, and fled. <sup>22</sup>And the three hundred blew the trumpets. And the LORD set every man's sword against his fellow, even throughout all the army. And the army fled to Beth-shittah in Zererath, to the border of Abel-meholah, to Tabbath. <sup>23</sup>And the men of Israel gathered themselves together out of Naphtali, and out of Asher, and out of all Manasseh, and ran after the Midianites. <sup>24</sup>And Gideon sent messengers throughout all mount Ephraim, saying, Come down against the Midianites, and take the waters to Beth-barah and Jordan before them. Then all the men of Ephraim gathered themselves together. And they captured the waters to Beth-barah and Jordan. <sup>25</sup>Then they took two princes of the Midianites, Oreb and Zeeb. And they killed Oreb upon the rock Oreb, and they killed Zeeb at the wine-press of Zeeb. And they pursued Midian and brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon on the other side Jordan.

CHAPTER 8

<sup>1</sup>And the men of Ephraim said to him, Why have you served us this way, that you did not call us when you went to fight with the Midianites? And they rebuked him sharply. <sup>2</sup>And he said to them, What have I done now in comparison to you? Is not the gleaning of the grapes of Ephraim better than the vintage of Abiezer? <sup>3</sup>God has delivered into your hands the princes of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb. And what was I able to do in comparison to you? Then their spirits toward him went away when he had said that.

<sup>4</sup>And Gideon came to Jordan, crossing over, he and the three hundred men with him, faint, yet pursuing them. <sup>5</sup>And he said to the men of Succoth, I pray you, give loaves of bread to the people who follow me. For they are tired, and I am pursuing after Zebah and Zalmunna, kings of Midian. <sup>6</sup>And the rulers of Succoth said, Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna now in your hand, so that we should give bread to your army? <sup>7</sup>And Gideon said, Therefore, when the LORD has delivered Zebah and Zalmunna into my hand, then I will tear your flesh with the thorns of the wilderness and with briers. <sup>8</sup>And he went up from there to Penuel, and spoke to them likewise. And the men of Penuel answered him like the men of Succoth had answered. <sup>9</sup>And he spoke also to the men of Penuel, saying, When I come again in peace, I will break down this tower.

<sup>10</sup>And Zebah and Zalmunna were in Karkor, and their armies with them, about fifteen thousand, all who were left of all the armies of the sons of the east. For a hundred and twenty thousand men that drew sword fell. <sup>11</sup>And Gideon went up by the way of those who lived in tents on the east of Nobah and Jogbehah, and struck the army. For the army was at ease. <sup>12</sup>And when Zebah and Zalmunna fled, he pursued them and took the two kings of Midian, Zebah and Zalmunna, and destroyed all the army.

<sup>14</sup>And he caught a young man of the men of Succoth and asked of him. And he described to him the rulers of Succoth, and its elders, seventy-seven men. <sup>15</sup>And he came to the men of Succoth and said, Behold, Zebah and Zalmunna, with whom you rebuked me, saying, Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna now in your hand so that we should give bread to your men who are weary? <sup>16</sup>And he took the elders of the city, and thorns of the wilderness and briers, and with them he taught the men of Succoth. <sup>17</sup>And he beat down the tower of Penuel, and killed the men of the city.

<sup>18</sup>And he said to Zebah and Zalmunna, How were the men whom you killed in Tabor? And they answered, As you are, so they. Each one resembled the sons of a king. <sup>19</sup>And he said, They were my brothers, the sons of my mother. As the LORD lives, if you had saved them alive, I would not kill you. <sup>20</sup>And he said to Jether his first-born, Up! Kill them! But the youth did not draw his sword, for he feared, because he was still a youth. <sup>21</sup>And Zebah and Zalmunna said, Rise and fall upon us. For as the man is, so is his strength. And Gideon arose and killed Zebah and Zalmunna, and took away the ornaments on their camels' necks.

<sup>22</sup>And the men of Israel said to Gideon, Rule over us, both you and your son, and your son's son also. For you have delivered us from the hand of Midian. <sup>23</sup>And Gideon said to them, I will not rule over you, neither shall my son rule over you. The LORD shall rule over you. <sup>24</sup>And Gideon said to them, I would desire a favor of you, that each man of you would give me the earrings of his prey. (For they had golden earrings, because they were Ishmaelites.) <sup>25</sup>And they answered, We will gladly give. And they spread a cloth, and each man threw the earrings of his prey in it. <sup>26</sup>And the weight of the golden earrings which he asked for was seventeen hundred of gold, besides ornaments, and pendants, and purple clothing that was on the kings of Midian, and besides the chains around their camels' necks. <sup>27</sup>And Gideon made an ephod of it, and put it in his city, in Ophrah. And all Israel went there lusting after it, which thing became a snare to Gideon and to his house.

<sup>28</sup>And Midian was subdued before the sons of Israel, so that they lifted up their heads no more. And the land had rest forty years in the days of Gideon.

<sup>29</sup>And Jerubbaal the son of Joash went and lived in his own house. <sup>30</sup>And Gideon had seventy sons, begotten of his body. For he had many wives. <sup>31</sup>And his concubine, who was in Shechem, also bore him a son whose name he called Abimelech. <sup>32</sup>And Gideon the son of Joash died in a good old age, and was buried in the tomb of Joash his father, in Ophrah of the Abiezrites. <sup>33</sup>And it happened as soon as Gideon was dead, the sons of Israel turned again and went lusting after the Baals, and made Baal-berith their god. <sup>34</sup>And the sons of Israel did not remember the LORD their God, who had delivered them out of the hands of all their enemies on every side. <sup>35</sup>Neither did they show kindness to the house of Jerubbaal, Gideon, according to all the goodness which he had shown to Israel.

CHAPTER 9

<sup>1</sup>And Abimelech the son of Jerubbaal went to Shechem, to his mother's brothers. And he talked with them and with all the family of the house of his mother's father, saying, <sup>2</sup>I pray you, speak in the ears of all the men of Shechem: Which is better for you, either that all the sons of Jerubbaal, seventy persons, reign over you, or that one reign over you? Remember also that I am your bone and your flesh. <sup>3</sup>And his mother's brothers spoke of him in the ears of all the men of Shechem with all these words. And their hearts were bent toward Abimelech, for they said, He is our brother. <sup>4</sup>And they gave him seventy pieces of silver out of the house of Baal-berith, with which Abimelech hired worthless and reckless persons who followed him. <sup>5</sup>And he went to his father's house at Ophrah and killed his brothers the sons of Jerubbaal, seventy persons, upon one stone. But Jotham, the youngest son of Jerubbaal, was still left; for he hid himself. <sup>6</sup>And all the leaders of Shechem gathered together, and all the house of Millo. And they went forth and made Abimelech king beside the plain of the pillar in Shechem.

<sup>7</sup>And when they told Jotham, he went and stood in the top of mount Gerizim. And he lifted up his voice and cried, and said to them, Listen to me, leaders of Shechem, so that God may listen to you. <sup>8</sup>The trees went forth to anoint a king over them. And they said to the olive tree, Reign over us. <sup>9</sup>But the olive tree said to them, Should I leave my fatness with which they honor God and man by me, and go to be promoted over the trees? <sup>10</sup>And the trees said to the fig tree, You come and reign over us. <sup>11</sup>But the fig tree said to them, Should I forsake my sweetness and my good fruit, and go to be promoted over the trees? <sup>12</sup>Then the trees said to the vine, You come and reign over us. <sup>13</sup>And the vine said to them, Should I leave my wine, which cheers God and man, and go to be promoted over the trees? <sup>14</sup>Then all the trees said to the bramble-bush, You come and reign over us. <sup>15</sup>And the bramble-bush said to the trees, If you truly anoint me king over you, come put your trust in my shadow. And if not, let fire come out of the bramble and burn up the cedars of Lebanon. <sup>16</sup>And now, if you have done truly and sincerely in that you have made Abimelech king, and if you have dealt well with Jerubbaal and his house, and have done to him according to what his hands did, <sup>17</sup>in which my father fought for you and much endangered his life, and delivered you out of the hand of Midian. <sup>18</sup>And you have risen up against my father's house today, and have killed his sons, seventy persons, upon one stone, and have made Abimelech, the son of his slavegirl, king over the men of Shechem, because he is your brother; <sup>19</sup>if then you have dealt truly and sincerely with Jerubbaal and with his house today, rejoice in Abimelech, and let him also rejoice in you. <sup>20</sup>But if not, let fire come out from Abimelech and burn up the men of Shechem and the house of Millo. And let fire come out from the men of Shechem, and from the house of Millo, and burn up Abimelech. <sup>21</sup>And Jotham ran away and fled, and went to Beer, and lived there for fear of Abimelech his brother.

<sup>22</sup>And Abimelech reigned three years over Israel. <sup>23</sup>And God sent an evil spirit between Abimelech and the men of Shechem. And the men of Shechem dealt treacherously with Abimelech, <sup>24</sup>so that the cruelty to the seventy sons of Jerubbaal might come, and their blood be laid upon Abimelech their brother, who killed them, and upon the men of Shechem who helped him in the killing of his brothers. <sup>25</sup>And the men of Shechem set men lying in wait for him in the top of the mountains, and they robbed all that came along that way by them. And it was told to Abimelech. <sup>26</sup>And Gaal the son of Ebed came with his brothers, and went over to Shechem. And the men of Shechem put their confidence in him. <sup>27</sup>And they went out into the fields and gathered their vineyards and trod the grapes, and made merry, and went into the house of their god, and ate and drank, and cursed Abimelech. <sup>28</sup>And Gaal the son of Ebed said, Who is Abimelech, and who is Shechem, that we should serve him? Is he not the son of Jerubbaal, and Zebul his officer? Serve the men of Hamor the father of Shechem: for why should we serve him? <sup>29</sup>And I wish this people were under my hand! Then I would remove Abimelech. And he said to Abimelech, Increase your army, and come out!

<sup>30</sup>And Zebul the ruler of the city heard the words of Gaal the son of Ebed, and his anger was kindled. <sup>31</sup>And he sent messengers to Abimelech secretly, saying, Behold, Gaal the son of Ebed and his brothers have come to Shechem. And behold, they fortify the city against you. <sup>32</sup>And now come up by night, you and the people with you, and lie in wait in the field. <sup>33</sup>And in the morning, as soon as the sun is up, it shall be that you shall rise early and set upon the city. And behold, when he and the people who are with him come out against you, you may do to them as you desire. <sup>34</sup>And Abimelech rose up by night, and all the people with him, and they lay in wait against Shechem in four companies. <sup>35</sup>And Gaal the son of Ebed went out and stood in the entrance of the gate of the city. And Abimelech rose up, and the people with him, from lying in wait. <sup>36</sup>And when Gaal saw the people, he said to Zebul, Behold, people are coming down from the top of the mountains. And Zebul said to him, You are seeing the shadow of the mountains like men. <sup>37</sup>And Gaal spoke again and said, See, people are coming by the middle of the land, and another company coming along by way of the Sorcerers' Oak. <sup>38</sup>And Zebul said to him, Where is your mouth now, with which you said, Who is Abimelech, that we should serve him? Is not this the people whom you have despised? I pray you, go out now and fight with them. <sup>39</sup>And Gaal went out before the men of Shechem, and fought with Abimelech.

<sup>40</sup>And Abimelech chased him, and he fled before him, and many were overthrown and wounded, to the entrance of the gate. <sup>41</sup>And Abimelech lived at Arumah. And Zebul put Gaal and his brothers out, so that they should not live in Shechem. <sup>42</sup>And it happened on the next day the people went out into the field. And they told Abimelech. <sup>43</sup>And he took the people and divided them into three companies, and lay in wait in the field. And they looked, and behold, the people came forth out of the city. And he rose up against them, and struck them. <sup>44</sup>And Abimelech and the company with him rushed forward and stood in the entrance of the gate of the city. And the two companies ran upon all the people in the field, and killed them. <sup>45</sup>And Abimelech fought against the city all that day. And he took the city and killed the people in it. And he beat down the city and sowed it with salt.

<sup>46</sup>And all the men of the tower of Shechem heard, and entered into a stronghold of the house of the god Berith. <sup>47</sup>And it was told Abimelech that all the men of the tower of Shechem were gathered together. <sup>48</sup>And Abimelech went up to Mount Zalmon, he and all the people with him. And Abimelech took an axe in his hand, and cut down a limb from the trees, and took it and laid it on his shoulder, and said to the people who were with him, What you have seen me do, hurry and do likewise. <sup>49</sup>And all the people also, each man, cut down a limb for themselves, and followed Abimelech. And they put them to the stronghold, and set them at the stronghold, and set on fire the stronghold. And about a thousand men and women, all the men of the tower of Shechem, died also.

<sup>50</sup>And Abimelech went to Thebez, and camped against Thebez, and took it. <sup>51</sup>But there was a strong tower inside the city, and all the men and women, and all those of the city fled there, and shut it behind them, and got up to the top of the tower. <sup>52</sup>And Abimelech came to the tower and fought against it, and went hard to the door of the tower to burn it with fire. <sup>53</sup>And a certain woman threw a piece of a millstone upon Abimelech's head, and crushed his skull. <sup>54</sup>Then he called hastily to the young man who was his armor-bearer, and said to him, Draw your sword and kill me, so that men may not say of me, A woman killed him! And his young man thrust him through, and he died. <sup>55</sup>And when the men of Israel saw that Abimelech was dead, each one of them left to go to his place. <sup>56</sup>And God repaid the evil Abimelech which he did to his father in killing his seventy brothers. <sup>57</sup>And all the evil of the men of Shechem God sent back upon their heads. And upon them came the curse of Jotham the son of Jerub-baal.

CHAPTER 10

<sup>1</sup>And after Abimelech there arose to defend Israel, Tola the son of Puah, the son of Dodo, a man of Issachar. And he lived in Shamir in Mount Ephraim. <sup>2</sup>And he judged Israel twenty-three years, and died, and was buried in Shamir.

<sup>3</sup>And after him arose Jair, a Gileadite, and judged Israel twenty-two years. <sup>4</sup>And he had thirty sons who rode on thirty ass colts, and they had thirty cities which are called Havoth-jair to this day in the land of Gilead. <sup>5</sup>And Jair died and was buried in Kamon.

<sup>6</sup>And the sons of Israel did evil again in the sight of the LORD, and served the Baals and Ashtareths, and the gods of Syria, and the gods of Sidon, and the gods of Moab, and the gods of the sons of Ammon, and the gods of the Philistines. And they left the LORD, and did not serve Him. <sup>7</sup>And the anger of the LORD was hot against Israel, and He sold them into the hands of the Philistines and into the hands of the sons of Ammon. <sup>8</sup>And that year they troubled and oppressed the sons of Israel; all the sons of Israel on the other side of Jordan, in the land of the Amorites, which is in Gilead, for eighteen years. <sup>9</sup>And the sons of Ammon passed over Jordan to fight also against Judah, and against Benjamin, and against the house of Ephraim, so that Israel was very distressed.

<sup>10</sup>And the sons of Israel cried to the LORD, saying, We have sinned against You, both because we have forsaken our God and also have served the Baals. <sup>11</sup>And the LORD said to the sons of Israel, Did not I deliver you from Egyptians, and from the Amorites, from the sons of Ammon, and from the Philistines? <sup>12</sup>And the Sidonians and the Amalekites and the Maonites oppressed you. And you cried to Me, and I delivered you out of their hand. <sup>13</sup>Yet you have forsaken Me and served other gods; therefore, I will deliver you no more. <sup>14</sup>Go and cry to the gods which you have chosen. Let them deliver you in the time of your tribulation. <sup>15</sup>And the sons of Israel said to the LORD, We have sinned. Do You to us whatever is good in Your eyes; only deliver us, we pray You, today. <sup>16</sup>And they put away the strange gods from among them, and served the LORD. And His soul was moved by the misery of Israel. <sup>17</sup>Then the sons of Ammon were gathered together and camped in Gilead. And the sons of Israel assembled themselves together and camped in Mizpeh. <sup>18</sup>And the people and rulers of Gilead said to one another, What man is there who will begin to fight against the sons of Ammon? He shall be head over all the inhabitants of Gilead.

CHAPTER 11

<sup>1</sup>Now Jephthah, the Gileadite, was a mighty man of war. And he was the son of a harlot. And Gilead fathered Jephthah. <sup>2</sup>And Gilead's wife bore him sons. And his wife's sons grew up, and they threw Jephthah out and said to him, You shall not inherit in our father's house. For you are the son of another woman. <sup>3</sup>Then Jephthah fled from his brothers and lived in the land of Tob. And worthless men were gathered to Jephthah, and went out with him.

<sup>4</sup>And it happened after some time the sons of Ammon made war against Israel. <sup>5</sup>And when the sons of Ammon made war against Israel, the elders of Gilead went to bring Jephthah out of the land of Tob. <sup>6</sup>And they said to Jephthah, Come and be our captain, so that we may fight with the sons of Ammon. <sup>7</sup>And Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead, Have you not hated me and thrown me out of my father's house? Why have you come to me now when you are in trouble? <sup>8</sup>And the elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, For this reason we turn again to you now, so that you may go with us and fight against the sons of Ammon, and be our head over all the ones who live in Gilead. <sup>9</sup>And Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead, If you bring me home again to fight against the sons of Ammon, and the LORD delivers them before me, shall I be your head? <sup>10</sup>And the elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, The LORD is witness between us if we do not do so according to your words. <sup>11</sup>And Jephthah went with the elders of Gilead, and the people made him head and captain over them. And Jephthah uttered all his words before the LORD in Mizpeh.

<sup>12</sup>And Jephthah sent messengers to the king of the sons of Ammon, saying, What have you to do with me, that you have come against me to fight in my land? <sup>13</sup>And the king of the sons of Ammon answered to the messengers of Jephthah, Because Israel took away my land when they came up out of Egypt, from Arnon even to Jabbok, and to Jordan. Now therefore restore those lands again peaceably. <sup>14</sup>And Jephthah sent messengers again to the king of the sons of Ammon. <sup>15</sup>And he said to him, So says Jephthah, Israel did not take away the land of Moab, nor the land of the sons of Ammon. <sup>16</sup>But when they came up from Egypt, Israel walked through the wilderness to the Red Sea, and came to Kadesh. <sup>17</sup>And Israel sent messengers to the king of Edom, saying, I pray you, let me pass through your land. But the king of Edom would not listen. And in the same way they sent to the king of Moab, but he would not. And Israel stayed in Kadesh. <sup>18</sup>And they went along through the wilderness, and went around the land of Edom and the land of Moab, and came by the east side of the land of Moab and pitched on the other side of Arnon, but they did not come within the border of Moab; for Arnon was the border of Moab. <sup>19</sup>And Israel sent messengers to Sihon king of the Amorites, the king of Heshbon. And Israel said to him, We pray you, let us pass through your land to my place. <sup>20</sup>But Sihon did not trust Israel to pass through his border. But Sihon gathered all his people together and pitched in Jahaz, and fought against Israel. <sup>21</sup>And the LORD God of Israel delivered Sihon and all his people into the hand of Israel, and they struck them. So Israel possessed all the land of the Amorites, who lived in that country. <sup>22</sup>And they possessed all the borders of the Amorites, from Arnon even to Jabbok, and from the wilderness even to Jordan. <sup>23</sup>So now the LORD God of Israel has put out the Amorites before His people Israel, and should you possess it? <sup>24</sup>Will you not possess that which Chemosh your god gives you to possess? So whomever the LORD our God shall drive out from before us, we will possess them. <sup>25</sup>And now are you any better than Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab? Did he ever strive against Israel, or did he ever fight against them <sup>26</sup>when Israel lived in Heshbon and its towns, and Aroer and its towns, and in all the cities which are along by the borders of Arnon, for three hundred years? Why then did you not deliver them in that time? <sup>27</sup>So I have not sinned against you, but you do me wrong to war against me. The LORD, the Judge, will judge this day between the sons of Israel and the sons of Ammon.

<sup>28</sup>And the king of the sons of Ammon did not listen to the words of Jephthah which he sent to him. <sup>29</sup>Then the Spirit of the LORD came on Jephthah, and he passed over Gilead and Manasseh, and passed over Mizpeh of Gilead, and from Mizpeh of Gilead passed over to the sons of Ammon. <sup>30</sup>And Jephthah vowed a vow to the LORD, and said, If You will indeed give the sons of Ammon into my hand, <sup>31</sup>then it shall be that whatever comes out from the doors of my house to meet me when I return in peace from the sons of Ammon, surely it shall belong to the LORD, or I will offer it up for a burnt offering.

<sup>32</sup>And Jephthah passed over to the sons of Ammon to fight against them. And the LORD delivered them into his hand. <sup>33</sup>And he struck them from Aroer even until you come to Minnith, twenty cities, and to the plain of the vineyards, with a very great slaughter. So were the sons of Ammon subdued before the sons of Israel. <sup>34</sup>And Jephthah came to Mizpeh to his house, and, behold, his daughter came out to meet him with timbrels and with dances. And she was his only child. Besides her he had neither son nor daughter. <sup>35</sup>And it happened when he saw her, he tore his clothes and said, Alas, my daughter! You have brought me very low, and you are one of those who trouble me. For I have opened my mouth to the LORD, and I cannot go back. <sup>36</sup>And she said to him, My father, you have opened your mouth to the Lord; do to me according to that which has come out of your mouth, because the LORD has taken vengeance for you upon your enemies, even of the sons of Ammon. <sup>37</sup>And she said to her father, Let this thing be done for me. Let me alone two months, so that I may go up and down upon the mountains and weep for my virginity, I and my companions. <sup>38</sup>And he said, Go. And he sent her away for two months. And she went with her companions and wept for her virginity upon the mountains. <sup>39</sup>And it happened at the end of two months she returned to her father, who did to her his vow which he had vowed. And she knew no man. And it is a custom in Israel, <sup>40</sup>that the daughters of Israel went yearly to tell again of the daughter of Jephthah the Gileadite, four days in a year.

CHAPTER 12

<sup>1</sup>And the men of Ephraim gathered themselves together and went northward, and said to Jephthah, Why did you go over to fight against the sons of Ammon, and did not call us to go with you? We will burn your house upon you with fire. <sup>2</sup>And Jephthah said to them, My people and I were at great strife with the sons of Ammon. And when I called you, you did not deliver me out of their hands. <sup>3</sup>When I saw that you did not deliver me, I took my life in my hand and passed over against the sons of Ammon, and the LORD delivered them into my hand. Why then have you come up against me, to fight against me today? <sup>4</sup>And Jephthah called up all the men of Gilead and fought with Ephraim. And the men of Gilead struck Ephraim, because they said, You Gileadites are fugitives of Ephraim among the Ephraimites and among the Manassites. <sup>5</sup>And the Gileadites took the passages of Jordan before the Ephraimites. And it happened that when one of those Ephraimites who had escaped said, Let me go over, the men of Gilead said to him, Are you an Ephraimite? And he said, No. <sup>6</sup>And they said to him, Please say Shibboleth. And he said, Sibboleth, for he could not manage to pronounce it right. Then they took him and killed him at the passages of Jordan. And there fell at that time forty-two thousand of the Ephraimites. <sup>7</sup>And Jephthah judged Israel six years.

And Jephthah the Gileadite died, and was buried in one of the cities of Gilead.

<sup>8</sup>And after him Ibzan of Bethlehem judged Israel. <sup>9</sup>And he had thirty sons and thirty daughters whom he sent abroad, and took in thirty daughters from abroad for his sons. And he judged Israel seven years. <sup>10</sup>Then Ibzan died, and was buried at Bethlehem.

<sup>11</sup>And after him Elon, a Zebulunite, judged Israel. And he judged Israel ten years. <sup>12</sup>And Elon the Zebulunite died, and was buried in Aijalon, the land of Zebulun.

<sup>13</sup>And after him Abdon the son of Hillel, a Pirathonite, judged Israel. <sup>14</sup>And he had forty sons and thirty grandsons, who rode on seventy ass colts. And he judged Israel eight years. <sup>15</sup>And Abdon the son of Hillel the Pirathonite died, and was buried in Pirathon in the land of Ephraim, in the mount of the Amalekites.

CHAPTER 13

<sup>1</sup>And the sons of Israel did evil again in the sight of the LORD. And the LORD delivered them into the hands of the Philistines forty years. <sup>2</sup>And there was a certain man of Zorah, of the family of the Danites, whose name was Manoah. And his wife was barren and did not bear. <sup>3</sup>And the Angel of the LORD appeared to the woman and said to her, Behold now, you are barren and do not bear. But you shall conceive and bear a son. <sup>4</sup>And now, I pray you, and do not drink wine nor strong drink, and do not eat any unclean thing. <sup>5</sup>For lo, you shall conceive and bear a son. And no razor shall come upon his head. For the child shall be a Nazarite to God from the womb. And he shall begin to deliver Israel out of the hand of the Philistines.

<sup>6</sup>And the woman came and told her husband, saying, A man of God came to me, and His face was like the face of an Angel of God, very terrifying. But I did not ask Him where He came from, neither did He tell me His name. <sup>7</sup>But He said to me, Behold, you shall conceive and bear a son. And now drink no wine nor strong drink, neither eat any unclean thing, for the child shall be a Nazarite to God from the womb to the day of his death. <sup>8</sup>And Manoah prayed to the LORD and said, O, my Lord, let the Man of God, whom You sent, come again to us and teach us what we shall do to the child that shall be born. <sup>9</sup>And God listened to the voice of Manoah, and the Angel of God came again to the woman as she sat in the field. But Manoah her husband was not with her. <sup>10</sup>And the woman hurried and ran, and told her husband, and said to him, Behold, the Man has appeared to Me, the one who came to me the other day.

<sup>11</sup>And Manoah arose and went after his wife, and came to the Man, and said to Him, Are You the Man who spoke to the woman? And He said, I am. <sup>12</sup>And Manoah said, Now let Your words come to pass. How shall we order the child, and what shall we do to him? <sup>13</sup>And the Angel of the LORD said to Manoah, Of all that I said to the woman let her be careful. <sup>14</sup>She may not eat of all that comes from the vine, neither let her drink wine nor strong drink, nor eat any unclean thing. Let her do all that I commanded her. <sup>15</sup>And Manoah said to the Angel of the LORD, I pray You, let us keep You until we have made a kid ready for You. <sup>16</sup>And the Angel of the LORD said to Manoah, Though you keep Me, I will not eat of your bread. And if you will offer a burnt offering, you must offer it to the LORD. For Manoah did not know that He was the Angel of the LORD. <sup>17</sup>And Manoah said to the Angel of the LORD, What is Your name, so that when Your sayings come to pass we may do You honor? <sup>18</sup>And the Angel of the LORD said to him, Why do you ask after My name in this way? Yea, it is Wonderful?

<sup>19</sup>And Manoah took a kid with a food offering, and offered it upon a rock to the LORD. And the Angel did wonderfully. And Manoah and his wife looked on. <sup>20</sup>For it happened when the flame went up toward heaven from off the altar, the Angel of the LORD went up in the flame of the altar. And Manoah and his wife looked on it and fell on their faces to the ground. <sup>21</sup>But the Angel of the LORD did not appear any more to Manoah and to his wife. Then Manoah knew that He was an Angel of the LORD. <sup>22</sup>And Manoah said to his wife, We shall surely die because we have seen God. <sup>23</sup>But his wife said to him, If the LORD were pleased to kill us, He would not have received a burnt offering and a food offering at our hands, neither would He have showed us all these things, nor have told us such things as these at this time.

<sup>24</sup>And the woman bore a son and called his name Samson. And the child grew, and the LORD blessed him. <sup>25</sup>And the Spirit of the LORD began to move him at times in the camp of Dan between Zorah and Eshtaol.

CHAPTER 14

<sup>1</sup>And Samson went down to Timnath, and saw a woman in Timnath of the daughters of the Philistines. <sup>2</sup>And he came up and told his father and his mother, and said, I have seen a woman in Timnath of the daughters of the Philistines. And now get her for me for a wife. <sup>3</sup>And his father and his mother said to him, Is there no woman among the daughters of your brothers, or among all my people, that you go to take a wife from the uncircumcised Philistines? And Samson said to his father, Get her for me, for she pleases me very much. <sup>4</sup>But his father and his mother did not know that it was from the LORD, that he was looking for an occasion against the Philistines. For at that time the Philistines had the rule over Israel.

<sup>5</sup>And Samson and his father and his mother went down to Timnath. And they came to the vineyards of Timnath. And, behold, a young lion roared against him. <sup>6</sup>And the Spirit of the LORD came mightily upon him, and he tore it as he would have torn a kid; and nothing was in his hand. But he did not tell his father or his mother what he had done. <sup>7</sup>And he went down and talked with the woman. And she pleased Samson very much. <sup>8</sup>And after a time he returned to take her, and he turned aside to see the dead body of the lion. And behold! A swarm of bees and honey was in the dead body of the lion. <sup>9</sup>And he took some of it in his hands, and went on eating, and came to his father and mother. And he gave to them, and they ate. But he did not tell them that he had taken the honey out of the dead body of the lion.

<sup>10</sup>And his father went down to the woman. And Samson made a feast there, for so the young men used to do. <sup>11</sup>And it happened when they saw him, they brought thirty companions to be with him. <sup>12</sup>And Samson said to them, I will now put forth a riddle to you. If you can certainly tell it to me within the seven days of the feast, and find it out, then I will give you thirty shirts and thirty changes of garments. <sup>13</sup>But if you cannot tell me, then you shall give me thirty shirts and thirty changes of garments. And they said to him, Put forth your riddle so that we may hear it. <sup>14</sup>And he said to them, Out of the eater came forth food, and out of the strong came forth sweetness. And in three days they could not tell what the riddle meant. <sup>15</sup>And it happened on the seventh day they said to Samson's wife, Lure your husband so that he may tell the riddle to us, lest we burn you and your father's house with fire. Have you called us to take what we have? Is it not so?

<sup>16</sup>And Samson's wife wept before him, and said, You only hate me, and do not love me. You have put forth a riddle to the sons of my people, and have not told it to me. And he said to her, Behold, I have not told my father nor to my mother, and shall I tell you? <sup>17</sup>And she wept before him the seven days, while their feast lasted. And on the seventh day, he told her, because she pressed hard upon him. And she told the riddle to the sons of her people. <sup>18</sup>And the men of the city said to him on the seventh day before the sun went down, What is sweeter than honey, and what stronger than a lion? And he said to them, If you had not plowed with my heifer, you would not have found out my riddle.

<sup>19</sup>And the Spirit of the LORD came upon him, and he went down to Ashkelon and killed thirty men of them, and took their spoil, and gave changes of garments to them who told what the riddle meant. And his anger was kindled, and he went up to his father's house. <sup>20</sup>But Samson's wife was given to his companion, who had served as his friend.

CHAPTER 15

<sup>1</sup>And it happened afterward, in the days of wheat harvest, Samson visited his wife with a kid. And he said, I will go in to my wife into the room. But her father would not allow him to go in. <sup>2</sup>And her father said, I truly thought that you utterly hated her, and I gave her to your companion. Is not her younger sister fairer than she is? Please, let her be for you instead of her. <sup>3</sup>And Samson said concerning them, Now I shall be more blameless than the Philistines, though I do what is not pleasing to them. <sup>4</sup>And Samson went and caught three hundred foxes and took fire brands, and turned tail to tail, and put a fire brand in the middle between two tails. <sup>5</sup>And when he had set the brands on fire, he let them go into the standing grain of the Philistines, and burned up both the shocks and also the standing grain, with the vineyards and olives. <sup>6</sup>And the Philistines said, Who has done this? And they answered, Samson, the son-in-law of the Timnite, because he had taken his wife and given her to his companion. And the Philistines came up and burned her and her father with fire. <sup>7</sup>And Samson said to them, Though you have done this, yet I will be avenged of you, and after that I will stop. <sup>8</sup>And he struck them hip and thigh with a great slaughter. And he went down and lived in the top of the rock Etam.

<sup>9</sup>And the Philistines went up and pitched in Judah, and spread themselves in Lehi. <sup>10</sup>And the men of Judah said, Why have you come up against us? And they answered, We have come up to bind Samson, to do to him as he has done to us. <sup>11</sup>Then three thousand men of Judah went to the top of the rock Etam, and said to Samson, Do you not know that the Philistines are rulers over us? What have you done to us? And he said to them, As they have done to me, so I have done to them. <sup>12</sup>And they said to him, We have come to bind you so that we may deliver you into the hands of the Philistines. And Samson said to them, Swear to me that you will not fall upon me yourselves. <sup>13</sup>And they spoke to him, saying, No, but we will tie you up and deliver you into their hand. But surely we will not kill you. And they bound him with two new cords and brought him up from the rock. <sup>14</sup>He came to Lehi, and the Philistines shouted against him. And the Spirit of the LORD came mightily upon him, and the cords on his arms became as flax that has been burned with fire, and his bands loosed from off his hands. <sup>15</sup>And he found a new jawbone of an ass, and put forth his hand and took it, and killed a thousand men with it. <sup>16</sup>And Samson said, With the jawbone of an ass, heaps upon heaps, with the jaw of an ass I have killed a thousand men. <sup>17</sup>And it happened when he had made an end of speaking, he threw away the jawbone out of his hand, and called that place Hill of the Jawbone. <sup>18</sup>And he was very thirsty and called upon the LORD and said, You have given this great deliverance into the hand of Your servant. And now shall I die forever, and fall into the hand of the uncircumcised? <sup>19</sup>But God cut open a hollow place in the jaw, and water came out there. And when he had drunk, his spirit came again, and he revived. Therefore, its name is called Fountain of the Praying One, which is in Lehi to this day. <sup>20</sup>And he judged Israel in the days of the Philistines twenty years.

CHAPTER 16

<sup>1</sup>Then Samson went to Gaza. And he saw a harlot there, and went in to her. <sup>2</sup>The Gazites were told, saying, Samson has come here. And they surrounded him and laid wait for him all night in the gate of the city, and were quiet all the night, saying, In the morning when it is day, we shall kill him. <sup>3</sup>And Samson lay till midnight, and arose at midnight, and took the doors of the gate of the city and the two posts, and went away with them, with the bar, and put them on his shoulders and carried them up to the top of a hill that is before Hebron.

<sup>4</sup>And it happened afterwards, he loved a woman in the valley of Sorek, whose name was Delilah. <sup>5</sup>And the lords of the Philistines came up to her, and said to her, Lure him and see where his great strength lies, and by what means we may prevail against him, so that we may tie him to afflict him. And each one of us will give you eleven hundred pieces of silver. <sup>6</sup>And Delilah said to Samson, Please tell me where your great strength lies, and with what you may be bound to afflict you.

<sup>7</sup>And Samson said to her, If they bind me with seven green cords that were never dried, then I shall be weak and be as another man. <sup>8</sup>Then the lords of the Philistines brought up to her seven green cords which had not been dried, and she bound him with them. <sup>9</sup>And the ambush was sitting for her in the room. And she said to him, The Philistines are upon you, Samson! And he broke the cords like a thread of tow when it smells fire. And his strength was not known.

<sup>10</sup>And Delilah said to Samson, Behold, you have mocked me and told me lies. Now, please, tell me with what you may be bound. <sup>11</sup>And he said to her, If they bind me fast with new ropes that have never been used, then I shall be weak and be as another man. <sup>12</sup>And Delilah took new ropes and bound him with them, and said to him, The Philistines are upon you, Samson! And the ambush was sitting for her in the inner room. And he broke them from off his arms like a thread. <sup>13</sup>And Delilah said to Samson, You have mocked me until now, and told me lies. Tell me with what you may be bound. And he said to her, If you weave the seven locks of my head with the web. <sup>14</sup>And she fastened it with the pin, and said to him, The Philistines are upon you, Samson! And He awakened out of his sleep, and went way with the pin of the beam, and with the web. <sup>15</sup>And she said to him, How can you say, I love you, and your heart is not with me? You have mocked me these three times, and have not told me in what your great strength lies. <sup>16</sup>And it happened because she distressed him with her words daily, and urged him; and his soul was grieved to death. <sup>17</sup>And he told her all his heart, and said to her, A razor has not come on my hair, for I am a Nazarite to God from my mother's womb. If I am shaven, then my strength will go from me, and I will become weak and be like any man. <sup>18</sup>And when Delilah saw that he had told her all his heart, she sent and called for the lords of the Philistines, saying, Come this once, for he has showed me all his heart. Then the lords of the Philistines came up to her, and brought money in their hand. <sup>19</sup>And she made him sleep upon her knees. And she called for a man, and she caused him to shave off the seven locks of his head. And she began to afflict him, and his strength went from him. <sup>20</sup>And she said, The Philistines are upon you, Samson! And he awoke out of his sleep and said, I will go out as at other times before, and shake myself. And he did not know that the LORD had departed from him.

<sup>21</sup>And the Philistines took him and put out his eyes, and brought him down to Gaza, and bound him with fetters of brass. And he ground in the prison house. <sup>22</sup>However the hair of his head began to grow again after he had been shaven. <sup>23</sup>Then the lords of the Philistines gathered themselves in order to offer a great sacrifice to Dagon their god, and to rejoice. For they said, Our god has delivered Samson our enemy into our hand. <sup>24</sup>And when the people saw him, they praised their god. For they said, Our god has delivered our enemy into our hands, and the destroyer of our country, who killed many of us. <sup>25</sup>And when their hearts were merry, it happened that they said, Call for Samson so that he may make sport for us. And they called for Samson out of the prison house. And he made sport for them, and they set him between the pillars. <sup>26</sup>And Samson said to the lad who held him by the hand, Allow me to feel the pillars upon which the house stands, so that I may lean upon them. <sup>27</sup>Now the house was full of men and women. And all the lords of the Philistines were there. And on the roof were about three thousand men and women who watched while Samson made sport. <sup>28</sup>And Samson called to the LORD and said, O, Lord GOD, remember me, I pray You, and strengthen me, I pray You, only this once, O God, so that I may be at once avenged of the Philistines for my two eyes. <sup>29</sup>And Samson took hold of the two middle pillars upon which the house stood, and on which it was held up, of the one with his right hand, and of the other with his left. <sup>30</sup>And Samson said, Let me die with the Philistines. And he bowed himself mightily, and the house fell upon the lords and upon all the people in it. So the dead whom he killed at his death were more than those he killed in his life.

<sup>31</sup>Then his brothers and all the house of his father came down, and took him, and brought him up and buried him between Zorah and Eshtaol in the burying-place of Manoah his father. And he judged Israel twenty years.

CHAPTER 17

<sup>1</sup>And there was a man of Mount Ephraim, and his name was Micah. <sup>2</sup>And he said to his mother, The eleven hundred shekels of silver which were taken from you, about which you cursed, and spoke of also in my ears, behold, the silver is with me. Behold, I took it. And his mother said, Be blessed of the LORD, my son. <sup>3</sup>And when he had given back the eleven hundred of silver to his mother, his mother said, I had wholly given the silver to the LORD from my hand for my son to make a graven image and a molten image. And now I am giving it to you. <sup>4</sup>And he gave the money back to his mother. And his mother took two hundred shekels of silver and gave them to the founder, who made of it an engraved image and a molten image. And they were in the house of Micah. <sup>5</sup>And the man Micah had a house of gods, and made an ephod and household gods, and anointed one of his sons, who became his priest. <sup>6</sup>In those days there was no king in Israel, but every man did that which was right in his eyes.

<sup>7</sup>And there was a young man out of Bethlehem-judah of the family of Judah, and he was a Levite. And he stayed there. <sup>8</sup>And the man went out of the city from Bethlehem-judah to live where he could find a place. And he came to Mount Ephraim to the house of Micah, as he journeyed. <sup>9</sup>And Micah said to him, Where do you come from? And he said to him, I am a Levite of Bethlehem-judah, and I go to live where I may find a place. <sup>10</sup>And Micah said to him, Live with me and be a father and a priest to me, and I will give you ten shekels of silver by the year, and a suit of clothes, and your food. And the Levite went in. <sup>11</sup>And the Levite was content to live with the man, and the young man was to him as one of his sons. <sup>12</sup>And Micah consecrated the Levite. And the young man became his priest, and was in the house of Micah. <sup>13</sup>Then Micah said, Now I know that the LORD will do me good, since I have a Levite as my priest.

CHAPTER 18

<sup>1</sup>In those days no king was in Israel. And in those days the tribe of the Danites looked for an inheritance for them to live in. For to that day it has not fallen to them by inheritance among the tribes of Israel. <sup>2</sup>And the sons of Dan sent from their family five men from their borders, men of war, from Zorah and from Eshtaol, to spy out the land and to search it. And they said to them, Go, search the land. And when they came to mount Ephraim to the house of Micah, they stayed there. <sup>3</sup>When they were at the house of Micah, they knew the voice of the young man the Levite. And they turned in there, and said to him, Who brought you here? And what are you doing in this place? And what have you here? <sup>4</sup>And he said to them, This is how Micah deals with me, and has hired me, and I am his priest. <sup>5</sup>And they said to him, We pray you, Ask counsel of God so that we may know whether our way which we go shall be prosperous. <sup>6</sup>And the priest said to them, Go in peace. Your way in which you go is before the LORD. <sup>7</sup>And the five men departed and came to Laish, and saw the people in it, how they lived carelessly, as the Sidonians do, quiet and secure. And there was no judge in the land who might put them to shame in a thing. And they were far from the Sidonians, and had no business with any man.

<sup>6</sup>And they came to their brothers, to Zorah and Eshtaol. And their brothers said to them, What do you say? <sup>9</sup>And they said, Arise, so that we may go up against them. For we have seen the land, and, behold, it is very good. And will you sit quietly? Do not be too lazy to go; enter to possess the land. <sup>10</sup>When you go, you shall come to a people feeling safe, and to a large land. For God has given it into your hands, a place where there is no lack of anything in the earth.

<sup>11</sup>And six hundred men of the family of the Danites moved out of Zorah and out of Eshtaol, girded with weapons of war. <sup>12</sup>And they went up and pitched in Kirjath-jearim, in Judah. Therefore, they called that place A Camp of Dan to this day. Behold, it is behind Kirjath-jearim. <sup>13</sup>And they passed from there to mount Ephraim and came to the house of Micah. <sup>14</sup>Then the five men who went to spy out the country of Laish answered and said to their brothers, You know that there is in these houses an ephod, and household gods, and an engraved image and a molten image. And now consider what you have to do. <sup>15</sup>And they turned in that way, and came to the house of the young man the Levite, to the house of Micah, and greeted him. <sup>16</sup>And the six hundred men of the sons of Dan, girded with their weapons of war, stood by the entrance of the gate. <sup>17</sup>And the five men who went up to spy out the land went up, and came in there, and took the engraved image and the ephod and the household gods, and the molten image. And the priest stood in the entrance of the gate with the six hundred men who were dressed with weapons of war. <sup>18</sup>And these went into Micah's house and brought out the carved image, the ephod, and the household gods, and the molten image. And the priest said to them, What are you doing? <sup>19</sup>And they said to him, Be quiet, lay your hand on your mouth and go with us, and be to us a father and a priest. Is it better for you to be a priest to the house of one man, or that you be a priest to a tribe and a family in Israel? <sup>20</sup>And the priest's heart was glad, and he took the ephod, and the household gods, and the carved image, and went in the midst of the people.

<sup>21</sup>And they turned and departed, and put the little ones and the cattle and the valuables before them. <sup>22</sup>They had gone far away from the house of Micah, and the men in the houses near Micah's house had been called together and had overtaken the sons of Dan. <sup>23</sup>And they cried to the sons of Dan. And they turned their faces and said to Micah, What ails you, that you come with such a company? <sup>24</sup>And he said, You have taken away my gods which I made, and the priest, and you have gone away. And what more do I have? And what is this you say to me, What ails you? <sup>25</sup>And the sons of Dan said to him, Do not let your voice be heard among us, lest angry fellows run upon you and you lose your life with the lives of your household. <sup>26</sup>And the sons of Dan went their way. And when Micah saw that they were too strong for him, he turned and went back to his house. <sup>27</sup>And they took the things which Micah had made, and the priest whom he had, and came to Laish, to a people that were quiet and feeling safe. And they struck them with the edge of the sword and burned the city with fire. <sup>28</sup>And there was no deliverer, because it was far from Sidon, and they had no business with any man. And it was in the valley that lies by Beth-rehob. And they built a city and lived in it. <sup>29</sup> And they called the name of the city Dan, after the name of Dan their father, who was born to Israel. However the name of the city was Laish at the first.

<sup>30</sup>And the sons of Dan set up the engraved image. And Jonathan, the son of Gershom, the son of Manasseh, he and his sons were priests to the tribe of Dan until the day of the captivity of the land. <sup>31</sup>And they set up Micah's engraved image for themselves, the image which he made, all the time that the house of God was in Shiloh.

CHAPTER 19

<sup>1</sup>And it happened in those days, no king being in Israel, that there was a certain Levite residing on the side of Mount Ephraim, who took to him a concubine out of Bethlehem-judah. <sup>2</sup>And his concubine played the harlot against him, and went away from him to her father's house to Bethlehem-judah, and was there four whole months. <sup>3</sup>And her husband arose and went after her, to speak friendly to her, to bring her again, having his servant with him and a couple of asses. And she brought him into her father's house. And when the father of the girl saw him, he rejoiced to meet him. <sup>4</sup>And his father-in-law, the girl's father, kept him. And he stayed with him three days. So they ate and drank and stayed there. <sup>5</sup>And it happened on the fourth day when they arose early in the morning, he rose up to leave. And the girl's father said to his son-in-law, Comfort your heart with a piece of bread, and afterward go your way. <sup>6</sup>And they sat down and ate and drank, both of them together, for the girl's father had said to the man, Please be content, and stay all night, and let your heart be merry. <sup>7</sup>And when the man rose up to leave, his father-in-law urged him, and he stayed there again. <sup>8</sup>And he rose early in the morning on the fifth day to leave. And the girl's father said, Please comfort your heart. And they stayed till afternoon, and both of them ate. <sup>9</sup>And when the man rose up to leave, he and his concubine, and his servant, his father-in-law, the girl's father said to him, Behold, now the day draws toward evening. Please stay all night. Behold, the day grows to an end. Stay here so that your heart may be merry. And tomorrow go early on your way, so that you may go home. <sup>10</sup>But the man would not stay that night, but he rose up and left, and came over against Jebus, which is Jerusalem. And there were with him two saddled asses. His concubine also was with him.

<sup>11</sup>They were beside Jebus, and the day was far gone. And the servant said to his master, Please come, and let us turn in to this city of the Jebusites and stay in it. <sup>12</sup>And his master said to him, We will not turn aside here into the city of a stranger that is not of the sons of Israel. We will pass over to Gibeah. <sup>13</sup>And he said to his servant, Come and let us draw near one of these places to stay all night, in Gibeah or in Ramah. <sup>14</sup>And they passed on and went their way. And the sun went down on them beside Gibeah, which is of Benjamin. <sup>15</sup>And they turned aside there, to go in and to lodge in Gibeah. And he went in and sat down in a street of the city. For no man took them into his house to stay the night.

<sup>16</sup>And behold, there came an old man from his work out of the field at evening, who was also from mount Ephraim. And he lived in Gibeah, but the men of the place were of Benjamin. <sup>17</sup>And when he had lifted up his eyes, he saw a traveler in the streets of the city. And the old man said, Where do you go, and where do you come from? <sup>18</sup>And he said to him, We are passing from Bethlehem-judah to the side of mount Ephraim. I am from there, and I went to Bethlehem-judah, but I am going to the house of the LORD. And there is no man who receives me into his house. <sup>19</sup>Yet here is both straw and food for our asses. And there is bread and wine also for me, and for your slavegirl, and for the young man who is with your servants. There is no lack of anything. <sup>20</sup>And the old man said, Peace be with you. Yet all that you lack shall be on me. Only do not stay in the street. <sup>21</sup>And he brought him into his house and mixed fodder for the asses. And they washed their feet, and ate and drank.

<sup>22</sup>They were making their hearts merry. And, behold, the men of the city, certain sons of Belial, set upon the house all around and beat at the door and spoke to the master of the house, the old man, saying, Bring out the man that came to your house so that we may know him. <sup>23</sup>And the man, the master of the house, went out to them and said to them, No, my brothers, I pray you, do not do evil, since this man has come into my house. Do not do this foolish sin. <sup>24</sup>Behold, my daughter, a virgin, and his concubine. I will bring them out now, and you humble them and do with them what seems good to you. But do not do so vile a thing to this man. <sup>25</sup>But the men would not listen to him. And the man took his concubine and brought her out to them. And they knew her and rolled themselves on her all night until the morning. And they sent her away at the dawning of the day. <sup>26</sup>And the woman came, in the dawning of the day, and fell down at the door of the man's house where her lord was, until it was light. <sup>27</sup>And her lord rose up in the morning and opened the doors of the house and went out to go his way. And behold, the woman, his concubine, had fallen down at the door of the house, and her hands were upon the threshold. <sup>28</sup>And he said to her, Up, and let us be going. But there was no answer. Then the man took her on an ass, and the man rose up and went to his place.

<sup>29</sup>And when he had come into his house, he took a knife and laid hold on his concubine, and divided her, with her bones, into twelve pieces and sent her into all the borders of Israel. <sup>30</sup>And it was so that all that saw it said, There was no such deed done nor seen from the day that the sons of Israel came up out of the land of Egypt to this day. Think of it, take advice and speak.

CHAPTER 20

<sup>1</sup>Then all the sons of Israel went out, and the congregation was gathered together as one man, from Dan even to Beer-sheba, with the land of Gilead, to the LORD in Mizpeh. <sup>2</sup>And the chief of all the people, of all the tribes of Israel, presented themselves in the assembly of the people of God, four hundred thousand footmen that drew sword. <sup>3</sup>And the sons of Benjamin heard that the sons of Israel had gone up to Mizpeh. And the sons of Israel said, Tell how this wickedness was done? <sup>4</sup>And the Levite, the husband of the woman who was slain, answered and said, I came into Gibeah of Benjamin to stay the night, my concubine and I. <sup>5</sup>And the men of Gibeah rose against me and set upon the house all around me at night. They intended to kill me. And they raped my concubine, and she is dead. <sup>6</sup>And I took my concubine and cut her in pieces, and sent her throughout all the land of the inheritance of Israel. For they have committed evil and folly in Israel. <sup>7</sup>Behold, you are all sons of Israel. Give here your advice and counsel.

<sup>8</sup>And all people rose as one man, saying, Let no man go to his tent, and not let any of us turn to his house. <sup>9</sup>And now this is the thing which we will do to Gibeah. We will go up by lot against it, <sup>10</sup>and we will take ten men of a hundred throughout all the tribes of Israel, and a hundred of a thousand, and a thousand out of ten thousand, to bring food for the people, so that when they come to Gibeah of Benjamin, they may do according to all the folly which they have done in Israel. <sup>11</sup>And every man of Israel was gathered against the city, all together as one man.

<sup>12</sup>And the tribes of Israel sent men through all the tribe of Benjamin saying, What wickedness is this that is done among you? <sup>13</sup>Now, therefore, deliver the men, the sons of Belial, who are in Gibeah, so that we may put them to death and put away evil from Israel. But Benjamin would not listen to the voice of their brothers, the sons of Israel. <sup>14</sup>And the sons of Benjamin gathered out of the cities to Gibeah, to go out to battle against the sons of Israel. <sup>15</sup>And the sons of Benjamin were numbered on that day out of the cities twenty-six thousand men who drew sword, besides the inhabitants of Gibeah, who were numbered seven hundred chosen men. <sup>16</sup>Among all this people were seven hundred chosen men, left-handed. Every one could sling stones at a hair's breadth, and not miss. <sup>17</sup>And the men of Israel, besides Benjamin, were numbered four hundred thousand men who drew sword. All these were men of war.

<sup>18</sup>And the sons of Israel rose and went up to the house of God and asked counsel of God, and said, Which of us shall go up first to the battle against the sons of Benjamin? And the LORD said, Judah first. <sup>19</sup>And the sons of Israel rose up early in the morning, and camped against Gibeah. <sup>20</sup>And the men of Israel went out to battle against Benjamin. And the men of Israel put themselves in order, ready to fight against them at Gibeah. <sup>21</sup>And the sons of Benjamin came forth out of Gibeah and destroyed to the earth twenty-two thousand men of the Israelites that day. <sup>22</sup>And the people, the men of Israel, encouraged themselves and set their battle in order again in the place where they put themselves in order the first day. <sup>23</sup>And the sons of Israel went up and wept before the LORD until evening, and asked counsel from the LORD saying, Shall I go up again to battle against the sons of Benjamin my brother? And the LORD said, Go up against him. <sup>24</sup>And the sons of Israel came near against the sons of Benjamin the second day. <sup>25</sup>And Benjamin went forth to meet them again from Gibeah the second day and destroyed to the earth eighteen thousand men of the sons of Israel. All these drew the sword.

<sup>26</sup>And all the sons of Israel, and all the people, went up and came into the house of God, and wept, and sat there before the LORD and fasted that day until evening, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the LORD. <sup>27</sup>And the sons of Israel inquired of the LORD (for the ark of the covenant of God was there in those days, <sup>28</sup>and Phinehas the son of Eleazar the son of Aaron stood before it in those days,) saying, Shall I yet again go out to battle against the sons of Benjamin my brother, or shall I stop? And the LORD said, Go up, for tomorrow I will deliver them into your hand.

<sup>29</sup>And Israel set ambushers all around Gibeah. <sup>30</sup>And the sons of Israel went up against the sons of Benjamin on the third day, and put themselves in order against Gibeah, as at other times. <sup>31</sup>And the sons of Benjamin went out against the people, and were drawn away from the city. And they began to strike some of the people and to kill, as at other times, in the highways — one of which goes up to the house of God, and the other to Gibeah in the field — about thirty men of Israel. <sup>32</sup>And the sons of Benjamin said, They are beaten before us as at the first. But the sons of Israel said, Let us flee and draw them from the city to the highways. <sup>33</sup>And all the men of Israel rose up out of their place and marshaled at Baal-tamar. And the ambush of Israel broke forth from their place, from the plains of Gibeah. <sup>34</sup>And there came against Gibeah ten thousand chosen men out of all Israel, and the battle was heavy. But they did not know that evil was near them. <sup>35</sup>And the LORD struck Benjamin before Israel. And the sons of Israel destroyed in Benjamin twenty-five thousand and a hundred men that day. All these drew the sword. <sup>36</sup>So the sons of Benjamin saw that they were beaten. For the men of Israel gave place to Benjamin because they trusted to the ambush which they had set against Gibeah. <sup>37</sup>And the ambush hurried and rushed against Gibeah. And the ambush marched and struck all the city with the edge of the sword. <sup>38</sup>And a sign was set between the men of Israel and the ambush, to make go up a great smoke rising up out of the city. <sup>39</sup>And when the men of Israel retired in the battle, Benjamin began to strike and kill of the men of Israel about thirty persons. For they said, Surely they are stricken down before us as in the first battle. <sup>40</sup>And the rising of a pillar of smoke began to go up out of the city. And Benjamin turned behind them, and behold, the whole city had gone up toward the heavens. <sup>41</sup>And the men of Israel turned again, and the men of Benjamin were amazed. For they saw that evil had touched them. <sup>42</sup>And they turned before the men of Israel, to the way of the wilderness. But the battle overtook them. And those who came out of the cities they destroyed in the midst of them. <sup>43</sup>So they encircled Benjamin and they chased them without rest, and trod them down until they were against Gibeah toward the sunrise.

<sup>44</sup>And there fell from Benjamin eighteen thousand. All these were men of war. <sup>45</sup>And they turned and fled toward the wilderness to the rock of Rimmon. And they gleaned of them in the highways five thousand men, and pursued hard after them to Gidom and killed two thousand men of them. <sup>46</sup>So that all who fell that day of Benjamin were twenty-five thousand men who drew the sword. All of these were men of war. <sup>47</sup>But six hundred men turned and fled to the wilderness, to the rock Rimmon, and they stayed in the rock Rimmon four months. <sup>48</sup>And the sons of Israel turned again to the sons of Benjamin and struck them with the edge of the sword, from the entire city to livestock, to all that was found. Also they set all the cities that they came to on fire.

CHAPTER 21

<sup>1</sup>And the men of Israel had sworn in Mizpeh, saying, Not one of us shall give his daughter to Benjamin for a wife. <sup>2</sup>And the people came to the house of God and stayed there until evening before God, and lifted up their voice and wept grievously, <sup>3</sup>and said, O, LORD God of Israel, Why has this happened in Israel, that there should be today one tribe lacking in Israel? <sup>4</sup>And it happened on the next day the people rose early and built there an altar, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. <sup>5</sup>And the sons of Israel said, Who is there among all the tribes of Israel that did not come up with the congregation to the LORD? For they had made a great oath concerning him who did not come up to the LORD to Mizpeh, saying, He shall surely be put to death. <sup>6</sup>And the sons of Israel repented themselves for Benjamin their brother, and said, There is one tribe cut off from Israel this day. <sup>7</sup>What shall we do for wives for those who are left, since we have sworn by the LORD that we will not give them of our daughters for wives?

<sup>8</sup>And they said, What one is there of the tribes of Israel that did not come up to Mizpeh to the LORD? And, behold, there came none to the camp from Jabesh-gilead to the assembly. <sup>9</sup>For the people were numbered, and behold, none of the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead were there. <sup>10</sup>And the congregation sent there twelve thousand men of the most valiant, and commanded them, saying, Go, and you shall strike the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead with the sword, with the women and the sons. <sup>11</sup>And this is the thing that you shall do. You shall utterly destroy every male and every woman who has lain with man. <sup>12</sup>And they found among the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead four hundred young virgins who had known no man by lying with any male. And they brought them to the camp to Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan. <sup>13</sup>And the whole congregation sent to speak to the sons of Benjamin who were in the rock Rimmon, and to call peaceably to them. <sup>14</sup>And Benjamin came again at that time. And they gave them wives whom they had saved alive, of the women of Jabesh-gilead. And yet so they were not enough for them.

<sup>15</sup>And the people repented themselves for Benjamin, because the LORD had made a break in the tribes of Israel. <sup>16</sup>And the elders of the congregation said, What shall we do for wives for those who are left, since the women are destroyed out of Benjamin? <sup>17</sup>And they said, There must be an inheritance for those of Benjamin who have escaped, so that a tribe may not be destroyed out of Israel. <sup>18</sup>However, we may not give them wives of our daughters. For the sons of Israel have sworn, saying, Cursed is he who gives a wife to Benjamin. <sup>19</sup>Then they said, Behold, there is a feast of the LORD in Shiloh early on the north side of Bethel, on the east side of the highway that goes up from Bethel to Shechem, and on the south of Lebonah. <sup>20</sup>And they commanded the sons of Benjamin, saying, Go and lie in wait in the vineyards, <sup>21</sup>and see, and behold, if the daughters of Shiloh come out to dance in dances, then you come out of the vineyards and catch you a wife for every man from the daughters of Shiloh, and go to the land of Benjamin. <sup>22</sup>And it shall be, when their fathers or their brothers come to us to complain, we will say to them, Be favorable to them for our sakes, because we did not reserve each man a wife in the war. For if you did not give to them at this time, you would be guilty. <sup>23</sup>And the sons of Benjamin did so, and took wives according to their number, from those that danced, whom they caught. And they went and returned to their inheritance, and repaired the cities and lived in them. <sup>24</sup>And the sons of Israel departed from there at that time, each man to his tribe and to his family. And they went out from there every man to his inheritance.

<sup>25</sup>In those days there was no king in Israel. Every man did the right in his own eyes.

THE BOOK OF RUTH

CHAPTER 1

<sup>1</sup>And it happened in the days when the judges ruled, there was a famine in the land. And a certain man of Bethlehem-judah went to live in the country of Moab, he and his wife and his two sons. <sup>2</sup>And the name of the man was Elimelech, and the name of his wife Naomi and the name of his two sons Mahlon and Chilion, Ephrathites of Bethlehem-judah. And they came to the country of Moab and stayed there. <sup>3</sup>And Elimelech, Naomi's husband, died. And she was left, and her two sons. <sup>4</sup>And they took wives for themselves from the women of Moab. The name of the one was Orpah, and the name of the other Ruth. And they lived there about ten years. <sup>5</sup>And Mahlon and Chilion also died, both of them. And the woman was left without her two sons and her husband.

<sup>6</sup>Then she arose with her daughters-in-law so that she might return from the country of Moab. For she had heard in the country of Moab how the LORD had visited His people in giving them bread. <sup>7</sup>And she went out of the place where she was, and her two daughters-in-law with her, and they went on the way to return to the land of Judah. <sup>8</sup>And Naomi said to her two daughters-in-law, Go, return each one to her mother's house. May the LORD deal kindly with you, as you have dealt with the dead and with me. <sup>9</sup>May the LORD grant you that you may find rest, each in the house of her husband. Then she kissed them, and they lifted up their voice and wept. <sup>10</sup>And they said to her, Surely we will return with you to your people. <sup>11</sup>And Naomi said, Turn again, my daughters. Why will you go with me? Are there yet sons in my womb, that they may be your husbands? <sup>12</sup>Turn again, my daughters, go. For I am too old to have a husband. If I should say, I have hope, if I should have a husband also tonight, and should also bear sons, would you wait for them until they were grown? <sup>13</sup>Will you shut yourselves up, not to have a husband? No, my daughters, for it makes me very sad for your sakes that the hand of the LORD has gone out against me. <sup>14</sup>And they lifted up their voice and wept again. And Orpah kissed her mother-in-law. But Ruth clung to her. <sup>15</sup>And she said, Behold, Your sister-in-law has gone back to her people and to her gods. Return after your sister-in-law. <sup>16</sup>And Ruth said, Do not beg me to leave you, to return from following after you. For where you go, I will go. Where you stay, I will stay. Your people shall be my people, and your God my God. <sup>17</sup>Where you die, I will die, and there I will be buried. May the LORD do so to me, and more also, if anything but death parts you and me.

<sup>18</sup>When she saw that she was determined to go with her, then she quit speaking to her. <sup>19</sup>And it happened that they went both of them until they came to Bethlehem. And when they had come to Bethlehem, all the city was moved about them, and they said, Is this Naomi? <sup>20</sup>And she said to them, Do not call me Naomi, call me Mara. For the Almighty has dealt very bitterly with me. <sup>21</sup>I went out full, and the LORD has brought me home again empty. Why do you call me Naomi, since the LORD has testified against me, and the Almighty has afflicted me?

<sup>22</sup>And Naomi returned; and Ruth, who was of Moab, her daughter-in-law, was with her, returning out of the country of Moab. And they came to Bethlehem in the beginning of barley harvest.

CHAPTER 2

<sup>1</sup>And Naomi had a kinsman of her husband's, a mighty man of wealth, of the family of Elimelech. And his name was Boaz. <sup>2</sup>And Ruth of Moab said to Naomi, Let me now go to the field and glean ears of grain after him in whose sight I shall find grace. And she said to her, Go, my daughter. <sup>3</sup>And she went. And she came and gleaned in the field after the reapers. And she happened to come upon a part of the field of Boaz, who was of the kindred of Elimelech. <sup>4</sup>And behold, Boaz came from Bethlehem and said to the reapers, The LORD be with you. And they answered him, The LORD bless you. <sup>5</sup>And Boaz said to his servant who was set over the reapers, Whose girl is this? <sup>6</sup>And the servant who was set over the reapers answered and said, It is the girl from Moab who came back with Naomi out of the country of Moab. <sup>7</sup>And she said, Please let me glean and gather after the reapers among the sheaves. And she came, and has kept on from the morning until now, but that she stayed a little in the house.

<sup>8</sup>And Boaz said to Ruth, Do you not hear, my daughter? Do not go to glean in another field, neither go away from here, but stay here close by my maidens. <sup>9</sup>Let your eyes be on the field that they reap, and go after them. Have I not commanded the young men that they shall not touch you? And when you are thirsty, go to the vessels and drink of that which the young men have drawn. <sup>10</sup>Then she fell on her face and bowed herself to the ground, and said to him, Why have I found grace in your eyes, that you should take notice of me, since I am a stranger? <sup>11</sup>And Boaz answered and said to her, It has been fully shown to me all that you have done to your mother-in-law since the death of your husband, And you left your father and your mother and the land of your birth, and have come to a people whom you did not know before now. <sup>12</sup>May the LORD repay your work, and may a full reward be given you from the LORD God of Israel, under whose wings you have come to trust. <sup>13</sup>Then she said, Let me find favor in your sight, my lord, for you have comforted me; for you have spoken kindly to your handmaid, though I am not like one of your handmaidens. <sup>14</sup>And Boaz said to her, At mealtime come here and eat of the bread and dip your bit in the vinegar. And she sat beside the reapers. And he handed her parched grain, and she ate and was satisfied, and left. <sup>15</sup>And when she had risen up to glean, Boaz commanded his young men saying, Let her glean even among the sheaves, and do not rebuke her. <sup>16</sup>And also let fall of the handfuls on purpose for her, and leave them so that she may glean them, and do not rebuke her.

<sup>17</sup>And she gleaned in the field until the evening, and beat out what she had gleaned. And it was about an ephah of barley. <sup>18</sup>And she took it up and went into the city. And her mother-in-law saw what she had gleaned. And she brought it forth, and gave to her what she had kept after she was satisfied. <sup>19</sup>And her mother-in-law said to her, Where have you gleaned today? And where did you work? Blessed is he who took notice of you. And she told her mother-in-law with whom she had worked, and said, The man's name with whom I worked today is Boaz. <sup>20</sup>And Naomi said to her daughter-in-law, Blessed is he of the LORD, who has not left off his kindness to the living and to the dead. And Naomi said to her, The man is near of kin to us, he is of our redeemers. <sup>21</sup>And Ruth of Moab said, He said to me also, You shall keep close by my young men until they have ended all my harvest. <sup>22</sup>And Naomi said to her daughter-in-law Ruth, Good, my daughter. You go out with his maidens so that they do not fall upon you in any other field. <sup>23</sup>And she kept close by the maidens of Boaz to glean until the end of barley harvest and of wheat harvest. And she lived with her mother-in-law.

CHAPTER 3

<sup>1</sup>And her mother-in-law Naomi said to her, My daughter, shall I not seek rest for you so that it may be well with you? <sup>2</sup>And now is not Boaz of our kindred, he with whose maidens you were? Behold, he winnows barley tonight in the threshing-floor. <sup>3</sup>Therefore wash yourself, and anoint yourself, and put your clothing upon you, and go down to the floor. Do not make yourself known to the man until he has finished eating and drinking. <sup>4</sup>And when he lies down, you mark the place where he lies, and you shall go in and uncover his feet and lie down. And he will tell you what you shall do. <sup>5</sup>And she said to her, All that you say to me I will do.

<sup>6</sup>And she went down to the grain floor and did according to all that her mother-in-law had told her. <sup>7</sup>And when Boaz had eaten and had drunk, and his heart was merry, he went to lie down at the end of the heap of grain. And she came softly and uncovered his feet, and lay down. <sup>8</sup>And it happened at midnight, the man trembled and turned himself. And, behold, a woman lay at his feet. <sup>9</sup>And he said, Who are you? And she answered, I am your handmaid Ruth. And you shall spread your skirt over your handmaid, for you are a kinsman-redeemer. <sup>10</sup>And He said, Blessed be you of the LORD, my daughter. You have shown more kindness in the latter end than at the beginning, in that you did not follow young men, whether poor or rich. <sup>11</sup>And now, my daughter, do not fear. I will do to you all that you ask. For all the city of my people knows that you are a woman of virtue. <sup>12</sup>And now it is true that I am your kinsman-redeemer. But there is also a kinsman nearer than I. <sup>13</sup>Stay tonight, and it shall be in the morning, if he will redeem you, well; he will redeem. And if he does not delight to redeem you, as the LORD lives, then I will redeem you. Lie down until the morning.

<sup>14</sup>And she lay at his feet until the morning. And she rose up before one could know another. And he said, Do not let it be known that a woman came to the floor. <sup>15</sup>Also, he said, Bring the veil on you, and hold it. And when she held it, he measured six measures of barley and laid it on her. And she went to the city. <sup>16</sup>And when she came to her mother-in-law, she said, Who are you, my daughter? And she told her all that the man had done to her. <sup>17</sup>And she said, These six measures of barley he gave to me. For he said to me, Do not go empty to your mother-in-law. <sup>18</sup>And she said, Sit still, my daughter, until you know how the matter will fall. For the man will not rest until he has finished the thing today.

CHAPTER 4

<sup>1</sup>And Boaz went up to the gate and sat down there. And behold, the kinsman of whom Boaz spoke came by. And he said, Such a one! Turn aside, sit down here. And he turned aside and sat down. <sup>2</sup>And he took ten men of the elders of the city and said, Come sit down here. And they sat down. <sup>3</sup>And he said to the kinsman, Naomi, who has come again out of the country of Moab, sells a parcel of land which was our brother Elimelech's. <sup>4</sup>And I said I will tell it in your ear, saying, Buy it before those who live here, and before the elders of my people. If you will redeem, redeem it. But if you will not redeem, tell me so that I may know. For there is none to redeem besides you. And I am after you. And he said, I will redeem. <sup>5</sup>And Boaz said, In the day you buy the field from the hand of Naomi, you must buy also from the hand of Ruth of Moab, the wife of the dead, to raise up the name of the dead upon his inheritance. <sup>6</sup>And the kinsman said, I cannot redeem for myself, lest I mar my own inheritance. You redeem my right to yourself, for I cannot redeem.

<sup>7</sup>And this was the custom in former times in Israel concerning redeeming and concerning changing, in order to make all things sure. A man plucked off his shoe and gave it to his neighbor. And this was a testimony in Israel. <sup>8</sup>Therefore the kinsman said to Boaz, Buy it for yourself. So he drew off his shoe. <sup>9</sup>And Boaz said to the elders and all the people, You are witnesses this day that I have bought all that was Elimelech's and all that was Chilion's and Mahlon's, from the hand of Naomi. <sup>10</sup>And also Ruth of Moab, the wife of Mahlon, I have purchased to be my wife, to raise up the name of the dead on his inheritance, so that the name of the dead may not be cut off from among his brothers and from the gate of his place. You are witnesses this day. <sup>11</sup>And all the people in the gate, and the elders, said, We are witnesses. May the LORD make the woman who has come into your house like Rachel and like Leah, for these two built the house of Israel. And may you be blessed in Ephratah, and be famous in Bethlehem. <sup>12</sup>And let your house be like the house of Pharez, whom Tamar bore to Judah, of the seed which the LORD shall give you of this young woman.

<sup>13</sup>And Boaz took Ruth, and she was his wife. And when he went in to her, the LORD made her conceive. And she bore a son. <sup>14</sup>And the women said to Naomi, Blessed be the LORD, who has not left you this day without a redeemer, so that his name may be famous in Israel. <sup>15</sup>And he shall be to you as one who gives you back your life, and one who cheers your old age. For your daughter-in-law who loves you has borne him, who is better to you than seven sons. <sup>16</sup>And Naomi took the child and laid it in her bosom, and became nurse to it. <sup>17</sup>And the women, her neighbors, gave it a name, saying, There is a son born to Naomi. And they called his name Obed. He is the father of Jesse, the father of David.

THE FIRST BOOK OF SAMUEL

CHAPTER 1

<sup>1</sup>And there was a certain man of Ramathaim-zophim from the hills of Ephraim, and his name was Elkanah, the son of Jeroham, the son of Elihu, the son of Tohu, the son of Zuph, an Ephrathite. <sup>2</sup>And he had two wives, the name of the one was Hannah, and the name of the second, Peninnah. And Peninnah had children, but Hannah had no children. <sup>3</sup>And this man went up out of his city from year to year, to worship and to sacrifice to the LORD of hosts in Shiloh. And the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, the priests of the LORD, were there. <sup>4</sup>And the time came that Elkanah offered, he gave portions to Peninnah his wife, and to all her sons and her daughters. <sup>5</sup>But to Hannah he gave one double portion, for he loved Hannah. But the LORD had shut up her womb. <sup>6</sup>And her foe also provoked her grievously, in order to make her fret, because the LORD had shut up her womb. <sup>7</sup>And as he did so year by year, when she went up to the house of the LORD, so she provoked her. And she wept and did not eat. <sup>8</sup>And Elkanah her husband said to her, Hannah, why do you weep? And why do you not eat? And why is your heart grieved? Am I not better to you than ten sons?

<sup>9</sup>And Hannah rose up after they had eaten in Shiloh and after they had drunk. And Eli the priest sat on the seat by the sidepost of the temple of the LORD. <sup>10</sup>And she was in bitterness of soul, and prayed to the LORD, and wept sorely. <sup>11</sup>And she vowed a vow and said, O, Lord of hosts, if You will indeed look upon the affliction of Your handmaid and remember me, and not forget Your handmaid, but will give to Your handmaid a man-child, then I will give him to the LORD all the days of his life, and there shall no razor come upon his head. <sup>12</sup>And it happened as she continued praying before the LORD, Eli noticed her mouth. <sup>13</sup>Now Hannah spoke in her heart, only her lips moved, but her voice was not heard. And Eli thought she had become drunk. <sup>14</sup>And Eli said to her, How long will you be drunken? Put away your wine from you! <sup>15</sup>And Hannah answered, No, my lord, I am a woman of a sorrowful spirit. I have neither drunk wine nor strong drink, but have poured out my soul before the LORD. <sup>16</sup>Do not count your handmaid for a daughter of wickedness, for out of the abundance of my meditation and grief I have spoken until now. <sup>17</sup>And Eli answered and said, Go in peace, and the God of Israel grant to you your petition that you have asked of Him. <sup>18</sup>And she said, Let your handmaid find grace in your sight. So the woman went her way and ate, and her face was no longer sad.

<sup>19</sup>And they rose up in the morning early, and worshiped before the LORD, and returned, and came to their house to Ramah. And Elkanah knew Hannah his wife, and the LORD remembered her. <sup>20</sup>And it happened when the time had come around, Hannah conceived and bore a son and called his name Samuel, saying, Because I have asked him of the LORD. <sup>21</sup>And the man Elkanah and all his house went up to offer to the LORD the yearly sacrifice and his vow. <sup>22</sup>But Hannah did not go up. For she said to her husband, Until the child is weaned, and then I will bring him so that he may appear before the LORD and stay there forever. <sup>23</sup>And Elkanah her husband said to her, Do what seems good to you. Stay until you have weaned him. Only may the LORD establish His word. So the woman stayed and gave her son suck until she weaned him. <sup>24</sup>And when she had weaned him, she took him up with her, with three bulls and one ephah of flour, and a bottle of wine, and brought him to the house of the LORD in Shiloh. And the child was young. <sup>25</sup>And they killed a bull, and brought the child to Eli. <sup>26</sup>And she said, O, my lord, as your soul lives, my lord, I am the woman who stood by you here, praying to the LORD. <sup>27</sup>For this child I was praying, and the LORD has given me my petition which I asked of Him.<sup>28</sup> And I have returned him to the LORD. As long as he lives, he shall be given to the LORD. And he worshiped the LORD there.

CHAPTER 2

<sup>1</sup>And Hannah prayed and said, My heart rejoices in the LORD, my horn is exalted in the LORD. My mouth is enlarged over my enemies because I rejoice in Your salvation. <sup>2</sup>There is none holy as the LORD, for there is none beside You. Neither is there any rock like our God. <sup>3</sup>Talk no more so very proudly. Remove arrogance out of your mouth, for the LORD is a God of knowledge, and by His actions are weighed. <sup>4</sup>The bows of the mighty men are broken, and they that stumbled are girded with strength. <sup>5</sup>They that were full have hired themselves out for bread, and they that were hungry ceased; yea, while the barren has borne seven, and she who had many sons has languished.

<sup>6</sup>The LORD kills and makes alive. He brings down to the grave, and brings up. <sup>7</sup>The LORD takes away, and He gives riches; He brings low; yea, He lifts up high. <sup>8</sup>He raises up the poor out of the dust; He lifts up the needy from the dunghill to set them among princes; yea, He causes them to inherit a throne of honor; for to the LORD are the pillars of the earth; and He sets the habitable world on them. <sup>9</sup>He keeps the feet of his saints, and the wicked are silenced in darkness; for by strength shall no man prevail. <sup>10</sup>The foes of the LORD shall be broken to pieces. Out of heaven He shall thunder upon them. The LORD shall judge the ends of the earth. And He shall give strength to His king, and exalt the horn of His anointed.

<sup>11</sup>And Elkanah went to Ramah to his house. And the child served the LORD before Eli the priest.

<sup>12</sup>And the sons of Eli were sons of Belial. They did not know the LORD. <sup>13</sup>And the priests' custom with the people was: If any man offered sacrifice, the priest's servant came while the flesh was boiling, with a flesh-hook of three teeth in his hand. <sup>14</sup>And he stuck it into the pan or kettle or caldron or pot. All that the flesh-hook brought up the priest took for himself. So they did in Shiloh to all the Israelites that came there. <sup>15</sup>Yea, before they burned the fat, the priest's servant came and said to the man who sacrificed, Give flesh to roast for the priest. For he will not have boiled flesh from you, but raw! <sup>16</sup>And if any man said to him, Let them not fail to burn the fat at once, and then take as your soul desires, then he would answer him, No! But you shall give it to me now! And if not, I will take it by force. <sup>17</sup>And the sin of the young men was very great before the LORD. For men despised the offering of the LORD.

<sup>22</sup>And Eli was very old, and heard all that his sons did to all Israel, and how they lay with the women who gathered at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. <sup>23</sup>And he said to them, Why do you do such things? For I hear of your evil dealings by all the people. <sup>24</sup>No, my sons, for it is no good report that I hear. You make the LORD's people to cry out. <sup>25</sup>If one man sins against another, the judge shall judge him. But if a man sins against the LORD, who shall plead for him? But they did not listen to the voice of their father, because the LORD desired to kill them.

<sup>26</sup>And the child Samuel went on growing in stature and in good, both with the LORD and also with men. <sup>27</sup>And there came a man of God to Eli, and said to him, So says the LORD: Did I plainly appear to the house of your father, when they were in Egypt in Pharaoh's house? <sup>28</sup>And did I choose him out of all the tribes of Israel to be My priest, to offer upon My altar, to burn incense, to wear an ephod before Me? And did I give to the house of your father all the offerings made by fire from the sons of Israel? <sup>29</sup>Why do you kick at My sacrifice and My offering, which I have commanded in My house? Do you honor your sons above Me, to make yourselves fat with the best of all the offerings of Israel My people? <sup>30</sup>And the LORD God of Israel says, I said indeed, Your house and the house of your father should walk before Me forever. But now the LORD says, Be it far from Me! For those who honor Me I will honor, and those that think little of Me shall be lightly regarded. <sup>31</sup>Behold, the days come when I will cut off your arm and the arm of your father's house, so that there shall not be an old man in your house. <sup>32</sup>And you shall see an adversary in My house, in all the good which shall be done to Israel. And there shall not be an old man in your house forever. <sup>33</sup>And that man of yours whom I shall not cut off from My altar, shall be left in order to make your eyes fail, and to grieve your heart. And all the increase of your house shall die in the flower of their age. <sup>34</sup>And this shall be a sign to you, which shall come upon your two sons, on Hophni and Phinehas; in one day both of them shall die. <sup>35</sup>And I will raise up a faithful priest to Myself, one who shall do according to that which is in My heart and in My mind. And I will build him a sure house, and he shall walk before My anointed forever. <sup>36</sup>And it shall be everyone who is left in your house shall come and bow down to him for a piece of silver and a piece of bread. And they shall say, Please put me into one of the priests' offices so that I may eat a piece of bread.

CHAPTER 3

<sup>1</sup>And the child Samuel served the LORD before Eli. And the word of the LORD was precious in those days. There was no open vision.

<sup>2</sup>And it happened at that time, when Eli was lying down in his place, and his eyes began to become dim so that he could not see. <sup>3</sup>And the lamp of God had not gone out. And Samuel was lying down in the temple of the LORD, where the ark of God rested. <sup>4</sup>And the LORD called Samuel. And he answered, Here am I. <sup>5</sup>And he ran to Eli, and said, Here am I. For you called me. And he said, I did not call. Go and lie down again. And he went to lie down. <sup>6</sup>And the LORD called again, Samuel! And Samuel arose and went to Eli and said, Here am I, for you called me. And he answered, I did not call, my son. Go back, lie down. <sup>7</sup>And Samuel did not yet know the LORD, and the word of the LORD had not yet been revealed to him. <sup>8</sup>And the LORD called Samuel again, the third time. And he arose and went to Eli and said, Here am I, for you called me. And Eli saw that the LORD had called the child. <sup>9</sup>And Eli said to Samuel, Go, lie down; and it shall be, if One calls you, you shall say, Speak, LORD, for Your servant hears. And Samuel went to lie down in his place. <sup>10</sup>And the LORD came and stood, and called as at other times, Samuel, Samuel! Then Samuel answered, Speak, for Your servant hears. <sup>11</sup>And the LORD said to Samuel, Behold, I will do a thing in Israel at which both the ears of everyone who hears it shall tingle. <sup>12</sup>In that day I will confirm to Eli all that which I have spoken as to his house. When I begin, I will also make an end. <sup>13</sup>For I have told him that I will judge his house forever for the iniquity which he knows, because his sons made themselves vile and he did not restrain them. <sup>14</sup>And therefore I have sworn to the house of Eli that the iniquity of Eli's house shall not be purged with sacrifice nor offering forever.

<sup>15</sup>And Samuel lay until morning, and opened the doors of the house of the LORD. And Samuel feared to show Eli the vision. <sup>16</sup>And Eli called Samuel and said, Samuel, my son. And he answered, Here am I. <sup>17</sup>And he said, What is the thing that the LORD has said to you? Please do not hide it from me. God do so to you, and more also, if you hide a thing from me of all the things that He said to you. <sup>18</sup>And Samuel told him all the things, and hid nothing from him. And he said, It is the LORD; let Him do what seems good to Him.

<sup>19</sup>And Samuel grew, and the LORD was with him and let none of his words fall to the ground. <sup>20</sup>And all Israel, from Dan even to Beer-sheba, knew that Samuel was established to be a prophet of the LORD. <sup>21</sup>And the LORD appeared again in Shiloh. For the LORD revealed himself to Samuel in Shiloh by the word of the LORD.

CHAPTER 4

<sup>1</sup>And the word of Samuel was revealed to all Israel. And Israel went out against the Philistines to battle, and pitched beside Ebenezer. And the Philistines pitched in Aphek. <sup>2</sup>And the Philistines put themselves in order against Israel. And the battle was joined. And Israel was beaten before the Philistines. And they killed about four thousand men of the army in the field. <sup>3</sup>And when the people had come to the camp, the elders of Israel said, Why has the LORD beaten us today before the Philistines? Let us bring the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of Shiloh to us, so that when it comes among us it may save us out of the hand of our enemies. <sup>4</sup>And the people sent to Shiloh in order to bring the ark of the covenant of the LORD of hosts from there, the ark which dwells between the cherubs. And the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were there with the ark of the covenant of God. <sup>5</sup>And it happened when the ark of the covenant of the LORD came into camp, all Israel shouted with a great shout, so that the earth rang again. <sup>6</sup>And when the Philistines heard the noise of the shout, they said, What does the noise of this great shout in the camp of the Hebrews mean? And they understood that the ark of the LORD had come into the camp. <sup>7</sup>And the Philistines were afraid, for they said, God has come into the camp, And they said, Woe to us! For there has not been a thing like this before. <sup>8</sup>Woe to us! Who shall deliver us out of the hand of these mighty Gods? These are the gods that struck the Egyptians with all the plagues in the wilderness. <sup>9</sup>Be strong and fight like men, O, Philistines, so that you may not be servants to the Hebrews, as they have been to you. Be men and fight! <sup>10</sup>And the Philistines fought, and Israel was beaten, and each one of them fled into his tent. And there was a very great slaughter, for there fell thirty thousand footmen of Israel. <sup>11</sup>And the ark of God was taken. And Hophni and Phinehas, the two sons of Eli, were slain.

<sup>12</sup>And a man of Benjamin ran out of the army. And he came to Shiloh the same day with his clothes torn and with earth upon his head. <sup>13</sup>And he came in, and behold, Eli sat on a seat by the wayside watching. For his heart trembled for the ark of God. And when the man came into the city and told it, all the city cried out. <sup>14</sup>And when Eli heard the noise of the crying, he said, What is the noise of this tumult? And the man hurried in and told Eli. <sup>15</sup>And Eli was ninety-eight years old, and his eyes were dim so that he could not see. <sup>16</sup>And the man said to Eli, I am he who came out of the army, and I fled today out of the army. And he said, What is done there, my son? <sup>17</sup>And the messenger answered and said, Israel has fled before the Philistines, and there has been a great slaughter among the people also. And also your two sons, Hophni and Phinehas, are dead, and the ark of God is taken. <sup>18</sup>And it happened when he spoke of the ark of God, he fell backward off the seat, by the side of the gate. And his neck broke, and he died, for he was an old man, and heavy. And he had judged Israel forty years.

<sup>19</sup>And his daughter-in-law, Phinehas' wife, was with child, ready to be delivered. And when she heard the tidings that the ark of God was taken, and that her father-in-law and her husband were dead, she bowed herself and travailed, for her pains came upon her. <sup>20</sup>And about the time of her death the women that stood by her said to her, Do not fear, for you have borne a son. But she did not answer, nor set her heart. <sup>21</sup>And she named the child Ichabod, saying, The glory has departed from Israel, because the ark of God had been taken, and because of her father-in-law and her husband. <sup>22</sup>And she said, The glory is departed from Israel, for the ark of God is taken.

CHAPTER 5

<sup>1</sup>And the Philistines took the ark of God, and brought it from Ebenezer to Ashdod. <sup>2</sup>And the Philistines took the ark of God and brought it into the house of Dagon, and set it beside Dagon. <sup>3</sup>And when those of Ashdod arose early on the next day, behold, Dagon had fallen upon his face to the earth before the ark of the LORD. And they took Dagon and set him in his place again. <sup>4</sup>And when they arose early on the next morning, behold, Dagon had fallen on his face to the earth before the ark of the LORD. And the head of Dagon, and both the palms of his hands, were cut off upon the threshold. Only the stump of Dagon was left to him. <sup>5</sup>And neither the priests of Dagon, nor any that come into Dagon's house, tread on the threshold of Dagon in Ashdod to this day.

<sup>6</sup>And the hand of the LORD was heavy on the people of Ashdod, and He destroyed them and struck them with hemorrhoids, Ashdod and its borders. <sup>7</sup>And the men of Ashdod saw that it was so. And they said, The ark of the God of Israel shall not stay with us. For His hand is sore upon us and upon Dagon our god. <sup>8</sup>And they sent and gathered all the lords of the Philistines to them. And they said, What shall we do with the ark of the God of Israel? And they answered, Let the ark of the God of Israel be carried around to Gath. And they carried the ark of the God of Israel around. <sup>9</sup>And it happened after they had carried it around, the hand of the LORD was against the city with a very great destruction. And He struck the men of the city, both small and great, and they had hemorrhoids in their secret parts. <sup>10</sup>And it happened that they sent the ark of God to Ekron. And as the ark of God came to Ekron, the Ekronites cried out, saying, They have brought around the ark of the God of Israel to us in order to kill us and our people. <sup>11</sup>And they sent and gathered all the lords of the Philistines, and said, Send away the ark of the God of Israel, and let it go again to its own place, so that it does not kill us and our people. For there was a deadly destruction throughout all the city. The hand of God was very heavy there. <sup>12</sup>And the men that did not die were stricken with the hemorrhoids. And the cry of the city went up to the heavens.

CHAPTER 6

<sup>1</sup>And the ark of the LORD was in the field of the Philistines seven months. <sup>2</sup>And the Philistines called for the priests and the diviners, saying, What shall we do to the ark of the LORD? Tell us what we shall send with it to its place. <sup>3</sup>And they said, If you send away the ark of the God of Israel, do not send it empty. For you shall certainly send a guilt offering. Then you shall be healed, and it shall be known to you why His hand is not removed from you. <sup>4</sup>And they said, What shall be the guilt offering which we shall return to Him? And they answered, Five golden hemorrhoids, and five golden mice, for the number of the lords of the Philistines. For one plague was on you all, and on your lords. <sup>5</sup>And you shall make images of your hemorrhoids, and images of your mice which mar the land. And you shall give glory to the God of Israel. Perhaps He will lighten His hand from off you, and from off your gods, and from off your land. <sup>6</sup>And why do you harden your hearts, as the Egyptians and Pharaoh hardened their hearts? When He had worked wonderfully among them, did they not let the people go, and did they not depart? <sup>7</sup>And now make a new cart, and take two milk cows on which there has come no yoke, and tie the cows to the cart, and bring their calves home from them. <sup>8</sup>And take the ark of the LORD and lay it on the cart. And put the jewels of gold which you return to Him for a trespass offering in a box beside it. And send it away so that it may go. <sup>9</sup>And watch. If it goes up by the way of its own border to Beth-shemesh, He has done us this great evil. But if not, then we shall know that it is not His hand that struck us. It was a chance that happened to us.

<sup>10</sup>And the men did so. And they took two milk cows and tied them to the cart, and shut up their calves at home. <sup>11</sup>And they laid the ark of the LORD on the cart, and the box with the mice of gold and the images of their hemorrhoids. <sup>12</sup>And the cows took the straight way to the way of Beth-shemesh, going along the highway, lowing as they went. And they did not turn aside to the right or to the left. And the lords of the Philistines went after them to the border of Beth-shemesh. <sup>13</sup>And the people of Beth-shemesh were reaping their wheat harvest in the valley. And they lifted up their eyes and saw the ark, and rejoiced to see it. <sup>14</sup>And the cart came into the field of Joshua, a Bethshemite, and stood there beside a great stone. And they cut the wood of the cart and offered the cows as a burnt offering to the LORD. <sup>15</sup>And the Levites took down the ark of the LORD and the box in it, in which the jewels of gold were, and put them on the great stone. And the men of Beth-shemesh offered burnt offerings and sacrificed sacrifices the same day to the LORD. <sup>16</sup>And when the five lords of the Philistines had seen, they returned to Ekron on that day.

<sup>17</sup>And these are the golden hemorrhoids which the Philistines returned for a guilt offering to the LORD: for Ashdod, one; for Gaza, one; for Askelon one, for Gath, one; for Ekron, one. <sup>18</sup>And the golden mice were according to the number of all the cities of the Philistines belonging to the five lords, of fenced cities and of country villages, even to the great meadow on which they set down the ark of the LORD to this day, in the field of Joshua the Bethshemite. <sup>19</sup>And He struck the men of Beth-shemesh because they had looked into the ark of the LORD. He even struck seventy among the people, including fifty chief men. And the people lamented because the LORD had struck the people with a great slaughter. <sup>20</sup>And the men of Beth-shemesh said, Who is able to stand before this holy LORD God? And to whom shall He go up from us? <sup>21</sup>And they sent messengers to the people of Kirjath-jearim, saying, The Philistines have brought again the ark of the LORD. Come down and bring it up to yourselves.

CHAPTER 7 .

<sup>1</sup>And the men of Kirjath-jearim came and brought up the ark of the LORD, and brought it into the house of Abinadab in the hill. And they sanctified Eleazar his son to keep the ark of the LORD. <sup>2</sup>And it happened from the day the ark began to dwell in Kirjath-jearim, the days became many; yea, they were twenty years. And all the house of Israel yearned after the LORD. <sup>3</sup>And Samuel spoke to all the house of Israel saying, If you return to the LORD with all your hearts, then put away the strange gods and Ashtaroth from among you, and prepare your hearts to the LORD, and serve Him only. And He will deliver you out of the hand of the Philistines. <sup>4</sup>And the sons of Israel put away the Baals and the Ashtaroth, and served the LORD only.

<sup>5</sup>And Samuel said, Gather all Israel to Mizpeh, and I will pray for you to the LORD. <sup>6</sup>And they were gathered to Mizpeh, and drew water, and poured out before the LORD, and fasted on that day. And they said there, We have sinned against the LORD. And Samuel judged the sons of Israel in Mizpeh. <sup>7</sup>And the Philistines heard that the sons of Israel had come together to Mizpeh. And the lords of the Philistines went up against Israel. And the sons of Israel heard, and they were afraid of the Philistines. <sup>8</sup>And the sons of Israel said to Samuel, Do not cease from crying to the LORD our God for us, so that He will save us out of the hand of the Philistines. <sup>9</sup>And Samuel took a suckling lamb, and offered a whole burnt offering to the LORD. And Samuel cried to the LORD for Israel, and the LORD heard him. <sup>10</sup>And it happened as Samuel was offering up the burnt offering, the Philistines drew near to battle against Israel. But the LORD thundered with a great thunder on that day on the Philistines, and troubled them. And they were beaten before Israel. <sup>11</sup>And the men of Israel went out of Mizpeh, and pursued the Philistines, and struck them as far as below Bethcar.

<sup>12</sup>And Samuel took a stone and set it between Mizpeh and Shen, and called the name of it Ebenezer, saying, The LORD has helped us until now. <sup>13</sup>And the Philistines were beaten, and they did not come any more into the border of Israel. And the hand of the LORD was against the Philistines all the days of Samuel. <sup>14</sup>And the cities which the Philistines had taken from Israel were given back to Israel, from Ekron even to Gath. And Israel delivered its borders out of the hands of the Philistines. And there was peace between Israel and the Amorites.

<sup>15</sup>And Samuel judged Israel all the days of his life. <sup>16</sup>And he went from year to year in a circuit to Bethel and Gilgal and Mizpeh, and judged Israel in all those places. <sup>17</sup>And his return was to Ramah, for his house was there. And he judged Israel there. And he built an altar there to the LORD.

CHAPTER 8

<sup>1</sup>And it happened when Samuel was old, he made his sons judges over Israel. <sup>2</sup>And the name of his first-born was Joel, and the name of his second was Abiah, judges in Beer-sheba. <sup>3</sup>And his sons did not walk in his ways, but turned aside after ill gain and took bribes and perverted judgment. <sup>4</sup>And all the elders of Israel gathered themselves and came to Samuel to Ramah. <sup>5</sup>And they said to him, Behold, you are old, and your sons do not walk in your ways. Now make us a king to judge us like all the nations. <sup>6</sup>But the thing was evil in the eyes of Samuel, when they said, Give us a king to judge us. And Samuel prayed to the LORD. <sup>7</sup>And the LORD said to Samuel, Listen to the voice of the people in all that they say to you. For they have not rejected you, but they have rejected Me, that I should not reign over them. <sup>8</sup>According to all the works which they have done since the day that I brought them up out of Egypt even until this day — works with which they have forsaken Me and served other gods — so they do also to you. <sup>9</sup>And now listen to their voice. Only, you shall surely protest solemnly to them, and show them the kind of king who shall reign over them.

<sup>10</sup>And Samuel told all the words of the LORD to the people who asked a king of him. <sup>11</sup>And he said, This will be the kind of king who shall reign over you. He shall take your sons and appoint them for himself, for his chariots, and his horsemen. And some shall run before his chariots. <sup>12</sup>And he will appoint captains over thousands, and captains over fifties, and some to plow his ground and reap his harvest, and make his weapons of war and things for his chariots. <sup>13</sup>And he will take your daughters to be perfumers and cooks and bakers. <sup>14</sup>And he will take your fields and your vineyards and your olive-yards, the best, and give them to his servants. <sup>15</sup>And he will take the tenth of your seed and of your vineyards, and give it to his officers and to his servants. <sup>16</sup>And he will take your men-servants and your maid-servants, and your finest young men, and your asses, and put them to his work. <sup>17</sup>He will take the tenth of your sheep, and you shall be his servants. <sup>18</sup>And you shall cry out in that day because of your king whom you have chosen, and the LORD will not hear you in that day.

<sup>19</sup>But the people refused to obey the voice of Samuel. And they said, No, but we will have a king over us. <sup>20</sup>And we shall be, also we, like all the nations, so that our king may judge us and go out before us and fight our battles. <sup>21</sup>And Samuel heard all the words of the people, and he repeated them in the ears of the LORD. <sup>22</sup>And the LORD said to Samuel, Listen to their voice, and make them a king. And Samuel said to the men of Israel, Every man go to his city.

CHAPTER 9

<sup>1</sup>And there was a man of Benjamin, and his name was Kish, the son of Abiel, the son of Zeror, the son of Bechorath, the son of Aphiah, a Benjamite, a mighty man of power. <sup>2</sup>And he had a son named Saul, a young and handsome one. And there was not a man among the sons of Israel more handsome than he, being taller than any of the people from his shoulder and upward. <sup>3</sup>And the asses of Kish, Saul's father, were lost. And Kish said to Saul his son, Please take one of the servants with you and rise, and go look for the asses. <sup>4</sup>And he passed through mount Ephraim, and passed through the land of Shalisha, but they did not find them. And they passed through the land of Shallim, and they were not there And he passed through the land of Benjamin, but they did not find them. <sup>5</sup>And they came to the land of Zuph, and Saul said to his servant who was with him, Come and let us return lest my father quit caring for the asses, and be anxious about us. <sup>6</sup>And he said to him, Behold now, in this city is a man of God, and an honorable man. All that he says surely comes to pass. Now let us go there. Perhaps he can show us our way that we should go. <sup>7</sup>Then Saul said to his servant, But behold, if we go, what shall we bring the man? For the bread in our vessels is gone, and there is no present to bring to the man of God. What do we have? <sup>8</sup>And the servant answered Saul again, and said, Behold, I have here at hand the fourth part of a shekel of silver. I will give it to the man of God to tell us our way. <sup>9</sup>(In the old days in Israel, when a man went to inquire of God, he spoke in this way: Come, let us go to the seer, for a prophet was in the old days called a seer.) <sup>10</sup>And Saul said to his servant, Your word is good. Come, let us go. So they went into the city where the man of God was.

<sup>11</sup>As they went up the hill to the city, they found young women going out to draw water. And they said to them, Is the seer here? <sup>12</sup>And they answered them and said, He is. Behold, he is before you. Hurry now, for he came today to the city, for there is a feast of the people today in the high place. <sup>13</sup>As soon as you have come to the city, you shall immediately find him before he goes up to the high place to eat. For the people will not eat until he comes, because he blesses the feast. Afterwards those who have been invited eat. And now go up, for about this time you shall find him. <sup>14</sup>And they went up into the city. When they had come into the city, behold, Samuel came out across from them to go up to the high place. <sup>15</sup>And the LORD had told Samuel in his ear a day before Saul came, saying, <sup>16</sup>Tomorrow about this time I will send you a man out of the land of Benjamin. And you shall anoint him to be captain over My people Israel, so that he may save My people out of the hand of the Philistines. For I have looked on My people because their cry has come to Me. <sup>17</sup>And when Samuel saw Saul, the LORD said to him, Behold the man whom I spoke to you of! This one shall reign over My people.

<sup>18</sup>And Saul drew near to Samuel in the gate and said, Please tell me where the seer's house is. <sup>19</sup>And Samuel answered Saul and said, I am the seer. Go up before me to the high place. For you shall eat with me today, and tomorrow I will let you go, and will tell you all that is in your heart. <sup>20</sup>And as to the asses which were lost to you three days ago, do not set your mind on them. For they are found. And on whom is all the desire of Israel? Is it not on you and on all your father's house? <sup>21</sup>And Saul answered and said, Am I not a Benjamite, of the smallest of all the tribes of Israel? And is not my family the least of all the families of the tribe of Benjamin? Why then do you speak so to me? <sup>22</sup>And Samuel took Saul and his servant, and brought them into the parlor, and made them sit in the chief place among those who had been invited, about thirty persons. <sup>23</sup>And Samuel said to the cook, Bring that part which I gave you, of which I said to you, Set it beside you. <sup>24</sup>And the cook took up the shoulder and that on it, and set it before Saul. And Samuel said, Behold that which is reserved! Set it before you and eat. For until this time it has been kept for you, since I said, I have invited the people. And Saul ate with Samuel that day. <sup>25</sup>And they came down from the high place into the city, and he spoke with Saul on the top of the house.

<sup>26</sup>And they arose early. And it happened about the spring of the day that Samuel called Saul to the top of the house, saying, Up, so that I may send you away. And Saul arose, and both of them went out, he and Samuel outside. <sup>27</sup>They were going down to the end of the city, and Samuel said to Saul, Tell the servant to pass on before us and cross over. And you stand still awhile, so that I may show you the word of God.

CHAPTER 10

<sup>1</sup>And Samuel took a vial of oil and poured on his head, and kissed him, and said, Is it not because the LORD has anointed you for a leader over His inheritance? <sup>2</sup>When you have departed from me today, then you shall find two men by Rachel's tomb in the border of Benjamin at Zelzah. And they will say to you, The asses which you went to seek are found. And, lo, your father has quit caring for the asses and sorrows for you, saying, What shall I do for my son? <sup>3</sup>And you shall go forward from there, and you shall come to the great tree of Tabor. And there you shall meet three men going up to God to Bethel, one carrying three kids, and another carrying three loaves of bread, and another carrying a bottle of wine. <sup>4</sup>And they will greet you and give you two loaves of bread, which you shall take from their hands. <sup>5</sup>After that you shall come to the hill of God, where the garrison of the Philistines is. And it will happen to you when you come there to the city, even you shall meet a company of prophets coming down from the high place with a harp and a tabret and a pipe and a lyre before them. And they shall prophesy. <sup>6</sup>And the spirit of the LORD will come on you, and you shall prophesy with them, and shall be turned into another man.

<sup>7</sup>And it will be when these signs have come to you, you will do for yourself what your hand finds; for God is with you. <sup>8</sup>And you shall go down before me to Gilgal. And, behold, I will come down to you to offer burnt offerings and to sacrifice peace offerings. You shall stay seven days until I come to you and make known to you what you shall do. <sup>9</sup>And it happened when he had turned his back to go from Samuel, God gave him another heart. And all those signs came to pass that day. <sup>10</sup>And when they came there to the hill, behold, a company of prophets met him. And the Spirit of God came on him, and he prophesied among them. <sup>11</sup>And it happened when all who knew him before saw him, behold, he prophesied among the prophets. And the people said to one another, What is this that has happened to the son of Kish? Is Saul also among the prophets? <sup>12</sup>And a man from there answered and said, And who is their father? Therefore it became a proverb, Is Saul also among the prophets? <sup>13</sup>And he finished from prophesying, and he came to the high place.

<sup>14</sup>And Saul's uncle said to him and to his servant, Where did you go? And he said, To look for the asses. And when we saw that they were nowhere to be found, we came to Samuel. <sup>15</sup>And Saul's uncle said, Please tell me, what Samuel said to you. <sup>16</sup>And Saul said to his uncle, He told us plainly that the asses were found. But he did not tell him of the matter of the kingdom of which Samuel spoke. <sup>17</sup>And Samuel called the people together to the LORD to Mizpeh. <sup>18</sup>And he said to the sons of Israel, So says the LORD God of Israel, I brought up Israel out of Egypt, and delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all kingdoms, of those who oppressed you. <sup>19</sup>And you have this day rejected your God, who Himself saved you out of all your adversities and your tribulations. And you have said to Him, you shall set a king over us. And now present yourselves before the LORD by your tribes and by your thousands. <sup>20</sup>And when Samuel had caused all the tribes of Israel to come near, the tribe of Benjamin was taken. <sup>21</sup>When he had caused the tribe of Benjamin to come near by their families, the family of Matri was taken, and Saul the son of Kish was taken. And when they looked for him, he could not be found. <sup>22</sup>And they inquired of the LORD further, Has the man yet come here? And the LORD answered, Behold, he is hiding himself among the baggage. <sup>23</sup>And they ran and brought him from there. And when he stood among the people, he was higher than any of the people from the shoulders and upward. <sup>24</sup>And Samuel said to all the people, Do you see him whom the LORD has chosen, that there is none like him among all the people? And all the people shouted, and said, Let the king live! <sup>25</sup>Then Samuel told the people what kind of kingdom it was to be, and wrote in a book and laid it up before the LORD. And Samuel sent all the people away, every man to his house. <sup>26</sup>And Saul also went home to Gibeah. And a band of men went with him, whose hearts God had touched. <sup>27</sup>But the sons of Belial said, How shall this man save us? And they despised him and brought him no presents. But he was silent.

CHAPTER 11

<sup>1</sup>And Nahash the Ammonite came up and camped against Jabesh-gilead. And all the men of Jabesh said to Nahash, Make a covenant with us, and we will serve you. <sup>2</sup>And Nahash the Ammonite answered them, By this I will make a covenant with you, that I may put out all your right eyes and I will make it a reproach on all Israel. <sup>3</sup>And the elders of Jabesh said to him, Bear with us seven days, so that we may send messengers to all the territory of Israel. And then if there is no man to save us, we will come out to you. <sup>4</sup>Then the messengers came to Gibeah of Saul, and told the news in ears of the people. And all the people lifted up their voices and wept.

<sup>5</sup>And, behold, Saul came after the herd out of the field. And Saul said, What is wrong with the people that they weep? And they told him the news of the men of Jabesh. <sup>6</sup>And the Spirit of God came on Saul when he heard those tidings, and his anger was kindled greatly. <sup>7</sup>And he took a yoke of oxen and cut them in pieces, and sent throughout all the territory of Israel by the hands of messengers, saying, Whoever does not come out after Saul and after Samuel, so shall it be done to his oxen. And the fear of the LORD fell on the people, and they came out with one consent. <sup>8</sup>And when he numbered them in Bezek, the sons of Israel were three hundred thousand, and the men of Judah thirty thousand. <sup>9</sup>And they said to the messengers that came, So shall you say to the men of Jabesh-gilead, Tomorrow by the time the sun is hot, you shall have help. And the messengers came and told the men of Jabesh, and they were glad. <sup>10</sup>And the men of Jabesh said, Tomorrow we will come out to you, and you shall do with us all that seems good to you. <sup>11</sup>And it was so on the next day, Saul put the people in three companies, and they came into the middle of the army at the morning watch. And they killed the Amorites until the heat of the day. And the ones who remained were scattered, so that two of them were not left together.

<sup>12</sup>And the people said to Samuel, Who is he that said, Shall Saul reign over us? Bring the men so that we may put them to death. <sup>13</sup>And Saul said, There shall not a man be put to death this day, for today the LORD has worked salvation in Israel. <sup>14</sup>Then Samuel said to the people, Come and let us go to Gilgal and renew the kingdom there. <sup>15</sup>And all the people went to Gilgal. And there they made Saul king before the LORD in Gilgal, and there they sacrificed sacrifices of peace offerings before the LORD. And there Saul and all the men of Israel rejoiced greatly.

CHAPTER 12

<sup>1</sup>And Samuel said to all Israel, Behold, I have listened to your voice in all that you said to me, and have made a king over you. <sup>2</sup>And now, behold, the king walks before you. And I am old and gray-headed, and, behold, my sons are with you. And I have walked before you from my childhood to this day. <sup>3</sup>Behold, here I am. Witness against me before the LORD and before His anointed. Whose ox have I taken? Or whose ass have I taken? Or whom have I defrauded? Whom have I oppressed? Or from whose hand have I received a bribe, to blind my eyes with it? And I will restore it to you. <sup>4</sup>And they said, You have not defrauded us nor oppressed us, neither have you taken anything from any man's hand. <sup>5</sup>And he said to them, The LORD is witness against you, and His anointed is witness this day, that you have not found anything in my hand. And they answered, He is witness. <sup>6</sup>And Samuel said to the people, It is the LORD who made Moses and Aaron, and who brought your fathers up out of the land of Egypt. <sup>7</sup>And now stand still, so that I may reason with you before the LORD of all the righteous acts of the LORD which He did to you and to your fathers. <sup>8</sup>When Jacob had come into Egypt, and your fathers cried to the LORD, then the LORD sent Moses and Aaron, who brought your fathers out of Egypt and made them live in this place. <sup>9</sup>And they forgot the LORD their God. And He sold them into the hand of Sisera, captain of the army of Hazor, and into the hand of the Philistines, and into the hand of the king of Moab, and they fought against them. <sup>10</sup>And they cried to the LORD, and said, We have sinned because we have forsaken the LORD, and have served the Baals and Ashtaroth. But now deliver us out of the hand of our enemies, and we will serve You. <sup>11</sup>And the LORD sent Jerubbaal, and Bedan, and Jephthah, and Samuel, and delivered you out of the hand of your enemies on every side, and you lived safely. <sup>12</sup>And when you saw that Nahash the king of the sons of Ammon came against you, you said to me, No, but a king shall reign over us, even though the LORD your God was your King. <sup>13</sup>And now, behold the king whom you have chosen, whom you have desired! And behold, the LORD has set a king over you! <sup>14</sup>If you will fear the LORD, and serve Him, and listen to His voice, and not rebel against the command of the LORD, then both you and also the king who reigns over you shall continue following the LORD your God. <sup>15</sup>But if you will not listen to the voice of the LORD, but rebel against the command of the LORD, then the hand of the LORD shall be against you as it was against your fathers. <sup>16</sup>Also, now stand and see this great thing which the LORD shall do before your eyes. <sup>17</sup>Is it not wheat harvest today? I will call to the LORD, and He shall send thunder and rain, so that you may perceive and see that your wickedness is great, that which you have done in the sight of the LORD, in asking a king for you.

<sup>18</sup>And Samuel called to the LORD, And the LORD sent thunder and rain that day. And all the people greatly feared the LORD and Samuel. <sup>19</sup>And all the people said to Samuel, Pray for your servants to the LORD your God, so that we will not die. For we have added evil to all our sins, to ask a king for us. <sup>20</sup>And Samuel said to the people, Do not fear. You have done all this wickedness. Yet do not turn aside from following the LORD, but serve the LORD with all your heart. <sup>21</sup>And do not turn aside after vanities, which cannot profit nor deliver. For they are vain. <sup>22</sup>For the LORD will not forsake His people for His great name's sake, because it has pleased the LORD to make you His people. <sup>23</sup>Also, I, far be it from me that I should sin against the LORD in ceasing to pray for you. But I will teach you the good and the right way. <sup>24</sup>Only fear the LORD, and serve Him in truth with all your heart. For consider what great things He has done for you. <sup>25</sup>But if you shall still do wickedly, you shall be consumed, both you and your king.

CHAPTER 13

<sup>1</sup>Saul reigned one year, and when he had reigned two more years over Israel, <sup>2</sup>then Saul chose for himself three thousand from Israel. Two thousand of these were with Saul in Michmash and in mount Bethel, and a thousand were with Jonathan in Gibeah of Benjamin. And of the rest of the people he sent each man to his tent. <sup>3</sup>And Jonathan struck the company of the Philistines in Geba, and the Philistines heard. And Saul blew the trumpet throughout all the land, saying, Let the Hebrews hear. <sup>4</sup>And all Israel heard, saying, Saul has struck a garrison of the Philistines, and also Israel has made himself stink to the Philistines. And the people were called together to Gilgal after Saul. <sup>5</sup>And the Philistines gathered themselves to fight with Israel, thirty thousand chariots, and six thousand horsemen, and people like the sand on the seashore in multitude. And they came up and pitched in Michmash, eastward from Beth-aven. <sup>6</sup>And the men of Israel saw that they were in a tight place (for the people were distressed). And the people hid themselves in caves, and in thickets, and in rocks, and in high places, and in pits. <sup>7</sup>And the Hebrews went over Jordan to the land of Gad and Gilead. And Saul was still in Gilgal, and all the people followed him, trembling.

<sup>8</sup>And he waited seven days, according to the set time with Samuel. But Samuel did not come to Gilgal. And the people were scattered from him. <sup>9</sup>And Saul said, Bring a burnt offering here to me, and peace offerings. And he offered the burnt offering. <sup>10</sup>And it happened as soon as he had made an end of offering the burnt offering, behold, Samuel came. And Saul went out to meet him so that he might greet him. <sup>11</sup>And Samuel said, What have you done? And Saul said, Because I saw that the people were scattered from me, and you did not come in the days appointed, and the Philistines gathered themselves at Michmash, <sup>12</sup>and I said, The Philistines will come down now on me to Gilgal, and I have not made supplication to the LORD. And I forced myself and offered a burnt offering. <sup>13</sup>And Samuel said to Saul, You have done foolishly. You have not kept the commandment of the LORD your God, which He commanded you. For now the LORD would have established your kingdom on Israel forever. <sup>14</sup>But now your kingdom shall not go on. The LORD has sought Him a man after His own heart, and the LORD has commanded him to be captain over His people, because you have not kept what the LORD commanded you.

<sup>15</sup>And Samuel arose and went up from Gilgal to Gibeah of Benjamin. And Saul numbered the people present with him, about six hundred men. <sup>16</sup>And Saul, and his son Jonathan, and the people present with them, stayed in Gibeah of Benjamin. But the Philistines camped in Michmash. <sup>17</sup>And the spoilers came out of the camp of the Philistines in three companies. One company turned to the way to Ophrah, to the land of Shual. <sup>18</sup>And another company turned the way to Beth-horon. And one company turned the way of the border that looks toward the valley of Zebouim toward the wilderness. <sup>19</sup>And there was no smith found throughout all the land of Israel. For the Philistines said, Lest the Hebrews make swords or spears. <sup>20</sup>But all the Israelites went down to the Philistines, each man to sharpen his plowshare, and his mattock, and his axe, and his coulter. <sup>21</sup>And there was the charge of a pim for the plowshares, and for the mattocks, and for the three-pronged forks, and for the axes, and to sharpen the goads. <sup>22</sup>And it happened in the day of battle there was neither sword nor spear found in the hand of any of the people with Saul and Jonathan. But with Saul and with his son Jonathan there was found sword and spear. <sup>23</sup>And the garrison of the Philistines went out to the passage of Michmash.

CHAPTER 14

<sup>1</sup>And the day came that Jonathan the son of Saul said to the young man who bore his armor, Come and let us go over to the Philistines' garrison which is on the other side. But he did not tell his father. <sup>2</sup>And Saul stayed in the edge of Gibeah under the pomegranate tree in Migron. And the people who were with him were about six hundred men. <sup>3</sup>And Ahiah, the son of Abitub, Ichabod's brother, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eli, the LORD's priest in Shiloh, was wearing an ephod. And the people did not know that Jonathan was gone. <sup>4</sup>And between the passages by which Jonathan sought to go over to the Philistines' garrison there was a rocky crag on the one side and a rocky crag on the other side. And the name of the one was Bozez, and the name of the other Seneh. <sup>5</sup>The one crag was on the north in front of Michmash, and the other southward in front of Gibeah. <sup>6</sup>And Jonathan said to the young man who bore his armor, Come, and let us go over to the garrison of these uncircumcised. It may be that the LORD will work for us. For there is no restraint to the LORD, to save by many or by few. <sup>7</sup>And his armor-bearer said to him, Do all that is in your heart. Turn, for behold, I am with you according to your heart. <sup>8</sup>And Jonathan said, Behold, we will go over to these men, and we will show ourselves to them. <sup>9</sup>If they say this to us, Stand still until we come to you, then we will stand still in our place and will not go up to them. <sup>10</sup>But if they say this, Come up to us, then we will go up, for the LORD has delivered them up into our hand. And this shall be a sign to us.

<sup>11</sup>And both of them showed themselves to the garrison of the Philistines. And the Philistines said, Behold, the Hebrews come out of the holes where they have hidden themselves. <sup>12</sup>And the men of the garrison answered Jonathan and his armor-bearer and said, Come up to us, and we will show you a thing. And Jonathan said to his armor-bearer, Come up after me, for the LORD has delivered them into the hand of Israel. <sup>13</sup>And Jonathan climbed up on his hands and feet, and his armor-bearer after him. And they fell before Jonathan, and his armor-bearer killed after him. <sup>14</sup>And this was the first blow, when Jonathan and his armor-bearer struck about twenty men in about half of a furrow of an acre of a field. <sup>15</sup>And there was trembling in the army, in the field, and among all the people. The garrison and the spoilers also trembled, and the earth quaked, and it was a very great trembling. <sup>16</sup>And the watchmen of Saul in Gibeah of Benjamin looked, and behold, the multitude had melted away, and they went on beating down. <sup>17</sup>And Saul said to the people with him, Number now and see who is gone from us. And when they had counted, behold, Jonathan and his armor-bearer were not there. <sup>18</sup>And Saul said to Ahiah, Bring the ark of God here. For the ark of God was at that time with the sons of Israel. <sup>19</sup>And it happened, while Saul talked to the priest, the noise in the army of the Philistines went on and grew greater. And Saul said to the priest, Withdraw your hand. <sup>20</sup>And Saul and all the people with him gathered, and they went to the battle. And, behold, every man's sword was against his fellow, a very great panic. <sup>21</sup>And the Hebrews that were with the Philistines before, who had gone up with them into the camp all around, even they also turned to be with the Israelites who were with Saul and Jonathan. <sup>22</sup>And all the men of Israel who had hidden themselves in mount Ephraim heard that the Philistines had fled, even they also followed them in the battle. <sup>23</sup>And the LORD saved Israel that day, and the battle passed over to Beth-aven.

<sup>24</sup>And the men of Israel were distressed on that day. For Saul had commanded the people, saying, Cursed is the man that eats food until evening, so that I may be avenged on my enemies. So none of the people tasted any food. <sup>25</sup>And all the men of the land came to a woods, and there was honey on the ground. <sup>26</sup>And when the people had come into the woods, behold, the honey dropped. But no man put his hand to his mouth, for the people feared the oath. <sup>27</sup>But Jonathan did not hear when his father commanded the people with the oath. And he put forth the end of the rod in his hand and dipped it in a honeycomb, and put his hand to his mouth. And his eyes were lightened. <sup>28</sup>And one from the people answered and said, Your father strictly charged the people with an oath, saying, Cursed is the man who eats food this day. And the people were weary. <sup>29</sup>Then Jonathan said, My father has troubled the land. Please see how my eyes have been lightened because I tasted a little of this honey. <sup>30</sup>How much more if the people had happened to eat freely today of the spoil of their enemies which they found? For would not there have been a much greater slaughter among the Philistines? <sup>31</sup>And they struck the Philistines that day from Michmash to Aijalon, and the people were very faint. <sup>32</sup>And the people flew on the spoil, and took sheep and oxen and calves, and killed them on the ground. And the people ate with the blood.

<sup>33</sup>And they told Saul, saying, Behold, the people sin against the LORD in that they eat with the blood. And he said, You have transgressed. Roll a great stone to me today. <sup>34</sup>And Saul said, Disperse yourselves among the people and say to them, Let each man bring his ox here, and each man his sheep, and kill them here, and eat. And do not sin against the LORD in eating with the blood. And each man of all the people brought his ox in his hand that night, and killed them there. <sup>35</sup>And Saul built an altar to the LORD. The same was the first altar that he built to the LORD.

<sup>36</sup>And Saul said, Let us go down after the Philistines by night and spoil them until the morning light, and let us not leave a man of them. And they said, Do whatever seems good to you. Then the priest said, Let us draw near here to God. <sup>37</sup>And Saul asked counsel of God: Shall I go down after the Philistines? Will you deliver them into the hand of Israel? But He answered him not that day. <sup>38</sup>And Saul said, Draw near here, all the chief of the people, and know and see what this sin has been today. <sup>39</sup>For, as the LORD lives, He who saves Israel, though it is in Jonathan my son, he shall surely die. But there was not a man among all the people answered. <sup>40</sup>Then he said to all Israel, You be on one side, and Jonathan my son and I will be on the other side. And the people said to Saul, Do what seems good to you. <sup>41</sup>And Saul said to the LORD God of Israel, Give a perfect lot. And Saul and Jonathan were taken, but the people escaped. <sup>42</sup>And Saul said, Cast lots between me and my son Jonathan. And Jonathan was taken. <sup>43</sup>Then Saul said to Jonathan, Tell me what you have done. And Jonathan told him and said, I did but taste a little honey with the end of the rod in my hand, and, lo, here I am, I must die. <sup>44</sup>And Saul answered, God do so and more also, for you shall surely die, Jonathan. <sup>45</sup>And the people said to Saul, Shall Jonathan die, who has worked out this great salvation in Israel? Far be it! As the LORD lives, not one hair of his head shall fall to the ground, for he has worked with God this day. So the people rescued Jonathan, so that he did not die. <sup>46</sup>Then Saul went up from following the Philistines. And the Philistines went to their own place.

<sup>47</sup>And Saul took the kingdom over Israel and fought against all his enemies on every side, with Moab, and with the sons of Ammon, and with Edom, and with the kings of Zobah, and with the Philistines. And wherever he turned himself, he troubled them. <sup>48</sup>And he gathered an army and struck the Amalekites, and delivered Israel out of the hands of those who spoiled them. <sup>49</sup>And the sons of Saul were Jonathan, and Ishui, and Melchishua. And the names of his two daughters: His first-born's name was Merab, and the name of the younger, Michal. <sup>50</sup>And the name of Saul's wife was Ahinoam, the daughter of Ahimaaz. And the name of the captain of his army was Abner, the son of Ner, Saul's uncle. <sup>51</sup>And Kish was the father of Saul. And Ner the father of Abner was the son of Abiel.

<sup>52</sup>And the war was heavy against the Philistines all the days of Saul. And when Saul saw any strong man, or any brave man, he took him to himself.

CHAPTER 15

<sup>1</sup>And Samuel said to Saul, The LORD sent me to anoint you to be king over His people, over Israel. And now listen to the voice of the words of the LORD. <sup>2</sup>So says the LORD of hosts, I will visit Amalek with what he did to Israel, how he set against him in the way when he came up from Egypt. <sup>3</sup>Now go and strike Amalek, and completely destroy all that they have, and do not spare them. But kill both man and woman, infant and suckling, ox and sheep, camel and ass. <sup>4</sup>And Saul gathered the people together and numbered them in Telaim, two hundred thousand footmen and ten thousand men of Judah. <sup>5</sup>And Saul came to a city of Amalek and lay in wait in the valley. <sup>6</sup>And Saul said to the Kenites, Go! Depart! Get down from among the Amalekites, lest I destroy you with them. For you showed kindness to all the sons of Israel when they came up out of Egypt. So the Kenites departed from among the Amalekites. <sup>7</sup>And Saul struck the Amalekites from Havilah, as you come to Shur, which is over across from Egypt. <sup>8</sup>And he took Agag the king of the Amalekites alive. And he completely destroyed all the people with the edge of the sword. <sup>9</sup>But Saul and the people spared Agag and the best of the sheep and of the oxen and of the fatlings and the lambs, and all that was good, and would not completely destroy them. But everything that was vile and feeble they completely destroyed.

<sup>10</sup>And the word of the LORD came to Samuel saying, <sup>11</sup>It repents Me that I have set up Saul to be king. For he has turned back from following Me and has not done My commands. And it grieved Samuel, and he cried out to the Lord all night. <sup>12</sup>And when Samuel rose up early in the morning to meet Saul, it was told to Samuel, saying, Saul came to Carmel, and behold, he set up a place for himself, and has gone around and passed on and gone down to Gilgal. <sup>13</sup>And Samuel came to Saul. And Saul said to him, You are blessed of the LORD. I have done the command of the LORD. <sup>14</sup>And Samuel said, What then is this bleating of the flock in my ears? And what is the sound of the herd which I hear? <sup>15</sup>And Saul said, They have brought them from the Amalekites. For the people spared the best of the sheep and of the oxen to sacrifice to the LORD your God. And the rest we have completely destroyed. <sup>16</sup>And Samuel said to Saul, Stop! And I will tell you what the LORD has said to me tonight. And he said to him, Say on. <sup>17</sup>And Samuel said, When you were little in your own sight you became the head of the tribes of Israel. And the LORD anointed you king over Israel. <sup>18</sup>And the LORD sent you on the way and said, Go and completely destroy the sinners, Amalek, and fight against them until you destroy them. <sup>19</sup>Why then did you not obey the voice of the LORD? Why did you fly on the spoil and do evil in the sight of the LORD? <sup>20</sup>And Saul said to Samuel, Yes, I have obeyed the voice of the LORD, and have gone the way which the LORD sent me, and have brought Agag the king of Amalek, and have completely destroyed the Amalekites. <sup>21</sup>But the people took sheep and oxen from the spoil, the best of the things which should have been completely destroyed, to sacrifice to the LORD your God in Gilgal. <sup>22</sup>And Samuel said, Does the LORD delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices as in obeying the voice of the LORD? Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice! To listen is better than the fat of rams! <sup>23</sup>For rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft, and stubbornness is as iniquity and idol-worship. Because you have rejected the word of the LORD, He has also rejected you from being king! <sup>24</sup>And Saul said to Samuel, I have sinned. For I have disobeyed the command of the LORD, and your words, because I feared the people and obeyed their voice. <sup>25</sup>And now please pardon my sin and turn again with me so that I may worship the LORD. <sup>26</sup>And Samuel said to Saul, I will not return with you, for you have rejected the word of the LORD, and the LORD has rejected you from being king over Israel.

<sup>27</sup>And Samuel turned around to go, and he laid hold on the skirt of his mantle, and it tore. <sup>28</sup>And Samuel said to him, The LORD has torn the kingdom of Israel from you this day, and has given it to a neighbor of yours who is better than you. <sup>29</sup>And also the Strength of Israel will not lie nor repent, for He is not a man that He should repent. <sup>30</sup>Then he said, I have sinned. Please honor me now before the elders of my people and before Israel, and turn again with me. And I shall worship the LORD your God. <sup>31</sup>And Samuel turned again after Saul, and Saul worshiped the LORD. <sup>32</sup>And Samuel said, Bring here to me Agag the king of the Amalekites. And Agag came to him daintily. And Agag said, Surely the bitterness of death is past. <sup>33</sup>And Samuel said, As your sword has made women childless, so shall your mother be childless among women. And Samuel cut Agag in pieces before the LORD in Gilgal. <sup>34</sup>And Samuel went to Ramah. And Saul went up to his house to Gibeah of Saul. <sup>35</sup>And Samuel never again saw Saul until the day of his death, for Samuel mourned for Saul. And the LORD repented that he had made Saul king over Israel.

CHAPTER 16

<sup>1</sup>And the LORD said to Samuel, How long will you mourn for Saul, since I have rejected him from reigning over Israel? Fill your horn with oil and go. I will send you to Jesse of Bethlehem. For I have seen a king for Me among his sons. <sup>2</sup>And Samuel said, How can I go? If Saul hears, he will kill me. And the LORD said, Take a heifer with you and say, I have come to sacrifice to the LORD. <sup>3</sup>And call Jesse to the sacrifice, and I will show you what you shall do. And you shall anoint for Me whomever I name to you. <sup>4</sup>And Samuel did what the LORD said, and came to Bethlehem. And the elders of the town trembled at his coming and said, Do you come peaceably? <sup>5</sup>And he said, Peaceably. I have come to sacrifice to the LORD. Sanctify yourselves and come with me to the sacrifice. And he sanctified Jesse and his sons, and called them to the sacrifice.

<sup>6</sup>And it happened as they came in, he saw Eliab and said, Surely the LORD's anointed is before Him. <sup>7</sup>But the LORD said to Samuel, Do not look on his face, nor on his height, because I have refused him. For He does not see as man sees. For man looks on the outward appearance, but the LORD looks on the heart. <sup>8</sup>And Jesse called Abinadab, and he passed him before Samuel, but he said, Also the LORD has not chosen this one.<sup>9</sup> And Jesse passed Shammah by, but he said, Also the LORD has not chosen this one.<sup>10</sup> And Jesse passed seven of his sons before Samuel, but Samuel said to Jesse, The LORD has not chosen these.<sup>11</sup> And Samuel said to Jesse, Are all the young men here? And he said, There remains yet the youngest, and behold, he keeps the sheep. And Samuel said to Jesse, Send and bring him, for we will not sit down until he comes here.<sup>12</sup> And he sent and brought him in. And he was ruddy, with beautiful eyes and good form. And the LORD said, Arise, anoint him. For this is he.<sup>13</sup> And Samuel took the horn of oil and anointed him in the midst of his brothers. And the spirit of the LORD came on David from that day forward. And Samuel rose up and went to Ramah.

<sup>14</sup>But the spirit of the LORD departed from Saul, and an evil spirit from the LORD terrified him.<sup>15</sup> And Saul's servants said to him, Behold now, an evil spirit from God terrifies you.<sup>16</sup> Let our lord now command his servants before you to seek out a man who is a skillful player on a harp. And when the evil spirit from God is on you, it shall be that he shall play with his hand, and it shall be with you.<sup>17</sup> And Saul said to his servants, Now look for me a man who can play well, and bring him to me.<sup>18</sup> And one of the servants answered and said, Behold, I have seen a son of Jesse the Bethlehemite who is skillful in playing, and a mighty warrior and a man of battle, and prudent in speech. And he is a person of good form, and the LORD is with him.<sup>19</sup> And Saul sent messengers to Jesse and said, Send me your son David, who is with the sheep.<sup>20</sup> And Jesse took an ass loaded with bread and a bottle of wine and a kid, and sent them by David his son to Saul.<sup>21</sup> And David came to Saul and stood before him. And he loved him greatly, and he became his armor-bearer.<sup>22</sup> And Saul sent to Jesse saying, Please let David stand before me, for he has found favor in my sight.<sup>23</sup> And it happened when the spirit from God was on Saul, that David took a harp and played with his hand. And there was relief for Saul, and it was well with him, and the evil spirit departed from him.

CHAPTER 17

<sup>1</sup>And the Philistines gathered their armies together, and had gathered at Socoh of Judah, and pitched between Socoh and Azekah, in Ephes-dammim.<sup>2</sup> And Saul and the men of Israel had gathered and pitched by the valley of Elah, and set the battle in order against the Philistines.<sup>3</sup> And the Philistines stood on a mountain on the one side, and Israel stood on a mountain on the other side. And there was a valley between them.

<sup>4</sup>And a champion named Goliath came out of the Philistines camp; he was from Gath. His height was six cubits and a span.<sup>5</sup> And a bronze helmet was on his head, and he was armed with a scaled armor. And the weight of the coat was five thousand shekels of bronze.<sup>6</sup> And he had greaves of bronze on his legs, and a bronze buckler of bronze between his shoulders.<sup>7</sup> And the staff of his spear was like a weaver's beam. And his spear's head weighed six hundred shekels of iron. And one went in front of him, carrying a shield.<sup>8</sup> And he stood and cried to the armies of Israel, and said to them, Why have you come out to set your battle in order? Am I not a Philistine, and are you not servants to Saul? Choose a man for you, and let him come down to me.<sup>9</sup> If he is able to fight with me and kill me, then we will be your servants. But if I prevail against him and kill him, then you shall be our servants and serve us.<sup>10</sup> And the Philistine said, I defy the armies of Israel this day. Give me a man, and we will fight together.<sup>11</sup> And Saul and all Israel heard those words of the Philistine, they were dismayed and greatly afraid.

<sup>12</sup>And David was the son of that Ephrathite of Bethlehem-judah whose name was Jesse. And Jesse had eight sons. And the man was an old man in the days of Saul.<sup>13</sup> And the three oldest sons of Jesse went out, and followed Saul to the battle. And the names of his three sons that went to the battle were Eliab the first-born; and his second, Abinadab; and the third Shammah.<sup>14</sup> And David was the youngest. And the three oldest followed Saul.<sup>15</sup> And David went and returned from Saul to feed his father's sheep at Bethlehem.

<sup>16</sup>And the Philistine drew near morning and evening, and presented himself forty days.

<sup>17</sup>And Jesse said to his son David, Please take for your brothers an ephah of this parched grain, and these ten loaves, and run to the camp to your brothers.

<sup>18</sup>And carry these ten cuttings of cheeses to the captain of their thousand, and see how your brothers are faring, and take their pledge.<sup>19</sup> And Saul, and they, and all the men of Israel, were in the valley of Elah fighting with the Philistines.<sup>20</sup> And David rose up early in the morning and left the sheep with a keeper, and got up and went as Jesse had commanded him. And he came to the barricade, and to the army which was going out to fight, and shouted for the battle.<sup>21</sup> For Israel and the Philistines had put the battle in order, rank to rank.<sup>22</sup> And David left his baggage in the hand of the keeper of the baggage and ran into the army, and came and greeted his brothers.<sup>23</sup> And he was speaking with them. And, behold, the champion man, named Goliath of Gath, came up out of the ranks of the Philistines, and spoke according to these words. And David heard.

<sup>24</sup>And all the men of Israel, when they saw the man, they ran from him and were very much afraid.<sup>25</sup> And the men of Israel said, Have you seen this man that has come up? Surely he has come up to defy Israel. And it shall be, the king will enrich the man who kills him with great riches, and will give him his daughter, and make his father's house free in Israel.<sup>26</sup> And David spoke to the men who stood by him, saying, What shall be done to the man who kills this Philistine and takes away this shame from Israel? For who is this uncircumcised Philistine that he should defy the armies of the living God? <sup>27</sup>And the people answered him in this way, saying, So shall it be done to the man who kills him.<sup>28</sup> And his oldest brother Eliab heard when he spoke to the men. And Eliab's anger was kindled against David. And he said, Why have you come down? And with whom have you left those few sheep in the wilderness? I know your pride and the naughtiness of your heart. For you have come down so that you might see the battle.<sup>29</sup> And David said, What have I done now? Was it not but a word? <sup>30</sup>And he turned from him toward another, and spoke in the same way. And the people answered him again in the same way.

<sup>31</sup>And the words which David spoke were heard. And they were told before Saul. And he sent for him.<sup>32</sup> And David said to Saul, Let no man's heart fail because of him. Your servant will go and fight with this Philistine.<sup>33</sup> And Saul said to David, You are not able to go against this Philistine to fight with him. For you are but a youth, and he is a man of war from his youth.<sup>34</sup> And David said to Saul, Your servant kept his father's sheep, and there came a lion and a bear, and took a lamb out of the flock.<sup>35</sup> And I went out after it and struck it, and delivered the lamb out of its mouth. And when it rose against me, I caught it by the beard, and struck it and killed it.<sup>36</sup> Your servant killed both the lion and the bear. And this uncircumcised Philistine shall be like one of them, since he has defied the armies of the living God.<sup>37</sup> And David said, The LORD who has delivered me out of the paw of the lion and out of the paw of the bear, He will deliver me out of the hand of this Philistine. And Saul said to David, Go, and may the LORD be with you.<sup>38</sup> And Saul armed David with his armor, and he put a helmet of bronze on his head. He also armed him with scaled armor.<sup>39</sup> And David girded his sword on his armor, and he tried to go. But he had not tested it. And David said to Saul, I cannot go with these, for I have not tested them. And David put them off him.

<sup>40</sup>And he took his staff in his hand, and chose five smooth stones out of the brook for himself, and put them in a shepherd's vessel which he had, even in a bag. And his sling was in his hand. And he drew near the Philistine. <sup>41</sup>And the Philistine came on and drew near David. And the man who bore the shield was before him. <sup>42</sup>And the Philistine looked and saw David, and disdained him. For he was only a youth, and ruddy, with a handsome appearance. <sup>43</sup>And the Philistine said to David, Am I a dog that you come to me with sticks? And the Philistine cursed David by his gods. <sup>44</sup>And the Philistine said to David, Come to me, and I will give your flesh to the birds of the air and to the beasts of the field. <sup>45</sup>And David said to the Philistine, You come to me with a sword and with a spear and with a shield. But I come to you in the name of Jehovah of hosts, the God of the armies of Israel, whom you have defied. <sup>46</sup>The LORD will deliver you into my hand today, and I will strike you and take your head from you. And I will give the bodies of the army of the Philistines to the birds of the air today, and to the wild beasts of the earth, so that all the earth may know that there is a God in Israel. <sup>47</sup>And all this multitude shall know that the LORD does not save with sword and spear; for the battle is the LORD'S, and He will give you into our hands.

<sup>48</sup>And it happened when the Philistine rose and went and drew near to meet David, David hurried and ran toward the ranks to meet the Philistine. <sup>49</sup>And David put his hand into his bag and took a stone from there, and threw it with his sling and struck the Philistine in his forehead, so that the stone sank into his forehead. And he fell on his face to the earth. <sup>50</sup>And David was stronger than the Philistine with a sling and with a stone. And he struck the Philistine, and killed him. But no sword was in the hand of David. <sup>51</sup>And David ran and stood on the Philistine, and took out his sword and drew it out of its sheath, and killed him, and cut off his head with it. And the Philistines saw that their champion was dead, and fled. <sup>52</sup>And the men of Israel and Judah pursued the Philistines until you come to the valley, and to the gates of Ekron. And the wounded of the Philistines fell down by the way to Shaaraim, even to Gath and to Ekron. <sup>53</sup>And the sons of Israel returned from chasing after the Philistines, and they spoiled their tents. <sup>54</sup>And David took the head of the Philistine and brought it to Jerusalem. But he put his armor in his tent.

<sup>55</sup>And when Saul saw David go forth against the Philistine, he said to Abner, the captain of the army, Abner, whose son is this young man? And Abner said, As your soul lives, O king, I cannot tell. <sup>56</sup>And the king said, You go ask whose son the young man is. <sup>57</sup>And as David returned from the slaughter of the Philistine, Abner took him and brought him before Saul, with the head of the Philistine in his hand. <sup>58</sup>And Saul said to him, Whose son are you, young man? And David answered, I am the son of your servant Jesse of Bethlehem.

CHAPTER 18

<sup>1</sup>And it happened when he had finished speaking to Saul, the soul of Jonathan was joined with the soul of David, and Jonathan loved him as he did his own soul. <sup>2</sup>And Saul took him that day and would not let him go home to his father's house any more. <sup>3</sup>And Jonathan and David cut a covenant, because he loved him as his own soul. <sup>4</sup>And Jonathan stripped himself of the robe that was on him and gave it to David, and it all his clothing, even to his sword and to his bow and to his girdle. <sup>5</sup>And David went out wherever Saul sent him, behaving himself wisely. And Saul set him over the men of war, and it was good in the sight of all the people, and also in the sight of Saul's servants.

<sup>6</sup>And it happened as they came in, as David returned from the slaughter of the Philistines, as they came the women came out of all cities of Israel, singing and dancing, to meet king Saul with tabrets, with joy, and with instruments of music. <sup>7</sup>And the women answered as they played, and said, Saul has slain his thousands, and David his ten thousands. <sup>8</sup>And Saul was very angry, and this thing was evil in his eyes. And he said, They have given David ten thousands, and to me they have given only thousands. And what more can he have but the kingdom? <sup>9</sup>And Saul eyed David from that day and forward. <sup>10</sup>And it happened on the next day the evil spirit from God came on Saul, and he prophesied in the midst of the house. And David played with his hand, as at other times. And a javelin was in Saul's hand. <sup>11</sup>And Saul threw the javelin. For he said, I will strike David even to the wall. And David drew back out of his presence twice. <sup>12</sup>And Saul was afraid of David, because the LORD was with him and had departed from Saul. <sup>13</sup>And Saul moved him away from himself, and made him his captain over a thousand. And he went out and came in before the people. <sup>14</sup>And David behaved himself wisely in all his ways. And the LORD was with him. <sup>15</sup>And when Saul saw that he behaved himself very wisely, he was afraid of him. <sup>16</sup>But all Israel and Judah loved David, because he went out and came in before them. <sup>17</sup>And Saul said to David, Behold I will give you my older daughter Merab for a wife. Only you must be brave for me, and fight the LORD's battles. For Saul said, Let not my hand be on him, but let the hand of the Philistines be on him. <sup>18</sup>And David said to Saul, Who am I, and what is my life, or my father's family in Israel, that I should be son-in-law to the king? <sup>19</sup>And it happened at the time when Merab, Saul's daughter should have been given to David, she was given to Adriel the Meholathite to be his wife.

<sup>20</sup>And Saul's daughter Michal loved David. And they told Saul, and the thing pleased him. <sup>21</sup>And Saul said, I will give her to him, so that she may be a trap to him, and so that the hand of the Philistines may be against him. And Saul said to David a second time, Today you shall be my son-in-law. <sup>22</sup>And Saul commanded his servants, Talk with David secretly and say, Behold, the king delights in you, and all his servants love you. And now be the king's son-in-law. <sup>23</sup>And Saul's servants spoke these words in the ears of David. And David said, Is it a light thing to be a king's son-in-law, since I am a poor man and of little worth? <sup>24</sup>And the servants of Saul told him saying, This is the way David spoke. <sup>25</sup>And Saul said, You shall say this to David, The king does not desire any dowry except a hundred foreskins of the Philistines, to be avenged of the king's enemies. But Saul thought to make David fall by the hand of the Philistines. <sup>26</sup>And when his servants told David these words, it was right in the eyes of David to be the king's son-in-law. And the days were not fulfilled. <sup>27</sup>And David arose and went forth, he and his men. And they killed two hundred men of the Philistines. And David brought their foreskins, and they gave them in full number to the king so that he might be the king's son-in-law. And Saul gave him his daughter Michal for a wife. <sup>28</sup>And Saul saw and knew that the LORD was with David, and Michal, Saul's daughter, loved him. <sup>29</sup>And Saul was still more afraid of David. And Saul became David's enemy continually.

<sup>30</sup>And the rulers of the Philistines came out. And it happened as often as they came out, David acted more wisely than all the servants of Saul, so that his name was very precious.

CHAPTER 19

<sup>1</sup>And Saul said to his son Jonathan, and to all his servants, to kill David. <sup>2</sup>But Jonathan, Saul's son, loved David very much. And Jonathan told David, saying, My father Saul seeks to kill you. And now please be careful until morning, and stay in a secret place, and hide yourself. <sup>3</sup>And I will go out and stand beside my father in the field where you are, and I will talk about you with my father. And I will tell you what I see. <sup>4</sup>And Jonathan spoke good of David to Saul his father, and said to him, Do not let the king sin against his servant, against David, because he has not sinned against you, and because his works are very good toward you. <sup>5</sup>For he took his life in his hand and killed the Philistine, and the LORD worked out a great salvation for all Israel. You saw and rejoiced! Why then will you sin against innocent blood, to kill David without a cause? <sup>6</sup>And Saul listened to the voice of Jonathan. And Saul swore, As the LORD lives, he shall not be killed! <sup>7</sup>And Jonathan called David, and Jonathan showed him all those things. And Jonathan brought David to Saul, and he was in his presence as in times past. <sup>8</sup>And there was war again. And David went out and fought with the Philistines, and killed them with a great slaughter. And they fled from him. <sup>9</sup>And the evil spirit from the LORD was on Saul as he sat in his house with his javelin in his hand. And David played with his hand. <sup>10</sup>And Saul thought to strike David even to the wall with the javelin. But he slipped away out of Saul's presence, and he struck the javelin into the wall. And David ran and escaped that night.

<sup>11</sup>Saul also sent messengers to David's house to watch him and to kill him in the morning. And David's wife Michal told him saying, If you do not save your life tonight, tomorrow you shall be killed. <sup>12</sup>And Michal let David down through a window. And he left and hurried away, and escaped. <sup>13</sup>And Michal took an image and laid it in the bed, and put a pillow of goats' hair at its head, and covered it with a cloth. <sup>14</sup>And when Saul sent messengers to take David, she said, He is sick. <sup>15</sup>And Saul sent the messengers to see David, saying, Bring him up to me in the bed so that I may kill him. <sup>16</sup>And the messengers came in, and behold, the image was in the bed with a pillow of goats' hair at its head. <sup>17</sup>And Saul said to Michal, Why have you deceived me so, and sent away my enemy so that he has escaped? And Michal answered Saul, He said to me, Let me go; why should I kill you?

<sup>18</sup>And David fled, and escaped, and came to Samuel, to Ramah, and told him all that Saul had done to him. And he and Samuel went and lived in Naioth. <sup>19</sup>And it was told to Saul, saying, Behold, David is at Naioth in Ramah. <sup>20</sup>And Saul sent messengers to take David. And when they saw the company of the prophets prophesying, and Samuel standing as appointed over them, the Spirit of God was on the messengers of Saul, and they also prophesied. <sup>21</sup>And they told Saul, and he sent other messengers, and they also prophesied. And Saul sent messengers the third time, and they prophesied also. <sup>22</sup>And he also went to Ramah, and came to a great well in Sechu. And he asked and said, Where are Samuel and David? And one said, Behold, at Naioth in Ramah. <sup>23</sup>And he went there to Naioth in Ramah. And the Spirit of God was on him also, and going on he went and prophesied, until he came to Naioth in Ramah. <sup>24</sup>And he stripped off his clothes also, and prophesied before Samuel, even he. And he lay down naked all that day and all that night. Because of this they say, Is Saul also among the prophets?

CHAPTER 20

<sup>1</sup>And David fled from Naioth in Ramah, and came and said before Jonathan, What have I done? What is my iniquity, and what my sin before your father, that he seeks my life? <sup>2</sup>And he said to him, Far be it. You shall not die! Behold, my father will do nothing either great or small that he will not show to me. And why should my father hide this thing from me? It is not so. <sup>3</sup>And David again swore and said, Your father certainly knows that I have found grace in your eyes. And he said, Do not let Jonathan know this, lest he be full of sorrow. But truly as the LORD lives, and as your soul lives, only a step is between me and death. <sup>4</sup>And Jonathan said to David, Whatever your soul desires, I will even do for you. <sup>5</sup>And David said to Jonathan, Behold, tomorrow is the new moon, and I should not fail to sit at table with the king. But let me go so that I may hide myself in the field until the third day at evening. <sup>6</sup>If your father misses me at all, then say, David earnestly asked me that he might run to his city Bethlehem. For there is a yearly sacrifice there for all the family. <sup>7</sup>If he says, It is well, your servant shall have peace, but if he is very angry, be sure that evil is determined by him. <sup>8</sup>And you shall deal kindly with your servant, for you have brought your servant into a covenant of the LORD with you. But if there is any iniquity in me, kill me yourself. For why should you bring me to your father? <sup>9</sup>And Jonathan said, Far be it from you. For if I knew certainly that evil was determined by my father to come on you, then would I not tell you? <sup>10</sup>Then David said to Jonathan, Who shall tell me? Or what if your father answers you roughly? <sup>11</sup>And Jonathan said to David, Come, and let us go into the field. And both of them went out into the field. <sup>12</sup>And Jonathan said to David, By the LORD, the God of Israel, when I have sounded out my father about this time tomorrow or the third day, behold, if there is good toward David, then shall I not send to you and show it to you? <sup>13</sup>If it pleases my father to do you evil, then may the LORD do so and much more to Jonathan if I do not show it to you and send you away so that you may go in peace. And may the LORD be with you, as He has been with my father. <sup>14</sup>And you shall not only show me the kindness of the LORD while I still live, so that I do not die, <sup>15</sup>but you shall not cut off your kindness from my house forever, no, not when the LORD has cut off the enemies of David, every one, from the face of the earth. <sup>16</sup>So Jonathan covenanted with the house of David, saying, Let the LORD even require it at the hand of David's enemies. <sup>17</sup>And Jonathan caused David to swear again, because he loved him. For he loved him as he loved his own soul.

<sup>18</sup>And Jonathan said to David, Tomorrow is the new moon. And you shall be missed, because your seat will be empty. <sup>19</sup>And on the third day you shall quickly come down and shall come there to the place where you were hidden in the day of the deed. And you shall remain near the stone Ezel. <sup>20</sup>And I will shoot three arrows on the side, as though I shot at a mark. <sup>21</sup>And behold, I will send a lad, saying, Go find the arrows. If I carefully say to the lad, Behold, the arrows are on this side of you, take them, then you may come, for there is peace to you, and no hurt, as the LORD lives. <sup>22</sup>But if I say this to the young man, Behold, the arrows are beyond you, go your way, for the LORD has sent you away. <sup>23</sup>And as to the matter which you and I have spoken of, behold, may the LORD be between you and me forever.

<sup>24</sup>And David hid himself in the field. And when the new moon had come, the king sat down by the food to eat. <sup>25</sup>And the king sat on his seat as at other times, on a seat by the wall. And Jonathan arose, and Abner sat by Saul's side, and David's place was empty. <sup>26</sup>And Saul did not speak anything that day. For he thought, Something has happened to him; he is not clean. Surely he is not clean. <sup>27</sup>And it happened on the next day, the second of the month, David's place was empty. And Saul said to his son Jonathan, Why does the son of Jesse not come to the meal, neither yesterday nor today? <sup>28</sup>And Jonathan answered Saul, David earnestly asked of me to go to Bethlehem, <sup>29</sup>and he said, Please send me away, for we have a family sacrifice in the city. And my brother commanded me to be there. And now, if I have found favor in your eyes, I pray you let me get away and see my brothers. And he does not come to the king's table. <sup>30</sup>And Saul's anger was kindled against Jonathan, and he said to him, You son of a perverse, rebellious woman, do I not know that you have chosen the son of Jesse to your own confusion, and to the shame of your mother's nakedness? <sup>31</sup>For as long as the son of Jesse lives on the earth, you shall not be established, nor your kingdom.

And now send and bring him to me, for he shall surely die.<sup>32</sup> And Jonathan answered Saul his father and said to him, Why shall he be killed? What has he done?<sup>33</sup> And Saul threw a javelin at him to strike him, and by this Jonathan knew that his father was determined to kill David.<sup>34</sup> And Jonathan rose from the table in fierce anger, and did not eat food on the second day of the new moon. For he was grieved for David, because his father had put him to shame.

<sup>35</sup>And it happened, in the morning Jonathan went out into the field at the time appointed with David. And a little lad was with him.<sup>36</sup> And he said to this lad, Run now, find the arrows which I shoot. As the lad ran, he shot an arrow beyond him.<sup>37</sup> And when the lad had come to the place of the arrow which Jonathan had shot, Jonathan cried after the lad and said, Is not the arrow beyond you? <sup>38</sup>And Jonathan cried after the lad, Hurry, make haste, do not stand. And Jonathan's lad gathered the arrow and came to his master.<sup>39</sup> But the lad did not know anything. Only Jonathan and David knew the matter.<sup>40</sup> And Jonathan gave his weapons to his lad and said to him, Go, carry them to the city.<sup>41</sup> As soon as the lad had gone, David rose from the south, and fell on his face to the ground, and bowed himself three times. And they kissed one another, and wept with one another, until David checked himself.<sup>42</sup> And Jonathan said to David, Go in peace because we have both sworn in the name of the LORD, saying, The Lord shall be between me and you, and between my seed and your seed, forever. And he rose and went away. And Jonathan went into the city.

CHAPTER 21

<sup>1</sup>And David came to Nob, to Ahimelech the priest. And Ahimelech was afraid at the meeting of David, and said to him, Why are you alone, and no man with you? <sup>2</sup>And David said to Ahimelech the priest, The king has commanded me a business and has said to me, Let no man know of the business about which I send you, and what I have commanded you. And I have sent servants to such and such a place.<sup>3</sup> And therefore, what is under your hand? Give five loaves of bread in my hand, or what there is to be found.<sup>4</sup> And the priest answered David and said, There is no common bread under my hand, but there is holy bread if the young men have kept themselves at least from women.<sup>5</sup> And David answered the priest and said to him, Truly women have been kept from us for about three days, since I came out, and the vessels of the young men are holy, and in a way the holy bread is common. Also surely today it is sanctified in the vessels.<sup>6</sup> And the priest gave him holy bread. For there was no bread there but the showbread that was taken from before the LORD, in order to put hot bread in on the day when it was taken away.

<sup>7</sup>And a man from the servants of Saul was there that day, held before the LORD. And his name was Doeg, an Edomite, the chief of Saul's herdsmen.<sup>8</sup> And David said to Ahimelech, And is there not here under your hand spear or sword? For I have not brought my sword nor my weapons with me, because the king's business needed haste.<sup>9</sup> And the priest said, The sword of Goliath the Philistine, whom you killed in the valley of Elah, behold, it is wrapped in a cloth under the ephod, if you desire it for yourself, for there is no other here except that one. And David said, There is none like that. Give it to me.

<sup>10</sup>And David arose and fled that day for fear of Saul, and went to Achish the king of Gath.<sup>11</sup> And the servants of Achish said to him, Is not this David the king of the land? Did they not sing to one another of him in dances, saying, Saul has slain his thousands, and David his ten thousands? <sup>12</sup>And David laid up these words in his heart, and was very much afraid of Achish the king of Gath.<sup>13</sup> And he changed his behavior before them, and pretended himself to be mad in their hands, and marked on the doors of the gate and let his spittle fall down on his beard. <sup>14</sup>Then Achish said to his servants, Lo, you see the man is mad. Why have you brought him to me? <sup>15</sup>Do I have need of mad men, that you have brought this one to show madness in my presence? Shall this one come into my house?

CHAPTER 22

<sup>1</sup>And David left there and escaped to the cave Adullam. And his brothers and all his father's house heard, and went down to him there. <sup>2</sup>And every man in distress, and every man who had a creditor, and every man bitter of soul, gathered themselves to him. And he became a captain over them. And about four hundred men were with him. <sup>3</sup>And David went from there to Mizpeh of Moab. And he said to the king of Moab, Please let my father and my mother come forth and be with you until I know what God will do for me. <sup>4</sup>And he brought them before the king of Moab. And they lived with him all the time that David was in the stronghold. <sup>5</sup>And the prophet Gad said to David, Do not stay in the stronghold. Leave and go into the land of Judah. And David left and came into the forest of Hareth. <sup>6</sup>And Saul heard that David and the men with him had been discovered. And Saul was staying in Gibeah under the tamarisk tree in Ramah, having his spear in his hand. And all his servants were standing about him. <sup>7</sup>And Saul said to his servants standing by him, Now hear, Benjamites, will the son of Jesse give to any of you fields and vineyards, and make you all captains of thousands and captains of hundreds? <sup>8</sup>But all of you have conspired against me, and none of you was revealing in my ear when my son cut a covenant with the son of Jesse? And not one of you is sorry for me, even to reveal in my ear that my son has stirred up my servant against me, to lie in wait, as today. <sup>9</sup>And answered Doeg the Edomite, who was set over the servants of Saul, and said, I saw the son of Jesse coming to Nob, to Ahimelech the son of Ahitub. <sup>10</sup>And he asked of the LORD for him and gave him food and gave him the sword of Goliath the Philistine. <sup>11</sup>And the king sent to call Ahimelech the priest, the son of Ahitub, and all his father's house, the priests that were in Nob. And they came, all of them, to the king. <sup>12</sup>And Saul said, Hear now, you son of Ahitub. And he answered, Here I am, my lord. <sup>13</sup>And Saul said to him, Why have you conspired against me, you and the son of Jesse, in that you have given him bread and a sword, and have asked of God for him, that he should rise against me to lie in wait, as at this day? <sup>14</sup>And Ahimelech answered the king and said, And who is so faithful among all your servants as David, who is the king's son-in-law, and who goes at your bidding, and who is honorable in your house? <sup>15</sup>Have I today begun to ask of God for him? Be it far from me. Do not let the king charge a thing to his servant, nor to all the house of my father. For your servant knew nothing of all this, more or less. <sup>16</sup>And the king said, Ahimelech, you shall surely die, you and all your father's house. <sup>17</sup>And the king said to the guard that stood around him, Turn and kill the priests of the LORD, because their hand also is with David, and because they knew when he fled, and did not show it to me. But the servants of the king would not put forth their hand to fall on the priests of the LORD. <sup>18</sup>And the king said to Doeg, You turn and fall on the priests. And Doeg the Edomite turned and fell on the priests. And on that day he killed eighty-five persons who wore a linen ephod. <sup>19</sup>And he struck Nob, the city of the priests, with the edge of the sword, both men and women, children and babes, and oxen, and asses, and sheep, with the edge of the sword.

<sup>20</sup>And one of the sons of Ahimelech the son of Ahitub, named Abiathar, escaped and fled after David. <sup>21</sup>And Abiathar told David that Saul had slain the LORD's priests. <sup>22</sup>And David said to Abiathar, I knew that day, when Doeg the Edomite was there, that he would surely tell Saul. I have caused the death of all the persons of your father's house. <sup>23</sup>Stay with me, and do not fear. For he who seeks my life seeks your life. But you shall be in safekeeping with me.

CHAPTER 23

<sup>1</sup>And they told David, saying, Behold, the Philistines fight against Keilah, and they rob the threshing-floors. <sup>2</sup>And David asked of the LORD, saying, Shall I go? And shall I strike these Philistines? And the LORD said to David, Go and strike the Philistines, and save Keilah. <sup>3</sup>And David's men said to him, Behold, we are afraid here in Judah. How much more then if we come to Keilah against the armies of the Philistines? <sup>4</sup>And David inquired of the LORD once again. And the LORD answered him and said, Arise, go down to Keilah. For I will deliver the Philistines into your hand. <sup>5</sup>And David and his men went to Keilah and fought with the Philistines. And they led away their cattle and struck them with a great slaughter. And David saved the people of Keilah.

<sup>6</sup>And it happened when Abiathar the son of Ahimelech fled to David to Keilah, he came down with an ephod in his hand. <sup>7</sup>And it was told Saul that David had come to Keilah. And Saul said, God has delivered him into my hands, for he is shut in by entering into a town that has gates and bars. <sup>8</sup>And Saul called all the people together to war, to go down to Keilah to besiege David and his men. <sup>9</sup>And David knew that Saul secretly planned evil against him. And he said to Abiathar the priest, Bring the ephod here. <sup>10</sup>And David said, O Lord God of Israel, Your servant has surely heard that Saul seeks to come to Keilah, to destroy the city for my sake. <sup>11</sup>Will the men of Keilah deliver me up into his hand? Will Saul come down as Your servant has heard? O LORD God of Israel, I beg of You, tell Your servant. And the LORD said, He will come down. <sup>12</sup>And David said, Will the men of Keilah shut up me and my men into the hand of Saul? And the LORD said, They will shut you up. <sup>13</sup>And David and his men, about six hundred, arose and departed out of Keilah and went wherever they could go. And it was told to Saul that David had escaped from Keilah. And he did not go forth. <sup>14</sup>And David stayed in the wilderness in strongholds, and remained in the stronghold in the wilderness of Ziph. And Saul looked for him every day, but God did not deliver him into his hand.

<sup>15</sup>And David saw that Saul had come out to seek his life. And David was in the wilderness of Ziph in a woods. <sup>16</sup>And Jonathan, Saul's son, arose and went to David into the woods, and strengthened his hand in God. <sup>17</sup>And he said to him, Do not fear, for the hand of Saul my father shall not find you. And you shall be king over Israel, and I shall be next to you. And my father Saul knows that also. <sup>18</sup>And the two of them cut a covenant before the LORD. And David stayed in the woods, and Jonathan went to his house. <sup>19</sup>And the men of Ziph came up to Saul, to Gibeah, saying, Does not David hide himself with us in strongholds in the woods, in the hill of Hachilah, which is on the south of the wilderness? <sup>20</sup>And now, O king, come down according to all the desire of your soul. Come down, and it is for us to shut him up into the king's hand. <sup>21</sup>And Saul said, Blessed are you from the LORD, for you have pity on me. <sup>22</sup>Please go, make more sure, and know and see the place where his foot is. Who has seen him there? For I am told that he deals very wisely. <sup>23</sup>And see and know of all the hiding places where he hides himself there, and return to me prepared. And I will go with you. And it shall be, if he is in the land, I will search him out throughout all the thousands of Judah. <sup>24</sup>And they arose and went to Ziph before Saul. But David and his men were in the wilderness of Maon, in the plain, on the south of the desert. <sup>25</sup>Saul and his men also went to look for him. And they told David. And he came down from the rock and stayed in the wilderness of Maon. And when Saul heard, he followed after David in the wilderness of Maon. <sup>26</sup>And Saul went on this side of the mountain, and David and his men on that side of the mountain. And David hurried to get away for fear of Saul. For Saul and his men were encircling David and his men, to take them. <sup>27</sup>And a messenger came to Saul, saying, Hurry and come! For the Philistines have invaded the land. <sup>28</sup>And Saul returned from pursuing David, and went against the Philistines. Therefore they called that place, The Rock of the Division. <sup>29</sup>And David went up from there and stayed in strongholds at Engedi.

CHAPTER 24

<sup>1</sup>And it happened when Saul had returned from following the Philistines, they told him, saying, Behold, David is in the wilderness of Engedi. <sup>2</sup>And Saul took three thousand chosen men out of all Israel, and went to seek David and his men on the front of the rocks of the wild goats. <sup>3</sup>And he came to the folds of the flock on the way, where there was a cave. And Saul went in to cover his feet. And David and his men remained in the sides of the cave. <sup>4</sup>And the men of David said to him, Behold, this is the day of which the LORD said to you, Behold, I will deliver your enemy into your hand so that you may do to him as it shall seem good to you. And David arose and cut off the skirt of Saul's robe secretly. <sup>5</sup>And it happened afterward David's heart struck him because he had cut off Saul's skirt. <sup>6</sup>And he said to his men, Far be it from me, by the LORD, if I will do this thing to my lord, the LORD's anointed, to stretch forth my hand against him, since he is the anointed of the LORD. <sup>7</sup>And David held back his men with words, and did not allow them to rise against Saul. And Saul rose up out of the cave and went on his way.

<sup>8</sup>And David arose afterward and went out of the cave, and cried after Saul, saying, My lord the king! And Saul looked behind him. And David bowed his face to the earth and prostrated himself. <sup>9</sup>And David said to Saul, Why do you hear man's words, saying, Behold, David seeks to do you evil? <sup>10</sup>Behold, your eyes have seen today how the LORD had delivered you today into my hand in the cave. And one said for me to kill you. But I had pity on you. And I said, I will not put forth my hand against my lord, for he is the LORD's anointed. <sup>11</sup>And, my father, yes, see the skirt of your robe in my hand. For in that I cut off the skirt of your robe and did not kill you, know and see that there is neither evil nor transgression in my hand, and I have not sinned against you. Yet you hunt my soul to take it. <sup>12</sup>May the LORD judge between me and you, and may the LORD avenge me of you. But my hand shall not be on you. <sup>13</sup>As the ancient proverb says, Wickedness proceeds from the wicked. But my hand shall not be on you. <sup>14</sup>After whom has the king of Israel come out? After whom do you pursue? After a dead dog? After a flea? <sup>15</sup>May the LORD therefore be judge, and judge between you and me, and see, and plead my cause, and deliver me out of your hand.

<sup>16</sup>And it happened when David had made an end of speaking these words to Saul, Saul said, Is this your voice, my son David? And Saul lifted up his voice and wept. <sup>17</sup>And he said to David, You are more righteous than I, for you have rewarded me with good, but I have rewarded you evil. <sup>18</sup>And you have shown this day how you have dealt well with me, because when the LORD had delivered me into your hand, you did not kill me. <sup>19</sup>For if a man finds his enemy, will he let him go completely away? And may the LORD reward good for what you have done to me this day. <sup>20</sup>And now, behold, I know well that you shall surely be king, and that the kingdom of Israel shall he established in your hand. <sup>21</sup>And swear therefore to me before the LORD that you will not cut off my seed after me, and that you will not destroy my name out of my father's house. <sup>22</sup>And David swore to Saul. And Saul went home, but David and his men went up into the hold.

CHAPTER 25

<sup>1</sup>And Samuel died. And all the Israelites were gathered, and lamented him and buried him in his house at Ramah. And David arose and went down to the wilderness of Paran. <sup>2</sup>And a certain man was in Maon, and his work was in Carmel. And the man was very great, and had three thousand sheep and a thousand goats. And he was shearing his sheep in Carmel. <sup>3</sup>And the man's name was Nabal, and his wife's name was Abigail. And she was a woman of good understanding, and of a beautiful form. But the man was cruel and evil in his dealings. And he was of Caleb. <sup>4</sup>And David heard in the wilderness that Nabal was shearing his sheep. <sup>5</sup>And David sent out ten young men. And David said to the young men, Go up to Carmel and go to Nabal, and greet him in my name. <sup>6</sup>And you shall say this to him who lives prosperously, Peace be to you, and peace to your house, and peace to all that you have. <sup>7</sup>And now I have heard that you have shearers. And we did not hurt your shepherds who were with us; neither was there anything missing to them all the while they were in Carmel. <sup>8</sup>Ask your young men, and they will tell you. And let the young men find favor in your eyes, for we come in a good day. Please give whatever comes to your hand to your servants and to your son David.

<sup>9</sup>And when David's young men came, they spoke to Nabal according to all these words in the name of David, and stopped. <sup>10</sup>And Nabal answered David's servants and said, Who is David? And who is the son of Jesse? The servants who have broken away, a man from their masters, have multiplied. <sup>11</sup>Shall I then take my bread and my water and my meat that I have killed for my shearers, and give it to men about whom I know not where they come from? <sup>12</sup>And David's young men turned their way and went again, and came and told him all those things. <sup>13</sup>And David said to his men, Let each man gird on his sword. And they each one girded on his sword, and David also girded on his sword. And about four hundred men went up after David, and two hundred stayed by the staff.

<sup>14</sup>And one of the young men told Abigail, Nabal's wife, saying, Behold! David sent messengers out of the wilderness to greet our master, and he screamed at them. <sup>15</sup>But the men were very good to us, and we were not hurt, neither did we miss anything as long as we were going to and fro among them, when we were in the fields. <sup>16</sup>They were a wall to us both by night and day all the while we were with them keeping the sheep. <sup>17</sup>And now know and consider what you will do, for evil is determined against our master and against all his household. For he is a son of worthlessness, so that none can speak to him. <sup>18</sup>And Abigail made haste and took two hundred loaves, and two bottles of wine, and five sheep ready dressed, and five measures of parched grain, and a hundred clusters of raisins, and laid them on asses. <sup>19</sup>And she said to her servants, Go on before me. Behold, I am coming after you. But she did not tell her husband Nabal. <sup>20</sup>And it happened, she was riding on the ass and coming down under cover of the mountain. And behold, David and his men came down across from her. And she met them. <sup>21</sup>And David had said, Surely in vain I have kept all that belongs to this fellow in the wilderness, so that nothing was missed of all that was his. And he has requited me evil for good. <sup>22</sup>So and more also may God do to the enemies of David, if I leave any of all that is his to the light of the morning that waters, of one who urinates against the wall.

<sup>23</sup>And Abigail saw David and hurried and dismounted from the ass, and fell before David on her face, and bowed herself to the ground. <sup>24</sup>And she fell at his feet and said, On me, my lord, on me let this iniquity be. And please let your handmaid speak in your ears, and hear the words of your handmaid. <sup>25</sup>Please do not let my lord regard this man of worthlessness, Nabal. For as his name is, so he is. Nabal is his name, and foolishness is with him. And I, your handmaid, did not see the young men of my lord, whom you sent. <sup>26</sup>And now, my lord, as the LORD lives and as your soul lives, since the LORD has withheld you from coming to shed blood, and from avenging yourself with your own hand, now let your enemies, and those that seek to do evil to my lord, be as Nabal. <sup>27</sup>And now this blessing which your handmaid has brought to my lord, let it even be given to the young men who follow my lord. <sup>28</sup>Please forgive the trespass of your handmaid. For the LORD will certainly make a sure house for my lord, because my lord fights the battles of the LORD, and evil has not been found in you all your days. <sup>29</sup>Yet a man has risen to pursue you and to seek your soul. But the soul of my lord shall be bound in the bundle of life with the LORD your God. And the souls of your enemies, He shall sling them from the hollow of a sling. <sup>30</sup>And it shall be, when the LORD has done to my lord according to all the good that He has spoken concerning you, and shall have made you ruler over Israel, <sup>31</sup>this shall be no stumbling to you, nor offence of heart to my lord, either that you have shed blood for nothing, or that my lord has delivered himself. And may the LORD deal well with my lord, and you remember your handmaid.

<sup>32</sup>And David said to Abigail, Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, who sent you today to meet me. <sup>33</sup>And blessed is your advice, and blessed are you who have kept me from coming to shed blood today, and from delivering myself with my own hand. <sup>34</sup>And truly, as the LORD God of Israel lives, who has kept me back from doing evil to you, for unless you had hurried and come to meet me, surely there would not have been left to Nabal by the morning light one who urinates against the wall. <sup>35</sup>And David received from her hand that which she had brought him, and said to her, Go up in peace to your house. See, I have listened to your voice and have accepted your person.

<sup>36</sup>And Abigail came to Nabal. And behold, he held a feast in his house like the feast of a king. And Nabal's heart was merry within him, for he was very drunk. And she did not tell him anything, more or less, until the morning light. <sup>37</sup>And it happened in the morning, when the wine had gone out of Nabal and his wife had told him these things, his heart died within him and he became like a stone. <sup>38</sup>And it happened about ten days afterward the LORD struck Nabal so that he died. <sup>39</sup>And David heard that Nabal had died, and he said, Blessed is the LORD who has pleaded the cause of my reproach from the hand of Nabal, and has kept His servant from evil. For the LORD has returned the wickedness of Nabal on his own head. And David sent and spoke with Abigail, to take her to him for a wife. <sup>40</sup>And David's servants came to Abigail at Carmel, and spoke to her, saying, David sent us to you to take you to him for a wife. <sup>41</sup>And she arose and bowed herself on her face to the earth, and said, Behold, let your handmaid be a servant to wash the feet of the servants of my lord. <sup>42</sup>And Abigail hurried and arose, and rode on an ass, with five of her maidens who went after her. And she followed the messengers of David and became his wife. <sup>43</sup>David also took Ahinoam of Jezreel. And they became, both of them, his wives. <sup>44</sup>And Saul gave his daughter Michal, David's wife, to Phalti the son of Laish, who was of Gallim.

CHAPTER 26

<sup>1</sup>And the Ziphites came to Saul at Gibeah, saying, Is not David hiding himself in the hill of Hachilah, on the edge of the desert? <sup>2</sup>And Saul arose and went down to the wilderness of Ziph to seek David in the wilderness of Ziph, having three thousand chosen men of Israel with him. <sup>3</sup>And Saul pitched in the hill of Hachilah, which is on the edge of the desert, by the highway. And David was staying in the wilderness. And he saw that Saul came after him into the wilderness. <sup>4</sup>And David sent out spies and knew that Saul had come indeed. <sup>5</sup>And David arose and came to the place where Saul had pitched. And David saw the place where Saul lay. And Abner the son of Ner, the captain of his army, and Saul were lying within the barricade. And the people pitched all around him. <sup>6</sup>And David answered and said to Ahimelech the Hittite, and to Abishai the son of Zeruiah, the brother of Joab, saying, Who will go down with me to the camp to Saul? And Abishai said, I will go down with you. <sup>7</sup>So David and Abishai came to the people by night. And behold, Saul lay sleeping in the tent, and his spear stuck in the ground at his head. But Abner and the people lay around him. <sup>8</sup>And Abishai said to David, God has shut up your enemy into your hand this day. And please let me strike him with the spear even to the earth at once, and I will not repeat it to him. <sup>9</sup>And David said to Abishai, Do not destroy him. For who can stretch forth his hand against the LORD's anointed and be guiltless? <sup>10</sup>And David said As the LORD lives, except the LORD strike him, or his day shall come, and he dies, or he goes down to battle and is consumed, <sup>11</sup>far be it from me by the LORD, from putting forth my hand against the LORD's anointed. And now, please take the spear at his head and the cruse of water, and we will go. <sup>12</sup>And David took the spear and the cruse of water from Saul's head. And they went away, and no one saw, and no one knew; and no one was awake; for all of them were sleeping, because a deep sleep from the LORD had fallen on them.

<sup>13</sup>And David went over to the other side and stood on the top of a hill afar off, a great space between them. <sup>14</sup>And David cried to the people and to Abner the son of Ner, saying, Do you not answer, Abner? And Abner answered and said, Who are you that cries to the king? <sup>15</sup>And David said to Abner, Are you not a man? And who is like you in Israel? But why have you not watched over your lord the king? For one of the people came in to destroy your lord the king. <sup>16</sup>This thing that you have done is not good. As the LORD lives, because you have not watched over your master, the LORD's anointed, you also are worthy to die. And now see where the king's spear is, and the cruse of water that was at his head.

<sup>17</sup>And Saul knew David's voice and said, Is this your voice, my son David? And David said, It is my voice, my lord, O king. <sup>18</sup>And he said, Why does my lord pursue after his servant this way? For what have I done? Or what evil is in my hand? <sup>19</sup>And now, please let my lord the king hear the words of his servant. If the LORD has stirred you up against me, let Him accept an offering. But if it is the sons of men, they are cursed before the LORD. For they have driven me out today from joining myself with the inheritance of the LORD, saying, Go, serve other gods. <sup>20</sup>And now, let not my blood fall to the earth before the face of the LORD. For the king of Israel has come out to seek a flea, as when one hunts a partridge in the mountains. <sup>21</sup>And Saul said, I have sinned. Return, my son David, for I will never do you harm any more, because my life was precious in your eyes this day. Behold, I have acted foolishly, and have greatly erred. <sup>22</sup>And David answered and said, Behold the king's spear! And let one of the young men come over and get it. <sup>23</sup>May the LORD give to every man his righteousness and his faithfulness. For the LORD delivered you into my hand today, but I would not stretch forth my hand against the LORD's anointed. <sup>24</sup>And behold, as your life was precious in my eyes this day, so let my life be precious in the eyes of the LORD, and let Him deliver me out of all tribulation. <sup>25</sup>And Saul said to David, Blessed are you, my son David. You shall both do great things and also shall still prevail. So David went on his way, and Saul returned to his place.

CHAPTER 27

<sup>1</sup>And David said in his heart, I shall now perish one day by the hand of Saul. Nothing is better for me than that I should speedily escape into the land of the Philistines. And Saul shall despair of seeking me any more in any border of Israel, and so I shall escape out of his hand. <sup>2</sup>And David arose and passed over, he and the six hundred men with him to Achish the son of Maoch, king of Gath. <sup>3</sup>And David lived with Achish of Gath, he and his men, each one with his household; David with his two wives, Ahinoam of Jezreel, and Abigail of Carmel, Nabal's former wife. <sup>4</sup>And Saul was told that David had fled to Gath. And he never again looked for him.

<sup>5</sup>And David said to Achish, If I have now found grace in your eyes, let them give me a place in some town in the country so that I may live there. For why should your servant live in the royal city with you? <sup>6</sup>And Achish gave him Ziklag that day. And Ziklag belongs to the kings of Judah to this day. <sup>7</sup>And the number of days that David lived in the field of the Philistines was a year of days and four months. <sup>8</sup>And David and his men went up and invaded the Geshurites, and the Gezrites, and the Amalekites. For they were the inhabitants of the land, as you come into Shur, even into the land of Egypt. <sup>9</sup>And David struck the land, and did not keep alive man nor woman alive, and took away the sheep and the oxen and the asses and the camels and the clothing, and returned and came to Achish. <sup>10</sup>And Achish said, Where have you made a raid today? And David said, Against the south of Judah, and against the south of the Jerahmeelites, and against the south of the Kenites. <sup>11</sup>And David did not keep alive man or woman to bring news to Gath, saying, Lest they should tell on us, saying, So David did, and so has been his custom all the days he lived in the fields of the Philistines. <sup>12</sup>And Achish believed David, saying, He has made himself to be hated among his people Israel, and has become my servant forever.

CHAPTER 28

<sup>1</sup>And in those days it happened that the Philistines gathered their armies for war, to fight with Israel. And Achish said to David, You surely know that you shall go with me to battle, you and your men. <sup>2</sup>And David said to Achish, Surely you shall know what your servants can do. And Achish said to David, And I will make you keeper of my head forever. <sup>3</sup>And Samuel was dead, and all Israel had mourned him and buried him in Ramah, even in his own city. And Saul had put away those that had familiar spirits, and the wizards, out of the land. <sup>4</sup>And the Philistines gathered themselves and came and pitched in Shunem. And Saul gathered all Israel and they pitched in Gilboa. <sup>5</sup>And Saul saw the army of the Philistines, and he was afraid, and his heart greatly trembled. <sup>6</sup>And when Saul inquired of the LORD, the LORD did not answer him, neither by dreams, nor by Urim, nor by prophets. <sup>7</sup>And Saul said to his servants, Seek me a woman who has a familiar spirit, so that I may go to her and inquire of her. And his servant said to him, Behold, there is a woman who has a familiar spirit at Endor. <sup>8</sup>And Saul disguised himself and put on other clothing. And he went. And two men went with him. And they came to the woman by night. And he said, Please divine for me calling up the dead, and bring me up the man whom I shall name to you. <sup>9</sup>And the woman said to him, Behold, you know what Saul has done, how he has cut off those that have familiar spirits, and the wizards, out of the land. Why then do you lay a snare for my life, to cause me to die? <sup>10</sup>And Saul swore to her by the LORD, saying, As the LORD lives, there shall no punishment happen to you for this thing. <sup>11</sup>And the woman said, Whom shall I bring up to you? And he said, Bring me up Samuel.

<sup>12</sup>And the woman saw Samuel, and cried with a loud voice. And the woman spoke to Saul, saying, Why have you deceived me? For you are Saul! <sup>13</sup>And the king said to her, Do not be afraid. For what did you see? And the woman said to Saul, I saw gods coming up out of the earth. <sup>14</sup>And he said to her, What is his form? And she said, An old man comes up, and he is covered with a cloak. And Saul saw that it was Samuel, and he bowed his face to the ground, and prostrated himself. <sup>15</sup>And Samuel said to Saul, Why have you disturbed me, to bring me up? And Saul answered, I am grievously distressed, for the Philistines are warring against me. And God has left me and does not answer me any more, neither by prophets nor by dreams. And I have called you so that you may make known to me what I should do. <sup>16</sup>And Samuel said, Why then do you ask me, since the LORD has left you and has become your enemy? <sup>17</sup>And the LORD has done for Himself as He spoke by me. For the LORD has torn the kingdom out of your hand and has given it to your neighbor, to David. <sup>18</sup>Because you did not obey the voice of the LORD, nor execute his fierce wrath on Amalek, therefore the LORD has done this thing to you now. <sup>19</sup>And, the LORD will also deliver Israel with you into the hand of the Philistines. And tomorrow you and your sons shall be with me. The LORD also shall deliver the army of Israel into the hand of the Philistines. <sup>20</sup>And Saul immediately fell headlong on the earth, and was sorely afraid because of the words of Samuel. And there was no strength in him, for he had eaten no bread all day nor all night.

<sup>21</sup>And the woman came to Saul and saw that he was sorely troubled, and said to him, Behold, your handmaid has obeyed your voice, and I have put my life in my hand, and have listened to your words which you spoke to me. <sup>22</sup>And now please listen also to the voice of your handmaid, and let me set a bit of bread before you and eat, so that you may have strength when you go on your way. <sup>23</sup>But he refused, and said, I will not eat. But his servants, together with the woman, urged him. And he listened to their voices and arose from the earth and sat on the bed. <sup>24</sup>And the woman had a fat calf in the house. And she hurried and killed it, and took flour and kneaded it, and baked unleavened bread with it. <sup>25</sup>And she brought it before Saul, and before his servants. And they ate, and rose up and went away that night.

CHAPTER 29

<sup>1</sup>And the Philistines gathered all their armies to Aphek. And the Israelites pitched by a fountain which is in Jezreel. <sup>2</sup>And the lords of the Philistines passed on by hundreds and by thousands. But David and his men passed on in the rear with Achish. <sup>3</sup>And the rulers of the Philistines said, What are these Hebrews doing? And Achish said to the rulers of the Philistines, Is this not David the servant of Saul the king of Israel, who has been with me these days, or these years. And I have not found anything evil in him from the day he fell away until today? <sup>4</sup>And the rulers of the Philistines were angry with him. And the Philistine rulers said to him, Send the man back, and he shall return to his place where you have appointed him. And he shall not go down with us to battle, lest in the battle he become an enemy to us. For with what should he reconcile himself to his master? Should it not be with the heads of these men? <sup>5</sup>Is not this David, of whom they sang to one another in dances, saying, Saul killed his thousands, and David his ten thousands?

<sup>6</sup>And Achish called David and said to him, Surely, as the LORD lives, you have been upright, and your going out and your coming in with me in the army is good in my sight. For I have not found evil in you since the day of your coming to me until today. But you are not good in the eyes of the lords. <sup>7</sup>And return now, and go in peace so that you do not displease the lords of the Philistines. <sup>8</sup>And David said to Achish, But what have I done? And what have you found in your servant so long as I have been with you to this day, that I may not go fight against the enemies of my lord the king? <sup>9</sup>And Achish answered and said to David, I know that you are good in my sight, like an angel of God. But the princes of the Philistines have said, He shall not go up with us to the battle. <sup>10</sup>And now, rise up early in the morning with your master's servants who have come with you. And as soon as you are up early in the morning, and have light, depart. <sup>11</sup>And David and his men rose up early to leave in the morning, to return into the land of the Philistines. And the Philistines went up to Jezreel.

CHAPTER 30

<sup>1</sup>And it happened when David and his men had come to Ziklag on the third day, the Amalekites had invaded the south and Ziklag, and had struck Ziklag, and burned it with fire. <sup>2</sup>And they had seized the women in it. They did not kill any, either small or great, but carried them away and went on their way. <sup>3</sup>And David and his men came to the city, and behold, it was burned with fire, and their wives and their sons and their daughters had been taken captives. <sup>4</sup>And David and the people who were with him lifted up their voice and wept, until they had no more power to weep. <sup>5</sup>And David's two wives had been seized, Ahinoam of Jezreel, and Abigail, the former wife of Nabal of Carmel. <sup>6</sup>And it distressed David, for the people spoke of stoning him, because the soul of all the people was grieved, each one for his sons and for his daughters. But David encouraged himself in the LORD his God. <sup>7</sup>And David said to Abiathar the priest, Ahimelech's son, Please bring the ephod here to me. And Abiathar brought the ephod there to David. <sup>8</sup>And David inquired of the LORD, saying, Shall I go after this troop? Shall I overtake them? And He answered him, Go! For you shall surely overtake and will without fail recover all. <sup>9</sup>So David went, he and the six hundred men that were with him, and came to the brook Besor, where those who were left behind stayed. <sup>10</sup>But David pursued, he and four hundred men. For two hundred stayed behind, who were too exhausted to go over the brook Besor.

<sup>11</sup>And they found an Egyptian in the field and brought him to David and gave him bread, and he ate. And they made him drink water. <sup>12</sup>And they gave him a piece of a cake of figs, and two clusters of raisins. And when he had eaten, his spirit came again to him. For he had eaten no bread nor drunk water for three days and three nights. <sup>13</sup>And David said to him, Whose are you? And where do you come from? And he said, I am an Egyptian youth, servant to an Amalekite. And my master left me because three days ago I fell sick. <sup>14</sup>We raided the south of the Cherethites, and on that belonging to Judah, and on the south of Caleb. And we burned Ziklag with fire. <sup>15</sup>And David said to him, Can you bring me down to this company? And he said, Swear to me by God that you will neither kill me nor deliver me into the hands of my master, and I will bring you down to this company. <sup>16</sup>And when he had brought him down, behold, they were spread abroad on all the earth, eating and drinking and dancing, because of all the great spoil that they had taken out of the land of the Philistines and out of the land of Judah. <sup>17</sup>And David struck them from the twilight even to the evening of the next day. And not a man of them escaped, except four hundred young men who rode on camels and fled. <sup>18</sup>And David recovered all that the Amalekites had carried away. And David rescued his two wives. <sup>19</sup>And nothing was lacking to them, from the small to the great, and to sons and daughters, and from the spoil, even to all that they had taken to themselves. David recovered all. <sup>20</sup>And David took all the flock, and the herd. They drove on before those cattle. And they said, This is David's spoil.

<sup>21</sup>And David came to the two hundred who were too exhausted to follow David, whom they had made also to stay at the brook Besor. And they went out to meet David, and to meet the people with him. And David came up to the people, and greeted them. <sup>22</sup>And all the wicked men and men of Belial among the men who went with David answered and said, Because they did not go with us, we will not give them from a thing the spoil that we have seized, except to every man his wife and his sons. Let them take them, and go. <sup>23</sup>And David said, My brothers, you shall not do so with that which the LORD has given us. For He has kept us alive, and has delivered into our hand the company that came against us. <sup>24</sup>For who will listen to you in this matter? But as his part is that goes down to the battle, so shall be his part that stays by the stuff. They shall divide alike. <sup>25</sup>And from that day forward he made it a statute and an ordinance for Israel to this day. <sup>26</sup>And David came to Ziklag, and sent some of the spoil to the elders of Judah, to his friends, saying, Behold, a present for you from the spoil of the enemies of the LORD; <sup>27</sup>to the ones in Bethel, and to the ones in Ramoth of the south, and to the ones in Jattir, <sup>28</sup>and to the ones in Aroer, and to the ones in Siphmoth, and to the ones in Eshtemoa, <sup>29</sup>and to the ones in Rachal, and to the ones in the cities of the Jerahmeelites, and to the ones in the cities of the Kenites, <sup>30</sup>and to the ones in Hormah, and to the ones in Chorashan, and to the ones in Athach, <sup>31</sup>and to the ones in Hebron, and to all the places where David had gone up and down, he and his men.

CHAPTER 31

<sup>1</sup>And the Philistines fought against Israel. And the men of Israel fled from before the Philistines, and fell down wounded in Mount Gilboa. <sup>2</sup>And the Philistines followed Saul and his sons. And the Philistines killed Jonathan and Abinadab and Malchishua, Saul's sons. <sup>3</sup>And the battle went hard against Saul. And the archers hit him, and he was sorely wounded by the archers. <sup>4</sup>And Saul said to his armor-bearer, Draw your sword and thrust me through with it — lest these uncircumcised ones come and thrust me through, and abuse me. But his armor-bearer would not, for he was very much afraid. So Saul took a sword and fell on it. <sup>5</sup>And when his armor-bearer saw that Saul was dead, he also fell on his sword and died with him. <sup>6</sup>And Saul died, and his three sons, and his armor-bearer, and all his men, that same day together. <sup>7</sup>And the men of Israel beyond the valley, and who were on the other side Jordan, saw that the men of Israel fled and that Saul and his sons had died. And they abandoned the cities and fled. And the Philistines came and lived in them.

<sup>8</sup>And it happened on the next day, the Philistines came to strip the slain, and they found Saul and his three sons fallen in mount Gilboa. <sup>9</sup>And they cut off his head and stripped off his armor, and sent into the land of the Philistines all around, to publish it in the house of their idols and among the people. <sup>10</sup>And they put his armor in the house of Ashtaroth, and they fastened his body to the wall of Beth-shan. <sup>11</sup>And when they heard about it, the people of Jabesh-gilead, what the Philistines had done to Saul, <sup>12</sup>then all the brave men arose, and they traveled all night. And they took the body of Saul and the bodies of his sons from the wall of Beth-shan, and came to Jabesh, and burned them there. <sup>13</sup>And they took their bones and buried them under the tamarisk tree at Jabesh. And they fasted seven days.

THE SECOND BOOK OF SAMUEL

CHAPTER 1

<sup>1</sup>And it happened after the death of Saul, when David had returned from the slaughter of the Amalekites, and after David had stayed two days in Ziklag, <sup>2</sup>on the third day, behold, a man came out of the camp from Saul with his clothes torn and earth upon his head. And it happened when he came to David, he fell to the earth and bowed to him. <sup>3</sup>And David said to him, Where do you come from? And he said to him, I have escaped out of the camp of Israel. <sup>4</sup>And David said to him, How did the matter go? Please tell me. And he answered, The people have fled from the battle, and many of the people also have fallen and are dead. And Saul and his son Jonathan are dead also. <sup>5</sup>And David said to the young man who told him, How do you know that Saul and his son Jonathan are dead? <sup>6</sup>And the young man who told him said, As I happened by chance upon Mount Gilboa, behold, Saul leaned upon his spear. And, lo, the chariots and horsemen followed hard after him. <sup>7</sup>And when he looked behind him, he saw me, and called to me. And I answered, Here am I. <sup>8</sup>And he said to me, Who are you? And I answered him, I am an Amalekite. <sup>9</sup>He said to me again, Please stand over me and kill me, for anguish has come upon me, because all my life is still in me. <sup>10</sup>And I stood over him, and killed him, because I was sure that he could not live after he had fallen. And I took the crown on his head, and the bracelet on his arm, and have brought them here to my lord. <sup>11</sup>And David took hold on his garments, and tore them. And likewise all the men with him. <sup>12</sup>And they mourned and wept and fasted until evening, for Saul, and for his son Jonathan, and for the people of the LORD, and for the house of Israel, because they had fallen by the sword.

<sup>13</sup>And David said to the young man who told him, From where are you? And he answered, I am the son of a stranger, an Amalekite. <sup>14</sup>And David said, Why were you not afraid to stretch forth your hand to destroy the LORD's anointed? <sup>15</sup>And David called one of the young men and said, Go near; fall on him. And he struck him so that he died. <sup>16</sup>And David said to him, Your blood be upon your head, for your mouth has testified against you, saying, I have slain the LORD's anointed.

<sup>17</sup>And David mourned with this mourning over Saul and over his son Jonathan. <sup>18</sup>And he said to teach the sons of Judah The use of the Bow. Behold, it is written in the book of Jasher:

<sup>19</sup>The beauty of Israel is slain upon your high places! How are the mighty fallen! <sup>20</sup>Tell it not in Gath, do not let it be known in the streets of Askelon, lest the daughters of the Philistines rejoice, lest the daughters of the uncircumcised triumph. <sup>21</sup>Mountains of Gilboa, let not dew or rain be on you, nor fields of offerings. For there the shield of the mighty has been evilly cast away, the shield of Saul not being anointed with oil. <sup>22</sup>From the blood of the slain, from the fat of the mighty, the bow of Jonathan did not turn back, and the sword of Saul did not return empty. <sup>23</sup>Saul and Jonathan were lovely and pleasant in their lives, and in their death they were not divided. They were swifter than eagles; they were stronger than lions. <sup>24</sup>Daughters of Israel, weep over Saul, who clothed you in scarlet and with delights; who put ornaments of gold on your clothes. <sup>25</sup>How are the mighty fallen in the midst of the battle! Jonathan is slain on your high places. <sup>26</sup>I am distressed for you, my brother Jonathan. Very pleasant you have been to me. Your love to me was wonderful, more than the love of women. <sup>27</sup>How are the mighty fallen, and the weapons of war perished!

CHAPTER 2

<sup>1</sup>And it happened after this, David inquired of the LORD, saying, Shall I go up into any of the cities of Judah? And the LORD said to him, Go up! And David said, Where shall I go? And He said, To Hebron. <sup>2</sup>And David went up there, and his two wives also, Ahinoam of Jezreel and Abigail of Carmel, Nabal's wife. <sup>3</sup>And David brought up his men with him, each man with his household. And they lived in the cities of Hebron. <sup>4</sup>And the men of Judah came, and they anointed David king over the house of Judah there. And they told David, saying, The men of Jabesh-gilead buried Saul. <sup>5</sup>And David sent messengers to the men of Jabesh-gilead. And he said to them, Blessed are you of the LORD, that you have shown this kindness to your lord, to Saul, and have buried him. <sup>6</sup>And now may the LORD show kindness and truth to you. And I also will repay you this kindness, because you have done this thing. <sup>7</sup>And now let your hands be strengthened, and be brave. For your master Saul is dead, and also the house of Judah has anointed me king over them.

<sup>8</sup>But Abner the son of Ner, captain of Saul's army, took Ishbosheth the son of Saul, and brought him over to Mahanaim. <sup>9</sup>And he made him king over Gilead, and over the Ashurites, and over Jezreel, and over Ephraim, and over Benjamin, and over all Israel. <sup>10</sup>Ishbosheth, Saul's son, was forty years old when he began to reign over Israel, and reigned two years. But the house of Judah followed David. <sup>11</sup>And the time that David was king in Hebron over the house of Judah was seven years and six months.

<sup>12</sup>And Abner the son of Ner, and the servants of Ishbosheth the son of Saul, went out from Mahanaim to Gibeon. <sup>13</sup>And Joab the son of Zeruiah, and the servants of David, went out and met together by the pool of Gibeon. And they sat down, the one on the one side of the pool, and the other on the other side of the pool. <sup>14</sup>And Abner said to Joab, Let the young men now arise and play before us. And Joab said, Let them arise. <sup>15</sup>And there arose and went over by number, twelve for Benjamin, and for Ishbosheth the son of Saul; and twelve of the servants of David. <sup>16</sup>And each one caught his fellow by the head, and thrust his sword in his fellow's side, so that they fell together. And one called that place The Field of Rocks, which is in Gibeon. <sup>17</sup>And there was a very grievous battle that day. And Abner and the men of Israel were beaten before the servants of David. <sup>18</sup>And there were three sons of Zeruiah there, Joab and Abishai and Asahel. And Asahel was swift with his feet, like one of the gazelles in the field. <sup>19</sup>And Asahel ran after Abner, and in going he did not turn to the right hand nor to the left from following Abner. <sup>20</sup>And Abner looked behind him and said, Are you Asahel? And he answered, I am. <sup>21</sup>And Abner said to him, Turn aside to your right hand or to your left, and lay hold on one of the young men, and take his armor. But Asahel would not turn aside from following him. <sup>22</sup>And Abner said again to Asahel, Turn aside from following me. Why should I strike you to the ground? How then should I hold up my face to Joab your brother? <sup>23</sup>However he refused to turn aside. Therefore Abner struck him with the blunt end of the spear in the belly, and the spear came out behind him. And he fell down there, and died in the same place. And it happened that everyone who came to the place where Asahel fell down and died, stood still. <sup>24</sup>And Joab and Abishai ran after Abner. And the sun went down when they had come to the hill of Ammah, which lies before Giah by the way of the wilderness of Gibeon. <sup>25</sup>And the sons of Benjamin gathered themselves together after Abner, and became one troop, and stood on the top of a hill. <sup>26</sup>Then Abner called to Joab and said, Shall the sword devour forever? Do you not know that it will be bitterness in the latter end? How long shall it be then before you command the people to return from chasing their brothers? <sup>27</sup>And Joab said, As God lives, unless you had spoken, surely then in the morning the people would have gone up each one from following his brother. <sup>28</sup>And Joab blew a trumpet, and all the people stood still and did not pursue after Israel any more, nor did they fight any more.

<sup>29</sup>And Abner and his men went all that night through the plain and passed over Jordan, and went all the forenoon and came to Mahanaim. <sup>30</sup>And Joab returned from following Abner. And when he had gathered all the people together, nineteen men and Asahel were missing from David's servants. <sup>31</sup>But the servants of David had stricken three hundred and sixty men of Benjamin, and of Abner's men, who died. <sup>32</sup>And they took up Asahel and buried him in the tomb of his father, which was in Bethlehem. And Joab and his men went all night, and they came to Hebron at the break of day.

CHAPTER 3

<sup>1</sup>And there was a long war between the house of Saul and the house of David. But David became stronger and stronger, and the house of Saul became weaker and weaker. <sup>2</sup>And sons were born to David in Hebron. And his first-born was Amnon, the son of Ahinoam of Jezreel. <sup>3</sup>And his second was Chileab, of Abigail of Carmel, the former wife of Nabal. And the third was Absalom, the son of Maacah the daughter of Talmi king of Geshur. <sup>4</sup>And the fourth was Adonijah, the son of Haggith. And the fifth was Shephatiah, the son of Abital. <sup>5</sup>And the sixth was Ithream, by Eglah, David's wife. These were born to David in Hebron.

<sup>6</sup>And it happened, while there was war between the house of Saul and the house of David, Abner made himself strong for the house of Saul. <sup>7</sup>And Saul had a concubine whose name was Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah. And Ishbosheth said to Abner, Why have you gone in to my father's concubine? <sup>8</sup>And Abner was very angry over the words of Ishbosheth, and said, Am I a dog's head, who shows kindness against Judah this day to the house of Saul your father, to his brothers, and to his friends, and have not delivered you into the hand of David? Am I a dog's head that you charge me today with a fault concerning this woman? <sup>9</sup>So may God do to Abner, and more also, unless, as the LORD has sworn to David, even so I do to him, <sup>10</sup>to transfer the kingdom from the house of Saul, and to set up the throne of David over Israel and over Judah, from Dan even to Beer-sheba. <sup>11</sup>And he could not answer Abner a word again, because he feared him.

<sup>12</sup>And Abner sent messengers to David on his behalf, saying, Whose is the land? He said, Cut your covenant with me, and, behold, my hand shall be with you, to bring about all Israel to you. <sup>13</sup>And he said, Good! I will make a league with you, but one thing I ask of you, saying, You shall not see my face unless you first bring Michal, Saul's daughter, when you come to see my face. <sup>14</sup>And David sent messengers to Ishbosheth, Saul's son, saying, Deliver my wife Michal, whom I betrothed to me for a hundred foreskins of the Philistines. <sup>15</sup>And Ishbosheth sent and took her from her husband, from Phaltiel the son of Laish. <sup>16</sup>And her husband went along with her, weeping behind her, to Bahurim. And Abner said to him, Go, return! And he returned.

<sup>17</sup>The word of Abner was with the elders of Israel, saying, You sought for David in times past to be king over you. <sup>18</sup>And then do it, for the LORD has spoken of David, saying, By the hand of my servant David I will save My people Israel out of the hand of the Philistines, and out of the hand of all their enemies. <sup>19</sup>And Abner also spoke in the ears of Benjamin. And Abner went also to speak in the ears of David in Hebron all that seemed good to Israel, and all that seemed good to the whole house of Benjamin. <sup>20</sup>And Abner came to David at Hebron, and twenty men came with him. And David made a feast for Abner and the men who were with him. <sup>21</sup>And Abner said to David, I will arise and go, and will gather all Israel to my lord the king, so that they may make a covenant with you, and so that you may reign over all that your heart desires. And David sent Abner away, and he went in peace.

<sup>22</sup>And behold, the servants of David and Joab came from pursuing a troop, and brought in a great spoil with them. But Abner was not with David in Hebron, for he had sent him away, and he had gone in peace. <sup>23</sup>And Joab and all the army with him came, and they told Joab, saying, Abner the son of Ner came to the king, and he has sent him away, and he has gone in peace. <sup>24</sup>And Joab came to the king and said, What have you done? Behold, Abner came to you. Why is this, that you have sent him away, and he has already gone? <sup>25</sup>You know Abner the son of Ner, that he came to deceive you, and to know your going out and your coming in, and to know all that you do. <sup>26</sup>And Joab left David and sent messengers after Abner, who brought him again from the well of Sirah. But David did not know. <sup>27</sup>And Abner returned to Hebron. And Joab took him aside in the gate to speak with him quietly. And he struck him there in the belly, and he died, for the blood of Asahel his brother. <sup>28</sup>And afterward David heard, and said, My kingdom and I are guiltless before the LORD forever from the blood of Abner the son of Ner. <sup>29</sup>Let it whirl about the head of Joab, and on all his father's house. And let there not fail from the house of Joab one who has an issue, or who is a leper, or who leans on a staff, or who falls on the sword, or who lacks bread. <sup>30</sup>And Joab and Abishai his brother killed Abner, because he had slain their brother Asahel at Gibeon in the battle.

<sup>31</sup>And David said to Joab and to all the people with him, Tear your clothes and gird yourselves with sackcloth, and mourn before Abner. And king David followed the bier. <sup>32</sup>And they buried Abner in Hebron. And the king lifted up his voice and wept at the grave of Abner. And all the people wept. <sup>33</sup>And the king mourned over Abner and said, Did Abner die like a fool dies? <sup>34</sup>Your hands were not bound, nor your feet put into fetters; as a man falls before wicked men, so you fell. And all the people wept again over him.

<sup>35</sup>And all the people came to cause David to eat food while it was still day; David swore, saying, So let God do to me, and more also, if I taste bread or anything else until the sun is down. <sup>36</sup>And all the people took notice, and it pleased them, as whatever the king did pleased all the people. <sup>37</sup>For all the people and all Israel understood that day that it was not of the king to kill Abner the son of Ner. <sup>38</sup>And the king said to his servants, Do you not know that there is a prince and a great man fallen this day in Israel? <sup>39</sup>And I am weak this day, though anointed king. And these men, the sons of Zeruiah, are too hard for me. The LORD shall reward the doer of evil according to his wickedness.

CHAPTER 4

<sup>1</sup>And Saul's son heard that Abner was dead in Hebron. And his hands were feeble, and all the Israelites were troubled. <sup>2</sup>And Saul's son had two men that were captains of bands. The name of the one was Baanah, and the name of the other was Rechab, the sons of Rimmon of Beeroth, of the sons of Benjamin. For Beeroth also was counted to Benjamin; <sup>3</sup>and the men of Beeroth fled to Gittaim and were strangers there until this day. <sup>4</sup>And Jonathan, Saul's son, had a son who was lame in his feet. He was five years old when the news of Saul and Jonathan came out of Jezreel, and his nurse took him up and fled. And as she made haste to flee he fell and became lame. And his name was Mephibosheth. <sup>5</sup>And the sons of Rimmon of Beeroth, Rechab and Baanah, came at the heat of the day to the house of Ishbosheth. And he was lying on his bed at noon. <sup>6</sup>And they came to the midst of the house, bringing wheat. And they struck him in the belly. And Rechab and Baanah his brother escaped. <sup>7</sup>And they came into the house, and he lay in his bed in his bedroom. And they struck him and killed him, and beheaded him and took his head and got away through the plain all night. <sup>8</sup>And they brought the head of Ishbosheth to David at Hebron. and said to the king, Behold the head of Ishbosheth the son of Saul, your enemy who sought your life. And the LORD has avenged my lord the king this day of Saul and of his seed.

<sup>9</sup>And David answered Rechab and Baanah his brother, the sons of Rimmon of Beeroth, and said to them, As the LORD lives, who has redeemed my soul out of all adversity, <sup>10</sup>when one told me, saying, Behold, Saul is dead, thinking to have brought good news, I took hold of him and killed him in Ziklag. I gave that to him as a reward. <sup>11</sup>Indeed when wicked men have slain a righteous person in his own house upon his bed, shall I not therefore now require his blood of your hand, and take you away from the earth? <sup>12</sup>And David commanded his young men, and they killed them, and cut off their hands and their feet, and hanged them up over the pool in Hebron. But they took the head of Ishbosheth and buried it in the tomb of Abner in Hebron.

CHAPTER 5

<sup>1</sup>And all the tribes of Israel came to David, to Hebron, and spoke, saying, Behold, we are your bone and your flesh. <sup>2</sup>Also in time past, when Saul was king over us, you were he who led Israel out and brought them in. And the LORD said to you, You shall feed My people Israel, and you shall be a captain over Israel. <sup>3</sup>And all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron. And king David made a covenant with them in Hebron before the LORD. And they anointed David king over Israel.

<sup>4</sup>David was thirty years old when he began to reign. He reigned forty years. <sup>5</sup>In Hebron he reigned over Judah seven years and six months, and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty-three years over all Israel and Judah. <sup>6</sup>And the king and his men went to Jerusalem to the Jebusites, the people of the land. And one spoke to David saying, You shall not come in here, except the blind and the lame will turn you away; also saying, David cannot come in here. <sup>7</sup>And David took the stronghold of Zion; it is the city of David. <sup>8</sup>And David said on that day, Anyone who strikes the Jebusite, let him go by the water-shaft and take the lame and the blind, the hated of David's soul. On account of this they say, The blind and the lame shall not come into the house. <sup>9</sup>And David lived in the fort, and called it the city of David. And David built all around, from Millo and inward. <sup>10</sup>And David went on and became great, and the LORD God of hosts was with him.

<sup>11</sup>And Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers, and cedar trees, and carpenters, and masons to David. And they built David a house. <sup>12</sup>And David saw that the LORD had established him king over Israel, and that He had made his kingdom sure for His people Israel's sake. <sup>13</sup>And David took more concubines and wives out of Jerusalem, after he had come from Hebron. And there were still more sons and daughters born to David. <sup>14</sup>These are the names of those to him in Jerusalem: Shammua, and Shobab, and Nathan, and Solomon, <sup>15</sup>and Ibhar, and Elishua, and Nepheg, and Japhia, <sup>16</sup>and Elishama, and Eliada, and Eliphalet.

<sup>17</sup>And the Philistines heard that they had anointed David king over Israel. And all the Philistines came up to seek David. And David heard, and went down to the stronghold. <sup>18</sup>And the Philistines came and spread themselves in the Valley of the Giants. <sup>19</sup>And David inquired of the LORD, saying, Shall I go up to the Philistines? Will You deliver them into my hand? And the LORD said to David,

Go up! For I will surely deliver the Philistines into your hand.<sup>20</sup> And David came to Baal-perazim, and David struck them there, and said, The LORD has broken forth on my enemies before me, like the breaking forth of waters. Therefore he called the name of that place The Breaking of Baal.<sup>21</sup> And they left their images there, and David and his men took them away.

<sup>22</sup>And the Philistines came up again and spread themselves in the Valley of the Giants.<sup>23</sup> And David inquired of the LORD, and He said, You shall not go up, but go around behind them and come upon them over across from the weeping trees.<sup>24</sup> And when you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the weeping trees, then you shall stir yourself. For then the LORD shall go out before you to strike the army of the Philistines.<sup>25</sup> And David did so, as the LORD had commanded him. And he struck the Philistines from Geba until you come to Gezer.

CHAPTER 6

<sup>1</sup>Again David gathered every chosen one in Israel, thirty thousand.<sup>2</sup> And David arose and went with all the people with him from beyond Baale of Judah, to bring up the ark of God from there, which is called by the Name, the Name of the LORD of hosts who dwells above the cherubs.<sup>3</sup> And they set the ark of God upon a new cart, and brought it out of the house of Abinadab in Gibeah. And Uzzah and Ahio, the sons of Abinadab, drove the new cart.<sup>4</sup> And they brought it out of the house of Abinadab at Gibeah, going with the ark of God. And Ahio went before the ark.<sup>5</sup> And David and all the house of Israel played before the LORD on all instruments of fir wood, with lyres and with harps, and with tambourines, and with sistrums, and with cymbals.<sup>6</sup> And when they came to Nachon's threshing-floor, Uzzah reached out to the ark of God, and took hold of it; for the oxen stumbled.<sup>7</sup> And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Uzzah. And God struck him there for the error. And he died there by the ark of God.<sup>8</sup> And David was displeased because the LORD had broken forth upon Uzzah. And he called the name of the place The Break of Uzzah to this day.<sup>9</sup> And David was afraid of the LORD that day, and said, How shall the ark of the LORD come to me?<sup>10</sup> And David was not willing to bring the ark of the LORD to him into the city of David. But David carried it aside into the house of Obed-edom the Gittite.<sup>11</sup> And the ark of the LORD stayed in the house of Obed-edom the Gittite three months. And the LORD blessed Obed-edom and all his household.

<sup>12</sup>And they told king David, saying, The LORD has blessed the house of Obed-edom, and all that belongs to him, because of the ark of God. And David went and brought up the ark of God from the house of Obed-edom into the city of David with gladness.<sup>13</sup> And it happened that when those who bore the ark of the LORD had gone six steps, he sacrificed oxen and fatlings.<sup>14</sup> And David danced before the LORD with all his might. And David was girded with a linen ephod.<sup>15</sup> And David and all the house of Israel brought up the ark of the LORD with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet.<sup>16</sup> And as the ark of the LORD came to the city of David, Michal, Saul's daughter, looked through a window and saw king David leaping and dancing before the LORD. And she despised him in her heart.<sup>17</sup> And they brought in the ark of the LORD and set it in its place in the midst of the tabernacle that David had pitched for it. And David offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the LORD.<sup>18</sup> And as soon as David had made an end of offering burnt offerings and peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD of hosts.<sup>19</sup> And he gave out among all the people, among all the multitude of Israel, to the women as well as men, to each one a cake of bread and a good piece of meat, and a flagon of wine. And all the people departed, each one to his house.

<sup>20</sup>And David returned to bless his household. And Michal the daughter of Saul came out to meet David and said, How glorious was the king of Israel today, who uncovered himself today in the eyes of the handmaids of his servants, as one of the vain fellows shamelessly uncovers himself! <sup>21</sup>And David said to Michal, It was before the LORD, who chose me before your father, and before all his house, to appoint me ruler over the people of the LORD, over Israel. And I will play before the LORD. <sup>22</sup>And I will be still lower than this, and will be base in my own sight. And of the handmaids of whom you have spoken, with them I shall be had in honor. <sup>23</sup>And Michal the daughter of Saul had no child to the day of her death.

CHAPTER 7

<sup>1</sup>And it happened when the king dwelt in his house, and when the LORD had given him rest round about from all his enemies, <sup>2</sup>the king said to Nathan the prophet, See now, I live in a house of cedar, but the ark of God dwells within curtains. <sup>3</sup>And Nathan said to the king, Go, do all that is in your heart, for the LORD is with you. <sup>4</sup>And that night the word of the LORD came to Nathan saying, <sup>5</sup>Go and tell My servant David, So says the LORD, Shall you build Me a house for My dwelling? <sup>6</sup>For I have not dwelt in a house since the day that I brought up the sons out of Egypt until this day, but have walked in a tent and in a tabernacle. <sup>7</sup>In all places in which I have walked with all the sons of Israel, did I speak a word with any of the tribes of Israel, those I commanded to feed My people Israel, saying, Why do you not build Me a house of cedar? <sup>8</sup>And now so shall you say to My servant David, So says the LORD of hosts: I took you from the sheepcote, from following the sheep, to be ruler over My people, over Israel. <sup>9</sup>And I was with you wherever you went, and have cut off all your enemies out of your sight, and have made you a great name like the name of the great ones in the earth. <sup>10</sup>And I will appoint a place for My people Israel, and will plant them so that they may dwell in a place of their own, and move no more. Neither shall the sons of wickedness afflict them any more, as before. <sup>11</sup>And even from the time that I commanded judges to be over My people of Israel, so will I cause you to rest from all your enemies. Also the LORD tells you that He will make you a house. <sup>12</sup>And when your days are fulfilled, and you shall sleep with your fathers, I will set up your seed after you, who shall come out of your bowels. And I will make his kingdom sure. <sup>13</sup>He shall build a house for My name, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom forever. <sup>14</sup>I will be his Father, and he shall be My son. If he commits iniquity, I will chasten him with the rod of men, and with the stripes of the sons of men. <sup>15</sup>But My mercy shall not leave him, as I took it from Saul, whom I put away before you. <sup>16</sup>And your house and your kingdom shall be made sure forever before you. Your throne shall be established forever. <sup>17</sup>According to all these words, and according to all this vision, so Nathan spoke to David.

<sup>18</sup>Then king David went in and sat before the LORD. And he said, Who am I, O Lord Jehovah? And what is my house, that You have brought me here? <sup>19</sup>And this was yet a small thing in Your sight, O Lord God. But You have spoken also of Your servant's house for a great while to come. And is this the manner of men, O Lord God? <sup>20</sup>And what can David say more to You? For You, O Lord Jehovah, know Your servant. <sup>21</sup>For Your word's sake, and according to Your own heart, You have done all these great things to make Your servant know. <sup>22</sup>Therefore You are great, O LORD God. For there is none like You, neither is there any God besides You, according to all that we have heard with our ears. <sup>23</sup>And what one nation in the earth is like Your people, like Israel, whom God went to redeem for a people to Himself, and to make Him a name, and to do for you great things and terrible, for Your land, before Your people, whom You redeemed to You from Egypt, from the nations and their gods? <sup>24</sup>For You have confirmed to Yourself Your people Israel to be a people to You forever. And You, LORD, have become their God. <sup>25</sup>And now, O LORD God, the word that You have spoken concerning Your servant, and concerning his house: establish it forever, and do as You have said. <sup>26</sup>And let Your name be magnified forever, saying, The LORD of hosts is the God over Israel. And let the house of Your servant David be established before You. <sup>27</sup>For You, O LORD of hosts, God of Israel, have revealed to Your servant, saying, I will build you a house. Therefore Your servant has found in his heart to pray this prayer to You. <sup>28</sup>And now, O Lord Jehovah, You are that God, and Your words are true, and You have promised this goodness to Your servant. <sup>29</sup>Therefore, now, let it please You to bless the house of Your servant, so that it may continue forever before You. For You, O Lord God, have spoken. And with Your blessing let the house of Your servant be blessed forever.

CHAPTER 8

<sup>9</sup>And Toi king of Hamath heard that David had struck all the army of Hadadezer. <sup>10</sup>Then Toi sent Joram his son to king David, to greet him and bless him, because he had fought against Hadadezer and had struck him. For Hadadezer had wars against Toi. And in his hand were silver articles, and golden articles, and bronze articles. <sup>11</sup>King David also dedicated them to the LORD, with the silver and gold that he had dedicated from all nations which he subdued: <sup>12</sup>of Syria, and of Moab, and of the sons of Ammon, and of the Philistines, and of Amalek, and of the spoil of Hadadezer, son of Rehob, king of Zobah.

<sup>13</sup>And David made a name for himself when he returned from striking the Syrians in the Valley of Salt, eighteen thousand men. <sup>14</sup>And he put garrisons in Edom. He put garrisons throughout all Edom, and all the men of Edom became David's servants. And the LORD preserved David wherever he went.

<sup>15</sup>And David reigned over all Israel. And David did judgment and justice to all his people. <sup>16</sup>And Joab the son of Zeruiah was over the army. And Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was recorder. <sup>17</sup>And Zadok the son of Ahitub, and Ahimelech the son of Abiathar, were the priests. And Seraiah was the scribe. <sup>18</sup>And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over both the Cherethites and the Pelethites. And David's sons were priests.

CHAPTER 9

<sup>1</sup>And David said, Is there still any that is left from the house of Saul, that I may show him kindness for Jonathan's sake? <sup>2</sup>And there was of the house of Saul a servant whose name was Ziba. And when they had called him to David, the king said to him, Are you Ziba? And he said, Your servant. <sup>3</sup>And the king said, Is there not still any of the house of Saul, so that I may show the kindness of God to him? And Ziba said to the king, Jonathan still has a son, who is lame in his feet. <sup>4</sup>And the king said to him, Where is he? And Ziba said to the king, Behold, he is in the house of Machir, the son of Ammiel, in Lodebar. <sup>5</sup>And king David sent and brought him out of the house of Machir the son of Ammiel, from Lodebar. <sup>6</sup>And when Mephibosheth, the son of Jonathan, the son of Saul, had come to David, he fell on his face and bowed to him. And David said, Mephibosheth! And he answered, Behold your servant! <sup>7</sup>And David said to him, Do not fear, for I will surely show you kindness for Jonathan your father's sake, and will restore you all the land of Saul your father. And you shall eat bread at my table forever. <sup>8</sup>And he bowed himself and said, What is your servant, that you should look upon such a dead dog as I? <sup>9</sup>Then the king called to Ziba, Saul's servant, and said to him, I have given to your master's son all that belonged to Saul and to all his house. <sup>10</sup>And you shall till the land for him, you and your sons and your servants. And you shall bring in the fruits so that your master's son may have bread to eat. But Mephibosheth, your master's son, shall eat bread always at my table. And Ziba had fifteen sons and twenty servants. <sup>11</sup>And Ziba said to the king, According to all that my lord the king has commanded his servant, so shall your servant do. And Mephibosheth was eating at my table like one of the king's sons. <sup>12</sup>And Mephibosheth had a young son, whose name was Micah. And all that lived in the house of Ziba were servants to Mephibosheth. <sup>13</sup>And Mephibosheth lived in Jerusalem. For he always sat at the king's table. And he was lame in both his feet.

CHAPTER 10

<sup>1</sup>And it happened after this, the king of the sons of Ammon died, and his son Hanun reigned in his stead. <sup>2</sup>And David said, I will show kindness to Hanun the son of Nahash, as his father showed kindness to me. And David sent to comfort him for his father, by the hand of his servants. And David's servants came to the land of the sons of Ammon. <sup>3</sup>And the leaders of the sons of Ammon said to Hanun their lord, Do you think that David honors your father, that he has sent comforters to you? Has not David sent his servants to you to search the city, and to spy it out, and to overthrow it? <sup>4</sup>And Hanun took David's servants and shaved off half their beards, and cut off their garments in the middle, to their buttocks, and sent them away. <sup>5</sup>And they told David, and he sent to meet them, because the men were greatly ashamed. And the king said, Stay at Jericho until your beards are grown, and return. <sup>6</sup>And the sons of Ammon saw that they had begun to stink before David. And the sons of Ammon sent and hired the Syrians of Beth-rehob, and the Syrians of Zobah, twenty thousand footmen, and from king Maacah a thousand men, and from Ishtob twelve thousand men. <sup>7</sup>And David heard. And he sent Joab and all the army of the mighty men. <sup>8</sup>And the sons of Ammon came out and put the battle in order at the entering in of the gate. And the Syrians of Zobah, and of Rehob, and Ishtob, and Maacah, were by themselves in the field. <sup>9</sup>And Joab saw that the front of the battle was against him before and behind. And he chose from all the choice ones of Israel, and put them in order against the Syrians. <sup>10</sup>And the rest of the people he delivered into the hand of Abishai his brother, so that he might set in order against the sons of Ammon. <sup>11</sup>And he said, If the Syrians are too strong for me, then you shall help me. But if the sons of Ammon are too strong for you, then I will come and help you. <sup>12</sup>Be of good courage, and let us play the men for our people and for the cities of our God. And may the LORD do that which seems good to Him. <sup>13</sup>And Joab and the people with him drew near to the battle against the Syrians. And they fled before him. <sup>14</sup>And when the sons of Ammon saw that the Syrians had fled, then they fled also before Abishai, and entered into the city. And Joab returned from the sons of Ammon and came to Jerusalem.

<sup>15</sup>And the Syrians saw that they were beaten before Israel, they gathered together. <sup>16</sup>And Hadarezer sent and brought out the Syrians who were beyond the river. And they came to Helam. And Shobach the captain of the host of Hadarezer went before them. <sup>17</sup>And David was told. And he gathered all Israel and passed over Jordan, and came to Helam. And the Syrians set themselves in order to meet David and fought with him. <sup>18</sup>And the Syrians fled before Israel. And David killed the men of seven hundred chariots of the Syrians, and forty thousand horsemen, and struck Shobach the captain of their army, who died there. <sup>19</sup>And all the kings, the servants of Hadarezer, saw that they were beaten before Israel, and they made peace with Israel and served them. And the Syrians feared to help the sons of Ammon any more.

CHAPTER 11

<sup>1</sup>And it happened after the year had passed, at the time kings go forth, David sent Joab, and his servants with him, and all Israel. And they destroyed the sons of Ammon and circled Rabbah. But David remained at Jerusalem.

<sup>2</sup>And it happened one evening, David arose from his bed and walked on the roof of the king's house. And from the roof he saw a woman bathing. And the woman was very beautiful to look upon. <sup>3</sup>And David sent and asked about the woman. And one said, Is not this Bathsheba, the daughter of Eliam, the wife of Uriah the Hittite? <sup>4</sup>And David sent messengers and took her. And she came in to him, and he lay with her. And she had purified herself from her uncleanness. And she returned to her house. <sup>5</sup>And the woman conceived, and sent and told David, and said, I am with child.

<sup>6</sup>And David sent to Joab, saying, Send me Uriah the Hittite. And Joab sent Uriah to David. <sup>7</sup>And when Uriah had come to him, David asked how Joab did, and how the people did, and how the war went. <sup>8</sup>And David said to Uriah, Go down to your house and wash your feet. And Uriah left the king's house. And a gift from the king went out after him. <sup>9</sup>But Uriah slept at the door of the king's house with all the servants of his lord, and did not go down to his house. <sup>10</sup>And they told David, saying, Uriah did not go to his house. And David said to Uriah, Did you not come from a journey? Why have you not gone down to your house? <sup>11</sup>And Uriah said to David, The ark and Israel and Judah abide in tents. And my lord Joab, and the servants of my lord, are camped in the open fields. Shall I then go to my house to eat and to drink and to lie with my wife? As you live, and as your soul lives, I will not do this thing. <sup>12</sup>And David said to Uriah, Stay here today also, and tomorrow I will let you go. And Uriah stayed in Jerusalem that day and the next day. <sup>13</sup>And when David had called him, he ate and drank before him. And he made him drunk. And at evening he went out to lie on his bed with the servants of his lord, but he did not go down to his house.

<sup>14</sup>And it happened in the morning, David wrote a letter to Joab and sent it by the hand of Uriah. <sup>15</sup>And he wrote in the letter, saying, Set Uriah in the forefront of the hottest battle, and draw back from him so that he may be stricken and die. <sup>16</sup>And it happened when Joab observed the city, he sent Uriah to a place where he knew brave men were. <sup>17</sup>And the men of the city went out and fought with Joab.

And some of the people of the servants of David fell. And Uriah the Hittite also died. <sup>18</sup>Then Joab sent and told David all the things concerning the war. <sup>19</sup>And he commanded the messenger saying, When you have made an end of telling the matters of the war to the king, <sup>20</sup>and if it be so that the king's wrath arise, and he say to you, Why did you approach so near to the city when you fought? Did you not know that they would shoot from the wall? <sup>21</sup>Who struck Abimelech the son of Jerub-besheth? Did not a woman cast a piece of a millstone upon him from the wall, so that he died in Thebez? Why did you go near the wall? And you shall say, Your servant Uriah the Hittite is dead also.

<sup>22</sup>And the messenger departed, and came and told David all that Joab had sent him to tell. <sup>23</sup>And the messenger said to David, Surely the men prevailed against us, and came out to us to the field, and we were upon them even to the entering of the gate. <sup>24</sup>And the shooters shot from off the wall upon your servants, and some of the king's servants are dead, and your servant Uriah the Hittite is dead also. <sup>25</sup>Then David said to the messenger, So you shall say to Joab, Do not let this thing displease you, for the sword devours one as well as another. Make your battle stronger against the city and overthrow it. And you encourage him.

<sup>26</sup>And the wife of Uriah heard that Uriah her husband was dead, and mourned for her husband. <sup>27</sup>And when her mourning was past, David sent and brought her to his house, and she became his wife and bore him a son. But the thing that David had done was evil in the eyes of the LORD.

CHAPTER 12

<sup>1</sup>And the LORD sent Nathan to David. And he came to him and said to him, There were two men in one city, one rich and one poor. <sup>2</sup>The rich one had exceeding many flocks and herds, <sup>3</sup>but the poor one had nothing except one little ewe lamb which he had bought and nourished up. And it grew up together with him and with his sons. It ate of his own food and drank from his own cup, and lay in his bosom, and was to him like a daughter. <sup>4</sup>And there came a traveler to the rich man, and he spared to take of his own flock and of his own herd to dress for the traveler that had come to him. But he took the poor man's lamb and dressed it for the man who had come to him. <sup>5</sup>And David's anger was greatly kindled against the man. And he said to Nathan, As the LORD lives, the man who has done this shall surely die. <sup>6</sup>And he shall restore the lamb fourfold, because he did this thing, and because he had no pity. <sup>7</sup>And Nathan said to David, You are the man! So says the LORD God of Israel, I anointed you king over Israel, and I delivered you out of the hand of Saul. <sup>8</sup>And I gave you your master's house and your master's wives into your bosom, and gave you the house of Israel and of Judah. And if that was too little, I would have given to you such and such things besides. <sup>9</sup>Why have you despised the commandment of the LORD, to do evil in His sight? You have stricken Uriah the Hittite with the sword, and have taken his wife to be your wife, and have killed him with the sword of the sons of Ammon. <sup>10</sup>And therefore, the sword shall never depart from your house, because you have despised Me and have taken the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be your wife. <sup>11</sup>So says the LORD, Behold, I will raise up evil against you out of your own house, and I will take your wives before your eyes and give them to your neighbor. And he shall lie with your wives in the sight of this sun. <sup>12</sup>For you did it secretly, but I will do this thing before all Israel and before the sun. <sup>13</sup>And David said to Nathan, I have sinned against the LORD. And Nathan said to David, The LORD also has put away your sin; you shall not die. <sup>14</sup>Only, because by this deed you have given great occasion to the enemies of the LORD to blaspheme, this child born to you shall surely die.

<sup>15</sup>And Nathan left to go to his house. And the LORD struck the child that Uriah's wife bore to David, and it was very sick. <sup>16</sup>And David prayed to God for the child. And David fasted, and went in and lay all night upon the earth. <sup>17</sup>And the elders of his house rose up toward to him, to raise him up from the earth. But he would not, neither did he eat bread with them. <sup>18</sup>And it happened on the seventh day, the child died. And the servants of David feared to tell him that the child was dead. For they said, Behold, while the child was still alive we spoke to him, and he would not listen to our voice. How then will he trouble himself if we tell him that the child is dead? <sup>19</sup>But David saw that his servants whispered. And David understood that the child was dead. And David said to his servants, Is the child dead? And they said, He is dead. <sup>20</sup>And David arose from the earth and washed, and anointed himself, and changed his clothing, and came into the house of the LORD and worshipped. And he came to his house, and commanded, and they brought bread before him and he ate. <sup>21</sup>Then his servants said to him, What is this that you have done? You fasted and wept for the living boy, but when the child was dead you arose and ate bread! <sup>22</sup>And he said, While the child was still alive, I fasted and wept; for I said, Who can tell if God will be gracious to me so that the child may live? <sup>23</sup>But now he is dead; why should I fast? Can I bring him back again? I shall go to him, but he shall not return to me.

<sup>24</sup>And David comforted his wife Bathsheba. And he went in to her and lay with her. And she bore a son. And he called his name Solomon. And the LORD loved him. <sup>25</sup>And he sent by the hand of Nathan the prophet, and he called his name Jedidah, because of Jehovah.

<sup>26</sup>And Joab fought against Rabbah of the sons of Ammon, and took the royal city. <sup>27</sup>And Joab sent messengers to David and said, I have fought against Rabbah, and have taken the city of waters. <sup>28</sup>And therefore gather the rest of the people together, and camp against the city and take it, lest I take the city and it be called after my name. <sup>29</sup>And David gathered all the people and went to Rabbah, and fought against it and took it. <sup>30</sup>And he took the king's crown from off his head, the weight of which was a talent of gold with the precious stones. And it was set on David's head. And he brought forth the spoil of the city in great abundance. <sup>31</sup>And he brought forth the people that were in it, and put them to the saw, and to sharp tools of iron, and to axes of iron. And he made them go over into the brick-kiln. And so he did to all the cities of the sons of Ammon. And David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

CHAPTER 13

<sup>1</sup>And it happened after this Absalom the son of David had a beautiful sister whose name was Tamar. And Amnon the son of David loved her. <sup>2</sup>And Amnon was so troubled that he fell sick for his sister Tamar, for she was a virgin. And Amnon thought it hard for him to do anything to her. <sup>3</sup>And Amnon had a friend, whose name was Jonadab, the son of David's brother Shimeah. And Jonadab was a very crafty man. <sup>4</sup>And he said to him, Why are you, the king's son, lean from day to day? Will you not tell me? And Amnon said to him, I love Tamar, my brother Absalom's sister. <sup>5</sup>And Jonadab said to him, Lay down on your bed and make yourself sick. And when your father comes to see you, say to him, Please let my sister Tamar come and give me food, and prepare the food in my sight so that I may see and eat it at her hand. <sup>6</sup>And Amnon lay down and made himself sick. And when the king had come to see him, Amnon said to the king, Please let my sister Tamar come and make me a couple of cakes in my sight, so that I may eat at her hand. <sup>7</sup>And David sent home to Tamar, saying, Go now to your brother Amnon's house, and prepare food for him. <sup>8</sup>And Tamar went to her brother

Amnon's house. And he had lain down. And she took flour and kneaded it, and made cakes in his sight, and baked the cakes. <sup>9</sup>And she took a pan and poured them out before him. But he refused to eat. And Amnon said, Have all the men go out from me. And every man one of them went out from him. <sup>10</sup>And Amnon said to Tamar, Bring the food into the room so that I may eat out of your hand. And Tamar took the cakes which she had made, and brought them into the room to Amnon her brother. <sup>11</sup>And when she had brought them to him to eat, he took hold of her and said to her, Come lie with me, my sister. <sup>12</sup>And she answered him, No, my brother, do not humble me. For no such thing ought to be done in Israel. Do not do this folly. <sup>13</sup>And I, where shall I cause my shame to go? And as for you, you shall be as one of the fools in Israel. But now please speak to the king. For he will not withhold me from you. <sup>14</sup>But he would not listen to her voice; but being stronger than she, he forced her and lay with her. <sup>15</sup>Then Amnon hated her with a great hatred. And the hatred with which he hated her was greater than the love with which he had loved her. And Amnon said to her, Get up and go. <sup>16</sup>And she said to him, There is no cause. This evil in sending me away is greater than the other that you did to me. But he would not listen to her. <sup>17</sup>And he called his servant who waited on him and said, And put this woman out from me, and bolt the door after her. <sup>18</sup>And she had a robe of many colors upon her, for the king's virgin daughters were clothed with such robes. And his servant brought her out and bolted the door after her. <sup>19</sup>And Tamar put ashes on her head and tore the robe of many colors that was on her, and laid her hand on her head, and went on, crying. <sup>20</sup>And Absalom her brother said to her, Has Amnon your brother been with you? But now hold your peace, my sister. He is your brother. Do not set your heart on this thing. And Tamar remained desolate in her brother Absalom's house.

<sup>21</sup>And when king David heard of all these things, he was very angry. <sup>22</sup>And Absalom did not speak to his brother Amnon, neither good nor bad, for Absalom hated Amnon because he had forced his sister Tamar. <sup>23</sup>And it happened after two full years Absalom had sheepshearers in Baal-hazor, beside Ephraim. And Absalom invited all the king's sons. <sup>24</sup>And Absalom came to the king and said, Behold now, your servant has shearers. Please let the king and his servants go with your servant. <sup>25</sup>And the king said to Absalom, No, my son, let us not all go now, lest we be too heavy upon you. And he pressed him. He would not go, however, but blessed him. <sup>26</sup>Then Absalom said, If not, please let my brother Amnon go with us? And the king said to him, Why should he go with you? <sup>27</sup>But Absalom pressed him, so that he let Amnon and all the king's sons go with him. <sup>28</sup>And Absalom had commanded his servants, saying, And watch when Amnon's heart is merry with wine, and when I say to you, Strike Amnon, you shall kill him. Do not fear. Have I not commanded you? Be courageous, and be brave. <sup>29</sup>And the servants of Absalom did to Amnon as Absalom had commanded. And all the king's sons arose. And they each got on his mule and fled.

<sup>30</sup>And it happened while they were in the way, news came to David, saying, Absalom has killed all the king's sons, and there is not one of them left. <sup>31</sup>And the king arose and tore his garments, and lay on the earth. And all his servants stood by with their clothes torn. <sup>32</sup>And Jonadab, the son of David's brother Shimeah answered and said, Let not my lord think that they have killed all the young men, the king's sons. For only Amnon is dead. For by the mouth of Absalom this has been determined from the day that he humbled his sister Tamar. <sup>33</sup>And now do not let my lord the king take the thing to his heart, to think that all the king's sons are dead, for only Amnon is dead. <sup>34</sup>But Absalom fled. And the young man that kept the watch lifted up his eyes and looked. And, behold, many people came by the way of the hillside behind him. <sup>35</sup>And Jonadab said to the king, Behold, the king's sons come; as your servant said, so it is. <sup>36</sup>And it happened as soon as he had made an end of speaking, behold, the king's sons came. And they lifted up their voice and wept. And the king also and all his servants wept with a great weeping.

<sup>37</sup>But Absalom fled and went to Talmi, the son of Ammihud, king of Geshur. And David mourned for his son every day. <sup>38</sup>And Absalom fled and went to Geshur, and was there three years. <sup>39</sup>And king David longed to go forth to Absalom, for he was comforted about Amnon, since he was dead.

CHAPTER 14

<sup>1</sup>And Joab the son of Zeruiah saw that the king's heart was toward Absalom. <sup>2</sup>And Joab sent to Tekoah and brought a wise woman from there. And he said to her, Please pretend yourself to be a mourner, and put on mourning clothes now, and do not anoint yourself with oil. But be like a woman who has mourned for the dead a long time. <sup>3</sup>And come to the king, and speak in this way to him. And Joab put the words in her mouth. <sup>4</sup>And the woman of Tekoah spoke to the king, and bowed and said, Save, O, King! <sup>5</sup>And the king said to her. What ails you? And she answered, I am indeed a widow, and my husband died. <sup>6</sup>And your handmaid had two sons, and the two of them fought together in the field. And there was no deliverer between them, but the one struck the other and killed him. <sup>7</sup>And behold, the whole family has risen against your handmaid. And they said, Deliver him who struck his brother so that we may kill him for the life of his brother whom he killed. And we will destroy the heir also. And so they shall put out my coal which is left, and shall leave to my husband neither name nor remainder upon the face of the earth. <sup>8</sup>And the king said to the woman, Go to your house, and I will give command concerning you. <sup>9</sup>And the woman of Tekoah said to the king. My lord, O king, may the iniquity be on me and on my father's house. And may the king and his throne be without guilt. <sup>10</sup>And the king said, Whoever speaks to you, you also bring him to me, and he shall not touch you any more. <sup>11</sup>Then she said, Please let the king remember the LORD your God, that you would not allow the avengers of blood to destroy any more, lest they should destroy my son. And he said, As the LORD lives, there shall not one hair of your son fall to the earth. <sup>12</sup>Then the woman said, Please let your handmaid speak one more word to my lord the king. And he said, Say on! <sup>13</sup>And the woman said, Why then have you thought such a thing against the people of God? For the king speaks this thing as one who is at fault, in that the king does not bring his banished one home again. <sup>14</sup>For we must all die, and we are as water spilled on the ground, which cannot be gathered up again. And God does not take a life, but has devised plans so that the outcast is not cast out from Him. <sup>15</sup>And now I have come to speak of this thing to my lord the king, because the people have made me afraid. And your handmaid said, I will now speak to the king. It may be that the king will do what his handmaid has asked. <sup>16</sup>For the king will hear, to deliver his handmaid out of the hand of the man who would destroy me and my son together out of the inheritance of God. <sup>17</sup>And your handmaid said, The word of my lord the king shall now be comforting. For as an angel of God, so is my lord the king, to see what is good and bad. And the LORD your God will be with you.

<sup>18</sup>And the king answered and said to the woman, Please do not hide from me the thing that I shall ask you. And the woman said, Let my lord the king now speak. <sup>19</sup>And the king said, Is the hand of Joab with you in all this? And the woman answered and said, As your soul lives, my lord the king, none shall turn to the right hand or to the left from anything which my lord the king has spoken. For your servant Joab commanded me. And he put all these words in the mouth of your handmaid. <sup>20</sup>Your servant Joab has done this thing to change the face of the matter. And my lord is wise according to the wisdom of an angel of God, to know all that is in the land.

<sup>21</sup>And the king said to Joab, Behold now, I have done this thing. Go therefore and bring the young man Absalom again. <sup>22</sup>And Joab fell to the ground on his face, and bowed himself, and thanked the king. And Joab said, Today your servant knows that I have found grace in your sight, my lord, O, king, in that the king has done what your servant has asked. <sup>23</sup>And Joab arose and went to Geshur, and brought Absalom to Jerusalem. <sup>24</sup>And the king said, Let him turn to his own house, and let him not see my face. And Absalom returned to his own house, and did not see the king's face. <sup>25</sup>But in all Israel there was not a man handsome like Absalom. From the sole of his foot even to the crown of his head there was no blemish in him. <sup>26</sup>And when he sheared his head (for it was at every year's end that he sheared it, because it was heavy on him. And he sheared it), and he weighed the hair of his head at two hundred shekels, according to the king's weight. <sup>27</sup>And there were born three sons to Absalom, and one daughter, whose name was Tamar. She was a woman with a beautiful face.

<sup>28</sup>And Absalom lived two full years in Jerusalem and did not see the king's face. <sup>29</sup>And Absalom sent to Joab, to send him to the king. But he would not come to him. And when he sent again a second time, he would not come. <sup>30</sup>And he said to his servants, See, Joab's field is near mine, and he has barley there. Go and set it on fire! And Absalom's servants set the field on fire. <sup>31</sup>And Joab arose and came to Absalom's house, and said to him, Why have your servants set my field on fire? <sup>32</sup>And Absalom answered Joab, Behold, I sent to you, saying, Come here so that I may send you to the king, to say, Why have I come from Geshur? It was good for me to be there still. And now let me see the king's face, and if there is iniquity in me, let him kill me. <sup>33</sup>And Joab came to the king and told him. And when he had called for Absalom, he came to the king and bowed himself on his face to the ground before the king. And the king kissed Absalom.

CHAPTER 15

<sup>1</sup>And it happened after this, Absalom prepared himself chariots and horses and fifty men to run before him. <sup>2</sup>And Absalom rose up early and stood beside the way of the gate. And it was so, if any man had a suit to come before the king for judgment, then Absalom called to him and said, What city are you from? And he said, Your servant is of one of the tribes of Israel. <sup>3</sup>And Absalom said to him, See! Your matters are good and right. But no man from the king will hear you. <sup>4</sup>And Absalom said, Oh that I might be made judge in the land, so that every man who has any suit or cause might come to me, and I would do him justice! <sup>5</sup>And it was so, when any man came near to bow down to him, he put forth his hand and took him and kissed him. <sup>6</sup>And in this way Absalom did to all Israel that came to the king for judgment. And Absalom stole the hearts of the men of Israel.

<sup>7</sup>And it happened at the end of forty years, Absalom said to the king, Please let me go and pay my vow which I have vowed to the LORD in Hebron. <sup>8</sup>For your servant vowed a vow while I lived at Geshur in Syria, saying, If the LORD will indeed bring me again to Jerusalem, then I will serve the LORD. <sup>9</sup>And the king said to him, Go in peace. And he arose and went to Hebron. <sup>10</sup>But Absalom sent spies throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, As soon as you hear the sound of the trumpet, then you shall say, Absalom reigns in Hebron! <sup>11</sup>And with Absalom went two hundred called men out of Jerusalem. And they went in their honesty, and did not know anything about Absalom's plans. <sup>12</sup>And Absalom sent for Ahithophel of Giloh, David's counselor, from his city Giloh, while he offered sacrifices. And the conspiracy was strong, for the people with Absalom grew more and more.

<sup>13</sup>And a messenger came to David saying, The hearts of the men of Israel are after Absalom. <sup>14</sup>And David said to all his servants with him at Jerusalem, Arise, and let us flee! For otherwise we shall not escape from Absalom. Make haste to depart, lest he overtake us suddenly and bring evil upon us, and strike the city with the edge of the sword. <sup>15</sup>And the king's servants said to the king, Behold, your servants will do whatever my lord the king shall choose. <sup>16</sup>And the king went forth, and all his household after him. And the king left ten women, concubines, to keep the house. <sup>17</sup>And the king went forth, and all the people after him, and stayed in a place that was far off. <sup>18</sup>And all his servants passed on beside him. And all the Cherethites, and all the Pelethites, and all the Gittites, six hundred men who came after him from Gath, passed on before the king. <sup>19</sup>Then the king said to Ittai the Gittite, Why do you also go with us? Return to your place, and stay with the king. For you are a stranger, and also an exile. <sup>20</sup>Since you came only yesterday, should I make you go up and down with us today? Since I go where I may, you may return and take back your brothers. May mercy and truth be with you. <sup>21</sup>And Ittai answered the king and said, As the LORD lives, and as my lord the king lives, surely in whatever place my lord the king shall be, whether in death or life, even there also will your servant be. <sup>22</sup>And David said to Ittai, Go and pass over. And Ittai the Gittite passed over, and all his men, and all the little ones with him. <sup>23</sup>And all the country wept with a loud voice, and all the people passed over. The king himself also passed over the brook Kidron, and all the people passed over toward the way of the wilderness.

<sup>24</sup>And lo, Zadok came also, and all the Levites were with him, carrying the ark of the covenant of God. And they set down the ark of God. And Abiathar went up until all the people had finished passing out of the city. <sup>25</sup>And the king said to Zadok, Carry the ark of God back into the city. If I shall find favor in the eyes of the LORD, He will bring me again and show it to me, and its dwelling place also. <sup>26</sup>But if He says this, I have no delight in you; behold me, and let Him do to me as seems good to Him. <sup>27</sup>The king also said to Zadok the priest, Are you a seer? Return to the city in peace, and your two sons with you. Ahimaaz your son, and Jonathan the son of Abiathar. <sup>28</sup>Behold, I will wait in the plain of the wilderness until there comes word from you to tell me. <sup>29</sup>And Zadok and Abiathar carried the ark of God again to Jerusalem. And they remained there.

<sup>30</sup>And David went up by the ascent of mount Olivet. And he wept as he went up, and had his head covered, and he went barefoot. And of all the people with him, each man covered his head. And they went up, weeping as they went. <sup>31</sup>And one told David, saying, Ahithophel is among the conspirators with Absalom. And David said, O LORD, I pray You, turn the advice of Ahithophel to foolishness. <sup>32</sup>And it happened when David had come to the top, where he worshiped God, behold, Hushai the Archite came to meet him with his coat torn and earth upon his head. <sup>33</sup>David said to him, If you pass on with me, then you shall be a burden to me. <sup>34</sup>But if you return to the city and say to Absalom, I will be your servant, O king; I have been your father's servant until now, and now I also will be your servant, then you may break down the advice of Ahithophel for me. <sup>35</sup>And do you not have there with you Zadok and Abiathar the priests? And it shall be, whatever you shall hear out of the king's house, you shall tell it to Zadok and Abiathar the priests. <sup>36</sup>Behold, they have their two sons there with them, Ahimaaz, Zadok's son, and Jonathan, Ahimaaz's son. And you shall send to me everything that you hear by them.<sup>37</sup> And David's friend Hushai came to the city. And Absalom came into Jerusalem.

CHAPTER 16

<sup>1</sup>And David had passed on a little from the top. And, behold, Ziba the servant of Mephibosheth met him with a couple of asses saddled, and upon them two hundred loaves of bread, and a hundred bunches of raisins, and a hundred of summer fruits, and a bottle of wine. <sup>2</sup>And the king said to Ziba, What are these to you? And Ziba said, The asses are for the king's household to ride upon. And the bread and summer fruit are for the young men to eat. And the wine is so that the ones who are faint in the wilderness may drink. <sup>3</sup>And the king said, And where is your master's son? And Ziba said to the king, Behold, he remains at Jerusalem. For he said, Today the house of Israel shall restore to me the kingdom of my father. <sup>4</sup>And the king said to Ziba, Behold, All that belonged to Mephibosheth is yours. And Ziba said, I humbly beg you that I may find grace in your sight, my lord, O king.

<sup>5</sup>And king David came to Bahurim. And, behold, a man of the house of Saul came out from there, whose name was Shimei, the son of Gera. He came out, and he came cursing. <sup>6</sup>And he threw stones at David and at all the servants of king David. And all the people and all the mighty men were on his right hand, and on his left. <sup>7</sup>And Shimei said this in his cursing, Go out, O man of blood, O man of Belial. <sup>8</sup>The LORD has returned on you all the blood of the house of Saul, in whose place you have reigned. And the LORD has delivered the kingdom into the hand of Absalom your son. And behold, you are taken in your mischief, because you are a man of blood! <sup>9</sup>And Abishai the son of Zeruiah said to the king, Why should this dead dog curse my lord the king? Please let me go over and take off his head. <sup>10</sup>And the king said, What have I to do with you, sons of Zeruiah? Let him curse, because the LORD has said to him, Curse David. Who then shall say, Why have you done so? <sup>11</sup>And David said to Abishai and to all his servants, Behold, my son, who came forth from my bowels, seeks my life; and surely now this Benjamite? Let him alone and let him curse, for the LORD has spoken to him. <sup>12</sup>It may be that the LORD will look on my affliction, and that the LORD will repay me with good for his cursing this day.

<sup>13</sup>And David and his men went by the highway. And Shimei went along on the hillside over across from him, and cursed as he went, and threw stones at him, and threw dust. <sup>14</sup>And the king, and all the people with him arrived weary. And they refreshed themselves there.

<sup>15</sup>And Absalom and all the people, the men of Israel, came to Jerusalem. And Ahithophel went with him. <sup>16</sup>And it happened, when Hushai the Archite, David's friend, had come to Absalom, Hushai said to Absalom, Let the king live, let the king live! <sup>17</sup>And Absalom said to Hushai, Is this your kindness to your friend? Why did you not go with your friend? <sup>18</sup>And Hushai said to Absalom, No, but whom the LORD and this people, and all the men of Israel choose, his will I be, and I will stay with him. <sup>19</sup>And again, whom should I serve? Should I not serve in the presence of his son? As I have served in your father's presence, so I will be in your presence.

<sup>20</sup>And Absalom said to Ahithophel, Give your advice. What shall we do? <sup>21</sup>And Ahithophel said to Absalom, Go in to your father's concubines, those he left to keep the house. And all Israel shall hear that you are abhorred by your father. And the hands of all who are with you will be strong. <sup>22</sup>And they spread Absalom a tent on the top of the house, and Absalom went in to his father's concubines in the sight of all Israel. <sup>23</sup>And the advice of Ahithophel, which he advised in those days, was as if a man had inquired at the oracle of God. So was all the advice of Ahithophel, both with David and with Absalom.

CHAPTER 17

<sup>1</sup>And Ahithophel said to Absalom, Please let me choose out twelve thousand men, and I will arise and pursue after David tonight. <sup>2</sup>And I will come upon him while he is weary and weak-handed, and I will make him tremble. And all the people with him will flee. And I will strike the king by himself. <sup>3</sup>And I will bring back all the people to you, when all return, except the man whom you are seeking. <sup>4</sup>And the saying pleased Absalom very much, and all the elders of Israel. <sup>5</sup>And Absalom said, Please call Hushai the Archite also, and let us hear likewise what is in his mouth. <sup>6</sup>And Hushai came in to Absalom. And Absalom spoke to him saying, Ahithophel has spoken in this way. Shall we do his word? If not, you speak. <sup>7</sup>And Hushai said to Absalom, The advice which Ahithophel has given is not good at this time. <sup>8</sup>For, Hushai said, you know your father and his men, that they are mighty men, and they are bitter of soul, like a bear robbed of her cubs in the field. And your father is a man of war, and will not stay the night with the people. <sup>9</sup>Behold, he is hidden now in some pit, or in one of the places. And it shall be, at the falling among them at the first, whoever hears will say, There is a slaughter among the people who follow Absalom. <sup>10</sup>And also he, the son of valor, whose heart is like the heart of a lion, shall utterly melt. For all Israel knows that your father is a mighty man, and they who are with him are mighty men. <sup>11</sup>Therefore I advise that all Israel be generally gathered to you, from Dan even to Beer-sheba, like the sand that is by the sea for multitude. And you yourself shall go into battle. <sup>12</sup>And we shall come upon him in some place where he shall be found, and we will light upon him like the dew falls upon the ground. And of all the men that are with him, not even one shall be left. <sup>13</sup>And if he has gotten into a city, then all Israel shall bring ropes to that city, and we will draw it into the river until there is not one small stone found there. <sup>14</sup>And Absalom and all the men of Israel said, The counsel of Hushai the Archite is better than the counsel of Ahithophel. For the LORD had appointed to defeat the good counsel of Ahithophel, to the intent that the LORD might bring evil on Absalom.

<sup>15</sup>And Hushai said to Zadok and to Abiathar the priests, This and this Ahithophel advised Absalom and the elders of Israel, and this and this I have advised. <sup>16</sup>And now send quickly and tell David, saying, Do not stay in the plains of the wilderness tonight, but speedily pass over, lest the king be swallowed up, and all the people with him. <sup>17</sup>And Jonathan and Ahimaaz stayed by En-rogel, for there they might not be seen to come into the city. And a girl went and told them, and they went and told king David. <sup>18</sup>But a lad saw them and told Absalom. But both of them went away quickly, and came to a man's house in Bahurim, who had a well in his court, into which they went down. <sup>19</sup>And the woman took and spread a covering over the well's mouth, and spread ground grain on it, and the thing was not known. <sup>20</sup>And when Absalom's servants came to the woman of the house, they said, Where are Ahimaaz and Jonathan? And the woman said to them, They have gone over the brook of water. And when they had searched and could not find them, they returned to Jerusalem. <sup>21</sup>And it happened after they had departed, they came up out of the well, and went and told King David. And they said to David, Arise and pass quickly over the water, for this is what Ahithophel has advised against you. <sup>22</sup>Then David and all the people with him arose. And they passed over Jordan. By the morning light there was not one of them that had not gone over Jordan.

<sup>23</sup>And when Ahithophel saw that his counsel was not followed, he saddled his ass and arose, and went home to his house, to his city, and put his household in order. And he hanged himself and died, and was buried in the tomb of his father.

<sup>24</sup>And David came to Mahanaim. And Absalom passed over Jordan, he and all the men of Israel with him. <sup>25</sup>And Absalom made Amasa captain of the army instead of Joab. This Amasa was the son of a man named Ithra, an Israelite, who went in to Abigail the daughter of Nahash, sister to Zeruiah, Joab's mother. <sup>26</sup>And Israel and Absalom pitched in the land of Gilead. <sup>27</sup>And it happened when David came to Mahanaim, Shobi the son of Nahash of Rabbah, of the sons of Ammon, and Machir the son of Ammiel of Lodebar, and Barzillai the Gileadite of Rogelim, <sup>28</sup>brought beds and basins and earthen vessels, and wheat and barley and flour and parched grain, and beans and lentils and other parched food, <sup>29</sup>and honey and butter and sheep and cheese from cows, for David and for the people with him to eat. For they said, The people are hungry and weary and thirsty in the wilderness.

CHAPTER 18

<sup>1</sup>And David numbered the people who were with him, and set captains of thousands and captains of hundreds over them. <sup>2</sup>And David sent forth a third of the people under the hand of Joab, and a third under the hand of Abishai the son of Zeruiah, Joab's brother, and a third under the hand of Ittai the Gittite. And the king said to the people, I will also surely go forth with you myself. <sup>3</sup>But the people answered, You shall not go forth. For if we run away, they will not set their heart on us, even if half of us die. For now you are worth ten thousand of us. And now it is better that you remain to help us from the city. <sup>4</sup>And the king said to them, I will do what is good in your eyes. And the king stood by the side of the gate, and all the people came out by hundreds and by thousands. <sup>5</sup>And the king commanded Joab and Abishai and Ittai, saying, For my sake be gentle with the young man, with Absalom. And all the people heard when the king gave all the captains charge concerning Absalom. <sup>6</sup>And the people went out into the field against Israel. And the battle was in the forest of Ephraim. <sup>7</sup>And the people of Israel were killed there before the servants of David. And there was a great slaughter that day of twenty thousand. <sup>8</sup>For the battle was scattered there over the face of all the country. And the forest devoured more people that day than the sword devoured.

<sup>9</sup>And Absalom met the servants of David. And Absalom rode on a mule, and the mule went under the thick boughs of a great oak. And his head caught hold of the oak, and he was taken up between the heavens and the earth. And the mule which was under him went away. <sup>10</sup>And a certain man saw and told Joab, and said, Behold, I saw Absalom hanged in an oak. <sup>11</sup>And Joab said to the man who told him, And, behold, you saw him, and why did you not strike him there to the ground? And I would have given you ten shekels of silver and a girdle. <sup>12</sup>And the man said to Joab, Though I should receive a thousand shekels of silver in my hand, yet I would not put forth my hand against the king's son. For in our hearing the king charged you and Abishai and Ittai, saying, Beware you who go against the young man, against Absalom. <sup>13</sup>Or I would have dealt falsely with my own life, for there is no matter hidden from the king, and you yourself would have set yourself against me. <sup>14</sup>And Joab said, I cannot stay here with you this way! And he took three darts in his hand and thrust them through the heart of Absalom while he was still alive in the midst of the oak. <sup>15</sup>And ten young men who bore Joab's armor surrounded and struck Absalom, and killed him.

<sup>16</sup>And Joab blew the trumpet, and the people returned from pursuing Israel. For Joab held back the people. <sup>17</sup>And they took Absalom and threw him into a great pit in the woods. And they laid a very great heap of stones upon him. And all Israel fled, each one to his tent. <sup>18</sup>And Absalom in his lifetime had taken and reared up for himself a pillar, which is in the King's Valley. For he said, I have no son to keep my name in remembrance. And he called the pillar after his own name. And it is called until this day, Absalom's monument.

<sup>19</sup>Then Ahimaaz the son of Zadok said, And let me run and bear the news to the king, how the LORD has avenged him of his enemies. <sup>20</sup>And Joab said to him, You shall not bear news today, but you shall bear good news some other day. But today you shall bear no tidings, because the king's son is dead. <sup>21</sup>And Joab said to Cush, Go tell the king what you have seen. And Cush bowed himself to Joab, and ran. <sup>22</sup>And Ahimaaz the son of Zadok said yet again to Joab, Yet whatever, please let me also run after the Cushite. And Joab said, Why will you run, my son, since you have no good news ready? <sup>23</sup>But he said, Yet whatever, let me run! And he said to him, Run. And Ahimaaz ran by the way of the plain, and ran past the Cushite. <sup>24</sup>And David sat between the two gates. And the watchman went up to the roof over the gate to the wall, and lifted up his eyes and looked. And behold, a man ran alone. <sup>25</sup>And the watchman cried and told the king. And the king said, If he is alone, there is news in his mouth. And he came apace and drew near. <sup>26</sup>And the watchman saw another man running. And the watchman called to the porter and said, Behold, another man running alone. And the king said, He also brings news. <sup>27</sup>And the watchman said, I see the running of the first is like the running of Ahimaaz the son of Zadok. And the king said, He is a good man, and comes with good news. <sup>28</sup>And Ahimaaz called and said to the king, Peace be to you! And he fell down upon his face before the king, and said, Blessed be the LORD your God, who has delivered up the men who lifted up their hand against my lord the king. <sup>29</sup>And the king said, Peace to the young man, to Absalom? And Ahimaaz answered, When Joab sent the king's servant, and your servant, I saw a great uproar, but I did not know what it was. <sup>30</sup>And the king said, Turn aside, stand here. And he turned aside and stood still. <sup>31</sup>And, behold, Cush came. And Cush said, Good news, my lord the king, for the LORD has avenged you this day of all those who rose up against you. <sup>32</sup>And the king said to Cush, Peace to the young man, to Absalom? And Cush answered, May the enemies of my lord the king, and all who rise against you to do you hurt, be as the young man. <sup>33</sup>And the king was much moved, and went up to the room over the gate and wept. And as he went, he said this, O my son Absalom, my son, my son Absalom! Would God I had died for you, O Absalom, my son, my son!

CHAPTER 19

<sup>1</sup>And it was told to Joab, Behold, the king weeps and mourns for Absalom. <sup>2</sup>And the victory that day was turned into mourning to all the people. For the people heard it said that day how the king was grieved for his son. <sup>3</sup>And the people went up secretly into the city that day, as people who are ashamed steal away when they flee in battle. <sup>4</sup>But the king covered his face, and the king cried with a loud voice, O my son Absalom, O Absalom, my son, my son! <sup>5</sup>And Joab came into the house to the king and said, You have today shamed the faces of all your servants. For they have saved your life and the lives of your sons and your daughters today, the lives of your wives, and the lives of your concubines. <sup>6</sup>By loving your enemies and hating those who love you, you have shown today that there are neither commanders nor servants to you. For I know that today if Absalom had lived and all of us had died today, then it would have pleased you very much! <sup>7</sup>And now get up and go out. Speak to the heart of your servants. For I swear by the LORD if you do not go out, not a man shall stay with you tonight. And that will be worse to you than all the evil which has come to you from your youth until now. <sup>8</sup>Then the king arose and sat in the gate. And they told it to the people, saying, Behold, the king sits in the gate! And all the people came before the king. (For Israel had fled, every one to his tent.)

<sup>9</sup>And all the people judged themselves throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, The king saved us out of the hand of our enemies, and he delivered us out of the hand of the Philistines. And now he has fled out of the land from Absalom.

<sup>10</sup>And Absalom, whom we anointed over us, is dead in battle. And now why do you not speak a word about bringing the king back? <sup>11</sup>And king David sent to Zadok and to Abiathar the priests, saying, Speak to the elders of Judah, saying, Why are you the last to bring the king back to his house? For the word of all Israel has come to the king, to his house. <sup>12</sup>You are my brothers, and my flesh and my bone. Why then are you the last to bring back the king? <sup>13</sup>And you say to Amasa, Are you not of my bone and of my flesh? May God do so to me, and more also, if you are not captain of the army before me all the days instead of Joab. <sup>14</sup>And he bowed the heart of all the men of Judah, even as one man, so that they sent to the king, saying, Return, you and all your servants. <sup>15</sup>And the king returned and came to Jordan. And Judah came to Gilgal to go to meet the king, to conduct the king over Jordan.

<sup>16</sup>And Shimei the son of Gera, the Benjamite from Bahurim, hurried and came down with the men of Judah to meet king David. <sup>17</sup>And a thousand men of Benjamin were with him, and Ziba the servant of the house of Saul, and his fifteen sons and his twenty servants with him. And they went over Jordan before the king.

<sup>18</sup>And they had crossed over the ford to carry over the king's household, and to do what he thought good. And Shimei the son of Gera fell down before the king as he had come over Jordan. <sup>19</sup>And he said to the king, Let not my lord charge iniquity to me. Do not remember the perverse way your servant acted in the day that my lord the king went out of Jerusalem, so that the king should take it to his heart. <sup>20</sup>For your servant knows that I have sinned. And, behold, I have come today, the first of all the house of Joseph to go down to meet my lord the king.

<sup>21</sup>But Abishai the son of Zeruiah answered and said, Shall not Shimei be put to death for this, because he cursed the LORD's anointed? <sup>22</sup>And David said, What do I have to do with you, you sons of Zeruiah, that you should be my foes today? Shall there be any man put to death today in Israel? For do I not know that I am king over Israel today? <sup>23</sup>And the king said to Shimei, You shall not die. And the king swore to him.

<sup>24</sup>And Mephibosheth the son of Saul came down to meet the king. And he had neither dressed his feet, nor trimmed his beard, nor washed his clothes, from the day the king departed until he came in peace. <sup>25</sup>And it happened when he had come to Jerusalem to meet the king, the king said to him, Why did you not go with me, Mephibosheth? <sup>26</sup>And he answered, My lord, O, king, my servant deceived me. For your servant said, I will saddle me an ass so that I may ride on it and go to the king, because your servant is lame. <sup>27</sup>And he spoke slander against your servant to my lord the king. But my lord the king is as an angel of God. And do what is good in your eyes. <sup>28</sup>For all my father's house were but dead men before my lord the king. And you set your servant among those who ate at your own table. What right then have I to cry to the king any more? <sup>29</sup>And the king said to him, Why do you speak any more of your matters? I have said, You and Ziba divide the land. <sup>30</sup>And Mephibosheth said to the king, Yes, let him take all, because my lord the king has come in peace to his own house.

<sup>31</sup>And Barzillai of Gilead came down from Rogelim, and went over Jordan with the king to conduct him over Jordan. <sup>32</sup>And Barzillai was a very aged man, eighty years old. And he had provided food for the king while he was lying at Mahanaim, for he was a very great man. <sup>33</sup>And the king said to Barzillai, Come over with me and I will sustain you in Jerusalem. <sup>34</sup>And Barzillai said to the king, How long do I have to live, that I should go up with the king to Jerusalem? <sup>35</sup>I am eighty years old today, and can I discern between good and evil? Can your servant taste what I eat or what I drink? Can I any more hear the voice of singing men and singing women? Why then should your servant be still a burden to my lord the king? <sup>36</sup>Your servant will go a little way over Jordan with the king. And why should the king repay me for it with such a reward? <sup>37</sup>Please let your servant return so that I may die in my own city by the grave of my father and of my mother. But behold your servant Chimham, let him go over with my lord the king. And do to him what shall seem good to you. <sup>38</sup>And the king answered, Chimham shall go over with me, and I will do to him that which shall seem good to you. And whatever you shall ask of me, that I will do for you. <sup>39</sup>And all the people went over Jordan. And when the king had come over, the king kissed Barzillai, and blessed him. And he returned to his own place. <sup>40</sup>And the king went on to Gilgal, and Chimham went on with him. And all the people of Judah were bringing the king, and also half the people of Israel.

<sup>41</sup>And, behold, all the men of Israel came to the king, and said to the king, Why have our brothers the men of Judah stolen you away, and have brought the king and his household, and all David's men with him, over Jordan? <sup>42</sup>And all the men of Judah answered the men of Israel, Because the king is near of kin to us. Why then are you angry for this matter? Have we eaten at all at the king's cost? Or has he given us any gift? <sup>43</sup>And the men of Israel answered the men of Judah and said, We have ten parts in the king, and we also have more right in David than you. Why then did you despise us, so that our advice should not be sought first in bringing back our king? And the words of the men of Judah were more fierce than the words of the men of Israel.

CHAPTER 20

<sup>1</sup>And there happened to be there a man of Belial named Sheba, the son of Bichri, a Benjamite. And he blew a trumpet and said, We have no part in David, neither do we have any inheritance in the son of Jesse. Every man to his tents, O, Israel! <sup>2</sup>And every man of Israel went up from after David, and followed Sheba the son of Bichri. But the men of Judah clung to their king, from Jordan even to Jerusalem. <sup>3</sup>And David came to his house at Jerusalem. And the king took the ten women, his concubines, whom he had left to keep the house, and put them in ward, and fed them but did not go in to them. And they were shut up till the day of their death, living in widowhood.

<sup>4</sup>And the king said to Amasa, gather to me the men of Judah within three days, and you be present here. <sup>5</sup>And Amasa went to gather Judah. But he stayed longer than the set time which he had appointed him. <sup>6</sup>And David said to Abishai, And Sheba the son of Bichri shall do us more harm than Absalom. You take your lord's servants and pursue him, lest he get himself into fenced cities and escape us. <sup>7</sup>And Joab's men went out after him, and the Cherethites, and the Pelethites, and all the mighty men. And they went out of Jerusalem to pursue Sheba the son of Bichri. <sup>8</sup>They were at the great stone which is in Gibeon, and Amasa had gone before them. And Joab was girded with his war-coat, which he had put on. And upon it was a girdle with a sword fastened upon his loins, in its sheath. And as he went forth, it fell out. <sup>9</sup>And Joab said to Amasa, Are you well, my brother? And Joab took Amasa by the beard with the right hand to kiss him. <sup>10</sup>And Amasa was not on guard against the sword that was in Joab's hand. And he struck him with it in the belly, and poured out his bowels to the ground. And he did not strike him again. And he died. And Joab and Abishai his brother pursued after Sheba the son of Bichri. <sup>11</sup>And one of Joab's men stood by him and said, He who favors Joab, and he who is for David, go after Joab! <sup>12</sup>And Amasa wallowed in blood in the middle of the highway. And the man saw that all the people stood still. And he moved Amasa out of the highway into the field, and threw a cloth over him when he saw that everyone who came by him stood still. <sup>13</sup>When he was moved out of the highway, all the people went on after Joab, to pursue after Sheba the son of Bichri.

<sup>14</sup>And he went through all the tribes of Israel to Abel, and to Beth-maachah, and to all the Berites. And they were gathered, and went after him too. <sup>15</sup>And they came and besieged him in Abel of Beth-maachah. And they threw up a bank against the city. And it stood in against the wall. And all the people with Joab battered the wall to throw it down. <sup>16</sup>Then a wise woman cried out of the city, Hear, hear! Please say to Joab, Come near here so that I may speak with you. <sup>17</sup>And when he had come near her, the woman said, Are you Joab? And he answered, I am. And she said to him, Hear the words of your handmaid. And he answered, I hear. <sup>18</sup>And she spoke, saying, They spoke often in days gone by, saying, Surely they will ask of Abel, and so they ended the matter. <sup>19</sup>I am peaceable and faithful in Israel. You seek to destroy a city and a mother in Israel. Why will you swallow up the inheritance of the LORD? <sup>20</sup>And Joab answered and said, Far be it, far be it from me, that I should swallow up or destroy. <sup>21</sup>The matter is not so. But a man of mount Ephraim, Sheba the son of Bichri by name, has lifted up his hand against the king, against David. Only deliver him, and I will depart from the city. And the woman said to Joab, Behold, his head shall be thrown to you over the wall. <sup>22</sup>Then the woman went to all the people in her wisdom. And they cut off the head of Sheba the son of Bichri, and threw it out to Joab. And he blew a trumpet, and they scattered from the city, each man to his tent. And Joab returned to Jerusalem to the king.

<sup>23</sup>And Joab was over all the army of Israel. And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and over the Pelethites. <sup>24</sup>And Adoram was over the tribute. And Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was recorder. <sup>25</sup>And Sheva was scribe. And Zadok and Abiathar were the priests. <sup>26</sup>And also Ira the Jairite was a chief ruler around David.

CHAPTER 21

<sup>1</sup>And there was a famine in the days of David three years, year after year. And David inquired of the LORD. And the LORD answered, For Saul, and for his bloody house, because he killed the Gibeonites. <sup>2</sup>And the king called the Gibeonites and spoke to them. And the Gibeonites were not of the sons of Israel, but of the remnant of the Amorites. And the sons of Israel had sworn to them. And Saul sought to kill them in his zeal to the sons of Israel and Judah. <sup>3</sup>And David said to the Gibeonites, What shall I do for you? And with what shall I atone for this, so that you may bless the inheritance of the LORD? <sup>4</sup>And the Gibeonites said to him, We will have no silver nor gold from Saul, nor from his house. Also, we will have no man in Israel put to death. And he said, What you shall say, I will do for you. <sup>5</sup>And they answered the king, The man who destroyed us, and who devised against us, that we should be destroyed from remaining in any of the borders of Israel <sup>6</sup>let seven men of his sons be delivered to us, and we will hang them up to the Lord in Gibeah of Saul, the chosen of the LORD. And the king said, I will give them. <sup>7</sup>But the king spared Mephibosheth, the son of Jonathan the son of Saul, because of the LORD's oath that was between them, between David and Jonathan the son of Saul. <sup>8</sup>But the king took the two sons of Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, whom she bore to Saul, Armoni and Mephibosheth, and the five sons of Michal the daughter of Saul, whom she bore to Adriel the son of Barzillai the Meholahite. <sup>9</sup>And he delivered them into the hands of the Gibeonites. And they hanged them in the hill before the LORD. And they fell, seven together, and were put to death in the days of harvest, in the first days, in the beginning of barley harvest. <sup>10</sup>And Rizpah the daughter of Aiah took sackcloth and spread it for herself upon the rock, from the beginning of harvest until water dropped upon them out of heaven. And she did not allow either the birds of the air to rest on them by day, nor the beasts of the field by night. <sup>11</sup>And it was told David what Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, the concubine of Saul, had done. <sup>12</sup>And David went and took the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son from the men of Jabesh-gilead, who had stolen them from the street of Beth-shan, where the Philistines had hanged them when the Philistines had slain Saul in Gilboa. <sup>13</sup>And he brought the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son up from there. And they gathered the bones of those who were hanged. <sup>14</sup>And they buried the bones of Saul and Jonathan his son in the land of Benjamin in Zelah, in the tomb of his father Kish. And they did all that the king commanded. And afterward God heeded prayer for the land.

<sup>15</sup>And again the Philistines warred with Israel. And David went down, and his servants with him, and fought against the Philistines. And David became faint. <sup>16</sup>And Ishbi-benob, who was of the sons of the giant, the weight of whose spear was three hundred shekels of bronze in weight. And he being girded with a new sword thought to kill David. <sup>17</sup>But Abishai the son of Zeruiah came to his aid, and struck the Philistine, and killed him. Then the men of David swore to him, saying, You shall not go out to battle with us any more, so that you do not put out the light of Israel. <sup>18</sup>And it happened after this there was again a battle with the Philistines at Gob. Then Sibbechai the Hushathite killed Saph, who was of the sons of the giant. <sup>19</sup>And there was again a battle with the Philistines in Gob, where Elhanan of Bethlehem, the son of Jaare-oregim, killed one of Goliath the Gittite, the staff of whose spear was like a weaver's beam. <sup>20</sup>And there was yet again a battle in Gath. And there was a man of stature who had six fingers on each hand, and six toes on each foot, twenty-four in number. And he also was born to the giant. <sup>21</sup>And when he defied Israel, Jonathan the son of Shimeah, the brother of David, killed him. <sup>22</sup>These four were born to the giant in Gath, and fell by the hand of David, and by the hand of his servants.

CHAPTER 22

<sup>1</sup>And David spoke to the LORD the words of this song in the day the LORD had delivered him out of the hand of all his enemies, and out of the hand of Saul. <sup>2</sup>And he said, The LORD is my Rock, and my Fortress, and my Deliverer. <sup>3</sup>The God who is my Rock, in Him will I trust. He is my Shield, and the Horn of my salvation, my High Tower, and my Refuge, my Saviour. You save me from violence. <sup>4</sup>I will call upon the LORD, who is worthy to be praised. And I shall be saved from my enemies. <sup>5</sup>When the waves of death encircled me, the floods of ungodly men made me afraid. <sup>6</sup>The sorrows of hell hemmed me in. The snares of death went in front of me. <sup>7</sup>In my distress I called upon the LORD and cried to my God. And he heard my voice out of His temple, and my cry entered into His ears. <sup>8</sup>And the earth shook and trembled. The foundations of the heavens moved and shook because He was angry. <sup>9</sup>Smoke went up out of His nostrils, and fire out of His mouth devoured. Coals were kindled by it. <sup>10</sup>He bowed the heavens also, and came down. And darkness was under His feet. <sup>11</sup>And He rode upon a cherub and did fly. And he was seen upon the wings of the wind. <sup>12</sup>And He made darkness coverings around Him, dark waters, thick clouds of the skies. <sup>13</sup>From the brightness before Him were coals of fire kindled. <sup>14</sup>The LORD thundered from the heavens, and the Most High uttered His voice. <sup>15</sup>And He sent out arrows, and scattered them; lightning, and troubled them. <sup>16</sup>And the channels of the sea appeared, the foundations of the world were uncovered, at the rebuking of the LORD, at the blast of the breath of His nostrils. <sup>17</sup>He sent from above, He took me. He drew me out of many waters. <sup>18</sup>He delivered me from my strong enemy, from those who hated me; for they were too strong for me. <sup>19</sup>They went before me in the day of my calamity, but the LORD was my stay. <sup>20</sup>He brought me forth also into a large place. He delivered me because He delighted in me. <sup>21</sup>The LORD rewarded me according to my righteousness, according to the cleanness of my hands He has rewarded me. <sup>22</sup>For I have kept the ways of the LORD, and have not wickedly departed from my God. <sup>23</sup>For all His judgments were before me. And as for His statutes, I did not depart from them. <sup>24</sup>I was also upright before Him, and have kept myself from my iniquity. <sup>25</sup>And the LORD rewarded me according to my righteousness, according to my cleanness in His eyes. <sup>26</sup>With the merciful You will show Yourself merciful; with the upright man You will show Yourself upright. <sup>27</sup>With the pure You will show Yourself pure; and with the perverse You will show thyself perverse. <sup>28</sup>And You will save the afflicted people, but Your eyes are on the proud, that You may bring them down. <sup>29</sup>For You are my lamp, O LORD. And the LORD will lighten my darkness. <sup>30</sup>For by You I have run through a troop. By my God I have leaped over a wall. <sup>31</sup>As for God, His way is perfect. The word of the LORD is tried. He is a shield to all those who trust in Him. <sup>32</sup>For who is God, except Jehovah? And who is a rock except our God? <sup>33</sup>God is my strength and power, and He makes my way perfect. <sup>34</sup>He makes my feet like hinds' feet, and sets me upon my high places. <sup>35</sup>He teaches my hands to war, so that a bow of steel is broken by my arms. <sup>36</sup>You have also given me the shield of Your salvation, and Your gentleness has made me great. <sup>37</sup>You have enlarged my steps under me, so that my feet did not slip. <sup>38</sup>I have pursued my enemies and destroyed them, and turned not again until I had finished them. <sup>39</sup>And I have crushed them and wounded them so that they could not rise. Yea, they have fallen under my feet. <sup>40</sup>For You have girded me with strength to battle. You have subdued under me those who rose up against me. <sup>41</sup>You have also given me the necks of my enemies, so that I might destroy those who hate me. <sup>42</sup>They looked, but there was none to save. They looked to the LORD, but He did not answer them. <sup>43</sup>Then I beat them as small as the dust of the earth, I stamped them like the mire of the street and spread them abroad. <sup>44</sup>You have also delivered me from the strivings of my people, You have kept me the head of the nations. A people I knew not shall serve me. <sup>45</sup>Strangers shall submit themselves to me. As soon as they hear, they shall obey me. <sup>46</sup>Strangers shall fade away, and they shall be afraid out of their strongholds. <sup>47</sup>The LORD lives! And blessed be my Rock, and exalted be the God, the Rock of my salvation. <sup>48</sup>It is God who avenges me and who brings down the people under me, <sup>49</sup>and who brings me forth from my enemies. You also have lifted me up on high above those who rose up against me. You have delivered me from the violent man. <sup>50</sup>Therefore, I will give thanks to You, O LORD, among the heathen, and I will sing praises to Your name. <sup>51</sup>He is the Tower of salvation for His king, and He shows mercy to His anointed, to David and to his seed, forevermore.

CHAPTER 23

<sup>1</sup>And these are the last words of David. David the son of Jesse said, and the man who was raised up on high, the anointed of the God of Jacob, and the sweet psalmist of Israel, said: <sup>2</sup>The Spirit of the LORD spoke by me, and His word was in my tongue. <sup>3</sup>The God of Israel said, The Rock of Israel spoke to me: he who rules over men justly, ruling in the fear of God, <sup>4</sup>even is as the light of the morning, as the sun rises, a morning without clouds. The tender grass springs out of the earth through shining after rain. <sup>5</sup>Although my house is not so with God, yet He has made with me an everlasting covenant, ordered in all things, and sure. For all my salvation, and all my desire, will He not make it grow? <sup>6</sup>But the wicked shall all of them be like a thorn thrust away, because they cannot be taken with hands. <sup>7</sup>But the man who shall touch them must be armed with iron and the staff of a spear. And they shall be utterly burned in their place.

<sup>8</sup>These are the names of the mighty men whom David had: Josheb-basshebeth the Tachmonite, chief of the captains; he was called Adino the Eznite, because of the eight hundred he killed at one time. <sup>9</sup>And after him was Eleazar the son of Dodo the Ahohite, one of the three mighty men with David when they defied the Philistines who were gathered there to battle; and the men of Israel had gone up; <sup>10</sup>he arose and struck the Philistines until his hand was weary, and until his hand clung to the sword. And the LORD worked a great victory that day. And the people returned after him only to spoil. <sup>11</sup>And next was Shammah the son of Agee the Hararite. And the Philistines were gathered together into a troop, where there was a piece of ground full of lentils. And the people fled from the Philistines. <sup>12</sup>But he stood in the middle of the ground and defended it, and killed the Philistines. And the LORD worked a great victory.

<sup>13</sup>And three of the thirty chief men went down and came to David in the harvest time into the cave of Adullam. And the troop of the Philistines pitched in the Valley of the Giants. <sup>14</sup>And David was then in a stronghold, and the fort of the Philistines was then in Bethlehem. <sup>15</sup>And David longed and said, Oh that someone would give me a drink from the water of the well of Bethlehem, which is by the gate! <sup>16</sup>And the three mighty men broke through the army of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Bethlehem, which was by the gate, and took it, and brought it to David. But he would not drink of it, but poured it out to the LORD. <sup>17</sup>And he said, Be it far from me, O LORD, that I should do this. Is it not the blood of the men who went in danger of their lives? And he would not drink it. These three mighty men did these things.

<sup>18</sup>And Abishai the brother of Joab, the son of Zeruiah, was chief among three. And he lifted up his spear against three hundred and killed them, and had the name among three. <sup>19</sup>Surely he was honored more than the three. And he was their captain. However he did not attain to the first three. <sup>20</sup>And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada from Kabzeel, a son of a mighty man, great in deeds. He killed two lion-like men of Moab. He went down also and killed a lion in the middle of a pit in time of snow. <sup>21</sup>And he killed an Egyptian, a goodly man. And the Egyptian had a spear in his hand, but he went down to him with a staff and plucked the spear out of the Egyptian's hand, and killed him with his own spear. <sup>22</sup>These things did Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and had the name among three mighty ones. <sup>23</sup>He was more honorable than the thirty, but he did not attain to the first three. And David set him over his guard.

CHAPTER 24

<sup>1</sup>And again the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, and He moved David against them to say, Go count Israel and Judah. <sup>2</sup>For the king said to Joab the captain of the army, who was with him, Go around through all the tribes of Israel, from Dan to Beer-sheba, and count the people so that I may know the number of the people. <sup>3</sup>And Joab said to the king, And may the LORD your God add to the people however many they be, a hundred times as many, and may it be that the eyes of my lord the king may see. But why does my lord the king delight in this thing? <sup>4</sup>But the king's word prevailed against Joab, and against the captains of the army. And Joab and the captains of the army went out from the presence of the king to number the people of Israel. <sup>5</sup>And they passed over Jordan and pitched in Aroer, on the right side of the city that is in the middle of the Valley of Gad, and to Jazer. <sup>6</sup>And they came to Gilead, and to the land of Tahtim-hodshi. And they came to Dan-jaan, and around to Sidon. <sup>7</sup>And they came to the stronghold of Tyre, and to all the cities of the Hivites and of the Canaanites; and went out to the south of Judah, to Beer-sheba. <sup>8</sup>And they went to and fro through all the land, and came to Jerusalem at the end of nine months and twenty days. <sup>9</sup>And Joab gave the sum of the number of the people to the king. And there were in Israel eight hundred thousand strong men who drew the sword. And the men of Judah were five hundred thousand men.

<sup>10</sup>And David's heart struck him after he had numbered the people. And David said to the LORD, I have sinned greatly in what I have done. And now, I beseech You, O LORD, take away the iniquity of Your servant, for I have done very foolishly. <sup>11</sup>And David rose up in the morning. And the word of the LORD came to the prophet Gad, David's seer, saying, <sup>12</sup>Go and say to David, So says the LORD, I offer you three things. Choose one of them, so that I may do it to you. <sup>13</sup>And Gad came to David, and told him, and said to him, Shall seven years of famine come upon you and on your land? Or will you flee three months before your enemies while they pursue you? Or shall there be three days' plague in your land? And advise, and see what answer I shall return to Him who sent me. <sup>14</sup>And David said to Gad, I am in great distress. Let us fall now into the hand of the LORD, for His mercies are great. And do not let me fall into the hand of man.

<sup>15</sup>And the LORD sent a plague upon Israel from the morning even till the time appointed. And there died from the people, from Dan to Beer-sheba, seventy thousand men. <sup>16</sup>And when the angel stretched out his hand upon Jerusalem to destroy it, the LORD turned from the evil, and said to the angel who destroyed the people, It is enough. And stay your hand. And the angel of the LORD was by the threshing-place of Araunah the Jebusite. <sup>17</sup>And David spoke to the LORD when he saw the angel who struck the people, and said, Lo, I have sinned, and I have done wickedly. But these sheep, what have they done? I pray You, let Your hand be against me and against my father's house.

<sup>18</sup>And Gad came that day to David, and said to him, Go up! Rear an altar to the LORD in the threshing-floor of Araunah the Jebusite. <sup>19</sup>And David went up, according to the saying of Gad, as the LORD commanded. <sup>20</sup>And Araunah looked and saw the king and his servants coming on toward him. And Araunah went out and bowed before the king, his face to the ground. <sup>21</sup>And Araunah said, Why has my lord the king come to his servant? And David said, To buy the threshing-floor from you, to build an altar to the LORD, so that the plague may be stayed from the people. <sup>22</sup>And Araunah said to David, Let my lord the king take and offer up what seems good to him. Behold, oxen for burnt sacrifice, and threshing instruments, and instruments of the oxen for wood. <sup>23</sup>All these Araunah, like a king, gave to the king. And Araunah said to the king, May the LORD your God accept you. <sup>24</sup>And the king said to Araunah, No, but I will surely buy from you at a price. And I will not offer burnt offerings to the LORD my God of that which costs me nothing. And David bought the threshing-floor and the oxen for fifty shekels of silver. <sup>25</sup>And David built there an altar to the LORD, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. And the LORD was entreated for the land, and the plague was stayed from Israel.

THE FIRST BOOK OF KINGS

CHAPTER 1

<sup>1</sup>And king David was old, going on in days. And they covered him with clothes, but he got no heat. <sup>2</sup>And his servants said to him, Let there be sought for my lord the king a young virgin. And let her stand before the king, and let her nurse him, and let her lie in your bosom, so that my lord the king may get heat. <sup>3</sup>And they sought out a beautiful girl throughout all the borders of Israel, and found Abishag, a Shunammite. And they brought her to the king. <sup>4</sup>And the girl was very beautiful. And she nursed the king and served him. But the king did not know her.

<sup>5</sup>And Adonijah the son of Haggith exalted himself, saying, I will be king. And he prepared himself chariots and horsemen, and fifty men to run before him. <sup>6</sup>And his father had not displeased him at any time by asking, Why have you done so? And he also was very good of form, and his mother bore him after Absalom. <sup>7</sup>And he talked with Joab the son of Zeruiah, and with Abiathar the priest. And they helped Adonijah, following him. <sup>8</sup>But Zadok the priest, and Benaiah the son of Jehoida, and Nathan the prophet, and Shimei, and Rei, and David's mighty men, were not with Adonijah. <sup>9</sup>And Adonijah killed sheep and oxen and fat cattle by the Stone of Serpents, which is by En-rogel, and called all his brothers, the king's sons, and all the men of Judah, the king's servants. <sup>10</sup>But he did not call Nathan the prophet and Benaiah and the mighty men, and Solomon his brother.

<sup>11</sup>And Nathan spoke to Bathsheba the mother of Solomon, saying, Have you not heard that Adonijah the son of Haggith reigns, and David our lord does not know? <sup>12</sup>And now come, and please let me give you counsel, and save your own life and the life of your son Solomon. <sup>13</sup>Go up and go in to king David, and say to him, My lord, O king, did you not swear to your handmaid, saying, Surely your son Solomon shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne? Why then does Adonijah reign? <sup>14</sup>Behold, while you are still talking with the king, I also will come in after you and confirm your words.

<sup>15</sup>And Bathsheba went in to the king into the room. And the king was very old, and Abishag the Shunammite served the king. <sup>16</sup>And Bathsheba bowed and honored the king. And the king said, What would you have? <sup>17</sup>And she said to him, My lord, you swore by the LORD your God to your handmaid, saying, Surely your son Solomon shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne. <sup>18</sup>And now, behold, Adonijah reigns. And now, my lord, you do not know it. <sup>19</sup>And he has slain oxen and fat cattle and sheep in abundance, and has called all the sons of the king, and Abiathar the priest, and Joab the captain of the army. But he has not called your servant Solomon. <sup>20</sup>And, my lord, O king, the eyes of all Israel are upon you, that you should tell them who shall sit upon the throne of my lord the king after him. <sup>21</sup>And it will be, when my lord the king shall sleep with his fathers, my son Solomon and I shall be offenders.

<sup>22</sup>And lo, she was still talking with the king, and Nathan the prophet came in. <sup>23</sup>And they told the king, saying, Behold, Nathan the prophet. And he came in before the king, and bowed before the king with his face to the ground. <sup>24</sup>And Nathan said, My lord, O king, have you said, Adonijah shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne? <sup>25</sup>For he has gone down this day, and has killed a great many of oxen and fat cattle and sheep, and has called all the king's sons and the captains of the army, and Abiathar the priest. And behold, they eat and drink before him, and say, Let king Adonijah live. <sup>26</sup>But he has not called me, your servant, and Zadok the priest, and Benaiah the son of Jehoida, and your servant

Solomon. <sup>27</sup>Is this thing done by my lord the king, and have you not shown your servant who should sit on the throne of my lord the king after him?

<sup>28</sup>And David answered and said, Call Bathsheba. And she came into the king's presence, and stood before the king. <sup>29</sup>And the king swore, and said, As the LORD lives, who has redeemed my soul out of all distress, <sup>30</sup>surely as I swore to you by the LORD God of Israel, saying, Surely Solomon your son shall reign after me, and he shall sit on my throne in my place, even so I will do today. <sup>31</sup>And Bathsheba bowed her face to the earth, and honored the king, and said, Let my lord king David live forever. <sup>32</sup>And king David said, Call Zadok the priest to me, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada. And they came before the king. <sup>33</sup>The king also said to them, Take with you the servants of your lord, and cause Solomon my son to ride on my own mule, and bring him down to Gihon. <sup>34</sup>And let Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet anoint him king over Israel there. And blow with the trumpet, and say, God save king Solomon. <sup>35</sup>And you shall come up after him, so that he may come and sit upon my throne. For he shall be king in my place. And I have appointed him to be ruler over Israel and over Judah. <sup>36</sup>And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada answered the king, and said, Amen. May the LORD God of my lord the king say so. <sup>37</sup>As the LORD has been with my lord the king, even so may He be with Solomon, and make his throne greater than the throne of my lord king David.

<sup>38</sup>And Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and the Cherethites and the Pelethites, went down and caused Solomon to ride upon king David's mule, and brought him to Gihon. <sup>39</sup>And Zadok the priest took a horn of oil out of the tabernacle and anointed Solomon. And they blew the trumpet, and all the people said, God save king Solomon. <sup>40</sup>And all the people came up after him, and the people piped with pipes, and rejoiced with great joy, so that the earth was torn with their sound. <sup>41</sup>And Adonijah heard, and all the invited guests with him. And they stopped eating. And Joab heard the sound of the trumpet, and said, What is this noise roaring from the city? <sup>42</sup>And he was still speaking, and behold, Jonathan the son of Abiathar the priest came. And Adonijah said to him, Come in, for you are a mighty man and you bring good news. <sup>43</sup>And Jonathan answered and said to Adonijah, Truly our lord king David has made Solomon king. <sup>44</sup>And the king has sent with him Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and the Cherethites, and the Pelethites, and they have caused him to ride upon the king's mule. <sup>45</sup>And Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet have anointed him king in Gihon. And they have come up from there rejoicing, so that the city rang again. This is the noise that you heard. <sup>46</sup>And also Solomon sits on the throne of the kingdom. <sup>47</sup>And also the king's servants came to bless our lord king David, saying, May God make the name of Solomon better than your name, and make his throne greater than your throne. And the king bowed himself upon the bed. <sup>48</sup>And also the king said, Blessed is the LORD God of Israel, who has given one to sit on my throne today, my eyes even seeing it. <sup>49</sup>And all those who were invited by Adonijah trembled and arose and left, each to his way.

<sup>50</sup>And Adonijah feared because of Solomon, and arose and went and caught hold on the horns of the altar. <sup>51</sup>And it was told to Solomon, saying, Behold, Adonijah fears king Solomon. For, lo, he has caught hold on the horns of the altar, saying, Let king Solomon swear to me today that he will not kill his servant with the sword. <sup>52</sup>And Solomon said, If he becomes a son of virtue, not a hair of his head shall fall to the earth. But if wickedness shall be found in him, then he shall die. <sup>53</sup>And king Solomon sent, and they brought him down from the altar. And he came and bowed himself to king Solomon. And Solomon said to him, Go to your house.

CHAPTER 2

<sup>1</sup>And the days of David drew near for him to die. And he charged Solomon his son, saying, <sup>2</sup>I go the way of all the earth. And you be strong and show yourself a man. <sup>3</sup>And keep the charge of the LORD your God, to walk in His ways, to keep His statutes, and His commandments, and His judgments, and His testimonies, as it is written in the law of Moses, so that you may prosper in all that you do and wherever you turn yourself, <sup>4</sup>that the LORD may continue His word which He spoke concerning me, saying, If your sons take heed to their way, to walk before Me in truth with all their heart and with all their soul, there shall not be a man of yours cut off from the throne of Israel. <sup>5</sup>And also you know what Joab the son of Zeruiah did to me, what he did to the two captains of the armies of Israel, to Abner the son of Ner, and to Amasa the son of Jether, whom he killed, and shed the blood of war in peace, and put the blood of war upon his girdle on his loins, and in his shoes on his feet. <sup>6</sup>And you shall do according to your wisdom and shall not let his gray head go down to the grave in peace. <sup>7</sup>But show kindness to the sons of Barzillai the Gileadite, and let them be of those that eat at your table. For so they came to me when I fled because of Absalom your brother. <sup>8</sup>And, behold, with you is Shimei the son of Gera, a Benjamite of Bahurim, who cursed me with a grievous curse in the day when I went to Mahanaim. But he came down to meet me at Jordan, and I swore to him by the LORD, saying, I will not put you to death with the sword. <sup>9</sup>And now, do not hold him guiltless. For you are a wise man, and you know what you ought to do to him. But bring his gray head down to the grave with blood.

<sup>10</sup>And David slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David. <sup>11</sup>And the days that David reigned over Israel were forty years. He reigned seven years in Hebron, and he reigned thirty-three years in Jerusalem. <sup>12</sup>And Solomon sat upon the throne of David his father. And his kingdom was firmly established.

<sup>13</sup>And Adonijah the son of Haggith came to Bathsheba the mother of Solomon. And she said, Do you come peacefully? And he said, Peacefully. <sup>14</sup>And he said, I have something to say to you. And she said, Speak. <sup>15</sup>And he said, You know that the kingdom was mine, and that all Israel set their faces on me that I should reign. However, the kingdom is turned around, and has become my brother's. For it was his from the LORD. <sup>16</sup>And now I ask one favor of you; do not deny me. And she said to him, Speak. <sup>17</sup>And he said, Please speak to Solomon the king, for he will not deny you that he give me Abishag the Shunammite for my wife. <sup>18</sup>And Bathsheba said, Very well; I will speak for you to the king. <sup>19</sup>And Bathsheba came in to king Solomon, to speak to him for Adonijah. And the king rose up to meet her, and bowed himself to her, and sat down on his throne, and caused a seat to be set for the king's mother. And she sat on his right hand. <sup>20</sup>And she said, I desire one small favor of you. Do not deny me. And the king said to her, Ask on, my mother, for I will not deny you. <sup>21</sup>And she said, Let Abishag the Shunammite be given to your brother Adonijah for a wife. <sup>22</sup>And king Solomon answered and said to his mother, And why do you ask Abishag the Shunammite for Adonijah? Ask the kingdom also for him. For he is my older brother! Even for him, and for Abiathar the priest, and for Joab the son of Zeruiah! <sup>23</sup>And king Solomon swore by the LORD, saying, May God do so to me, and more He shall do, if Adonijah has not spoken this word against his life. <sup>24</sup>And now, as the LORD lives, who has established me and set me on the throne of David my father, and who has made me a house, as He spoke, Adonijah shall be put to death today. <sup>25</sup>And king Solomon sent by the hand of Benaiah the son of Jehoiada. And he fell on him so that he died. <sup>26</sup>And the king said to Abiathar the priest, Go to Anathoth, to your own fields, for you are worthy of death. But I will not put you to death at this time, because you carried the ark of the Lord God before David my father, and because you have been afflicted in all that in which my father was afflicted. <sup>27</sup>And Solomon thrust out Abiathar from being priest to the LORD, so that he might fulfil the word of the LORD which He spoke concerning the house of Eli in Shiloh.

<sup>28</sup>And the report came to Joab. For Joab had turned after Adonijah, though he did not turn after Absalom. And Joab fled to the tabernacle of the LORD, and caught hold on the horns of the altar. <sup>29</sup>And it was told king Solomon that Joab had fled to the tabernacle of the LORD, and, behold, he is by the altar. And Solomon sent Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, saying, Go fall on him. <sup>30</sup>And Benaiah came to the tabernacle of the LORD, and said to him, So says the king, come forth! And he said, No, but I will die here. And Benaiah brought the king word again, saying, Thus said Joab, and so he answered me. <sup>31</sup>And the king said to him, Do as he has said, and fall on him, and bury him, so that you may take away the innocent blood which Joab shed, from me and from the house of my father. <sup>32</sup>And the LORD shall return his blood on his own head, who fell on two men more righteous and better than he, and killed them with the sword, my father David not knowing of it, Abner the son of Ner, captain of the army of Israel, and Amasa the son of Jether, captain of the army of Judah. <sup>33</sup>Yea, He shall turn back their blood on the head of Joab, and on the head of his seed forever. But on David, and on his seed, and on his house, and on his throne, there shall be peace forever from the LORD. <sup>34</sup>And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada went up and fell on him and killed him. And he was buried in his own house in the wilderness. <sup>35</sup>And the king put Benaiah the son of Jehoiada over the army in his place. And the king put Zadok the priest in the place of Abiathar. <sup>36</sup>And the king sent and called for Shimei, and said to him, Build a house at Jerusalem and live there, and do not go forth from there anywhere. <sup>37</sup>For it shall be, on the day you go out and pass over the Kidron, you shall know for certain that you shall surely die. Your blood shall be on your own head. <sup>38</sup>And Shimei said to the king, Your saying is good. As my lord the king has said, so will your servant do. And Shimei lived in Jerusalem many days.

<sup>39</sup>And it happened at the end of three years, two of the servants of Shimei ran away to Achish son of Maachah, king of Gath. And they told Shimei, saying, Behold, your servants are in Gath. <sup>40</sup>And Shimei arose and saddled his ass, and went to Gath to Achish to seek his servants. And Shimei went and brought his servants from Gath. <sup>41</sup>And it was told Solomon that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath, and had come again. <sup>42</sup>And the king sent and called for Shimei and said to him, Did I not make you swear by the LORD, and warn you, saying, In the day you go out, and you have gone anywhere, you certainly shall know that you shall surely die? And you said to me, The word I have heard is good. <sup>43</sup>Why then have you not kept the oath of the LORD and the command that I have charged you with? <sup>44</sup>And the king said to Shimei, You know all the wickedness that your heart knows, what you did to David my father. And the LORD shall return your wickedness on your own head. <sup>45</sup>And king Solomon shall be blessed, and the throne of David shall be established before the LORD forever. <sup>46</sup>And the king commanded Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and he went out and fell on him so that he died. And the kingdom was made sure in the hand of Solomon.

CHAPTER 3

<sup>1</sup>And Solomon made an alliance by marriage with Pharaoh king of Egypt, and took Pharaoh's daughter and brought her into the city of David until he finished building his own house, and the house of the LORD, and the wall around Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup>Only the people sacrificed in high places because there was no house built to the name of the LORD until those days. <sup>3</sup>And Solomon loved the LORD, walking in the statutes of David his father. Only he sacrificed and burnt incense in high places. <sup>4</sup>And the king went to Gibeon to sacrifice there. For that was the great high place. Solomon offered a thousand burnt offerings on that altar.

<sup>5</sup>In Gibeon the LORD appeared to Solomon in a dream by night. And God said, Ask what I shall give you! <sup>6</sup>And Solomon said, You have shown to Your servant David my father great mercy, according as he walked before You in truth and in righteousness and in uprightness of heart with You. And You have kept this great kindness for him, that You have given him a son to sit on his throne, as it is today. <sup>7</sup>And now, O LORD my God, You have made Your servant king instead of David my father. And I am a little child; I do not know to go out or come in! <sup>8</sup>And Your servant is in the midst of Your people whom You have chosen, a numerous people who cannot be numbered nor counted for multitude. <sup>9</sup>And give to Your servant an understanding heart to judge Your people, so that I may tell between good and bad. For who is able to judge this, Your great people? <sup>10</sup>And the speech was good in the eyes of the LORD, that Solomon had asked this thing. <sup>11</sup>And God said to him, Because you have asked this thing, and have not asked for yourself long life, and have not asked riches for yourself, nor have asked the life of your enemies, but have asked for yourself understanding to judge justly, <sup>12</sup>behold, I have done according to your words. Lo, I have given you a wise and an understanding heart, so that there was none like you before you, and after you none shall any arise like you. <sup>13</sup>And I also have given you that which you have not asked, both riches and honor, so that there shall not be any among the kings like you all your days. <sup>14</sup>And if you will walk in My ways, to keep My statutes and My commandments, as your father David walked, then I will lengthen your days. <sup>15</sup>And Solomon awoke, and, behold, it was a dream. And he came to Jerusalem and stood before the ark of the covenant of the LORD and offered up burnt offerings, and offered peace offerings, and made a feast to all his servants.

<sup>16</sup>Then there came two women, harlots, to the king, and stood before him. <sup>17</sup>And the one woman said, O my lord, this woman and I live in one house. And I was delivered of a child with her in the house. <sup>18</sup>And it happened the third day after I was delivered, this woman was delivered also. And we were together; there was no stranger with us in the house, except the two of us in the house. <sup>19</sup>And this woman's child died in the night, because she laid on it. <sup>20</sup>And she arose at midnight and took my son from beside me, while your servant was sleeping, and laid it in her bosom, and laid her dead child in my bosom. <sup>21</sup>When I arose in the morning to give my child suck, behold, it was dead. And when I had looked at it in the morning, behold, it was not my son whom I bore. <sup>22</sup>And the other woman said, No, but the living is my son, and the dead is your son. And this one said, No, but the dead is your son, and the living is my son. So they spoke before the king. <sup>23</sup>And the king said, The one says, This is my son who lives, and your son is the dead. And the other says, No, but your son is the dead, and my son is the living. <sup>24</sup>And the king said, Bring me a sword. And they brought a sword before the king. <sup>25</sup>And the king said, Divide the living child in two, and give half to the one and half to the other. <sup>26</sup>And the woman whose son was the living child said to the king – for her womb yearned over her son. And she said, O my lord, give her the living child, and in no way kill it. But the other said, Let it be neither mine nor yours; divide it! <sup>27</sup>And the king answered and said, Give her the living child, and in no way kill it. She is the mother of it. <sup>28</sup>And all Israel heard of the judgment which the king had judged. And they feared the king, for they saw that the wisdom of God was in him to do judgment.

CHAPTER 4

<sup>1</sup>And king Solomon was king over all Israel. <sup>2</sup>And these were the rulers which he had: Azariah the son of Zadok the priest, <sup>3</sup>Elihoreph and Ahiah, the sons of Shisha were the scribes. Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud the recorder, <sup>4</sup>And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the army. And Zadok and Abiathar were priests. <sup>5</sup>And Azariah the son of Nathan was over the officers, and Zabud the son of Nathan was the minister and the king's friend. <sup>6</sup>And Ahishar was over the household. And Adoniram the son of Abda was over the forced labor.

<sup>7</sup>And Solomon had twelve officers over all Israel, who provided food for the king and his household. Each man had his month in a year to provide food. <sup>8</sup>These are their names: the son of Hur in Mount Ephraim; <sup>9</sup>the son of Dekar in Makaz and in Shaalbin, and Beth-shemesh, and Elon-beth-hanan; <sup>10</sup>the son of Heseb, in Aruboth; to him was Sochoh and all the land of Hepher; <sup>11</sup>the son of Abinadab in all the height of Dor, Taphath the daughter of Solomon was a wife to him; <sup>12</sup>Baana the son of Ahilud to whom was Taanach and Megiddo, and all Beth-shean, which is by Zartanah below Jezreel, from Beth-shean to Abel-meholah to the place that is beyond Jokneam; <sup>13</sup>the son of Geber in Ramoth-gilead — to him were the towns of Jair, Manasseh's son, which are in Gilead; to him also was the region of Argob, which is in Bashan, sixty great cities with walls and bronze bars; <sup>14</sup>Ahinadab the son of Iddo had Mahanaim; <sup>15</sup>Ahimaaz was in Naphtali; he also took Basemath the daughter of Solomon for a wife; <sup>16</sup>Baanah the son of Hushai was in Asher and in Aloth; <sup>17</sup>Jehoshaphat the son of Paruah was in Issachar; <sup>18</sup>Shimei the son of Elah was in Benjamin; <sup>19</sup>Geber the son of Uri was in the land of Gilead, the land of Sihon king of the Amorites, and Og king of Bashan; and he was the only officer in the land; <sup>20</sup>Judah and Israel were many, as the sand which is by the sea in multitude; eating and drinking and making merry.

<sup>21</sup>And Solomon reigned over all kingdoms from the River to the land of the Philistines, and to the border of Egypt. They brought presents and served Solomon all the days of his life. <sup>22</sup>And Solomon's food for one day was thirty measures of fine flour and sixty measures of meal, <sup>23</sup>ten fat oxen and twenty oxen out of the pastures, and a hundred sheep, besides harts and roebucks, and fallow deer, and fattened fowl. <sup>24</sup>For he had the rule over all on this side of the River, from Tiphseh even to Azzah, over all the kings on this side the River. And he had peace on all sides all around him. <sup>25</sup>And Judah and Israel lived safely, every man under his vine and under his fig-tree, from Dan even to Beer-sheba, all the days of Solomon. <sup>26</sup>And Solomon had forty thousand stalls of horses for his chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen. <sup>27</sup>And those officers provided food for king Solomon and for all who came to king Solomon's table, every man in his month. They did not lack anything. <sup>28</sup>They also brought barley and straw for the horses and mules, to the place where the officers were, every man according to his charge. <sup>29</sup>And God gave Solomon exceeding great wisdom and understanding, and largeness of heart, even as the sand that is on the seashore. <sup>30</sup>And Solomon's wisdom was greater than the wisdom of all the sons of the east, and all the wisdom of Egypt. <sup>31</sup>For he was wiser than all men — than Ethan the Ezrahite, and Heman, and Chalcol, and Darda, the sons of Mahol. And his fame was in all nations all around. <sup>32</sup>And he spoke three thousand proverbs, and his songs were a thousand and five. <sup>33</sup>And he spoke of trees, from the cedar tree that is in Lebanon even to the hyssop that springs out of the wall. He spoke also of beasts and of birds, and of creeping things, and of fish. <sup>34</sup>And there came some from all the people, to hear the wisdom of Solomon, from all the kings of the earth, who had heard of his wisdom.

CHAPTER 5

<sup>1</sup>And Hiram king of Tyre sent his servants to Solomon, for he had heard that they had anointed him king instead of his father. For Hiram was always a lover of David. <sup>2</sup>And Solomon sent to Hiram, saying, <sup>3</sup>You know how David my father could not build a house to the name of the LORD his God because of the wars which were around him on every side, until the LORD put them under the soles of his feet. <sup>4</sup>But now the LORD my God has given me rest all around. There is no foe nor evil happening. <sup>5</sup>And behold, I purpose to build a house to the name of the LORD my God, as the LORD spoke to David my father, saying, Your son whom I will set on your throne in your place; he shall build a house to My name. <sup>6</sup>And now command that they cut me cedar trees out of Lebanon, and my servants shall be with your servants. And I will give you hire for your servants according to all that you shall say. For you know that not a man among us can cut timber like the Sidonians.

<sup>7</sup>And it happened when Hiram heard the words of Solomon, he rejoiced greatly and said, Blessed be the LORD this day, who has given David a wise son over this great people. <sup>8</sup>And Hiram sent to Solomon saying, I have heard that for which you sent to me. I will do all your desire concerning timber of cedar, and concerning timber of fir. <sup>9</sup>My servants shall bring them down from Lebanon to the sea. And I will bring them by sea in floats to the place that you shall name. And I will cause them to be left there, and you shall receive them. And you shall fulfill my desire in giving food for my household. <sup>10</sup>And Hiram gave Solomon cedar trees and fir trees, all his desire. <sup>11</sup>And Solomon gave Hiram twenty thousand measures of wheat for food for his household, and twenty measures of pure oil. So Solomon gave to Hiram year by year. <sup>12</sup>And the LORD gave Solomon wisdom, as He promised him. And there was peace between Hiram and Solomon. And the two of them made a treaty together.

<sup>13</sup>And king Solomon raised a levy out of all Israel. And the labor force was thirty thousand men. <sup>14</sup>And he sent them to Lebanon, ten thousand a month, by courses. They were a month in Lebanon, and two months at home. And Adoniram was over the labor force. <sup>15</sup>And Solomon had seventy thousand who bore burdens, and eighty thousand woodcutters in the mountains, <sup>16</sup>besides the chief of Solomon's officers who were over the work, thirty-three hundred, who ruled over the people who labored in the work. <sup>17</sup>And the king commanded, and they brought great stones, costly stones, cut stones, to lay the foundation of the house. <sup>18</sup>And Solomon's builders and Hiram's builders and the Giblites cut out and prepared the timber and the stones to build the house.

CHAPTER 6

<sup>1</sup>And it happened in the four hundred and eightieth year after the sons of Israel had come out of the land of Egypt, in the fourth year of Solomon's reign over Israel, in the month Zif, which is the second month, he began to build the house of the LORD. <sup>2</sup>And the house which king Solomon built for the LORD, its length was sixty cubits and its breadth twenty cubits, and its height thirty cubits. <sup>3</sup>And the porch before the temple of the house was twenty cubits in length, according to the breadth of the house. Ten cubits was its breadth on the front of the house.

<sup>4</sup>And for the house he made windows of narrow frames. <sup>5</sup>And against the wall of the house he built floors all around, against the walls of the house all around, of the temple and of the holy of holies. And he made rooms all around. <sup>6</sup>The lowest story was five cubits broad, and the middle was six cubits broad, and the third was seven cubits broad. For around the outside of the house he made narrowed ledges for the house all around, so as not to lay hold of the walls of the house. <sup>7</sup>And when it was being built, the house was built of stone made ready beforehand. And there was not heard in the house a hammer or an axe, or any iron tool, while it was being built.

<sup>8</sup>The door for the middle story was in the right side of the house. And they went up with winding stairs into the middle story, and out of the middle into the third. <sup>9</sup>And he built the house and finished it. And he covered the house with beams and rows of cedar. <sup>10</sup>And he built the side-stories on all the house, five cubits high. And they rested on the house with timbers of cedar.

<sup>11</sup>And the word of the LORD came to Solomon saying, <sup>12</sup>As to this house which you are building, if you will walk in My statutes and do My judgments and keep all My commandments, to walk in them, then I will perform My work with you which I spoke to David your father. <sup>13</sup>And I will live among the sons of Israel, and will not forsake My people Israel. <sup>14</sup>And Solomon built the house and finished it. <sup>15</sup>And he built the walls of the house inside with boards of cedar, both the floor of the house and the walls of the ceiling. He covered them on the inside with wood, and covered the floor of the house with planks of fir. <sup>16</sup>And he built twenty cubits on the sides of the house, both the floor and the walls with boards of cedar. He even built them for it inside, for the holy of holies, for the most holy place. <sup>17</sup>And the house, that is, the temple before it, was forty cubits. <sup>18</sup>And the cedar of the house inside was carved with gourds and open flowers. All was cedar; there was no stone seen. <sup>19</sup>And he prepared the holy of holies in the house inside, to set there the ark of the covenant of the LORD. <sup>20</sup>And the holy of holies in the front part was twenty cubits in length and twenty cubits in breadth, and twenty cubits in height. And he overlaid it with pure gold, and covered the altar of cedar. <sup>21</sup>And Solomon overlaid the house inside with pure gold. And he drew chains of gold across before the holy place. And he overlaid it with gold. <sup>22</sup>And he overlaid the whole house with gold, until he had finished all the house. Also all of the altar that belonged to the holy place, he overlaid with gold: <sup>23</sup>And inside the holy place he made two cherubs of olive wood, ten cubits high. <sup>24</sup>And one wing of the cherub was five cubits, and the other wing of the cherub was five cubits; ten cubits from the ends of its wings even to the ends of its wings. <sup>25</sup>And the other cherub was ten cubits. Both the cherubs were of one measure and one size. <sup>26</sup>The height of the one cherub was ten cubits, and so was the other cherub. <sup>27</sup>And he set the cherubs inside the inner house. And they stretched forth the wings of the cherubs so that the wing of the one touched the one wall and the wing of the other cherub touched the other wall. And their wings touched one another in the midst of the house. <sup>28</sup>And he overlaid the cherubs with gold. <sup>29</sup>And he carved all the walls of the house all around with carved figures of cherubs and palm trees and open flowers, inside and out. <sup>30</sup>And the floor of the house was overlaid with gold inside and out.

<sup>31</sup>As to the entrance of the holy place he made doors of olive wood. The lintel and side posts were a fifth part of the wall. <sup>32</sup>And the two doors were of olive wood. And he carved on them carvings of cherubs and palm trees and open flowers, and overlaid them with gold and spread gold on the cherubs and on the palm trees. <sup>33</sup>So he also made for the door of the temple posts of olive wood, a fourth part of the wall. <sup>34</sup>And the two doors were of fir tree. The two leaves of the one door were folding, and the two leaves of the other door were folding. <sup>35</sup>And he carved on them cherubs and palm trees and open bowers. And he covered them with gold fitted on the carved work. <sup>36</sup>And he built the inner court with three rows of cut stone, and a row of cedar beams. <sup>37</sup>In the fourth year, in the month Zif, the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid. <sup>38</sup>And in the eleventh year, in the month Bul, which is the eighth month, the house was finished as to all its parts, and as to all its plans. So he was seven years in building it.

CHAPTER 7

<sup>1</sup>And Solomon was thirteen years building his own house. And he finished all his house. <sup>2</sup>And he built the house of the forest of Lebanon. Its length was a hundred cubits, and its breadth fifty cubits, and its height thirty cubits, on four rows of cedar pillars, with cedar beams on the pillars. <sup>3</sup>And it was covered with cedar above on the beams that lay on forty-five pillars, fifteen in a row. <sup>4</sup>And windows were in three rows, and light was against light in three rows. <sup>5</sup>And all the doors and posts were square, with the windows. And light was against light in three rows. <sup>6</sup>And he made a porch of pillars. Its length was fifty cubits, and its breadth thirty cubits. And the porch was before them, and the pillars and the roof were over them. <sup>7</sup>And he made a porch of the throne where he judged, the porch of judgment. And it was covered with cedar from floor to floor. <sup>8</sup>As to his house where he lived, the other court was within the porch, as this work was. Solomon also made a house for Pharaoh's daughter, whom he had taken, like this porch. <sup>9</sup>All these buildings were of costly stones, according to the measures of hewn stones, sawed with saws, inside and out, even from the foundation to the coping, and so on the outside toward the great court. <sup>10</sup>And the foundation was of costly stones, huge stones, stones of ten cubits, and stones of eight cubits. <sup>11</sup>And above were costly stones, according to the measures of hewn stone and cedar. <sup>12</sup>And the great court all around was with three rows of hewn stone, and a row of cedar beams, both for the inner court of the house of the LORD, and for the porch of the house.

<sup>13</sup>And king Solomon sent and brought Hiram out of Tyre. <sup>14</sup>He was the son of a widow of the tribe of Naphtali, and his father was a man of Tyre, a worker in bronze. And he was filled with wisdom and understanding, and cunning to work all works in bronze. And he came to king Solomon and did all his work. <sup>15</sup>For he cast two pillars of bronze, each of eighteen cubits high. And a line of twelve cubits went around both of them. <sup>16</sup>And he made two capitals of melted bronze to set on the tops of the pillars. The height of the one capital was five cubits, and the height of the other capital five cubits. <sup>17</sup>He made gratings, grating work with twisted threads of chain-work, for the capitals on the top of the pillars; seven for the one capital, and seven for the other capital. <sup>18</sup>And he made the pillars. And two rows were all around on the one grating, to cover the capitals on the top with the pomegranates. And so he did for the other capital. <sup>19</sup>And the capitals on the top of the pillars in the porch were lily-work, four cubits. <sup>20</sup>And the capitals on the two pillars, had pomegranates on the upper part, over against the belly which was by the grating; and the pomegranates were two hundred in rows all around on the other capital. <sup>21</sup>And he set up the pillars in the porch of the temple. And he set up the right pillar and called its name, Jachin. And he set up the left pillar, and called its name, Boaz. <sup>22</sup>And on the top of the pillars was lily-work. So the work of the pillars was finished.

<sup>23</sup>And he made a molten sea, ten cubits from brim to brim, all around it. And its height was five cubits, and a line of thirty cubits went around it. <sup>24</sup>And under its brim were gourds, going around it, ten by the cubit, going all around the sea. The gourds were cast in two rows when it was cast. <sup>25</sup>It stood on twelve oxen, three looking toward the north, and three looking toward the west, and three looking toward the south, and three looking toward the east. The sea was set on top of them, and all their hinder parts were inward. <sup>26</sup>And it was a hand-breadth thick, and its brim was fashioned like the brim of a cup, with a bud of a lily. It contained two thousand baths.

<sup>27</sup>And he made ten bases of bronze, four cubits the length of the one base, and four cubits its breadth, and three cubits its height. <sup>28</sup>And the work of the bases was this way: they had borders, and the borders were between the stays. <sup>29</sup>And on the borders that were between the ledges were lions, oxen, and cherubs. And a pedestal was on the stays above. And beneath the lions and oxen were wreaths of hanging-work. <sup>30</sup>And the one base had four bronze wheels and axles of bronze. And its four feet were supports to them; under the basin were casted supports with wreaths at each side. <sup>31</sup>And its mouth within and above the capital was a cubit. And its mouth was round like the work of a pedestal, a cubit and half of the cubit. And also on its mouth were carvings; and their borders were square, not round. <sup>32</sup>And under the borders were four wheels. And the axletrees of the wheels were in the base. And the height of a wheel was a cubit and a half. <sup>33</sup>And the work of the wheels was like the work of a chariot wheel, their axletrees, and their rims, and their hub, and their spokes, were all cast. <sup>34</sup>And there were four supports to the four corners of one base, and the supports were of the very base itself. <sup>35</sup>And in the top of the base there was a round compass of a half a cubit high. And on the top of the base its sides and its borders were from it. <sup>36</sup>And he engraved cherubs, lions, and palm trees on the plates of its sides, and on its borders, as the place of each, with wreaths all around. <sup>37</sup>So he made the ten bases, one casting, one form was to them all.

<sup>38</sup>And he made ten basins of bronze. One basin contained forty baths. The one basin was four cubits, one basin on the one base, to the ten bases. <sup>39</sup>And he put five bases on the right side of the house, and five on the left side of the house. And he set the sea on the right side of the house, eastward, across from the south.

<sup>40</sup>And Hiram made the basins and the shovels and the bowls. So Hiram made an end of doing all the work that he made king Solomon for the house of the LORD. <sup>41</sup>He made the two pillars, and the bowls of the capitals on the top of the two pillars, and the two gratings to cover the two bowls of the capitals on the top of the pillars, <sup>42</sup>and the four hundred pomegranates for the two gratings; two rows of pomegranates for each grating, to cover the two bowls of the capitals which were on the face of the pillars, <sup>43</sup>and the ten bases, and ten basins on the bases, <sup>44</sup>and one sea, and twelve oxen under the sea, <sup>45</sup>and the pots, and the shovels, and the basins. All these vessels which Hiram made for king Solomon for the house of the LORD were of burnished bronze. <sup>46</sup>The king cast them in the plain of Jordan, in the thick soil of the ground between Succoth and Zarethan.

<sup>51</sup>So all the work that king Solomon made for the house of the LORD was finished. And Solomon brought in the things which David his father had dedicated: the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, he had put into the treasuries of the house of the LORD.

CHAPTER 8

<sup>1</sup>And Solomon gathered the elders of Israel, and all the heads of the tribes, the chief of the fathers of the sons of Israel, to king Solomon in Jerusalem, so that they might bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of the city of David, which is Zion. <sup>2</sup>And all the men of Israel were gathered to king Solomon at the feast in the month Ethanim, which is the seventh month. <sup>3</sup>And all the elders of Israel came in, and the priests took up the ark. <sup>4</sup>And they brought up the ark of the LORD, and the tabernacle of the congregation, and all the holy vessels which were in the tabernacle; even those the priests and the Levites brought up. <sup>5</sup>And king Solomon, and all the congregation of Israel who had assembled to him, were with him before the ark sacrificing sheep and oxen which could not be counted nor numbered for multitude. <sup>6</sup>And the priests brought in the ark of the covenant of the LORD into its place, into the holy place of the house, into the holy of holies, under the wings of the cherubs. <sup>7</sup>For the cherubs spread forth their two wings over the place of the ark. And the cherubs covered the ark and the staves of it above. <sup>8</sup>And they drew out the staves, so that the ends of the staves were seen out in the holy of holies, in front of the holy place. And they were not seen outside. And there they are until today. <sup>9</sup>There was nothing in the ark except the two tablets of stone which Moses put there at Horeb, when the LORD made a covenant with the sons of Israel when they came out of the land of Egypt. <sup>10</sup>And it happened when the priests had come out of the holy of holies, the cloud filled the house of the LORD. <sup>11</sup>And the priests could not stand to minister because of the cloud, for the glory of the LORD had filled the house of the LORD.

<sup>12</sup>And Solomon said, The LORD said that He would dwell in the thick darkness. <sup>13</sup>I have surely built a house of loftiness for You, a settled place for You to abide in forever. <sup>14</sup>And the king turned his face around and blessed all the congregation of Israel. And all the congregation of Israel stood. <sup>15</sup>And he said, Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, who spoke with His mouth to David my father, and has fulfilled it by His hand, saying, <sup>16</sup>From the day that I brought forth My people Israel out of Egypt, I did not choose any city out of all the tribes of Israel to build a house, so that My name might be in it. But I chose David to be over My people Israel. <sup>17</sup>And it was in the heart of my father David to build a house for the name of the LORD God of Israel. <sup>18</sup>And the LORD said to my father David, Because it was in your heart to build a house to My name, you did well that it was in your heart. <sup>19</sup>Only, you shall not build the house, but your son who shall come out of your loins, he shall build the house to My name. <sup>20</sup>And the LORD has performed His word which He spoke, and I have risen up instead of my father David. And I sit on the throne of Israel, as the LORD promised. And I have built a house for the name of the LORD God of Israel. <sup>21</sup>And I have set there a place for the ark, in which is the covenant of the LORD which He made with our fathers when He brought them out of the land of Egypt.

<sup>22</sup>And Solomon stood before the altar of the LORD in the presence of all the congregation of Israel, and spread forth his hands toward the heavens. <sup>23</sup>And he said, LORD God of Israel, there is no God like You, in Heaven above or on earth beneath, who keeps covenant and mercy with Your servants who walk before You with all their heart, <sup>24</sup>who have kept with Your servant David my father what You promised him. You also spoke with Your mouth, and have fulfilled with Your hand, as it is today. <sup>25</sup>And now, LORD God of Israel, keep with Your servant David, my father, what You promised him, saying, There shall not be cut off from you a man in My sight to sit on the throne of Israel — if your sons take heed to their way so that they walk before Me as you have walked before Me. <sup>26</sup>And now,

O God of Israel, I pray You, let Your word be proved to be true, the word which You spoke to Your servant David my father. <sup>27</sup>But will God indeed dwell on the earth? Behold! The heaven and the heavens of heavens cannot contain You. How much less this house which I have built? <sup>28</sup>Yet, O, LORD my God, You have turned toward the prayer of Your servant and to his request, to listen to the cry and to the prayer which Your servant prays before You today; <sup>29</sup>for Your eyes to be open toward this house night and day, toward the place of which You have said, My name shall be there; to listen to the prayer which Your servant shall pray toward this place. <sup>30</sup>And You shall listen to the cry of Your servant, and of Your people Israel, when they shall pray toward this place, and hear in Heaven Your dwelling-place, and when You hear, forgive!

<sup>31</sup>If any man sins against his neighbor, and if an oath is laid on him to cause him to swear, and if the oath comes before Your altar in this house, <sup>32</sup>then hear in Heaven, and do, and judge Your servants, to declare the wicked to be wicked, to bring his way on his head, and to declare the righteous to be righteous, to give him according to his righteousness.

<sup>33</sup>When Your people Israel are crushed before the enemy because they have sinned against You, and shall turn again to You and confess Your name, and pray, and cry to You in this house, <sup>34</sup>then hear in Heaven and forgive the sin of Your people Israel, and bring them again into the land which You gave to their fathers. <sup>35</sup>When the heavens are restrained, and there is no rain because they have sinned against You, if they pray toward this place and confess Your name, and turn from their sin when You afflict them, <sup>36</sup>then hear in Heaven and forgive the sin of Your servants, and of Your people Israel, that they might be taught by You the good way in which they should walk, and give rain on Your land which You have given to Your people for an inheritance.

<sup>37</sup>If there is famine in the land, if there is plague, blasting, mildew, locusts; if there are stripping locusts; if their enemy encircles them in the land of their cities – whatever plague, whatever sickness, <sup>38</sup>any prayer, any supplication from any man of all Your people Israel, who shall each know the plague of his own heart, and shall spread forth his hands toward this house, <sup>39</sup>then hear in Heaven Your dwelling-place, and forgive, and do, and give to every man according to his ways, whose heart You know. For You, You only, know the hearts of all the sons of men. <sup>40</sup>Do this so that they may fear You all the days that they live in the land which You have given to our fathers. <sup>41</sup>And concerning a stranger who is not of Your people Israel, but who comes out of a far country for Your name's sake; <sup>42</sup>for they shall hear of Your great name and of Your strong hand and of Your stretched-out arm; and if he shall come and pray toward this house, <sup>43</sup>hear in Heaven Your dwelling-place, and do according to all that the stranger calls to You for, so that all the people of the earth may know Your name, to fear You, as Your people Israel do, and that they may know that this house which I have built is called by Your name.

<sup>44</sup>If Your people go out to battle against their enemy, wherever You shall send them, and shall pray to the LORD toward the city which You have chosen, and the house that I have built for Your name, <sup>45</sup>then hear in Heaven their prayer and their cry, and maintain their cause. <sup>46</sup>If they sin against You (for there is no man who does not sin), and if You are angry with them and they are delivered by You to the enemy so that they carry them away captive to the land of the enemy, far or near, <sup>47</sup>yet if they shall think within themselves in the land where they are carried captives, and repent, and pray to You in the land of them who carried them away captives, saying, We have sinned and have done perversely, we have committed wickedness, <sup>48</sup>and so return to You with all their heart, and with all their soul, in the land of their enemies who led them away captive, and if they pray to You toward their land which You gave to their fathers, to the city which You have chosen, and the house which I have built for Your name, <sup>49</sup>then hear their prayer and their cry in Heaven Your dwelling-place, and maintain their cause, <sup>50</sup>and forgive Your people who have sinned against You, and forgive all their sins which they have done against You, and give them pity before them who carried them away captive, so that they may have pity on them. <sup>51</sup>For they are Your people, and Your inheritance, which You brought out of Egypt, from the middle of the furnace of iron, <sup>52</sup>for Your eyes shall be open to the prayer of Your servant, and to the prayer of Your people Israel, to listen to them in all that they call for to You. <sup>53</sup>For You have separated them from among all the people of the earth to be Your inheritance, as You spoke by the hand of Moses Your servant, when You brought our fathers out of Egypt, O Lord GOD.

<sup>54</sup>And it happened as Solomon finished praying all this prayer and petition to the LORD, he rose from before the altar of the LORD, from kneeling on his knees with his hands spread up to heaven. <sup>55</sup>And he stood and blessed all the congregation of Israel with a loud voice, saying, <sup>56</sup>Blessed be the LORD, who has given rest to His people Israel, according to all that He promised. There has not failed one word of all His good promise which He promised by the hand of Moses His servant. <sup>57</sup>May the LORD our God be with us as He was with our fathers. Let Him not leave us nor forsake us, <sup>58</sup>to incline our hearts to Himself, to walk in all His ways and to keep His commandments and His statutes and His judgments which He commanded our fathers. <sup>59</sup>And let these my words, with which I have prayed before the LORD, be near the LORD our God day and night, so that He may maintain the cause of His servant, and the cause of His people Israel at all times, as any need arises, <sup>60</sup>for all the people of the earth know that Jehovah is God; there is no other. <sup>61</sup>And let your heart be perfect with the LORD our God, to walk in His statutes, and to keep His commandments, as at this day.

<sup>62</sup>And the king, and all Israel with him, offered sacrifice before the LORD. <sup>63</sup>And Solomon offered a sacrifice of peace offerings, which he offered to the LORD, twenty-two thousand oxen, and a hundred and twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the sons of Israel dedicated the house of the LORD. <sup>64</sup>On that day the king sanctified the middle of the court before the house of the LORD. For there he had offered the burnt offering, and the food offering, and the fat of the peace offerings; because the bronze altar before Jehovah was too small to contain the burnt offering, and the food offering, and the fat of the peace offerings. <sup>65</sup>And at that time Solomon held a feast, and all Israel with him, a great congregation – from the entering in of Hamath to the river of Egypt – before the LORD our God, seven days and seven days, fourteen days. <sup>66</sup>On the eighth day he sent the people away. And they blessed the king and went to their tents joyful and glad of heart for all the goodness that the LORD had done for David His servant, and for Israel His people.

CHAPTER 9

<sup>1</sup>And it happened as Solomon finished the building of the house of the LORD, and the king's house, and all Solomon's desire which he was pleased to do, <sup>2</sup>the LORD appeared to Solomon the second time, as He had appeared to him at Gibeon. <sup>3</sup>And the LORD said to him, I have heard your prayer and your cry which you have made before Me. I have made this house which you have built holy, to put My name there forever. And My eyes and My heart shall be there perpetually. <sup>4</sup>And if you will walk before Me as David your father walked, in integrity of heart and in uprightness, to do according to all that I have commanded you; and if you will keep My statutes and My judgments,<sup>5</sup> then I will establish the throne of your kingdom on Israel forever, as I promised to David your father, saying, There shall not be cut off to you a man on the throne of Israel. <sup>6</sup>If you shall at all turn from following Me, you or your sons, and will not keep My commandments and My statutes which I have set before you, but go and serve other gods and worship them,<sup>7</sup> then I will cut off Israel out of the land which I have given them. And this house which I have made holy for My name I will cast out of My sight. And Israel shall be a proverb and a byword among all people. <sup>8</sup>As to this house which is exalted, everyone who passes by it shall be amazed and shall hiss. And they shall say, Why has the LORD done this to this land and to this house? <sup>9</sup>And they shall answer, Because they left the LORD their God who brought out their fathers from the land of Egypt, and have taken hold on other gods and have worshipped them and served them. On account of this the LORD has brought on them all this evil.

<sup>15</sup>And this is the reason of the labor force which king Solomon raised to build the house of the LORD and his own house, and Millo, and the wall of Jerusalem, and Hazor, and Megiddo, and Gezer. <sup>16</sup>For Pharaoh, king of Egypt, had gone up and had taken Gezer and had burned it with fire, and had slain the Canaanites who lived in the city. And he had given it for a present to his daughter, Solomon's wife. <sup>17</sup>And Solomon built Gezer, and Beth-horon the lower, <sup>18</sup>and Baalath, and Tadmor in the wilderness, in the land. <sup>19</sup>And he built all the store-cities which Solomon had, and cities for his chariots, and cities for his horsemen, and that which Solomon desired to build in Jerusalem, and in Lebanon, and in all the land of his dominion. <sup>20</sup>And all the people who were left of the Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites, who were not of the sons of Israel, <sup>21</sup>their sons who were left after them in the land, whom the sons of Israel also were not able to destroy completely, on those Solomon laid a tribute of bond-service to this day. <sup>22</sup>But Solomon did not make any bondmen out of the sons of Israel. But they were men of war, and his servants, and his rulers, and his captains, and rulers of his chariots, and his horsemen. <sup>23</sup>These were the chief of the officers who were over Solomon's work, five hundred and fifty who ruled over the people who labored in the work.

<sup>24</sup>But Pharaoh's daughter came up from the city of David to her house which had been built for her. And he built Millo. <sup>25</sup>And three times in a year Solomon offered burnt offerings and peace offerings on the altar which he had built to the LORD, and he burned incense on the altar which was before the LORD. And he finished the house. <sup>26</sup>And king Solomon made a navy of ships in Ezion-geber, which is beside Eloth, on the shore of the Red Sea, in the land of Edom. <sup>27</sup>And Hiram sent in the navy his servants, shipmen who had knowledge of the sea, with the servants of Solomon. <sup>28</sup>And they came to Ophir, and brought gold from there, four hundred and twenty talents, and brought it to king Solomon.

CHAPTER 10

<sup>1</sup>And the queen of Sheba heard of Solomon's fame concerning the name of the LORD, and she came to test him with hard questions. <sup>2</sup>And she came to Jerusalem with a very great train, with camels that bore spices, and very much gold, and precious stones. And she came to Solomon, and she told him all that was in her heart. <sup>3</sup>And Solomon answered all her questions for her. There was not a thing hidden from the king, which he did not tell her. <sup>4</sup>And when the queen of Sheba had seen all Solomon's wisdom, and the house which he had built, <sup>5</sup>and the food of his table, and the sitting of his servants, and the attendance of his ministers, and their clothing, and his cupbearers, and his ascent by which he went up to the house of the LORD, there was no more spirit in her. <sup>6</sup>And she said to the king, It was a true report which I heard in my own land of your acts and of your wisdom. <sup>7</sup>And I did not believe the words until I came and my eyes had seen. And behold! The half was not told me. Your wisdom and blessings are more than the fame which I heard. <sup>8</sup>Happy are your men, happy are these who are your servants, who stand always before you, and who hear your wisdom. <sup>9</sup>Blessed is Jehovah your God, who delighted in you, to set you on the throne of Israel. Because the LORD loved Israel forever; therefore, He made you king to do judgment and justice. <sup>10</sup>And she gave the king a hundred and twenty talents of gold, a very great store of spices, and precious stones. No spice like that came any more for abundance, that the queen of Sheba gave to king Solomon. <sup>11</sup>And also the navy of Hiram which brought gold from Ophir, brought in from Ophir great abundance of almug trees and precious stones. <sup>12</sup>And the king made of the almug trees pillars for the house of the LORD, and for the king's house, also lyres and harps for singers. No such almug wood has come or been seen to this day. <sup>13</sup>And king Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba all her desire, whatever she asked, besides what Solomon gave her of his royal bounty. So she turned and went to her own country, she and her servants.

<sup>14</sup>And the weight of gold which came to Solomon in one year was six hundred sixty-six talents of gold, <sup>15</sup>apart from the revenue from the men of the dusky kings, and from the traffic, and from the traders of the spice merchants, and from all the kings of Arabia, and from the governors of the lands. <sup>16</sup>And king Solomon made two hundred targets of beaten gold; six hundred shekels of gold went into one target. <sup>17</sup>And he made three hundred shields of beaten gold; three pounds of gold went into one shield. And the king put them in the house of the forest of Lebanon. <sup>18</sup>And the king made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with the best gold. <sup>19</sup>The throne had six steps, and the top of the throne was round in the back part. And there were stays on either side on the place of the seat, <sup>20</sup>and two lions were standing on the six steps, on this and on that side. There was not the like made in any kingdom. <sup>21</sup>And all king Solomon's drinking vessels were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the forest of Lebanon were of pure gold. None were of silver; it was counted nothing in the days of Solomon. <sup>22</sup>For the king had at sea a navy of Tarshish with the navy of Hiram. Once in three years the navy of Tarshish came bringing gold and silver, ivory, and apes, and peacocks. <sup>23</sup>And king Solomon was greater than all the kings of the earth in riches and in wisdom. <sup>24</sup>And all the earth sought Solomon, to hear his wisdom which God had put in his heart. <sup>25</sup>And every man brought his presents, vessels of silver and vessels of gold, and clothing and armor, and spices, horses and mules, so much year by year.

<sup>26</sup>And Solomon gathered chariots and horsemen. And he had fourteen hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, whom he stationed in the cities for chariots, and with the king at Jerusalem. <sup>27</sup>And the king made silver like stones in Jerusalem, and he made cedars like the sycamore trees in the valley for abundance. <sup>28</sup>And Solomon had horses brought out of Egypt, and out of Kue. The king's merchants received them from Kue at a price. <sup>29</sup>And a chariot came up and went out of Egypt for six hundred shekels of silver, and a horse for a hundred and fifty. And so for all the kings of the Hittites, and for the kings of Syria, they brought them out by their means.

CHAPTER 11

<sup>1</sup>And king Solomon loved many foreign women, even the daughter of Pharaoh, Moabites, Ammonites, Edomites, Sidonians, Hittites; <sup>2</sup>of the nations which the LORD had said to the sons of Israel, You shall not go in to them, and they shall not go in to you; surely they will turn away your heart after their gods. Solomon clung to these in love. <sup>3</sup>And he had seven hundred wives, princesses, and three hundred concubines. And his wives turned away his heart. <sup>4</sup>For it happened when Solomon was old, his wives turned away his heart after other gods. And his heart was not perfect with the LORD his God, as was the heart of David his father. <sup>5</sup>For Solomon went after Ashtoreth, the goddess of the Sidonians, and after Milcom, the abomination of the Ammonites; <sup>6</sup>and Solomon did evil in the sight of Jehovah, and did not go fully after the LORD like his father David. <sup>7</sup>Then Solomon built a high place for Chemosh, the abomination of Moab, in the hill which is before Jerusalem, and for Molech, the abomination of the sons of Ammon. <sup>8</sup>And likewise he did for all his foreign wives, and burned incense and sacrificed to their gods.

<sup>9</sup>And the LORD was angry with Solomon because his heart was turned from the LORD God of Israel, who had appeared to him twice <sup>10</sup>and had commanded him concerning this thing, that he should not go after other gods; and he did not keep that which the LORD commanded. <sup>11</sup>And the LORD said to Solomon, Since this is done by you, and since you have not kept My covenant and My statutes which I have commanded you, I will surely tear the kingdom from you and will give it to your servant. <sup>12</sup>But I will not do it in your days, for David your father's sake, but I will tear it out of the hand of your son. <sup>13</sup>Only, I will not tear away all the kingdom, but I will give one tribe to your son for David My servant's sake, and for Jerusalem's sake which I have chosen.

<sup>14</sup>And it happened the LORD stirred up a foe to Solomon, Hadad the Edomite. He was of the king's seed in Edom. <sup>15</sup>For it happened when David was in Edom, and Joab the captain of the army had gone up to bury the slain, after he had stricken every male in Edom — <sup>16</sup>for Joab remained there six months with all Israel, until he had cut off every male in Edom — <sup>17</sup>it happened that Hadad fled, he and certain Edomites of his father's servants with him, to go to Egypt, Hadad being still a little child. <sup>18</sup>And they arose out of Midian and came to Paran. And they took men with them out of Paran, and they came to Egypt, to Pharaoh king of Egypt, who gave him a house and appointed food for him, and gave him land. <sup>19</sup>And Hadad found great favor in the sight of Pharaoh, so that he gave him the sister of his own wife for a wife, the sister of Tahpenes the queen. <sup>20</sup>And the sister of Tahpenes bore him Genubath his son, whom Tahpenes weaned in Pharaoh's house. And Genubath was in Pharaoh's household among the sons of Pharaoh. <sup>21</sup>And when Hadad heard in Egypt that David slept with his fathers, and that Joab the captain of the army was dead, Hadad said to Pharaoh, Let me depart so that I may go to my own land. <sup>22</sup>And Pharaoh said to him, But what have you lacked with me that, behold, you seek to go to your own country? And he answered, Nothing; however, you shall certainly send me away.

<sup>23</sup>And God stirred him up another foe, Rezon the son of Eliadah, who fled from his lord Hadadezer king of Zobah. <sup>24</sup>And he gathered men to him, and became captain over a band when David killed the ones from Zobah. And they went to Damascus and lived in it, and reigned in Damascus. <sup>25</sup>And he was a foe to Israel all the days of Solomon, besides the mischief which Hadad did. And he hated Israel and reigned over Syria. <sup>26</sup>And Jeroboam the son of Nebat, an Ephrathite of Zereda, Solomon's servant, whose mother's name was Zeruah, a widow, he too lifted up his hand against the king. <sup>27</sup>And this was the cause that he lifted up his hand against the king. Solomon built Millo and repaired the breaks of the city of David his father. <sup>28</sup>And the man Jeroboam was a mighty man of war. And Solomon, seeing that the young man was industrious, he made him ruler over all the charge of the house of Joseph. <sup>29</sup>And it happened at that time, when Jeroboam went out of Jerusalem, the prophet Ahijah from Shiloh found him in the way. And he had clothed himself with a new garment. And the two of them were alone in the field. <sup>30</sup>And Ahijah caught hold of the new robe on him, and tore it in twelve pieces. <sup>31</sup>And he said to Jeroboam, You take ten pieces. For so says the LORD, the God of Israel, I will tear the kingdom out of the hand of Solomon and will give ten tribes to you, <sup>32</sup>but he shall have one tribe for My servant David's sake, and for Jerusalem's sake, the city which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, <sup>33</sup>because they have forsaken Me, and have worshipped Ashtoreth the goddess of the Sidonians, Chemosh the god of the Moabites, and Milcom the goddess of the sons of Ammon, and have not walked in My ways, to do what is right in My eyes, and to keep My statutes and My judgments, as David his father did. <sup>34</sup>But I will not take the whole kingdom out of his hand, but I will make him ruler all the days of his life for the sake of David My servant, whom I chose, because he kept My commandments and My statutes. <sup>35</sup>But I will take the kingdom out of his son's hand, and will give it to you, ten tribes. <sup>36</sup>And to his son I will give one tribe, so that David My servant may have a light always before me in Jerusalem, the city which I have chosen for Me to put My name there. <sup>37</sup>And I will take you, and you shall reign according to all that your soul desires, and shall be king over Israel. <sup>38</sup>And if you will listen to all that I command you, and will walk in My ways, and do what is right in My sight, to keep My statutes and My commandments, as David My servant did, it shall happen that I will be with you and build you a sure house, as I built for David, and will give Israel to you. <sup>39</sup>And for this I will afflict the seed of David, but not forever. <sup>40</sup>And Solomon sought to kill Jeroboam. And Jeroboam arose and fled to Egypt, to Shishak king of Egypt, and was in Egypt until the death of Solomon.

<sup>41</sup>And the rest of the acts of Solomon, and all that he did, and his wisdom, are they not written in the Book of the Acts of Solomon? <sup>42</sup>And the time that Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel was forty years. <sup>43</sup>And Solomon slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David his father. And Rehoboam reigned in his place.

CHAPTER 12

<sup>1</sup>And Rehoboam went to Shechem. For all Israel had come to Shechem to make him king. <sup>2</sup>And it happened when Jeroboam the son of Nebat, heard, he being still in Egypt; for he had fled from the presence of king Solomon, and Jeroboam lived in Egypt; <sup>3</sup>they sent and called him. And Jeroboam and all the congregation of Israel came and spoke to Rehoboam, saying, <sup>4</sup>Your father made our yoke hard. And now lighten the hard service and the heavy yoke which he put on us, and we will serve you. <sup>5</sup>And he said to them, Go away again for three days, and then come back to me. And the people went away. <sup>6</sup>And king Rehoboam talked with the old men who had stood before Solomon his father while he still lived, and said, How do you advise that I answer this people? <sup>7</sup>And they spoke to him, saying, If you will be a servant to this people today, and will serve them and answer them, and speak good words to them, then they will be your servants forever. <sup>8</sup>But he left the counsel of the old men which they had given him, and talked with the young men who had grown up with him, who stood before him. <sup>9</sup>And he said to them, What advice do you give that we may answer this people who have spoken to me, saying, Lighten the yoke which your father put on us? <sup>10</sup>And the young men who had grown up with him spoke to him, saying, So shall you speak to this people who spoke to you, saying, Your father made our yoke heavy, but you make it lighter for us, so you shall say to them: My little finger shall be thicker than my father's loins. <sup>11</sup>And now my father loaded you with a heavy yoke, and I will add to your yoke. My father has whipped you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions. <sup>12</sup>And they came, Jeroboam and all the people, to Rehoboam the third day, as the king had appointed, saying, Come to me again the third day. <sup>13</sup>And the king answered the people roughly, and left the old men's advice which they gave him, <sup>14</sup>and spoke to them according to the advice of the young men, saying, My father made your yoke heavy, and I will add to your yoke. My father whipped you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions. <sup>15</sup>And the king did not listen to the people, for the cause was from the LORD, that He might perform His saying which the LORD spoke by Ahijah of Shiloh to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

<sup>16</sup>And all Israel saw that the king did not listen to them, and the people answered the king, saying, What part do we have in David? Yea, there is no inheritance in the son of Jesse. To your tents, O Israel! Now see to your house, O David! And Israel went to its tents. <sup>17</sup>As for the sons of Israel, those living in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them. <sup>18</sup>And king Rehoboam sent Adoram, who was over the tribute. And all Israel stoned him with stones so that he died. And king Rehoboam made haste to go up to get into a chariot to flee to Jerusalem. <sup>19</sup>And Israel rebelled against the house of David to this day. <sup>20</sup>And it happened when all Israel heard that Jeroboam had come again, they sent and called him to the company, and made him king over all Israel. There was none who followed the house of David, but the tribe of Judah only.

<sup>21</sup>And when Rehoboam came to Jerusalem, and he gathered all the house of Judah with the tribe of Benjamin, a hundred and eighty thousand chosen men, who were warriors, to fight against the house of Israel, to bring the kingdom again to Rehoboam the son of Solomon. <sup>22</sup>But the word of God came to Shemaiah the man of God, saying, <sup>23</sup>Speak to Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all the house of Judah and Benjamin, and to the rest of the people, saying, <sup>24</sup>So says the LORD, You shall not go up, nor fight against your brothers the sons of Israel. Each man return to his house. For this thing is from Me. And they listened to the word of the LORD and turned to go back, according to the word of the LORD.

<sup>25</sup>And Jeroboam built Shechem in mount Ephraim and lived in it, and went out from there and built Penuel. <sup>26</sup>And Jeroboam said in his heart, Now the kingdom shall return to the house of David! <sup>27</sup>If this people go up to do sacrifice in the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, then shall the heart of this people turn again to their lord, to Rehoboam king of Judah, and they shall kill me and go again to Rehoboam king of Judah. <sup>28</sup>And the king took counsel, and made two calves of gold and said to them, It is too much for you to go up to Jerusalem. Behold your gods, O, Israel, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt! <sup>29</sup>And he set the one in Bethel, and he put the other in Dan. <sup>30</sup>And this thing became a sin, for the people went to worship before the one, even to Dan. <sup>31</sup>And he made a house of high places, and made priests of the lowest of the people, who were not the sons of Levi.<sup>32</sup> And Jeroboam ordered a feast in the eighth month, on the fifteenth day of the month, like the feast that is in Judah. And he offered on the altar. So he did in Bethel, sacrificing to the calves that he had made. And he placed in Bethel the priests of the high places which he had made.<sup>33</sup> And he offered on the altar which he had made in Bethel the fifteenth day of the eighth month, in the month which he had devised out of his own heart. And he ordered a feast for the sons of Israel. And he offered on the altar, and burned incense.

CHAPTER 13

<sup>1</sup>And behold, a man of God came out of Judah, by the word of the LORD, to Bethel. And Jeroboam stood by the altar to burn incense.<sup>2</sup> And he cried against the altar in the word of the LORD and said, O, altar, altar, so says the LORD. Behold, a child shall be born to the house of David, Josiah by name, and on you he shall offer the priests of the high places who burn incense on you, and men's bones shall be burned on you.<sup>3</sup> And he gave a sign the same day, saying, This is the sign which the LORD has spoken. Behold, the altar shall be torn apart, and the ashes that are on it shall be poured out.<sup>4</sup> And it happened when king Jeroboam heard the saying of the man of God who had cried against the altar in Bethel, he put forth his hand from the altar, saying, Lay hold on him! And his hand, which he put forth against him withered up so that he could not pull it in again to himself.<sup>5</sup> The altar also was torn apart, and the ashes poured out from the altar according to the sign which the man of God had given by the word of the LORD.<sup>6</sup> And the king answered and said to the man of God, Seek now the face of the LORD your God, and pray for me so that my hand may be given back to me again. And the man of God prayed to the LORD, and the king's hand was given back to him again, and became as it was before.<sup>7</sup> And the king said to the man of God, Come home with me and refresh yourself, and I will give you a reward.<sup>8</sup> And the man of God said to the king, If you will give me half your house, I will not go in with you, nor will I eat bread nor drink water in this place.<sup>9</sup> For so was it commanded me by the word of the LORD, saying, Eat no bread nor drink water, nor return again by the same way that you came.<sup>10</sup> And he went another way, and did not return by the way he came to Bethel.

<sup>11</sup>And a certain old prophet was living in Bethel, and his son came and told him all the works that the man of God had done that day in Bethel. The words which he had spoken to the king they also told to their father.<sup>12</sup> And their father said to them, What way did he go? For his sons had seen what way the man of God, who came from Judah, had gone.<sup>13</sup> And he said to his sons, Saddle me the ass. And they saddled the ass for him, and he rode on it,<sup>14</sup> and went after the man of God, and found him sitting under an oak. And he said to him, Are you the man of God who came from Judah? And he said, I am.<sup>15</sup> And he said to him, Come home with me and eat bread.<sup>16</sup> And he said, I may not return with you nor go in with you, nor will I eat bread or drink water with you in this place.<sup>17</sup> For it was said to me by the word of the LORD, You shall eat no bread nor drink water there, nor turn again to go by the way that you came.<sup>18</sup> And he said to him, I am a prophet also as you are. And an angel spoke to me by the word of the LORD, saying, Bring him back with you into your house, so that he may eat bread and drink water. But he lied to him.<sup>19</sup> So he went back with him and ate bread in his house, and drank water.<sup>20</sup> And it happened as they sat at the table, the word of the LORD came to the prophet who brought him back.<sup>21</sup> And he cried to the man of God who came from Judah, saying, So says the LORD, Because you have not obeyed the mouth of the LORD and have not kept the command which the LORD your God commanded you, <sup>22</sup>but came back and have eaten bread and have drunk water in the place which the LORD said to you, Eat no bread and drink no water, your body shall not come to the tomb of your fathers.

<sup>23</sup>And after he had eaten bread, and after he had drunk, it happened that he saddled the ass for him, for the prophet whom he had brought back. <sup>24</sup>And when he had gone, a lion met him by the way and killed him. And his dead body was thrown in the highway, and the ass stood by it, and the lion also stood by the body. <sup>25</sup>And behold, men passed by and saw the body thrown in the way, and the lion standing by the body. And they came and told it in the city where the old prophet lived. <sup>26</sup>And when the prophet who brought him back from the way heard, he said, It is the man of God who did not obey the word of the LORD. And the LORD has delivered him to the lion, which has torn him and killed him, according to the word of the LORD which He spoke to him. <sup>27</sup>And he spoke to his sons, saying, Saddle the ass for me. And they saddled it. <sup>28</sup>And he went and found his body thrown in the way, and the ass and the lion standing by the body. The lion had not eaten the body nor torn the ass. <sup>29</sup>And the prophet took up the dead body of the man of God, and laid it on the ass and brought it back. And the prophet came to the city to mourn and to bury him. <sup>30</sup>And he laid his body in his own grave. And they mourned over him, saying, Alas, my brother! <sup>31</sup>And it happened after he had buried him, he spoke to his sons, saying, When I am dead, then bury me in the tomb in which the man of God is buried. Lay my bones beside his bones, <sup>32</sup>for the saying which he cried by the word of the LORD against the altar in Bethel, and against all the houses of the high places in the cities of Samaria, shall surely come to pass.

<sup>33</sup>After this thing Jeroboam did not turn from his evil way, but again made priests of the high places from the lowest of the people. He who desired, he consecrated him, and he became one of the priests of the high places. <sup>34</sup>And this thing is the sin of the house of Jeroboam, even to blot it from off the face of the earth.

CHAPTER 14

<sup>1</sup>At that time Abijah the son of Jeroboam fell sick. <sup>2</sup>And Jeroboam said to his wife, Arise, please, and disguise yourself so that you will not be known to be the wife of Jeroboam. And go to Shiloh. Behold, there is Ahijah the prophet, who told me about being king over this people. <sup>3</sup>And take ten loaves, and cakes, and a jar of honey with you, and go to him. And he will tell you what shall become of the boy. <sup>4</sup>And Jeroboam's wife did so, and arose and went to Shiloh. And she came to the house of Ahijah. And Ahijah could not see, for his eyes were set because of his age. <sup>5</sup>And the LORD said to Ahijah, Behold, the wife of Jeroboam comes to ask a thing of you for her son, for he is sick. This and this you shall say to her, for when she comes in, she shall act as a stranger. <sup>6</sup>And it happened when Ahijah heard the sound of her feet as she came in at the door, he said, Come in, wife of Jeroboam! Why are you acting as a stranger? For I am sent to you with a hard thing. <sup>7</sup>Go tell Jeroboam, So says the LORD God of Israel, I lifted you up from among the people, and made you ruler over My people Israel, <sup>8</sup>and tore the kingdom away from the house of David and gave it to you. And you have not been as My servant David who kept My commandments, and who followed Me with all his heart, to do only what was right in My eyes. <sup>9</sup>But you have done evil above all who were before you, for you have gone and made yourself other gods, and molded images, to provoke Me to anger, and have cast Me behind your back; <sup>10</sup>therefore, behold, I will bring evil on the house of Jeroboam, and will cut off from Jeroboam everyone who urinates against the wall, and everyone who is shut up and left in Israel, and will sweep away the rest of the house of Jeroboam, as a man sweeps away the dung, until it is all gone. <sup>11</sup>Those of Jeroboam who die in the city, the dogs shall eat. And those who die in the field, the fowls of the air shall eat. For the LORD has spoken. <sup>12</sup>And arise, get down to your own house. When your feet enter into the city, the boy shall die. <sup>13</sup>And all Israel shall mourn for him, and bury him. For he only of Jeroboam shall come down to the grave, because in him there is found some good thing toward the LORD God of Israel in the house of Jeroboam. <sup>14</sup>And the LORD shall raise up a king over Israel for Himself, a king who shall cut off the house of Jeroboam that day. And what? Even now! <sup>15</sup>For the LORD shall strike Israel as the reed waves in the water, and He shall root up Israel out of this good land which He gave to their fathers, and shall scatter them beyond the River, because they have made their groves, provoking the LORD to anger. <sup>16</sup>And he shall give Israel up because of the sins of Jeroboam, who sinned and who made Israel to sin. <sup>17</sup>And Jeroboam's wife arose, and left, and came to Tirzah. When she came to the doorsill the boy died. <sup>18</sup>And they buried him, and all Israel mourned for him, according to the word of the LORD which He spoke by the hand of His servant Ahijah the prophet. <sup>19</sup>And the rest of the acts of Jeroboam, how he warred and how he reigned, behold, they are written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the Kings of Israel. <sup>20</sup>And the days which Jeroboam reigned were twenty-two years. And he slept with his fathers, and Nadab his son reigned in his place.

<sup>21</sup>And Rehoboam the son of Solomon reigned in Judah. Rehoboam was forty-one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which the LORD chose out of all the tribes of Israel to put His name there. And his mother's name was Naamah, an Ammonitess. <sup>22</sup>And Judah did evil in the sight of the LORD, and they provoked Him to jealousy with their sins which they had committed, above all that their fathers had done. <sup>23</sup>For they also built high places for themselves, and images, and groves, on every high hill and under every green tree. <sup>24</sup>And also the sodomite was in the land. They did according to all the hateful things of the nations which the LORD cast out before the sons of Israel. <sup>25</sup>And it happened in the fifth year of king Rehoboam Shishak king of Egypt, he came up against Jerusalem. <sup>26</sup>And he took away the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king's house. He took all away. And he took away all the shields of gold which Solomon had made. <sup>27</sup>And king Rehoboam made bronze shields in their place, and committed them to the hands of the chief of the guard, who kept the door of the king's house. <sup>28</sup>And it happened when the king went into the house of the LORD, the guard carried them and brought them back into the guard chamber. <sup>29</sup>And the rest of the acts of Rehoboam, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the Kings of Judah? <sup>30</sup>And there was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all their days. <sup>31</sup>And Rehoboam slept with his fathers and was buried with his fathers in the city of David. And his mother's name was Naamah, an Ammonitess. And his son Abijam reigned in his place.

CHAPTER 15

<sup>1</sup>And in the eighteenth year of king Jeroboam the son of Nebat, Abijam reigned over Judah. <sup>2</sup>He reigned three years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Maachah, the daughter of Abishalom. <sup>3</sup>And he walked in all the sins of his father which he had done before him. And his heart was not perfect with the LORD his God, as the heart of David his father. <sup>4</sup>But for David's sake the LORD his God gave him a lamp in Jerusalem, to set up his son after him, and to establish Jerusalem, <sup>5</sup>because David did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, and did not turn aside from anything that He commanded him all the days of his life, except only in the matter of Uriah the Hittite. <sup>6</sup>And there was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all the days of his life. <sup>7</sup>And the rest of the acts of Abijam, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the Kings of Judah? And there was war between Abijam and Jeroboam. <sup>8</sup>And Abijam slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David. And his son Asa reigned in his place.

<sup>9</sup>And in the twentieth year of Jeroboam king of Israel, Asa reigned over Judah. <sup>10</sup>And he reigned in Jerusalem forty-one years. And his grandmother's name was Maachah, the daughter of Abishalom. <sup>11</sup>And Asa did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, as David his father did. <sup>12</sup>And he took away the sodomites out of the land and removed all the idols that his fathers had made. <sup>13</sup>And also he even removed his grandmother Maachah from being queen because she had made an idol in a grove. And Asa destroyed her idol and burned it by the brook Kidron. <sup>14</sup>But the high places were not removed. But Asa's heart was perfect with the LORD all his days. <sup>15</sup>And he brought in the things which his father had dedicated, and the things which he himself had dedicated, into the house of the LORD, silver and gold and vessels. <sup>16</sup>And there was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days. <sup>17</sup>And Baasha king of Israel went up against Judah and built Ramah, so that he might not allow any to go out or come in to Asa king of Judah. <sup>18</sup>And Asa took all the silver and the gold left in the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king's house, and delivered them into the hand of his servants. And king Asa sent them to Ben-hadad, the son of Tabrimon, the son of Hezion, king of Syria, who lived at Damascus, saying, <sup>19</sup>There is a treaty between you and me, between my father and your father. Behold, I have sent to you a present of silver and gold. Come and break your treaty with Baasha king of Israel, so that he may depart from me. <sup>20</sup>And Ben-hadad listened to king Asa, and sent the captains of the armies which he had against the cities of Israel, and struck Ijon, and Dan, and Abel-beth-maachah, and all Chinneroth, with all the land of Naphtali. <sup>21</sup>And it happened when Baasha heard, he left off building Ramah and lived in Tirzah. <sup>22</sup>And king Asa made a proclamation throughout all Judah. None was free from it. And they took away the stones of Ramah, and its timber, with which Baasha had built. And king Asa built Geba of Benjamin and Mizpah with them. <sup>23</sup>The rest of all the acts of Asa, and all his might, and all that he did, and the cities which he built, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the Kings of Judah? But in the time of his old age he was diseased in his feet. <sup>24</sup>And Asa slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father. And his son Jehoshaphat reigned in his place.

<sup>25</sup>And Nadab the son of Jeroboam began to reign over Israel in the second year of Asa king of Judah, and reigned over Israel two years. <sup>26</sup>And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of his father, and in his sin with which he made Israel to sin. <sup>27</sup>And Baasha the son of Ahijah, of the house of Issachar, conspired against him. And Baasha struck him at Gibbethon, which was to the Philistines. For Nadab and all Israel laid siege to Gibbethon. <sup>28</sup>And in the third year of Asa king of Judah, Baasha killed him and reigned in his place. <sup>29</sup>And it happened when he reigned, he struck all the house of Jeroboam. He did not leave Jeroboam any who breathed, until he had destroyed him, according to the saying of the LORD which He spoke by His servant Ahijah the man of Shiloh, <sup>30</sup>because of the sins of Jeroboam which he sinned, and which he made Israel sin, by his provocation with which he provoked the LORD God of Israel to anger. <sup>31</sup>And the rest of the acts of Nadab, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the Kings of Israel? <sup>32</sup>And there was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days. <sup>33</sup>In the third year of Asa king of Judah, Baasha the son of Ahijah began to reign over all Israel in Tirzah, twenty-four years. <sup>34</sup>And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin with which he made Israel to sin.

CHAPTER 16

<sup>1</sup>And the word of the LORD came to Jehu the son of Hanani against Baasha, saying, <sup>2</sup>Since I exalted you out of the dust, and made you ruler over My people Israel, and since you have walked in the way of Jeroboam, and have made My people Israel to sin, to provoke Me to anger with their sins, <sup>3</sup>behold, I will utterly sweep away Baasha and his house. And I will make your house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat. <sup>4</sup>Those of Baasha who die in the city shall the dogs eat. And those of his who die in the fields, the birds of the air shall eat. <sup>5</sup>And the rest of the acts of Baasha and what he did, and his might, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the Kings of Israel? <sup>6</sup>And Baasha lay with his fathers, and was buried in Tirzah. And Elah his son reigned in his place.

<sup>7</sup>And also by the hand of the prophet Jehu the son of Hanani came the word of the LORD against Baasha, and against his house, even for all the evil that he did in the sight of the LORD, in provoking Him to anger with the work of his hands, in being like the house of Jeroboam, and because he killed him. <sup>8</sup>In the twenty-sixth year of Asa king of Judah, Elah the son of Baasha began to reign over Israel in Tirzah, and he reigned two years. <sup>9</sup>And his servant Zimri, captain of half his chariots, plotted against him, as he was in Tirzah drinking himself drunk in the house of Arza the steward of his house in Tirzah. <sup>10</sup>And Zimri went in and struck him, and killed him, in the twenty-seventh year of Asa king of Judah, and reigned in his place. <sup>11</sup>And it happened when he began to reign, as soon as he sat on his throne, he killed all the house of Baasha. He did not leave him one who urinated against a wall, nor of his kinsmen, nor of his friends. <sup>12</sup>And Zimri destroyed all the house of Baasha, according to the word of the LORD which He spoke against Baasha by Jehu the prophet, <sup>13</sup>for all the sins of Baasha, and the sins of Elah his son, by which they sinned and by which they made Israel to sin, in provoking the LORD God of Israel to anger with their vanities. <sup>14</sup>And the rest of the acts of Elah, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the Kings of Israel?

<sup>15</sup>In the twenty-seventh year of Asa king of Judah, Zimri reigned seven days in Tirzah. And the people were camped against Gibbethon which was to the Philistines. <sup>16</sup>And the people that were camped heard it said that Zimri had plotted and had also slain the king. And all Israel made Omri, the captain of the army, king over Israel that day in the camp. <sup>17</sup>And Omri went up from Gibbethon, and all Israel with him, and they laid siege to Tirzah. <sup>18</sup>And it happened when Zimri saw that the city was taken, he went into the palace of the king's house and burned the king's house over him with fire, and died, <sup>19</sup>for his sins which he sinned in doing evil in the sight of the LORD, in walking in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin which he did to make Israel sin. <sup>20</sup>And the rest of the acts of Zimri, and his treason which he did, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the Kings of Israel?

<sup>21</sup>And the people of Israel were divided into two parts. Half the people followed Tibni the son of Ginath, to make him king. And half followed Omri. <sup>22</sup>But the people who followed Omri won out over the people who followed Tibni the son of Ginath. And Tibni died and Omri reigned.

<sup>23</sup>In the thirty-first year of Asa king of Judah, Omri began to reign over Israel. He reigned twelve years, six years in Tirzah. <sup>24</sup>And he bought the hill Samaria of Shemer for two talents of silver, and built on the hill, and called the name of the city which he built after the name of Shemer, the owner of the hill, Samaria.<sup>25</sup> And Omri did evil in the eyes of the LORD, and did worse than all who were before him.<sup>26</sup> For he walked in all the ways of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and in his sin with which he made Israel to sin, to provoke the LORD God of Israel to anger with their vanities.<sup>27</sup> And the rest of the acts of Omri which he did, and his might that he showed, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the Kings of Israel? <sup>28</sup>And Omri slept with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria. And Ahab his son reigned in his place.

<sup>29</sup>And in the thirty-eighth year of Asa king of Judah, Ahab the son of Omri began to reign over Israel. And Ahab the son of Omri reigned over Israel in Samaria twenty-two years.<sup>30</sup> And Ahab the son of Omri did evil in the sight of the LORD above all who were before him.<sup>31</sup> And as if it had been a light thing for him to walk in the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, he also took Jezebel, the daughter of Eth-baal king of the Sidonians, for a wife. And he went and served Baal, and worshiped him.<sup>32</sup> And he reared up an altar for Baal in the house of Baal, which he had built in Samaria.<sup>33</sup> And Ahab made a grove. And Ahab did more to provoke the LORD God of Israel to anger than all the kings of Israel who were before him.<sup>34</sup> In his days Hiel the man of Bethel built Jericho. He laid the foundation of it in Abiram his first-born, and set up the gates of it in his youngest son Segub, according to the word of the LORD which He spoke by Joshua the son of Nun.

CHAPTER 17

<sup>1</sup>And Elijah the Tishbite, of the sojourners of Gilead, said to Ahab, As the LORD God of Israel lives, before whom I stand, there shall not be dew nor rain these years, except according to my word.<sup>2</sup> And the word of the LORD came to him, saying, <sup>3</sup>Go away from here and turn eastward, and hide yourself by the brook Cherith, before Jordan.<sup>4</sup> And you shall drink of the brook. And I have commanded the ravens to feed you there.<sup>5</sup> So he went and did according to the word of the LORD. For he went and lived by the brook Cherith, before Jordan.<sup>6</sup> And the ravens brought him bread and flesh in the morning, and bread and flesh in the evening.<sup>7</sup> And he drank of the brook. And it happened after a while, the brook dried up, because there had been no rain in the land.

<sup>8</sup>And the word of the LORD came to him, saying, <sup>9</sup>Arise, go to Zarephath which belongs to Sidon, and live there. Behold, I have commanded a widow to keep you there.<sup>10</sup> And he arose and went to Zarephath, and came in to the entrance of the city, and, behold, the widow was gathering sticks. And he called to her and said, Please, bring me a little water in a vessel so that I may drink.<sup>11</sup> And as she was going to bring it, he called to her and said, Please, bring me a piece of bread in your hand.<sup>12</sup> And she said, As the LORD your God lives, I do not have a cake, but only a handful of meal in a barrel and a little oil in a jar. And behold, I am gathering two sticks, so that I may go in and dress it for me and my son, so that we may eat it and die.<sup>13</sup> And Elijah said to her, Do not fear, go. Do as you have said. But first make me a little cake of it, and bring it to me. And then make for you and for your son.<sup>14</sup> For so says the LORD God of Israel, The barrel of meal shall not be emptied, nor shall the jar of oil fail, until the day that the LORD sends rain on the earth.<sup>15</sup> And she went and did according to the saying of Elijah. And she and he and her house ate many days;<sup>16</sup> the barrel of meal was not consumed, and the jar of oil did not fail, according to the word of the LORD which He spoke by Elijah.

<sup>17</sup>And it happened after these things the son of the woman, the mistress of the house, fell sick. And his sickness was so severe that there was no breath left in him. <sup>18</sup>And she said to Elijah, What do I have to do with you, O man of God? Have you come to me to call my sin to remembrance and to kill my son? <sup>19</sup>And he said to her, Give me your son. And he took him out of her bosom and carried him up into a loft, where he stayed, and laid him on his own bed. <sup>20</sup>And he cried to the LORD, and said, O LORD my God, have you also brought evil on the widow with whom I am staying, by slaying her son? <sup>21</sup>And he stretched himself on the child three times, and cried to the LORD, and said, O LORD my God, please let this child's soul come to him again. <sup>22</sup>And the LORD heard the voice of Elijah, and the soul of the child came into him again, and he revived. <sup>23</sup>And Elijah took the child and brought him down out of the room into the house and delivered him to his mother. And Elijah said, See! Your son lives! <sup>24</sup>And the woman said to Elijah, Now I know this, that you are a man of God, and that the word of the LORD in your mouth is truth.

CHAPTER 18

<sup>1</sup>And it happened after many days the word of the LORD came to Elijah in the third year saying, Go, show yourself to Ahab. And I will send rain on the earth. <sup>2</sup>And Elijah went to show himself to Ahab. And there was a great famine in Samaria. <sup>3</sup>And Ahab called Obadiah, who was over the house. And Obadiah feared the LORD greatly, <sup>4</sup>for when Jezebel cut off the prophets of the LORD, Obadiah took a hundred prophets and hid them by fifty in a cave, and fed them with bread and water. <sup>5</sup>And Ahab said to Obadiah, Go into the land, to all fountains of water, and to all the brooks. Perhaps we may find grass to save the horses and mules alive, so that we do not lose all the animals. <sup>6</sup>And they divided the land between them to pass throughout it. Ahab went one way by himself, and Obadiah went another way by himself.

<sup>7</sup>And as Obadiah was in the way, behold, Elijah met him. And he knew him, and fell on his face, and said, Are you my lord Elijah? <sup>8</sup>and he answered him, I am. Go, tell your lord, behold, Elijah is here. <sup>9</sup>And he said, What have I sinned that you would deliver your servant into the hand of Ahab to kill me? <sup>10</sup>As the LORD your God lives, there is no nation nor kingdom where my lord has not sent to seek you. And when they said, He is not there, he took an oath of the kingdom and nation that they did not find you. <sup>11</sup>And now you say, Go, tell your lord, Behold, Elijah is here! <sup>12</sup>And it will be as soon as I have gone from you, the Spirit of the LORD shall carry you where I know not. And when I come and tell Ahab, and he cannot find you, he will kill me. But I, your servant, have feared the LORD from my youth. <sup>13</sup>Was it not told my lord what I did when Jezebel killed the prophets of the LORD, how I hid a hundred men of the LORD's prophets by fifty in a cave and fed them with bread and water? <sup>14</sup>And now you say, Go, tell your lord, Behold, Elijah is here! And he will kill me! <sup>15</sup>And Elijah said, As the LORD of hosts lives, before whom I stand, I will surely show myself to him today.

<sup>16</sup>And Obadiah went to meet Ahab and told him. And Ahab went to meet Elijah. <sup>17</sup>And it happened when Ahab saw Elijah, Ahab said to him, Are you he that troubles Israel? <sup>18</sup>And he answered, I have not troubled Israel, but you and your father's house have, in that you have forsaken the commandments of the LORD, and you have followed the Baals. <sup>19</sup>And now send and gather to me all Israel to mount Carmel, and four hundred and fifty of the prophets of Baal, and four hundred of the prophets of the groves, who eat at Jezebel's table. <sup>20</sup>And Ahab sent to all the sons of Israel, and gathered the prophets together to mount Carmel. <sup>21</sup>And Elijah came to all the people and said, How long are you limping over two opinions? If Jehovah is God, follow Him. But if Baal is God, then follow him. And the people did not answer him a word. <sup>22</sup>And Elijah said to the people, I, I alone, remain a prophet of Jehovah. But Baal's prophets are four hundred and fifty men. <sup>23</sup>And let them give us two bulls, and let them choose one bull for themselves, and cut it in pieces and lay it on wood. But place no fire. And I will dress the other bull and lay it on wood, and place no fire. <sup>24</sup>And you call on the name of your gods, and I will call on the name of Jehovah. And the god that answers by fire, let him be God. And all the people answered and said, It is well spoken.

<sup>25</sup>And Elijah said to the prophets of Baal, Choose one bull for yourselves, and prepare first, for you are many. And call on the name of your gods, but place no fire. <sup>26</sup>And they took the bull which was given them, and they dressed, and called on the name of Baal from morning even until noon, saying, O Baal, hear us. But there was no voice, nor any who answered. And they leaped on the altar which was made. <sup>27</sup>And it happened at noon Elijah mocked them and said, Cry with a great voice, for he is a god. Either he is meditating, or he is pursuing, or he is in a journey; perhaps he is asleep and must be awakened! <sup>28</sup>And they cried with a loud voice and cut themselves with knives and spears until the blood gushed out on them, as is their way. <sup>29</sup>And it happened when midday was past, and when they prophesied until the time of the offering of the evening sacrifice, there was neither voice, nor any to answer, nor anyone who paid attention.

<sup>30</sup>And Elijah said to all the people, Come near to me. And all the people came near him. And he repaired the broken down altar of the LORD. <sup>31</sup>And Elijah took twelve stones, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, to whom the word of the LORD came, saying, Israel shall be your name. <sup>32</sup>And with stones he built an altar in the name of the LORD. And he made a trench around the altar big enough to contain two measures of seed. <sup>33</sup>And he arranged the wood, and cut the bull in pieces, and placed it on the wood, and said, Fill four barrels with water and pour on the burnt sacrifice and on the wood. <sup>34</sup>And he said, Do it the second time. And they did it the second time. And he said, Do it the third time. And they did it the third time. <sup>35</sup>And the water ran all around the altar. And he filled the trench also with water.

<sup>36</sup>And it happened at the time of the offering of the evening sacrifice, Elijah the prophet came near and said, LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and of Israel, let it be known this day that You are God in Israel, and that I am Your servant, and that I have done all these things at Your word. <sup>37</sup>Hear me, O LORD, hear me, that this people may know that You are Jehovah God, and that You have turned their heart back again. <sup>38</sup>And the fire of the LORD fell and burned up the burnt sacrifice and the wood, and the stones and the dust, and licked up the water that was in the trench. <sup>39</sup>And when all the people saw, they fell on their faces. And they said, Jehovah, He is the God! Jehovah, He is the God! <sup>40</sup>And Elijah said to them, Take the prophets of Baal. Do not let one of them escape. And they took them. And Elijah brought them down to the brook Kishon and killed them there.

<sup>41</sup>And Elijah said to Ahab, Go up, eat and drink, because of the sound of plenty of rain. <sup>42</sup>So Ahab went up to eat and to drink. And Elijah went up to the top of Carmel. And he threw himself down on the earth and put his face between his knees. <sup>43</sup>And he said to his servant, Go up now, look toward the sea. And he went up and looked and said, Nothing. And he said, Go again seven times. <sup>44</sup>And it happened at the seventh time, he said, Behold, there arises a little cloud out of the sea, like a man's hand. And he said, Go up and say to Ahab, Prepare your chariot, and go down, so that the rain does not stop you. <sup>45</sup>And it happened in the meantime the heaven was black with clouds and wind, and there was a great rain. And Ahab rose and went to Jezreel. <sup>46</sup>And the hand of the LORD was on Elijah. And he girded up his loins and ran before Ahab to the entrance of Jezreel.

CHAPTER 19

<sup>1</sup>And Ahab told Jezebel all that Elijah had done, and with it all how he had slain all the prophets with the sword. <sup>2</sup>And Jezebel sent a messenger to Elijah saying, So let the gods do to me, and more also, if I do not make your life like the life of one of them by tomorrow about this time. <sup>3</sup>And when he saw, he rose and went for his life, and came to Beer-sheba of Judah, and left his servant there. <sup>4</sup>And he himself went a day's journey into the wilderness, and came and sat down under a juniper tree. And he begged for his life, that he might die. And he said, It is enough. O LORD, take away my life. For I am no better than my fathers. <sup>5</sup>And as he lay and slept under a juniper tree, behold, then an angel touched him and said to him, Arise, eat. <sup>6</sup>And he looked, and, behold, a cake was baked on the coals, and a jug of water at his head. And he ate and drank, and lay down again. <sup>7</sup>And the angel of the LORD came to him the second time and touched him, and said, Arise, eat, because the journey is too great for you. <sup>8</sup>And he arose, and ate and drank, and went in the strength of that food forty days and forty nights to Horeb the mount of God.

<sup>9</sup>And he came there to a cave and stayed there. And behold, the word of the LORD came to him, and He said to him, What are you doing here, Elijah? <sup>10</sup>And he said, I have been very zealous for Jehovah the God of Hosts. For the sons of Israel have forsaken Your covenant, thrown down Your altars, and have slain Your prophets with the sword. And I, I alone, am left. And they seek to take my life away. <sup>11</sup>And He said, Go forth and stand on the mountain before the LORD. And, behold, the LORD passed by, and a great and strong wind tore the mountains, and broke the rocks in pieces before the LORD. But the LORD was not in the wind. And after the wind was an earthquake, but the LORD was not in the earthquake. <sup>12</sup>And after the earthquake was a fire, but the LORD was not in the fire. And after the fire was a still, small voice. <sup>13</sup>And it happened when Elijah heard, he wrapped his face in his mantle and went out, and stood in the entering in of the cave. And behold, a voice came to him and said, What are you doing here, Elijah? <sup>14</sup>And he said, I have been very zealous for Jehovah, God of Hosts, because the sons of Israel have forsaken Your covenant, have thrown down Your altars, and have slain Your prophets with the sword. And I, I alone, am left. And they seek to take my life away. <sup>15</sup>And the LORD said to him, Go, return on your way to the wilderness of Damascus. And when you come, anoint Hazeal to be king over Syria. <sup>16</sup>And you shall anoint Jehu the son of Nimshi to be king over Israel. And Elisha the son of Shaphat of Abel-meholah you shall anoint to be prophet in your place. <sup>17</sup>And it will be, whoever escapes the sword of Hazeal, Jehu will kill. And whoever escapes from the sword of Jehu, Elisha will kill. <sup>18</sup>Yet I have left seven thousand in Israel, all the knees which have not bowed to Baal, and every mouth which has not kissed him.

<sup>19</sup>And he left there, and found Elisha the son of Shaphat, who was plowing twelve yoke of oxen before him, and he was with the twelfth. And Elijah passed by him and threw his mantle on him. <sup>20</sup>And he left the oxen and ran after Elijah, and said, please, let me kiss my father and my mother, and then I will follow you. And he said to him, Go back again, for what have I done to you? <sup>21</sup>And he turned back from him, and took a yoke of oxen and killed them, and boiled their flesh with the instruments of the oxen, and gave it to the people, and they ate. And he arose and went after Elijah, and ministered to him.

CHAPTER 20

<sup>1</sup>And Ben-hadad the king of Syria gathered all his army together. And thirty-two kings were with him, and horses and chariots. And he went up and laid siege to Samaria, and warred against it. <sup>2</sup>And he sent messengers to Ahab king of Israel, and to the city, and said to him, Ben-hadad says this: <sup>3</sup>Your silver and your gold is mine, your wives also and your sons, the best are mine. <sup>4</sup>And the king of Israel answered and said, My lord, O King, according to your saying I am yours and all that I have. <sup>5</sup>And the messengers came again and said, Ben-hadad speaks in this way, saying, Although I have sent to you saying, You shall deliver me your silver and your gold and your wives and your sons, <sup>6</sup>yet I will send my servants to you tomorrow about this time, and they shall search your house and the houses of your servants. And it shall be, whatever is pleasant in your eyes, they will put it in their hand and take it away. <sup>7</sup>And the king of Israel called all the elders of the land and said, Please mark and see how this one seeks mischief. For he sent to me for my wives and for my sons, and for my silver and for my gold. And I did not keep them back from him. <sup>8</sup>And all the elders and all the people said to him, Do not listen nor consent! <sup>9</sup>And he said to the messengers of Ben-hadad, Tell my lord the king, All that you sent for to your servant at the first I will do, but this thing I may not do. And the messengers left and brought him word again. <sup>10</sup>And Ben-hadad sent to him and said, May the gods do so to me, and more also, if the dust of Samaria shall be enough for handfuls for all the people who follow me. <sup>11</sup>And the king of Israel answered and said, Tell him, Do not let him who girds on boast himself like the one who loosens his armor.

<sup>12</sup>And it happened he heard this word, and he was drinking, he and the kings in the booths, he said to his servants, Set in order, and they set in order against the city. And they placed the engines against the city.

<sup>13</sup>And behold, a prophet came near to Ahab king of Israel, saying, So says the LORD, Have you seen all this great multitude? Behold, I will deliver it into your hand today, and you shall know that I am the LORD. <sup>14</sup>And Ahab said, By whom? And he said, So says the LORD, By the young men of the rulers of the provinces. And he said, Who shall order the battle? And he answered, You. <sup>15</sup>And he numbered the young men of the rulers of the provinces, and they were two hundred and thirty-two. And after them he numbered all the people, all the sons of Israel, seven thousand. <sup>16</sup>And they went out at noon. But Ben-hadad was drinking himself drunk in the booths, he and the kings, the thirty-two kings who helped him. <sup>17</sup>And the young men of the rulers of the provinces went out first. And Ben-hadad sent out, and they told him, saying, There are men coming out of Samaria. <sup>18</sup>And he said, If they have come out for peace, take them alive; or if they have come out for war, take them alive. <sup>19</sup>So these young men of the rulers of the provinces came out of the city, and the army which followed them. <sup>20</sup>And they each one killed his man. And the Syrians fled. And Israel pursued them. And Ben-hadad the king of Syria escaped on a horse with the horsemen. <sup>21</sup>And the king of Israel went out and struck the horses and chariots, and killed the Syrians with a great slaughter.

<sup>22</sup>And the prophet came to the king of Israel and said to him, Go, strengthen yourself, and watch and see what you do. For at the return of the year the king of Syria will come up against you. <sup>23</sup>And the servants of the king of Syria said to him, Their gods are gods of the hills. On account of this they were stronger than we were. But let us fight against them in the plain, and surely we shall be stronger than they. <sup>24</sup>And do this thing, take the kings away, each man out of his place, and put captains in their places, <sup>25</sup>and number an army like the army that you have lost, horse for horse and chariot for chariot. And we will fight against them in the plain. Are we not stronger than they? And he listened to their voice and did so. <sup>26</sup>And it happened at the return of the year Ben-hadad numbered the Syrians that went up to Aphek to fight against Israel. <sup>27</sup>And the sons of Israel were numbered, and were all present, and went against them. And the sons of Israel pitched before them like two little flocks of kids. And the Syrians filled the country. <sup>28</sup>And a man of God came near and spoke to the king of Israel, and said, So says the LORD, Because the Syrians have said, Jehovah is God of the hills, but He is not God of the valleys, therefore I will deliver all this great multitude into your hand, and you shall know that I am the LORD. <sup>29</sup>And they pitched over against one another seven days. And it happened in the seventh day, and the battle came up. And the sons of Israel killed a hundred thousand footmen of the Syrians in one day. <sup>30</sup>But the rest fled to Aphek, into the city. And there a wall fell on twenty-seven thousand of the remaining men. And Ben-hadad fled and came into the city, into an inner room. <sup>31</sup>And his servants said to him, Behold now, we have heard that the kings of the house of Israel are merciful kings. Please let us put sackcloth on our loins and ropes on our heads, and go out to the king of Israel. Perhaps he will save your life. <sup>32</sup>And they bound sackcloth on their loins and ropes on their heads, and came to the king of Israel and said, Your servant Ben-hadad says, Please let me live. And he said, Is he still alive? He is my brother. <sup>33</sup>And the men carefully observed, and quickly caught it from him, and said, And they said, Your brother Ben-hadad. And he said, Go and bring him. And Ben-hadad came out to him, and he caused him to come up into the chariot. <sup>34</sup>And Ben-hadad said to him, The cities which my father took from your father, I will restore. And you shall make streets for you in Damascus, as my father made in Samaria. And Ahab said, I will send you away with this covenant. So he made a covenant with him and sent him away.

<sup>35</sup>And a certain man of the sons of the prophets said to his neighbor, By the word of the LORD, please strike me! And the man refused to strike him. <sup>36</sup>And he said to him, Because you have not obeyed the voice of the LORD, behold, as soon as you have departed from me, a lion shall kill you. And as soon as he had departed from him, a lion found him and killed him. <sup>37</sup>And he found another man and said, Please strike me. And the man struck him, so that he wounded him in striking him. <sup>38</sup>And the prophet went and waited for the king by the wayside, and disguised himself with ashes on his face. <sup>39</sup>And as the king passed by, it happened he cried to the king. And he said, Your servant went out into the middle of the battle, and, behold, a man turned aside and brought a man to me and said, Keep this man. If he is missing by any means, then your life shall be for his life, or else you shall pay a talent of silver. <sup>40</sup>And as your servant was busy here and there, he was gone! And the king of Israel said to him, So shall your judgment be; you yourself have decided it. <sup>41</sup>And he hurried and took the ashes away from his face. And the king of Israel saw that he was one of the prophets. <sup>42</sup>And he said to him, So says the LORD, Because you have let go out of your hand a man whom I marked out for utter destruction, therefore your life shall be for his life, and your people for his people. <sup>43</sup>And the king of Israel went to his house heavy and displeased, and came to Samaria.

CHAPTER 21

<sup>1</sup>And it happened after these things, Naboth of Jezreel had a vineyard in Jezreel, near the place of Ahab king of Samaria. <sup>2</sup>And Ahab spoke to Naboth, saying, Give me your vineyard so that I may have it for a garden of herbs, because it is near my house. And I will give you a better vineyard than it. Or, if it seems good to you, I will give you the worth of it in money. <sup>3</sup>And Naboth said to Ahab, Far be it from me, by Jehovah, that I should give the inheritance of my fathers to you. <sup>4</sup>And Ahab came to his house heavy and displeased because of the word which Naboth the Jezreelite had spoken to him. For he had said, I will not give you the inheritance of my fathers. And he lay on his bed and turned away his face, and would not eat food. <sup>5</sup>And his wife Jezebel came to him and said to him, Why is your spirit so sad that you are not eating food? <sup>6</sup>And he said to her, Because I spoke to Naboth of Jezreel and said to him, Give me your vineyard for money. Or else, if it pleases you, I will give you another vineyard for it. And he answered, I will not give you my vineyard. <sup>7</sup>And his wife Jezebel said to him, Do you now rule over Israel? Rise up, eat food, and let your heart be merry. I will give you the vineyard of Naboth of Jezreel. <sup>8</sup>And she wrote letters in Ahab's name, and sealed them with his seal, and sent the letters to the elders and to the nobles in his city, dwelling with Naboth. <sup>9</sup>And she wrote in the letter, saying, Proclaim a fast and set Naboth on high among the people. <sup>10</sup>And set two men, sons of Belial, before him to bear witness against him, saying, You blasphemed God and the king. And carry him out and stone him so that he may die. <sup>11</sup>And the men of his city, the elders and the nobles who lived in his city did as Jezebel had sent to them, as it was written in the letters which she had sent to them. <sup>12</sup>They proclaimed a fast and set Naboth on high among the people. <sup>13</sup>And there came in two men, sons of Belial, and sat before him. And the men of Belial witnessed against him, against Naboth, in the presence of the people, saying, Naboth blasphemed God and the king. And they carried him out of the city and stoned him with stones so that he died. <sup>14</sup>And they sent to Jezebel, saying, Naboth is stoned and is dead.

<sup>15</sup>And it happened when Jezebel heard that Naboth was stoned and was dead, Jezebel said to Ahab, Arise, take possession of the vineyard of Naboth of Jezreel, which he refused to give you for money. For Naboth is not alive, but dead. <sup>16</sup>And it happened when Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, Ahab rose up to go down to the vineyard of Naboth of Jezreel, to take possession of it. <sup>17</sup>And the word of the LORD came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying, <sup>18</sup>Arise, go down to meet Ahab king of Israel in Samaria. Behold, he is in the vineyard of Naboth, where he has gone to possess it. <sup>19</sup>And you shall speak to him, saying, So says the LORD, Have you killed and also taken possession? And you shall speak to him saying, So says the LORD, In the place where the dogs licked the blood of Naboth, dogs shall lick your blood, even yours. <sup>20</sup>And Ahab said to Elijah, Have you found me, O my enemy? And he answered, I have found you because you have sold yourself to work evil in the sight of the LORD. <sup>21</sup>Behold, I will bring evil on you and will take away your sons forever, and will cut off from Ahab everyone who urinates against the wall, and everyone who is shut up and left in Israel. <sup>22</sup>And I will make your house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the son of Ahijah, for the provocation with which you have provoked Me to anger, and made Israel to sin. <sup>23</sup>And the LORD also spoke of Jezebel saying, The dogs shall eat Jezebel by the wall of Jezreel. <sup>24</sup>He who dies of Ahab in the city, the dogs shall eat. And he who dies in the field, the birds of the air shall eat. <sup>25</sup>But there was none like Ahab, who sold himself to work wickedness in the sight of the LORD, whom Jezebel his wife stirred up. <sup>26</sup>And he did very abominably in following idols, according to all that the Amorites did, whom the LORD cast out before the sons of Israel. <sup>27</sup>And it happened when Ahab heard these words, he tore his clothes and put sackcloth on his flesh, and fasted, and lay in sackcloth and walked softly. <sup>28</sup>And the word of the LORD came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying, <sup>29</sup>Do you see how Ahab humbles himself before Me? Because he humbles himself before Me, I will not bring the evil in his days. But in his son's days I will bring the evil on his house.

CHAPTER 22

<sup>1</sup>And they continued three years; there was no war between Syria and Israel. <sup>2</sup>And it happened in the third year, Jehoshaphat the king of Judah came down to see the king of Israel. <sup>3</sup>And the king of Israel said to his servants, Do you not know that Ramoth in Gilead is ours, and we are quiet and do not take it out of the hand of the king of Syria? <sup>4</sup>And he said to Jehoshaphat, Will you go with me to battle to Ramoth in Gilead? And Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, I am as you; my people as your people, my horses as your horses. <sup>5</sup>And Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, Please inquire at the word of the LORD today. <sup>6</sup>And the king of Israel gathered the prophets, about four hundred men, and said to them, Shall I go against Ramoth in Gilead to battle, or shall I hold back? And they said, Go up! For the LORD shall deliver it into the hand of the king. <sup>7</sup>And Jehoshaphat said, Is there not here a prophet of Jehovah besides, that we might inquire of Him? <sup>8</sup>And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, There is still one man, Micaiah the son of Imlah, by whom we may inquire of Jehovah. But I hate him, for he does not prophesy good concerning me, but evil. And Jehoshaphat said, Let not the king say so. <sup>9</sup>And the king of Israel called an officer and said, Hurry and bring Micaiah the son of Imlah here.

<sup>10</sup>And the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah each sat on his throne, having put on their robes, in a floor in the entrance of the gate of Samaria. And all the prophets prophesied before them. <sup>11</sup>And Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah made horns of iron for himself. And he said, So says Jehovah, With these you shall push the Syrians until you have crushed them. <sup>12</sup>And all the prophets prophesied so, saying, Go up to Ramoth in Gilead and prosper, for the LORD shall deliver it into the king's hands. <sup>13</sup>And the messenger that had gone to call Micaiah spoke to him, saying, Behold now, the words of the prophets are good to the king with one mouth. Please let your word be like the word of one of them, and speak good. <sup>14</sup>And Micaiah said, As the LORD lives, what the LORD says to me, that I will speak.

<sup>15</sup>So he came to the king. And the king said to him, Micaiah, Shall we go against Ramoth in Gilead to battle, or shall we hold off? And he answered him, Go and prosper. For the LORD shall deliver it into the hand of the king. <sup>16</sup>And the king said to him, How many times shall I adjure you that you tell me nothing but what is true, in the name of Jehovah? <sup>17</sup>And he said, I saw all Israel scattered on the hills, like sheep that have no shepherd. And the LORD said, These have no master. Let each man return to his house in peace. <sup>18</sup>And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, Did I not tell you that he would prophesy no good concerning me, but evil? <sup>19</sup>And he said, Hear therefore the word of the LORD: I saw the LORD sitting on His throne, and all the host of heaven standing by Him on His right hand and on His left. <sup>20</sup>And the LORD said, Who shall persuade Ahab that he may go up and fall at Ramoth in Gilead? And one said this way, and another said that way. <sup>21</sup>And there came forth a spirit and stood before the LORD and said, I will deceive him. <sup>22</sup>And the LORD said to him, With what? And he said, I will go forth and will be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets. And He said, You shall persuade him and succeed also. Go forth and do so. <sup>23</sup>And now, behold, the LORD has put a lying spirit in the mouth of all these your prophets, and the LORD has spoken evil concerning you. <sup>24</sup>But Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah went near and struck Micaiah on the cheek, and said, Which way did the Spirit of the LORD go from me to speak to you? <sup>25</sup>And Micaiah said, Behold, you shall see in that day when you shall go into an inner room to hide yourself. <sup>26</sup>And the king of Israel said, Take Micaiah and carry him back to Amon the governor of the city, and to Joash the king's son, <sup>27</sup>and say, so says the king, Put this one in the prison and feed him with bread of affliction and the water of affliction, until I come in peace. <sup>28</sup>And Micaiah said, If you return at all in peace, the LORD has not spoken by me. And he said, Listen, O people, all of them!

<sup>29</sup>And the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramoth in Gilead. <sup>30</sup>And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, I will disguise myself and enter into the battle. But you put on your robes. And the king of Israel disguised himself and went into the battle. <sup>31</sup>But the king of Syria commanded his thirty-two captains who had rule over his chariots, saying, Do not fight with small nor great, except only with the king of Israel. <sup>32</sup>And it happened when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, they said, Surely it is the king of Israel. And they turned aside to fight against him. And Jehoshaphat cried out. <sup>33</sup>And it happened when the captains of the chariots saw that it was not the king of Israel, they turned back from pursuing him. <sup>34</sup>And a man drew a bow in his simplicity and struck the king of Israel between the joints of the harness. And he said to the driver of his chariot, Turn your hand and carry me out of the army, for I am wounded. <sup>35</sup>And the battle increased that day. And the king was stayed up in his chariot against the Syrians, and died at evening. And the blood ran out of the wound into the midst of the chariot. <sup>36</sup>And there went a cry throughout the army around the going down of the sun, saying, Each to his city, and each to his land. <sup>37</sup>And the king died and came to Samaria. And they buried the king in Samaria. <sup>38</sup>And one washed the chariot in the pool of Samaria, and the dogs licked up his blood, and they washed his armor, according to the word of the LORD which He spoke.

<sup>39</sup>And the rest of the acts of Ahab, and all that he did, and the ivory house which he built, and all the cities that he built, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the Kings of Israel? <sup>40</sup>And Ahab lay with his fathers. And his son Ahaziah reigned in his place.

<sup>41</sup>And Jehoshaphat, the son of Asa began to reign over Judah in the fourth year of Ahab king of Israel. <sup>42</sup>Jehoshaphat was thirty-five years old when he began to reign. And he reigned twenty-five years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi. <sup>43</sup>And he walked in all the ways of Asa his father. He did not turn aside from it, doing right in the eyes of the LORD. But the high places were not taken away, for the people offered and burned incense yet in the high places. <sup>44</sup>And Jehoshaphat made peace with the kings of Israel. <sup>45</sup>And the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, and his might which he showed, and how he warred, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the Kings of Judah? <sup>46</sup>And the rest of the sodomites which remained in the days of his father Asa, he took out of the land. <sup>47</sup>There was then no king in Edom, a deputy was king. <sup>48</sup>Jehoshaphat made ships of Tarshish to go to Ophir for gold. But they did not go, for the ships were broken at Ezion-geber. <sup>49</sup>And Ahaziah the son of Ahab said to Jehoshaphat, Let my servants go with your servants in the ships. But Jehoshaphat would not. <sup>50</sup>And Jehoshaphat lay with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father. And his son Jehoram reigned in his place.

<sup>51</sup>Ahaziah the son of Ahab began to reign over Israel in Samaria the seventeenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah. And he reigned two years over Israel. <sup>52</sup>And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of his father, and in the way of his mother, and in the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin. <sup>53</sup>For he served Baal and worshiped him, and provoked the LORD God of Israel to anger, according to all that his father had done.

THE SECOND BOOK OF KINGS

CHAPTER 1

<sup>1</sup>And Moab rebelled against Israel after the death of Ahab. <sup>2</sup>And Ahaziah fell down through a lattice in his upper room in Samaria, and was sick. And he sent messengers and said to them, Go, ask of Baal-zebul the god of Ekron whether I shall recover of this disease. <sup>3</sup>But the angel of the LORD said to Elijah the Tishbite, Arise! Go up to meet the messengers of the king of Samaria and say to them, Is it not because no God is in Israel that you go to ask of Baal-zebul the god of Ekron? <sup>4</sup>And therefore so says the LORD, You shall not come from that bed on which you have gone up, but shall surely die. And Elijah left.

<sup>5</sup>And the messengers turned back to him. And he said, Why have you now turned back? <sup>6</sup>And they said to him, A man came up to meet us and said to us, Go, turn again to the king who sent you, and say to him, So says the LORD, Is it not because no God is in Israel that you go to ask of Baal-zebul the god of Ekron? Therefore, you shall not come down from that bed on which you have gone up, but shall surely die. <sup>7</sup>And he said to them, What kind of man was he who came up to meet you and told you these words? <sup>8</sup>And they answered him, He was a hairy man and was bound with a girdle of leather around his loins. And he said, He is Elijah the Tishbite. <sup>9</sup>And he sent to him a captain of fifty with his fifty. And he went up to him. And, behold, he sat on the top of a hill. And he spoke to him, Man of God! The king has said, Come down. <sup>10</sup>And Elijah answered and said to the captain of fifty, If I am a man of God, then let fire come down from heaven and burn up you and your fifty. And there came down fire from heaven and burned up him and his fifty. <sup>11</sup>And he turned and he sent to him another captain of fifty with his fifty. And he answered and said to him, Man of God! So says the king, Come down quickly. <sup>12</sup>And Elijah answered and said to him, If I am a man of God, let fire come down from heaven and burn up you and your fifty. And the fire of God came down from heaven and burned up him and his fifty. <sup>13</sup>And he turned and sent again a third captain of fifty and his fifty. And the third captain of fifty came up and fell on his knees before Elijah, and begged him, and said to him, Man of God, Please let my life and the life of these fifty, your servants, be precious in your sight. <sup>14</sup>Behold, fire has come down from heaven and burned up the two captains of the former fifties with their fifties. And now let my life be precious in your sight. <sup>15</sup>And the Angel of the LORD said to Elijah, Go down with him. Do not be afraid of him. And he arose and went down with him to the king. <sup>16</sup>And he said to him, So says the LORD, Because you have sent messengers to ask of Baal-zebul the god of Ekron, is it not because no God is in Israel to seek His word? Therefore you shall not come down off that bed on which you have gone up, but shall surely die. <sup>17</sup>And he died according to the word of the LORD which Elijah had spoken. And Jehoram reigned in his place, in the second year of Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, because he had no son. <sup>18</sup>And the rest of the acts of Ahaziah which he did, are they not written in the Matters of the Days of the Kings of Israel?

CHAPTER 2

<sup>1</sup>And it happened when the LORD desired to take Elijah up into Heaven by a whirlwind, Elijah went with Elisha from Gilgal. <sup>2</sup>And Elijah said to Elisha, Please stay here, for the LORD has sent me to Bethel. And Elisha said, As the LORD lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you. So they went down to Bethel. <sup>3</sup>And the sons of the prophets at Bethel came forth to Elisha, and said to him, Do you know that the LORD will take away your master from your head today? And he said, Yes, I know. Keep silent. <sup>4</sup>And Elijah said to him, Elisha, please stay here. For the LORD has sent me to Jericho. And he said, As the LORD lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you. So they came to Jericho. <sup>5</sup>And the sons of the prophets at Jericho came to Elisha and said to him, Do you know that the LORD will take your master away from your head today? And he answered, Yes, I know. Keep silent. <sup>6</sup>And Elijah said to him, Please stay here, for the LORD has sent me to Jordan. And he said, As the LORD lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you. And the two of them went on. <sup>7</sup>And fifty men of the sons of the prophets went on and stood across from them. And both them stood by the Jordan afar off. <sup>8</sup>And Elijah took his mantle and rolled it up, and struck the waters. And they were divided here and there, so that both of them crossed over on dry ground.

<sup>9</sup>And it happened when they had gone over, Elijah said to Elisha. Ask what I shall do for you before I am taken away from you. And Elisha said, please, let a double portion of your spirit be upon me. <sup>10</sup>And he said, You have asked a hard thing, but if you see me taken from you, it shall be so to you; but if not, it shall not be. <sup>11</sup>And it happened as they went on and talked, behold, a chariot of fire and horses of fire came, and they separated between them both. And Elijah went up in a tempest into Heaven. <sup>12</sup>And Elisha saw, and he cried, My father, my father, the chariot of Israel and its horsemen! And he saw him no more. And he took hold of his own clothes and tore them in two pieces. <sup>13</sup>He also took up the mantle of Elijah which had fallen from him, and went back and stood by the bank of Jordan. <sup>14</sup>And he took the mantle of Elijah that had fallen from him, and struck the waters, and said, Where is the LORD God of Elijah? And when he also hit the waters, they parted here and there. And Elisha went over. <sup>15</sup>And when the sons of the prophets across in Jericho saw him, they said, The spirit of Elijah rests upon Elisha! And they came to meet him and bowed to the ground before him. <sup>16</sup>And they said to him, Behold now, there are with your servants fifty strong men. Please let them go and seek your master, lest perhaps the Spirit of the LORD has taken him up and cast him upon some mountain, or into some valley. And he said, You shall not send. <sup>17</sup>And they urged him until he was ashamed, he said, Send. And they sent fifty men. And they looked for three days, but did not find him. <sup>18</sup>And they returned to him, And he was staying in Jericho. And he said to them, Did I not say to you, Do not go?

<sup>19</sup>And the men of the city said to Elisha, Behold, please, the location of this city is pleasant, as my lord sees. But the water is bad, and the ground is barren. <sup>20</sup>And he said, Bring me a new jar and put salt in it. And they brought to him. <sup>21</sup>And he went forth to the spring of the waters and threw the salt in there, and said, So says the LORD, I have healed these waters. There shall not be any more death or barrenness from there. <sup>22</sup>And the waters were healed to this day, according to the saying of Elisha which he spoke.

<sup>23</sup>And he went up from there to Bethel. And he was going up in the highway. And little boys came out from the city and mocked him, and said to him, Go up, bald head! Go up, bald head! <sup>24</sup>And he turned behind him and saw them, and declared them vile in the name of the LORD. And two she-bears came out of the woods and tore forty-two boys of them. <sup>25</sup>And he went from there to mount Carmel, and from there he returned to Samaria.

CHAPTER 3

<sup>1</sup>And Jehoram the son of Ahab began to reign over Israel in Samaria the eighteenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and reigned twelve years. <sup>2</sup>And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, but not like his father and his mother; for he put away the image of Baal that his father had made. <sup>3</sup>But he clung to the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin. He did not depart from them.

<sup>4</sup>And Mesha king of Moab was a sheepmaster, and rendered to the king of Israel a hundred thousand lambs, and a hundred thousand rams with the wool. <sup>5</sup>And it happened when Ahab was dead, the king of Moab rebelled against the king of Israel. <sup>6</sup>And king Jehoram went out of Samaria at the same time and numbered all Israel. <sup>7</sup>And he went and sent to Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, saying, The king of Moab has rebelled against me. Will you go with me against Moab to battle? And he said, I will go up. I am as you are, my people as your people, my horses as your horses. <sup>8</sup>And he said, Which way shall we go up? And he answered, The way through the wilderness of Edom. <sup>9</sup>And the king of Israel and the king of Judah, and the king of Edom went. And they went around behind for seven days' journey. And there was no water for the army, and for the cattle that followed them. <sup>10</sup>And the king of Israel said, Alas! that the LORD has called these three kings together to deliver them into the hand of Moab! <sup>11</sup>And Jehoshaphat said, Is there not here a prophct of the LORD, that we may ask of the LORD by him? And one of the king of Israel's servants answered and said, Here is Elisha the son of Shaphat, who poured water on the hands of Elijah. <sup>12</sup>And Jehoshaphat said, The word of the LORD is with him. And the king of Israel, and Jehoshaphat, and the king of Edom went down to him. <sup>13</sup>And Elisha said to the king of Israel, What do I have to do with you? Go to the prophets of your father and to the prophets of your mother. And the king of Israel said to him, No, for the LORD has called these three kings together to deliver them into the hand of Moab. <sup>14</sup>And Elisha said, As the LORD of hosts lives, before whom I stand, surely if it were not that I regard the presence of Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, I would not look toward you nor see you. <sup>15</sup>And now bring me a minstrel. And it happened when the minstrel played, the hand of the LORD came on him. <sup>16</sup>And he said, So says the LORD, Make this valley full of ditches. <sup>17</sup>For so says the LORD, You shall not see wind, nor shall you see rain. Still that valley shall be filled with water, so that you may drink, both you and your cattle, and your animals. <sup>18</sup>And this is a light thing in the sight of the LORD. He will also deliver the Moabites into your hand. <sup>19</sup>And you shall strike every fenced city, and every choice city. And you shall cut down every good tree and stop all wells of water, and mar every good piece of land with stones. <sup>20</sup>And it happened in the morning when the food offering was offered, behold, water came by the way of Edom, and the country was filled with water.

<sup>21</sup>And all the Moab had heard that the kings had come up to fight against them, they gathered all that were able to put on armor, and upward, and stood in the border. <sup>22</sup>And they rose up early in the morning, and the sun shone upon the water, and the Moabites saw the water on the other side red like blood. <sup>23</sup>And they said, This is blood. The kings are surely slain, and they have stricken one another. And now, Moab, to the spoil! <sup>24</sup>And they came to the camp of Israel, and the Israelites rose up and struck the Moabites, so that they fled before them. But they entered it and struck Moab. <sup>25</sup>And they beat down the cities, and each man cast his stone on every good piece of land, and filled it. And they stopped all the wells of water, and cut down all the good trees. Only in Kir-haraseth did they leave the stones of it. But the slingers surrounded it and struck it. <sup>26</sup>And when the king of Moab saw that the battle was too strong for him, he took with him seven hundred men who drew swords, in order to break through to the king of Edom. And they could not. <sup>27</sup>And he took his oldest son, who would have reigned in his place, and offered him for a burnt offering on the wall. And there was great anger against Israel. And they left him, and returned to the land.

CHAPTER 4

<sup>1</sup>And a certain woman of the wives of the sons of the prophets cried to Elisha, saying, Your servant my husband is dead. And you know that your servant feared the LORD. And the lender has come to take my two children to himself for slaves. <sup>2</sup>And Elisha said to her, What shall I do for you? Tell me, what do you have in the house? And she said, Your handmaid has not a thing in the house except a pot of oil. <sup>3</sup>And he said, Go, borrow vessels for yourself from outside, from your neighbors, empty vessels. Do not let them be few. <sup>4</sup>And you shall go in and shut the door on you and your sons. And you shall pour out into all those vessels. And you shall set aside the full ones. <sup>5</sup>And she went from him and shut the door on her and on her sons. They brought to her, and she poured out. <sup>6</sup>And it happened when the vessels were full, she said to her son, Bring me another vessel. And he said to her, There is not a vessel left. And the oil stopped. <sup>7</sup>And she came and told the man of God. And he said, Go, sell the oil and pay your debt, and you and your sons shall live from the rest.

<sup>8</sup>And the day came when Elisha passed over to Shunem. And a great woman was there. And she laid hold on him to eat bread. And it happened, as often as he passed by, he turned in there to eat bread. <sup>9</sup>And she said to her husband, Behold now, I see that this is a holy man of God who passes by us continually. <sup>10</sup>Please, let us make a little room on the wall. And let us set a bed for him there, and a table, and a stool, and a lampstand. And when he comes to us, he shall turn in there. <sup>11</sup>And the day came when he came in there, and he turned into the room and lay there. <sup>12</sup>And he said to Gehazi his servant, Call this Shunammite. And he called her, and she stood before him. <sup>13</sup>And he said to him, Say now to her, Behold, you have been thoughtful for us with all this care. What is to be done for you? Would you be spoken for to the king or to the captain of the army? And she answered, I dwell among my own people. <sup>14</sup>And he said, What then is to be done for her? And Gehazi answered, Truly, she has no child, and her husband is old. <sup>15</sup>And he said, Call her! And he called her, and she stood in the door. <sup>16</sup>And he said, At this time, according to the time of life, you shall embrace a son. And she said, No, my lord, O man of God, do not lie to your handmaid. <sup>17</sup>And the woman conceived and bore a son at that time that Elisha had said to her, according to the time of life.

<sup>18</sup>And the boy grew, and the day came that he went out to his father to the reapers. <sup>19</sup>And he said to his father, My head, my head! And he said to a lad, Carry him to his mother. <sup>20</sup>And he carried him and brought him to his mother And he sat on her knees until noon and died. <sup>21</sup>And she went up and laid him on the bed of the man of God, and shut the door on him and went out. <sup>22</sup>And she called to her husband and said, Please send me one of the young men and one of the asses so that I may run to the man of God and come again. <sup>23</sup>And he said, Why will you go to him today? It is neither new moon nor sabbath. And she said, It is well. <sup>24</sup>And she saddled an ass and said to her servant, Drive and go forward! Do not hold back your riding for me unless I tell you. <sup>25</sup>And she went and came to the man of God, to mount Carmel. And it happened when the man of God saw her afar off, he said to Gehazi his servant, Behold, the Shunammite. <sup>26</sup>Please run now to meet her, and say to her, Is it well with you? Is it well with your husband? Is it well with the boy? And she answered, Well! <sup>27</sup>And she came to the man of God to the hill, and she caught him by the feet. And Gehazi came near to push her away. And the man of God said, Let her alone, for her soul is troubled within her. And the LORD has hidden it from me and has not told me. <sup>28</sup>And she said, Did I desire a son from my lord? Did I not say, Do not deceive me?

<sup>29</sup>Then he said to Gehazi, Bind up your loins and take my staff in your hand, and go. If you meet any man, do not greet him. And if any greet you, do not answer him again. And lay my staff on the face of the child. <sup>30</sup>And the mother of the child said, As the LORD lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you. And he arose and followed her. <sup>31</sup>And Gehazi passed on before them and laid the staff on the face of the child. But there was no voice nor hearing. And he turned back to meet him and told him, saying, The boy has not awakened. <sup>32</sup>And Elisha had come to the house. And behold, the boy was dead, and lay on his bed. <sup>33</sup>And he went in and shut the door on the two of them, and prayed to the LORD. <sup>34</sup>And he went up and lay on the boy, and put his mouth on his mouth and his eyes on his eyes, and his hands on his hands. And he stretched himself on the boy. And the flesh of the boy became warm. <sup>35</sup>And he returned and walked in the house to and fro. And he went up and stretched himself on him. And the boy sneezed seven times, and the boy opened his eyes. <sup>36</sup>And he called Gehazi and said, Call this Shunammite. And he called her, and she came in to him. And he said, Take up your son! <sup>37</sup>And she went in and fell at his feet and bowed to the ground, and took up her son, and went out.

<sup>38</sup>And Elisha came again to Gilgal. And there was a famine in the land. And the sons of the prophets were sitting before him. And he said to his servant, Set on the great pot and boil pottage for the sons of the prophets. <sup>39</sup>And one went out into the field to gather herbs. And he found a vine of the field, and gathered gourds from it in the field. And with the lap of his garment full, he came in and shredded them into the pot of pottage. For they did not know them. <sup>40</sup>And they poured out for the men to eat. And it happened as they were eating of the pottage, they cried out and said, O man of God, death is in the pot! And they could not eat. <sup>41</sup>And he said, Then bring meal. And he cast it into the pot. And he said, Pour out for the people, and they may eat. And there was no evil thing in the pot.

<sup>42</sup>And a man came from Baal-shalisha and brought the man of God bread from the first-fruits, twenty loaves of barley and full ears of grain in its husk. And he said, Give to the people that they may eat. <sup>43</sup>And his servant said, What? Should I set this before a hundred men? He said again, Give to the people so that they may eat, for so says the LORD, They shall eat and shall leave some. <sup>44</sup>And he set before them, and they ate, and left some of it, according to the word of the LORD.

CHAPTER 5

<sup>1</sup>And Naaman, captain of the army of the king of Syria, was a great man with his master. And he was in high favor because the LORD had given deliverance to Syria by him. He was also a mighty man, but a leper. <sup>2</sup>And the Syrians had gone out by companies, and had brought away a little girl as a captive out of the land of Israel. And she waited on Naaman's wife. <sup>3</sup>And she said to her mistress, I wish my lord were with the prophet in Samaria! For he would recover him from his leprosy. <sup>4</sup>And one went in and told his lord, saying, This and this said the girl from the land of Israel. <sup>5</sup>And the king of Syria said, Go, go in and I will send a letter to the king of Israel. And he departed and took with him ten talents of silver and six thousand of gold, and ten changes of clothing. <sup>6</sup>And he came in with the letter to the king of Israel, saying, And now when this letter has come to you, behold, I have sent Naaman my servant to you. And you shall recover him of his leprosy. <sup>7</sup>And it happened when the king of Israel read the letter, he tore his clothes and said, Am I God, to kill and to make alive, that this man sends to me to recover a man from his leprosy? For consider now, and see, for he is coiling himself toward me.

<sup>8</sup>And it happened when Elisha the man of God heard that the king of Israel had torn his clothes, he sent to the king, saying, Why have you torn your clothes? Let him now come to me, and he shall know that there is a prophet in Israel. <sup>9</sup>And Naaman came with his horses and with his chariot, and stood at the door of the house of Elisha. <sup>10</sup>And Elisha sent a messenger to him, saying, Go and wash in Jordan seven times, and your flesh shall come to you, and you shall be clean. <sup>11</sup>But Naaman was angry, and went away. And he said, Behold, I said within myself, He will surely come out to me and stand and call on the name of the LORD his God, and strike his hand over the place and recover the leper. <sup>12</sup>Are not Abana and Pharpar, rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? May I not wash in them, and be clean? And he turned and went away in a rage. <sup>13</sup>And his servants came near and spoke to him and said, My father, if the prophet had told you to do a great thing, would you not have done it? How much rather then, when he says to you, Wash and be clean? <sup>14</sup>And he went down and dipped seven times in Jordan, according to the saying of the man of God. And his flesh came again like the flesh of a little boy, and he was clean.

<sup>15</sup>And he returned to the man of God, he and all his company. And he came and stood before him. And he said, Behold, now I know that there is no God in all the earth, but in Israel. And now please take a blessing from your servant. <sup>16</sup>But he said, As the LORD lives, before whom I stand, I will receive none. And he urged him to take it, but he refused. <sup>17</sup>And Naaman said, Please shall there not then be given to your servant two mules' burden of earth? For your servant will from now on offer neither burnt offering nor sacrifice to other gods, but to Jehovah. <sup>18</sup>In this thing may Jehovah pardon your servant, that when my master goes to the house of Rimmon to worship there, and he is supported by my hand, and I bow myself in the house of Rimmon; when I bow myself in the house of Rimmon, may Jehovah pardon your servant in this thing. <sup>19</sup>And he said to him, Go in peace. And he went away from him a little way.

<sup>20</sup>And Gehazi, the servant of Elisha the man of God, said, Behold, my master has spared Naaman the Syrian, in not receiving at his hand that which he brought. But, as the LORD lives, I will run after him and take something from him. <sup>21</sup>And Gehazi followed after Naaman. And Naaman saw him running after him, and descended down from the chariot to meet him. And he said, Is all well? <sup>22</sup>And he said, All is well. My master has sent me, saying, Behold, this now, two young men from mount Ephraim of the sons of the prophets have come to me. Please give them a talent of silver and two changes of clothing. <sup>23</sup>And Naaman said, Be content, take two talents. And he urged him and bound two talents of silver in two bags, with two changes of clothing. And he laid them on two of his servants. And they carried them before him. <sup>24</sup>And he came to the hill, and he took from their hand and stowed them in the house. And he let the men go, and they departed. <sup>25</sup>And he went in and stood before his master. And Elisha said to him, Where from, Gehazi? And he said, Your servant did not go here or there. <sup>26</sup>And he said to him, Did not my heart go with you when the man turned again from his chariot to meet you? Is it a time to receive money and to receive clothing and oliveyards and vineyards and sheep and oxen and menservants and maidservants? <sup>27</sup>And the leprosy of Naaman shall cling to you and to your seed forever. And he went out from his presence as leprous as snow.

CHAPTER 6

<sup>1</sup>And the sons of the prophets said to Elisha, Behold now, the place where we live with you is too small for us. <sup>2</sup>Please let us go to Jordan. And let each man take a beam from there. And let us make us a place there, where we may dwell. And he answered, Go. <sup>3</sup>And one said, Be content, please, and go with your servants. And he answered them, I will go. <sup>4</sup>And he went with them. And they came to Jordan, and they cut down trees. <sup>5</sup>And it happened as one was felling a log, the axe-head fell into the water. And he cried and said, Alas, master! For it was borrowed. <sup>6</sup>And the man of God said, Where did it fall? And he showed him the place. And he cut down a stick and threw it in there. And the iron swam. <sup>7</sup>And he said, take it up to you. And he put out his hand and took it.

<sup>8</sup>And the king of Syria warred against Israel, and took counsel with his servants, saying, In such and such a place shall be my camp. <sup>9</sup>And the man of God sent to the king of Israel, saying, Beware that you do not pass such a place, for the Syrians have come down there. <sup>10</sup>And the king of Israel sent to the place of which the man of God told him and warned him, and saved himself there, not once nor twice. <sup>11</sup>And the heart of the king of Syria was enraged for this thing. And he called his servants and said to them, Will you not show me which of us is for the king of Israel? <sup>12</sup>And one of his servants said, None, my lord, O king, but Elisha the prophet, who is in Israel, tells the king of Israel the words that you speak in your bedroom. <sup>13</sup>And he said, Go and spy where he is, so that I may send and bring him. And it was told him, saying, Behold, he is in Dothan. <sup>14</sup>And he sent there horses and chariots and a great army. And they came by night and surrounded the city. <sup>15</sup>And the servant of the man of God arose early and went out. And, behold, an army surrounded the city, and horses and chariots. And his servant said to him, Alas, my master! What shall we do? <sup>16</sup>And he answered, Do not fear, for those with us are more than those with them. <sup>17</sup>And Elisha prayed and said, I pray You, LORD, open his eyes so that he may see. And the LORD opened the eyes of the young man, and he saw. And behold, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire round about Elisha. <sup>18</sup>And they came down to it, and Elisha prayed to the LORD and said, I pray You, strike this people with blindness. And He struck them with blindness according to the word of Elisha.

<sup>19</sup>And Elisha said to them, This is not the way, nor is this the city. Follow me and I will bring you to the man whom you seek. But he led them to Samaria. <sup>20</sup>And it happened when they came into Samaria, Elisha said, LORD, open the eyes of these men so that they may see. And the LORD opened their eyes, and they saw. And behold, they were in the middle of Samaria. <sup>21</sup>And when he saw them, the king of Israel said to Elisha, My father, shall I strike them? Shall I strike them? <sup>22</sup>And he answered, You shall not strike them. Would you strike those whom you have taken captive with your sword and with your bow? Set bread and water before them so that they may eat and drink, and go to their master. <sup>23</sup>And he prepared a great feast for them. And when they had eaten and drunk, he sent them away, and they went to their master. And the bands of Syria came no more into the land of Israel.

<sup>24</sup>And it happened after this Ben-hadad king of Syria gathered all his army and went up and lay siege to Samaria. <sup>25</sup>And there was a great famine in Samaria. And, behold, they besieged it until an ass's head was sold for eighty pieces of silver, and the fourth part of a cab of dove's dung for five pieces of silver. <sup>26</sup>And as the king of Israel was passing by on the wall, a woman cried to him, saying, Help, my lord, O king! <sup>27</sup>And he said, if the LORD does not help you, from where shall I help you? Out of the barn-floor, or out of the wine-press? <sup>28</sup>And the king said to her, What ails you? And she said, This woman said to me, Give your son so that we may eat him today, and we will eat my son tomorrow. <sup>29</sup>And we boiled my son and ate him. And I said to her on the other day, Give your son so that we may eat him. And she has hidden her son. <sup>30</sup>And it happened when the king heard the words of the woman, he tore his clothes. And he passed by on the wall, and the people looked, and, behold, he had sackcloth inside on his flesh. <sup>31</sup>And he said, May God do so, and more also, to me, if the head of Elisha the son of Shaphat shall stand on him this day.

<sup>32</sup>But Elisha sat in his house, and the elders sat with him. And he sent a man from before him. But before the messenger came to him, he said to the elders, Do you see how this son of a murderer has sent to take away my head? Look, when the messenger comes, shut the door and hold him fast at the door. Is not the sound of his master's feet behind him? <sup>33</sup>While he still talked with them, behold, the messenger came down to him. And he said, Behold, this evil is from the LORD. Why should I wait for the LORD any longer?

CHAPTER 7

<sup>1</sup>And Elisha said, Hear the word of the LORD! So says the LORD, Tomorrow about this time a measure of fine flour will be sold at a shekel, and two measures of barley at a shekel, in the gate of Samaria. <sup>2</sup>And the third officer on whose hand the king leaned answered the man of God, and said, Behold, if the LORD would make windows in heaven, then this thing might be. And he said, Behold, you shall see with your eyes, but you shall not eat of it.

<sup>3</sup>And four men, lepers, were at gate entrance. And they said to one another, Why do we sit here until we die? <sup>4</sup>If we say, We will enter into the city, then the famine is in the city, and we shall die there. And if we still sit here, we also shall die. And now come and let us fall to the army of the Syrians. If they save us alive, we shall live. And if they kill us, we shall only die. <sup>5</sup>And they rose up in the twilight to go to the camp of the Syrians. And when they had come to the outermost part of the camp of Syria, behold, no man was there! <sup>6</sup>For the LORD had made the army of the Syrians to hear a noise of chariots and a noise of horses, the noise of a great army. And they said to one another, Lo, the king of Israel has hired the kings of the Hittites and the kings of the Egyptians against us, to come on us. <sup>7</sup>And they arose and fled in the twilight and left their tents and their horses and their asses, the camp, as it was, and fled for their life. <sup>8</sup>And when these lepers came to the outermost part of the camp, they went into one tent and ate and drank, and carried silver and gold and clothing from there, and went and hid it. And they came again and entered into another tent and carried from there, and went and hid it. <sup>9</sup>And they said to one another, We are not doing right. This day is a day of good news, and we hold our peace. If we stay until the morning light, some punishment will come on us. And now come, so that we may go and tell the king's household. <sup>10</sup>And they came and called to the porter of the city. And they told them, saying, We came to the camp of the Syrians, and, behold, no man was there, neither voice of man, but horses tied, and asses tied, and the tents as they were. <sup>11</sup>And he called the porters. And they told it to the king's house inside.

<sup>12</sup>And the king arose in the night and said to his servants, I will now show you what the Syrians have done to us. They know that we are hungry, and they have gone out of the camp to hide themselves in the field, saying, When they come out of the city, we shall catch them alive and get into the city. <sup>13</sup>And one of his servants answered and said, Please let some take five of the horses which remain, which are left in the city — behold, they are like all the multitude of Israel that are left in it — behold, they are even as all the multitude of the Israelites that are consumed. And we will send and see. <sup>14</sup>And they took two chariots with horses. And the king sent after the army of the Syrians, saying, Go and see. <sup>15</sup>And they went after them to Jordan. And, lo, all the way was full of clothing and vessels which the Syrians had thrown away in their haste. And the messengers returned and told the king. <sup>16</sup>And the people went out and plundered the tents of the Syrians. And it happened, a measure of fine flour was sold for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel, according to the word of the LORD.

<sup>17</sup>And the king appointed the third officer over the gate, the one on whose hand he had leaned. And the people trampled on him in the gate, and he died, as the man of God had said, who spoke when the king came down to him. <sup>18</sup>And it happened according to the saying of the man of God to the king, saying, Two measures of barley for a shekel, and a measure of fine flour for a shekel: This shall be tomorrow about this time in the gate of Samaria. <sup>19</sup>And the third officer answered the man of God and said, Behold, if the LORD should make windows in heaven, then such a thing might be. And he said, Behold, you shall see it with your eyes, but you shall not eat of it. <sup>20</sup>And it happened to him, for the people trampled on him in the gate, and he died.

CHAPTER 8

<sup>1</sup>And Elisha spoke to the woman whose son he had restored to life, saying, Arise and go, you and your household, and live wherever you can live. For the LORD has called for a famine. And it shall also come on the land seven years. <sup>2</sup>And the woman arose and did according to the word of the man of God was. And she went with her household, and lived in the land of the Philistines seven years. <sup>3</sup>And it happened at the end of seven years, the woman returned out of the land of the Philistines. And she went forth to cry to the king for her house and for her land. <sup>4</sup>And the king talked with Gehazi, the servant of the man of God, saying, Please tell me all the great things which Elisha has done. <sup>5</sup>And it happened as he was telling the king how he had restored a dead body to life, behold, the woman whose son he had restored to life cried to the king for the house and for her land. And Gehazi said, My lord, O, king, this is the woman, and this is her son, whom Elisha restored to life. <sup>6</sup>And when the king asked the woman, she told him. So the king appointed to her a certain officer saying, Restore all that was hers, and all the fruits of the field since the day when she left the land, even until now.

<sup>7</sup>And Elisha came to Damascus. And Ben-hadad the king of Syria was sick. And they told him, saying, The man of God has come here. <sup>8</sup>And the king said to Hazael, Take a present in your hand and go to meet the man of God, and ask of the LORD by him, saying, Shall I recover of this disease? <sup>9</sup>And Hazael went to meet him and took a present with him, even of every good thing of Damascus, forty camels' burden, and came and stood before him, and said, Your servant Ben-hadad, king of Syria, has sent me to you, saying, Shall I recover from this disease? <sup>10</sup>And Elisha said to him, Go and say to him, You shall certainly recover. But the LORD has shown me that he shall surely die. <sup>11</sup>And he settled his face steadfastly until he was ashamed. And the man of God wept. <sup>12</sup>And Hazael said, Why does my lord weep? And he answered, Because I know the evil that you will do to the sons of Israel. You will set their strongholds on fire, and you will kill their young men with the sword, and will dash their children, and rip up their women with child. <sup>13</sup>And Hazael said, What, is your servant a dog, that he should do this great thing? And Elisha answered, The LORD has shown me that you shall be king over Syria. <sup>14</sup>And he departed from Elisha and came to his master, who said to him, What did Elisha say to you? And he answered, He told me you would surely recover. <sup>15</sup>And it happened on the next day he took a thick cloth and dipped it in water, and spread it on his face so that he died. And Hazael reigned in his place.

<sup>16</sup>And in the fifth year of Jehoram the son of Ahab king of Israel, Jehoshaphat being then king of Judah, Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat king of Judah began to reign. <sup>17</sup>And he was thirty-two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem. <sup>18</sup>And he walked in the ways of the kings of Israel, as the house of Ahab did; for the daughter of Ahab was his wife. And he did evil in the sight of the LORD. <sup>19</sup>Yet the LORD would not destroy Judah for David His servant's sake, as He promised him to give him a light to his sons forever <sup>20</sup>In his days Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah, and made a king over themselves. <sup>21</sup>And Jehoram went over to Zair, and all the chariots with him. And he rose by night and struck the Edomites who were all around him, and the captains of the chariots. And the people fled into their tents. <sup>22</sup>Yet Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah to this day. Then Libnah revolted at the same time. <sup>23</sup>And the rest of the acts of Jehoram, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Matter of the Days of the kings of Judah? <sup>24</sup>And Jehoram slept with his fathers and was buried with his fathers in the city of David. And Ahaziah his son reigned in his place.

<sup>25</sup>In the twelfth year of Jehoram the son of Ahab, king of Israel, Ahaziah the son of Jehoram, king of Judah, began to reign. <sup>26</sup>Ahaziah was twenty-two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Athaliah, the daughter of Omri king of Israel. <sup>27</sup>And he walked in the way of the house of Ahab, and did evil in the sight of the LORD, as the house of Ahab. <sup>28</sup>For he was the son-in-law of the house of Ahab. And he went with Jehoram the son of Ahab to the war against Hazael king of Syria in Ramoth of Gilead. And the Syrians wounded Jehoram. <sup>29</sup>And king Jehoram went back to be healed in Jezreel from the wounds which the Syrians had given him in Ramah, when he fought against Hazael king of Syria. And Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah went down to see Jehoram the son of Ahab in Jezreel, because he was sick.

CHAPTER 9

<sup>1</sup>And Elisha the prophet called one of the sons of the prophets, and said to him, Bind up your loins and take this box of oil in your hand, and go to Ramoth in Gilead. <sup>2</sup>And you shall go there, and you shall see there Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat, the son of Nimshi. And you shall go in and make him rise up from among his brothers, and take him to an inner room. <sup>3</sup>And take the box of oil and pour it on his head, and say, So says the LORD, I have anointed you king over Israel. And you shall open the door, and flee, and shall not wait. <sup>4</sup>And the young man went, the servant of the prophet, to Ramoth in Gilead. <sup>5</sup>And he came in, and, behold, the captains of the army were sitting. And he said, I have an errand to you, captain. And Jehu said, To which of all of us? And he said, To you, captain. <sup>6</sup>And he arose and went into the house. And he poured the oil on his head and said to him, So says Jehovah God of Israel, I have anointed you king over the people of the LORD, over Israel. <sup>7</sup>And you shall strike the house of Ahab your master, so that I may avenge the blood of my servants the prophets, and the blood of all the servants of the LORD at the hand of Jezebel. <sup>8</sup>For the whole house of Ahab shall perish. And I will cut off from Ahab everyone that urinates against the wall, and everyone that is shut up and left in Israel. <sup>9</sup>And I will make the house of Ahab like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the son of Abijah. <sup>10</sup>And the dogs shall eat Jezebel in a part of Jezreel, and none shall be there to bury her. And he opened the door and fled.

<sup>11</sup>And Jehu went out to the servants of his lord. And one said to him, Well? Why did this mad man come to you? And he said to them, You know the man and what he had to say. <sup>12</sup>And they said, It is false. Tell us now! And he said, This and this he spoke to me, saying, So says the LORD, I have anointed you king over Israel. <sup>13</sup>And they hurried and each man took his garment and put it under him on the top of the stairs, and blew with trumpets, saying, Jehu is king. <sup>14</sup>And Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat the son of Nimshi plotted against Jehoram. And Jehoram was keeping watch at Ramoth in Gilead, he and all Israel before Hazael king of Syria. <sup>15</sup>And king Jehoram returned to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds which the Syrians had given him when he fought with Hazael the king of Syria. And Jehu said, If it is your minds, then let no one go forth nor escape out of the city to go to tell it in Jezreel. <sup>16</sup>And Jehu rode in the chariot and went to Jezreel. For Jehoram lay there. And Ahaziah king of Judah had come down to see Jehoram.

<sup>17</sup>And a watchman stood on the tower in Jezreel. And he saw the company of Jehu as he came, and said, I see a company. And Jehoram said, Take a horseman and send to meet them, and let him say, Is it peace? <sup>18</sup>And the rider on horseback went to meet him and said, So says the king, Is it peace? And Jehu said, What do you have to do with peace? Turn behind me! And the watchman reported, saying, The messenger came to them, but he does not come again. <sup>19</sup>And he sent a second rider on horseback, who came to them and said, So says the king, Is it peace? And he answered, What do you have to do with peace? Turn behind me! <sup>20</sup>And the watchman reported, saying, He came up to them, but does not come again. And the driving is like the driving of Jehu the son of Nimshi, for he drives furiously. <sup>21</sup>And Jehoram said, Make ready. And his chariot was made ready. And Jehoram king of Israel and Ahaziah king of Judah went out, each in his own chariot, and they went out against Jehu, and met him in the portion of Naboth of Jezreel. <sup>22</sup>And it happened when Jehoram saw Jehu, he said, Is it peace, Jehu? And he answered, What peace, so long as the harlotries of your mother Jezebel and her witchcrafts are so many? <sup>23</sup>And Jehoram turned his hands and fled and said to Ahaziah, Treachery, Ahaziah! <sup>24</sup>And Jehu drew a bow with his full strength and struck Jehoram between his arms, and the arrow went out at his heart, and he sank down in his chariot. <sup>25</sup>And he said to Bidkar his captain, Take him up and throw him in the portion of the field of Naboth of Jezreel. For, remember, you and I rode together after Ahab his father, and the LORD laid this burden on him. <sup>26</sup>Surely, yesterday I have seen the blood of Naboth and the blood of his sons, says the LORD, and I will repay you in this portion, says the LORD. And now, take him and throw him into the portion, according to the word of the LORD. <sup>27</sup>And when Ahaziah the king of Judah saw this, he fled by the way of the garden-house. And Jehu followed after him and said, Strike him also in the chariot! And they did so at the going up to Gur, that is Ibleam. And he fled to Megiddo, and died there. <sup>28</sup>And his servants carried him in a chariot to Jerusalem, and buried him in his tomb with his fathers in the city of David. <sup>29</sup>And in the eleventh year of Jehoram the son of Ahab, Ahaziah began to reign over Judah.

<sup>30</sup>And Jehu had come to Jezreel. And Jezebel heard, and had painted her face and adorned her head, and looked out at a window. <sup>31</sup>And Jehu came to the gate. And she said, Was it peace to Zimri the slayer of his lord? <sup>32</sup>And he lifted up his face to the window, and said, Who is on my side? Who? And two or three eunuchs looked out at him. <sup>33</sup>And he said, Throw her down! And they threw her down. And some of her blood was sprinkled on the wall and on the horses. And he trampled her under foot. <sup>34</sup>And when he had come in, he ate and drank, and said, Go, now see this cursed woman and bury her. For she is a king's daughter. <sup>35</sup>And they went to bury her, but they found no more of her than the skull and the feet and the palms of her hands. <sup>36</sup>And they came again and told him. And he said, This is the word of the LORD which He spoke by His servant Elijah the Tishbite, saying, In the portion of Jezreel the dogs shall eat the flesh of Jezebel. <sup>37</sup>And the dead body of Jezebel shall be as dung on the face of the field in the portion of Jezreel, so that they shall not say, This is Jezebel.

CHAPTER 10

<sup>1</sup>And Ahab had seventy sons in Samaria. And Jehu wrote letters and sent to Samaria to the rulers of Jezreel, to the elders, and to the supporters of Ahab, saying, <sup>2</sup>And now as soon as this letter comes to you, since your master's sons are with you, and with you are chariots and horses, also a fenced city and armor, <sup>3</sup>even look for the best and fittest of your master's sons, and set him on his father's throne, and fight for your master's house. <sup>4</sup>And they were exceedingly afraid and said, Behold, two kings did not stand before him; how then shall we stand? <sup>5</sup>And he who was over the house, and he over the city, the elders also, and the guardians, sent to Jehu saying, We are your servants and will do all that you shall say to us; we will not make any king. Do what is good in your eyes. <sup>6</sup>And he wrote a letter the second time to them, saying, If you are mine, and will listen to my voice, take the heads of the men who are your master's sons, and come to me to Jezreel by this time tomorrow. And the king's sons, seventy persons, were with the great men of the city who brought them up. <sup>7</sup>And it happened when the letter came to them, they took the king's sons and killed them, seventy persons, and put their heads in baskets and sent to him in Jezreel.

<sup>8</sup>And a messenger came and told him, saying, They have brought the heads of the king's sons. And he said, Lay them in two heaps at the entering in of the gate until the morning. <sup>9</sup>And it happened in the morning, he went out and stood, and said to all the people, You are righteous. Behold, I plotted against my master and killed him. But who killed all these? <sup>10</sup>Now know that there shall fall to the earth nothing of the word of the LORD, which the LORD spoke concerning the house of Ahab. For the LORD has done that which He spoke by His servant Elijah. <sup>11</sup>And Jehu killed all that remained of the house of Ahab in Jezreel, and all his great men, and his familiar friends, and his priests, until he left him none remaining.

<sup>12</sup>And he arose and departed, and came to Samaria. He was at the shepherds' shearing-house in the way, <sup>13</sup>And Jehu met with the brothers of Ahaziah king of Judah, and said, Who are you? And they answered, The brothers of Ahaziah. And we are going down to greet the king's sons and the queen's sons. <sup>14</sup>And he said, Take them alive! And they took them alive and killed them at the pit of the shearing-house, forty-two men. And he left not a man of them. <sup>15</sup>And he left there and found Jehonadab the son of Rechab coming to meet him. And he greeted him and said to him, Is your heart right, as my heart is with your heart? And Jehonadab answered, It is. If it is, give your hand. And he gave his hand. And he took him up to him into the chariot. <sup>16</sup>And he said, Come with me and see my zeal for the LORD. And they made him ride in his chariot. <sup>17</sup>And when he came to Samaria, he killed all that remained to Ahab in Samaria, until he had destroyed him, according to the saying of the LORD which he spoke to Elijah.

<sup>18</sup>And Jehu gathered all the people together, and said to them, Ahab served Baal a little, but Jehu shall serve him much. <sup>19</sup>And now call to me all the prophets of Baal, all his servants and all his priests. Let no one be lacking. For I have a great sacrifice to Baal. Whoever shall be lacking, he shall not live. But Jehu did it in subtlety, to the end that he might destroy the worshipers of Baal. <sup>20</sup>And Jehu said, Call a solemn feast for Baal. And they called it. <sup>21</sup>And Jehu sent through all Israel. And all the worshipers of Baal came, so that there was not a man left who did not come. And they came into the house of Baal. And the house of Baal was full from one end to another. <sup>22</sup>And he said to him who was over the robe-room, Bring out robes for all the worshipers of Baal. And he brought them out. <sup>23</sup>And Jehu went, and Jehonadab the son of Rechab, into the house of Baal. And he said to the worshipers of Baal, Search and look, that there may not be here with you any of the servants of the LORD, but only the worshipers of Baal. <sup>24</sup>And they went in to offer sacrifices and burnt offerings. And Jehu had appointed eighty men outside, and said, If any of the men whom I have brought into your hands escapes, his life shall be for the life of him. <sup>25</sup>And it happened when he had made an end of offering the burnt offering, Jehu said to the guard and to the captains, Go in and kill them! Do not let any come out! And they struck them with the edge of the sword. And the guard and the captains threw them out. And they went to the city, to the house of Baal. <sup>26</sup>And they brought forth the images out of the house of Baal and burned them. <sup>27</sup>And they broke down the image of Baal, and broke down the house of Baal and made it a sewer-house until this day. <sup>28</sup>And Jehu destroyed Baal out of Israel.

<sup>29</sup>Only, Jehu did not depart from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin, going after them, the golden calves in Bethel and in Dan. <sup>30</sup>And the LORD said to him, Jehu, because you have done well in doing the right in My eyes, and have done to the house of Ahab according to all that was in My heart, your sons of the fourth generation shall sit on the throne of Israel. <sup>31</sup>But Jehu did not walk in the law of Jehovah God of Israel with all his heart, for he did not turn from the sins of Jeroboam, who made Israel to sin.

<sup>32</sup>In those days the LORD began to cut Israel short. And Hazael struck them in all the border of Israel, <sup>33</sup>from Jordan toward the rising of the sun, all the land of Gilead, the men of Gad and of Reuben and of Manasseh, from Aroer, by the river Arnon, even Gilead and Bashan. <sup>34</sup>And the rest of the acts of Jehu and all that he did, and all his might, are they not written in the Book of the Matter of the Days of the Kings of Israel? <sup>35</sup>And Jehu slept with his fathers. And they buried him in Samaria. And Jehoahaz his son reigned in his place. <sup>36</sup>And the time that Jehu reigned over Israel and Samaria was twenty-eight years.

CHAPTER 11

<sup>1</sup>And Athaliah was the mother of Ahaziah. And when she saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the seed of the kingdom. <sup>2</sup>But Jehosheba the daughter of king Jehoram, sister of Ahaziah, took Joash the son of Ahaziah and stole him from among the king's sons which were killed. And they hid him from Athaliah in the bedroom, him and his nurse, so that he was not killed. <sup>3</sup>And he was hidden with her in the house of the LORD six years. And Athaliah reigned over the land.

<sup>4</sup>And in the seventh year Jehoiada sent and brought the rulers over hundreds, with the captains and the guards, and brought them to him into the house of the LORD. And he made a covenant with them and took an oath from them in the house of the LORD, and showed them the king's son. <sup>5</sup>And he commanded them, saying, This is the thing that you shall do. A third part of you who enter in on the sabbath shall be keepers of the watch of the king's house. <sup>6</sup>And a third part shall be at the gate of Sur. And a third part at the gate behind the guard. And you shall keep the watch of the house, alternately. <sup>7</sup>And two parts of you, all who go forth on the sabbath, even they shall keep the watch of the house of the LORD around the king. <sup>8</sup>And you shall surround the king, every man with his weapons in his hand. And he who comes inside the ranks, let him be killed. And they shall be with the king as he goes out and as he comes in. <sup>9</sup>And the rulers of the hundreds did according to all that Jehoiada the priest commanded. And each man took his men, going in on the sabbath, with those going out on the sabbath, and came to Jehoiada the priest. <sup>10</sup>And the priest gave king David's spears and shields, which were in the temple of the LORD, to the rulers of the hundreds. <sup>11</sup>And the guard stood, each man with his weapons in his hand, around the king, from the right corner of the temple to the left corner of the temple, by the altar and the temple. <sup>12</sup>And he brought forth the king's son, and put the crown on him. And he gave him the testimony. And they made him king and anointed him. And they clapped their hands and said, Let the king live!

<sup>13</sup>And when Athaliah heard the noise of the guard and of the people, she came to the people into the temple of the LORD. <sup>14</sup>And she looked, and behold, the king stood by a pillar as usually was done, and the rulers and the trumpeters were by the king. And all the people of the land rejoiced, and blew with trumpets. And Athaliah tore her clothes, and cried, Treason! Treason! <sup>15</sup>And Jehoiada the priest commanded the rulers of the hundreds, the officers of the army, and said to them, Take her out between the ranks, and let the one who follows her kill her with the sword. For the priest had said, Let her not be slain in the house of the LORD. <sup>16</sup>And they laid hands on her, and she went by the way which the horses came into the king's house. And she was killed there.

<sup>17</sup>And Jehoiada made a covenant between the LORD and the king and the people, that they should be the LORD's people; also between the king and the people. <sup>18</sup>And all the people of the land went into the house of Baal and broke it down. They broke his altars and his images completely in pieces. And they killed Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars. And the priest appointed officers over the house of the LORD. <sup>19</sup>And he took the rulers over hundreds, and the captains, and the guard, and all the people of the land. And they brought the king down from the house of the LORD and came by the way of the gate of the guard to the king's house. <sup>20</sup>And he sat on the throne of the kings. And all the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was quiet. And they killed Athaliah with the sword beside the king's house. <sup>21</sup>Joash was seven years old when he began to reign.

CHAPTER 12

<sup>1</sup>And in the seventh year of Jehu, Joash began to reign. And he reigned in Jerusalem forty years. And his mother's name was Zibiah of Beer-sheba. <sup>2</sup>And Joash did the right in the sight of the LORD all his days in which Jehoiada the priest instructed him. <sup>3</sup>But the high places were not taken away. The people still sacrificed and burned incense in the high places. <sup>4</sup>And Joash said to the priests, All the money from things dedicated to God, which is brought into the house of the LORD, the money from everyone who passes, the money from the persons for whom each man is taxed, all the money that comes into any man's heart to bring to the house of the LORD, <sup>5</sup>let the priests take it to themselves, each man from those he knows. And let them repair the breaks in the house, wherever any break shall be found. <sup>6</sup>And it happened in the twenty-third year of king Joash, the priests had not repaired the breaks of the house. <sup>7</sup>Then king Joash called for Jehoiada the priest, and the other priests, and said to them, Why are you not repairing the breaks of the house? And now take no money from those you know, but deliver it for the breaks of the house. <sup>8</sup>And the priests agreed to take no money from the people, nor to repair the breaks of the house. <sup>9</sup>But Jehoiada the priest took a chest and bored a hole in its lid. And he set it beside the altar, on the right side as one comes into the house of the LORD. And the priests who kept the door put in it all the money that was brought into the house of the LORD. <sup>10</sup>And it happened when they saw that much money was in the chest, the king's scribe and the high priest came up. And they put it up in bags, and counted the money that was found in the house of the LORD. <sup>11</sup>And they gave the money which was counted into the hands of those who did the work, who had the oversight of the house of the LORD. They laid it out to the carpenters and builders who worked on the house of the LORD, <sup>12</sup>and to masons and cutters of stone, and to buy timber and cut stone to repair the breaks of the house of the LORD, and for all that went forth for the house, to repair it. <sup>13</sup>Only, there were no bowls of silver, snuffers, basins, trumpets, or any vessels of gold or vessels of silver, made for the house of the LORD from the money which was brought into the house of the LORD. <sup>14</sup>For they gave it to the workmen, and repaired the house of the LORD with it. <sup>15</sup>And they did not make an accounting with the men into whose hands they delivered the money to be given to the workmen. For they dealt faithfully. <sup>16</sup>The trespass money and sin money was not brought into the house of the LORD. It was the priests'.

<sup>17</sup>Then Hazael king of Syria went up and fought against Gath, and took it. And Hazael set his face to go up to Jerusalem. <sup>18</sup>And Joash king of Judah took all the holy things which Jehoshaphat and Jehoram and Ahaziah, his fathers, kings of Judah, had dedicated, and his own holy things, and all the gold found in the treasures of the house of the LORD, and in the king's house, and sent it to Hazael king of Syria. And he went away from Jerusalem.

<sup>19</sup>And the rest of the acts of Joash, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the Kings of Judah? <sup>20</sup>And his servants arose and made a plot. And they killed Joash in the house of Millo, which goes down to Silla. <sup>21</sup>For Jozachar the son of Shimeath, and Jehozabad the son of Shomer, his servants, struck him, and he died. And they buried him with his fathers in the city of David. And Amaziah his son reigned in his place.

CHAPTER 13

<sup>1</sup>In the twenty-third year of Joash the son of Ahaziah king of Judah, Jehoahaz the son of Jehu began to reign over Israel in Samaria, seventeen years. <sup>2</sup>And he did the evil in the sight of the LORD, and followed the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin. And he did not depart from them. <sup>3</sup>And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, and He delivered them into the hand of Hazael king of Syria, and into the hand of Ben-hadad the son of Hazael, all their days. <sup>4</sup>And Jehoahaz sought the LORD, and the LORD listened to him. For He saw the oppression of Israel, because the king of Syria oppressed them. <sup>5</sup>And the LORD gave Israel a deliverer, so that they went out from under the Syrians. And the sons of Israel lived in their tents, as before. <sup>6</sup>But they did not depart from the sins of the house of Jeroboam, who made Israel to sin, but walked in them. And also the grove in Samaria stood. <sup>7</sup>For He had not left a people remaining to Jehoahaz, but only fifty horsemen and ten chariots and ten thousand footmen; for the king of Syria had destroyed them and had made them like the dust at threshing-time. <sup>8</sup>And the rest of the acts of Jehoahaz, and all that he did, and his might, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the Kings of Israel? <sup>9</sup>And Jehoahaz slept with his fathers. And they buried him in Samaria. And Jehoash his son reigned in his place.

<sup>10</sup>In the thirty-seventh year of Joash king of Judah, Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz began to reign over Israel in Samaria, sixteen years. <sup>11</sup>And he did the evil in the sight of the LORD. He did not depart from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin, but he walked in them. <sup>12</sup>And the rest of the acts of Jehoash, and all that he did, and his might which he fought against Amaziah king of Judah, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the Kings of Israel? <sup>13</sup>And Jehoash slept with his fathers, and Jeroboam sat on his throne. And Jehoash was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel.

<sup>14</sup>And Elisha had fallen sick with his illness in which he died. And Joash the king of Israel came down to him and wept over his face. And he said, O my father, my father, the chariot of Israel and the horsemen of it! <sup>15</sup>And Elisha said to him, Take bow and arrows. <sup>16</sup>And he took bow and arrows to himself. And he said to the king of Israel, Put your hand on the bow. And he placed his hand. And Elisha put his hands on the king's hands. <sup>17</sup>And he said, Open the window eastward. And he opened. And Elisha said, Shoot! And he shot. And he said, The arrow of the LORD's deliverance, and the arrow of deliverance from Syria. For you shall strike the Syrians in Aphek until you have crushed them. <sup>18</sup>And he said, Take the arrows. And he took them. And he said to the king of Israel, Strike on the ground. And he struck three times and stopped. <sup>19</sup>And the man of God was angry with him, and said, You should have stricken five or six times, then you would have stricken Syria until you had crushed it. But now you shall strike Syria three times.

<sup>20</sup>And Elisha died, and they buried him. And the bands of the Moabites invaded the land at first of the year. <sup>21</sup>And it happened as they were burying a man, behold, they spied a band. And they threw the man into the grave of Elisha. And when the man went down and touched the bones of Elisha, he revived and stood up on his feet.

<sup>22</sup>But Hazael oppressed Israel all the days of Jehoahaz. <sup>23</sup>And the LORD was gracious to them, and had pity on them, and had respect to them, because of His covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. And He would not destroy them, nor cast them from His presence as yet. <sup>24</sup>And Hazael king of Syria died. And his son Ben-hadad reigned in his place. <sup>25</sup>And Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz returned and took out of the hand of Ben-hadad the son of Hazael the cities which he had taken out of the hand of Jehoahaz his father by war. Jehoash beat him three times and recovered the cities of Israel.

CHAPTER 14

<sup>1</sup>In the second year of Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz king of Israel, Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah reigned. <sup>2</sup>He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jehoaddan of Jerusalem. <sup>3</sup>And he did the right in the sight of the LORD, yet not like David his father. He did according to all things that Joash his father did. <sup>4</sup>Only, the high places were not taken away. The people still sacrificed and burned incense on the high places.

<sup>5</sup>And it happened when the kingdom was confirmed in his hand, he killed his servants who had slain his father the king; <sup>6</sup>But he did not kill the sons of the servants, according to that which is written in the book of the law of Moses, in which the LORD commanded, saying, The fathers shall not be put to death for the sons, nor shall the sons be put to death for the fathers, but each shall be put to death for his own sin. <sup>7</sup>He killed ten thousand of Edom in the Valley of Salt, and took Selah by war, and called the name of it Joktheel until this day. <sup>8</sup>Then Amaziah sent messengers to Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, Come, let us look one another in the face. <sup>9</sup>And Jehoash the king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, The thistle which was in Lebanon sent to the cedar which was in Lebanon, saying, Give your daughter to my son for a wife. And a beast of the field in Lebanon passed by and trampled the thistle down. <sup>10</sup>You have indeed stricken Edom, and your heart has lifted you up. Rejoice and stay at home, for why should you meddle to your harm, so that you should fall, you and Judah with you? <sup>11</sup>But Amaziah would not hear. And Jehoash king of Israel went up. And he and Amaziah king of Judah looked one another in the face at Beth-shemesh, of Judah. <sup>12</sup>And Judah was beaten before Israel. And every man fled to his tent. <sup>13</sup>And Jehoash king of Israel took Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Joash the son of Ahaziah, at Beth-shemesh, and he came to Jerusalem and broke down the wall of Jerusalem from the gate of Ephraim to the Corner Gate, four hundred cubits. <sup>14</sup>And he took all the gold and silver, and all the vessels which were found in the house of the LORD, and in the treasures of the king's house, and hostages, and returned to Samaria.

<sup>15</sup>And the rest of the acts of Jehoash which he did, and his might, and how he fought with Amaziah king of Judah, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the Kings of Israel? <sup>16</sup>And Jehoash slept with his fathers and was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel. And Jeroboam his son reigned in his place.

<sup>17</sup>And Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah lived after the death of Jehoash son of Jehoahaz king of Israel fifteen years. <sup>18</sup>And the rest of the acts of Amaziah, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the Kings of Judah? <sup>19</sup>And they made a plot against him at Jerusalem, and he fled to Lachish. And they sent after him to Lachish and killed him there. <sup>20</sup>And they brought him on horses, and he was buried at Jerusalem with his fathers in the city of David. <sup>21</sup>And all the people of Judah took Azariah who was sixteen years old, and made him king in place of his father Amaziah. <sup>22</sup>He built Elath, and restored it to Judah, after the king slept with his fathers.

<sup>23</sup>In the fifteenth year of Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah, Jeroboam the son of Jehoash king of Israel began to reign in Samaria, forty-one years. <sup>24</sup>And he did the evil in the sight of the LORD. He did not depart from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat who made Israel to sin. <sup>25</sup>He restored the coast of Israel from the entering of Hamath to the sea of the plain, according to the word of Jehovah God of Israel which He spoke by the hand of his servant Jonah, the son of Amittai, the prophet, who was from Gath-hepher. <sup>26</sup>For the LORD had seen the affliction of Israel to be very bitter. And one was bound, and none was free, and there was no helper for Israel. <sup>27</sup>And the LORD did not say that He would blot out the name of Israel from under heaven, but He saved them by the hand of Jeroboam the son of Jehoash. <sup>28</sup>And the rest of the acts of Jeroboam, and all that he did, and his might, how he warred, and how he recovered Damascus and Hamath, of Judah, for Israel, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the Kings of Israel? <sup>29</sup>And Jeroboam slept with his fathers, with the kings of Israel. And his son Zachariah reigned in his place.

CHAPTER 15

<sup>1</sup>In the twenty-seventh year of Jeroboam king of Israel, Azariah the son of Amaziah king of Judah began to reign. <sup>2</sup>He was sixteen years old when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty-two years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jeholiah of Jerusalem. <sup>3</sup>And he did the right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father Amaziah had done. <sup>4</sup>Only, the high places were not removed. The people still sacrificed and burned incense on the high places. <sup>5</sup>And the LORD struck the king, so that he was a leper until the day of his death, and lived in a separate house. And the king's son, Jotham, was over the house, judging the people of the land. <sup>6</sup>And the rest of the acts of Azariah, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the Kings of Judah? <sup>7</sup>And Azariah slept with his fathers. And they buried him with his fathers in the city of David. And his son Jotham reigned in his place.

<sup>8</sup>In the thirty-eighth year of Azariah king of Judah, Zachariah the son of Jeroboam reigned over Israel in Samaria, six months. <sup>9</sup>And he did the evil in the sight of the LORD, as his fathers had done. He did not depart from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin. <sup>10</sup>And Shallum the son of Jabesh conspired against him. And he struck him before the people, and killed him, and reigned in his place. <sup>11</sup>And the rest of the acts of Zachariah, behold, they are written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the Kings of Israel. <sup>12</sup>This was the word of the LORD which He spoke to Jehu, saying, Your sons shall sit on the throne of Israel until the fourth generation. And it was so.

<sup>13</sup>Shallum the son of Jabesh began to reign in the thirty-ninth year of Uzziah king of Judah. And he reigned in Samaria only one month. <sup>14</sup>For Menahem the son of Gadi went up from Tirzah, and came to Samaria and struck Shallum the son of Jabesh in Samaria. And he killed him and reigned in his place. <sup>15</sup>And the rest of the acts of Shallum, and the conspiracy which he made, behold, they are written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the Kings of Israel.

<sup>16</sup>Then Menahem struck Tiphshah, and all in it, and its borders, from Tirzah. Because they did not open, he struck it. He ripped up all its pregnant women. <sup>17</sup>In the thirty-ninth year of Azariah king of Judah, Menahem the son of Gadi began to reign over Israel, ten years in Samaria. <sup>18</sup>And he did evil in the sight of the LORD. He did not depart from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin, all his days. <sup>19</sup>Pul, the king of Assyria came against the land. And Menahem gave Pul a thousand talents of silver so that his hand might be with him to confirm the kingdom in his hand. <sup>20</sup>And Menahem took the money from Israel, from all the mighty men of wealth (fifty shekels of silver from each man) to give to the king of Assyria. And the king of Assyria turned back and did not stay there in the land. <sup>21</sup>And the rest of the acts of Menahem, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the kings of Israel? <sup>22</sup>And Menahem slept with his fathers. And Pekahiah his son reigned in his place.

<sup>23</sup>In the fiftieth year of Uzziah king of Judah, Pekahiah the son of Menahem began to reign over Israel in Samaria, two years. <sup>24</sup>And he did the evil in the sight of the LORD. He did not depart from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin. <sup>25</sup>But Pekah the son of Remaliah, a captain of his, conspired against him and struck him in Samaria, in the palace of the king's house, with Argob and Arieah, and fifty men of the Gileadites with him. And he killed him and reigned in his place. <sup>26</sup>And the rest of the acts of Pekahiah, and all that he did, behold, they are written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the Kings of Israel. <sup>27</sup>In the fifty-second year of Uzziah king of Judah, Pekah the son of Remaliah began to reign over Israel in Samaria, twenty years. <sup>28</sup>And he did evil in the sight of the LORD. He did not depart from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin. <sup>29</sup>In the days of Pekah king of Israel, Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria came and took Ijon, and Abel-beth-maachah, and Janoah, and Kedesh, and Hazor, and Gilead, and Galilee, all the land of Naphtali. And he carried them away captive to Assyria. <sup>30</sup>And Hoshea the son of Elah made a plot against Pekah the son of Remaliah. And he struck him and killed him and reigned in his place, in the twentieth year of Jotham the son of Uzziah. <sup>31</sup>And the rest of the acts of Pekah, and all that he did, behold, they are written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the Kings of Israel.

<sup>32</sup>In the second year of Pekah the son of Remaliah king of Israel, Jotham the son of Uzziah, king of Judah, began to reign. <sup>33</sup>He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jerusha the daughter of Zadok. <sup>34</sup>And he did right in the sight of the LORD. He did according to all that his father Uzziah had done. <sup>35</sup>Only, the high places were not removed. The people still sacrificed and burned incense in the high places. He built the higher gate of the house of the LORD. <sup>36</sup>And the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the Kings of Judah? <sup>37</sup>In those days the LORD began to send Rezin the king of Syria against Judah, and also Pekah the son of Remaliah. <sup>38</sup>And Jotham slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father. And his son Ahaz reigned in his place.

CHAPTER 16

<sup>1</sup>In the seventeenth year of Pekah the son of Remaliah, Ahaz the son of Jotham king of Judah began to reign. <sup>2</sup>Ahaz was twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. And he did not do right in the sight of the LORD his God, like David his father. <sup>3</sup>But he walked in the way of the kings of Israel. Yes, and he made his son to pass through the fire, according to the abominations of the nations whom the LORD cast out from before the sons of Israel. <sup>4</sup>And he sacrificed and burned incense in the high places, and on the hills, and under every green tree. <sup>5</sup>Then Rezin king of Syria and Pekah son of Remaliah king of Israel came up to Jerusalem for war. And they besieged Ahaz, but could not overcome him. <sup>6</sup>At that time Rezin king of Syria recovered Elath to Syria, and drove the Jews from Elath. And the Syrians came to Elath and lived there until this day. <sup>7</sup>And Ahaz sent messengers to Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria, saying, I am your servant and your son. Come up and save me out of the hand of the king of Syria, and out of the hand of the king of Israel, who rise up against me. <sup>8</sup>And Ahaz took the silver and gold which was found in the house of the LORD and in the treasures of the king's house, and sent a present to the king of Assyria. <sup>9</sup>And the king of Assyria listened to him, for the king of Assyria went up against Damascus and took it. And he carried it away captive to Kir, and killed Rezin.

<sup>10</sup>And king Ahaz went to Damascus to meet Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria. And he saw an altar at Damascus. And king Ahaz sent to Urijah the priest the pattern of the altar, and the form of it, according to all the workmanship of it. <sup>11</sup>And Urijah the priest built an altar according to all that king Ahaz had sent from Damascus. So Urijah the priest did until king Ahaz came in from Damascus. <sup>12</sup>And the king came in from Damascus, and the king saw the altar. And the king approached to the altar and offered on it. <sup>13</sup>And he offered his burnt offering and his food offering, and poured his drink offering, and sprinkled the blood of his peace offerings, on the altar. <sup>14</sup>And he also brought the bronze altar which was before the LORD, from the forefront of the house, from between the altar and the house of the LORD, and put it on the north side of the altar. <sup>15</sup>And king Ahaz commanded Urijah the priest, saying, On the great altar burn the morning offering and the evening food offering, and the king's burnt sacrifice and his food offering, with the burnt offering of all the people of the land, and their food offerings, and their drink offerings. And sprinkle all the blood of the burnt offerings on it, and all the blood of the sacrifice. And the bronze altar shall be for me to inquire by. <sup>16</sup>And Urijah the priest did according to all that king Ahaz commanded. <sup>17</sup>And king Ahaz cut off the borders of the bases, and removed the laver from them. And he took down the sea from off the bronze oxen under it, and put it on a pavement of stones. <sup>18</sup>And the covered way for the sabbath which they had built in the house, and the king's entry outside, he turned from the house of the LORD for the king of Assyria. <sup>19</sup>And the rest of the acts of Ahaz which he did, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the Kings of Judah? <sup>20</sup>And Ahaz slept with his fathers in the city of David. And his son Hezekiah reigned in his place.

CHAPTER 17

<sup>1</sup>In the twelfth year of Ahaz king of Judah Hoshea the son of Elah began to reign over Israel in Samaria, nine years. <sup>2</sup>And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, but not like the kings of Israel who were before him. <sup>3</sup>Shalmaneser king of Assyria came up against him. And Hoshea became his servant and gave him taxes. <sup>4</sup>And the king of Assyria found treachery in Hoshea, for he had sent messengers to So, king of Egypt, and had brought no taxes to the king of Assyria, as before, year by year. And the king of Assyria shut him up and bound him in prison.

<sup>5</sup>And the king of Assyria went up into all the land. And he went up to Samaria and besieged it three years. <sup>6</sup>In the ninth year of Hoshea, the king of Assyria took Samaria, and carried Israel away into Assyria. And he placed them in Halah, and in Habor by the river Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes. <sup>7</sup>And it happened because the sons of Israel had sinned against the LORD their God, who had brought them up out of the land of Egypt, from under the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and had feared other gods, <sup>8</sup>and walked in the statutes of the nations whom the LORD cast out from before the sons of Israel, and of the kings of Israel, which the nations had made. <sup>9</sup>And the sons of Israel secretly did things that were not right against the LORD their God. And they built high places in all their cities for themselves, from the tower of the watchmen to the fenced city. <sup>10</sup>And they set up images and groves for themselves in every high hill, and under every green tree. <sup>11</sup>And they burned incense in all the high places, like the nations whom the LORD had removed from before them; and did evil things to provoke the LORD to anger. <sup>12</sup>For they served the idols, of which the LORD had said to them, You shall not do this thing. <sup>13</sup>And the LORD testified against Israel, and against Judah, by all the prophets, by all the seers, saying, Turn from your evil ways and keep My commandments, My statutes, according to all the law which I commanded your fathers, and which I sent to you by My servants the prophets. <sup>14</sup>But they would not hear, but hardened their necks, like the neck of their fathers who did not believe in the LORD their God. <sup>15</sup>And they rejected His statutes and His covenant which He made with their fathers, and His testimonies which He testified against them. And they went after the vain thing, and became vain, and after the nations around them, concerning whom the LORD had charged them that they should not do like them. <sup>16</sup>And they left all the commandments of the LORD their God, and made molten images, two calves, for themselves. And they made a grove and worshipped all the host of heaven, and served Baal. <sup>17</sup>And they caused their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire. And they used divination and incantations, and sold themselves to do evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke Him to anger.

<sup>18</sup>So the LORD was very angry with Israel, and turned them away from His face; not one was left, only the tribe of Judah by itself. <sup>19</sup>Also Judah did not keep the commandments of the LORD their God, but walked in the statutes which Israel made. <sup>20</sup>And the LORD rejected all the seed of Israel, and afflicted them, and delivered them into the hand of spoilers, until He had cast them out of His sight. <sup>21</sup>For He tore Israel from the house of David. And they made Jeroboam the son of Nebat king. And Jeroboam drove Israel away from following the LORD, and made them sin a great sin. <sup>22</sup>For the sons of Israel walked in all the sins of Jeroboam which he did. They did not depart from them <sup>23</sup>until the LORD turned away Israel from His face, as He had said by all His servants the prophets. So Israel was carried away out of their own land to Assyria until this day.

<sup>24</sup>And the king of Assyria brought men from Babylon, and from Cuthah, and from Ava, and from Hamath, and from Sepharvaim, and placed them in the cities of Samaria instead of the sons of Israel. And they possessed Samaria and lived in its cities. <sup>25</sup>And it happened at the beginning of their dwelling there, that they did not fear the LORD. And the LORD sent lions among them, who killed them. <sup>26</sup>And they spoke to the king of Assyria, saying, The nations which you have removed and placed in the cities of Samaria do not know the manner of the God of the land. And He has sent lions among them, and, behold, they kill them because they do not know the way of the God of the land.<sup>27</sup> And the king of Assyria commanded, saying, Cause one of the priests whom you removed from there to go there. And they shall go and live there, and he shall teach them the way of the God of the land.<sup>28</sup> And one of the priests whom they had removed from Samaria came and lived in Bethel. And he taught them how they should fear the LORD.<sup>29</sup> And every nation made gods of their own, and put them in the houses of the high places which the Samaritans had made, every nation in their cities in which they lived.<sup>30</sup> And the men of Babylon made Succoth-benoth, and the men of Cuth made Nergal, and the men of Hamath made Ashima,<sup>31</sup> and the Avites made Nibhaz and Tartak, and the Sepharvites burned their sons with fire to Adrammelech and Anammelech the gods of Sepharvaim.<sup>32</sup> So they feared the LORD, and made to themselves, of the lowest of them, priests of the high places, who sacrificed for them in the houses of the high places.<sup>33</sup> They feared the LORD and served their own gods, according to the custom of the nations whom they removed from there.<sup>34</sup> Until this day they do according to their former ways. They do not fear the LORD, neither do they do according to their statutes, or according to their ordinances, or according to the law and commandment which the LORD commanded the sons of Jacob, whom He named Israel.

<sup>35</sup> And the LORD had made a covenant and charged them, saying, You shall not fear other gods, nor bow yourselves to them, nor serve them, nor sacrifice to them,<sup>36</sup> but the LORD, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt with great power and a stretched-out arm, you shall fear Him, and you shall worship Him, and you shall do sacrifice to Him.<sup>37</sup> And the statutes, and the ordinances, and the law, and the commandment, which He wrote for you, you shall be careful to do forever. And you shall not fear other gods.<sup>38</sup> And the covenant that I have made with you, you shall not forget, and you shall not fear other gods.<sup>39</sup> And you shall fear the LORD your God. And He shall deliver you out of the hand of all your enemies.<sup>40</sup> But they did not listen, but they followed after their former way.<sup>41</sup> And it happened, these nations feared the LORD, and they served their graven images, both their sons and their sons' sons, as their fathers did, they do until this day.

CHAPTER 18

<sup>1</sup> And it happened in the third year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel, Hezekiah the son of Ahaz king of Judah began to reign.<sup>2</sup> He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Abi, the daughter of Zachariah.<sup>3</sup> And he did the right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that David his father did.<sup>4</sup> He removed the high places, and broke the images, and cut down the groves. And he broke in pieces the bronze serpent which Moses had made; for until those days the sons of Israel burned incense to it. And he called it Nehushtan.<sup>5</sup> He trusted in the LORD God of Israel, and after him was none like him among all the kings of Judah, nor who were before him.<sup>6</sup> For he clung to the LORD. He did not depart from following Him, but kept His commandments, which the LORD commanded Moses.<sup>7</sup> And the LORD was with him. He was blessed wherever he went. And he rebelled against the king of Assyria, and did not serve him.<sup>8</sup> He struck the Philistines to Gaza and its borders, from the watchtower to the fortified city.

<sup>9</sup> And it happened in the fourth year of king Hezekiah, the seventh year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel, Shalmaneser king of Assyria came up against Samaria and besieged it.<sup>10</sup> And at the end of three years they took it, in the sixth year of Hezekiah, it was the ninth year of Hoshea king of Israel, Samaria was taken. <sup>11</sup>And the king of Assyria carried away Israel to Assyria, and put them in Halah and in Habor by the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes, <sup>12</sup>because they did not obey the voice of the LORD their God, but transgressed His covenant, and all that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded, and would not listen to them, nor do them.

<sup>13</sup>And in the fourteenth year of king Hezekiah, Sennacherib king of Assyria came up against all the fortified cities of Judah and took them. <sup>14</sup>And Hezekiah king of Judah sent to the king of Assyria to Lachish, saying, I have offended; turn back from me. Whatever you put on me I will bear. And the king of Assyria appointed to Hezekiah king of Judah three hundred talents of silver, and thirty talents of gold. <sup>15</sup>And Hezekiah gave him all the silver which was found in the house of the LORD and in the treasures of the king's house. <sup>16</sup>At that time Hezekiah cut off the gold from the doors of the temple of the LORD, and from the pillars which Hezekiah king of Judah had overlaid. And he gave them to the king of Assyria.

<sup>17</sup>And the king of Assyria sent Tartan, and the chief of the eunuchs, and the chief of the cupbearers from Lachish, to king Hezekiah with a great army against Jerusalem. And they went up and came to Jerusalem. And when they had come up, they came and stood by the conduit of the upper pool, which is in the highway to the Fuller's Field. <sup>18</sup>And they called to the king. And Eliakim the son of Hilkiyah, who was over the house, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph the recorder, went out to them. <sup>19</sup>And the chief of the cupbearers said to them, Speak now to Hezekiah, So says the great king, the king of Assyria, What hope is this in which you trust? <sup>20</sup>Do you say that a mere word of the lips is wisdom and strength for the war? Now on whom do you trust that you rebel against me? <sup>21</sup>Now, behold, you trust on the staff of this bruised reed, on Egypt, on which if a man leans, it will go into his hand and pierce it. So is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all who trust on him. <sup>22</sup>But if you say to me, We trust in Jehovah our God, is He not the one whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah has taken away, and has said to Judah and Jerusalem, You shall worship before this altar in Jerusalem? <sup>23</sup>And now, please give pledges to my lord the king of Assyria, and I will deliver two thousand horses to you if you are able to set riders on them. <sup>24</sup>And how will you turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's servants, and put your trust in Egypt for chariots and for horsemen? <sup>25</sup>Have I now come up against this place to destroy it without Jehovah? Jehovah said to me, Go up against this land and destroy it.

<sup>26</sup>Then Eliakim the son of Hilkiyah, and Shebna, and Joah said to the chief of the cupbearers, Please speak to your servants in Aramaic, for we understand. And do not talk with us in Jewish, in the ears of the people who are on the wall. <sup>27</sup>And the chief of the cupbearers said to them, Has my master sent me to your master and to you, to speak these words? Has he not sent me to the men who sit on the wall, so that they may eat their own dung and drink their own urine with you? <sup>28</sup>And the chief of the cupbearers stood and cried with a loud voice in Jewish, and spoke, saying, Hear the word of the great king, the king of Assyria: <sup>29</sup>so says the king, Do not let Hezekiah fool you. For he shall not be able to deliver you out of his hand. <sup>30</sup>And do not let Hezekiah make you trust in Jehovah, saying, Jehovah will surely deliver us, and this city shall not be delivered into the hands of the king of Assyria. <sup>31</sup>Do not listen to Hezekiah. For so says the king of Assyria, Make your peace with me, and come out to me, and you each shall eat of his vine, and each of his fig tree, and you each shall drink of the waters of his own cistern, <sup>32</sup>until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of olive oil and of honey, and live, and not die. And do not listen to Hezekiah when he deceives you, saying, Jehovah will deliver us. <sup>33</sup>Has any of the gods of the nations at all delivered his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria? <sup>34</sup>Where are the gods of Hamath and of Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivah? Have they delivered Samaria out of my hand? <sup>35</sup>Who are they among all the gods of the lands who have delivered their land out of my hand, that Jehovah should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand? <sup>36</sup>But the people kept silent and did not answer him a word. For the king's command was, saying, Do not answer him. <sup>37</sup>And Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph the recorder, came to Hezekiah with their clothes torn. And they told him the words of the chief of the cupbearers.

CHAPTER 19

<sup>1</sup>And it happened when king Hezekiah heard, he tore his clothes and covered himself with sackcloth. And he went into the house of the LORD. <sup>2</sup>And he sent Eliakim who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, covered with sackcloth, to Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz. <sup>3</sup>And they said to him, So says Hezekiah, This day is a day of trouble and of rebuke and contempt. For the sons have come to the birth, and there is no strength to bring forth. <sup>4</sup>It may be the LORD your God will hear all the words of the chief cupbearer with which his master the king of Assyria has sent to reproach the living God, and will rebuke the words which the LORD your God has heard. And you shall lift up prayer for the rest who are left. <sup>5</sup>And the servants of king Hezekiah came to Isaiah.

<sup>6</sup>And Isaiah said to them, You shall say to your master, So says the LORD, Do not be afraid of the words which you have heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed Me. <sup>7</sup>Behold, I will send a blast on him, and he shall hear a rumor and shall return to his own land. And I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.

<sup>8</sup>And the chief cupbearer returned and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah, for he had heard that he had departed from Lachish. <sup>9</sup>And when he heard it said of Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, Behold, he has come out to fight against you, he sent messengers again to Hezekiah, saying, <sup>10</sup>So you shall speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying, Do not let your God in whom you trust deceive you, saying, Jerusalem shall not be delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria. <sup>11</sup>Behold, you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands by completely destroying them. And shall you be delivered? <sup>12</sup>Have the gods of the nations delivered them, nations which my fathers have destroyed, Gozan, and Haran, and Rezep, and the sons of Eden in Telassar? <sup>13</sup>Where is the king of Hamath, and the king of Arpad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, of Hena, and of Ivah?

<sup>14</sup>And Hezekiah received the letters from the hand of the messengers, and read it. And Hezekiah went up into the house of the LORD, and spread it before the LORD. <sup>15</sup>And Hezekiah prayed before the LORD and said, O LORD God of Israel, who dwells between the cherubs, You are God Himself, You alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth. You have made the heavens and the earth. <sup>16</sup>LORD, bow down Your ear and hear. O LORD, open Your eyes and see, and hear the words of Sennacherib, who has sent him to taunt the living God. <sup>17</sup>Truly, LORD, the kings of Assyria have destroyed the nations and their lands, <sup>18</sup>and have thrown their gods into the fire; for they were no gods, but the work of men's hands, wood and stone, and they have destroyed them. <sup>19</sup>And now, O, LORD our God, I beseech You, save us out of his hand, so that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that You are the LORD God, and You only.

<sup>20</sup>And Isaiah the son of Amoz sent to Hezekiah, saying, So says the LORD God of Israel, I have heard what you have prayed to Me against Sennacherib king of Assyria. <sup>21</sup>This is the word that the LORD has spoken concerning him: The virgin, the daughter of Zion, has despised you and laughed you to scorn. The daughter of Jerusalem has shaken her head at you. <sup>22</sup>Whom have you mocked and blasphemed? And against whom have you exalted your voice and lifted up your eyes on high? Even against the Holy One of Israel! <sup>23</sup>You have mocked Jehovah by your messengers, and have said, With the multitude of my chariots I have come up to the height of the mountains, to the sides of Lebanon, and will cut down its tall cedar trees, its choice fir trees. And I will enter into the lodgings of its borders, into the forest and its fruitful field. <sup>24</sup>I have dug and drunk strange waters, and with the sole of my feet I have dried up all the rivers of fortified places. <sup>25</sup>Have you not heard? Long ago I have made it, in ancient times I fashioned it! Now I have caused it to come; that you should make fortified cities desolate heaps of ruins. <sup>26</sup>And their people were of small power, they were fearful and put to shame. They were like the grass of the field, and like the green herb, like the grass on the house-tops, and like grain blasted before it was grown up. <sup>27</sup>But I know your sitting down, and your going out, and your coming in, and your rage against Me. <sup>28</sup>Because your rage against Me and your noise has come up into My ears, even I will put My hook in your nose, and My bridle in your lips. And I will turn you back by the way by which you came. <sup>29</sup>And this shall be a sign to you: you shall eat this year such things as grow of themselves, and in the second year that which springs up of the same. And in the third year, sow and reap and plant vineyards and eat the fruits of them. <sup>30</sup>And the remnant that has escaped of the house of Judah shall yet again take root downward and bear fruit upward. <sup>31</sup>For out of Jerusalem shall go forth a remnant, and they who escape out of Mount Zion. The zeal of the LORD shall do this. <sup>32</sup>So the LORD says this concerning the king of Assyria. He shall not come into this city, nor shoot an arrow there, nor come before it with shield, nor throw up a bank against it. <sup>33</sup>By the way that he came, by the same he shall return, and shall not come into this city, says the LORD. <sup>34</sup>For I will defend this city, to save it for My own sake and for My servant David's sake.

<sup>35</sup>And it happened that night, the Angel of the LORD went out and struck a hundred and eighty-five thousand in the camp of the Assyrians. And they arose early in the morning, and behold, they were all dead bodies. <sup>36</sup>And Sennacherib king of Assyria departed. And he went and returned and lived at Nineveh. <sup>37</sup>And it happened as he was worshipping in the house of Nisroch his god, Adrammelech and Sharezer, his sons, struck him with the sword. And they escaped into the land of Ararat. And Esarhaddon his son reigned in his place.

CHAPTER 20

<sup>1</sup>In those days Hezekiah was sick to death. And the prophet Isaiah the son of Amoz came to him and said to him, So says the LORD, Set your house in order, for you shall die and not live. <sup>2</sup>And he turned his face to the wall and prayed to the LORD, saying, O LORD, <sup>3</sup>I pray You, remember now how I have walked before You in truth and with a sincere heart, and have done good in Your sight. And Hezekiah wept with a great weeping. <sup>4</sup>And it happened before Isaiah had gone out into the middle of the court, the word of the LORD came to him saying, <sup>5</sup>Return again and tell Hezekiah the leader of My people, So says the LORD, the God of David your father, I have heard your prayer, I have seen your tears.

Behold, I will heal you. On the third day you shall go up to the house of the LORD. <sup>6</sup>And I will add fifteen years to your days. And I will deliver you and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria. And I will defend this city for My own sake, and for My servant David's sake. <sup>7</sup>And Isaiah said, Take a lump of figs. And they took and laid it on the boil, and he recovered. <sup>8</sup>And Hezekiah said to Isaiah, What shall be the sign that the LORD will heal me, and that I shall go up into the house of the LORD the third day? <sup>9</sup>And Isaiah said, You shall have this sign from the LORD, that the LORD will do the thing which He has spoken. Shall the shadow go forward ten steps, or go back ten steps? <sup>10</sup>And Hezekiah answered, It is a light thing for the shadow to go down ten steps. No, but let the shadow go backward ten steps. <sup>11</sup>And Isaiah the prophet cried to the LORD. And He brought the shadow ten steps backward, by which it had gone down on the sundial of Ahaz.

<sup>12</sup>At that time Berodach-baladan, the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah. For he had heard that Hezekiah had been sick. <sup>13</sup>And Hezekiah listened to them, and showed them all the house of his precious things, the silver and the gold, and the spices, and the precious ointment, and the house of his armor, and all that was found in his treasures. There was nothing in his house nor in all his dominion which Hezekiah did not show them. <sup>14</sup>And Isaiah the prophet came to king Hezekiah and said to him, What did these men say? And from where did they come to you? And Hezekiah said, They have come from a far country, from Babylon. <sup>15</sup>And he said, What have they seen in your house? And Hezekiah answered, They have seen all that is in my house. There is nothing among my treasures which I have not shown to them. <sup>16</sup>And Isaiah said to Hezekiah, Hear the word of the LORD. <sup>17</sup>Behold, the days come when all that is in your house, and which your fathers have laid up in store until today, shall be carried into Babylon. Nothing shall be left, says the LORD. <sup>18</sup>And of your sons which shall issue from you, which you shall father, they shall take away. And they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon. <sup>19</sup>And Hezekiah said to Isaiah, Good is the word of the LORD which you have spoken. And he said, Shall there not be peace and truth in my days?

<sup>20</sup>And the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and all his might, and how he made a pool and a conduit, and brought water into the city, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the Kings of Judah? <sup>21</sup>And Hezekiah slept with his fathers. And Manasseh his son reigned in his place.

CHAPTER 21

<sup>1</sup>Manasseh was twelve years old when he began to reign. And he reigned fifty-five years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Hephzibah. <sup>2</sup>And he did the evil in the sight of the LORD, after the abominations of the heathen whom the LORD cast out before the sons of Israel. <sup>3</sup>For he built up again the high places which his father Hezekiah had destroyed. And he reared up altars for Baal, and made a grove, as Ahab king of Israel did. And he worshiped all the host of heaven, and served them. <sup>4</sup>And he built altars in the house of the LORD, of which the LORD said, In Jerusalem I will put My name. <sup>5</sup>And he built altars for all the host of heaven in the two courts of the house of the LORD. <sup>6</sup>And he made his son pass through the fire, and observed times and used fortune-tellers. And he dealt with familiar spirits and wizards. He worked much wickedness in the sight of the LORD, to provoke Him to anger. <sup>7</sup>And he set a graven image of the grove which he had made in the house, of which the LORD had said to David and to Solomon his son, In this house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, I will put My name forever. <sup>8</sup>And I will not again make the feet of Israel wander any more out of the land which I gave their fathers; only if they will be careful to do according to all that I have commanded them, and according to all the law that My servant Moses commanded them. <sup>9</sup>But they did not listen. And Manasseh seduced them to do more evil than the nations ever did, whom the LORD destroyed before the sons of Israel.

<sup>10</sup>And the LORD spoke by His servants the prophets, saying, <sup>11</sup>Because Manasseh king of Judah has done these abominations, doing more wickedly than all that the Amorites did, who were before him, and has made Judah also to sin with his idols, <sup>12</sup>therefore, so says the LORD God of Israel, Behold, I am bringing evil on Jerusalem and Judah, so that whoever hears of it, both his ears shall tingle. <sup>13</sup>And I will stretch over Jerusalem the line of Samaria, and the measuring line of the house of Ahab. And I will wipe Jerusalem like a dish is wiped, wiping and turning it upside down. <sup>14</sup>And I will forsake the remnant of My inheritance, and deliver them into the hand of their enemies. And they shall become a prey and a spoil to all their enemies, <sup>15</sup>because they have done the evil in My sight, and have provoked Me to anger, since the day their fathers came forth out of Egypt even until this day. <sup>16</sup>And also Manasseh shed very much innocent blood, until he had filled Jerusalem from one end to another, besides his sin with which he made Judah to sin, in doing the evil in the sight of the LORD. <sup>17</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh, and all that he did, and his sin which he sinned, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the Kings of Judah? <sup>18</sup>And Manasseh slept with his fathers, and was buried in the garden of his own house, in the garden of Uzza. And his son Amon reigned in his place.

<sup>19</sup>Amon was twenty-two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned two years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Meshullemeth, the daughter of Haruz of Jotbah. <sup>20</sup>And he did the evil in the sight of the LORD, as his father Manasseh did. <sup>21</sup>And he walked in all the way that his father walked, and served the idols which his father served, and worshiped them. <sup>22</sup>And he left the LORD God of his fathers, and did not walk in the way of the LORD. <sup>23</sup>And the servants of Amon plotted against him and killed the king in his own house. <sup>24</sup>And the people of the land killed all those who had plotted against king Amon. And the people of the land made his son Josiah king in his place. <sup>25</sup>And the rest of the acts of Amon which he did, are they not written in the Books of the Matters of the Days of the Kings of Judah? <sup>26</sup>And he was buried in his tomb in the garden of Uzza. And his son Josiah reigned in his place.

CHAPTER 22

<sup>1</sup>Josiah was eight years old when he began to reign. And he reigned thirty-one years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jedidah, the daughter of Adaiah of Boscath. <sup>2</sup>And he did the right in the sight of the LORD, and walked in all the way of David his father, and did not turn aside to the right or to the left.

<sup>3</sup>And it happened in the eighteenth year of Josiah, the king sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah, the son of Meshullam the scribe, to the house of the LORD, saying, <sup>4</sup>Go up to Hilkiah the high priest, so that he may count the silver which is brought into the house of the LORD, which the doorkeepers have gathered from the people. <sup>5</sup>And let them deliver it into the hand of the workers who have the oversight of the house of the Lord. And let them give it to the workers who are in the house of the LORD, in order to repair the breaks of the house, <sup>6</sup>to carpenters, and builders, and masons, and to buy timber and cut stone to repair the house. <sup>7</sup>Only, the silver that is given into their hand shall not be reckoned with them, for they are dealing in faithfulness.

<sup>8</sup>And Hilkiah the high priest said to Shaphan the scribe, I have found the book of the law in the house of the LORD. And Hilkiah gave the book to Shaphan, and he read it. <sup>9</sup>And Shaphan the scribe came to the king and brought the king word again, and said, Your servants have gathered the money that was found in the house, and have delivered it into the hand of the workers, who have the oversight of the house of the LORD. <sup>10</sup>And Shaphan the scribe showed the king, saying, Hilkiyah the priest has delivered me a book. And Shaphan read it before the king. <sup>11</sup>And it happened when the king had heard the words of the book of the law, he tore his clothes. <sup>12</sup>And the king commanded Hilkiyah the priest, and Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and Achbor the son of Michaiah, and Shaphan the scribe, and Asahiah a servant of the king, saying, <sup>13</sup>Go inquire of the LORD for me, and for the people, and for all Judah, concerning the words of this book which is found. For great is the wrath of the LORD which is kindled against us, because our fathers have not listened to the words of this book, to do according to all which is written concerning us. <sup>14</sup>And Hilkiyah the priest, and Ahikam, and Achbor, and Shaphan, and Asahiah, went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tikvah, the son of Harhas, keeper of the wardrobe. And she lived in Jerusalem in the second part. And they talked with her. <sup>15</sup>And she said to them, So says the LORD God of Israel, Tell the man who sent you to me, <sup>16</sup>So says the LORD, Behold, I will bring evil on this place and on the people of it, all the words of the book which the king of Judah has read; <sup>17</sup>because they have forsaken Me, and have burned incense to other gods, so that they might provoke Me to anger with all the works of their hands, therefore My wrath shall be kindled against this place, and it shall not be quenched. <sup>18</sup>But to the king of Judah who sent you to inquire of the LORD, so you shall say to him, So says the LORD God of Israel, The words which you have heard, <sup>19</sup>because your heart was tender and you have humbled yourself before the LORD, when you heard what I spoke against this place, and against the people of it (that they should become a waste and a curse and have torn your clothes and wept before Me), I have heard you, says the LORD. <sup>20</sup>Behold, even so I will gather you to your fathers, and you shall be gathered to your grave in peace. And your eyes shall not see all the evil which I will bring on this place. And they brought the king this word again.

CHAPTER 23

<sup>1</sup>And the king sent. And they gathered to him all the elders of Judah and of Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup>And the king went up into the house of the LORD. And all the men of Judah and all the people of Jerusalem were with him, and the priests and the prophets, and all the people, from the small even to the great. And he read all the words of the book of the covenant which was found in the house of the LORD in their ears. <sup>3</sup>And the king stood by a pillar and made a covenant before the LORD, to walk after the LORD and to keep His commandments and His testimonies and His statutes with all his heart and all his soul, to perform the words of this covenant which was written in this book. And all the people stood to the covenant. <sup>4</sup>And the king commanded Hilkiyah the high priest, and the priests of the second order, and the doorkeepers, to bring forth out of the temple of the LORD all the vessels which were made for Baal, and for the grove, and for all the host of heaven. And he burned them outside Jerusalem in the fields of Kidron, and carried the ashes of them to Bethel. <sup>5</sup>And he put down the idol-worshipping priests, whom the kings of Judah had ordained to burn incense in the high places in the cities of Judah, and in the places around Jerusalem. He also put down those who burned incense to Baal, to the sun, and to the moon, and to the planets, and to all the host of heaven. <sup>6</sup>And he brought out the grove from the house of the LORD outside Jerusalem, to the brook Kidron, and burned it at the brook Kidron, and stamped it to powder, and threw the powder of it on the graves of the sons of the people. <sup>7</sup>And he broke down the houses of the sodomites, which were by the house of the LORD, where the women wove coverings for the grove. <sup>8</sup>And he brought all the priests out of the cities of Judah, and defiled the high places where the priests had burned incense, from Geba to Beer-sheba. And he broke down the high places of the gates which were in the entering in of the gate of Joshua the governor of the city, which were on a man's left hand at the gate of the city. <sup>9</sup>But the priests of the high places did not come up to the altar of the LORD in Jerusalem, but they ate of the unleavened bread among their brothers. <sup>10</sup>And he defiled Topheth, in the valley of the sons of Hinnom, so that no man might make his son or his daughter to pass through the fire to Molech. <sup>11</sup>And he took away the horses which the kings of Judah had given to the sun, at the entering in of the house of the LORD, by the room of Nathan-melech the eunuch, which was in the suburbs. And he burned the chariots of the sun with fire. <sup>12</sup>And the altars which were on the top of the upper room of Ahaz, which the kings of Judah had made, and the altars which Manasseh had made, and the two courts of the house of the LORD, the king beat them down, and broke them down from there. And he threw the dust of them into the brook Kidron. <sup>13</sup>And the high places which were before Jerusalem on the right hand of the Mount of Corruption, which Solomon the king of Israel had built for Ashtoreth the abomination of the Sidonians, and for Chemosh the abomination of the Moabites, and for Milcom the abomination of the sons of Ammon, the king defiled. <sup>14</sup>And he broke the images in pieces, and cut down the groves, and filled their places with the bones of men.

<sup>15</sup>And also the altar which was at Bethel, and the high place which Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin, had made, both that altar and the high place he broke down, and burned the high place; he stamped it to powder, and burned the Asherah. <sup>16</sup>And as Josiah turned, he spied the tombs which were there in the mountain. And he sent and took the bones out of the tombs, and burned them on the altar and defiled it, according to the word of the LORD which the man of God had proclaimed, who spoke these words. <sup>17</sup>And he said, What monument is that which I see? And the men of the city told him, It is the grave of the man of God who came from Judah and proclaimed these things which you have done against the altar of Bethel. <sup>18</sup>And he said, Let him alone; let no one move his bones. And they let his bones alone, with the bones of the prophet who came out of Samaria. <sup>19</sup>And also all the houses of the high places in the cities of Samaria, which the kings of Israel had made to provoke the LORD to anger, Josiah took away, and did to them according to all the acts which he had done in Bethel. <sup>20</sup>And he killed all the priests of the high places which were there on the altars, and burned men's bones on them, and returned to Jerusalem.

<sup>21</sup>And the king commanded all the people saying, Prepare the Passover to the LORD your God, as it is written in the book of this covenant. <sup>22</sup>Surely there was not held such a Passover from the days of the judges who judged Israel, nor in all the days of the kings of Israel, nor of the kings of Judah, <sup>23</sup>but in the eighteenth year of king Josiah, this Passover was held to the LORD in Jerusalem. <sup>24</sup>And also Josiah put away the mediums, and the soothsayers, and the family gods, and the idols, and all the abominations which were seen in the land of Judah and in Jerusalem, so that he might perform the words of the law which were written in the book which Hilkiah the priest found in the house of the LORD. <sup>25</sup>And there was no king like him before him, who turned to the LORD with all his heart and with all his soul, and with all his might, according to all the law of Moses. And after him none rose up like him.

<sup>26</sup>But the Lord did not turn from the heat of His great wrath, with which His anger was kindled against Judah, because of all the provocations which Manasseh had provoked Him. <sup>27</sup>And the LORD said, I will also remove Judah out of My sight, as I have removed Israel, and will cast off this city Jerusalem which I have chosen, and the house of which I said, My name shall be there. <sup>28</sup>And the rest of the acts of Josiah, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the Kings of Judah?

<sup>29</sup>In his days Pharaoh-necho king of Egypt went up against the king of Assyria to the river Euphrates. And king Josiah went against him. And he killed him at Megiddo, when he saw him. <sup>30</sup>And his servants made him ride dead in a chariot from Megiddo, and brought him to Jerusalem, and buried him in his own tomb. And the people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah, and anointed him, and made him king in his father's place.

<sup>31</sup>Jehoahaz was twenty-three years old when he began to reign. And he reigned three months in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Hamutal, the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. <sup>32</sup>And he did the evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his fathers had done. <sup>33</sup>And Pharaoh-necho put him in bonds at Riblah in the land of Hamath, so that he might not reign in Jerusalem. And he put the land to a tax of a hundred talents of silver and a talent of gold. <sup>34</sup>And Pharaoh-necho made Eliakim the son of Josiah king in place of Josiah his father. And he changed his name to Jehoiakim, and took Jehoahaz away. And he came to Egypt and died there. <sup>35</sup>And Jehoiakim gave the silver and the gold to Pharaoh. But he taxed the land to give the silver according to Pharaoh's command. He exacted the silver and the gold from the people of the land, from each one according to his worth, to give it to Pharaoh-necho.

<sup>36</sup>Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he began to reign. And he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Zebudah, the daughter of Pedaiah of Rumah. <sup>37</sup>And he did the evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his fathers had done.

CHAPTER 24

<sup>1</sup>In his days Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up, and Jehoiakim became his servant three years. Then he turned and rebelled against him. <sup>2</sup>And the LORD sent against him bands of the Chaldees, and bands of the Syrians, and bands of the Moabites, and bands of the Ammonites. And He sent them against Judah to destroy it, according to the word of the LORD which He spoke by His servants the prophets. <sup>3</sup>Surely at the commandment of the Lord this came on Judah, to remove them out of His sight, for the sins of Manasseh, according to all that he did; <sup>4</sup>and also for the innocent blood which he shed, for he filled Jerusalem with innocent blood, which the LORD would not pardon. <sup>5</sup>And the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the kings of Judah? <sup>6</sup>And Jehoiakim slept with his fathers. And Jehoiachin his son reigned in his place. <sup>7</sup>And the king of Egypt did not come again out of his land any more. For the king of Babylon had taken from the river of Egypt to the river Euphrates all that belonged to the king of Egypt. <sup>8</sup>Jehoiachin was eighteen years old when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem three months. And his mother's name was Nehushta, the daughter of Elnathan of Jerusalem. <sup>9</sup>And he did the evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father had done.

<sup>10</sup>At that time the servants of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up against Jerusalem, and the city was besieged. <sup>11</sup>And Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came against the city, and his servants besieged it. <sup>12</sup>And Jehoiachin the king of Judah went out to the king of Babylon, he and his mother, and his servants, and his leaders, and his eunuchs. And the king of Babylon took him in the eighth year of his reign. <sup>13</sup>And he carried out from there all the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king's house, and cut in pieces all the vessels of gold which Solomon king of Israel had made in the temple of the LORD, as the LORD had said. <sup>14</sup>And he carried away all Jerusalem, and all the leaders, and all the mighty men of war, ten thousand captives, and all the craftsmen and smiths. None remained except the poorest sort of the people of the land. <sup>15</sup>And he carried away Jehoiachin to Babylon, and the king's mother, and the king's wives, and his eunuchs. And the mighty of the land he carried into captivity from Jerusalem to Babylon. <sup>16</sup>And the king of Babylon brought captive to Babylon all the men of might, seven thousand of them, and a thousand craftsmen and smiths, all who were strong and able for war.

<sup>17</sup>And the king of Babylon made Mattaniah, his father's brother, king in his place. And he changed his name to Zedekiah. <sup>18</sup>Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Hamutal, the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. <sup>19</sup>And he did the evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that Jehoiakim had done. <sup>20</sup>For it was through the anger of the LORD that Zedekiah happened to rebel against the king of Babylon in Jerusalem and in Judah, until God had put them out of His presence.

CHAPTER 25

<sup>1</sup>And it happened in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came. He and all his army came against Jerusalem and pitched against it, and built a siege-mound all around it. <sup>2</sup>And the city was besieged until the eleventh year of king Zedekiah, <sup>3</sup>on the ninth of the fourth month, when famine was severe in the city, and there was no bread for the people of the land. <sup>4</sup>And the city was broken up, and by night all the men of war went by the way of the gate between two walls, which is by the king's garden. And the Chaldeans were against the city all round. And the king went the way toward the plain. <sup>5</sup>And the army of the Chaldees pursued the king, and overtook him in the plains of Jericho. And all his army was scattered from him. <sup>6</sup>And they took the king and brought him up to the king of Babylon, to Riblah. And they gave judgment on him. <sup>7</sup>And they killed the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes, and put out the eyes of Zedekiah, and bound him with bronze chains and carried him to Babylon.

<sup>8</sup>And in the fifth month, on the seventh of the month; it was the nineteenth year of king Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; Nebuzaradan the chief of the executioners, a servant of the king of Babylon, came to Jerusalem. <sup>9</sup>And he burned the house of the LORD, and the king's house, and all the houses of Jerusalem. And every great one's house he burned with fire. <sup>10</sup>And all the army of the Chaldeans who were with the chief of the executioners broke down the walls of Jerusalem all around. <sup>11</sup>And the rest of the people who were left in the city, and the fugitives who fell away to the king of Babylon, with the rest of the multitude, the chief of the executioners carried away. <sup>12</sup>But the chief of the executioners left a few of the poor of the land to be vinedressers and husbandmen.

<sup>13</sup>And the bronze pillars which were in the house of the LORD, and the bases, and bronze sea in the house of the LORD, the Chaldeans broke into pieces and carried the bronze from them to Babylon. <sup>14</sup>And the pots, and the shovels, and the snuffers, and the spoons, and all the vessels of bronze with which they ministered, they also took away. <sup>15</sup>And the chief of the executioners took away the fire-pans, and the bowls, such things as were all of gold, and all of silver; <sup>16</sup>also the two pillars, the one sea, and the bases which Solomon had made for the house of the LORD. The bronze of all these vessels was without weight. <sup>17</sup>The height of the one pillar was eighteen cubits, and the capital on it was bronze. And the height of the capital was three cubits. And the grating and the pomegranates on the capital all around were all of bronze. And the second pillar had grating like these. <sup>18</sup>And the chief of the executioners took Seraiah the chief priest, and Zephaniah the second priest, and the three doorkeepers. <sup>19</sup>And he took out of the city a certain eunuch who was appointed over the men of war, and five men of those who were in the king's presence, who were found in the city, and the chief scribe of the army (who called up the people of the land together), and sixty men of the people of the land found in the city. <sup>20</sup>And Nebu-zaradan the chief of the executioners took these and brought them to the king of Babylon to Riblah. <sup>21</sup>And the king of Babylon struck them and killed them at Riblah in the land of Hamath. And he exiled Judah from its land.

<sup>22</sup>And he made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, ruler over the people who remained in the land of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had left. <sup>23</sup>And all the captains of the army, they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah governor. And they came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, even Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan the son of Careah, and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth the Netophathite, and Jaazaniah the son of a Maachathite, they and their men. <sup>24</sup>And Gedaliah swore to them and to their men, and said to them, Do not fear to be the servants of the Chaldeans. Dwell in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and it shall be well with you. <sup>25</sup>And it happened in the seventh month, Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama of the seed of the kingdom, and ten men with him, came and struck Gedaliah, and he died, and also the Jews and the Chaldeans who were with him at Mizpah. <sup>26</sup>And all the people, both small and great, and the captains of the army, arose and came to Egypt. For they were afraid of the Chaldeans.

<sup>27</sup>And it happened in the thirty-seventh year of the captivity of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the twenty-seventh of the month, Evil-merodach king of Babylon, in the year that he began to reign, lifted up the head of Jehoiachin king of Judah out of prison. <sup>28</sup>And he spoke kindly to him and set his throne above the throne of the kings who were with him in Babylon. <sup>29</sup>And he changed his prison clothes. And he always ate bread before him all the days of his life. <sup>30</sup>And his allowance was a regular allowance given him from the king, a daily ration for every day, all the days of his life.

THE FIRST BOOK OF CHRONICLES

<sup>1</sup>Adam, Seth, Enoch, <sup>2</sup>Cainan, Mahalaleel, Jered, <sup>3</sup>Enoch, Methuselah, Lamech, <sup>4</sup>Noah, Shem, Ham, and Japheth. <sup>5</sup>The sons of Japheth were Gomer, and Magog, and Madai, and Javan, and Tubal, and Meshech, and Tiras. <sup>6</sup>And the sons of Gomer were Ashchenaz, and Riphath, and Togarmah. <sup>7</sup>And the sons of Javan were Elishah, and Tarshish, Kittim, and Dodanim. <sup>8</sup>The sons of Ham were Cush, and Mizraim, Put, and Canaan. <sup>9</sup>And the sons of Cush were Seba, and Havilah, and Sabta, and Raamah, and Sabtecha. And the sons of Raamah were Sheba and Dedan. <sup>10</sup>And Cush fathered Nimrod. He began to be mighty on the earth. <sup>11</sup>And Mizraim fathered Ludim, and Ananim, and Lehabim, and Naphtuhim, <sup>12</sup>and Pathrusim, and Casluhim (from whom came the Philistines), and Caphthorim. <sup>13</sup>And Canaan fathered Zidon his firstborn, and Heth, <sup>14</sup>the Jebusite also, and the Amorite, and the Gurgashite, <sup>15</sup>and the Hivite, and the Arkite, and the Sinite, <sup>16</sup>and the Arvadite, and the Zemarite, and the Hamathite.

<sup>17</sup>The sons of Shem were Elam, and Asshur, and Arphaxad, and Lud, and Aram, and Uz, and Hul, and Gether, and Meshech. <sup>18</sup>And Arphaxad fathered Shelah, and Shelah fathered Eber. <sup>19</sup>And to Eber were born two sons. The name of the one was Peleg (because in his days the earth was divided), and the name of his brother was Joktan. <sup>20</sup>And Joktan fathered Almodad, and Sheleph, and Hazar-maveth, and Jerah, <sup>21</sup>and Hadoram, and Uzal, and Diklah, <sup>22</sup>and Ebal, and Abimael, and Sheba, <sup>23</sup>and Ophir, and Havilah, and Jobab. All these were the sons of Joktan.

<sup>32</sup>And the sons of Keturah, Abraham's concubine: She bore Zimran, and Jokshan, and Medan, and Midian, and Ishbak, and Shuah. And the sons of Jokshan: Sheba and Dedan. <sup>33</sup>And the sons of Midian: Ephah, and Epher, and Henoah, and Abida, and Eldaah. All these are the sons of Keturah. <sup>34</sup>And Abraham fathered Isaac. The sons of Isaac were Esau and Israel.

<sup>35</sup>The sons of Esau: Eliphaz, Reuel, and Jeush, and Jaalam, and Korah. <sup>36</sup>The sons of Eliphaz: Teman, and Omar, Zephi, and Getam, Kenaz, and Timna, and Amalek. <sup>37</sup>The sons of Reuel: Nahath, Zerah, Shammah, and Mizzah. <sup>38</sup>And the sons of Seir: Lotan, and Shobal, and Zibeon, and Anah, and Dishon, and Ezer, and Dishan. <sup>39</sup>And the sons of Lotan: Hori and Homam. And Timna was Lotan's sister. <sup>40</sup>The sons of Shobal: Alian, and Manahath, and Ebal, Shephi, and Onam. And the sons of Zibeon: Aiah and Anah. <sup>41</sup>The son of Anah was Dishon. And the sons of Dishon: Amram, and Eshban, and Ithran, and Cheran. <sup>42</sup>The sons of Ezer: Bilhan, and Zavan, and Jakan. The sons of Dishan: Uz and Aran.

<sup>43</sup>And these are the kings who reigned in the land of Edom before any king reigned over the sons of Israel: Bela the son of Beor, and the name of his city was Dinhabah. <sup>44</sup>And Bela died; and Jobab the son of Zerah of Bozrah reigned in his place. <sup>45</sup>And Jobab died, and Husham of the land of the Temanites reigned in his place. <sup>46</sup>And Husham died, and Hadad the son of Bedad, who struck Midian in the field of Moab, reigned in his place. And the name of his city was Avith. <sup>47</sup>And Hadad died, and Samlah of Masrekah reigned in his place. <sup>48</sup>And Samlah died, and Shaul of Rehoboth by the river reigned in his place. <sup>49</sup>And Shaul died, and Baal-hanan the son of Achbor reigned in his place. <sup>50</sup>And Baal-hanan died, and Hadad reigned in his place. And the name of his city was Pai. And his wife's name was Mehetabel, the daughter of Matred, the daughter of Mezahab.

<sup>51</sup>And Hadad died. And the chiefs of Edom: chief Timnah, chief Aliah, chief Jeheth, <sup>52</sup>chief Aholibamah, chief Elah, chief Pinon, <sup>53</sup>chief Kenaz, chief Teman, chief Mibzar, <sup>54</sup>chief Magdiel, chief Iram. These are the chiefs of Edom.

<sup>3</sup>The sons of Judah: Er and Onan, and Shelah, three born to him from the daughter of Shua the Canaanitess. And Er, the first-born of Judah, was evil in the sight of the LORD, and He killed him. <sup>4</sup>And Tamar his daughter-in-law bore him Pharez and Zerah. All the sons of Judah were five. <sup>5</sup>The sons of Pharez: Hezron and Hamul. <sup>6</sup>And the sons of Zerah were Zimri, and Ethan, and Heman, and Calcol, and Dara, all of them five. <sup>7</sup>And the sons of Carmi: Achan, the troubler of Israel, who sinned in the cursed thing. <sup>8</sup>And the son of Ethan was Azariah. <sup>9</sup>And the sons also of Hezron, who were born to him: Jerahmeel, and Ram, and Chelubai. <sup>10</sup>And Ram fathered Amminadab. And Amminadab fathered Nahshon, prince of the sons of Judah. <sup>11</sup>And Nahshon fathered Salma, and Salma fathered Boaz, <sup>12</sup>and Boaz fathered Obed, and Obed fathered Jesse. <sup>13</sup>And Jesse fathered his first-born Eliab, and Abinadab the second, and Shimma the third, <sup>14</sup>Nethaneel the fourth, Raddai the fifth, <sup>15</sup>Ozem the sixth, David the seventh. <sup>16</sup>Their sisters were Zeruiah and Abigail. And the sons of Zeruiah were Abishai, and Joab, and Asahel, three. <sup>17</sup>And Abigail bore Amasa. And the father of Amasa was Jether, the Ishmaelite.

<sup>25</sup>And the sons of Jerahmeel the first-born of Hezron: Ram the first-born, and Bunah, and Oren, and Ozem, and Ahijah. <sup>26</sup>Jerahmeel also had another wife, whose name was Atarah. She was the mother of Onam. <sup>27</sup>And the sons of Ram the first-born of Jerahmeel: were Maaz, and Jamin, and Eker. <sup>28</sup>And the sons of Onam: Shammai and Jada. And the sons of Shammai: Nadab and Abishur. <sup>29</sup>And the name of Abishur's wife was Abihail, and she bore him Abban and Molid. <sup>30</sup>And the sons of Nadab: Seled and Appaim. But Seled died without sons. <sup>31</sup>And the son of Appaim was Ishi. And the son of Ishi was Sheshan. And the son of Sheshan was Ahlai. <sup>32</sup>And the sons of Jada, the brother of Shammai: Jether and Jonathan; and Jether died without sons. <sup>33</sup>And the sons of Jonathan were Peleth and Zaza. These were the sons of Jerahmeel.

and Helez fathered Eleasah,<sup>40</sup> and Eleasah fathered Sismai, and Sismai fathered Shallum,<sup>41</sup> and Shallum fathered Jekamiah, and Jekamiah fathered Elishama.

<sup>42</sup>And the sons of Caleb the brother of Jerahmeel: Mesha his first-born, the father of Ziph. And the sons of Mareshah the father of Hebron.<sup>43</sup>And the sons of Hebron were Korah, and Tappuah, and Rekem, and Shema.<sup>44</sup>And Shema fathered Raham, the father of Jorkoam. And Rekem fathered Shammai.<sup>45</sup>And the son of Shammai was Maon. And Maon was the father of Beth-zur.<sup>46</sup>And Ephah, Caleb's concubine, bore Haran, and Moza, and Gazez. And Haran fathered Gazez.<sup>47</sup>And the sons of Jahdai: Regem and Jotham and Geshan and Pelet and Ephah and Shaaph.<sup>48</sup>Maachah, Caleb's concubine, bore Sheber, and Tirhanah.<sup>49</sup>She also bore Shaaph the father of Madmannah, Sheva the father of Machbenah, and the father of Gibea. And Caleb's daughter was Achsah.

<sup>50</sup>These were the sons of Caleb the son of Hur. The first-born of Ephrathah was Shobal the father of Kirjath-jearim;<sup>51</sup>Salma the father of Bethlehem, Hareph the father of Beth-gader.<sup>52</sup>And Shobal the father of Kirjath-jearim had sons: Haroeh, and half of the Manabethites.<sup>53</sup>And the families of Kirjath-jearim were the Ithrites, and the Puhites, and the Shumathites, and the Mishraites. From them came the Zareathites, and the Eshtaulites.<sup>54</sup>The sons of Salma: Bethlehem, and the Netophathites, Ataroth, the house of Joab, and half the Manabethites, the Zorites.<sup>55</sup>And the families of the scribes who lived at Jabez were the Tirathites, the Shimeathites, and Suchathites. These are the Kenites who came from Hemath, the father of the house of Rechab.

CHAPTER 3

<sup>1</sup>And these were the sons of David, who were born to him in Hebron. The first-born, Amnon, of Ahinoam of Jezreel. The second, Daniel, of Abigail of Carmel.<sup>2</sup>The third, Absalom the son of Maachah the daughter of Talmi king of Geshur. The fourth, Adonijah the son of Haggith.<sup>3</sup>The fifth, Shephatiah of Abital. The sixth was Ithream by Eglah his wife.<sup>4</sup>These six were born to him in Hebron. And there he reigned seven years and six months. And he reigned in Jerusalem thirty-three years.<sup>5</sup>And these were born to him in Jerusalem Shimea, and Shobab, and Nathan, and Solomon, four of Bathsheba the daughter of Ammiel<sup>6</sup> and Ibhar, and Elishama, and Eliphelet,<sup>7</sup> and Nogah, and Nepheg, and Japhia,<sup>8</sup> and Elishama, and Eliada, and Eliphelet, nine.<sup>9</sup>These were all the sons of David, besides the sons of the concubines, and Tamar their sister.

<sup>17</sup>And the sons of Jeconiah: Assir, and Shealtiel his son,<sup>18</sup> and Malchiram, and Pediah, and Shenazar, Jecamiah, Hoshama, and Nedeiah.<sup>19</sup>And the sons of Pedaiah: Zerubbabel and Shimei. And the sons of Zerubbabel: Meshullam and Hananiah, and Shelomith their sister,<sup>20</sup> and Hashubah, and Ohel, and Berechah, and Hasadiah, Jushab-hesed, five.<sup>21</sup>And the sons of Hananiah: Pelahah, and Jesaiah, the sons of Rephaiah, the sons of Aman, the sons of Obadiah, the sons of Shechaniah.<sup>22</sup>And the son of Shechaniah: Shemaiah. And the sons of Shemaiah: Hattush, and Igeal, and Bariah, and Neariah, and Shaphat, six.<sup>23</sup>And the sons of Neariah were Elioenai, and Hezekiah, and Azrikam, three.<sup>24</sup>And the sons of Elioenai: Hodaiah, and Eliashib, and Pelaiah, and Akkub, and Johanan, and Delaiah, and Anani, seven.

CHAPTER 4

<sup>1</sup>The sons of Judah were Pharez, Hezron, and Carmi, and Hur, and Shobal. <sup>2</sup>And Realah the son of Shobal fathered Jahath. And Jahath fathered Ahumai, and Lahad. These are the families of the Zorathites. <sup>3</sup>And these were of the father of Etam: Jezreel, and Ishma, and Idbash, and the name of their sister was Hazeleponi <sup>4</sup>and Penuel the father of Gedor, and Ezer the father of Hushah. These are the sons of Hur, the first-born of Ephratah, the father of Bethlehem. <sup>5</sup>And Ashur the father of Tekoa had two wives, Helah and Naarah. <sup>6</sup>And Naarah bore him Ahuzam, and Hopher, and Temeni, and Haahashtari. These were the sons of Naarah. <sup>7</sup>And the sons of Helah: Zereth, and Jezoar, and Ethnan. <sup>8</sup>And Coz fathered Anub, and Zobebah, and the families Aharhel, the son of Harum.

<sup>9</sup>And Jabez was more honorable than his brothers. And his mother called his name Jabez, saying, Because I bore him with sorrow. <sup>10</sup>And Jabez called on the God of Israel, saying, Oh that You would bless me indeed, and make my border larger, and that Thy hand might be with me, and that You would keep me from evil, so that it may not grieve me! And God granted him that which he asked.

<sup>11</sup>And Chelub the brother of Shuah fathered Mahir; he was the father of Eshton. <sup>12</sup>And Eshton fathered Bethrapha, and Paseah, and Tehinnah, the father of Irnahash. These are the men of Rechah. <sup>13</sup>And the sons of Kenaz: Othniel and Seraiah. And the son of Othniel was Hathath. <sup>14</sup>And Meonothal fathered Ophrah. And Seraiah fathered Joab, the father of the Valley of the Craftsmen. For they were craftsmen. <sup>15</sup>And the sons of Caleb the son of Jephunneh: Iru, Elah, and Naam. And the son of Elah was Kenaz. <sup>16</sup>And the sons of Jehaleleel: Ziph, and Ziphah, Tiria, and Asareel. <sup>17</sup>And the sons of Ezra: Jether, and Mered, and Ephraim, and Jalon. And she bore Miriam and Shammai, and Ishbah, Estemoa's father. <sup>18</sup>And his wife Jehudijah bore Jered the father of Gedor, and Heber the father of Socho, and Jekuthiel the father of Zanoah. And these are the sons of Bithiah the daughter of Pharaoh, whom Mered took. <sup>19</sup>And the sons of his wife were Hodiah the sister of Naham, the father of Keliah the Carmite, and Eshtemoa the Maachathite. <sup>20</sup>And the sons of Shiman: Amnon, and Rinnah, Ben-hanan, and Tilon. And the sons of Ishi: Zoheth and Ben-zoheth.

<sup>21</sup>The sons of Shelah the son of Judah: Er the father of Lecah, and Laadah the father of Mareshah, and the families of the house of those who worked fine linen, from the house of Ashbea, <sup>22</sup>and Jokim, and the men of Chozeba, and Joash, and Saraph, who had the rule over Moab, and Jeshubi-lehem. And these are ancient things. <sup>23</sup>These were the potters and those who lived among plants and hedges. They lived there with the king for his work.

<sup>24</sup>The sons of Simeon: Nemuel, and Jamin, Jarib, Zerach, Shaul, <sup>25</sup>Shallum his son, Mibsam his son, Mishma his son. <sup>26</sup>And the sons of Mishma: Hamuel his son, Zacchur his son, Shimei his son. <sup>27</sup>And Shimei had sixteen sons and six daughters. But his brothers did not have many sons, and all their family did not multiply like the sons of Judah. <sup>28</sup>And they lived at Beer-sheba, and Moladah, and Hazar-shual, <sup>29</sup>and at Bilhah, and at Ezem, and at Tolad, <sup>30</sup>and at Bethuel, and at Hormah, and at Ziklag, <sup>31</sup>and at Beth-marcaboth, and Hazar-susim, and at Beth-birei, and at Shaaraim. These were their cities until the reign of David. <sup>32</sup>And their villages were Etam, and Ain, Rimmon, and Tochen, and Ashan, five cities, <sup>33</sup>and all their villages were around these cities, to Baal. These were their homes and their family line. <sup>34</sup>And Meshobab, and Jamlech, and Joshah the son of Amaziah, <sup>35</sup>and Joel, and Jehu the son of Josibiah, the son of Seraiah, the son of Asiel, <sup>36</sup>and Elieonai, and Jaakobah, and Jeshohaiah, and Asaiah, and Adiel, and Jesimiel, and Benaiah, <sup>37</sup>and Ziza the son of Shiphi, the son of Allon, the son of Jedaiah, the son of Shimri, the son of Shemaiah.<sup>30</sup> These going by name were rulers in their families. And the house of their fathers increased greatly.

<sup>39</sup>And they went to the entrance of Gedar, to the east side of the valley, to look for pasture for their flocks. <sup>40</sup>And they found fertile and good pasture, for the land was wide and quiet and peaceable. For some of the sons of Ham had lived there of old. <sup>41</sup>And these written by name came in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah, and struck their tents, and the homes that were found there, and completely destroyed them until this day, and lived in their places, because there was pasture there for their flocks. <sup>42</sup>And some of them, of the sons of Simeon, five hundred men went to Mount Seir, having for their captains Pelatiah, and Neariah, and Rephaiah, and Uzziel, the sons of Ishi. <sup>43</sup>And they struck the rest which escaped to Amalek, and lived there until this day.

CHAPTER 5

<sup>1</sup>And the sons of Reuben, the first-born of Israel (for he was the first-born; but since he defiled his father's bed, his birthright was given to the sons of Joseph the son of Israel, and the genealogy is not to be counted according to the birthright; <sup>2</sup>For Judah prevailed among his brothers, and from him came the chief ruler, but the birthright was Joseph's); <sup>3</sup>the sons of Reuben the first-born of Israel: Hanoch, and Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi. <sup>4</sup>The sons of Joel: Shemaiah his son, Gog his son, Shimei his son, <sup>5</sup>Micah his son, Reaiah his son, Baal his son, <sup>6</sup>Beerah his son, whom Tilgath-pilneser king of Assyria carried away. He was ruler of the men of Reuben. <sup>7</sup>And his brothers by their families, in the genealogy of their generations: Jeiel the chief, and Zechariah, <sup>8</sup>and Bela the son of Azaz, the son of Shema, the son of Joel, who lived in Aroer, even to Nebo and Baal-meon. <sup>9</sup>And he lived as far to the east as the entrance of the wilderness from the river Euphrates, because their cattle were multiplied in the land of Gilead. <sup>10</sup>And in the days of Saul they made war with the Hagarites, who fell by their hand. And they lived in their tents throughout all the eastland of Gilead.

<sup>11</sup>And the sons of Gad lived opposite them, in the land of Bashan to Salchah <sup>12</sup>Joel the chief, and Shapham the next, and Jaanai, and Shaphat in Bashan. <sup>13</sup>And their brothers from the house of their fathers: Michael, and Meshullam, and Sheba, and Jorai, and Jachan, and Zia, and Heber, seven. <sup>14</sup>These are the sons of Abihail the son of Huri, the son of Jaroah, the son of Gilead, the son of Michael, the son of Jeshishai, the son of Jahdo, the son of Buz, <sup>15</sup>Ahi the son of Abdiel, the son of Guni, chief of the house of their fathers. <sup>16</sup>And they lived in Gilead in Bashan, and in her towns, and in all the suburbs of Sharon, on their borders. <sup>17</sup>All these were counted by genealogies in the days of Jotham king of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam king of Israel.

<sup>18</sup>The sons of Reuben, and the sons of Gad, and half the tribe of Manasseh, (sons of valor, men lifting up shield and sword, and to shoot with bow, and skillful in war), were forty-four thousand, seven hundred and sixty who went out to the war. <sup>19</sup>And they made war with the Hagarites, with Jetur, and Nephish, and Nodab. <sup>20</sup>And they were helped against them, and the Hagarites were delivered into their hand, and all who were with them. For they cried to God in the battle, and He was pleased to hear them, because they put their trust in Him. <sup>21</sup>And they took away their cattle: of their camels, fifty thousand; and of sheep, two hundred fifty thousand, and of asses two thousand, and of men a hundred thousand. <sup>22</sup>For many fell down slain, because the war was of God. And they lived in their places until the captivity.

<sup>23</sup>And the sons of the half tribe of Manasseh lived in the land. They increased from Bashan to Baal-hermon and Senir, and to Mount Hermon. <sup>24</sup>And these were the heads of the house of their fathers, even Ephraim, and Ishi, and Eliel, and Azriel, and Jeremiah, and Hodaviah, and Jahdiel, mighty men of war, famous men, heads of the house of their fathers. <sup>25</sup>And they sinned against the God of their fathers, and went lusting after the gods of the people of the land, whom God destroyed before them. <sup>26</sup>And the God of Israel stirred up the spirit of Pul king of Assyria, and the spirit of Tilgath-pileser king of Assyria. And he exiled them, the people of Reuben and the people of Gad, and the half tribe of Manasseh, and brought them to Halah, and Habor, and Hara, and to the river Gozan, to this day.

<sup>1</sup>The sons of Levi: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari. <sup>2</sup>And the sons of Kohath: Amram, Izhar, and Hebron, and Uzziel. <sup>3</sup>And the sons of Amram: Aaron and Moses; and their sister Miriam. And the sons of Aaron: Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar. <sup>4</sup>Eleazar fathered Phinehas. Phinehas fathered Abishua. <sup>5</sup>And Abishua fathered Bukki. And Bukki fathered Uzzi. <sup>6</sup>And Uzzi fathered Zerariah. And Zerariah fathered Meraioth. <sup>7</sup>Meraioth fathered Amariah. And Amariah fathered Ahitub. <sup>8</sup>And Ahitub fathered Zadok. And Zadok fathered Ahimaaz. <sup>9</sup>And Ahimaaz fathered Azariah. And Azariah fathered Johanan. <sup>10</sup>And Johanan fathered Azariah — he who acted in the priest's office in the temple that Solomon built in Jerusalem. <sup>11</sup>And Azariah fathered Amariah. And Amariah fathered Ahitub. <sup>12</sup>And Ahitub fathered Zadok. And Zadok fathered Shallum. <sup>13</sup>And Shallum fathered Hilkiyah. And Hilkiyah fathered Azariah. <sup>14</sup>And Azariah fathered Seraiah. And Seraiah fathered Jehozadak. <sup>15</sup>And Jehozadak went away when the LORD exiled Judah and Jerusalem by the hand of Nebuchadnezzar.

<sup>16</sup>The sons of Levi: Gershon, Kohath and Merari. <sup>17</sup>And these are the names of the sons of Gershon: Libni and Shimei. <sup>18</sup>And the sons of Kohath: Amram, and Izhar, and Hebron, and Uzziel. <sup>19</sup>The sons of Merari: Mahli and Mushi. And these are the families of the Levites according to their fathers. <sup>20</sup>The sons of Gershon: Libni his son, Jahath his son, Zimmah his son, <sup>21</sup>Joah his son, Iddo his son, Zerah his son, Jeaterai his son. <sup>22</sup>The sons of Kohath: Amminadab his son, Korah his son, Assir his son, <sup>23</sup>Elkanah his son, and Ebiasaph his son, and Assir his son, <sup>24</sup>Tahath his son, Uriel his son, Uzziyah his son, and Shaul his son. <sup>25</sup>And the sons of Elkanah: Amasai and Ahimoth. <sup>26</sup>Elkanah; the sons of Elkanah: Zophai his son, and Nahath his son, <sup>27</sup>Eliab his son, Jeroham his son, Elkanah his son. <sup>28</sup>And the sons of Samuel: Joel, Vashni, the first-born, and Abijah.

<sup>29</sup>The sons of Merari: Mahli, Libni his son, Shimei his son, Uzziyah his son, <sup>30</sup>Shimea his son, Haggiah his son, Asaiah his son. <sup>31</sup>And these are the men whom David set over the service of song in the house of the LORD, after the ark had rest. <sup>32</sup>And they ministered before the dwelling-place of the tabernacle of the congregation with singing, until Solomon had built the house of the LORD in Jerusalem. And they waited on their office according to their order. <sup>33</sup>And these are the ones who waited with their sons. Of the sons of the Kohathites: Heman a singer, the son of Joel, the son of Samuel, <sup>34</sup>the son of Elkanah, the son of Jeroham, the son of Ehel, the son of Toah, <sup>35</sup>the son of Zuph, the son of Elkanah, the son of Mahath, the son of Amasai, <sup>36</sup>the son of Elkanah, the son of Joel, the son of Azariah, the son of Zephaniah, <sup>37</sup>the son of Tahath, the son of Assir, the son of Ebiasaph, the son of Korah, <sup>38</sup>the son of Izhar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi, the son of Israel. <sup>39</sup>And his brother Asaph, who stood on his right hand, even Asaph the son of Berachiah, the son of Shimea, <sup>40</sup>the son of Michael, the son of Baaseiah, the son of Malchiah, <sup>41</sup>the son of Ethni, the son of Zerah, the son of Adaiyah, <sup>42</sup>the son of Ethan, the son of Zimmah, the son of Shimei, <sup>43</sup>the son of Jahath, the son of Gershon, the son of Levi. <sup>44</sup>And their brothers the sons of Merari stood on the left hand: Ethan the son of Kishi, the son of Abdi, the son of Malluch, <sup>45</sup>the son of Hashabiah, the son of Amaziah, the son of Hilkiyah, <sup>46</sup>the son of Amzi, the son of Bani, the son of Shamer, <sup>47</sup>the son of Mahli, the son of Mushi, the son of Merari, the son of Levi. <sup>48</sup>And their brothers, the Levites, were appointed for all kinds of service of the tabernacle of the house of God.

<sup>49</sup>But Aaron and his sons offered on the altar of the burnt offering, and on the altar of incense, and were appointed for all the work of the most holy place, and to make an atonement for Israel, according to all that Moses the servant of God had commanded. <sup>50</sup>And these are the sons of Aaron: Eleazar his son, Phinehas his son, Abishua his son, <sup>51</sup>Bukki his son, Uzzi his son, Zerariah his son, <sup>52</sup>Meraioth his son, Amariah his son, Ahitub his son, <sup>53</sup>Zadok his son, Ahimaz his son.

<sup>54</sup>And these are their dwelling-places throughout their camps, within their borders, of the sons of Aaron, of the families of the Kohathites, for the lot was theirs. <sup>55</sup>And they gave them Hebron in the land of Judah, and its suburbs all around it. <sup>56</sup>But the fields of the city, and its villages, they gave to Caleb the son of Jephunneh. <sup>57</sup>And to the sons of Aaron they gave the cities of Judah: Hebron, a city of refuge, and Libnah with its suburbs, and Jattir, and Eshtemoa with their suburbs, <sup>58</sup>and Hilen with its suburbs, Debir with its suburbs, <sup>59</sup>and Ashan with its suburbs, and Beth-shemesh with its suburbs. <sup>60</sup>And out of the tribe of Benjamin: Geba with its suburbs, and Alemeth with its suburbs, and Anathoth with its suburbs. All their cities throughout their families were thirteen cities.

<sup>61</sup>And to the sons of Kohath left of the family of that tribe, cities were given out of the half tribe, the half of Manasseh, by lot, ten cities. <sup>62</sup>And to the sons of Gershom throughout their families, out of the tribe of Issachar, and out of the tribe of Asher, and out of the tribe of Naphtali, and out of the tribe of Manasseh in Bashan, thirteen cities. <sup>63</sup>And to the sons of Merari were given by lot, throughout their families, out of the tribe of Reuben, and out of the tribe of Gad, and out of the tribe of Zebulun, twelve cities. <sup>64</sup>And the sons of Israel gave these cities to the Levites, with their suburbs. <sup>65</sup>And they gave these cities which are called by their names, out of the tribe of the sons of Judah, and out of the tribe of the sons of Simeon, and out of the tribe of the sons of Benjamin.

<sup>66</sup>And some of the families of the sons of Kohath had cities of their borders out of the tribe of Ephraim. <sup>67</sup>And they gave to them for the cities of refuge, Shechem in Mount Ephraim, with its suburbs, also Gezer with its suburbs, <sup>68</sup>and Jokmeam with its suburbs, and Beth-horan with its suburbs, <sup>69</sup>and Ajjalon with its suburbs, and Gath-rimmon with its suburbs. <sup>70</sup>And out of the half tribe of Manasseh they gave Aner with its suburbs, and Bileam with its suburbs, for the family of the rest of the sons of Kohath.

<sup>71</sup>To the sons of Gershom were given out of the family of the half tribe of Manasseh, Golan in Bashan with its suburbs, and Ashtaroth with its suburbs. <sup>72</sup>And out of the tribe of Issachar, Kedesh with its suburbs, Daberath with its suburbs, <sup>73</sup>and Ramoth with its suburbs, and Anem with its suburbs were given. <sup>74</sup>And out of the tribe of Asher they gave Mashai with its suburbs, and Abdan with its suburbs, <sup>75</sup>and Hukok with its suburbs, and Rehob with its suburbs. <sup>76</sup>And out of the tribe of Naphtali, Kedesh in Galilee with its suburbs, and Hammon with its suburbs, and Kirjath-aim with its suburbs.

<sup>77</sup>To the rest of the sons of Merari were given out of the tribe of Zebulun, Rimmon with its suburbs, Tabor with its suburbs. <sup>78</sup>And on the other side Jordan by Jericho, on the east side of Jordan they gave them out of the tribe of Reuben, Bezer in the wilderness, with its suburbs, and Jahzah with its suburbs, <sup>79</sup>and Kedemoth with its suburbs, and Mephaath with its suburbs. <sup>80</sup>And out of the tribe of Gad they gave Ramoth in Gilead with its suburbs, and Mahanaim with its suburbs, <sup>61</sup>and Heshbon with its suburbs, and Jazer with its suburbs.

CHAPTER 7

<sup>1</sup>And the sons of Issachar: Tola, and Puah, and Jashub, and Shimran, four. <sup>2</sup>And the sons of Tola: Uzzi, and Raphalah, and Jeriel, and Jahmai, and Jibsam, and Shemuel, heads of their fathers house — these to Tola, great men of might in their generations. Their number in the days of David was twenty-two thousand and six hundred. <sup>3</sup>And the son of Uzzi was Izrahiah. And the sons of Izrahiah: Michael, and Obadiah, and Joel, Ishiah, five. All of them chiefs. <sup>4</sup>And with them, by their generations, after the house of their fathers, were bands of soldiers for war, thirty-six thousand men. For they had many wives and sons. <sup>5</sup>And their brothers among all the families of Issachar were great men of might, being in all, by their genealogies, eighty-seven thousand.

<sup>6</sup>The sons of Benjamin: Bela, and Becher, and Jediael, three. <sup>7</sup>And the sons of Bela: Ezbon, and Uzzi, and Uzziel, and Jerimoth, and Iri, five heads of their fathers' house, mighty men of valor. And their genealogy, twenty-two thousand and thirty-four. <sup>8</sup>And the sons of Becher: Zemira, and Joash, and Eliezer, and Elioenai, and Omri, and Jerimoth, and Abiah, and Anathoth, and Alameth. All these were the sons of Becher. <sup>9</sup>And their genealogy by their generations, heads of their fathers' house, mighty men of valor, twenty thousand and two hundred. <sup>10</sup>And the son of Jediael was Bilhan. And the sons of Bilhan: Jeush, and Benjamin, and Ehud, and Chenaanah, and Zethan, and Tarshish, and Abishahar. <sup>11</sup>All these were the sons of Jediael, by the heads of their fathers, mighty men of valor, seventeen thousand and two hundred men, going out to war for battle. <sup>12</sup>And Shuppim, and Huppim, the sons of Ir, and Hushim, the sons of Aher. <sup>13</sup>The sons of Naphtali: Jahziel, and Guni, and Jezer, and Shallum, the sons of Bilhan.

<sup>14</sup>The sons of Manasseh: Ashriel, with whom Jaladah his Syrian concubine bore Machir the father of Gilead, <sup>15</sup>and Machir took a wife for Huppim and for Shuppim; and the name of his sister was Maachah. And the name of the second was Zelophehad. And Zelophehad had daughters. <sup>16</sup>And Maachah the wife of Machir bore a son, and she called his name Peresh. And the name of his brother was Sheresh, and his sons were Ulam and Rakem. <sup>17</sup>And the son of Ulam was Bedan. These were the sons of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh. <sup>18</sup>And his sister Hammoleketh bore Ishod, and Abiezer, and Mahalah. <sup>19</sup>And the sons of Shemida: Ahian, and Shechem, and Likhi, and Aniam.

<sup>20</sup>And the sons of Ephraim: Shuthelah, and Bered his son, and Tahath his son, and Eladah his son, and Tahath his son, <sup>21</sup>and Zabad his son, and Shuthelah his son, and Ezer, and Elead. And the men of Gath, natives in the land, killed them because they came down to take away their cattle. <sup>22</sup>And Ephraim their father mourned many days, and his brothers came to comfort him. <sup>23</sup>And he went in to his wife, and she conceived and bore a son, and he called his name Beriah, because it went evil with his house. <sup>24</sup>And his daughter was Sherah, who built Beth-horon the lower, and the upper, and Uzzen-sherah. <sup>25</sup>And Rephah was his son, also Resheph, and Telah his son, and Tahan his son, <sup>26</sup>Laadan his son, Ammihud his son, Elishama his son, <sup>27</sup>Non his son; Jehoshua his son. <sup>28</sup>And their possessions and habitations: Bethel and its towns, and eastward to Naaran, and westward to Gezer, with its towns; and Shechem and its towns, to Gaza and its towns. <sup>29</sup>And by the borders of the sons of Manasseh their possessions were Beth-shean and its towns, Taanach and its towns, Megiddo and its towns, Dor and its towns. In these lived the sons of Joseph, the son of Israel.

<sup>30</sup>The sons of Asher: Imnah, and Ishuah, and Ishuai, and Beriab; and Serah their sister. <sup>31</sup>And the sons of Beriab: Heber, and Malchiel; he is the father of Birzavith. <sup>32</sup>And Heber fathered Japhlet, and Shomer, and Hotham, and Shua their sister. <sup>33</sup>And the sons of Japhlet: Pasach, and Bimhal, and Ashvath. These are the sons of Japhlet. <sup>34</sup>And the sons of Shamer: Ahi, and Rohgah, Jehubbah, and Aram. <sup>35</sup>And the sons of his brother Helem: Zophah, and Imna, and Shelesh, and Amal. <sup>36</sup>The sons of Zophah: Suah, and Hamepher, and Shual, and Beri, and Imrah, <sup>37</sup>Bezer, and Hod, and Shamma, and Shilshah, and Ithran, and Beera. <sup>38</sup>And the sons of Jether: Jephunneh, and Pispah, and Ara. <sup>39</sup>And the sons of Ulla: Arah, and Haniel, and Rizia. <sup>40</sup>All these were the sons of Asher, heads of their fathers' house, choice, mighty warriors, heads of the rulers. And their enrollment in the warfare in the battle, their number was twenty-six thousand men.

<sup>1</sup>And Benjamin fathered Bela his first-born, Ashbel the second, and Aharah the third, <sup>2</sup>Nohah the fourth, and Rapha the fifth. <sup>3</sup>And the sons of Bela: Addar, and Gera, and Abihud, <sup>4</sup>and Abishua, and Naaman, and Ahoah, <sup>5</sup>and Gera, and Shephuphan, and Huram. <sup>6</sup>And these are the sons of Ehud, these are the heads of the fathers of the people of Geba; and they exiled them to Manahath. <sup>7</sup>And Naaman and Ahiah and Gera, he exiled them. And Ehud fathered Uzza and Ahihud. <sup>8</sup>And Shaharaim fathered sons in the land of Moab, after he had sent them away. Hushim and Baara were his wives. <sup>9</sup>And by his wife Hodesh, were Jobab, and Zibia, and Mesha, and Malcham, <sup>10</sup>and Jeuz, and Shachia, and Mirma. These were his sons, heads of the fathers. <sup>11</sup>And by Hushim he had Abitub, and Elpaal. <sup>12</sup>The sons of Elpaal were Eber, and Misham, and Shamed, who built Ono and Lod, with their towns. <sup>13</sup>And Beriab and Shema were heads of the fathers of the people of Aijalon, who drove away the people of Gath; <sup>14</sup>and Ahio, Shashak, and Jeremoth, <sup>15</sup>and Zebadiah, and Arad, and Ader, <sup>16</sup>and Michael, and Ispah, and Joha, the sons of Beriab. <sup>17</sup>And Zebadiah, and Meshullam, and Hezeki, and Heber, <sup>18</sup>Ishmerai also, and Jezliah, and Jobab were the sons of Elpaal. <sup>19</sup>And Jakim, and Zichri, and Zabdi, <sup>20</sup>and Elienai, and Zilthai, and Eliel, <sup>21</sup>and Adalah, and Beraiah, and Shimrath were the sons of Shimhi. <sup>22</sup>And Ishpan, and Heber, and Eliel, <sup>23</sup>and Abdan, and Zichri, and Hanan, <sup>24</sup>and Hananiah, and Elam, and Antothijah <sup>25</sup>and Iphedciah, and Penuel were the sons of Shashak. <sup>26</sup>And Shamsherai, and Shehariah, and Athaliah, <sup>27</sup>and Jaresiah, and Eliah, and Zichri were the sons of Jeroham. <sup>28</sup>These were heads of the fathers, by their generations, chiefs. These lived in Jerusalem.

<sup>29</sup>And at Gibeon lived the father of Gibeon, whose wife's name was Maachah. <sup>30</sup>And his first-born son was Abdan, and Zur, and Kish, and Baal, and Nadab, <sup>31</sup>and Gedor, and Ahio, and Zacher. <sup>32</sup>And Mikloth fathered Shimeah. And these also lived with their brothers in Jerusalem, across from them. <sup>33</sup>And Ner fathered Kish, and Kish fathered Saul. And Saul fathered Jonathan, and Malchishua and Abinadab, and Eshbaal. <sup>34</sup>And the son of Jonathan was Meribbaal. And Meribbaal fathered Micah. <sup>35</sup>And the sons of Micah: Pithan, and Melech, and Tarea, and Ahaz. <sup>36</sup>And Ahaz fathered Jehoadah. And Jehoadah fathered Alemeth, and Azmaveth, and Zimri. And Zimri fathered Moza. <sup>37</sup>And Moza fathered Binea; Rapha was his son, Eleasah his son, Azel his son. <sup>38</sup>And Azel had six sons, and these their names: Azrikam, Bocheru, and Ishmael, and Sheariah, and Obadiah, and Hanan. All these were the sons of Azel. <sup>39</sup>And the sons of Eshek his brother: Ulam his first-born; Jehush, the second; and Eliphelet, the third. <sup>40</sup>And the sons of Ulam were mighty men, archers, and had many sons, and sons' sons, a hundred and fifty. All these were the sons of Benjamin.

CHAPTER 9

<sup>1</sup>So all Israel enrolled themselves. And behold, they were written in the book of the kings of Israel. And Judah was exiled to Babylon for their sins.

<sup>2</sup>And the first people in their possessions in their cities were the Israelites, the priests, Levites, and the temple slaves. <sup>3</sup>And in Jerusalem lived of the sons of Judah, and of the sons of Benjamin, and of the sons of Ephraim, and Manasseh: <sup>4</sup>Uthal the son of Ammihud, the son of Omri, the son of Imri, the son of Bani, of the sons of Pharez the son of Judah. <sup>5</sup>And of the Shilonites, Asaiah the first-born and his sons. <sup>6</sup>And of the sons of Zerah, Jeuel, and their brothers, six hundred and ninety. <sup>7</sup>And of the sons of Benjamin, Sallu the son of Meshullam, the son of Hodaviah, the son of Hasenuah, <sup>8</sup>and Ibneiah the son of Jeroham, and Elah the son of Uzzi, the son of Michri, and Meshullam the son of Shephathiah, the son of Reuel, the son of Ibnijah, <sup>9</sup>and their brothers, according to their generations, nine hundred and fifty-six. All these men were chief of the fathers to their fathers' house.

<sup>10</sup>And of the priests, Jedaiah, and Jehoiarib, and Jachin, <sup>11</sup>and Azariah the son of Hilkiah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, the ruler of the house of God, <sup>12</sup>and Adalah the son of Jeroham, the son of Pashur, the son of Malchijah, and Maasai the son of Adiel, the son of Jahzerah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Meshillemith, the son of Immer, <sup>13</sup>and their brothers, heads of their fathers' house, seventeen hundred and sixty very able men for the work of the service of the house of God.

<sup>14</sup>And of the Levites: Shemaiah the son of Hasshub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, of the sons of Merari, <sup>15</sup>and Bakbakkar, Heresh, and Gallal, and Mattaniah the son of Micah, the son of Zichri, the son of Asaph, <sup>16</sup>and Obadiah the son of Shemaiah, the son of Gallal, the son of Jeduthun, and Berechiah the son of Asa, the son of Elkanah, who lived in the villages of the Netophathites. <sup>17</sup>And the gatekeepers were Shallum, and Akkub, and Talman, and Ahiman; and their brothers, Shallum was the chief. <sup>18</sup>And before they were at the king's gate eastward, they were gatekeepers in the companies of the sons of Levi. <sup>19</sup>And Shallum the son of Kore, the son of Ebiasaph, the son of Korah, and his brothers, of the house of his father, the Korahites, were over the work of the service, keepers of the gates of the tabernacle. And their fathers were over the army of the LORD, keepers of the entry. <sup>20</sup>And Phinehas the son of Eleazar was the ruler over them in time past, and the LORD was with him. <sup>21</sup>Zechariah the son of Meshelemiah was gatekeeper of the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. <sup>22</sup>All these chosen for gatekeepers in the gates were two hundred and twelve. These by their genealogies, in their villages, were the ones David and Samuel the seer ordained in their set office. <sup>23</sup>So they and their sons were over the gates of the house of the LORD, the house of the tabernacle, by wards. <sup>24</sup>The gatekeepers were to the four quarters, toward the east, west, north, and south. <sup>25</sup>And their brothers in their villages, were to come in for seven days from time to time with them. <sup>26</sup>For they were in faithfulness, the four chief gatekeepers; they were Levites, and were over the rooms, and over the treasuries of the house of God.

<sup>27</sup>And they lived around the house of God, because the duty was on them. And they were to open it morning by morning. <sup>28</sup>And certain of them were over the ministering vessels, that they should bring them in and out by count. <sup>29</sup>Some of them also were appointed to oversee the vessels and all the instruments of the sanctuary, and the fine flour, and the wine, and the oil, and the frankincense, and the spices. <sup>30</sup>And some of the sons of the priests made the ointment of the spices.

<sup>31</sup>And Mattithiah, one of the Levites, who was the first-born of Shallum the Korahite, was faithful over the work of the pans. <sup>32</sup>And others of the sons of the Kohathites, from among their brothers, were over the showbread, to prepare sabbath by sabbath. <sup>33</sup>And these were the singers, chief of the fathers of the Levites in the chambers, they were free of duty, for they were employed in that work day and night. <sup>34</sup>These chief fathers of the Levites were chief throughout their generations. These lived at Jerusalem.

<sup>35</sup>And Jehiel, the father of Gibeon, lived in Gibeon. His wife's name was Maachah. <sup>36</sup>And his first-born son was Abdan, then Zur, and Kish, and Baal, and Ner, and Nadab, <sup>37</sup>and Gedor, and Ahio, and Zechariah, and Mikloth. <sup>38</sup>And Mikloth fathered Shimeam. And they also dwelt with their brothers at Jerusalem, across from their brothers. <sup>39</sup>And Ner fathered Kish. And Kish fathered Saul. And Saul fathered Jonathan, and Malchishua, and Abinadab, and Eshbaal. <sup>40</sup>And the son of Jonathan was Meribbaal. And Meribbaal fathered Micah. <sup>41</sup>And the sons of Micah: Pithon, and Melech, and Tahrea, and Ahaz; <sup>42</sup>and Ahaz; fathered Jarah. And Jarah fathered Alemeth, and Azmaveth, and Zimri. And Zimri fathered Moza. <sup>43</sup>And Moza fathered Binea; and Rephaiah was his son; Eleasah, his son; Azel his son. <sup>44</sup>And to Azel were six sons, and these their names: Azrikam, Bacheru, and Ishmael, and Sheariah, and Obadiah, and Hanan. These were the sons of Azel.

CHAPTER 10

<sup>1</sup>And the Philistines fought with Israel. And the men of Israel fled from the face of the Philistines, and fell down dead in Mount Gilboa. <sup>2</sup>And the Philistines followed hard after Saul and after his sons. And the Philistines killed Jonathan and Abinadab, and Malchishua, the sons of Saul. <sup>3</sup>And the battle went sorely against Saul. And the archers hit him, and he was wounded by the archers. <sup>4</sup>And Saul said to his armor-bearer, Draw your sword and pierce me with it, lest these uncircumcised ones come and abuse me. But his armor-bearer would not, for he was very much afraid. So Saul took a sword and fell on it. <sup>5</sup>And his armor-bearer saw that Saul was dead, and he also fell on the sword and died. <sup>6</sup>And Saul and his three sons died, and all his house died together. <sup>7</sup>And all the men of Israel in the valley saw that they fled, and that Saul and his sons had died. And they left their cities and fled. And the Philistines came and lived in them.

<sup>8</sup>And it happened on the next day, when the Philistines came to strip the dead, and they found Saul and his sons fallen in Mount Gilboa. <sup>9</sup>And they stripped him, and carried his head and his armor, and sent into the land of the Philistines all around, to carry news to their idols and to the people. <sup>10</sup>And they put his armor in the house of their gods, and fastened his skull in the temple of Dagon.

<sup>11</sup>And all Jabesh-gilead heard all that the Philistines had done to Saul. <sup>12</sup>And all the mighty men arose and took away the body of Saul, and the bodies of his sons, and brought them to Jabesh. And they buried their bones under the oak in Jabesh, and fasted seven days. <sup>13</sup>And Saul died for his sin which he committed against the LORD, against the word of the LORD, which he did not keep, and also for seeking of a medium, to inquire, and <sup>14</sup>inquired not of the LORD. And He killed him and turned the kingdom to David the son of Jesse.

CHAPTER 11

<sup>1</sup>And all Israel gathered to David, to Hebron, saying, Behold, we are your bone and your flesh. <sup>2</sup>And also in time past, even when Saul was king, you were the one who led out and brought in Israel. And the LORD your God said to you, You shall feed My people Israel, and you shall be ruler over My people Israel. <sup>3</sup>And all the elders of Israel came to the king to Hebron. And David made a covenant with them in Hebron before the LORD. And they anointed David king over Israel, according to the word of the LORD by Samuel.

<sup>4</sup>And David and all Israel went to Jerusalem, which is Jebus, where the Jebusites were the people of the land. <sup>5</sup>And the people of Jebus said to David, You shall not come in here. But David took the stronghold of Zion, which is the city of David. <sup>6</sup>And David said, Whoever strikes the Jebusites first shall be chief and captain. And Joab the son of Zeruiah went up first and was chief. <sup>7</sup>And David lived in the stronghold. Therefore they called it the city of David. <sup>8</sup>And he built the city all around, even from Millo all around. And Joab repaired the rest of the city. <sup>9</sup>And David became greater and greater, for the LORD of hosts was with him.

<sup>10</sup>And these were the chief of the mighty men whom David had, making themselves strong with him in his kingdom, with all Israel to make him king, according to the word of the LORD concerning Israel. <sup>11</sup>And this is the number of the mighty men whom David had: Jashobeam, a Hachmonite, the chief of the captains. He lifted up his spear against three hundred, who were killed by him at one time. <sup>12</sup>And after him was Eleazar the son of Dodo, the Ahohite, he was one of the three mighties. <sup>13</sup>He was with David at Pasdammim. And there the Philistines were gathered together to battle and a portion of the field was full of barley. And the people fled from before the Philistines. <sup>14</sup>And they set themselves in the midst of that place, and delivered it, and killed the Philistines. And the LORD saved them by a great deliverance.

<sup>15</sup>And three of the mighty captains went down to the rock to David, into the cave of Adullam. And the Philistine army camped in the Valley of the Giants. <sup>16</sup>And David was then in the stronghold, and the Philistines garrison was then at Bethlehem. <sup>17</sup>And David longed and said, Oh that someone would give me drink from the water of the well of Bethlehem, which was by the gate! <sup>18</sup>And the three broke through the Philistine army and drew water out of the well of Bethlehem by the gate, and took it, and brought it to David. But David would not drink of it, but poured it out to the LORD. <sup>19</sup>And he said, May my God forbid me to do this thing. Shall I drink the blood of these men who have put their lives in danger? For they brought it with their lives. And he was not willing to drink it. These three mighty ones did these things.

<sup>20</sup>And Abishai the brother of Joab was chief of the three. For lifting up his spear against three hundred, he killed them, and had a name among the three. <sup>21</sup>Of the three, he was more honorable than the two for he was their captain. However, he did not attain the first three. <sup>22</sup>Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, the son of a mighty man of Kabzeel, had done many acts. He killed two lion-like men of Moab. He also went down and killed a lion in a pit on a snowy day. <sup>23</sup>And he killed an Egyptian, a man of great stature, five cubits high. And in the Egyptian's hand was a spear like a weaver's beam. And he went down to him with a staff and wrenched the spear out of the Egyptians hand, and killed him with his own spear. <sup>24</sup>These things Benaiah the son of Jehoiada did, and had the name among the three mighty ones. <sup>25</sup>Behold, he was honorable among the thirty, but did not attain the first three. And David set him over his court.

Jonathan the son of Shage the Hararite, <sup>35</sup>Ahiam the son of Sacar the Hararite, Eliphal the son of Ur, <sup>36</sup>Hepher the Mecherathite, Ahijah the Pelonite, <sup>37</sup>Hezro of Carmel, Naarai the son of Ezbal, <sup>38</sup>Joel the brother of Nathan, Mibhar the son of Haggeri, <sup>39</sup>Zelek the Ammonite, Naharai the Berothite, the armor-bearer of Joab the son of Zeruiah, <sup>40</sup>Ira the Ithrite, Gareb the Ithrite, <sup>41</sup>Uriah the Hittite, Zabab the son of Ahlai, <sup>42</sup>Adina the son of Shiza the Reubenite, a captain of the Reubenites, and thirty with him, <sup>43</sup>Hanan the son of Maachah, and Joshaphat the Mithnite, <sup>44</sup>Uzzia the Ashterathite, Shama and Jehiel the sons of Hothan the Aroerite, <sup>45</sup>Jediael the son of Shimri, and Joha his brother, the Tizite, <sup>46</sup>Eliel the Mahavite, and Jereibai, and Joshaviah, sons of Elnaam, and Ithma the Moabite, <sup>47</sup>Eliel, and Obed, and Jasiel the Mezobaite.

CHAPTER 12

<sup>1</sup>And these were the ones who came to David to Ziklag, while he was banned from the face of Saul the son of Kish. And they were among the mighty men, helpers of the war, <sup>2</sup>right and left-handed, armed with bows, with stones, and with arrows, with the bow from the brothers of Saul, of Benjamin <sup>3</sup>The chief was Ahiezer, and Joash, the sons of Shemaah the Gibeathite, and Jeziel, and Pelet, the sons of Azmaveth, and Berachah, and Jehu of Anathoth <sup>4</sup>and Ismaiah the Gibeonite, a mighty man among the thirty, and over the thirty, and Jeremiah, and Jahaziel, and Johanan, and Jasabad the Gederathite, <sup>5</sup>Eluzai, and Jerimoth, and Bealiah, and Shemariah, and Shephatiah the Haruphite, <sup>6</sup>Elkanah, and Jesiah, and Azarel, and Joezer, and Jashobeam, the Korhites, <sup>7</sup>and Joelah, and Zebadiah, the sons of Jeroham of Gedor. <sup>8</sup>And of the Gadites mighty men separated themselves to David into the stronghold in the wilderness, men of the army for battle, setting in order shield and buckler, and their faces were the faces of a lion, and as gazelles on the heights for swiftness: <sup>9</sup>Ezer the first, Obadiah the second, Ehab the third, <sup>10</sup>Mishmannah the fourth, Jeremiah the fifth, <sup>11</sup>Attai the sixth, Eliel the seventh, <sup>12</sup>Johanan the eighth, Elzabad the ninth, <sup>13</sup>Jeremiah the tenth, Machbanai the eleventh. <sup>14</sup>These were the sons of Gad, captains of the army. One of the least was over a hundred, and the greatest over a thousand. <sup>15</sup>These were they who went over Jordan in the first month, when it had overflowed all its banks. And they put all those of the valleys to flight, toward the east and toward the west.

<sup>16</sup>And some of the sons of Benjamin and Judah came to the stronghold to David. <sup>17</sup>And David went out to meet them, and answered and said to them, If you have come to me in peace, to help me, my heart shall be knit to you. But if you come to betray me to my enemies, since there is no wrong in my hands, let the God of our fathers look on it and rebuke it. <sup>18</sup>And the Spirit came on Amasai, chief of the captains. And he said, We are yours, David, and on your side, son of Jesse. Peace, peace be on you, and peace on your helpers. For your God has helped you. And David received them and made them captains of the band.

<sup>19</sup>And some from Manasseh fell to David when he came with the Philistines to battle against Saul. (But they did not help them. For the lords of the Philistines sent him away on advice, saying, He will fall to his master Saul with our heads.)

<sup>20</sup>As he went to Ziklag, there fell to him these from Manasseh, Adnah, and Jozabad, and Jediael, and Michael, and Jozabad, and Elihu, and Zillethai, captains of the thousands who were from Manasseh. <sup>21</sup>And they helped David against the band, for they were all mighty men of power, and were captains in the army. <sup>22</sup>For at that time there came many to David day by day to help him, until it was a great army, like an army of God.

<sup>23</sup>And these were the numbers of the chiefs of those armed for war who came to David to Hebron, to turn the kingdom of Saul to him, according to the word of the Lord. <sup>24</sup>The sons of Judah bearing shield and spear were six thousand and eight hundred, armed for war. <sup>25</sup>From the sons of Simeon the mighty men of power for the war, seven thousand and one hundred. <sup>26</sup>From the sons of Levi were four thousand and six hundred. <sup>27</sup>And Jehoiada was the leader of the Aaronites, and with him were three thousand and seven hundred. <sup>28</sup>And Zadok, a young man mighty in power, and of his fathers' house were twenty-two captains. <sup>29</sup>And the sons of Benjamin, the kindred of Saul were three thousand. And before, the most of them had kept their allegiance to the house of Saul. <sup>30</sup>And of the sons of Ephraim were twenty thousand and eight hundred, mighty men of valor, famous throughout the house of their fathers. <sup>31</sup>And from the half tribe of Manasseh were eighteen thousand, who were chosen by name to come and make David king. <sup>32</sup>And from the sons of Issachar, men who had understanding of the times, to know what Israel ought to do, the heads of them were two hundred. And all their brothers were at their command. <sup>33</sup>From Zebulun, such as went forth to battle, expert in war, with all the weapons of war, fifty thousand who could keep rank. They were not of a double heart. <sup>34</sup>And from Naphtali, a thousand captains; and with them with shield and spear were thirty-seven thousand. <sup>35</sup>And of the Danites, expert in war, were twenty-eight thousand, six hundred. <sup>36</sup>And of Asher, going out to the army to set in order the battle were forty thousand. <sup>37</sup>And on the other side of Jordan, from the Reubenites, and of the Gadites, and from the half tribe of Manasseh, with all of the weapons of war for battle were a hundred and twenty thousand. <sup>38</sup>All these were men of war, keeping rank, they came with a perfect heart to Hebron, to make David king over Israel. And also all the rest of Israel was of one heart to make David king. <sup>39</sup>And they were with David three days, eating and drinking. For their brothers had prepared food for them. <sup>40</sup>And also those who were near them, even to Issachar and Zebulun and Naphtali, brought bread on asses, and on camels, and on mules, and on oxen. And they brought food, meal, cakes of figs and bunches of raisins, and wine and oil, and oxen and sheep abundantly. For there was joy in Israel.

CHAPTER 13

<sup>1</sup>And David consulted with the captains of thousands and hundreds, with every leader. <sup>2</sup>And David said to all the congregation of Israel, If it is good to you, and if it has broken forth from the LORD our God, let us send to our brothers, those remaining in all the lands of Israel, and with them to the priests and Levites in their cities that they be gathered to us. <sup>3</sup>And let us bring again the ark of our God to us. For we did not inquire at it in the days of Saul. <sup>4</sup>And all the congregation said to do so, for the thing was right in the eyes of all the people. <sup>5</sup>And David gathered all Israel together, from Shihor of Egypt even to the entering of Hamath, to bring the ark of God from Kirjath-jearim. <sup>6</sup>And David and all Israel went up to Baalah, to Kirjath-jearim of Judah, to bring up from there the ark of God the LORD, He who dwells between the cherubs, whose name is called on it. <sup>7</sup>And they carried the ark of God in a new cart out of the house of Abinadab. And Uzza and Ahio led the cart. <sup>8</sup>And David and all Israel played before God with all their might, and with singing, and with lyres, and with harps, and with timbrels, and with cymbals, and with trumpets. <sup>9</sup>And when they came to the threshing-floor of Chidon, Uzza put out his hand to hold the ark for the oxen stumbled. <sup>10</sup>And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Uzza, and He struck him because he put his hand to the ark. And he died there before the LORD. <sup>11</sup>And David was displeased because the LORD had made a break on Uzza. And he called that place The Breach of Uzza to this day. <sup>12</sup>And David was afraid of God that day, saying, How shall I bring the ark of God to me? <sup>13</sup>And David did not bring the ark to himself to the city of David, but carried it aside into the house of Obed-edom the Gittite. <sup>14</sup>And the ark of God remained with the family of Obed-edom in his house three months. And the LORD blessed the house of Obed-edom and all that he had.

CHAPTER 14

<sup>1</sup>And Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and timbers of cedars, with masons and carpenters, to build him a house. <sup>2</sup>And David saw that the LORD had confirmed him king over Israel, for his kingdom was lifted on high, because of His people Israel.

<sup>3</sup>And David took more wives at Jerusalem. And David fathered more sons and daughters. <sup>4</sup>And these were the names of his children whom he had in Jerusalem: Shammua, and Shobab, Nathan, and Solomon, <sup>5</sup>and I Bhar, and Elishua, and Elpalet, <sup>6</sup>and Nogah, and Nepheg, and Japhia, <sup>7</sup>and Elishama, and Beeliada, and Eliphalet.

<sup>8</sup>And the Philistines heard that David was anointed king over all Israel, and all the Philistines went up to seek David. And David heard, and went out against them. <sup>9</sup>And the Philistines came and spread themselves in the Valley of the Giants. <sup>10</sup>And David asked of God, saying, Shall I go up against the Philistines? And will You deliver them into my hand? And the LORD said to him, Go up, for I will deliver them into your hand. <sup>11</sup>And they came up to Baal-perazim. And David struck them there. Then David said, God has broken in on my enemies by my hand like the breaking forth of waters. Therefore they called the name of that place The Breaking of Baal. <sup>12</sup>And they left their gods there. And David commanded, and they were burned with fire.

<sup>13</sup>And the Philistines still again made a raid in the valley. <sup>14</sup>And David asked again of God. And God said to him, Do not go up after them. Turn away from them, and come on them over against the weeping trees. <sup>15</sup>And it shall be, when you hear a sound of marching in the tops of the weeping trees, then you shall go out to battle. For God has gone forth before you to strike the army of the Philistines. <sup>16</sup>And David did as God commanded him. And they struck the army of the Philistines from Gibeon to Gezer. <sup>17</sup>And the name of David went out into all lands. And the LORD brought the fear of him on all nations.

CHAPTER 15

<sup>1</sup>And David made houses for himself in the city of David, and prepared a place for the ark of God, and pitched a tent for it. <sup>2</sup>Then David said, No one ought to carry the ark of God except the Levites, for God has chosen them to carry the ark of God, and to minister to Him forever. <sup>3</sup>And David gathered all Israel together to Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the LORD to its place which He had prepared for it. <sup>4</sup>And David gathered the sons of Aaron, and the Levites. <sup>5</sup>From the sons of Kohath: Uriel the chief, and a hundred and twenty of his brothers. <sup>6</sup>From the sons of Merari: Asaiah the chief, and two hundred and twenty of his brothers. <sup>7</sup>From the sons of Gershon: Joel the chief, and a hundred and thirty of his brothers. <sup>8</sup>From the sons of Elizaphan: Shemaiah the chief and two hundred of his brothers. <sup>9</sup>From the sons of Hebron: Eliel the chief and eighty of his brothers. <sup>10</sup>From the sons of Uzziel: Amminadab the chief and a hundred and twelve of his brothers.

<sup>11</sup>And David called for Zadok and Abiathar the priests, and for the Levites, for Uriel, Asaiah, and Joel, Shemaiah, and Eliel, and Amminadab. <sup>12</sup>And he said to them, You are the heads of the fathers of the Levites. Sanctify yourselves, you and your brothers, so that you may bring up the ark of the LORD God of Israel to the place which I have prepared for it. <sup>13</sup>For because you did not do it at the first, the LORD our God made a break on us, since we did not seek Him in due order. <sup>14</sup>And the priests and the Levites made themselves pure in order to bring up the ark of the LORD God of Israel. <sup>15</sup>And the sons of the Levites carried the ark of God on their shoulders, with the staves on it, as Moses commanded according to the word of the LORD. <sup>16</sup>And David spoke to the chief of the Levites to choose their brothers to be the singers with instruments of music, lyres, and harps, and cymbals, sounding by lifting the voice with joy.

<sup>17</sup>And the Levites chose Heman the son of Joel, and of his brothers, Asaph the son of Berechiah. And from the sons of Merari their brothers, was Ethan the son of Kashaiah. <sup>18</sup>And with them were their brothers of the second degree, Zechariah, Ben, and Jaaziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unni, Eliab, and Benaiah, and Maaseiah, and Mattithiah, and Elipheleh, and Mikneiah, and Obed-edom, and Jeiel, the gatekeepers. <sup>19</sup>And the singers, Heman, Asaph, and Ethan were chosen to sound with cymbals of brass <sup>20</sup>and Zechariah, and Aziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unni, and Eliab, and Maaseiah, and Benaiah, with harps on Alamoth. <sup>21</sup>And Mattithiah, and Elipheleh, and Mikneiah, and Obed-edom, and Jeiel, and Azaziah, were to lead with lyres on the Sheminith. <sup>22</sup>And Chenaniah, chief of the Levites, was for song. He instructed about the song, because he was skillful. <sup>23</sup>And Berechiah and Elkanah were gatekeepers for the ark. <sup>24</sup>And Shebaniah, and Jehoshaphat, and Nethaneel, and Amasai, and Zechariah, and Benaiah, and Eliezer, the priests, blew with the trumpets before the ark of God. And Obed-edom and Jehiah were gatekeepers for the ark.

<sup>25</sup>And it happened, David and the elders of Israel, and the captains over thousands, went to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of the house of Obed-edom with joy. <sup>26</sup>And it happened as God helped the Levites who bore the ark of the covenant of the LORD, they offered seven bulls and seven rams. <sup>27</sup>And David was clothed with a robe of fine linen, and all the Levites who carried the ark, and the singers, and Chenaniah the master of the song with the singers. David also had on him an ephod of linen. <sup>28</sup>And all Israel brought up the ark of the covenant of the LORD with shouting, and with sound of the cornet, and with trumpets, and with cymbals, sounding aloud with harps and lyres.

<sup>29</sup>And it happened as the ark of the covenant of the LORD came to the city of David, Michal the daughter of Saul, looking out a window, saw king David dancing and playing. And she despised him in her heart.

CHAPTER 16

<sup>1</sup>And they brought the ark of God and set it in the middle of the tent which David had pitched for it. And they offered burnt sacrifices and peace offerings before God. <sup>2</sup>And when David had made an end of offering the burnt offering and the peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD. <sup>3</sup>And he divided to every one of Israel, both man and woman, to every one a loaf of bread and a portion, and a raisin cake. <sup>4</sup>And he appointed certain of the Levites to minister before the ark of the LORD, and to record, and to thank and praise the LORD God of Israel: <sup>5</sup>Asaph the chief, and next to him Zechariah, Jeiel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Mattithiah, and Eliab, and Benaiah, and Obed-edom. And Jeiel praised with instruments of harps and with lyres; and Asaph made a sound with cymbals. <sup>6</sup>Also Benaiah and Jahaziel the priests praised with trumpets continually before the ark of the covenant of God.

<sup>7</sup>Then on that day David first delivered this psalm into the hand of Asaph and his brothers in order to thank the LORD. <sup>8</sup>Give thanks to the LORD, call on His name, make known His deeds among the people. <sup>9</sup>Sing to Him, sing psalms to Him, talk of all His wondrous works. <sup>10</sup>Glory in His holy name, let the heart of those who seek the LORD rejoice. <sup>11</sup>Seek the LORD and His strength; seek His face continually. <sup>12</sup>Remember His marvelous works which He had done, His wonders, and the judgments of His mouth, <sup>13</sup>O seed of Israel His servant, sons of Jacob, His chosen ones. <sup>14</sup>He is the LORD our God. His judgments are in all the earth. <sup>15</sup>Be always mindful of His covenant, the word which He commanded to a thousand generations, <sup>16</sup>which He made with Abraham, and of His oath to Isaac. <sup>17</sup>And He has confirmed the saying to Jacob for a law, to Israel for an everlasting covenant, <sup>18</sup>saying, To you will I give the land of Canaan, the lot of your inheritance, <sup>19</sup>when you were but few, even a few, and strangers in it, <sup>20</sup>and they went from nation to nation, and from one kingdom to another people, <sup>21</sup>He did not allow any man to do them wrong. Yea, He reproveth kings for their sakes, <sup>22</sup>saying, Touch not My anointed, and do My prophets no harm.

<sup>23</sup>Sing to the LORD, all the earth. Show forth from day to day His salvation. <sup>24</sup>Declare His glory among the heathen, His marvelous works among all nations. <sup>25</sup>For great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised. He also is to be feared above all gods. <sup>26</sup>For all the gods of the peoples are idols, but the LORD made the heavens. <sup>27</sup>Glory and honor are in His presence, strength and gladness in His place. <sup>28</sup>Give to the LORD, O kindred of the people, give to the LORD glory and strength. <sup>29</sup>Give to the LORD the glory of His name; bring an offering and come before Him. Worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness. <sup>30</sup>Tremble before Him, all the earth. Yea, the earth is established, it shall not be moved. <sup>31</sup>Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice. And let them say among the nations, The LORD reigns. <sup>32</sup>Let the sea roar, and the fullness of it. Let the fields rejoice, and all that is in them. <sup>33</sup>Then shall the trees of the forest sing out at the presence of the LORD, because He comes to judge the earth. <sup>34</sup>O give thanks to the LORD, for He is good, for His mercy endures forever. <sup>35</sup>And say, Save us, O God of our salvation, and gather us, and deliver us from the nations, so that we may give thanks to Your holy name, and glory in Your praise. <sup>36</sup>Blessed be the LORD God of Israel forever and ever. And all the people said, Amen, and praised the LORD.

<sup>37</sup>And he left there before the ark of the covenant of the LORD, for Asaph and his brothers, to minister before the ark continually, as every day's work required; <sup>38</sup>also Obed-edom, with their brothers, sixty-eight; and Obed-edom, the son of Jeduthun and Hosah to be gatekeepers. <sup>39</sup>And he left Zadok the priest and his brothers the priests before the tabernacle of the LORD in the high place at Gibeon, <sup>40</sup>to offer burnt offerings to the LORD on the altar of the burnt offering morning and evening without end, and to do according to all that is written in the law of the LORD which He commanded Israel. <sup>41</sup>And he left with them Heman and Jeduthun, and the rest who were chosen, who were called by name, to give thanks to the LORD, because His mercy endures forever. <sup>42</sup>And with them were Heman and Jeduthun with trumpets and cymbals for those making a sound, and with musical instruments of God. And the sons of Jeduthun were gatekeepers.

<sup>43</sup>And all the people departed, each man to his house. And David returned to bless his house.

CHAPTER 17

<sup>1</sup>And it happened as David sat in his house, David said to Nathan the prophet, Lo, I dwell in a house of cedars, but the ark of the covenant of the LORD is under curtains. <sup>2</sup>And Nathan said to David, Do all that is in your heart, for God is with you. <sup>3</sup>And it happened the same night the word of God came to Nathan, saying, <sup>4</sup>Go and tell David My servant, So says the LORD, You shall not build Me a house to dwell in. <sup>5</sup>For I have not dwelt in a house since the day that I brought up Israel until today, but have gone from tent to tent, and from one tabernacle to another. <sup>6</sup>Wherever I have walked with all Israel, did I speak a word to any of the judges of Israel, whom I commanded to feed My people, saying, Why have you not built Me a house of cedars? <sup>7</sup>And now you shall say this to My servant David, So says the LORD of hosts, I took you from the pasture, from following the sheep, so that you should be ruler over My people Israel. <sup>8</sup>And I have been with you wherever you have walked, and have cut off all your enemies from before you, and have made you a name like the name of the great men in the earth. <sup>9</sup>And I will set a place for My people Israel, and will plant them, and they shall live in their place and shall be moved no more; nor shall the sons of wickedness waste them any more, as at the beginning, <sup>10</sup>and since the time that I commanded judges to be over My people Israel. And I will subdue all your enemies. And I declare to you that the LORD will build you a house. <sup>11</sup>And it will be, when your days have ended so that you must go to be with your fathers, I will raise up your seed after you, who shall be from your sons. And I will make his kingdom sure. <sup>12</sup>He shall build Me a house, and I will establish his throne forever. <sup>13</sup>I will be his Father, and he shall be My son. And I will not take My mercy away from him as I took it from him who was before you. <sup>14</sup>And I will settle him in My house, and in My kingdom forever. And his throne shall be established forever. <sup>15</sup>According to all these words, and according to all this vision, so Nathan spoke to David.

<sup>16</sup>And David the king came and sat before the LORD, and said, Who am I, O, LORD God, and what is my house, that You have brought me here? <sup>17</sup>And this was a small thing in Your eyes, O God, for You have also spoken of Your servant's house for a great while to come, and have regarded me according to the estate of a man of high degree, O LORD God. <sup>18</sup>What can David speak more to You for the honor of Your servant? For You know Your servant! <sup>19</sup>O LORD, for Your servant's sake, and according to Your own heart, You have done all this greatness, in making known all these great things. <sup>20</sup>O LORD, there is none like You, neither any God besides You, according to all that we have heard with our ears. <sup>21</sup>And what one nation in the earth is like Your people Israel, whom God went to redeem to be His own people, to make You a name of greatness and terribleness, by driving out nations from before Your people whom You have redeemed out of Egypt? <sup>22</sup>And You have chosen Your people Israel for Yourself, for a people forever. And You, LORD, became their God. <sup>23</sup>And now, O LORD, let the thing which You have spoken concerning Your servant and concerning his house be established forever, and do as You have said. <sup>24</sup>Let it even be established, so that Your name may be magnified forever, saying, The LORD of hosts is the God of Israel, a God to Israel. And let the house of David Your servant be established before You. <sup>25</sup>For You, O my God, have told Your servant that You will build him a house. Therefore Your servant has found in his heart to pray before You. <sup>26</sup>And now, LORD, You are God, and have promised this goodness to Your servant. <sup>27</sup>And now let it please You to bless the house of Your servant so that it may be before You forever. For You have blessed, O LORD, and it is blessed forever.

CHAPTER 18

Moab. And the people of Moab became David's servants and brought gifts.<sup>3</sup> And David struck Hadarezer king of Zobah to Hamath, as he went to establish his dominion by the river Euphrates.<sup>4</sup> And David took from him a thousand chariots and seven thousand horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen. David also hamstringed all the chariot horses, but kept from them a hundred chariots.<sup>5</sup> And when the Syrians of Damascus came to help Hadarezer king of Zobah, David killed twenty-two thousand men of the Syrians.<sup>6</sup> Then David placed men in Syria of Damascus. And the Syrians became David's servants, bringing gifts. And the LORD preserved David wherever he went.<sup>7</sup> And David took the shields of gold which were on the servants of Hadarezer, and brought them to Jerusalem.<sup>8</sup> And David brought very much bronze from Tibhath, and from Chun, cities of Hadarezer, with which Solomon made the bronze sea, and the pillars, and the vessels of bronze.

<sup>9</sup>And Tou king of Hamath heard that David had struck all the army of Hadarezer king of Zobah,<sup>10</sup> he sent Hadoram his son to king David to ask of his welfare, and to praise him because he had fought against Hadarezer and had beaten him. For Hadarezer had war with Tou. And he sent all kinds of vessels of gold and silver and bronze.<sup>11</sup> And king David dedicated them to the LORD, with the silver and the gold which he brought from all the nations, from Edom, and from Moab, and from the sons of Ammon, and from the Philistines, and from Amalek.<sup>12</sup> And Abishai the son of Zeruiah killed eighteen thousand of the men of Edom in the Valley of Salt.<sup>13</sup> And he put guards in Edom. And all the men of Edom became David's servants. And the LORD kept David safe wherever he went.

<sup>14</sup>And David reigned over all Israel, and did judgment and justice among all his people.<sup>15</sup> And Joab the son of Zeruiah was over the army. And Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was recorder.<sup>16</sup> And Zadok the son of Ahitub, and Abimelech the son of Abiathar were the priests. And Shavsha was scribe.<sup>17</sup> And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and the Pelethites. And the sons of David were first ones at the hand of the king.

CHAPTER 19

<sup>1</sup>And it happened after this, Nahash the king of the sons of Ammon died. And his son reigned in his place.<sup>2</sup> And David said, I will show kindness to Hanun the son of Nahash, because his father showed kindness to me. And David sent messengers to comfort him concerning his father. And David's servants came into the land of the sons of Ammon to Hanun, in order to comfort him.<sup>3</sup> But the rulers of the sons of Ammon said to Hanun, Is David honoring your father in your eyes, because he has sent comforters to you? Have not his servants come to you to search and to overthrow and to spy out the land? <sup>4</sup>And Hanun took David's servants and shaved them, and cut off their garments in half, to the buttocks, and sent them away.<sup>5</sup> And some came and told David how the men were treated. And he sent to meet them, for the men were greatly ashamed. And the king said, Stay at Jericho until your beards are grown, and then return.

<sup>6</sup>And the Ammonites saw that they had made themselves stink before David, and Hanun and the Ammonites sent a thousand talents of silver to hire chariots and horsemen out of Mesopotamia and out of Maachah of Syria, and out of Zobah.<sup>7</sup> And they hired thirty-two thousand chariots, and the king of Maachah and his people, who came and pitched before Medeba. And the Ammonites gathered themselves from their cities and came to battle.<sup>8</sup> And David heard, and he sent Joab and all the army of the mighty men.<sup>9</sup> And the sons of Ammon came out and put the battle in order before the gate of the city. And the kings who had come were by themselves in the field. <sup>10</sup>And Joab saw that the battle was set against him before and behind, and he chose out of all the choice young men of Israel and set in order against the Syrians. <sup>11</sup>And he delivered the rest of the people into the hand of his brother Abishai. And they set in order against the sons of Ammon. <sup>12</sup>And he said, If the Syrians are too strong for me, then you shall help me. But if the sons of Ammon are too strong for you, then I will help you. <sup>13</sup>Be of good courage and let us behave ourselves bravely for our people, and for the cities of our God. And let the LORD do what is good in His sight. <sup>14</sup>And Joab and the people with him drew near before the Syrians to the battle. And they fled before him. <sup>15</sup>And when the sons of Ammon saw that the Syrians had fled, they also fled before his brother Abishai. And they entered into the city. And Joab came to Jerusalem.

<sup>16</sup>And the Syrians saw that they were beaten before Israel, and sent messengers and drew forth the Syrians who were beyond the river. And Shophach the captain of the army of Hadarezer went before them. <sup>17</sup>And it was told to David. And he gathered all Israel and passed over Jordan and came on them. And he set in order against them. And David set in order against the Syrians, and they fought with him. <sup>18</sup>But the Syrians fled before Israel. And David killed seven thousand of the Syrians in chariots, and forty thousand footmen; and he killed Shophach the captain of the army. <sup>19</sup>And the servants of Hadarezer saw that they were beaten before Israel, and they made peace with David and became his servants. And Syria was not willing to help the sons of Ammon any more.

CHAPTER 20

<sup>1</sup>And it happened after the year had ended, at the time kings go forth, Joab led out the power of the army and wasted the country of the sons of Ammon. And he came and besieged Rabbah. But David stayed at Jerusalem. And Joab struck Rabbah and destroyed it. <sup>2</sup>And David took the crown of their king from off his head and found its weight a talent of gold. And precious stones were in it. And it was set on David's head, and he also brought exceeding much spoil out of the city. <sup>3</sup>And he brought out the people who were in it. And they sawed with saws and with sharp tools of iron, and with the axes. And so David did with the cities of the sons of Ammon. And David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

<sup>4</sup>And it happened after this, that there arose war at Gezer with the Philistines. Then Sibbechai the Hushathite killed Sippai, of the children of the giant. And they were humbled. <sup>5</sup>And there was war again with the Philistines. And Elhanan the son of Jair killed Lahmi the brother of Goliath the Gittite, whose spear was like a weavers' beam. <sup>6</sup>And again there was a battle in Gath, and a man of stature was there, and his fingers and toes were twenty-four, six on each hand and six on each foot. And he also had been born son of the giant. <sup>7</sup>But he cursed Israel, and Jonathan the son of Shimea, David's brother, killed him. <sup>8</sup>These were born to the giant in Gath. And they fell by the hand of David, and by the hand of his servants.

CHAPTER 21

<sup>1</sup>And Satan stood up against Israel and provoked David to take a census of Israel. <sup>2</sup>And David said to Joab and to the rulers of the people, Go number Israel from Beer-sheba to Dan. And bring the number of them to me so that I may know. <sup>3</sup>And Joab answered, May the LORD make His people a hundred times as many more as they are. But, my lord the king, are they not all my lord's servants? Why then does my lord require this thing? Why will he be a cause of trespass to Israel? <sup>4</sup>But the king's word prevailed against Joab. And Joab departed and went up and down all Israel, and came again to Jerusalem.

<sup>5</sup>And Joab gave the sum of the census of the people to David. And in all Israel there were one million and a hundred thousand men who drew sword. And in Judah were four hundred and seventy thousand men who drew sword. <sup>6</sup>But Levi and Benjamin he did not count among them; for the king's word was evil to Joab. <sup>7</sup>And it was evil in the eyes of God as to this thing. And He struck Israel. <sup>8</sup>And David said to God, I have sinned greatly because I have done this thing. But now, I beseech You, remove the iniquity of Your servant for I have done very foolishly.

<sup>9</sup>And the LORD spoke to Gad, David's seer, saying, <sup>10</sup>Go and speak to David, saying, So says the LORD: I offer you three things. Choose one of them so that I may do it to you. <sup>11</sup>And Gad came to David and said to him, So says the LORD, Choose for yourself: <sup>12</sup>either three years of famine, or three months to be swept away before your foes, while the sword of your enemies overtake you, or else three days of the sword of the LORD, even the plague in the land, and the angel of the LORD destroying throughout all the border of Israel. And now say what word I shall bring again to Him who sent me. <sup>13</sup>And David said to Gad, I am in great distress. Let me fall now into the hand of the LORD, for His mercies are very great. But do not let me fall into the hand of man.

<sup>14</sup>And the LORD sent a plague on Israel. And there fell seventy thousand men of Israel. <sup>15</sup>And God sent an angel to Jerusalem to destroy it. And as he was destroying, the LORD looked. And He repented of the evil and said to the angel who destroyed, Enough! Stay your hand now! And the angel of the LORD stood by the threshing-floor of Ornan the Jebusite. <sup>16</sup>And David lifted up his eyes and saw the angel of the LORD standing between the earth and the heavens, and his sword drawn in his hand, stretched out over Jerusalem. And David and the elders, clothed in sackcloth, fell on their faces. <sup>17</sup>And David said to God, Did not I command to number the people? I am the one who has sinned and done evil indeed. But these sheep, what have they done? I pray You, let Your hand be on me, O LORD my God, and on my father's house, but not on Your people, that they should be plagued.

<sup>18</sup>And the angel of the LORD commanded Gad to say to David that David should go up and set up an altar to the LORD in the threshing-floor of Ornan the Jebusite. <sup>19</sup>And David went up at the word of Gad which he spoke in the name of the LORD. <sup>20</sup>And Ornan turned back and saw the angel. And his four sons with him hid themselves. And Ornan was threshing wheat. <sup>21</sup>And David came to Ornan, Ornan looked and saw David. And he went out of the threshing-floor and bowed to David with his face to the ground. <sup>22</sup>Then David said to Ornan, Give me the place of this threshing-floor, so that I may build an altar in it to the LORD. You shall give it to me for the full price, so that the plague may be stayed from the people. <sup>23</sup>And Ornan said to David, Take for yourself, and let my lord the king do what is good in his eyes. Lo, I give the oxen for burnt offerings, and the threshing instruments for wood, and the wheat for the food offering. I give it all. <sup>24</sup>And king David said to Ornan, No, but I will truly buy it for the full price. For I will not take what is yours for the LORD, nor offer burnt offerings without cost. <sup>25</sup>And David gave to Ornan for the place six hundred shekels of gold by weight. <sup>26</sup>And David built an altar there to the LORD, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings, and called on the LORD. And He answered him from Heaven by fire on the altar of burnt offering. <sup>27</sup>And the LORD commanded the angel, and he put up his sword again into its sheath.

<sup>28</sup>At that time, when David saw that the LORD had answered him in the threshing-floor of Ornan the Jebusite, then he sacrificed there. <sup>29</sup>For the tabernacle of the LORD, which Moses made in the wilderness, and the altar of the burnt offering, were at that time in the high place at Gibeon. <sup>30</sup>But David could not go before it to ask of God, for he was afraid because of the sword of the angel of the LORD.

CHAPTER 22

<sup>1</sup>Then David said, This is the house of the LORD God, and this is the altar of the burnt offering for Israel. <sup>2</sup>And David commanded the strangers in the land of Israel to be gathered. And he set masons to cut squared stones to build the house of God. <sup>3</sup>And David prepared iron in abundance for the nails for the doors of the gates, and for the joinings, and bronze in abundance without weight, <sup>4</sup>and also cedar trees without number, for the Sidonians and the Tyrians brought in cedar trees in abundance to David. <sup>5</sup>And David said, Solomon my son is young and tender, and the house to be built for the LORD is to be highly magnificent, for a name and for beauty to all the lands. I will now prepare for it. And David prepared abundantly before his death.

<sup>6</sup>And he called for Solomon his son, and commanded him to build a house for the LORD God of Israel. <sup>7</sup>And David said to Solomon, My son, as for me, it was in my mind to build a house to the name of the LORD my God. <sup>8</sup>But the word of the LORD came to me, saying, You have shed much blood and have made great wars. You shall not build a house to My name because you have shed much blood on the earth in My sight. <sup>9</sup>Behold, a son shall be born to you who shall be a man of rest. And I will give him rest from all his enemies all around. For his name shall be Solomon, and I will give peace and quietness to Israel in his days. <sup>10</sup>He shall build a house for My name. And he shall be My son, and I will be his Father. And I will establish the throne of his kingdom over Israel forever. <sup>11</sup>Now, my son, may the LORD be with you and bless you, and build the house of the LORD your God as He has said of you. <sup>12</sup>Only may the LORD give you wisdom and understanding, and direct you concerning Israel, so that you may keep the law of the LORD your God. <sup>13</sup>Then you shall be blessed, if you take heed to fulfil the statutes and judgments with which the LORD charged Moses, concerning Israel. Be strong and of good courage. Do not fear, nor be dismayed.

<sup>14</sup>And, behold, in my trouble I have prepared for the house of the LORD a hundred thousand talents of gold, and a million talents of silver, and of bronze and iron without weight, for it is in abundance. I have prepared timber also, and stone, and you may add to it. <sup>15</sup>And there are many workmen with you, cutters and workers of stone and timber, and all kinds of skillful men for every kind of work. <sup>16</sup>Of the gold, the silver, and the bronze, and the iron, there is no number. Arise and be doing, and may the LORD be with you. <sup>17</sup>And David commanded all the rulers of Israel to help Solomon his son, saying, <sup>18</sup>Is not the LORD your God with you? And has He not given you rest on every side? For He has given the people of the land into my hand. And the land is humbled before the LORD and before His people. <sup>19</sup>Now set your heart and your soul to seek the LORD your God. Arise therefore and build the sanctuary of the LORD God, to bring the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and the holy vessels of God, into the house that is to be built to the name of the LORD.

CHAPTER 23

<sup>1</sup>And David was old and full of days, and he made his son Solomon king over Israel. <sup>2</sup>And he gathered all the rulers of Israel, with the priests and the Levites. <sup>3</sup>And the Levites were numbered from the age of thirty years and upward. And their number by their heads, man by man, was thirty-eight thousand. <sup>4</sup>Of these, twenty-four thousand were to set forward the work of the house of the LORD, and six thousand officers and judges. <sup>5</sup>And four thousand were gatekeepers, and four thousand praised the LORD with the instruments which David made for praising. <sup>6</sup>And David divided them into courses among the sons of Levi, Gershon, Kohath and Merari. <sup>7</sup>Of the men of Gershon were Laadan and Shimei. <sup>8</sup>The sons of Laadan: Jehiel the chief, and Zetham, and Joel, three. <sup>9</sup>The sons of Shimei: Shelomith, and Haziel, and Haran, three. These were the chief of the fathers of Laadan. <sup>10</sup>And the sons of Shimei: Jahath, Zina, and Jeush, and Beriah. These four were the sons of Shimei. <sup>11</sup>And Jahath was the chief, and Zizah the second. But Jeush and Beriah did not have many sons. Therefore they were in one roster, according to their father's house. <sup>12</sup>The sons of Kohath: Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel, four. <sup>13</sup>The sons of Amram: Aaron and Moses. And Aaron was separated so that he should sanctify the most holy things, he and his sons forever, to burn incense before the LORD, to minister to Him, and to bless in His name forever. <sup>14</sup>And as to Moses the man of God, his sons were named of the tribe of Levi. <sup>15</sup>The sons of Moses: Gershom and Eliezer. <sup>16</sup>Of the sons of Gershom, Shebuel was the chief. <sup>17</sup>And the sons of Eliezer: Rehabiah the chief. And Eliezer had no other sons, but the sons of Rehabiah were very many. <sup>18</sup>Of the sons of Izhar, Shelomith was the chief; <sup>19</sup>of the sons of Hebron, Jeriah the first, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, and Jekameam the fourth. <sup>20</sup>Of the sons of Uzziel, Michah the first, and Jesiah the second. <sup>21</sup>The sons of Merari: Mahli and Mushi. The sons of Mahli: Eleazar and Kish. <sup>22</sup>And Eleazar died, and had no sons, but had daughters. And their brothers, the sons of Kish, took them. <sup>23</sup>The sons of Mushi: Mahli, and Eder, and Jeremoth, three. <sup>24</sup>These were the sons of Levi after the house of their fathers, the chief of the fathers, as they were counted by number of names by their heads, the ones who did the work for the service of the house of the LORD, from the age of twenty years and upward. <sup>25</sup>For David said, The LORD God of Israel has given rest to His people so that they may dwell in Jerusalem forever, <sup>26</sup>and also to the Levites, so that they shall no more carry the tabernacle, nor any of its vessels for its service. <sup>27</sup>For by the last words of David the Levites were numbered from twenty years old and above, <sup>28</sup>because their office was to wait on the sons of Aaron for the service of the house of the LORD, in the courts and in the chambers, and in the purifying of all holy things, and the work of the service of the house of God <sup>29</sup>both for the showbread, and for the fine flour for food offering, and for the unleavened cakes, and for the pan, and for that which is fried, and for all kinds of measure and size, <sup>30</sup>and to stand every morning to thank and praise the LORD, and likewise at evening. <sup>31</sup>And they were to offer all burnt sacrifices to the LORD in the sabbath, in the new moons, and on the set feasts, by number, according to the order commanded to them, continually before the LORD, <sup>32</sup>and that they should keep the charge of the tabernacle of the congregation, and the charge of the holy place, and the charge of the sons of Aaron their brothers, in the service of the house of the LORD.

CHAPTER 24

<sup>1</sup>And the divisions of the sons of Aaron were: The sons of Aaron: Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar. <sup>2</sup>But Nadab and Abihu died before their father and had no sons. And Eleazar and Ithamar were priests. <sup>3</sup>And David gave them duties according to their offices in their service, both Zadok of the sons of Eleazar, and Ahimelech of the sons of Ithamar. <sup>4</sup>And there were more chief men found of the sons of Eleazar than of the sons of Ithamar. And so they were divided. Among the sons of Eleazar were sixteen chief men of the house of their fathers, and eight among the sons of Ithamar according to the house of their fathers. <sup>5</sup>So they divided them by lot, one sort with another. For the governors of the sanctuary, and governors of the house of God, were of the sons of Eleazar, and of the sons of Ithamar. <sup>6</sup>And Shemaiah the son of Nethaneel the scribe, one of the Levites, wrote them before the king, and the rulers, and Zadok the priest, and Ahimelech the son of Abiathar, and before the chief of the fathers of the priests and Levites. One principal household was taken for Eleazar, and one taken for Ithamar.

<sup>7</sup>Now the first lot came out to Jehoiarib, the second to Jedaiah, <sup>8</sup>the third to Harim, the fourth to Seorim, <sup>9</sup>the fifth to Malchijah, the sixth to Mijamin, <sup>10</sup>the seventh to Hakkaz, the eighth to Abijah, <sup>11</sup>the ninth to Jeshua, the tenth to Shecaniah, <sup>12</sup>the eleventh to Eliashib, the twelfth to Jakim, <sup>13</sup>the thirteenth to Huppah, the fourteenth to Jeshebeab, <sup>14</sup>the fifteenth to Bilgah, the sixteenth to Immer, <sup>15</sup>the seventeenth to Hezir, the eighteenth to Aphses, <sup>16</sup>the nineteenth to Pethahiah, the twentieth to Jehezkel, <sup>17</sup>the twenty-first to Jachin, the twenty-second to Gamul, <sup>18</sup>the twenty-third to Delaiah, the twenty-fourth to Maaziah. <sup>19</sup>These were their orderings in their service to come into the house of the LORD, according to their manner, to Aaron their father, as the LORD God of Israel had commanded him. <sup>20</sup>And the rest of the sons of Levi: Of the sons of Amram, Shubael; of the sons of Shubael, Jehdeiah. <sup>21</sup>Concerning Rehabiah, of the sons of Rehabiah, the first was Isshiah. <sup>22</sup>Of the Izharites, Shelomoth; of the sons of Shelomoth, Jahath. <sup>23</sup>And the sons of Hebron: Jeriah, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, Jekameam the fourth. <sup>24</sup>Of the sons of Uzziel, Michah. Of the sons of Michah, Shamir. <sup>25</sup>The brother of Michah was Isshiah. Of the sons of Isshiah, Zechariah. <sup>26</sup>The sons of Merari: Mahli and Mushi. The sons of Jaaziah, Beno. <sup>27</sup>The sons of Merari by Jaaziah: Beno, and Shoham, and Zaccur, and Itri. <sup>28</sup>Of Mahli was Eleazar, who had no sons. <sup>29</sup>Of Kish, the son of Kish was Jerahmeel. <sup>30</sup>The sons of Mushi: Mahli, and Eder, and Jerimoth. These were the sons of the Levites according to the house of their fathers.

<sup>31</sup>And they also cast lots along with their brothers, the sons of Aaron, before David the king, and Zadok, and Ahimelech, and the chief of the fathers of the priests and Levites, the head of the fathers, as well as his younger brother.

CHAPTER 25

<sup>1</sup>And David and the captains of the army separated to the service those of the sons of Asaph, and of Heman, and of Jeduthun, who were to prophesy with lyres and with cymbals. And the number of the workmen according to their service was: <sup>2</sup>of the sons of Asaph, Zaccur, and Joseph, and Nethaniah, and Adareiah, the sons under the hands of Asaph, who prophesied according to the order of the king. <sup>3</sup>Of Jeduthun, the sons of Jeduthun: Gedaliah, and Zeri, and Jeshaiah, Hashabiah, and Mattithiah, six, under the hands of their father Jeduthun, who prophesied with the lyre to give thanks and to praise the LORD. <sup>4</sup>Of Heman, the sons of Heman: Bukkiah, Mattaniah, Uzziel, Shebuel, and Jerimoth, Hananiah, Hanani, Eliathah, Giddalti, and Romamtiezer, Josh-bekashah, Mallothi, Hothir, Mahazioth. <sup>5</sup>All these were the sons of Heman the king's seer in the words of God, to lift up the horn. And God gave to Heman fourteen sons and three daughters.

<sup>6</sup>All these were under the hands of their father for song in the house of the LORD, with cymbals, harps and lyres, for the service of the house of God, according to the king's order to Asaph, Jeduthun, and Heman. <sup>7</sup>So the number of them, with their brothers who were instructed in the songs of the LORD, all that were skillful, was two hundred and eighty-eight. <sup>8</sup>And they cast lots, for duty, the small as well as the great, the teacher as the pupil. <sup>9</sup>And the first lot came out for Asaph to Joseph; the second was to Gedaliah, with his brothers and sons, twelve; <sup>10</sup>the third was to Zaccur, his sons and his brothers, twelve men; <sup>11</sup>the fourth was to Izri, his sons and his brothers, twelve; <sup>12</sup>the fifth was to Nethaniah, his sons and his brothers, twelve; <sup>13</sup>the sixth was to Bukkiah, his sons and his brothers, twelve; <sup>14</sup>the seventh was to Jeshareiah, his sons and his brothers, twelve; <sup>15</sup>the eighth was to Jeshaiah, his sons and his brothers, twelve; <sup>16</sup>the ninth was to Mattaniah, his sons and his brothers, twelve; <sup>17</sup>the tenth was to Shimei, his sons and his brothers, twelve; <sup>18</sup>the eleventh was to Azareel, his sons and his brothers, twelve; <sup>19</sup>the twelfth was to Hashabiah, his sons and his brothers, twelve; <sup>20</sup>the thirteenth was to Shubael, his sons and his brothers, twelve; <sup>21</sup>the fourteenth was to Mattithiah, his sons and his brothers, twelve; <sup>22</sup>the fifteenth was to Jeremoth, his sons and his brothers, twelve, <sup>23</sup>the sixteenth was to Hananiah, his sons and his brothers, twelve; <sup>24</sup>the seventeenth was to Joshbekashah, his sons and his brothers, twelve; <sup>25</sup>the eighteenth was to Hanani, his sons and his brothers, twelve; <sup>26</sup>the nineteenth was to Mallothi, his sons and his brothers, twelve; <sup>27</sup>the twentieth was to Eliathah, his sons and his brothers, twelve; <sup>28</sup>the twenty-first was to Hothir, his sons and his brothers, twelve; <sup>29</sup>the twenty-second was to Giddalti, his sons and his brothers, twelve; <sup>30</sup>the twenty-third was to Mahazioth, his sons and his brothers, twelve; <sup>31</sup>the twenty-fourth was to Romamtiezer, his sons and his brothers, twelve.

<sup>1</sup> For the divisions of the gatekeepers: Of the Korhites: Meshelemiah the son of Kore, of the sons of Asaph. <sup>2</sup>And the sons of Meshelemiah: Zechariah the first-born, Jediahel the second, Zebadiah the third, Jathniel the fourth, <sup>3</sup>Elam the fifth, Jehohanan the sixth, Elioenai the seventh. <sup>4</sup>And the sons of Obed-edom: Shemaiah the first-born, Jehozabad the second, Joah the third, and Sacar the fourth, and Nethaneel the fifth. <sup>5</sup>Ammiel the sixth, Issachar the seventh, Peulthai the eighth — for God blessed him. <sup>6</sup>Also sons were born to his son Shemaiah, who ruled for the house of their father, for they were mighty men of valor. <sup>7</sup>The sons of Shemaiah: Othni, and Rephael, and Obed, Elzabad, whose brothers were strong men, Elihu, and Semachiah. <sup>8</sup>All these were the sons of Obed-edom. They and their sons and their brothers were able men for strength for the service, and there were sixty-two of Obed-edom. <sup>9</sup>And Meshelemiah had sons and brothers, strong men, eighteen. <sup>10</sup>Also to Hosah, of the sons of Merari, were sons: Simri was the chief (though not the first-born, yet his father made him the chief), <sup>11</sup>Hilkiah the second, Tebaliah the third, Zechariah the fourth. All the sons and brothers of Hosah were thirteen. <sup>12</sup>Among these were the divisions of the gatekeepers, among the chief men, having charges like their brothers, to minister in the house of the LORD.

<sup>17</sup>Eastward were six Levites, northward four a day, southward four a day, and toward the storehouse, two by two. <sup>18</sup>At the Parbar, westward, four at the highway, two at the Parbar. <sup>19</sup>These are the divisions of the gatekeepers among the sons of Kore, and among the sons of Merari. <sup>20</sup>And of the Levites, Ahijah was over the treasures of the house of God and over the treasures of the dedicated things. <sup>21</sup>The sons of Laadan, chief fathers of Laadan the Gershonite: Jehieli; <sup>22</sup>the sons of Jehieli: Zetham and Joel his brother, who were over the treasures of the house of the LORD, <sup>23</sup>for the Amramites, and the Izharites, the Hebronites, and the Uzzielites. <sup>24</sup>And Shebuel the son of Gershom, the son of Moses, was ruler of the treasures. <sup>25</sup>And his brothers by Eliezer: Rehabiah his son, and Jeshaiah his son, and Joram his son, and Zichri his son, and Shelomith his son. <sup>26</sup>This Shelomith and his brothers were over all the treasures of the holy things, which David the king, and the chief fathers, the captains over thousands and hundreds, and the captains of the army, had given. <sup>27</sup>They dedicated part of the spoils won in battles, to maintain the house of the LORD, <sup>28</sup>and all that Samuel the seer, and Saul the son of Kish, and Abner the son of Ner, and Joab the son of Zeruiah had dedicated. Whoever had dedicated anything, it was at the hand of Shelomith and of his brothers.

<sup>29</sup>Of the Izharites, Chenaniah and his sons were for the outward business over Israel, for officers and judges. <sup>30</sup>Of the men of Hebron, Hashabiah and his brothers, men of valor, a thousand and seven hundred, were officers among them of Israel on this side Jordan westward in all the business of the LORD, and in the service of the king. <sup>31</sup>Jerijah was the chief among the men of Hebron. He was of the Hebronites, according to the generations of his fathers. In the fortieth year of the reign of David they were sought for, and there were found among them mighty men of valor at Jazer of Gilead. <sup>32</sup>And his brothers, mighty men, were two thousand and seven hundred chief fathers whom king David made rulers over the men of Reuben, of Gad, and the half tribe of Manasseh, for every matter having to do with God and the affairs of the king.

CHAPTER 27

<sup>1</sup>And the sons of Israel according to their number, the chief fathers and captains of thousands and hundreds, and their officers who served the king in any matter of the divisions, who came in and went out month by month for all the months of the year, were twenty-four thousand of every division.

<sup>2</sup>Over the first division for the first month was Jashobeam the son of Zabdiel. And in his division were twenty-four thousand. <sup>3</sup>Of the sons of Perez was the chief of all the captains of the army for the first month. <sup>4</sup>And over the division of the second month was Dodai the Ahohite, and of his division Mikloth was also the ruler. In his division also were twenty-four thousand. <sup>5</sup>The third captain of the army for the third month was Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, a chief priest. And in his division were twenty-four thousand. <sup>6</sup>This is that Benaiah who was mighty among the thirty, and above the thirty. And in his division was Ammizabad his son. <sup>7</sup>The fourth captain for the fourth month was Asahel the brother of Joab, and Zebadiah his son after him. And in his division were twenty-four thousand. <sup>8</sup>The fifth captain for the fifth month was Shambuth the Izrahite. And in his division were twenty-four thousand. <sup>9</sup>The sixth captain for the sixth month was Ira the son of Ikkesh the Tekoite. And in his division were twenty-four thousand. <sup>10</sup>The seventh captain for the seventh month was Helez the Pelonite, of the sons of Ephraim. And in his division were twenty-four thousand. <sup>11</sup>The eighth captain for the eighth month was Sibbecai the Hushathite, of the Zarhites. And in his division were twenty-four thousand. <sup>12</sup>The ninth captain for the ninth month was Abiezer the Anethothite, of the Benjamites. And in his division were twenty-four thousand. <sup>13</sup>The tenth captain for the tenth month was Maharai of Netopha, of the Zarhites. And in his division were twenty-four thousand. <sup>14</sup>The eleventh captain for the eleventh month was Benaiah the Pirathonite, of the sons of Ephraim. And in his division were twenty-four thousand. <sup>15</sup>The twelfth captain for the twelfth month was Heldai of Netopha, of Othniel. And in his division were twenty-four thousand.

<sup>16</sup>And over the tribes of Israel, the ruler of the Reubenites was Eliezer the son of Zichri. The ruler of the Simeonites was Shephatiah the son of Maachah. <sup>17</sup>The ruler of the Levites was Hashabiah the son of Kemuel. The ruler of the Aaronites was Zadok. <sup>18</sup>The ruler of Judah was Elihu, of the brothers of David. The ruler of Issachar was Omri the son of Michael. <sup>19</sup>The ruler of Zebulun was Ishmaiah the son of Obadiah. The ruler of Naphtali was Jerimoth the son of Azriel. <sup>20</sup>The ruler of the sons of Ephraim was Hoshea the son of Azaziah. The ruler of the half tribe of Manasseh was Joel the son of Pedaiah. <sup>21</sup>The ruler of the half tribe of Manasseh in Gilead was Iddo the son of Zechariah. The ruler of Benjamin was Jaasiel the son of Abner. <sup>22</sup>The ruler of Dan was Azareel the son of Jeroham. These were the rulers of the tribes of Israel.

<sup>23</sup>But David did not take the number of those from twenty years old and under, because the LORD had said He would increase Israel like the stars of the heavens. <sup>24</sup>Joab the son of Zeruiah began to number, but he did not finish because wrath fell against the sons of Israel for this it. And the number did not go up in the account of the chronicles of king David.

<sup>25</sup>And over the king's treasures was Azmaveth the son of Adiel. And over the storehouses in the fields, in the cities, and in the villages, and in the strongholds, was Jehonathan the son of Uzziath. <sup>26</sup>Ezri the son of Chelub was over the work of the field for farming the ground. <sup>27</sup>And over the vineyards was Shimei of Ramah. Over the increase of the vineyards for the wine cellars was Zabdi the Shiphmite. <sup>28</sup>And over the olive trees and the sycamore trees that were in the low plains was Baalhanan of Geder. And over the cellars of oil was Joash. <sup>29</sup>And over the herds that fed in Sharan was Shitrai of Sharon. And over the herds in the valleys was Shaphat the son of Adlai. <sup>30</sup>Over the camels also was Obil the Ishmaelite. And over the asses was Jehdeiah the Meronothite. <sup>31</sup>And over the flocks was Jaziz the son of Hagar. All these were the rulers of the substance which was king David's.

<sup>32</sup>And Jonathan, David's uncle, was an adviser, a wise man and a scribe. And Jehiel the son of Hachmoni was with the king's sons. <sup>33</sup>And Ahithophel was the king's counselor. And Hushai the Archite was the king's companion. <sup>34</sup>And after Ahithophel was Jehoiada the son of Benaiah, and Abiathar. And the general of the king's army was Joab.

CHAPTER 28

<sup>1</sup>And David gathered to Jerusalem all the rulers of Israel, the rulers of the tribes, and the captains of the companies that ministered to the king by division, and the captains over the thousands, and captains over the hundreds, and the stewards over all the substance and possession of the king, and of his sons, with the eunuchs and the mighty ones, even to every mighty one of valor. <sup>2</sup>And David the king stood up on his feet and said, Hear me, my brothers and my people. I had in my heart to build a house of rest for the ark of the covenant of the Lord, and for the footstool of our God, and had made ready for the building. <sup>3</sup>But God said to me, You shall not build a house for My name, because you have been a man of war and have shed blood. <sup>4</sup>But the LORD God of Israel chose me before all the house of my father to be king over Israel forever. For He has chosen Judah to be the ruler, and of the house of Judah the house of my father. And in my father's house He was pleased to make me king over all Israel. <sup>5</sup>And of all my sons (for the LORD has given me many sons), He has chosen Solomon my son to sit on the throne of the kingdom of the Lord over Israel. <sup>6</sup>And He said to me, Solomon your son shall build My house and My courts, for I have chosen him to be My son, and I will be his Father. <sup>7</sup>And I will establish his kingdom forever if he will always do My commandments and My judgments, as at this day. <sup>8</sup>And now in the sight of all Israel, the congregation of the LORD, and in the hearing of our God, keep and seek for all the commandments of the LORD your God, so that you may possess this good land and leave it for an inheritance for your sons after you forever.

<sup>9</sup>And you, Solomon my son, know the God of your father and serve Him with a perfect heart and with a willing mind. For the LORD searches all hearts and understands all the imaginations of the thoughts. If you seek Him, He will be found by you. But if you forsake Him, He will cast you off forever. <sup>10</sup>Take heed now, for the LORD has chosen you to build a house for the sanctuary. Be strong and do it.

<sup>11</sup>And David gave to his son Solomon the pattern of the porch, and of its houses, and of its treasuries, and of its upper rooms, and of its innermost rooms, and of the place of the mercy-seat, <sup>12</sup>and the pattern of all that He had by the Spirit, of the courts of the house of the LORD, and of all the rooms all around the treasuries of the house of God, and of the treasuries of the holy things; <sup>13</sup>And for the divisions of the priests and the Levites, and for all the work of the service of the house of the LORD, and for all the vessels of service in the house of the LORD; <sup>14</sup>even gold by weight for things of gold, for all instruments of every kind of service; silver for all the vessels of silver by weight, for all vessels every kind of service; <sup>15</sup>and by weight for the lampstands of gold, and for their lamps of gold, with the weight of each lampstand and its lamps. And he gave for the lampstands of silver by weight, for the lampstand and for its lamps, according to the use of each lampstand; <sup>16</sup>and by weight gold for the tables of the showbread, for every table; silver for the tables of silver; <sup>17</sup>and pure gold for the fleshhooks, and the bowls, and the cups; and for the golden basins by weight for each basin, and by weight for each basin of silver; <sup>18</sup>and the altar of incense refined gold by weight, and gold for the pattern of the chariot of the cherubs, who spread out their wings, and covered the ark of the covenant of the LORD.

<sup>19</sup>All was in writing from the hand of the LORD. He made me understand all the work of this pattern. <sup>20</sup>And David said to Solomon his son, Be strong and of good courage, and do it. Do not fear, nor be dismayed, for the LORD God, my God, will be with you. He will not fail you nor leave you until you have finished all the work for the service of the house of the LORD. <sup>21</sup>And, behold, the divisions of the priests and the Levites are for all the service of the house of God. And there shall be with you every willing skillful man for every kind of workmanship, for any kind of service. Also the rulers and all the people will be according to all your words.

CHAPTER 29

<sup>1</sup>And David the king said to all the congregation, Solomon my son, whom alone God has chosen, is young and tender, and the work is great. For the palace is not for man, but for the LORD God. <sup>2</sup>And I have prepared with all my might for the house of my God the gold for things of gold, and the silver for things of silver, and the bronze for things of bronze, the iron for things of iron, and wood for things of wood, onyx stones, and stones to be set, and also stones of antimony, and stones of many colors, and every precious stone, and stones of alabaster, in abundance. <sup>3</sup>And also, because I have delighted in the house of my God, out of my own treasure of gold and silver I have given to the house of my God over and above all that I have prepared for the holy house, <sup>4</sup>three thousand talents of gold, of the gold of Ophir, and seven thousand talents of refined silver, to overlay the walls of the houses; <sup>5</sup>the gold for things of gold, and the silver for things of silver, and for all kinds of work by the hands of skillful workers. And who is willing to consecrate his service this day to the LORD?

<sup>6</sup>And the chiefs of the fathers, and the rulers of the tribes of Israel, and the captains of thousands and of hundreds, with the rulers of the king's work, offered willingly. <sup>7</sup>And they gave for the service of the house of God five thousand talents of gold and ten thousand darics, and ten thousand talents of silver, and eighteen thousand talents of bronze, and one hundred thousand talents of iron. <sup>8</sup>And he who had precious stones gave to the treasury of the house of the LORD by the hand of Jehiel the Gershonite. <sup>9</sup>And the people rejoiced, because they offered willingly, because with perfect heart they offered willingly to the LORD. And David the king also rejoiced with great joy.

<sup>10</sup>And David blessed the LORD before all the congregation. And David said, Blessed are You, LORD God of Israel our father, forever and ever. <sup>11</sup>O LORD, Yours is the greatness, and the power, and the glory, and the victory, and, the majesty. For all that is in the heavens and in the earth is Yours. Yours is the kingdom, O LORD, and You lift up Yourself to all as Head. <sup>12</sup>And the riches and the honor are from You, and You reign over all. And in Your hand is power and might. And it is in Your hand to make great and to give strength to all. <sup>13</sup>And now, our God, we thank You and praise Your glorious name. <sup>14</sup>But who am I, and who my people, that we should be able to offer so willingly after this sort? For all things are from You, and we have given to You that which is Yours. <sup>15</sup>For we are strangers before You, and pilgrims, as our fathers were. Our days on the earth are like a shadow, and none abides. <sup>16</sup>O LORD our God, all this store that we have prepared to build You a house for Your holy name comes from Your hand, and is all Your own. <sup>17</sup>I know also, my God, that You try the heart, and have pleasure in uprightness. I, in the uprightness of my heart, have willingly offered all these things. And now I have seen with joy Your people who are present here to offer willingly to You. <sup>18</sup>O LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and of Israel, our fathers, keep this forever in the imagination of the thoughts of the heart of Your people, and prepare their heart to You. <sup>19</sup>And give to Solomon my son a perfect heart, to keep Your commandments, Your testimonies, and Your statutes, and to do all these things, and to build the house for which I have made ready.

<sup>20</sup>And David said to all the congregation, Now bless the LORD your God! And all the congregation blessed the LORD God of their fathers, and bowed down their heads and worshiped the LORD, and bowed to the king. <sup>21</sup>And they sacrificed sacrifices to the LORD, and offered burnt offerings to the LORD on the next day after that day a thousand bulls, a thousand rams, a thousand lambs, with their drink offerings, and sacrifices in abundance for all Israel. <sup>22</sup>And they ate and drank before the LORD on that day with great gladness. And they made Solomon the son of David king the second time, and anointed him before the LORD as ruler, and Zadok to be as priest. <sup>23</sup>And Solomon sat on the throne of the LORD as king in place of David his father. And he was blessed, and all Israel obeyed him. <sup>24</sup>And all the rulers and the mighty men, and also all the sons of king David submitted themselves to Solomon the king. <sup>25</sup>And the LORD made Solomon very great in the sight of all Israel, and placed on him such royal majesty as had not been on any king before him in Israel.

<sup>26</sup>And David, the son of Jesse, reigned over all Israel. <sup>27</sup>And the time that he reigned over Israel was forty years. He reigned seven years in Hebron, and thirty-three years in Jerusalem. <sup>28</sup>And he died in a good old age, full of days, riches, and honor. And Solomon his son reigned in his place. <sup>29</sup>And the acts of David the king, first and last, behold, they are written in the book of Samuel the seer, and in the book of Nathan the prophet, and in the book of Gad the seer, <sup>30</sup>with all his reign and his might, and the times that went over him, and over Israel, and over all the kingdoms of the lands.

THE SECOND BOOK OF CHRONICLES

CHAPTER 1

<sup>1</sup>And Solomon the son of David was made strong in his kingdom, and the LORD his God was with him and made him very great. <sup>2</sup>And Solomon spoke to all Israel, to the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and to the judges, and to every governor in all Israel, the chief of the fathers. <sup>3</sup>And Solomon and all the congregation with him went to the high place that was at Gibeon. For there was the tabernacle of the congregation of God, which Moses the servant of the LORD had made in the wilderness. <sup>4</sup>But the ark of God David had brought up from Kirjath-jearim to the place which David had prepared for it, for he had pitched a tent for it at Jerusalem. <sup>5</sup>And he put the bronze altar which Bezaleel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, had made before the tabernacle of the LORD. And Solomon and the congregation of the LORD sought to it. <sup>6</sup>And Solomon went up there to the bronze altar before the LORD, which was at the tabernacle of the congregation, and offered a thousand burnt offerings on it.

<sup>7</sup>In that night God appeared to Solomon and said to him, Ask what I shall give you. <sup>8</sup>And Solomon said to God, You have shown great mercy to David my father, and have made me to reign in his stead. <sup>9</sup>Now, O LORD God, Your promise to David my father has been fulfilled. For You have made me king over a people like the dust of the earth in multitude. <sup>10</sup>Give me now wisdom and knowledge that I may go out and come in before this people. For who can judge this Your great people? <sup>11</sup>And God said to Solomon, Because this was in your heart, and you have not asked riches, wealth, nor honor, nor the life of your enemies, nor yet have asked for long life but have asked wisdom and knowledge for yourself that you may judge My people, over whom I have made you king. <sup>12</sup>wisdom and knowledge is granted to you. And I will give you riches and wealth and honor, such as none of the kings have had that have been before you, nor shall any after you have the like.

<sup>13</sup>And Solomon came from the high place that was at Gibeon to Jerusalem, from before the tabernacle of the congregation, and reigned over Israel. <sup>14</sup>And Solomon gathered chariots and horsemen. And he had a thousand and four hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen which he placed in the chariot cities, and with the king at Jerusalem. <sup>15</sup>And the king made silver and gold at Jerusalem like stones, and he made cedar trees as plentiful as the sycamore trees in the valley. <sup>16</sup>And Solomon had horses brought out of Egypt and Kue. The king's merchants received them from Kue at a price. <sup>17</sup>And they carried up, and brought forth out of Egypt a chariot for six hundred shekels of silver, and a horse for a hundred and fifty. And so they brought out horses for all the kings of the Hittites, and for the kings of Syria, by their hands.

CHAPTER 2

<sup>1</sup>And Solomon purposed to build a house for the name of the LORD, and a house for his kingdom. <sup>2</sup>And Solomon counted out seventy thousand men to bear burdens, and eighty thousand as cutters in the mountains, and three thousand and six hundred to oversee them.

<sup>3</sup>And Solomon sent to Hiram the king of Tyre, saying, As you dealt with David my father, and sent him cedars to build him a house to dwell in, so deal with me. 'Behold, I build a house to the name of the LORD my God, to dedicate it to Him, and to burn before Him sweet incense, and for the continual showbread, and for the burnt offerings morning and evening, on the sabbaths, and on the new moons, and on the solemn feasts of the LORD our God. This is an ordinance forever to Israel. <sup>5</sup>And the house which I build is great. For our God is great above all gods. <sup>6</sup>But who is able to build Him a house, since the heavens and the heaven of heavens cannot contain Him? Who am I then, that I should build Him a house, except only to burn sacrifice before Him? <sup>7</sup>And now send me a man skillful to work in gold, and in silver, and in bronze, and in iron, and in purple, and crimson, and blue, and one who is skillful to engrave with the skillful men who are with me in Judah and in Jerusalem, whom David my father provided. <sup>8</sup>And send me cedar trees, fir trees, and alnum trees out of Lebanon. For I know that your servants are skillful to cut timber in Lebanon. And, behold, my servants shall be with your servants <sup>9</sup>in order to prepare plenty of timber for me. For the house which I am about to build shall be great and wonderful. <sup>10</sup>And behold, I will give to the hewers, those who cut timber, twenty thousand measures of beaten wheat, and twenty thousand measures of barley, and twenty thousand baths of wine, and twenty thousand baths of oil.

<sup>11</sup>And Hiram the king of Tyre answered in writing, which he sent to Solomon, Because the LORD has loved His people, He has made you king over them. <sup>12</sup>And Hiram said, Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, who made heaven and earth, who has given to David the king a wise son blessed with judgment and understanding, who might build a house for the LORD and a house for his kingdom. <sup>13</sup>And now I have sent a skillful man blessed with understanding, of Hiram my fathers, <sup>14</sup>the son of a woman of the daughters of Dan, and his father was a man of Tyre, skillful to work in gold, and in silver, in bronze, in iron, in stone, and in timber, in purple, in blue, and in fine linen, and in crimson. He also can engrave any kind of engraving, and can invent every device which shall be put to him, with your skillful men, and with the skillful men of my lord David your father. <sup>15</sup>And now the wheat, and the barley, the oil, and the wine, which my lord has spoken of, let him send to his servants. <sup>16</sup>And we will certainly cut wood out of Lebanon, as much as you shall need. And we will bring it to you in floats by sea to Joppa. And you shall carry it up to Jerusalem. <sup>17</sup>And Solomon numbered all the aliens in the land of Israel, according to the numbering with which David his father had numbered them. And they were found to be a hundred and fifty-three thousand and six hundred. <sup>18</sup>And he set seventy thousand of them to be bearers of burdens, and eighty thousand to be cutters in the mountains, and three thousand and six hundred overseers to set the people to work.

CHAPTER 3

<sup>1</sup>And Solomon began to build the house of the LORD at Jerusalem in Mount Moriah, where He appeared to David his father, in the place that David had prepared in the threshing-floor of Ornan the Jebusite. <sup>2</sup>And he began to build in the second day of the second month, in the fourth year of his reign.

<sup>3</sup>Now these are the foundations Solomon laid, to build the house of God. The length by cubits according to the first measure, sixty cubits, and the breadth twenty cubits. <sup>4</sup>And the porch on the front, the length according to the breadth of the house, was twenty cubits, and the height a hundred and twenty. And he overlaid it inside with pure gold. <sup>5</sup>And he made the ceiling of the greater house with fir wood, which he overlaid with fine gold. And he set palm trees and chains on it. <sup>6</sup>And he covered the house with precious stones for beauty. And the gold was gold of Parvaim. <sup>7</sup>He also overlaid the house, the beams, the posts, and its walls, and its doors, with gold. And he engraved cherubs on the walls. <sup>8</sup>And he made the most holy house. Its length was by the front, of the breadth of the house, twenty cubits, and its breadth, twenty cubits. And he overlaid it with fine gold, to six hundred talents. <sup>9</sup>And the weight of the nails was fifty shekels of gold. And he overlaid the upper rooms with gold. <sup>10</sup>And in the most holy house he made two cherubs of carved work, and overlaid them with gold. <sup>11</sup>And the wings of the cherubs were twenty cubits long. One wing was five cubits, touching to the wall of the house; and the other wing five cubits, touching to the wing of the other cherub. <sup>12</sup>And one wing of the other cherub was five cubits, touching to the wall of the house; and the other wing five cubits, touching to the wing of the other cherub. <sup>13</sup>The wings of these cherubims spread themselves forth twenty cubits. And they stood on their feet, and their faces were inward.

<sup>14</sup>And he made the veil of blue, and purple, and crimson, and fine linen, and worked cherubs on it. <sup>15</sup>He also made two pillars of thirty-five cubits high in front of the house, and the capital on the top of each of them was five cubits. <sup>16</sup>And he made chains, as in the holy place, and put them on the heads of the pillars. And he made a hundred pomegranates and put them on the chains. <sup>17</sup>And he reared up the pillars before the temple, one on the right hand and the other on the left. And he called the name of the one on the right Jachin, and the name of the one on the left Boaz.

CHAPTER 4

<sup>1</sup>And he made an altar of bronze. Twenty cubits was the length of it, and twenty cubits its breadth, and ten cubits its height. <sup>2</sup>And He cast a sea of melted bronze, ten cubits from brim to brim. It was round, and five cubits was its height. And a line of thirty cubits went around it. <sup>3</sup>And under it was the shape of oxen, under it and all around it for ten cubits, going all around the sea. Two rows of oxen were cast when it was cast. <sup>4</sup>It stood on twelve oxen, three facing the north, and three facing the west, and three facing the south, and three facing the east. And the sea was set above on them, and all their hinder parts were inward. <sup>5</sup>And its thickness was a handbreadth, and its brim like the work of the brim of a cup, with flowers of lilies. It received and held three thousand baths.

<sup>6</sup>He also made ten lavers, and put five on the right hand, and five on the left, to wash in them. They washed in them such things as they offered for the burnt offering. But the sea was for the priests to wash in. <sup>7</sup>And he made ten lampstands of gold according to their form, and set them in the temple, five on the right hand, and five on the left. <sup>8</sup>And He made ten tables, and placed them in the temple, five on the right hand, and five on the left. And he made a hundred basins of gold.

<sup>9</sup>And he made the court of the priests, and the great court, and doors for the court, and overlaid their doors with bronze. <sup>10</sup>And he set the sea on the right side of the east end, over against the south. <sup>11</sup>And Hiram made the pots, and the shovels, and the basins. And Hiram finished the work that he was to make for king Solomon for the house of God: <sup>12</sup>the two pillars, and the bowls, and the capitals on the top of the two pillars, and the two wreaths to cover the two bowls of the capitals which were on the top of the pillars, <sup>13</sup>and four hundred pomegranates on the two wreaths, two rows of pomegranates on each wreath, to cover the two bowls of the capitals on the pillars. <sup>14</sup>He also made bases, and he made lavers on the bases; <sup>15</sup>and one sea, and twelve oxen under it. <sup>16</sup>And Hiram made the pots, and the shovels, and the flesh-hooks, and all their vessels of burnished bronze for king Solomon for the house of the LORD. <sup>17</sup>In the plain of Jordan the king cast them, in the clay ground between Succoth and Zeredathah. <sup>18</sup>And Solomon made all these vessels in great abundance. For the weight of the bronze could not be found out.

<sup>19</sup>And Solomon made all the vessels for the house of God, and the golden altar, and the tables on which the showbread was set; <sup>20</sup>and the lampstands of pure gold with their lamps, so that they should burn according to the law before the holy place; <sup>21</sup>and the flowers, and the lamps, and the tongs of gold, of perfect gold; <sup>22</sup>and the snuffers, and the basins, and the spoons, and the censers, of pure gold; and the entrance of the house, the inner doors of it for the Holy of Holies, and the doors of the house of the temple, of gold.

CHAPTER 5

<sup>1</sup>And all the work that Solomon made for the house of the LORD was finished. And Solomon brought in the things that David his father had dedicated. And he put the silver and the gold, and all the vessels among the treasures of the house of God. <sup>2</sup>And Solomon gathered the elders of Israel, and all the heads of the tribes, the chief of the fathers of the sons of Israel, to Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of the city of David, which is Zion. <sup>3</sup>And all the men of Israel gathered themselves to the king in the feast in the seventh month. <sup>4</sup>And all the elders of Israel came. And the Levites took up the ark. <sup>5</sup>And they brought up the ark, and the tabernacle of the congregation, and all the holy vessels that were in the tabernacle. The priests and the Levites brought these up. <sup>6</sup>And king Solomon, and all the congregation of Israel that were gathered to him before the ark, sacrificed sheep and oxen which could not be counted nor numbered for multitude. <sup>7</sup>And the priests brought in the ark of the covenant of the LORD to its place, to the Holy of Holies in the house, into the most holy place, under the wings of the cherubs. <sup>8</sup>For the cherubs spread forth their wings over the ark, and the cherubs covered the ark and its staves above. <sup>9</sup>And they drew out the staves so that the ends of the staves were seen from the ark before the oracle. But they were not seen outside. And there it is until this day. <sup>10</sup>Nothing was in the ark except the two tables which Moses put in it at Horeb, when the LORD made a covenant with the sons of Israel when they came out of Egypt.

<sup>11</sup>And it happened as the priests came out of the holy place, — for all the priests present were sanctified, and did not wait by division. <sup>12</sup>And the Levitical singers, all of them of Asaph, of Heman, of Jeduthun, with their sons and their brothers, being clothed in white linen, having cymbals and with harps and lyres, stood at the east end of the altar, and with them a hundred and twenty priests sounding with trumpets, — <sup>13</sup>and they were as one to the trumpeters and to the singers, to make one sound to be heard in praising and thanking the LORD; and as they lifted up their voice with the trumpets and cymbals and instruments of music, and praised the LORD, saying, For He is good, for His mercy endures forever — the house was filled with a cloud, the house of the LORD, <sup>14</sup>so that the priests could not stand to minister because of the cloud, for the glory of the LORD had filled the house of God!

CHAPTER 6

<sup>1</sup>And Solomon said, The LORD has said that He would dwell in the thick darkness. <sup>2</sup>And I have built a house for You to live in, and a place for Your dwelling forever. <sup>3</sup>And the king turned his face and blessed the whole congregation of Israel. And all the congregation of Israel stood. <sup>4</sup>And he said, Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, who has with His hands fulfilled that which He spoke with His mouth to my father David, saying, <sup>5</sup>From the day that I brought My people out of the land of Egypt I have not chosen any city among all the tribes of Israel to build a house in, so that My name might be there. Nor have I chosen any man to be a ruler over My people Israel. <sup>6</sup>But now I have chosen Jerusalem, so that My name might be there, and now I have chosen David to be over My people Israel. <sup>7</sup>And it was in the heart of David my father to build a house for the name of the LORD God of Israel. <sup>8</sup>But the LORD said to David my father, Because it was in your heart to build a house for My name, you did well in that it was in your heart. <sup>9</sup>But you shall not build the house; but your son, who shall come forth out of your loins, shall build the house for My name. <sup>10</sup>And the LORD has lifted up His word that He has spoken. For I have risen up in place of David my father, and am set on the throne of Israel, as the LORD promised, and I have built the house for the name of the LORD God of Israel. <sup>11</sup>And I have put the ark in it, in which is the covenant of the LORD which He made with the sons of Israel.

<sup>12</sup>And he stood before the altar of the LORD in the presence of all the congregation of Israel, and spread forth his hands. <sup>13</sup>For Solomon had made a bronze scaffold, five cubits long and five cubits broad and three cubits high. And he had set it in the midst of the court. And he stood on it, and kneeled down on his knees before all the congregation of Israel, and spread forth his hands toward Heaven. <sup>14</sup>And he said, O LORD God of Israel, there is no God like You in Heaven or in earth. You keep Your covenant and show mercy to Your servants who walk before You with all their hearts. <sup>15</sup>You have kept with Your servant David my father that which You have promised him. And You spoke with Your mouth, and have fulfilled it with Your hand, as it is this day. <sup>16</sup>And now, O LORD God of Israel, keep with Your servant David my father that which You have promised him, saying, There shall not fail you a man in My sight to sit on the throne of Israel, if only your sons take heed to their way to walk in My law, as you have walked before Me. <sup>17</sup>And now, O LORD God of Israel, let Your word be proven true, which You have spoken to Your servant David. <sup>18</sup>But truly will God in deed dwell with men on the earth? Behold, Heaven and the heaven of heavens cannot contain You! How much less this house which I have built? <sup>19</sup>And You have turned toward the prayer of Your servant, and to his cry, O LORD my God, to listen to the cry and the prayer which Your servant prays before You. <sup>20</sup>I pray that Your eyes may be open on this house day and night, on the place of which You have said that You would put Your name there, to listen to the prayer which Your servant prays toward this place. <sup>21</sup>And You will listen to the cries of Your servant, and of Your people Israel, which they shall make toward this place, and You will from Your dwelling-place, from Heaven, and shall hear and forgive.

<sup>22</sup>If a man sins against his neighbor, and if an oath is laid on him to make him swear, and if the oath comes before Your altar in this house, <sup>23</sup>then hear from Heaven, and do, and judge Your servants by repaying the wicked, by bringing his way back on his own head, and by justifying the righteous, by giving to him according to his righteousness.

<sup>24</sup>And if Your people Israel be put to the worse before the enemy because they have sinned against You, and if they shall return and confess Your name, and shall pray and cry before You in this house, <sup>25</sup>then hear from Heaven, and forgive the sin of Your people Israel, and bring them again into the land which You give to them and to their fathers.

<sup>26</sup>When the heavens shall be shut up, and there is no rain because they have sinned against You; if they pray toward this place, and confess Your name, and turn from their sin when You afflict them, <sup>27</sup>then hear from Heaven and forgive the sin of Your servants and of Your people Israel, when You have taught them the good way in which they should walk. And send rain on Your land which You have given to Your people for an inheritance.

<sup>28</sup>If there is famine in the land, if there is a plague, if blasting or mildew, locusts or ravagers, if their enemies have distressed them in the gates of their land, with any plague and any sickness; <sup>29</sup>whatever prayer, whatever cry shall be made by any man, or by all Your people Israel, when everyone shall know his own plague and his own grief, and shall spread forth his hands in this house; <sup>30</sup>then hear from Heaven, Your dwelling-place, and forgive, and give to every man according to all his ways, whose heart You know. For You only know the hearts of the sons of men. <sup>31</sup>Do this so that they may fear You, to walk in Your ways, as long as they live in the land which You gave to our fathers.

<sup>32</sup>And also to the stranger who is not of Your people Israel, but has come from a far country for Your great name's sake, and Your mighty hand, and Your stretched out arm, if they come and pray in this house; <sup>33</sup>then hear from Heaven, from Your dwelling-place, and do according to all that the stranger calls to You for, so that all people of the earth may know Your name, and fear You, as Your people Israel, and may know that this house which I have built is called by Your name.

<sup>34</sup>If Your people go out to war against their enemies by the way that You shall send them, and if they pray to You toward this city which You have chosen, and the house which I have built for Your name, <sup>35</sup>then hear from Heaven their prayer and their cry and maintain their cause. <sup>36</sup>If they sin against You (for there is no man who does not sin), and if You are angry with them and deliver them up before their enemies, and they carry them away captives to a land far off or near, <sup>37</sup>yet if they think within themselves in the land where they are carried captive, and turn and pray to You in the land of their captivity, saying, We have sinned, we have done wrong and have dealt wickedly <sup>38</sup>if they return to You with all their heart and with all their soul in the land of their captivity where they have carried them captives, and if they pray toward their land which You gave to their fathers and toward the city which You have chosen, and toward the house which I have built for Your name; <sup>39</sup>then hear from Heaven, from Your dwelling-place, their prayer and their cries, and maintain their cause, and forgive Your people who have sinned against You.

<sup>40</sup>Now, my God, I beseech You, let Your eyes be open and let Your ears hear the prayer made in this place. <sup>41</sup>And now arise, O LORD God, into Your resting-place, You, and the ark of Your strength. Let Your priests, O LORD God, be clothed with salvation, and let Your saints rejoice in goodness. <sup>42</sup>O LORD God, do not turn away the face of Your anointed. Remember the good deeds of David Your servant.

CHAPTER 7

<sup>1</sup>And when Solomon had made an end of praying, the fire came down from heaven and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices. And the glory of the LORD filled the house. <sup>2</sup>And the priests could not enter into the house of the LORD because the glory of the LORD had filled the LORD's house. <sup>3</sup>And when all the sons of Israel saw how the fire came down, and the glory of the LORD on the house, they bowed with their faces to the ground on the pavement, and worshiped and praised the LORD, saying, For He is good, for His mercy endures forever.

<sup>4</sup>And the king and all the people offered sacrifices before the LORD. <sup>5</sup>And king Solomon offered a sacrifice of twenty-two thousand oxen, and a hundred and twenty thousand sheep. And the king and all the people dedicated the house of God. <sup>6</sup>And the priests waited on their offices, and the Levites with instruments of music of the LORD, which David the king had made to praise the LORD, because His mercy endures forever, when David praised by their ministry. And the priests sounded trumpets before them, and all Israel stood. <sup>7</sup>And Solomon made the middle of the court before the house of the LORD holy. For there he offered burnt offerings and the fat of the peace offerings, because the bronze altar which Solomon had made was not able to receive the burnt offerings, and the food offerings, and the fat.

<sup>8</sup>And at the same time Solomon kept the feast seven days, and all Israel with him, a very great congregation, from the entering in of Hamath to the river of Egypt. <sup>9</sup>And in the eighth day they made a solemn assembly. For they kept the dedication of the altar seven days, and the feast seven days. <sup>10</sup>And on the twenty-third day of the seventh month he sent the people away into their tents, glad and merry in heart for the goodness that the LORD had shown to David, and to Solomon, and to Israel His people. <sup>11</sup>So Solomon finished the house of the LORD, and the king's house. And all that came into Solomon's heart to make in the house of the LORD, and in his own house, he did with success.

<sup>12</sup>And the LORD appeared to Solomon by night, and said to him, I have heard your prayer, and have chosen this place to Myself for a house of sacrifice. <sup>13</sup>If I shut up the heavens, and there is no rain, or if I command the locusts to devour the land, or if I send a plague among My people; <sup>14</sup>if My people, who are called by My name, shall humble themselves and pray, and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from Heaven and will forgive their sin and will heal their land. <sup>15</sup>Now My eyes shall be open, and My ears shall be open to the prayer of this place. <sup>16</sup>For now I have chosen and sanctified this house, so that My name may be there forever. And My eyes and My heart shall be there forever. <sup>17</sup>And you, if you will walk before me, as David your father walked, and do according to all that I have commanded you, and shall observe My statutes and My judgments, <sup>18</sup>then I will make the throne of your kingdom sure, as I have covenanted with David your father, saying, There shall not fail you a man to be ruler in Israel. <sup>19</sup>But if you turn away and forsake My statutes and My commandments which I have set before you, and if you shall go and serve other gods and worship them, <sup>20</sup>then I will pluck them up by the roots out of My land which I have given them. And this house which I have sanctified for My name, I will cast out of My sight, and I will make it to be a proverb and a byword among all nations. <sup>21</sup>And this house, which is high, shall be a wonder to everyone who passes by it, so that they shall shudder and say, Why has the LORD done this to this land and to this house? <sup>22</sup>And it shall be answered, Because they forsook the LORD God of their fathers who brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, and laid hold on other gods and worshiped them and served them. Therefore He has brought all this evil on them.

CHAPTER 8

<sup>1</sup>And it happened at the end of twenty years, Solomon had built the house of the LORD and his own house. <sup>2</sup>As to the cities that Hiram had given to Solomon, Solomon had built them, and he caused the sons of Israel to live there. <sup>3</sup>And Solomon went to Hamath-zobah, and prevailed against it. <sup>4</sup>And he built Tadmor in the wilderness, and all the store cities which he built in Hamath. <sup>5</sup>And he built Beth-horon the upper and Beth-horon the lower, fenced cities with walls, gates, and bars. <sup>6</sup>And he built Baalath, and all the store cities which Solomon had, and all the chariot cities, and the cities of the horsemen, and all that Solomon desired to build in Jerusalem, and in Lebanon, and in all the land of his dominion.

<sup>7</sup>All the people who were left of the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, who were not of Israel, <sup>8</sup>of their sons who were left after them in the land, whom the sons of Israel did not destroy, Solomon made them subject to forced labor until this day. <sup>9</sup>And of the sons of Israel, Solomon did not make any servants for his work. But they were men of war, and chief of his captains, and captains of his chariots and horsemen. <sup>10</sup>And these were the chief of king Solomon's officers, two hundred and fifty who bore rule over the people.

<sup>11</sup>And Solomon brought up the daughter of Pharaoh out of the city of David to the house which he had built for her. For he said, My wife shall not dwell in the house of David king of Israel, because the places into which the ark of the LORD has come are holy.

<sup>12</sup>And Solomon offered burnt offerings to the LORD on the altar of the LORD which he had built before the porch, <sup>13</sup>even as the duty of every day required, offering according to the commandment of Moses, on the sabbaths and on the new moons, and on the solemn feasts, three times in the year, even in the Feast of Unleavened Bread, and in the Feast of Weeks, and in the Feast of Tabernacles. <sup>14</sup>And according to the order of David his father, he appointed the divisions of the priests to their service, and the Levites to their charges, to praise and minister before the priests, as the duty of every day required; and the gatekeepers by their divisions at every gate; for so David the man of God had commanded. <sup>15</sup>And they did not depart from the command of the king to the priests and Levites concerning any matter, or concerning the treasures. <sup>16</sup>And all the work of Solomon was prepared until the day of the foundation of the house of the LORD, and until it was finished. And the house of the LORD was complete.

<sup>17</sup>And Solomon went to Ezion-geber, and to Eloth, at the seaside in the land of Edom. <sup>18</sup>And Hiram sent ships to him by the hand of his servants, and servants who had knowledge of the sea. And they went with the servants of Solomon to Ophir, and took four hundred and fifty talents of gold from there, and brought them to king Solomon.

CHAPTER 9

<sup>1</sup>And the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon, and came to test Solomon with hard questions at Jerusalem, with a very great company, and camels that carried spices, and gold in abundance, and precious stones. And she came in to Solomon and spoke with him of all that was in her heart. <sup>2</sup>And Solomon told her all her questions. And there was nothing hidden from Solomon which he did not tell her. <sup>3</sup>And the queen of Sheba saw the wisdom of Solomon, and the house that he had built, <sup>4</sup>and the food of his table, and the sitting of his servants, the attendance of his ministers, and their apparel, and his cupbearers and their apparel, and his burnt offerings that he offered up in the house of the LORD, there was no more spirit in her. <sup>5</sup>And she said to the king, The word that I heard in my own land of your acts and of your wisdom is true. <sup>6</sup>But I did not believe their words until I came, and my eyes had seen. And behold, the one half of the greatness of your wisdom was not told me. You are greater than the fame which I heard. <sup>7</sup>Happy are your men, and happy are these your servants who stand always before you and hear your wisdom. <sup>8</sup>Blessed be the LORD your God, who delighted in you to set you on His throne to be king for the LORD your God. Because your God loved Israel to establish them forever, therefore He made you king over them to do judgment and justice. <sup>9</sup>And she gave the king a hundred and twenty talents of gold, and an abundance of spices, and precious stones. And there has not been any such spice as the queen of Sheba gave king Solomon.

<sup>10</sup>And also the servants of Hiram, and the servants of Solomon who brought gold from Ophir, brought alnum trees and precious stones. <sup>11</sup>And the king made terraces to the house of the LORD with the alnum trees, and terraces to the king's palace, and lyres and harps for singers. And there were none such seen before in the land of Judah. <sup>12</sup>And King Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba all her desire, whatever she asked, besides that which she had brought to the king. And she returned and went away to her own land, she and her servants.

<sup>13</sup>And the weight of gold that came to Solomon in one year was six hundred and sixty-six talents of gold, <sup>14</sup>besides that from the traders, and that the merchants brought. And all the kings of Arabia and governors of the country brought gold and silver to Solomon. <sup>15</sup>And king Solomon made two hundred targets of beaten gold. Six hundred shekels of gold went to one target. <sup>16</sup>And he made three hundred shields of beaten gold. Three hundred shekels of gold went to one shield. And the king put them in the house of the forest of Lebanon. <sup>17</sup>And the king made a great throne of ivory and overlaid it with pure gold. <sup>18</sup>And there were six steps to the throne, with a footstool of gold, which were fastened to the throne. And there were stays on each side of the sitting place, and two lions standing by the stays. <sup>19</sup>And twelve lions stood there on the one side, and on the other, on the six steps. There was not the like made in any kingdom.

<sup>20</sup>And all the drinking vessels of king Solomon were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the forest of Lebanon were of pure gold. None were of silver. It was not prized in the days of Solomon. <sup>21</sup>For the king's ships went to Tarshish with the servants of Hiram. Once every three years the ships of Tarshish came bringing gold and silver, ivory, and apes, and peacocks. <sup>22</sup>And king Solomon was greater than all the kings of the earth in riches and wisdom. <sup>23</sup>And all the kings of the earth sought the presence of Solomon, to hear his wisdom that God had put in his heart. <sup>24</sup>And they each brought his present, vessels of silver and vessels of gold, and clothing, weapons, and spices, horses, and mules, a ration year by year.

<sup>25</sup>And Solomon had four thousand stalls for horses and chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, whom he put in the chariot cities and with the king at Jerusalem. <sup>26</sup>And he reigned over all the kings from the river even to the land of the Philistines, and to the border of Egypt. <sup>27</sup>And the king made silver in Jerusalem like stones, and he made cedar trees as the sycamore trees which are in the low plains. <sup>28</sup>And they brought to Solomon horses out of Egypt and out of all lands.

<sup>29</sup>And the rest of the acts of Solomon, first and last, are they not written in the book of Nathan the prophet, and in the prophecy of Ahijah of Shiloh, and in the visions of Iddo the seer against Jeroboam the son of Nebat? <sup>30</sup>And Solomon reigned forty years in Jerusalem over all Israel. <sup>31</sup>And Solomon slept with his fathers, and he was buried in the city of David his father. And his son Rehoboam reigned in his place.

CHAPTER 10

<sup>1</sup>And Rehoboam went to Shechem. For all Israel had come to Shechem to make him king. <sup>2</sup>And it happened when Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who was in Egypt where he had fled from the presence of Solomon the king, heard it, Jeroboam returned out of Egypt. <sup>3</sup>And they sent and called him. And Jeroboam and all Israel came and spoke to Rehoboam, saying, <sup>4</sup>Your father made our yoke heavy. And now lighten the heavy service of your father, and his heavy yoke which he put on us, and we will serve you. <sup>5</sup>And he said to them, Come again to me after three days. And the people departed.

<sup>6</sup>And king Rehoboam consulted with the old men who had stood before Solomon his father while he yet lived, saying, What advice do you give me to return answer to this people? <sup>7</sup>And they spoke to him saying, If you are kind to this people and please them, and speak good words to them, they will be your servants forever. <sup>8</sup>But he departed from the advice which the old men gave him and listened to the young men who were brought up with him, who stood before him. <sup>9</sup>And he said to them, What advice do you give that we may return answer to this people, who have spoken to me, saying, Lighten the yoke which your father put on us? <sup>10</sup>And the young men who were brought up with him spoke to him saying, In this way shall you answer the people who spoke to you, saying, Your father made our yoke heavy, but you lighten our yoke, this you shall say to them, My little finger shall be thicker than my father's loins. <sup>11</sup>And now my father put a heavy yoke on you, and I will surely add to your yoke. My father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

<sup>12</sup>And Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam on the third day as the king commanded, saying, Come again to me on the third day. <sup>13</sup>And the king answered them roughly. And king Rehoboam departed from the advice of the old men, <sup>14</sup>and answered them after the advice of the young men, saying, My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add to it. My father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions. <sup>15</sup>And the king did not listen to the people, for the revolution was from God so that the LORD might perform His word which He spoke by the hand of Ahijah of Shiloh to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

<sup>16</sup>And all Israel saw that the king would not listen to them, and the people answered the king saying, What part do we have in David? And we have no inheritance in the son of Jesse! Every man to your tents, O Israel! Now, David, see to your own house. And all Israel went to their tents. <sup>17</sup>As for the sons of Israel who lived in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them. <sup>18</sup>And king Rehoboam sent Hadoram, who was over the forced labor. And the sons of Israel stoned him with stones so that he died. But king Rehoboam was warned to get up into his chariot to flee to Jerusalem. <sup>19</sup>And Israel rebelled against the house of David until this day.

CHAPTER 11

<sup>1</sup>And Rehoboam came to Jerusalem and gathered a hundred and eighty thousand chosen warriors from the house of Judah, to fight against Israel, so that he might bring the kingdom again to Rehoboam. <sup>2</sup>But the word of the LORD came to Shemaiah the man of God, saying, <sup>3</sup>Speak to Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all Israel in Judah and Benjamin, saying, <sup>4</sup>So says the LORD, You shall not go up nor fight against your brothers. Let every man return to his house. For this thing is done by Me. And they obeyed the words of the LORD, and returned from going against Jeroboam.

<sup>5</sup>And Rehoboam lived in Jerusalem and built cities for defense in Judah. <sup>6</sup>And he built Bethlehem, and Etam, and Tekoa, <sup>7</sup>and Beth-zur, and Shoco, and Adullam, <sup>8</sup>and Gath, and Mareshah, and Ziph, <sup>9</sup>and Adoraim, and Lachish, and Azekah, <sup>10</sup>and Zorah, and Aijalon, and Hebron, which are in Judah and in Benjamin, fortified cities. <sup>11</sup>And he fortified the strongholds and put captains in them, and stores of food, and of oil and wine. <sup>12</sup>And he put in each separate city shields and spears, and made them very strong, having Judah and Benjamin on his side. <sup>13</sup>And the priests and the Levites in all Israel presented themselves to him out of all their borders. <sup>14</sup>For the Levites left their suburbs and their possession, and came to Judah and Jerusalem. For Jeroboam and his sons had cast them off from executing the priests' office to the LORD. <sup>15</sup>And he ordained priests for himself for the high places, and for the devils, and for the calves which he had made. <sup>16</sup>And after them, those who gave their hearts to seek the LORD God of Israel, out of all the tribes of Israel, came to Jerusalem to sacrifice to the LORD God of their fathers. <sup>17</sup>And they made the kingdom of Judah stronger, and made Rehoboam the son of Solomon strong for three years. For three years they walked in the way of David and Solomon.

<sup>18</sup>And Rehoboam took Mahalath the daughter of Jerimoth the son of David as a wife for himself, and Abihail the daughter of Eliab the son of Jesse, <sup>19</sup>who bore him sons, Jeush, and Shamariah, and Zaham. <sup>20</sup>And after her he took Maachah the daughter of Absalom, who bore Abijah to him, and Attai, and Ziza, and Shelomith. <sup>21</sup>And Rehoboam loved Maachah the daughter of Absalom above all his wives and his concubines (for he took eighteen wives and sixty concubines, and had twenty-eight sons and sixty daughters). <sup>22</sup>And Rehoboam made Abijah the son of Maachah the chief, to be ruler among his brothers, in order to make him king. <sup>23</sup>And he dealt wisely and dispersed all his sons throughout all the lands of Judah and Benjamin, to all the fortified cities. And he gave them food in abundance. And he demanded many wives.

CHAPTER 12

<sup>1</sup>And it happened when Rehoboam had established the kingdom, and had made himself strong, he departed from the law of the LORD, and all Israel with him. <sup>2</sup>And it happened in the fifth year of king Rehoboam, Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, because they had sinned against the LORD <sup>3</sup>with twelve hundred chariots and sixty thousand horsemen. And the people who came with him out of Egypt were without number: Lubim, the Sukkiim, and the Ethiopians. <sup>4</sup>And he took the fortified cities in Judah, and came to Jerusalem.

<sup>5</sup>And Shemaiah the prophet came to Rehoboam, and to the rulers of Judah who were gathered to Jerusalem because of Shishak. And he said to them, So says the LORD, You have forsaken Me, and therefore I also have left you in the hand of Shishak. <sup>6</sup>And the rulers of Israel and the king humbled themselves. And they said, The LORD is righteous. <sup>7</sup>And when the LORD saw that they humbled themselves, the word of the LORD came to Shemaiah, saying, They have humbled themselves. I will not destroy them, but I will give them some deliverance. And My wrath shall not be poured out on Jerusalem by the hand of Shishak. <sup>8</sup>But they shall be his servants, so that they may know My service, and the service of the kings of the countries. <sup>9</sup>And Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem and took away the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king's house. He took all. And he carried away the shields of gold which Solomon had made. <sup>10</sup>In place of these king Rehoboam made shields of bronze, and gave them into the hands of the chief of the guard who kept the entrance of the king's house. <sup>11</sup>And when the king entered into the house of the LORD, the guard came and carried them and brought them again into the guardroom. <sup>12</sup>And when he humbled himself, the wrath of the LORD turned from him so that He would not destroy him altogether. And also things went well in Judah.

<sup>13</sup>And king Rehoboam strengthened himself at Jerusalem, and reigned. For Rehoboam was forty-one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which the LORD had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel to put His name there. And his mother's name was Naamah the Ammonitess. <sup>14</sup>And he did the evil because he did not prepare his heart to seek the LORD. <sup>15</sup>And the acts of Rehoboam, first and last, are they not written in the book of Shemaiah the prophet, and Iddo the seer concerning genealogies? And the wars of Rehoboam and Jeroboam lasted all their days. <sup>16</sup>And Rehoboam slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David. And his son Abijah reigned in his place.

CHAPTER 13

<sup>1</sup>And in the eighteenth year of king Jeroboam Abijah began to reign over Judah. <sup>2</sup>He reigned three years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Michaiah the daughter of Uriel of Gibeah. And there was war between Abijah and Jeroboam. <sup>3</sup>And Abijah set the battle in order with an army of mighty men of war, four hundred thousand chosen men. Jeroboam also set the battle in order against him with eight hundred thousand chosen men, mighty men of valor.

<sup>4</sup>And Abijah stood up on mount Zemaraim, in the hills of Ephraim, and said, Hear me, Jeroboam and all Israel. <sup>5</sup>Should you not know that the LORD God of Israel gave the kingdom over Israel to David forever, to him and to his sons by a covenant of salt? <sup>6</sup>Yet Jeroboam the son of Nebat, the servant of Solomon the son of David, has risen up and has rebelled against his lord. <sup>7</sup>And there are gathered to him vain men, the sons of Belial, and have made themselves strong against Rehoboam the son of Solomon, and Rehoboam was young and tenderhearted and could not withstand them. <sup>8</sup>And now you think to withstand the kingdom of the LORD in the hands of the sons of David. And you are a great multitude, and there are with you golden calves which Jeroboam made you for gods. <sup>9</sup>Have you not cast out the priests of the LORD, the sons of Aaron, and the Levites, and have made priests to yourselves like the peoples of the lands? Whoever comes to consecrate himself with a young bull and seven rams, he may be a priest of those who are no gods. <sup>10</sup>But as for us, Jehovah is our God, and we have not forsaken Him. And the priests who minister to the LORD are the sons of Aaron, and the Levites wait on their business. <sup>11</sup>And they burn to the Lord every morning and every evening burnt sacrifices and sweet incense, and the showbread on the pure table, and the lampstand of gold with its lamps, to burn every evening. For we keep the charge of the LORD our God. But you have forsaken Him. <sup>12</sup>And behold, God Himself is with us as Captain, and His priests with sounding trumpets to cry alarm against you. O sons of Israel, do not fight against the LORD God of your fathers, for you shall not prosper!

<sup>13</sup>But Jeroboam caused an ambush to come around behind them, so that they were in front of Judah, and the ambush was behind them. <sup>14</sup>And Judah turned, and, behold, the battle was before and behind. And they cried to the LORD, and the priests sounded with the trumpets. <sup>15</sup>And the men of Judah shouted. And it happened as the men of Judah shouted, God struck Jeroboam and all Israel before Abijah and Judah. <sup>16</sup>And the sons of Israel fled before Judah. And God delivered them into their hand. <sup>17</sup>And Abijah and his people killed them with a great slaughter. And there fell down dead five hundred thousand chosen men of Israel. <sup>18</sup>And the sons of Israel were humbled at that time, and the sons of Judah won because they relied on the LORD God of their fathers.

<sup>19</sup>And Abijah pursued Jeroboam, and took cities from him, Bethel with its villages, and Jeshanah with its villages, and Ephraim with its villages. <sup>20</sup>And Jeroboam did not recover strength again in the days of Abijah. And the LORD struck him and he died.

<sup>21</sup>And Abijah became mighty, and married fourteen wives, and fathered twenty-two sons and sixteen daughters. <sup>22</sup>And the rest of the acts of Abijah, and his ways, and his sayings, are written in the inquiry of the prophet Iddo.

CHAPTER 14

away the altars of the strange gods, and the high places, and broke down the images, and cut down the groves. <sup>4</sup>And he commanded Judah to seek the LORD God of their fathers, and to do the law and the commandment. <sup>5</sup>He also took out of all the cities of Judah the high places and the images. And the kingdom was quiet before him. <sup>6</sup>And he built fortified cities in Judah. For the land had rest, and he had no war in those years, because the LORD had given him rest. <sup>7</sup>And he said to Judah, Let us build these cities and make walls around them, and towers, gates and bars, while the land is still before us. Because we have sought the LORD our God, we have sought, and He has given us rest on every side. And they built and were blessed. <sup>8</sup>And Asa had an army which bore bucklers and spears, three hundred thousand out of Judah. And out of Benjamin there were two hundred and eighty thousand who bore shields and drew bows; all these mighty men of valor.

<sup>9</sup>And Zerah the Ethiopian came out against them with an army of a million men, and three hundred chariots. And he came to Mareshah. <sup>10</sup>And Asa went out against him, and they set the battle in order in the valley of Zephathah at Mareshah. <sup>11</sup>And Asa cried to the LORD his God and said, LORD, it is nothing with You to help, whether with many or with him who has no power. Help us, O LORD our God, for we rest on You, and in Your name we go against this multitude. O LORD, You are our God. Do not let man prevail against You. <sup>12</sup>And the LORD struck the Ethiopians before Asa and before Judah. And the Ethiopians fled. <sup>13</sup>And Asa and the people with him pursued them to Gerar. And the Ethiopians were overthrown so that they could not recover themselves. For they were destroyed before the LORD and before His army. And they carried away very much plunder. <sup>14</sup>And they struck all the cities around Gerar, for the fear of the LORD came on them. And they plundered all the cities, for there was very much plunder in them. <sup>15</sup>And they struck the tents of cattle, and carried away sheep and camels in abundance and returned to Jerusalem.

CHAPTER 15

<sup>1</sup>And the Spirit of God came on Azariah the son of Oded. <sup>2</sup>And he went out to meet Asa, and said to him, Hear me, Asa, and all Judah and Benjamin. The LORD is with you while you are with Him. And if you seek Him, He will be found by you. But if you forsake Him, He will forsake you. <sup>3</sup>And for a long time Israel had been without the true God, and without a teaching priest, and without law. <sup>4</sup>And when they turned in their trouble to the LORD God of Israel, and sought Him, He was found by them. <sup>5</sup>And in those times there was no peace to him who went out, nor to him who came in, but great troubles were on all the people of the lands. <sup>6</sup>And nation was beaten by nation, and city by city, for God troubled them with all kinds of adversity. <sup>7</sup>But you be strong and do not let your hands be weak, for your work shall be rewarded.

<sup>8</sup>And when Asa heard these words, and the prophecy of Oded the prophet, he took courage and put away the abominable idols out of all the land of Judah and Benjamin, and out of the cities which he had taken from mount Ephraim. And he renewed the altar of the LORD before the porch of the LORD. <sup>9</sup>And he gathered all Judah and Benjamin, and the strangers with them out of Ephraim and Manasseh, and out of Simeon. For they fell to him out of Israel in great numbers, when they saw that the LORD his God was with him. <sup>10</sup>And they gathered to Jerusalem in the third month, in the fifteenth year of the reign of Asa. <sup>11</sup>And they offered to the LORD in that day part of the plunder which they had brought, seven hundred oxen and seven thousand sheep. <sup>12</sup>And they entered into a covenant to seek the LORD God of their fathers with all their heart and with all their soul,<sup>13</sup> and that whoever would not seek the LORD God of Israel should be put to death, whether small or great, whether man or woman.<sup>14</sup> And they swore to the LORD with a loud voice, and with shouting, and with trumpets, and with cornets.<sup>15</sup> And all Judah rejoiced at the oath, for they had sworn with all their heart, and sought Him with their whole desire. And He was found by them, and the LORD gave them rest all around.

<sup>16</sup>And also as to Maachah the mother of Asa the king, he removed her from being queen, because she had made an idol in a grove. And Asa cut down her idol and stamped it and burned it at the brook Kidron.<sup>17</sup> But the high places were not taken away out of Israel. But the heart of Asa was perfect all his days.<sup>18</sup> And he brought into the house of God the things which his father had dedicated, and which he himself had dedicated, silver and gold and vessels.<sup>19</sup> And there was no war to the thirty-fifth year of the reign of Asa.

CHAPTER 16

<sup>1</sup>In the thirty-sixth year of the reign of Asa, Baasha king of Israel came up against Judah, and built Ramah, so that he might let no one go out or come in to Asa king of Judah.<sup>2</sup> And Asa brought out silver and gold from the treasures of the house of the LORD and of the king's house and sent them to Ben-hadad king of Syria, who lived at Damascus, saying,<sup>3</sup> A treaty between you and me, as there was between my father and your father. Behold, I have sent you silver and gold. Go, break your treaty with Baasha king of Israel, so that he may depart from me.<sup>4</sup> And Ben-hadad listened to king Asa, and sent the captains of his armies against the cities of Israel. And they struck Ijon and Dan, and Abel-maim, and all the store cities of Naphtali.<sup>5</sup> And it happened when Baasha heard, he left off building Ramah, and let his work stop.<sup>6</sup> And Asa the king took all Judah. And they carried away the stones of Ramah, and timber with which Baasha was building. And he built with it Geba and Mizpah.

<sup>7</sup>And at that time Hanani the seer came to Asa king of Judah and said to him, Because you have relied on the king of Syria, and have not relied on the LORD your God, therefore the army of the king of Syria has escaped out of your hand.<sup>8</sup> Were not the Ethiopians and the Lubim a huge army with many chariots and horsemen? Yet, because you relied on the LORD, he delivered them into your hand.<sup>9</sup> For the eyes of the LORD run to and fro in all the whole earth to show Himself strong on behalf of those whose heart is perfect toward Him. You have done foolishly in this; therefore from now on you shall have wars.<sup>10</sup> And Asa was angry with the seer and put him in a prison-house. For he was in a rage with him because of this. And Asa oppressed some of the people at that time.

<sup>11</sup>And behold, the acts of Asa, first and last, lo, they are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.<sup>12</sup> And in the thirty-ninth year of his reign, Asa was diseased in his feet, until his disease was very grievous. Yet in his disease he did not seek to the LORD, but to the physicians.<sup>13</sup> And Asa slept with his fathers and died in the forty-first year of his reign.<sup>14</sup> And they buried him in his own tomb, which he had made for himself in the city of David, and laid him in the bed which was filled with sweet odors and kinds of spices prepared by the perfumers art. And they made a very great burning for him.

CHAPTER 17

<sup>1</sup>And Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his place. And he made himself strong against Israel.<sup>2</sup> And he placed troops in all the fortified cities of Judah, and set troops in the land of Judah and in the cities of Ephraim which Asa his father had taken.<sup>3</sup> And the LORD was with Jehoshaphat because he walked in the first ways of his father David and did not seek to Baals.<sup>4</sup> But he looked to the God of his father, and walked in His commandments, and not after the doings of Israel. <sup>5</sup>And the LORD made the kingdom sure in his hand. And all Judah brought presents to Jehoshaphat. And he had great riches and honor. <sup>6</sup>And his heart was lifted up in the ways of the LORD. And he took away the high places and groves out of Judah. <sup>7</sup>And in the third year of his reign he sent to his rulers, to Benhail, and to Obadiah, and to Zechariah, and to Nethaneel, and to Michaiiah, to teach in the cities of Judah. <sup>8</sup>And with them he sent Levites, Shemaiah, and Nethaniah, and Zebadiah, and Asahel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehonathan, and Adonijah, and Tobijah, and Tob-adonijah, Levites. And with them he sent Elishama and Jehoram the priests. <sup>9</sup>And they taught in Judah and had the book of the law of the LORD with them, and went around throughout all the cities of Judah and taught the people.

<sup>10</sup>And the fear of the LORD fell on all the kingdoms of the lands around Judah, so that they did not make war against Jehoshaphat. <sup>11</sup>And from the Philistines they brought Jehoshaphat presents and silver for tribute. Also the Arabians brought him flocks, seven thousand and seven hundred rams, and seven thousand and seven hundred he-goats.

<sup>12</sup>And Jehoshaphat became exceedingly great. And he built fortresses in Judah, and store cities. <sup>13</sup>And he had much business in the cities of Judah. And the men of war, mighty men of valor, were in Jerusalem. <sup>14</sup>And these were their numbers, for the house of their fathers from Judah, the captains of thousands: Adnah the chief, and with him were three hundred thousand mighty men of valor. <sup>15</sup>And on his hand, Jehohanan the captain, and with him were two hundred and eighty thousand. <sup>16</sup>And on his hand, Amasiah the son of Zichri, who willingly offered himself to the LORD, and with him two hundred thousand mighty men of valor. <sup>17</sup>And from Benjamin was Eliada, a mighty man of valor, and with him two hundred thousand men armed with bow and shield. <sup>18</sup>And on his hand, Jehozabad, and with him a hundred and eighty thousand ready and prepared for war. <sup>19</sup>These waited on the king, besides those whom the king put in the fortified cities throughout all Judah.

CHAPTER 18

<sup>1</sup>And Jehoshaphat had riches and honor in abundance, and he joined himself with Ahab. <sup>2</sup>And after some years he went down to Ahab to Samaria. And Ahab killed sheep and oxen in abundance for him, and for the people that were with him. And he persuaded him to go up with him to Ramoth-gilead. <sup>3</sup>And Ahab king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat king of Judah, Will you go with me to Ramoth-gilead? And he answered him, I am as you, and my people are as your people, and we with you in the war. <sup>4</sup>And Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, Please inquire at the word of the LORD today. <sup>5</sup>And the king of Israel gathered four hundred men of the prophets and said to them, Shall we go to Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I wait? And they said, Go up, for God will deliver it into the king's hand. <sup>6</sup>But Jehoshaphat said, Is there not a prophet of the LORD here besides, so that we might ask of Him? <sup>7</sup>And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, There is yet one man by whom we may inquire of the LORD. But I hate him, for he never prophesied good to me, but always evil. The same is Micaiah the son of Imla. And Jehoshaphat said, Let not the king say so.

<sup>8</sup>And the king of Israel called to a certain eunuch and said, Bring quickly Micaiah the son of Imla. <sup>9</sup>And the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah sat each of them on his throne, clothed in robes. And they sat in an empty place at the entrance of the gate of Samaria. And all the prophets prophesied before them. <sup>10</sup>And Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah had made horns of iron for himself.

And he said, And says the LORD, With these you shall push Syria until they are crushed. <sup>11</sup>And all the prophets prophesied so, saying, Go up to Ramoth-gilead and be blessed. For the LORD shall deliver it into the king's hand. <sup>12</sup>And the messenger who went to call Micaiah spoke to him, saying, Behold, the words of the prophets declare good to the king with one mouth. And please let your word be like one of theirs, and speak good. <sup>13</sup>And Micaiah said, As the LORD lives, even what my God says, that I will speak.

<sup>14</sup>And he came to the king. And the king said to him, Micaiah, shall we go to Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I wait? And he said, Go up and be blessed. And they shall be delivered into your hand. <sup>15</sup>And the king said to him, How many times shall I warn you that you say nothing but the truth to me in the name of the LORD? <sup>16</sup>And he said, I saw all Israel scattered on the mountains, like sheep that have no shepherd. And the LORD said, These have no master; let them return, each man to his own house in peace. <sup>17</sup>And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, Did I not tell you he would not prophesy good concerning me, but evil? <sup>18</sup>Again he said, And hear the word of the LORD. I saw the LORD sitting on His throne, and all the host of Heaven were standing on His right hand and on His left. <sup>19</sup>And the LORD said, Who shall tempt Ahab king of Israel so that he may go up and fall at Ramoth-gilead? And one spoke saying in one way, and another saying in another way. <sup>20</sup>And a spirit came out and stood before the LORD and said, I will tempt him. And the LORD said, With what? <sup>21</sup>And he said, I will go out and be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets. And the LORD said, You shall tempt him, and you are able. Go out and do so. <sup>22</sup>And now behold, the LORD has put a lying spirit in the mouth of these your prophets, and the LORD has spoken evil against you. <sup>23</sup>And Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah came near and struck Micaiah on the cheek. And he said, Which way did the Spirit of the LORD go from me to speak to you? <sup>24</sup>And Micaiah said, Behold, you shall see on that day when you shall go into an inner room to hide yourself. <sup>25</sup>And the king of Israel said, Take Micaiah, and carry him back to Amon the governor of the city, and to Joash the king's son. <sup>26</sup>And you shall say, So says the king, Put this fellow in the prison, and feed him with bread of affliction and with water of affliction until I return in peace. <sup>27</sup>And Micaiah said, If you certainly return in peace, then the LORD has not spoken by me. And he said, Listen, all you people.

<sup>28</sup>And the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramoth-gilead. <sup>29</sup>And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, I will disguise myself and will go to the battle. But you put on your robes. And the king of Israel disguised himself. And they went to the battle. <sup>30</sup>And the king of Syria had commanded the captains of the chariots with him, saying, Do not fight with small or great, but only with the king of Israel. <sup>31</sup>And it happened when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, they said, It is the king of Israel. And they surrounded him to fight. But Jehoshaphat cried out, and the LORD helped him. And God moved them to leave him. <sup>32</sup>For it happened when the captains of the chariots saw that it was not the king of Israel, they turned back again from pursuing him. <sup>33</sup>And a certain man drew a bow at random, and struck the king of Israel between the joinings and the breastplate. And he said to the charioteer, Turn your hand, and you shall bring me out of the army, for I am wounded.

<sup>34</sup>And the battle increased that day; and the king of Israel was made to stand up in his chariot against the Syrians until the evening. And about the time of the sunset he died.

CHAPTER 19

<sup>1</sup>And Jehoshaphat the king of Judah returned to his house in peace to Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup>And Jehu the son of Hanani the seer went out to meet him. And he said to king Jehoshaphat, Should you help the ungodly and love those who hate the LORD? And wrath is on you from before the LORD. <sup>3</sup>But there are good things found in you, in that you have taken away the groves out of the land and have prepared your heart to seek God.

<sup>4</sup>And Jehoshaphat lived at Jerusalem. And he went out again among the people from Beer-sheba to mount Ephraim, and brought them back to the LORD God of their fathers. <sup>5</sup>And he set judges in the land, in all the fortified cities of Judah, city by city. <sup>6</sup>And he said to the judges, Take heed what you do. For you do not judge for man, but for the LORD, who is with you in the judgment. <sup>7</sup>And now let the fear of the LORD be on you. Be careful and act wisely, for there is no iniquity with the LORD our God, nor respect of persons, nor taking of gifts.

<sup>8</sup>And Jehoshaphat set some of the Levites and of the priests and of the chief of the fathers of Israel in Jerusalem for the judgment of the LORD, and for controversies, when they returned to Jerusalem. <sup>9</sup>And he charged them, saying, And you shall act in the fear of the LORD, faithfully, and with a perfect heart. <sup>10</sup>And whatever cause shall come to you from your brothers that dwell in their cities, between blood and blood, between law and commandment, statutes and judgments, you shall even warn them so that they do not sin against the LORD, and wrath come on you and your brothers. Do this and you shall not sin. <sup>11</sup>And behold, Amariah the chief priest is over you in all matters of the LORD. And Zebadiah the son of Ishmael is the ruler of the house of Judah for all the king's matters. Also the Levites shall be officers before you. Take courage and act, and the LORD shall be with the good.

CHAPTER 20

<sup>1</sup>And it happened after this the sons of Moab, and the sons of Ammon came in, and with them others besides the Ammonites, to battle against Jehoshaphat. <sup>2</sup>And they came in and spoke to Jehoshaphat, saying, A great multitude has come against you from beyond the sea on this side of Syria. And behold, they are in Hazazon-tamar, which is Engedi. <sup>3</sup>And Jehoshaphat feared and set himself to seek the LORD, and called for a fast throughout all Judah. <sup>4</sup>And Judah gathered themselves to ask of the LORD. Even out of all the cities of Judah they came to seek the LORD.

<sup>5</sup>And Jehoshaphat stood in the congregation of Judah and Jerusalem, in the house of the LORD, before the new court, <sup>6</sup>and said, O LORD God of our Fathers, are You not God in Heaven? And do You not rule over all the kingdoms of the nations? And is there not power and might in Your hand, so that none is able to withstand You? <sup>7</sup>Are You not our God? Did You not drive out the people of this land before Israel, and give it to the seed of Your friend Abraham forever? <sup>8</sup>And they lived in it. And they have built You a temple in it for Your name, saying, <sup>9</sup>If evil comes on us, whether the sword, judgment, or plague, or famine, and we stand before this house and in Your presence (for Your name is in this house) and cry to You in our affliction, then You will hear and help. <sup>10</sup>And now, behold, the sons of Ammon and Moab and mount Seir, whom You would not let Israel invade when they came out of the land of Egypt, but they turned from them and did not destroy them, <sup>11</sup>behold, they reward us by coming to cast us out of Your possession, which You have given us to inherit. <sup>12</sup>O our God, will You not judge them? For we have no might against this great company which comes against us.

Nor do we know what to do, but our eyes are on You. <sup>13</sup>And all Judah stood before the LORD with their little ones, their wives, and their sons.

<sup>14</sup>And the Spirit of the LORD came on Jahaziel the son of Zechariah, the son of Benaiah, the son of Jeiel, the son of Mattaniah, a Levite of the sons of Asaph, in the midst of the congregation. <sup>15</sup>And he said, Listen, all Judah, and you people of Jerusalem, and king Jehoshaphat! So says the LORD to you, Do not be afraid nor dismayed because of this great multitude. For the battle is not yours, but God's. <sup>16</sup>Tomorrow go down against them. Behold, they come up by the cliff of Ziz. And you shall find them at the end of the valley, before the wilderness of Jeruel. <sup>17</sup>You shall not fight in this battle. Set yourselves and stand, and see the salvation of the LORD with you, O Judah and Jerusalem. Do not fear nor be dismayed. Tomorrow go out against them, for the LORD will be with you. <sup>18</sup>And Jehoshaphat bowed his head with his face to the ground. And all Judah and the people of Jerusalem fell before the LORD, worshipping the LORD. <sup>19</sup>And the Levites, of the sons of the Kohathites and of the sons of the Korhites, stood up to praise the LORD God of Israel with a loud voice on high.

<sup>20</sup>And they rose early in the morning and went out into the wilderness of Tekoa. And as they went out, Jehoshaphat stood and said, Hear me, O Judah, and you people of Jerusalem. Believe in the LORD your God, and so you shall be established. Believe His prophets, and so you shall be blessed. <sup>21</sup>And he consulted with the people, and he appointed singers to the LORD and praisers to praise the beauty of holiness as they went out before the army, and to say, Praise the LORD, for His mercy endures forever. <sup>22</sup>And when they began to sing and to praise, the LORD set ambushes against the sons of Ammon, Moab, and mount Seir, who had come against Judah. And they were beaten. <sup>23</sup>For the sons of Ammon and Moab stood up against the people of mount Seir to completely kill and destroy. And when they had made an end of the people of Seir, everyone helped to destroy another. <sup>24</sup>And when Judah came to the watchtower in the wilderness, they looked at the multitude. And behold! They were dead bodies fallen to the earth, and none escaped. <sup>25</sup>And Jehoshaphat and his people came to take their plunder, they found among them in abundance both riches and precious jewels in great number with the dead bodies, which they stripped off for themselves, more than they could carry away. And they were three days in gathering of the plunder, it was so much.

<sup>26</sup>And on the fourth day they gathered themselves in the Valley of Blessing. For there they blessed the LORD. And the name of the same place was called the Valley of Blessing until this day. <sup>27</sup>And they returned, every man of Judah and Jerusalem, and Jehoshaphat in front of them, to go again to Jerusalem with joy. For the LORD had made them to rejoice over their enemies. <sup>28</sup>And they came into Jerusalem with harps and with lyres, and with trumpets to the house of the LORD. <sup>29</sup>And the fear of God was on all the kingdoms of those countries, when they had heard that the LORD fought against the enemies of Israel. <sup>30</sup>And the kingdom of Jehoshaphat was quiet. For his God gave him rest round about.

<sup>31</sup>And Jehoshaphat reigned over Judah, thirty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty-five years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi. <sup>32</sup>And he walked in the way of Asa his father, and did not depart from it, doing the right in the sight of the LORD. <sup>33</sup>But, the high places were not taken away, for as yet the people had not prepared their hearts to the God of their fathers. <sup>34</sup>And the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, first and last, behold, they are written in the book of Jehu the son of Hanani, which has been added to the book of the kings of Israel. <sup>35</sup>And after this Jehoshaphat king of Judah joined himself with Ahaziah king of Israel; he did wickedly to do so.

<sup>36</sup>And he joined himself with him to make ships to go to Tarshish. And they made the ships in Ezion-geber. <sup>37</sup>And Eliezer the son of Dodavah of Mareshah prophesied against Jehoshaphat, saying, Because you have joined yourself with Ahaziah, the LORD has broken your works. And the ships were broken so that they were not able to go to Tarshish.

CHAPTER 21

<sup>1</sup>And Jehoshaphat slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David. And Jehoram his son reigned in his place. <sup>2</sup>And he had brothers, the sons of Jehoshaphat, Azariah, and Jehiel, and Zechariah, and Azariah, and Michael, and Shephatiah. All these were the sons of Jehoshaphat king of Israel. <sup>3</sup>And their father gave them great gifts of silver and of gold and of precious things, with fortified cities in Judah. But the kingdom he gave to Jehoram, because he was the first-born. <sup>4</sup>And when Jehoram had risen up to the kingdom of his father, he made himself strong and killed all his brothers with the sword, and also many of the rulers of Israel.

<sup>5</sup>Jehoram was thirty-two years old when he began to reign. And he reigned eight years in Jerusalem. <sup>6</sup>And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, like the house of Ahab for he had the daughter of Ahab for a wife. And he did the evil in the eyes of the LORD. <sup>7</sup>And the LORD was not willing to destroy the house of David, because of the covenant that He had made with David, and as He promised to give a light to him and to his sons forever.

<sup>8</sup>In his days Edom revolted from under the rule of Judah, and made themselves a king. <sup>9</sup>And Jehoram went forth with his rulers, and all his chariots with him. And he rose up by night and struck the Edomites who surrounded him, and the captains of the chariots. <sup>10</sup>And the Edomites revolted from under the hand of Judah until this day. The same time Libnah revolted from under his hand, because he had forsaken the LORD God of his fathers. <sup>11</sup>Besides he made high places in the mountains of Judah, and caused the people of Jerusalem to commit fornication, and forced Judah also. <sup>12</sup>And a writing came to him from Elijah the prophet, saying, So says the LORD God of David your father, Because you have not walked in the ways of Jehoshaphat your father, nor in the ways of Asa king of Judah, <sup>13</sup>but have walked in the way of the kings of Israel, and have made Judah and the people of Jerusalem to go lusting like the fornications of the house of Ahab, and also have killed your brothers of your fathers house (who were better than you), <sup>14</sup>behold, the LORD will strike your people with a great plague, and your sons, and your wives, and all your goods. <sup>15</sup>And you shall have great sickness by disease in your bowels, until your bowels fall out because of the sickness day by day.

<sup>16</sup>And the LORD stirred up the spirit of the Philistines against Jehoram, and of the Arabians who were near the Ethiopians. <sup>17</sup>And they came up into Judah and broke into it, and carried away all the stuff that was found in the king's house, and his sons also, and his wives, so that there was not a son left with him except Ahaziah, the youngest of his sons.

<sup>18</sup>And after this the LORD struck him in his bowels with a disease that could not be cured. <sup>19</sup>And it happened as days and as the time went out, at the end of two years, his bowels fell out because of his sickness. And he died of painful diseases. And his people made no burning for him like the burning of his fathers. <sup>20</sup>He was thirty-two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem eight years, and departed without being desired. And they buried him in the city of David, but not in the tombs of the kings.

CHAPTER 22

<sup>1</sup>And the people of Jerusalem made Ahaziah his youngest son king in his place. For the band of men that came with the Arabians to the camp had killed all the older ones. And Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah reigned. <sup>2</sup>Ahaziah's dynasty was forty-two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Athaliah the daughter of Omri. <sup>3</sup>He also walked in the ways of the house of Ahab. For his mother was his counselor to do wickedly. <sup>4</sup>And he did evil in the sight of the LORD like the house of Ahab. For they were his counselors after the death of his father, to his ruin.

<sup>5</sup>He also walked after their advice and went with Jehoram the son of Ahab king of Israel to war against Hazael king of Syria at Ramoth-gilead. And the Syrians struck Jehoram. <sup>6</sup>And he returned to be healed in Jezreel, because of the wounds which were given him at Ramah, when he fought with Hazael king of Syria. And Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah went down to see Jehoram the son of Ahab at Jezreel, because he was sick. <sup>7</sup>And by coming to Jehoram, the destruction of Ahaziah was of God. He went out with Jehoram against Jehu the son of Nimshi, whom the LORD had anointed to cut off the house of Ahab. <sup>8</sup>And it happened when Jehu was executing judgment on the house of Ahab, and found the rulers of Judah and the sons of the brothers of Ahaziah, the servants of Ahaziah, he killed them. <sup>9</sup>And he looked for Ahaziah. And they caught him (for he was hidden in Samaria), and brought him to Jehu. And when they had killed him, they buried him because they said, He is the son of Jehoshaphat who looked to the LORD with all his heart. And the house of Ahaziah had no power still to keep the kingdom.

<sup>10</sup>And Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, and she arose and spoke to destroy all the royal seed of the house of Judah. <sup>11</sup>But Jehoshabeath the daughter of the king took Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stole him from among the king's sons who were killed. And she put him and his nurse in a bedroom. And Jehoshabeath, the daughter of king Jehoram, the wife of Jehoiada the priest (for she was the sister of Ahaziah) hid him from Athaliah so that she did not kill him. <sup>12</sup>And he was with them six years, hidden in the house of God. And Athaliah reigned over the land.

CHAPTER 23

<sup>1</sup>And in the seventh year Jehoiada made himself strong. And he took the captains of hundreds, Azariah the son of Jeroham, and Ishmael the son of Jehohanan, and Azariah the son of Obed, and Maaseiah the son of Adaiah, and Elishaphat the son of Zichri into covenant with him. <sup>2</sup>And they went about in Judah and gathered the Levites out of all the cities of Judah, and the chief of the fathers of Israel, and they came to Jerusalem. <sup>3</sup>And all the congregation made a covenant with the king in the house of God. And he said to them, Behold, the king's son shall reign, as the LORD has said of the sons of David. <sup>4</sup>This is the thing that you shall do. A third part of you entering on the sabbath, of the priests and of the Levites, shall be keepers of the doors. <sup>5</sup>And a third part shall be at the king's house. And a third part shall be at the gate of the foundation. And all the people shall be in the courts of the house of the LORD. <sup>6</sup>But let none come into the house of the LORD except the priests, and those of the Levites who minister. They shall go in, for they are holy. But all the people shall keep the watch of the LORD. <sup>7</sup>And the Levites shall surround the king, each man with his weapons in his hand. And whoever comes into the house, he shall be put to death. But you be with the king when he comes in and when he goes out.

<sup>8</sup>And the Levites and all Judah did according to all things that Jehoiada the priest had commanded. And every man took his men who were to come in on the sabbath, with the ones who were to go out on the sabbath. For Jehoiada the priest did not dismiss the divisions. <sup>9</sup>And Jehoiada the priest delivered to the captains of hundreds king David's spears and bucklers and shields, which were in the house of God. <sup>10</sup>And he set all the people, each man having his weapon in his hand, from the right side of the temple to the left side of the temple, along by the altar and the temple, by the king round about. <sup>11</sup>And they brought out the king's son and put the crown on him, and gave him the testimony, and made him king. And Jehoiada and his sons anointed him and said, Let the king live!

<sup>12</sup>And Athaliah heard the noise of the people running and praising the king, and she came to the people into the house of the LORD. <sup>13</sup>And she looked, and behold, the king stood at his pillar at the entrance, and the rulers and the trumpets by the king. And all the people of the land were rejoicing and sounding with trumpets, and the singers with instruments of music, and giving signals to praise. And Athaliah tore her clothes and cried, Treason! Treason! <sup>14</sup>And Jehoiada the priest brought out the captains of hundreds who were set over the army, and said to them, Take her out of the ranks. And whoever follows her shall be killed with the sword. For the priest said, Do not kill her in the house of the LORD. <sup>15</sup>And they laid hands on her; and she came to the entrance of the Gate of the Horses, beside the king's house, and they executed her there.

<sup>16</sup>And Jehoiada made a covenant between him, and between all the people and between the king, that they should be the LORD's people. <sup>17</sup>And all the people went to the house of Baal and broke it down, and smashed his altars and his images. And they killed Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars. <sup>18</sup>And Jehoiada chose the officers of the house of the LORD by the hand of the priests the Levites, whom David had distributed in the house of the LORD, to offer the burnt offerings of the LORD, as it is written in the law of Moses, with rejoicing and with singing with joy and with singing, by the hands of David. <sup>19</sup>And he set the gatekeepers at the gates of the house of the LORD, so that the unclean in any way could not go in. <sup>20</sup>And he took the captains of hundreds, and the nobles, and the governors of the people, and all the people of the land, and brought the king down from the house of the LORD. And they came through the Upper Gate into the king's house, and set the king on the throne of the kingdom. <sup>21</sup>And all the people of the land rejoiced. And the city was quiet after they had killed Athaliah with the sword.

CHAPTER 24

<sup>1</sup>Joash was seven years old when he began to reign. And he reigned forty years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Zibiah of Beer-sheba. <sup>2</sup>And Joash did the right in the eyes of the LORD all the days of Jehoiada the priest. <sup>3</sup>And Jehoiada took two wives for him, and he fathered sons and daughters

<sup>4</sup>And it happened after this, it had been in the mind of Joash to repair the house of the LORD. <sup>5</sup>And he gathered together the priests and the Levites and said to them, Go out to the cities of Judah, and gather money from all Israel to repair the house of your God from year to year. And see that you hasten the matter. And the Levites did not hasten it. <sup>6</sup>And the king called for Jehoiada and said to him, Why have you not made the Levites bring in the collection out of Judah and out of Jerusalem, according to Moses the servant of the LORD, and of the congregation of Israel, for the tabernacle of witness? <sup>7</sup>For the sons of Athaliah, that wicked woman, have broken up the house of God. And also all the dedicated things of the house of the LORD they have given to Baals.

<sup>8</sup>And the king commanded, and they made a chest, and set it outside at the gate of the house of the LORD. <sup>9</sup>And they gave a call in Judah and in Jerusalem, to bring in to the LORD the collection that Moses the servant of God laid on Israel in the wilderness. <sup>10</sup>And all the rulers and all the people rejoiced, and brought in, and threw into the chests until they had made an end. <sup>11</sup>And it happened at the time the chest was brought into the king's office by the Levites, and when they saw that the money was abundant, the king's scribe and the high priest's officer came and emptied the chest, and took it and carried it to its place again. So they did day by day, and gathered a great amount of money. <sup>12</sup>And the king and Jehoiada gave it to those who did the work of the service of the house of the LORD. And they hired masons and carpenters to repair the house of the LORD, and also artisans in iron and bronze, to mend the house of the LORD. <sup>13</sup>And the workmen worked, and the work was completed by them, and they set the house of God in its proper state and made it strong. <sup>14</sup>And when they had finished, they brought the rest of the money before the king and Jehoiada. Of this money were made vessels for the house of the LORD, vessels to minister and to offer, and spoons, and vessels of gold and silver. And they continually offered burnt offerings in the house of the LORD all the days of Jehoiada. <sup>15</sup>But Jehoiada became old, and was full of days when he died. He was a hundred and thirty years old when he died. <sup>16</sup>And they buried him in the city of David among the kings, because he had done good in Israel, both toward God and toward His house.

<sup>17</sup>And after the death of Jehoiada the rulers of Judah came and bowed down to the king. And the king listened to them. <sup>18</sup>And they left the house of the LORD God of their fathers, and served groves and idols. And wrath came on Judah and Jerusalem for this their guilt. <sup>19</sup>Yet He sent prophets to them to bring them again to the LORD. And they testified against them. But they would not listen. <sup>20</sup>And the Spirit of God came on Zechariah the son of Jehoiada the priest, who stood above the people and said to them, So says God, Why do you transgress the commandments of the LORD so that you cannot be blessed? Because you have forsaken the LORD, He has also forsaken you. <sup>21</sup>And they conspired against him and stoned him with stones at the command of the king in the court of the house of the LORD. <sup>22</sup>And Joash the king did not remember the kindness which Jehoiada his father had done to him, but killed his son. And when he died, he said, The LORD will see you out.

<sup>23</sup>And it happened at the end of the year the army of Syria came up against him. And they came to Judah and Jerusalem, and destroyed all the rulers of the people from among the people, and sent all the plunder of them to the king of Damascus. <sup>24</sup>For the army of the Syrians came with a small company of men, and the LORD delivered a very great army into their hand, because they had forsaken the God of the fathers. And they executed judgment against Joash. <sup>25</sup>And when they had departed from him (for they left him in great diseases), his own servants conspired against him for the blood of the sons of Jehoiada the priest, and killed him on his bed, and he died. And they buried him in the city of David, but they did not bury him in the tombs of the kings. <sup>26</sup>And these are the ones who conspired against him Zabab the son of Shimeath of Ammon, and Jehozabad the son of Shimrith of Moab. <sup>27</sup>And as to his sons, and the greatness of the burdens on him, and the repairing of the house of God, behold, they are written in the story of the Book of the Kings. And Amaziah his son reigned in his place.

CHAPTER 25

<sup>1</sup>Amaziah was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jehoaddan of Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup>And he did the right in the eyes of the LORD, but not with a perfect heart. <sup>3</sup>And it happened when the kingdom was made sure to him, he killed his servants who had killed his father, the king. <sup>4</sup>But he did not kill their sons, but as it is written in the law in the book of Moses, where the LORD commanded, saying, The father shall not die for the sons, nor shall the sons die for the fathers, but every man shall die for his own sin.

<sup>5</sup>And Amaziah gathered Judah and made them captains over thousands and captains over hundreds, according to the houses of the fathers, for all Judah and Benjamin. And he numbered them from twenty years old and above, and found them three hundred thousand choice men able to go forth to war, that could handle spear and shield. <sup>6</sup>And he hired a hundred thousand mighty men of war out of Israel for a hundred talents of silver. <sup>7</sup>But a man of God came to him saying, O king, do not let the army of Israel go with you, for the LORD is not with Israel, with all the sons of Ephraim. <sup>8</sup>But if you will go, do it! Be strong for the battle, for God shall make you fall before the enemy, for God has power to help and to throw down. <sup>9</sup>And Amaziah said to the man of God, But what shall we do for the hundred talents which I have given to the army of Israel? And the man of God answered, The LORD is able to give you much more than this. <sup>10</sup>And Amaziah separated them, the army that had come to him out of Ephraim, to go home again. And their anger was greatly kindled against Judah, and they returned home in great anger.

<sup>11</sup>And Amaziah made himself strong, and led forth his people, and went to the Valley of Salt, and struck ten thousand of the sons of Seir. <sup>12</sup>And the sons of Judah carried away captive ten thousand alive, and brought them to the top of the rock, and threw them down from the top of the rock so they were all broken in pieces. <sup>13</sup>And the sons of the army which Amaziah sent back, that they should not go with him to battle, fell on the cities of Judah from Samaria even to Beth-horon, and struck three thousand of them and took much plunder.

<sup>14</sup>And it happened after Amaziah had come from the slaughter of the Edomites, he brought the gods of the sons of Seir and set them up to be his gods, and bowed down himself before them and burned incense to them. <sup>15</sup>And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Amaziah, and He sent to him a prophet who said to him, Why have you sought after the gods of the people which could not deliver their own people out of your hand? <sup>16</sup>And it happened as he talked with him, the king said to him, Have we made you of the king's counsel? Stop! Why should you be stricken? And the prophet stopped. And he said, I know that God has determined to destroy you because you have done this and have not listened to my counsel. <sup>17</sup>And Amaziah king of Judah took advice, and sent to Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz the son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, Come let us look one another in the face. <sup>18</sup>And Jehoash king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah saying, The thistle that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar in Lebanon, saying, Give your daughter to my son for a wife. And a beast of the field in Lebanon passed by and trampled the thistle down. <sup>19</sup>You have said, Lo, I have stricken the Edomites, and your heart lifts you up to boast. Now stay at home why should you meddle to your hurt, so that you should fall, you and Judah with you? <sup>20</sup>But Amaziah would not hear, for it was from God so that He might deliver them into the hand of their enemies, because they sought after the gods of Edom. <sup>21</sup>And Jehoash the king of Israel went up. And they saw one another in the face, he and Amaziah king of Judah, at Beth-shemesh of Judah. <sup>22</sup>And Judah was beaten before Israel, and each man fled to his tent. <sup>23</sup>And Jehoash the king of Israel took Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Joash the son of Ahaziah, at Beth-shemesh, and brought him to Jerusalem and broke down the wall of Jerusalem from the Ephraim Gate to the Corner Gate, four hundred cubits. <sup>24</sup>And he took all the gold and the silver, and all the vessels which were found in the house of God with Obed-edom, and the treasures of the king's house, the hostages also, and returned to Samaria.

<sup>25</sup>And Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah lived fifteen years after the death of Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz king of Israel. <sup>26</sup>And the rest of the acts of Amaziah, first and last, behold, are they not written in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel? <sup>27</sup>And after the time that Amaziah turned away from following the LORD, they made a plot against him in Jerusalem. And he fled to Lachish. But they sent to Lachish after him and killed him there. <sup>28</sup>And they brought him on horses and buried him with his fathers in the city of Judah.

CHAPTER 26

<sup>1</sup>And all the people of Judah took Uzziah, and he was sixteen years old, and made him king in his father Amaziah's place. <sup>2</sup>He built Eloth, and restored it to Judah, after the king lay with his fathers. <sup>3</sup>Uzziah was sixteen years old when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty-two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Jecoliah of Jerusalem. <sup>4</sup>And he did the right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father Amaziah did. <sup>5</sup>And he sought God in the days of Zechariah, who had understanding in the visions of God. As long as he sought the LORD, God blessed him. <sup>6</sup>And he went out and warred against the Philistines, and broke down the wall of Gath, and the wall of Jabneh, and the wall of Ashdod, and built cities around Ashdod, and among the Philistines. <sup>7</sup>And God helped him against the Philistines, and against the Arabians who lived in Gurbaal, and the Meunites. <sup>8</sup>And the Ammonites paid tribute to Uzziah. And his name spread abroad even to the entrance of Egypt, for he was made very strong. <sup>9</sup>And, Uzziah built towers in Jerusalem at the Corner Gate and at the Valley Gate, and at the turning of the wall, and fortified them. <sup>10</sup>And he built towers in the desert, and dug many wells. For he had many cattle, both in the low country and in the plains. He also had husbandmen and vinedressers in the mountains, and in Carmel. For he loved the earth. <sup>11</sup>And, Uzziah had an army of making war, going out to war by troops, according to the number of their oversight by the hand of Jeiel the scribe and Maaseiah the ruler, under the hand of Hananiah, one of the king's captains. <sup>12</sup>The whole number of the heads of the fathers of the mighty men of power was two thousand and six hundred. <sup>13</sup>And under their hand was an army of three hundred and seven thousand, five hundred, that made war with mighty power to help the king against the enemy. <sup>14</sup>And Uzziah prepared for them, for all the army, shields and spears and helmets and coats of armor and bows and stones for the slings. <sup>15</sup>And he made engines in Jerusalem, invented by skillful men, to be on the towers and on the corners, to shoot arrows and great stones with. And his name spread far abroad. For he was wonderfully helped until he was strong. <sup>16</sup>But when he was strong, his heart was lifted up to ruin. For he sinned against the LORD his God, and went into the temple of the LORD to burn incense on the altar of incense. <sup>17</sup>And Azariah the priest went in after him, and with him eighty priests of the LORD, mighty men. <sup>18</sup>And they withstood Uzziah the king and said to him, It is not for you, Uzziah, to burn incense to the Lord, but to the priests, the sons of Aaron who are consecrated to burn incense. Go out of the temple, for you have sinned. Nor shall it be for your honor from the LORD God. <sup>19</sup>And Uzziah was angry. And he had a censer in his hand to burn incense. And while he was angry with the priests, the leprosy even rose up in his forehead before the priests in the house of the LORD, from beside the incense altar. <sup>20</sup>And Azariah the chief priest, and all the priests, looked on him. And, behold, he was leprous in his forehead! And they thrust him out from there. Yes, he himself hurried to go out also, because the LORD had stricken him. <sup>21</sup>And Uzziah the king was a leper until the day of his death, and lived in a separate house a leper. For he was cut off from the house of the LORD. And Jotham his son was over the king's house, judging the people of the land. <sup>22</sup>And the rest of the acts of Uzziah, first and last, Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, wrote. <sup>23</sup>And Uzziah slept with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers in the field of the burial of the kings. For they said, He is a leper. And his son Jotham reigned in his place.

CHAPTER 27

<sup>1</sup>Jotham was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jerushah, the daughter of Zadok. <sup>2</sup>And he did the right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father Uzziah did. Only, he did not enter into the temple of the LORD. And the people still did evilly. <sup>3</sup>He built the high gate of the house of the LORD, and on the wall of Ophel he built much. <sup>4</sup>And he built cities in the mountains of Judah, and in the forests he built palaces and towers. <sup>5</sup>And He fought with the king of the Ammonites and prevailed over them. And the sons of Ammon gave him the same year a hundred talents of silver and ten thousand measures of wheat, and ten thousand of barley. This the sons of Ammon paid to him, both the second year and the third. <sup>6</sup>And Jotham became mighty because he prepared his ways before the LORD his God. <sup>7</sup>And the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all his wars, and his ways, lo, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah. <sup>8</sup>He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. <sup>9</sup>And Jotham slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David. And his son Ahaz reigned in his place.

CHAPTER 28

<sup>1</sup>Ahaz was twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. But he did not do the right in the sight of the LORD, like David his father. <sup>2</sup>For he walked in the ways of the kings of Israel, and also made molded images for Baals. <sup>3</sup>And he burned incense in the valley of the son of Hinnom, and burned his sons in the fire, according to the abominations of the nations whom the LORD had cast out before the sons of Israel. <sup>4</sup>And He sacrificed and burned incense in the high places, and on the hills, and under every green tree. <sup>5</sup>And the LORD his God delivered him into the hand of the king of Syria. And they struck him and carried away a great multitude of them captives, and brought them to Damascus. And he was also delivered into the hand of the king of Israel, who struck him with a great slaughter.

<sup>6</sup>And Pekah the son of Remaliah killed a hundred and twenty thousand in Judah in one day, all mighty men, because they had forsaken the LORD God of their fathers. <sup>7</sup>And Zichri, a mighty man of Ephraim, killed Maaseiah the king's son, and Azrikam the governor of the house, and Elkanah who was next to the king. <sup>8</sup>And the sons of Israel carried away captive two hundred thousand of their brothers, women, and daughters, and also took away much plunder from them and brought the plunder to Samaria. <sup>9</sup>But a prophet of the LORD was there, whose name was Oded. And he went out before the army that came to Samaria and said to them, Behold, because the Lord God of your fathers was angry with Judah, He has delivered them into your hands, and you have killed them in a rage which reaches up to Heaven. <sup>10</sup>And now you intend to keep under the sons of Judah and Jerusalem for bondmen and bondwomen to you. Are there not with you, even with you, sins against the LORD your God? <sup>11</sup>And now hear me, and deliver again the captives which you have taken captive of your brothers. For the fierce wrath of the LORD is on you. <sup>12</sup>And certain of the heads of the sons of Ephraim, Azariah the son of Johanan, Berechiah the son of Meshillemoth, and Jehizkiah the son of Shallum, and Amasa the son of Hadlai, stood up against them who came from the war. <sup>13</sup>And they said to them, You shall not bring the captives here. For we have offended the LORD, and you intend to add to our sins and to our trespass. For our trespass is great, and there is fierce wrath against Israel. <sup>14</sup>And the armed men left the captives and the plunder before the rulers and all the congregation. <sup>15</sup>And the men who were called by name rose up and took the captives and clothed all that were naked among them with the plunder, and dressed them, and shod them, and made them eat and drink, and anointed them, and carried all the feeble ones on asses, and brought them to Jericho, the city of palm trees, to their brothers. And they returned to Samaria.

<sup>16</sup>At that time king Ahaz sent to the kings of Assyria to help him. <sup>17</sup>For again the Edomites had come and had beaten Judah and had carried away captives. <sup>18</sup>The Philistines also had invaded the cities of the low country and of the south of Judah, and had taken Beth-shemesh and Aijalon, and Gederoth, and Shocho with its villages, and Timnah with its villages, and Gimzo and its villages. And they lived there. <sup>19</sup>For the LORD brought Judah low because of Ahaz king of Israel. For he loosed immorality in Judah, and sinned grievously against the LORD. <sup>20</sup>And Tilgath-pilneser king of Assyria came to him and troubled him, but did not strengthen him. <sup>21</sup>For Ahaz took away a portion of the house of the LORD, and of the house of the king, and of the rulers, and gave it to the king of Assyria. But he did not help him. <sup>22</sup>And in the time of his distress he trespassed even more against the LORD, this king Ahaz. <sup>23</sup>For he sacrificed to the gods of Damascus who struck him. And he said, Because the gods of the kings of Syria helped them, I will sacrifice to them so that they may help me. But they were the ruin of him and of all Israel. <sup>24</sup>And Ahaz gathered the vessels of the house of God and cut in pieces the vessels of the house of God, and shut up the doors of the house of the LORD. And he made himself altars in every corner of Jerusalem. <sup>25</sup>And in each separate city of Judah he made high places to burn incense to other gods, and provoked to anger the LORD God of his fathers.

<sup>26</sup>And the rest of his acts and of all his ways, first and last, behold, they are written in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel. <sup>27</sup>And Ahaz slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city, in Jerusalem. But they did not bring him into the tombs of the kings of Israel. And his son Hezekiah reigned in his place.

CHAPTER 29

<sup>1</sup>Hezekiah began to reign when he was twenty-five years old, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Abijah the daughter of Zechariah. <sup>2</sup>And he did the right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that David his father had done. <sup>3</sup>In the first year of his reign, in the first month, he opened the doors of the house of the LORD and repaired them. <sup>4</sup>And he brought in the priests and the Levites, and gathered them into the east street. <sup>5</sup>And he said to them, Hear me, Levites, now sanctify yourselves and sanctify the house of the LORD God of your fathers, and carry out the filthiness out of the holy place. <sup>6</sup>For our fathers have sinned and did the evil in the eyes of the LORD our God, and have forsaken Him, and have turned away their faces from the house of the LORD, and have turned their backs. <sup>7</sup>Also they have shut up the doors of the porch, and put out the lamps, and have not burned incense nor offered burnt offerings in the holy place to the God of Israel. <sup>8</sup>Therefore the wrath of the LORD was on Judah and Jerusalem, and He has delivered them to trouble, to ruin, and to hissing as you see with your eyes. <sup>9</sup>For lo, our fathers have fallen by the sword, and our sons and our daughters and our wives are in captivity for this. <sup>10</sup>And it is in my heart to make a covenant with the LORD God of Israel, that His fierce wrath may turn away from us. <sup>11</sup>My sons, do not be negligent now. For the LORD has chosen you to stand before Him, to serve Him, and that you should minister to Him and burn incense.

<sup>12</sup>And the Levites arose, Mahath the son of Amasai, and Joel the son of Azariah, of the sons of the Kohathites. And of the sons of Merari arose Kish the son of Abdi, and Azariah the son of Jahalelel. And of the Gershonites: Joah the son of Zimmah, and Eden the son of Joah. <sup>13</sup>And of the sons of Elizaphan: Shimri and Jeiel. And of the sons of Asaph: Zechariah and Mattaniah. <sup>14</sup>And of the sons of Heman: Jehiel and Shimei. And of the sons of Jeduthun: Shemaiah and Uzziel. <sup>15</sup>And they gathered their brothers and sanctified themselves, and came, according to the command of the king, by the words of the LORD, to clean the house of the LORD. <sup>16</sup>And the priests went into the inner part of the house of the LORD to clean it. And they brought out all the uncleanness that they found in the temple of the LORD into the court of the house of the LORD. And the Levites took it out to the brook Kidron. <sup>17</sup>And they began to sanctify on the first of the first month. And on the eighth day of the month they came to the porch of the LORD. And they made the house of the LORD pure in eight days, and in the sixteenth day of the first month they made an end. <sup>18</sup>And they went in to Hezekiah the king and said, We have cleaned all the house of the LORD, and the altar of burnt offering, with all its vessels, and the showbread table, and all its vessels. <sup>19</sup>And we have prepared and sanctified all the vessels which king Ahaz in his reign cast away in his sin. And behold, they are before the altar of the LORD.

<sup>20</sup>And Hezekiah the king rose early and gathered the rulers of the city, and went up to the house of the LORD. <sup>21</sup>And they brought seven bulls and seven rams and seven lambs and seven he-goats, for a sin offering for the kingdom, and for the holy place, and for Judah. And he commanded the priests, the sons of Aaron, to offer them on the altar of the LORD. <sup>22</sup>And they killed the bulls, and the priests received the blood and sprinkled it on the altar. And they killed the rams, and sprinkled the blood on the altar. They also killed the lambs, and they sprinkled the blood on the altar. <sup>23</sup>And they brought out the he-goats for the sin offering before the king and the congregation. And they laid their hands on them. <sup>24</sup>And the priest killed them, and they made atonement with their blood on the altar, to make atonement for all Israel. For the king commanded the burnt offering and the sin offering to be made for all Israel. <sup>25</sup>And he set the Levites in the house of the LORD with cymbals, with harps, and with lyres, according to the command of David, and of Gad the king's seer and Nathan the prophet. For the commandment was by the hand of the LORD by His prophets. <sup>26</sup>And the Levites stood with the instruments of David, and the priests with the trumpets. <sup>27</sup>And Hezekiah commanded to offer the burnt offering on the altar. And when the burnt offering began, the song of the LORD began with the trumpets and with the instruments ordained by David king of Israel. <sup>28</sup>And all the congregation worshiped, and the singers sang, and the trumpeters sounded. All this went on until the burnt offering was finished. <sup>29</sup>And when they had made an end of offering, the king and all who were present with him bowed themselves and worshiped.

<sup>30</sup>And Hezekiah the king and the rulers commanded the Levites to sing praise to the LORD with the words of David and of Asaph the seer. And they sang praises with gladness, and they bowed their heads and worshiped. <sup>31</sup>And Hezekiah answered and said, And you have consecrated yourselves to the LORD. Come near and bring sacrifices and thank offerings into the house of the LORD. And the congregation brought in sacrifices and thank offerings. And as many as were of a free heart brought burnt offerings. <sup>32</sup>And the number of the burnt offerings which the congregation brought was seventy bulls, a hundred rams, two hundred lambs. All these were for a burnt offering to the LORD. <sup>33</sup>And the things consecrated were six hundred oxen and three thousand sheep. <sup>34</sup>But the priests were too few, so that they could not skin all the burnt offerings. And their brothers the Levites helped them until the work was ended, and until the priests had sanctified themselves. For the Levites were more upright of heart to make themselves pure than the priests. <sup>35</sup>And also the burnt offerings were in abundance, with the fat of the peace offerings and the drink offerings for every burnt offering. And the service of the house of the LORD was set in order. <sup>36</sup>And Hezekiah rejoiced, and all the people, that God had prepared the people. For the thing happened suddenly.

CHAPTER 30

<sup>1</sup>And Hezekiah sent to all Israel and Judah, and wrote letters also to Ephraim and Manasseh, that they should come to the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, to keep the Passover to the LORD God of Israel. <sup>2</sup>And the king and his leaders, and all the congregation in Jerusalem, took counsel to keep the Passover in the second month. <sup>3</sup>For they could not keep it at that time, because the priests had not made themselves pure enough, nor had the people gathered to Jerusalem. <sup>4</sup>And the thing pleased the king and all the congregation. <sup>5</sup>And they established a decree to send a notice throughout all Israel, from Beer-sheba even to Dan, that they should come to keep the Passover to the LORD God of Israel at Jerusalem. For not many of them had done as it was written. <sup>6</sup>And the runners went with the letters from the king and his rulers to Israel and Judah, and according to the command of the king, saying, O sons of Israel, turn again to the LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, and He will return to the remnant of you who have escaped out of the hands of the king of Assyria. <sup>7</sup>And do not be like your fathers and like your brothers who sinned against the LORD God of their fathers, and He made them for a horror, as you see. <sup>8</sup>And do not be stiffnecked like your fathers. Yield yourselves to the LORD and enter into His temple which He has sanctified forever. And serve the LORD your God, so that the fierceness of His wrath may turn away from you. <sup>9</sup>For if you turn again to the LORD, your brothers and your sons shall find pity before those who lead them captive, so that they shall come again into this land. For the LORD your God is gracious and merciful, and will not turn His face away from you if you return to Him.

<sup>10</sup>And the runners passed from city to city in the land of Ephraim and Manasseh, even to Zebulun. But they laughed them to scorn, and mocked them. <sup>11</sup>However, many from Asher and Manasseh and Zebulun humbled themselves and came to Jerusalem. <sup>12</sup>Also in Judah the hand of God was to give them one heart to do the command of the king and of the rulers, by the word of the LORD.

<sup>13</sup>And many people gathered at Jerusalem to keep the Feast of Unleavened Bread in the second month, a very great congregation. <sup>14</sup>And they arose and took away the altars in Jerusalem, and all the altars for incense they took away, and threw them into the brook Kidron. <sup>15</sup>And they killed the Passover on the fourteenth of the second month. And the priests and the Levites were ashamed and made themselves pure, and brought in the burnt offerings into the house of the LORD. <sup>16</sup>And they stood in their place in their manner, according to the law of Moses the man of God. The priests sprinkled the blood from the hand of the Levites. <sup>17</sup>For many in the congregation were not sanctified. And the Levites had charge of the killing of the passovers for every one who was not clean, to sanctify them to the LORD. <sup>18</sup>For many of the people, many from Ephraim and Manasseh, Issachar and Zebulun, had not been cleansed, but ate the Passover otherwise than it was written. But Hezekiah prayed for them, saying, May the good LORD pardon everyone <sup>19</sup>who prepares his heart to seek God, the LORD God of his fathers, though not cleansed according to the purification of the sanctuary. <sup>20</sup>And the LORD listened to Hezekiah and healed the people.

<sup>21</sup>And the sons of Israel found at Jerusalem kept the Feast of Unleavened Bread seven days with great gladness. And the Levites and the priests praised the LORD day by day with loud instruments to the LORD. <sup>22</sup>And Hezekiah spoke comfortably to all the Levites who taught the good knowledge of the LORD. And they ate the appointed things seven days, offering peace offerings and making confession to the LORD God of their fathers. <sup>23</sup>And the whole gathering agreed to keep another seven days. And they kept another seven days with gladness. <sup>24</sup>For Hezekiah king of Judah gave to the congregation a thousand bulls and seven thousand sheep. And the rulers gave to the congregation a thousand bulls and ten thousand sheep. And a great number of priests sanctified themselves. <sup>25</sup>And all the congregation of Judah, with the priests and the Levites, and all the congregation that came out of Israel, and the strangers that came out of the land of Israel, and who lived in Judah, rejoiced. <sup>26</sup>And there was great joy in Jerusalem. For from the days of Solomon the son of David the king of Israel there was nothing like this in Jerusalem. <sup>27</sup>And the priests, the Levites, arose and blessed the people. And their voice was heard, and their prayer came up to His holy dwelling-place, to Heaven.

CHAPTER 31

<sup>1</sup>And when all this was finished, all Israel who were present went out to the cities of Judah and broke the images in pieces, and cut down the groves, and threw down the high places and the altars out of all Judah and Benjamin, also in Ephraim and Manasseh, even to the end. And all the sons of Israel returned, each to his possession, into their own cities.

<sup>2</sup>And Hezekiah set the courses of the priests and the Levites according to their divisions, each according to his service, the priests and Levites for burnt offerings and for peace offerings, to minister and to give thanks, and to praise in the gates of the tents of the LORD. <sup>3</sup>And the king's portion from his goods was for burnt offerings, and for peace offerings, of the morning and the evening and the burnt offerings of the sabbaths, and for the new moons, and for the set feasts, as it is written in the law of the LORD. <sup>4</sup>And he commanded the people who lived in Jerusalem to give the portion of the priests and the Levites so that they might be strong in the law of the LORD. <sup>5</sup>And as the command spread, the sons of Israel brought plentifully of the firstfruits of corn, wine, and oil, and honey, and of all the increase of the field. And the tithes of all things they brought in abundance. <sup>6</sup>And the sons of Israel and Judah who lived in the cities of Judah, they also brought in the tithes of oxen and sheep, and the tithes of holy things which were consecrated to the LORD their God, and laid it up by heaps. <sup>7</sup>In the third month they began to lay the foundation of the heaps, and finished in the seventh month. <sup>8</sup>And Hezekiah and the rulers came and saw the heaps, and they blessed the LORD and His people Israel. <sup>9</sup>And Hezekiah asked the priests and the Levites concerning the heaps. <sup>10</sup>And Azariah the chief priest of the house of Zadok answered him and said, Since the people began to bring the offerings into the house of the LORD, we have had enough to eat and have plenty left. For the LORD has blessed His people, and that which is left is this great store.

<sup>11</sup>And Hezekiah commanded storehouses to be prepared in the house of the LORD. And they prepared, <sup>12</sup>and brought in the offerings and the tithes and the things dedicated to God faithfully. And over them was Cononiah the Levite ruler, and Shimei his brother the next. <sup>13</sup>And Jehiel, and Azaziah, and Nahath, and Asahel, and Jerimoth, and Jozabad, and Eliel, and Ismachiah, and Mahath, and Benaiah, were overseers under the hand of Cononiah and Shimei his brother, at the command of Hezekiah the king, and Azariah the ruler of the house of God. <sup>14</sup>And Kore the son of Imnah the Levite, the gatekeeper toward the east, was over the freewill offerings of God, to distribute the sacrifices of the LORD and the most holy things. <sup>15</sup>And next to him Eden, and Miniamin, and Jeshua, and Shemaiah, Amaliah, and Shecaniah, in the cities of the priests, in their set office, to give to their brothers by divisions, to the great as well as to the small, <sup>16</sup>besides registering the males from three years and upward, to everyone who enters into the house of the LORD, giving his daily portion for their service in their charges according to their divisions <sup>17</sup>both to the genealogy of the priests by the house of their fathers, and the Levites from twenty years old and upward, and their charges by their divisions, <sup>18</sup>and to the genealogy of all their little ones, their wives, and their sons, and their daughters, through all the congregation. For in their set office they set themselves apart in holiness. <sup>19</sup>And to the sons of Aaron, the priests, in the fields of the suburbs of their cities, in each separate city were the men who were named by name, to give shares to all the males among the priests, and to all who were counted by genealogies among the Levites. <sup>20</sup>And Hezekiah did throughout all Judah, and did the good and the right and the true before the LORD his God. <sup>21</sup>And in every work that he began in the service of the house of God, and in the law, and in the commandments, to seek his God, he did it with all his heart, and prospered.

CHAPTER 32

<sup>1</sup>After these things done in faithfulness, Sennacherib, the king of Assyria, came and entered into Judah, and camped against the fortified cities, and commanded to break them open to himself. <sup>2</sup>And when Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib had come, and that he had set his face to fight against Jerusalem, <sup>3</sup>he took counsel with his rulers and his mighty men to stop the waters of the fountains outside the city. And they helped him. <sup>4</sup>And there were gathered many people, who stopped all the fountains, and the brook which ran through the midst of the land, saying, Why should the king of Assyria come and find much water? <sup>5</sup>And he made himself strong and built up all the wall that was broken, and raised it up to the towers, and another wall outside, and repaired Millo in the city of David, and made darts and shields in abundance. <sup>6</sup>And he set captains of war over the people and gathered them to himself in the street of the gate of the city. And he spoke to them comfortably, saying, <sup>7</sup>Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid nor dismayed because of the king of Assyria, or for all the multitude that is with him. For there are more with us than with him. <sup>8</sup>With him is an arm of flesh, but with us is the LORD our God to help us and to fight our battles. And the people rested themselves on the words of Hezekiah king of Judah.

<sup>9</sup>After this Sennacherib king of Assyria sent his servants to Jerusalem — and he was by Lachish, and all his power with him against to Hezekiah king of Judah, and against all Judah that was at Jerusalem, saying, <sup>10</sup>Sennacherib king of Assyria says this, On what do you trust that you abide in the stronghold of Jerusalem?

<sup>11</sup>Does not Hezekiah persuade you to give yourselves over to die by famine and by thirst, saying, Jehovah our God shall deliver us out of the hand of the king of Assyria? <sup>12</sup>Has not the same Hezekiah taken away his high places and his altars, and commanded Judah and Jerusalem, saying, You shall worship before one altar and burn incense on it? <sup>13</sup>Do you not know what I and my fathers have done to all the people of other lands? Were the gods of the nations of those lands in any way able to deliver their lands out of my hands? <sup>14</sup>Who among all the gods of those nations that my fathers completely destroyed is able to deliver his people out of my hand, that your God should be able to deliver you out of my hand? <sup>15</sup>And now do not let Hezekiah deceive you or persuade you in this way, nor yet believe him. For no god of any nation was able to deliver his people out of my hand, and out of the hand of my fathers. How much less shall your god deliver you out of my hand? <sup>16</sup>And his servants spoke still more against the LORD God, and against His servant Hezekiah.

<sup>17</sup>He also wrote letters to revile the LORD God of Israel, and to speak against Him, saying, As the gods of the nations of other lands have not delivered their people out of my hand, so shall not the God of Hezekiah deliver His people out of my hand. <sup>18</sup>And they cried out with a loud voice in Jewish to the people of Jerusalem on the wall, in order to frighten them and to trouble them, so that they might take the city. <sup>19</sup>And they spoke against the God of Jerusalem, as against the gods of the peoples of the earth, the work of the hands of man. <sup>20</sup>And for this reason Hezekiah the king and the prophet Isaiah the son of Amoz prayed and cried to Heaven.

<sup>21</sup>And the LORD sent an angel to cut off all the mighty men of power, and the leaders and captains in the camp of the king of Assyria. And he returned with shame of face to his own land. And he came into the house of his god, and those from his own bowels killed him there with the sword.

<sup>22</sup>And the LORD saved Hezekiah and the people of Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib the king of Assyria, and from the hand of all others, and guided them on every side. <sup>23</sup>And many brought gifts to the LORD to Jerusalem, and presents to Hezekiah king of Judah, so that he was magnified in the sight of all nations from that time on.

<sup>24</sup>In those days Hezekiah was sick to death, and prayed to the LORD. And He spoke to him, and He gave him a sign. <sup>25</sup>But Hezekiah did not give again according to the good done to him, for his heart was lifted up. And there was wrath on him and on Judah and Jerusalem. <sup>26</sup>And Hezekiah was humbled for the pride of his heart, he and the people of Jerusalem, so that the wrath of the LORD did not come on them in the days of Hezekiah. <sup>27</sup>And Hezekiah had exceedingly much riches and honor. And he made himself treasuries for silver, and for gold, and for precious stones, and for spices, and for shields, and for all kinds of pleasant jewels. <sup>28</sup>And he made storehouses for the increase of grain and wine and oil, and stalls for all kinds of animals, and cotes for flocks. <sup>29</sup>And he provided himself cities, and possessions of flocks and herds, in abundance. For God had given him very many things. <sup>30</sup>And Hezekiah himself stopped the upper water courses of Gihon, and brought it straight down to the west side of the city of David. And Hezekiah was blessed in all his works. <sup>31</sup>But, in regard to the ambassadors of the rulers of Babylon who sent to him to ask about the wonder that was done in the land, God left him in order to try him, so that He might know all that was in his heart.

<sup>32</sup>And the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and his goodness, behold, they are written in the vision of Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, and in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel. <sup>33</sup>And Hezekiah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the highest of the tombs of the sons of David. And all Judah and the people of Jerusalem honored him at his death. And his son Manasseh reigned in his place.

CHAPTER 33

<sup>1</sup>Manasseh was twelve years old when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty-five years in Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup>But he did the evil in the sight of the LORD, like the abominations of the heathen whom the LORD had cast out before the sons of Israel. <sup>3</sup>For he built again the high places which Hezekiah his father had broken down, and he reared up altars for the Baals, and made groves, and worshiped all the host of heaven, and served them. <sup>4</sup>And he built altars in the house of the LORD, of which the LORD had said, In Jerusalem shall My name be forever. <sup>5</sup>And he built altars for all the host of heaven in the two courts of the house of the LORD. <sup>6</sup>And he caused his sons to pass through the fire in the valley of the son of Hinnom. He also practiced secret arts, and used fortune-telling, and used witchcraft, and dealt with mediums, and with soothsayers. He did much evil in the sight of the LORD in order to provoke Him to anger. <sup>7</sup>And he set a carved image, the idol which he had made, in the house of God, of which God had said to David and to Solomon his son, In this house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen before all the tribes of Israel, I will put My name forever. <sup>8</sup>Nor will I any more remove the foot of Israel from out of the land which I have set apart for your fathers, so that they will take heed to do all that I have commanded them, according to the whole law and the statutes and the ordinances by the hand of Moses. <sup>9</sup>And Manasseh made Judah and the people of Jerusalem to err, to do worse than the nations whom the LORD had destroyed before the sons of Israel. <sup>10</sup>And the LORD spoke to Manasseh and to His people, but they would not listen. <sup>11</sup>And the LORD brought on them the captains of the army of the king of Assyria, who took Manasseh among the thorns and bound him with chains and carried him to Babylon. <sup>12</sup>And when he was in affliction, he sought the LORD his God, and humbled himself greatly before the God of his fathers. <sup>13</sup>And he prayed to Him, and He was entreated of him, and heard his prayer, and brought him again to Jerusalem into his kingdom. And Manasseh knew the LORD was God. <sup>14</sup>And after this he built a wall outside the city of David, on the west side of Gihon, in the valley, even to the entrance of the Fish Gate, and went around Ophel, and raised it to a very great height. And he put captains of war in all the fortified cities of Judah. <sup>15</sup>And he took away the strange gods, and the idol out of the house of the LORD, and all the altars that he had built in the mountain of the house of the LORD, and in Jerusalem, and threw them out of the city. <sup>16</sup>And he repaired the altar of the LORD and sacrificed on it peace offerings and thank-offerings. And he commanded Judah to serve the LORD God of Israel. <sup>17</sup>But the people still sacrificed in the high places, but only to the LORD their God.

<sup>18</sup>And the rest of the acts of Manasseh, and his prayer to his God, and the words of the seers who spoke to him in the name of the LORD God of Israel, behold, they are written in the Book of the Kings of Israel; <sup>19</sup>and his prayer, and his entreaty, and all his sin and his trespass, and the places in which he built high places and set up groves and graven images, before he was humbled, behold, they are written among the Matters of the Seers. <sup>20</sup>And Manasseh slept with his fathers, and they buried him in his own house. And his son Amon reigned in his place.

<sup>21</sup>Amon was twenty-two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned two years in Jerusalem. <sup>22</sup>And he did evil in the eyes of the LORD, as his father Manasseh did; and to all the graven images that his father Manasseh had made, Amon sacrificed, and served them. <sup>23</sup>And he did not bow before the LORD, like the humbling of his father Manasseh. For Amon himself multiplied guilt. <sup>24</sup>And his servants conspired against him and killed him in his own house. <sup>25</sup>And the people of the land killed all those who conspired against king Amon. And the people of the land made his son Josiah to reign in his place.

CHAPTER 34

<sup>1</sup>Josiah was eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem thirty-one years. <sup>2</sup>And he did the right in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the ways of David his father, and did not turn aside to the right nor to the left. <sup>3</sup>For in the eighth year of his reign, while he was still young, he began to seek after the God of David his father. And in the twelfth year he began to purge Judah and Jerusalem from the high places, and the groves, and the carved images, and the molten images. <sup>4</sup>And they broke down the altars of the Baals in his presence. And he cut down the images which were on high above them, and the groves. And the carved images and the molten images he also broke in pieces and made dust from them, and scattered on the graves of the ones who had sacrificed to them. <sup>5</sup>And he burned the bones of the priests on their altars and cleansed Judah and Jerusalem. <sup>6</sup>And so he did in the cities of Manasseh and Ephraim and Simeon, even to Naphtali, with their tools round about. <sup>7</sup>And he broke down the altars and the groves, and had beaten the carved images into powder, and cut down all the idols in all the land of Israel, he returned to Jerusalem.

<sup>8</sup>And in the eighteenth year of his reign, when he had purged the land and the house, he sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah, and Maaseiah the governor of the city, and Joah the son of Joahaz the recorder, to repair the house of the LORD his God. <sup>9</sup>And they came to Hilkiyah the high priest, and they delivered the money that was brought into the house of God, which the Levites that kept the doors had gathered from the hand of Manasseh and Ephraim, and from all the remnant of Israel, and from all Judah and Benjamin, and they returned to Jerusalem. <sup>10</sup>And they put it in the hands of the workmen who had the oversight of the house of the LORD. And they gave it to the workmen who worked in the house of the LORD, to repair and mend the house. <sup>11</sup>They gave to the artisans and builders, to buy cut stone and timber for joints, and beams to build up the houses which the kings of Judah had destroyed. <sup>12</sup>And the men did the work faithfully. And the overseers of them were Jahath and Obadiah, the Levites, of the sons of Merari; and Zechariah and Meshullam, of the sons of the Kohathites, and of the Levites, all who were skillful with instruments of music; <sup>13</sup>and over the bearers of burdens, and overseers of all who worked the work in any manner of service. And of the Levites were scribes and officers and gatekeepers.

<sup>14</sup>And when they brought out the money that was brought into the house of the LORD, Hilkiyah the priest found the Book of the Law of the LORD by Moses. <sup>15</sup>And Hilkiyah answered and said to Shaphan the scribe, I have found the Book of the Law in the house of the LORD. And Hilkiyah delivered the book to Shaphan. <sup>16</sup>And Shaphan carried the Book to the king, and brought the king word back again, saying, All that was given into the hands of your servants, they are doing. <sup>17</sup>And they poured out the money that was found in the house of the LORD, and delivered it into the hand of the overseers, and to the hand of the workmen. <sup>18</sup>And Shaphan the scribe told the king, saying, Hilkiyah the priest has given me a book. And Shaphan read it before the king. <sup>19</sup>And it happened when the king heard the words of the law, he tore his garments. <sup>20</sup>And the king commanded Hilkiyah, and Ahikam the son of Shaphan. and Abdon the son of Micah, and Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah a servant of the king, saying, <sup>21</sup>Go inquire of the LORD for me and for those who are left in Israel and in Judah, concerning the words of the book that is found. For great is the wrath of the LORD that is poured out on us because our fathers have not kept the word of the LORD to do according to all that is written in this Book. <sup>22</sup>And Hilkiah, and those of the king, went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tikvath, the keeper of the robes. (And she lived in Jerusalem in the second part.) And they spoke to her about this. <sup>23</sup>And she answered them, So says the LORD God of Israel, Tell the man who sent you to me, <sup>24</sup>So says the LORD, Behold, I will bring evil on this place and upon its people, all the curses that are written in the Book which they have read before the king of Judah, <sup>25</sup>because they have forsaken Me, and have burned incense to other gods, so that they might provoke Me to anger with all the works of their hands. And My wrath shall be poured out on this place and shall not be quenched. <sup>26</sup>And as for the king of Judah, who sent you to inquire of the LORD, so shall you say to him, So says the LORD God of Israel whose words you have heard, <sup>27</sup>Because your heart was tender and you humbled yourself before your God when you heard His words against this place and against its people, and humbled yourself before Me, and tore your garments and wept before Me, I have even heard also, says the LORD. <sup>28</sup>Behold, I will gather you to your fathers, and you shall be gathered to your grave in peace, nor shall your eyes see all the evil which I will bring on this place and upon its people. And they brought the king word again.

<sup>29</sup>And the king sent and gathered all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem. <sup>30</sup>And the king went up into the house of the LORD, and all the men of Judah, and the people of Jerusalem, and the priests, and the Levites, and all the people from the greatest to the smallest. And he read in their ears all the words of the book of the covenant that was found in the house of the LORD. <sup>31</sup>And the king stood in his place and made a covenant before the LORD, to walk after the LORD and to keep His commandments and His testimonies, and His statutes, with all his heart and with all his soul, to perform the words of the covenant which are written in this book. <sup>32</sup>And he caused all that were present in Jerusalem and in Benjamin, and the people of Jerusalem, to stand to the covenant of God, the God of their fathers. <sup>33</sup>And Josiah took away all the abominations out of all the territories that belonged to the sons of Israel. And he made all that were present in Israel to serve, to serve the LORD their God. All his days they did not depart from following the LORD, the God of their fathers.

CHAPTER 35

<sup>1</sup>And Josiah kept a Passover to the LORD in Jerusalem. And they killed the passover lamb on the fourteenth of the first month. <sup>2</sup>And he set the priests in their charges, and encouraged them to the service of the house of the LORD. <sup>3</sup>And he said to the Levites who taught all Israel, who were holy to the LORD, Put the holy ark in the house which Solomon the son of David, king of Israel, built. It shall not be a burden on your shoulders. And serve the LORD your God and His people Israel, <sup>4</sup>and prepare by the houses of your fathers, according to your divisions, according to the writing of David king of Israel, and according to the writing of Solomon his son. <sup>5</sup>And stand in the holy place according to the divisions of the families of the fathers of your brothers, the sons of the people, and the division of the families of the Levites. <sup>6</sup>And kill the passover lamb, and sanctify yourselves, and prepare your brothers so that they may do according to the word of the LORD by the hand of Moses. <sup>7</sup>And Josiah gave to the people from the flock, lambs and kids, all for the Passover offerings, for all who were present, to the number of thirty thousand, and three thousand bulls. These were from what the king owned. <sup>8</sup>And his rulers offered to the people, to the priests, and to the Levites. Hilkiah and Zechariah and Jehiel, rulers of the house of God, gave to the priests for the Passover offerings two thousand, six hundred bulls, and three hundred oxen. <sup>9</sup>And Conaniah, and Shemaiah and Nethaneel, his brothers, and Hashabiah and Jeiel and Jozabad, chiefs of the Levites, gave to the Levites for Passover offerings five thousand bulls and five hundred oxen. <sup>10</sup>And the service was prepared, and the priests stood in their place, and the Levites in their divisions, according to the king's command. <sup>11</sup>And they killed the passover lamb, and the priests sprinkled from their hands, and the Levites skinned them. <sup>12</sup>And they removed the burnt offerings so that they might give according to the divisions of the families of the people, to offer to the LORD, as it is written in the book of Moses; and so they did to the oxen. <sup>13</sup>And they roasted the passover lamb with fire according to the law. But the holy offerings they boiled in pots, and in kettles, and in pans, and carried to all the sons of the people. <sup>14</sup>And afterward they made ready for themselves, and for the priests, because the priests the sons of Aaron were offering up the burnt offerings and the fat until nightfall. And the Levites prepared for themselves and for the priests, the sons of Aaron. <sup>15</sup>And the singers, the sons of Asaph were in their place, according to the command of David, and Asaph, and Heman, and Jeduthun, the king's seer. And the gatekeepers were at every gate. It was not for them to depart from their service; for their brothers the Levites prepared for them. <sup>16</sup>And all the service of the LORD was prepared the same day, to keep the Passover, and to offer burnt offerings on the altar of the LORD, according to the command of king Josiah. <sup>17</sup>And the sons of Israel present kept the Passover at that time, and the feast of unleavened bread seven days. <sup>18</sup>And there was no Passover like that kept in Israel from the days of Samuel the prophet. Yea, none of the kings of Israel kept such a Passover as Josiah kept, and the priests, and the Levites, and all Judah and Israel, and the people of Jerusalem. <sup>19</sup>This Passover was kept in the eighteenth year of the reign of Josiah.

<sup>20</sup>After all this, when Josiah had prepared the temple, Necho king of Egypt came up to fight against Carchemish by Euphrates. And Josiah went out against him. <sup>21</sup>But he sent messengers to him, saying, What have I to do with you, king of Judah? I do not come against you today, but against the house with which I have war. For God commanded me to make haste. You must cease from meddling with God, who is with me, so that He does not destroy you. <sup>22</sup>But Josiah would not turn his face from him, but disguised himself so that he might fight with him. And he did not listen to the words of Necho from the mouth of God, and came to fight in the valley of Megiddo. <sup>23</sup>And the archers shot at king Josiah. And the king said to his servants, Take me away, for I am sorely wounded. <sup>24</sup>And his servants took him out of that chariot and put him in the second chariot that he had. And they brought him to Jerusalem, and he died, and was buried in the tombs of his fathers. And all Judah and Jerusalem mourned for Josiah. <sup>25</sup>And Jeremiah mourned for Josiah. And all the singing men and the singing women have spoken of Josiah in their lamentations until this day, and made them an ordinance in Israel. And behold, they are written in the Lamentations. <sup>26</sup>And the rest of the acts of Josiah, and his goodness, are according as it is written in the law of the LORD, <sup>27</sup>and his deeds, first and last, behold, they are written in the Book of the Kings of Israel and Judah.

CHAPTER 36

<sup>1</sup>And the people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah, and made him king in his father's place in Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup>Jehoahaz was twenty-three years old when he began to reign, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem. <sup>3</sup>And the king of Egypt put him down at Jerusalem, and laid a fine of a hundred talents of silver and a talent of gold on the land. <sup>4</sup>And the king of Egypt made Eliakim his brother king over Judah and Jerusalem, and changed his name to Jehoiakim. And Necho took Jehoahaz his brother and carried him to Egypt.

<sup>5</sup>Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And he did the evil in the sight of the LORD his God. <sup>6</sup>Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up against him and bound him in chains to carry him to Babylon. <sup>7</sup>And Nebuchadnezzar carried away some of the vessels of the house of the LORD to Babylon, and put them in his temple at Babylon. <sup>8</sup>And the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, and his abominations which he did, and that which was found in him, behold, they are written in the Book of the Kings of Israel and Judah. And Jehoiachin his son reigned in his place.

<sup>9</sup>Jehoiachin was eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned three months and ten days in Jerusalem. And he did the evil in the sight of the LORD. <sup>10</sup>And when the year had ended, king Nebuchadnezzar sent and brought him to Babylon, with the valuable vessels of the house of the LORD. And he made his brother Zedekiah king over Judah and Jerusalem.

<sup>11</sup>Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. <sup>12</sup>And he did the evil in the sight of the LORD his God. He was not humbled before Jeremiah the prophet, from the mouth of the LORD. <sup>13</sup>And he also rebelled against king Nebuchadnezzar, who had made him swear by God. But he stiffened his neck and hardened his heart from turning to the LORD God of Israel.

<sup>14</sup>Also all the chief of the priests, and the people, transgressed very much after all the abominations of the nations. And they polluted the house of the LORD which He had made holy in Jerusalem. <sup>15</sup>And the LORD God of their fathers sent to them by His messengers, rising up early and sending, for He had pity on His people and on His dwelling-place. <sup>16</sup>But they mocked the messengers of God and despised His words, and ill-treated His prophets until the wrath of the LORD arose against His people, until there was no healing. <sup>17</sup>And He caused the king of the Chaldeans to go up against them. And he killed their choice ones by the sword in the house of their holy place, and had no pity on the young man and the virgin, the old man and the very aged; He gave all into his hand. <sup>18</sup>And all the vessels of the house of God, great and small, and the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king, and of his rulers, he brought all these to Babylon. <sup>19</sup>And they burned the house of God, and broke down the wall of Jerusalem, and burned all the palaces of it with fire, and destroyed all its beautiful vessels. <sup>20</sup>And the ones who had escaped from the sword he carried away to Babylon, where they were servants to him and his sons until the reign of the kingdom of Persia, <sup>21</sup>to fulfill the word of the LORD in the mouth of Jeremiah, until the land had enjoyed its sabbaths. All the days of the desolation it kept the sabbath, to the full measure of seventy years.

<sup>22</sup>And in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, so that the word of the LORD in the mouth of Jeremiah might be done, the LORD stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, so that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and also in writing, saying, <sup>23</sup>So says Cyrus king of Persia, All the kingdoms of the earth have been given to me by the LORD God. And He has commanded me to build Him a house in Jerusalem, which is in Judah. Who is among you of all His people? May the LORD his God be with him, and let him go up.

THE BOOK OF EZRA

CHAPTER 1

<sup>1</sup>And in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, so that the word of the LORD by the mouth of Jeremiah might be fulfilled, the LORD stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, so that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and also in writing, saying, <sup>2</sup>So says Cyrus king of Persia, The LORD God of Heaven has given me all the kingdoms of the earth. And He has commanded me to build Him a house at Jerusalem, which is in Judah. <sup>3</sup>Who is there among you of all His people? Let his God be with him, and let him go up to Jerusalem, which is in Judah, and build the house of Jehovah God of Israel (He is God) which is in Jerusalem. <sup>4</sup>And whoever remains in any place where he resides, let the men of his place help him with silver and with gold and with goods and with animals, besides the freewill offering for the house of God that is in Jerusalem.

<sup>5</sup>And the chiefs of the fathers of Judah and Benjamin, and the priests, and the Levites, and all whose spirit God had raised, rose up to go up to build the house of the LORD which is in Jerusalem. <sup>6</sup>And all those who were around them made their hands strong with vessels of silver, with gold, with goods, and with animals, and with precious things, besides all that was willingly offered.

<sup>7</sup>And Cyrus the king brought out the vessels of the house of the LORD, which Nebuchadnezzar had brought out of Jerusalem and had put them in the house of his gods. <sup>8</sup>Even those Cyrus king of Persia brought out by the hand of Mithredath the treasurer, and numbered them to Sheshbazzar, the prince of Judah. <sup>9</sup>And this is the number of them: thirty platters of gold, a thousand platters of silver, twenty-nine knives, <sup>10</sup>thirty basins of gold, four hundred and ten silver basins of a second kind, and a thousand other vessels. <sup>11</sup>All the vessels of gold and of silver were five thousand and four hundred. All these Sheshbazzar brought up, when the exiles were brought up from Babylon to Jerusalem.

CHAPTER 2

<sup>1</sup>And these are the sons of the province who went up out of the captivity, of those who had been exiled, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had exiled to Babylon. And these came again to Jerusalem and Judah, each one to his city.

<sup>2</sup>These are the ones who came with Zerubbabel: Jeshua, Nehemiah, Seraiah, Reelaiah, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispar, Bigvai, Rehum, Baanah. This is the number of the men of the people of the sons of Israel: <sup>3</sup>The sons of Parosh, two thousand one hundred and seventy-two. <sup>4</sup>The sons of Shephatiah, three hundred and seventy-two. <sup>5</sup>The sons of Arah, seven hundred and seventy-five. <sup>6</sup>The sons of Pahath-moab, of the sons of Jeshua and Joab, two thousand eight hundred and twelve. <sup>7</sup>The sons of Elam, a thousand two hundred and fifty-four. <sup>8</sup>The sons of Zattu, nine hundred and forty-five. <sup>9</sup>The sons of Zaccai, seven hundred and sixty. <sup>10</sup>The sons of Bani, six hundred and forty-two. <sup>11</sup>The sons of Bebai, six hundred and twenty-three. <sup>12</sup>The sons of Azgad, a thousand two hundred and twenty-two. <sup>13</sup>The sons of Adonikam, six hundred and sixty-six. <sup>14</sup>The sons of Bigvai, two thousand and fifty-six. <sup>15</sup>The sons of Adin, four hundred and fifty-four. <sup>16</sup>The sons of Ater of Hezekiah, ninety-eight. <sup>17</sup>The sons of Bezai, three hundred and twenty-three. <sup>18</sup>The sons of Jorah, a hundred and twelve. <sup>19</sup>The sons of Hashum, two hundred and twenty-three. <sup>20</sup>The sons of Gibbar, ninety-five. <sup>21</sup>The sons of Bethlehem, a hundred and twenty-three. <sup>22</sup>The men of Netophah, fifty-six. <sup>23</sup>The men of Anathoth, a hundred and twenty-eight. <sup>24</sup>The sons of Azmaveth, forty-two. <sup>25</sup>The sons of Kirjath-avim, Chephirah, and Beeroth seven hundred and forty-three. <sup>26</sup>The sons of Ramah and Geba, six hundred and twenty-one. <sup>27</sup>The men of Michmas, a hundred and twenty-two. <sup>28</sup>The men of Bethel and Ai, two hundred and twenty-three. <sup>29</sup>The men of Nebo, fifty-two. <sup>30</sup>The men of Magbish, a hundred and fifty-six. <sup>31</sup>The sons of the other Elam, a thousand two hundred and fifty-four. <sup>32</sup>The sons of Harim, three hundred and twenty. <sup>33</sup>The sons of Lod, Hadid and Ono, seven hundred and twenty-five. <sup>34</sup>The sons of Jericho, three hundred and forty-five. <sup>35</sup>The sons of Senaah, three thousand six hundred and thirty. <sup>36</sup>The priests: The sons of Jedaiah, of the house of Jeshua nine hundred and seventy-three. <sup>37</sup>The sons of Immer, a thousand and fifty-two. <sup>38</sup>The sons of Pashur, a thousand two hundred and forty-seven. <sup>39</sup>The sons of Harim, a thousand and seventeen. <sup>40</sup>The Levites: The sons of Jeshua and Kadmiel, of the sons of Hodaviah seventy-four. <sup>41</sup>The singers: The sons of Asaph, a hundred and twenty-eight. <sup>42</sup>The sons of the gatekeepers: The sons of Shallum, the sons of Ater, the sons of Talmon, the sons of Akkub, the sons of Hatita, the sons of Shobai, a hundred and thirty-nine.

<sup>43</sup>The temple-slaves: The sons of Ziha, the sons of Hasupha, the sons of Tabbaoth, <sup>44</sup>the sons of Keros, the sons of Siaha, the sons of Padon, <sup>45</sup>the sons of Lebanah, the sons of Hagabah, the sons of Akkub, <sup>46</sup>the sons of Hagab, the sons of Shalmi, the sons of Hanan, <sup>47</sup>the sons of Giddel, the sons of Gahar, the sons of Reaiah, <sup>48</sup>the sons of Rezin, the sons of Nekoda, the sons of Gazzam, <sup>49</sup>the sons of Uzza, the sons of Paseah, the sons of Besai, <sup>50</sup>the sons of Asnah, the sons of Mehumim, the sons of Nephusim, <sup>51</sup>the sons of Bakbuk, the sons of Hakupha, the sons of Harhur, <sup>52</sup>the sons of Bazluth, the sons of Mehida, the sons of Harsha, <sup>53</sup>the sons of Barkos, the sons of Sisera, the sons of Thamah, <sup>54</sup>the sons of Nezhiah, the sons of Hatipha. <sup>55</sup>The sons of Solomon's servants: The sons of Sotai, the sons of Sophereth, the sons of Peruda, <sup>56</sup>the sons of Jaalah, the sons of Darkon, the sons of Giddel, <sup>57</sup>the sons of Shephatiah, the sons of Hattil, the sons of Pochereth of Zebaim, the sons of Ami. <sup>58</sup>All the temple-slaves, and the sons of Solomon's servants three hundred and ninety-two.

<sup>59</sup>And these were they who went up from Tel-melah, Tel-harsa, Cherub, Addan, and Immer, but they could not show their father's house and their seed, whether they were of Israel: <sup>60</sup>the sons of Delaiah, the sons of Tobiah, the sons of Nekoda, six hundred and fifty-two. <sup>61</sup>And of the sons of the priests, the sons of Habaiah, the sons of Koz, the sons of Barzillai (who took a wife of the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite, and was called after their name). <sup>62</sup>These looked for their register among those who were counted by genealogy, but they were not found. Therefore they were polluted from the priesthood. <sup>63</sup>And the governor said to them that they should not eat of the most holy things until there stood up a priest with Urim and Thummim.

<sup>64</sup>The whole congregation together was forty-two thousand, three hundred and sixty, <sup>65</sup>besides their servants and their maids, seven thousand three hundred and thirty-seven. And among them were two hundred singing men and singing women. <sup>66</sup>Their horses were seven hundred and thirty-six, their mules, two hundred and forty-five, <sup>67</sup>their camels, four hundred and thirty-five, their asses six thousand seven hundred and twenty.

<sup>68</sup>And some of the chief of the fathers, when they came to the house of the LORD which is at Jerusalem, offered freely for the house of God to set it up in its place. <sup>69</sup>They gave according to their ability to the treasure of the work, six hundred and one thousand drachmas of gold, and five thousand minas of silver, and one hundred priest's garments. <sup>70</sup>And the priests, and the Levites, and many of the people, and the singers, and the gatekeepers, and the temple slaves, lived in their cities. And all Israel in their cities.

CHAPTER 3

<sup>1</sup>And when the seventh month had come, and the sons of Israel were in the cities, the people gathered themselves as one man to Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup>And Jeshua the son of Jozadak stood up, and his brothers the priests, and Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and his brothers. And they built the altar of the God of Israel in order to offer burnt offerings on it, as it is written in the law of Moses the man of God. <sup>3</sup>And they set the altar on its bases, for fear was on them because of the people of those countries. And they offered burnt offerings on it to the LORD, burnt offerings both morning and evening. <sup>4</sup>And they kept the feast of tabernacles, as it is written, and offered the daily burnt offerings by number, according to the custom, as the duty of every day required. <sup>5</sup>And afterward they offered the continual burnt offering, both of the new moons and of all the set feasts of the LORD that were set apart, and of everyone who willingly offered a freewill offering to the LORD. <sup>6</sup>From the first day of the seventh month they began to offer burnt offerings to the LORD. But the foundation of the temple of the LORD was not laid. <sup>7</sup>They gave money also to the masons and to the carpenters. And they gave meat and drink and oil to the people of Sidon and to the people of Tyre, to bring cedar trees from Lebanon to the sea of Joppa, according to the grant which they had from Cyrus king of Persia. <sup>8</sup>And in the second year of their coming to the house of God at Jerusalem, in the second month, Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and the rest of their brothers the priests and the Levites, and all they who had come out of the captivity to Jerusalem, began. And they chose the Levites, from twenty years old and upward, to set forward the work of the house of the LORD. <sup>9</sup>And Jeshua stood up together with his sons and his brothers, Kadmiel and his sons, the sons of Judah, to set forward the workmen in the house of God the sons of Henadad, with their sons and their brothers the Levites. <sup>10</sup>And when the builders laid the foundation of the temple of the LORD, they set the priests in their robes with trumpets, and the Levites the sons of Asaph with cymbals, to praise the LORD, according to David king of Israel. <sup>11</sup>And they sang, praising and giving thanks to the LORD, because He is good, for His mercy endures forever toward Israel. And all the people shouted with a great shout when they praised the LORD, because the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid. <sup>12</sup>But many of the priests and Levites and chief of the fathers, ancient men who had seen the first house, when the foundation of this house was laid before their eyes, wept with a loud voice. And many shouted aloud for joy <sup>13</sup>so that the people could not tell the noise of the shout of joy from the noise of the weeping of the people. For the people shouted with a loud shout, and the noise was heard afar off.

CHAPTER 4

<sup>1</sup>And when the enemies of Judah and Benjamin heard that the sons of the captivity built the temple to the LORD God of Israel, <sup>2</sup>then they came to Zerubbabel and to the chief of the fathers, and said to them, Let us build with you, for we seek your God, even as you. And we have sacrificed to him since the days of Esar-haddon king of Assyria, who brought us up here. <sup>3</sup>But Zerubbabel, and Jeshua, and the rest of the chief of the fathers of Israel, said to them, You have nothing to do with us to build a house to our God. But we ourselves together will build to the LORD God of Israel, as king Cyrus the king of Persia has commanded us. <sup>4</sup>Then the people of the land weakened the hands of the people of Judah, and troubled them in building. <sup>5</sup>And they hired counselors against them to frustrate their purpose all the days of Cyrus king of Persia, even until the reign of Darius king of Persia.

<sup>6</sup>And in the reign of Ahasuerus, in the beginning of his reign, they wrote an accusation against the people of Judah and Jerusalem. <sup>7</sup>And in the days of Artaxerxes, Bishlam, Mithredath, Tabeel and the rest of their companions, wrote to Artaxerxes king of Persia. And the letter was written in the Syrian tongue, and interpreted in the Syrian tongue. <sup>8</sup>Rehum the chancellor and Shimshai the scribe wrote a letter against Jerusalem to Artaxerxes the king in this way. <sup>9</sup>Then Rehum the chancellor and Shimshai the scribe, and the rest of their companions, the judges, and the emissaries, the consuls, the officials, the Erechites, the Babylonians, the men of Susa, that is, the Elamites, <sup>10</sup>and the rest of the nations whom the great and noble Osnappar brought over and set in the cities of Samaria, and the rest of the province Beyond the River, and now, <sup>11</sup>this is the copy of the letter which they sent to him, to Artaxerxes the king. Your servants the men of the province Beyond the River, and so now, <sup>12</sup>let it be known to the king that the Jews who came up from you to us have come to Jerusalem, and are building the rebellious and the evil city, and have set up its wall, and have joined the foundations. <sup>13</sup>And let it be known to the king that if this city is built and the walls set up, then they will not pay toll, taxes, or custom, and you shall endanger the strength of the kings. <sup>14</sup>And because we have eaten the salt of the palace, and it was not right for us to see the king's dishonor, therefore we have sent and notified the king, <sup>15</sup>so that search may be made in the book of the records of your fathers, and you shall find in the book of the records, and shall know that this city is a rebellious city, hurtful to kings and provinces, and that they have rebelled in it in the past, for which cause that city was destroyed. <sup>16</sup>We notify the king that if this city is built and the walls of it set up, then you shall have no portion Beyond the River.

<sup>17</sup>The message the king sent to Rehum the chancellor, and to Shimshai the scribe, and to the rest of their associates who sit in Samaria, and to the rest Beyond the River, Peace! And now, <sup>18</sup>the letter which you sent to us has been plainly read before me. <sup>19</sup>And I commanded, and search has been made, and it is found that this city has lifted up itself against kings in the past, and rebellion and revolt have been made in it. <sup>20</sup>There have been mighty kings also over Jerusalem, who have ruled over all Beyond the River. And toll, taxes, and custom was paid to them. <sup>21</sup>Now make a decree to cause these men to cease, and that this city be not built until the decree shall be given from me. <sup>22</sup>And beware of being careless to do this. Why should damage grow to the hurt of the kings? <sup>23</sup>And when the copy of king Artaxerxes' letter was read before Rehum, and Shimshai the scribe, and their companions, they hurried to Jerusalem to the Jews, and made them stop by force and power. <sup>24</sup>Then the work of the house of God at Jerusalem ceased. So it ceased to the second year of the reign of Darius king of Persia.

CHAPTER 5

<sup>1</sup>Then the prophets, Haggai the prophet, and Zechariah the son of Iddo, prophesied to the Jews who were in Judah and Jerusalem in the name of the God of Israel, who was over them. <sup>2</sup>Then Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel and Jeshua the son of Jozadak rose up and began to build the house of God at Jerusalem. And with them were the prophets of God helping them. <sup>3</sup>At the same time Tattai, governor of the province Beyond the River, and Shethar-boznai, and their companions, came to them and said this to them: Who has commanded you to build this house and to make this wall? <sup>4</sup>So then we said to them: What are the names of the men who are building this building? <sup>5</sup>But the eye of their God was on the elders of the Jews, so that they could not cause them to stop until the matter came to Darius, and answer by letter concerning this had been returned. <sup>6</sup>The copy of the letter which Tatnai, governor of the province Beyond the River, and Shethar-boznai, and his companions, the officials Beyond the River, sent to Darius the king: <sup>7</sup>They sent a letter to him, in which this was written, To Darius the king, all peace: <sup>8</sup>Let it be known to the king that we went into the province of Judea, to the house of the great God, which is being built with great stones, and timber is being laid in the walls, and this work goes on fast and is blessed in their hands. <sup>9</sup>Then we asked those elders and said this to them, Who commanded you to build this house and to make these walls? <sup>10</sup>We also asked their names in order to notify you so that we might write the names of the men who are the chief of them. <sup>11</sup>and they returned this answer to us, saying, We are the servants of the God of Heaven and earth. And we build the house that was built many years ago, which a great king of Israel built and set up. <sup>12</sup>But after our fathers had provoked the God of Heaven to wrath, He gave them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, the Chaldean, who destroyed this house and carried the people away to Babylon. <sup>13</sup>But in the first year of Cyrus the king of Babylon, king Cyrus gave an order to build this house of God. <sup>14</sup>And also the vessels of gold and silver from the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took out of the temple that was in Jerusalem, and brought them into the temple of Babylon, those Cyrus the king took out of the temple of Babylon, and they were delivered to one whose name was Sheshbazzar, whom he had made governor. <sup>15</sup>And he said to him, Take these vessels and go. Carry them into the temple that is in Jerusalem, and let the house of God be built in His place. <sup>16</sup>Then the same Sheshbazzar came and laid the foundation of the house of God which is in Jerusalem. And since that time even until now it has been building, but is not finished. <sup>17</sup>And therefore, if it seems good to the king, let there be search made in the king's treasure house there at Babylon, whether it is so that a decree was given from Cyrus the king to build this house of God at Jerusalem. And let the king send his pleasure to us concerning this matter.

CHAPTER 6

<sup>1</sup>Then Darius the king made a decree, and search was made in the house of the scrolls, where the treasures were laid up in Babylon. <sup>2</sup>And there was found at Achmetha, in the palace that was in the province of the Medes, a scroll. And in it was a record written thus: <sup>3</sup>In the first year of Cyrus the king, Cyrus the king made a decree concerning the house of God at Jerusalem. Let the house be built, the place where they offered sacrifices, and let the foundations of it be strongly laid. The height of it shall be sixty cubits, and the breadth of it shall be sixty cubits, <sup>4</sup>with three rows of great stones and a row of new timber. And let the expenses be given out of the king's house. <sup>5</sup>And also let the gold and silver vessels of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took out of the temple at Jerusalem, and brought to Babylon, be given back and brought again to the temple which is at Jerusalem, to their place, and place them in the house of God. <sup>6</sup>And Tatnai, governor of the province Beyond the River, Shethar-boznai, and your companions, the officials Beyond the River, keep away from there. <sup>7</sup>Let the work of this house of God alone. Let the governor of the Jews and the elders of the Jews build this house of God in its place. <sup>8</sup>Also make a decree as to what you shall do to the elders of these Jews for the building of this house of God, that at once expense be given to these men from the king's goods, from the taxes Beyond the River, so that they may not have to stop. <sup>9</sup>And that which they have need of, both young bulls and rams and lambs, for the burnt offerings of the God of Heaven, wheat, salt, wine, and oil, according to the choice of the priests at Jerusalem, let it be given them day by day without fail, <sup>10</sup>so that they may offer sacrifices of sweet savors to the God of Heaven, and pray for the life of the king and of his sons.

<sup>11</sup>Also I have made a decree that whoever shall alter this word, let timber be pulled down from his house and be set up, and let him be hanged on it. And let his house be made a dunghill for this. <sup>12</sup>And may the God who has caused His name to dwell there destroy all kings and people who shall put their hand to alter and to destroy this house of God which is at Jerusalem. I, Darius, have made a decree. Let it be done with speed.

<sup>13</sup>Then Tatnai, governor of the province Beyond the River, Shethar-boznai, and their companions, according to that which Darius the king had sent, so they did speedily. <sup>14</sup>And the elders of the Jews built, and they were blessed through the prophesying of Haggai the prophet and Zechariah the son of Iddo. And they built and finished it according to the command of the God of Israel, and according to the command of Cyrus, and Darius, and Artaxerxes king of Persia.

<sup>15</sup>And this house was finished on the third day of the month Adar, in the sixth year of the reign of Darius the king. <sup>16</sup>And the sons of Israel, the priests, and the Levites, and the rest of the sons of the captivity, kept the dedication of this house of God with joy. <sup>17</sup>And they offered at the dedication of this house of God a hundred bulls, two hundred rams, and four hundred lambs. And for a sin offering for all Israel, twelve he-goats, according to the number of the tribes of Israel. <sup>18</sup>And they set the priests in their sections, and the Levites in their divisions, for the service of God which is at Jerusalem, as it is written in the book of Moses. <sup>19</sup>And the sons of the captivity kept the Passover on the fourteenth of the first month. <sup>20</sup>For the priests and the Levites were purified together, all of them pure. And they slaughtered the passover lamb for all the sons of the captivity, and for their brothers the priests, and for themselves. <sup>21</sup>And the sons of Israel ate, all who had come again out of captivity, and all such as had separated themselves to them from the uncleanness of the nations of the land, in order to seek the LORD God of Israel. <sup>22</sup>And they kept the Feast of Unleavened bread seven days with joy. For the LORD had made them joyful, and had turned the heart of the king of Assyria to them, to make their hands strong in the work of the house of God, the God of Israel.

CHAPTER 7

<sup>1</sup>And after these things, in the reign of Artaxerxes king of Persia, Ezra the son of Seraiah, the son of Azariah, the son of Hilkiah, <sup>2</sup>the son of Shallum, the son of Zadok, the son of Ahitub, <sup>3</sup>the son of Amariah, the son of Azariah, the son of Meraioth, <sup>4</sup>the son of Zerariah, the son of Uzzi, the son of Bukki, <sup>5</sup>the son of Abishua, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the chief priest, <sup>6</sup>this Ezra went up from Babylon. And he was a ready scribe in the law of Moses, which the LORD God of Israel had given. And the king granted him all he asked, according to the hand of the LORD his God on him. <sup>7</sup>And there went up some of the sons of Israel, and of the priests, and the Levites, and the singers, and the gatekeepers, and the temple slaves, to Jerusalem in the seventh year of Artaxerxes the king. <sup>8</sup>And he came to Jerusalem in the fifth month, in the seventh year of the king. <sup>9</sup>For on the first of the first month he began to go up from Babylon, and on the first of the fifth month he came to Jerusalem, according to the good hand of his God on him. <sup>10</sup>For Ezra had prepared his heart to seek the law of the LORD, and to do it, and to teach statutes and judgments in Israel.

<sup>11</sup>And this is the copy of the letter which king Artaxerxes gave to Ezra the scribe, a scribe of the words of the commandments of the LORD, and of His statutes to Israel. <sup>12</sup>Artaxerxes, king of kings, to Ezra the priest, a scribe of the law of the God of Heaven, perfect peace, and now: <sup>13</sup>From me was made a decree that everyone of the people of Israel, and their priests and Levites in my kingdom, who desire of their own free will to go up to Jerusalem, go with you; <sup>14</sup>since you have been sent by the king, and by his seven counselors to ask about Judah and Jerusalem, according to the law of your God in your hand; <sup>15</sup>and to carry the silver and gold which the king and his counselors have freely offered to the God of Israel, whose house is in Jerusalem, <sup>16</sup>and all the silver and gold which you can find in all the province of Babylon, with the free will offering of the people and of the priests, offering willingly for the house of their God in Jerusalem. <sup>17</sup>Before all of this, you shall diligently buy with this money, bulls, rams, lambs, with their food offerings and their drink offerings, and offer them on the altar of the house of your God in Jerusalem. <sup>18</sup>And whatever shall seem good to you and to your brothers to do with the rest of the silver and the gold, do that after the will of your God. <sup>19</sup>Also the vessels which are given you for the service of the house of your God, deliver them before the God of Jerusalem. <sup>20</sup>And whatever more shall be needful for the house of God, which you shall have need to give, give it out of the king's treasure house. <sup>21</sup>And I, Artaxerxes the king, make a decree to all the treasurers who are Beyond the River, that whatever Ezra the priest, the scribe of the law of the God of Heaven, shall ask of you, it shall be done exactly, <sup>22</sup>to a hundred talents of silver, and to a hundred measures of wheat, and to a hundred baths of wine, and to a hundred baths of oil, and salt without saying. <sup>23</sup>Whatever is commanded by the God of Heaven, let it be carefully done for the house of the God of Heaven for why should there be wrath against the realm of the king and his sons? <sup>24</sup>Also, we notify you, that in regard to any of the priests and the Levites, singers, gatekeepers, temple slaves, or ministers of this house of God, it shall not be lawful to impose toll, taxes, or custom on them. <sup>25</sup>And now, Ezra, after the wisdom of your God that is in your hand, set officers and judges who may judge all the people who are Beyond the River, all who know the laws of your God; and teach them who do not know. <sup>26</sup>And whoever will not do the law of your God, and the law of the king, let judgment be executed speedily on him, whether it is to death, or to exile, or to confiscation of goods, or imprisonment. <sup>27</sup>Blessed be the LORD God of our fathers, who has put this in the king's heart, to beautify the house of the LORD in Jerusalem, <sup>28</sup>and has extended mercy before the king and his counselors and before all the king's mighty princes. And I was made strong as the hand of the LORD my God was on me, and I gathered out of Israel chief men to go up with me.

CHAPTER 8

<sup>1</sup>These are now the chief of their fathers, and the genealogy of those who went up with me from Babylon, in the reign of Artaxerxes the king. <sup>2</sup>From the sons of Phinehas; Gershom. From the sons of Ithamar, Daniel. From the sons of David, Hattush. <sup>3</sup>From the sons of Shechaniah, from the sons of Parosh, Zechariah. And with him were counted by genealogy of the males a hundred and fifty. <sup>4</sup>From the sons of Pahath-moab, Elioenai the son of Zeremiah, and with him two hundred males. <sup>5</sup>From the sons of Shechaniah, the son of Jahaziel, and with him three hundred males. <sup>6</sup>From the sons also of Adin, Ebed the son of Jonathan, and with him fifty males. <sup>7</sup>And from the sons of Elam, Jeshaiiah the son of Athaliah, and with him seventy males. <sup>8</sup>And from the sons of Shephatiah, Zebadiah the son of Michael, and with him eighty males. <sup>9</sup>From the sons of Joab; Obadiah the son of Jehiel, and with him two hundred and eighteen males. <sup>10</sup>And from the sons of Shelomith, the son of Josiphiah, and with him a hundred and sixty males. <sup>11</sup>And from the sons of Bebai; Zechariah the son of Bebai, and with him twenty eight males. <sup>12</sup>And from the sons of Azgad; Johanan the son of Hakkatan, and with him a hundred and ten males. <sup>13</sup>And from the last sons of Adonikam, these: Eliphelet, Jeiel, and Shemaiah, and with them sixty males. <sup>14</sup>From the sons also of Bigvai; Uthai, and Zabbud, and with them seventy males.

<sup>15</sup>And I gathered them to the river which runs to Ahava. And we stayed there in tents three days. And I looked over the people and the priests, and did not find there any of the sons of Levi. <sup>16</sup>Then I sent for Eliezer, for Ariel, for Shemaiah, and for Elnathan, and for Jarib, and for Elnathan, and for Nathan, and for Zechariah, and for Meshullam, chief men; also for Joiarib, and for Elnathan, men of understanding. <sup>17</sup>And I sent them with command to Iddo the chief of the place Casiphia, and I told them what they should say to Iddo, to his brothers the temple slaves, at the place Casiphia, that they should bring to us ministers for the house of our God. <sup>18</sup>And by the good hand of our God on us they brought us a man of understanding, from the sons of Mahli, the son of Levi, the son of Israel, and Sherebiah, with his sons and his brothers, eighteen; <sup>19</sup>and Hashabiah, and with him Jeshaiah from the sons of Merari, his brothers and their sons, twenty; <sup>20</sup>also of the temple slaves whom David and the rulers had chosen for the service of the Levites, two hundred and twenty temple slaves. All of them were called by name.

<sup>21</sup>Then I called a fast there at the river Ahava, so that we might humble ourselves before our God, in order to seek from Him a right way for us and for our little ones, and for all our goods. <sup>22</sup>For I was ashamed to ask of the king troops and horsemen to help us against the enemy in the way, because we had spoken to the king, saying, The hand of our God is on all those who seek Him for good, but His power and His wrath are against all those who forsake Him. <sup>23</sup>So we fasted and prayed to our God for good. And He was pleased to hear us. <sup>24</sup>Then I separated twelve of the chief of the priests, Sherebiah, Hashabiah, and ten of their brothers with them. <sup>25</sup>And I weighed to them the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, the offering of the house of our God, which the king and his counselors and his lords, and all Israel who were there, had offered. <sup>26</sup>And I weighed into their hands six hundred and fifty talents of silver, and silver vessels of a hundred talents, of gold a hundred talents <sup>27</sup>and twenty basins of gold of a thousand drams, and two vessels of fine copper as desirable as gold. <sup>28</sup>And I said to them, You are holy to the LORD, and the vessels are holy. And the silver and the gold are a free-will offering to the LORD God of your fathers. <sup>29</sup>Watch and keep them until you weigh them before the chief of the priests and the Levites, and the chief of the fathers of Israel at Jerusalem in the rooms of the house of the LORD. <sup>30</sup>So the priests and the Levites took the weight of the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, to bring them to Jerusalem to the house of our God.

<sup>31</sup>And we departed from the river of Ahava on the twelfth of the first month, to go to Jerusalem. And the hand of our God was on us, and He delivered us from the hand of the enemy, and from ambushers by the way. <sup>32</sup>And we came to Jerusalem and stayed there three days. <sup>33</sup>And on the fourth day the silver and the gold and the vessels were weighed in the house of our God by the hand of Meremoth the son of Uriah the priest. And with him was Eleazar the son of Phinehas, and with them was Jozabad the son of Jeshua, and Noadiah the son of Binnui, Levites. <sup>34</sup>They were weighed by number and by weight of every one. And all the weight was written at that time. <sup>35</sup>The sons of those who had been exiled, who had come out of the captivity, offered burnt offerings to the God of Israel, twelve bulls for all Israel, ninety-six rams, seventy-seven lambs, twelve he-goats for a sin offering. All this was a burnt offering to the LORD. <sup>36</sup>And they delivered the king's orders to the king's lieutenants and to the governors of the province Beyond the River. And they helped the people and the house of God.

CHAPTER 9

<sup>1</sup>And at the end of these things, the rulers came to me, saying, The people of Israel, and the priests and the Levites, have not separated themselves from the people of the lands. But they are doing according to their abominations, those of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, the Egyptians, and the Amorites. <sup>2</sup>For they have taken of their daughters for themselves and for their sons. So the holy seed has mixed themselves with the people of those lands. Yes, the hand of the leaders and overseers has been chief in this sin. <sup>3</sup>And when I heard this thing, I tore my garment and my mantle, and plucked off the hair of my head and of my beard, and sat down stricken dumb. <sup>4</sup>Then everyone who trembled at the words of the God of Israel was gathered to me, because of the sin of those who had been exiled. And I remained dumb until the evening sacrifice. <sup>5</sup>And at the evening sacrifice I rose up from my affliction. And tearing my garment and my mantle, I fell on my knees and spread out my hands to the LORD my God. <sup>6</sup>And I said, O my God, I am ashamed and blush to lift up my face to You, my God. For our iniquities have increased over our heads, and our guiltiness has grown up to the heavens. <sup>7</sup>Since the days of our fathers we have been in a great sin until this day. And for our iniquities we, our kings, our priests, have been delivered into the hand of the kings of the lands, to the sword, to captivity, and to a spoil, and to shame of face, as it is this day. <sup>8</sup>And now for a little time grace has been shown from the LORD our God, to leave us a remnant to escape and to give us a nail in His holy place, so that our God may enlighten our eyes and give us a little life in our bondage. <sup>9</sup>For we were slaves, yet our God has not left us in our bondage, but has given mercy to us in the sight of the kings of Persia, to give us some life, to set up the house of our God, and to repair its waste, and to give us a wall in Judah and in Jerusalem. <sup>10</sup>And now, O our God, what shall we say after this? For we have forsaken Your commandments <sup>11</sup>which You commanded by Your servants the prophets, saying, The land into which you go to possess it, is an unclean land with the filthiness of the people of the lands, with their abominations which have filled it from one end to the other with their uncleanness. <sup>12</sup>And now do not give your daughters to their sons, nor take their daughters to your sons, nor seek their peace or their wealth forever, so that you may be strong and eat the good of the land and leave it for an inheritance to your sons forever. <sup>13</sup>And after all that has come on us for our evil deeds and for our great sin, since You our God have punished us less than our iniquities deserve, and have given us such an escape as this, <sup>14</sup>should we again break Your commandments and join hands with the people of these abominations? Would You not be angry with us until You had crushed us, until there is no remnant nor survivor? <sup>15</sup>O LORD God of Israel, You are righteous. For we are left a remnant that has escaped, as today. Behold, we are before You in our sins, for we cannot stand before You because of this.

CHAPTER 10

<sup>1</sup>And when Ezra had prayed, and when he had confessed, weeping and casting himself down before the house of God, there gathered to him out of Israel a very great congregation of men and women and children, for the people wept with a great weeping. <sup>2</sup>And Shechaniah the son of Jehiel, of the sons of Elam, answered and said to Ezra, We have sinned against our God and have taken strange wives from the people of the land. Yet now there is hope in Israel concerning this thing. <sup>3</sup>And now let us make a covenant with our God to put away all the wives, and such as have been born of them, according to the counsel of the Lord, and of those who tremble at the commandment of our God. And let it be done according to the Law. <sup>4</sup>Arise, for this matter belongs to you. We also will be with you. Be of good courage and act. <sup>5</sup>Then Ezra arose and made the chief priests, the Levites, and all Israel to swear that they should do according to this word. And they swore. <sup>6</sup>Then Ezra rose up from before the house of God and went into the room of Johanan the son of Eliashib. And he went there, and he ate no bread nor drank water. For he mourned because of the sin of those who had been exiled. <sup>7</sup>And they made a proclamation throughout Judah and Jerusalem to all the sons of the captivity, that they should gather themselves to Jerusalem, <sup>8</sup>and that who ever would not come within three days, according to the advice of the rulers and the elders, all he owned would be lost, and he himself separated from the congregation of those who had been exiled.

<sup>9</sup>Then all the men of Judah and Benjamin gathered themselves to Jerusalem within three days. It was the ninth month, on the twentieth of the month. And all the people sat in the street of the house of God, trembling because of this matter, and for the great rain. <sup>10</sup>And Ezra the priest stood up and said to them, You have sinned, and have taken strange wives to increase the sin of Israel. <sup>11</sup>And now confess to the LORD God of your fathers, and do His pleasure. And separate yourselves from the people of the land, and from the strange wives. <sup>12</sup>Then all the congregation answered and said with a loud voice, As you have said, so we must do. <sup>13</sup>But the people are many, and it is a time of much rain, and we are not able to stand outside. And the work is not of one or two days. For we who have sinned in this thing are many. <sup>14</sup>And let our rulers of all the congregation stand, and let all those who have taken strange wives in our cities, come at a set time, and with them the elders of every city and its judges, until the fierce wrath of our God for this matter has turned from us. <sup>15</sup>Only Jonathan the son of Asahel and Jahaziah the son of Tikvah made a stand against this. And Meshullam and Shabbethai the Levite supported them.

<sup>16</sup>And the sons of the captivity did so. And Ezra the priest, with certain heads of the fathers, after the house of their fathers, and all of them by names, were separated. And they sat down in the first day of the tenth month to examine the matter. <sup>17</sup>And they made an end with all the men who had taken strange wives by the first day of the first month. <sup>18</sup>And among the sons of the priests, these were found who had taken strange wives: From the sons of Jeshua the son of Jozadac and his brothers were Maaseiah, and Eliezer, and Jarib, and Gedaliah. <sup>19</sup>And they gave their hands that they would put away their wives. And being guilty, they offered a ram of the flock for their sin. <sup>20</sup>And from the sons of Immer were Hanani and Zebadiah. <sup>21</sup>And from the sons of Harim were Maaseiah, and Elijah, and Shemaiah, and Jehiel, and Uzziyah. <sup>22</sup>And from the sons of Pashur were Elioenai, Maaseiah, Ishmael, Nethaneel, Jozabad, and Elasa. <sup>23</sup>And from the Levites: Jozabad, and Shimei, and Kelaiah (the same as Kelita, Pethahiah, Judah, and Eliezer. <sup>24</sup>And from the singers: Eliashib; and from the gatekeepers, Shallum and Telem and Uri. <sup>25</sup>And from Israel: From the sons of Parosh, Ramiyah, and Jeziah, and Malchiah, and Miamin, and Eleazar, and Malchijah and Benaiah. <sup>26</sup>And from the sons of Elam: Mattaniah, Zechariah, and Jehiel, and Abdi, and Jeremoth, and Eliah. <sup>27</sup>And from the sons of Zattu: Elioenai, Eliashib, Mattaniah, and Jeremoth, and Zabad, and Aziza. <sup>28</sup>And from the sons of Bebai: Jehohanan, Hananiah, Zabbai, Athlai. <sup>29</sup>And from the sons of Bani: Meshullam, Malluch, and Adaiyah, Jashub, and Sheal, and Ramoth. <sup>30</sup>And from the sons of Pahath-moab: Adna, and Chelal, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattaniah, Bezaleel. and Binnui, and Manasseh. <sup>31</sup>And from the sons of Harim: Eliezer, Ishijah, Malchiah, Shemaiah, Shimeon, <sup>32</sup>Benjamin, Malluch, Shemariah. <sup>33</sup>From the sons of Hashum: Mattenai, Mattathah, Zabad, Eliphelet, Jeremai, Manasseh, Shimei.

THE BOOK OF NEHEMIAH

CHAPTER 1

<sup>1</sup>The words of Nehemiah the son of Hachaliah. And it happened in the month Chisleu, in the twentieth year, as I was in Shushan the palace, <sup>2</sup>Hanani, one of my brothers, came, he and men of Judah. And I asked them concerning the Jews who had escaped, who were left of the captivity, and concerning Jerusalem. <sup>3</sup>And they said to me, The remnant left of the captivity there in the province is in great affliction and shame. And the wall of Jerusalem is broken down, and its gates are burned with fire. <sup>4</sup>And it happened when I heard these words, I sat down and wept. And I mourned for days, and fasted, and prayed before the God of Heaven. <sup>5</sup>And I said, I pray You, O LORD God of Heaven, the great and awesome God who keeps covenant and mercy for those who love Him and keep His commandments; <sup>6</sup>let Your ear now be open, and Your eyes open, so that You may hear the prayer of Your servant, which I pray before You now, day and night, for the sons of Israel Your servants, and confessing the sins of the sons of Israel which we have sinned against You. Both I and my father's house have sinned. <sup>7</sup>We have acted very wickedly against You, and have not kept the commandments nor the statutes nor the judgments which You commanded Your servant Moses. <sup>8</sup>I pray You, remember the word that You commanded Your servant Moses, saying, If you sin, I will scatter you among the nations, <sup>9</sup>but if you turn to Me, and keep My commandments and do them, though you were cast out to the outermost part of the heavens, yet I will gather you from there and will bring you to the place that I have chosen to set My name there. <sup>10</sup>And these are Your servants and Your people whom You have redeemed by Your great power and by Your strong hand. <sup>11</sup>O LORD, I pray You, let now Your ear be open to the prayer of Your servant, and to the prayer of Your servants who desire to fear Your name. And I pray You, bless Your servant today, and grant him mercy in the sight of this man. (For I was the king's cupbearer.)

CHAPTER 2

<sup>1</sup>And it happened in the month Nisan, in the twentieth year of Artaxerxes the king, wine was before him. And I took up the wine and gave it to the king. Now I had not been sad in his presence before. <sup>2</sup>And the king said to me, Why is your face sad, since you are not sick? This is nothing but sorrow of heart. Then I was very much afraid. <sup>3</sup>And I said to the king, Let the king live forever. Why should not my face be sad, when the city, the place of my fathers' tombs, lies waste, and its gates are burned with fire? <sup>4</sup>And the king said to me, For what do you ask? So I prayed to the God of Heaven, <sup>5</sup>and I said to the king, If it please the king, and if your servant has found favor in your sight, I pray that you would send me to Judah, to the city of my fathers' tombs, so that I may build it. <sup>6</sup>And the king said to me (the queen also sitting by him), For how long shall your journey be? And when will you return? So it pleased the king to send me, and I set him a time. <sup>7</sup>And I said to the king, If it please the king, let letters be given me to the governors Beyond the River, so that they may let me pass through until I come to Judah, <sup>8</sup>and a letter to Asaph the keeper of the kings forest, so that he may give me timber to make beams for the gates of the palace which belong to the house, and for the wall of the city, and for the house into which I shall enter. And the king granted me what I asked, according to the good hand of my God upon me.

<sup>9</sup>And I came to the governors of the province Beyond the River and gave them the king's letters. And the king had sent captains of the army and horsemen with me. <sup>10</sup>And Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, heard.

And it grieved them very much that there had come a man to seek the good of the sons of Israel. <sup>11</sup>And I came to Jerusalem and was there three days. <sup>12</sup>And I arose in the night, I and some few men with me. And I did not tell to a man what my God had put in my heart to do at Jerusalem. And there was no animal with me, except the animal that I rode upon. <sup>13</sup>And I went out by night by the Valley Gate, even before the Jackal Fountain, and to the Dung Gate, and looked at the walls of Jerusalem which were broken down, and its gates which were burned with fire. <sup>14</sup>And I went on to the Fountain Gate, and to the King's Pool. But there was no place for the animal that was under me to pass. <sup>15</sup>And I went up in the night by the brook and looked at the wall, and turned back, and entered by the Valley Gate, and returned. <sup>16</sup>And the rulers did not know where I had gone, nor what I was doing. Nor had I told the Jews as yet, nor to the priests, nor to the nobles, nor to the rulers, nor to the rest that did the work. <sup>17</sup>And I said to them, You see the distress that we are in, how Jerusalem is wasted, and the gates of it are burned with fire. Come and let us build up the wall of Jerusalem, so that we may no more be a reproach. <sup>18</sup>And I told them of the hand of my God which was good upon me, and also the king's words that he had spoken to me. And they said, Let us rise up to build. So they made their hands strong for good.

<sup>19</sup>But when Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, and Geshem the Arabian, heard, they laughed us to scorn, and despised us. And they said, What is this that you do? Will you rebel against the king? <sup>20</sup>And I answered them and said to them, The God of Heaven, He will bless us, and we, His servants, will arise and build. But you have no portion or right or memorial in Jerusalem.

CHAPTER 3

<sup>1</sup>Then Eliashib the high priest rose up with his brothers the priests, and they built the Sheep Gate. They sanctified it and set up its doors, even to the Tower of Meah they sanctified it, to the Tower of Hananeel. <sup>2</sup>And next to him the men of Jericho built. And next to them Zaccur the son of Imri built. <sup>3</sup>But the sons of Hassenaah built the Fish Gate, who laid its beams and set up its doors, its locks, and its bars. <sup>4</sup>And next to them Meremoth the son of Urijah, the son of Koz repaired. And next to them Meshullam the son of Berechiah, the son of Meshezabeel repaired. And next to them Zadok the son of Baana repaired. <sup>5</sup>And next to them the Tekoites repaired. But their nobles did not put their necks to the work of their Lord. <sup>6</sup>And the Old Gate was repaired by Jehoiada the son of Paseah, and Meshullam the son of Besodeiah. They laid its beams and set up its doors and its locks and its bars. <sup>7</sup>And next to them Meletiah of Gibeon repaired, and Jadon of Meron, the men of Gibeon and of Mizpah, to the throne of the governor Beyond the River. <sup>8</sup>Next to him Uzziel the son of Harhaiah, of the goldsmiths, repaired. And next to him Hananiah, the son of one of the perfumers, repaired. And they fortified Jerusalem to the Broad Wall. <sup>9</sup>And next to them Rephaiah the son of Hur, the ruler of the half part of Jerusalem repaired. <sup>10</sup>Next to them Jedaiah the son of Harumaph repaired, even across from his house. And next to him Hattush the son of Hashabniah repaired. <sup>11</sup>Malchijah the son of Harim and Hashub the son of Pahath-moab, repaired the other piece, and the Tower of the Furnaces. <sup>12</sup>And next to him Shallum the son of Halohesh, the ruler of the half part of Jerusalem, he and his daughters repaired. <sup>13</sup>Hanun, the people of Zanoah, repaired the Valley Gate. They built it, and set up its doors, its locks, and its bars, and a thousand cubits on the wall to the Dung Gate. <sup>14</sup>But the Dung Gate was repaired by Malchiah the son of Rechab, the ruler of part of Beth-haccerem. He built it and set up its doors, its locks, and its bars. <sup>15</sup>And the Fountain Gate was repaired by Shallum the son of Colhozeh, the ruler of part of Mizpah. He built it and covered it, and set up its doors, its locks, and its bars, and the wall of the Pool of Shelah by the King's Garden, and to the stairs that go down from the City of David. <sup>16</sup>After him Nehemiah the son of Azbuk, the ruler of the half part of Beth-zur, repaired across from the tombs of David, and to the pool that was made, and to the house of the mighty men. <sup>17</sup>After him the Levites, Rehum the son of Bani, repaired. Next to him Hashabiah, the ruler of the half part of Keilah, repaired in his part. <sup>18</sup>After him their brothers, Bavai the son of Henadad, the ruler of the half part of Keilah, repaired. <sup>19</sup>And next to him, Ezer the son of Jeshua, the ruler of Mizpah, repaired another piece across from the ascent to the armory at the corner. <sup>20</sup>After him Baruch the son of Zabbai earnestly repaired the other piece, from the corner to the door of the house of Eliashib the high priest. <sup>21</sup>After him Meremoth the son of Urijah the son of Koz repaired another piece, from the door of the house of Eliashib even to the end of the house of Eliashib. <sup>22</sup>And after him the priests, the men of the plain, repaired. <sup>23</sup>After him Benjamin and Hashub repaired across from their house. After him Azariah the son of Maaseiah the son of Ananiah repaired by his house. <sup>24</sup>After him Binnui the son of Henadad repaired another piece, from the house of Azariah to the turning of the wall, even to the corner. <sup>25</sup>Palal the son of Uzai repaired across from the corner, and the tower which lies out from the king's high house, by the court of the prison. After him Pedaiah the son of Parosh repaired. <sup>26</sup>And the temple-slaves who lived in Ophel repaired across from the Water Gate toward the east, and the tower that sticks out. <sup>27</sup>After them the Tekoites repaired another piece, opposite the great tower that sticks out, even to the wall of Ophel. <sup>28</sup>The priests repaired from above the Horse Gate, every one across from his house. <sup>29</sup>After them Zadok the son of Immer repaired across from his house. After him Shemaiah the son of Shechaniah, the keeper of the East Gate, repaired. <sup>30</sup>After him Hananiah the son of Shelemiah, and Hanun the sixth son of Zalaph repaired another piece. After him Meshullam the son of Berechiah repaired across from his room. <sup>31</sup>After him Malchiah the goldsmith's son repaired to the place of the temple-slaves, and of the merchants, across from the Miphkad Gate, and to the going up of the corner. <sup>32</sup>And between the going up of the corner to the Sheep Gate the goldsmiths and the merchants repaired.

CHAPTER 4

<sup>1</sup>But it happened when Sanballat heard that we built the wall, he was angry and greatly displeased, and mocked the Jews. <sup>2</sup>And he spoke before his brothers and the army of Samaria, and said, What are these feeble Jews doing? Will they fortify themselves? Will they sacrifice? Will they make an end in a day? Will they bring to life the stones out of the heaps of the rubbish which are burned? <sup>3</sup>And Tobiah the Ammonite was beside him, and he said, Even that which they build, if a fox goes up, he shall even break down their stone wall. <sup>4</sup>Oh our God, hear, for we are despised. And turn their curse upon their own head, and give them for a prey in the land of captivity. <sup>5</sup>And do not cover their iniquity, and do not let their sin be blotted out from before You. For they have provoked You to anger before the builders. <sup>6</sup>So we built the wall, and all the wall was joined together to the half of it. For the people had a mind to work.

<sup>7</sup>And it happened, when Sanballat and Tobiah, and the Arabians, and the Ammonites, and the Ashdodites, heard that the walls of Jerusalem had gone up, and that the breaks were being filled, they were very angry. <sup>8</sup>And all of them conspired together to come and fight against Jerusalem and do harm to it. <sup>9</sup>But we made our prayer to our God, and set a watch against them day and night, because of them. <sup>10</sup>And Judah said, The strength of the carriers of burdens is weakening, and there is much rubbish, so that we are not able to build the wall. <sup>11</sup>And our foes have said, They shall not know, or see, until we come in the middle of them, and kill them, and cause the work to cease. <sup>12</sup>And it happened when the Jews who lived near them came in, they said to us ten times, From all places where you shall turn to us, they will be against us. <sup>13</sup>And I stationed in the lower places behind the wall, and on the higher places, I even set the people according to their families with their sword, their spears, and their bows. <sup>14</sup>And I looked and rose up, and said to the nobles and to the rulers and to the rest of the people, Do not be afraid of them. Remember the LORD, who is great and terrible, and fight for your brothers, your sons, and your daughters, your wives, and your houses. <sup>15</sup>And it happened when our enemies heard that it was known to us, and that God had brought their counsel to nothing, all of us returned to the wall, each one to his work. <sup>16</sup>And it was from that time forth that half of my servants worked in the work, and the other half of them held the spears, the shields, and the bows, and the scale-armor. And the rulers were behind all the house of Judah <sup>17</sup>the ones who built on the wall, and the ones who carried burdens; with those who were lifting, one a worker in the work, and one held a weapon. <sup>18</sup>For of the builders, each one had his sword tied by his side, and built. And he who sounded the trumpet was beside me. <sup>19</sup>And I said to the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, The work is great and large, and we are separated upon the wall, far from one another. <sup>20</sup>In whatever place you hear the sound of the trumpet, gather there to us. Our God will fight for us. <sup>21</sup>And we labored in the work. And half of them held the spears from the rising of the morning until the stars appeared. <sup>22</sup>Also at the same time I said to the people, Let everyone with his servant stay inside Jerusalem, so that in the night they may be a guard to us, and labor in the day. <sup>23</sup>And none, I, nor my brothers, nor my servants, nor the men of the guard who followed me, none of us put off our clothes except that everyone had his vessel of water.

CHAPTER 5

<sup>1</sup>And there was a great cry of the people and of their wives against their brothers the Jews. <sup>2</sup>For certain ones said, We, our sons, and our daughters, are many. Let us get grain for them, so that we may eat and live. <sup>3</sup>Some also said, We have mortgaged our lands, vineyards, and houses. Let us buy grain because of the famine. <sup>4</sup>And some said, We have borrowed money on our lands and vineyards for the king's tax. <sup>5</sup>Yet now our flesh is like the flesh of our brothers, our sons like their sons. And, lo, we bring our sons and our daughters into bondage, to be slaves, and some of our daughters are brought into bondage. And there is no power for our hand, for other men have our lands and vineyards.

<sup>6</sup>And I was very angry when I heard their cry and these words. <sup>7</sup>And my heart within myself ruled, and I rebuked the nobles and the rulers, and said to them, You exact interest, each one from his brother. And I held a great gathering against them. <sup>8</sup>And I said to them, According to our ability we have redeemed our brothers, the Jews who were sold to the nations. And will you even sell your brothers? Or shall they be sold to us? And they were silent and did not find an answer. <sup>9</sup>And I said, What you do is not good. Should you not walk in the fear of our God because of the reproach of the nations our enemies? <sup>10</sup>And also I, my brothers and my servants, might take from them money and grain. Please let us leave this lending at interest. <sup>11</sup>Please even today give back to them their lands, their vineyards, their oliveyards, and their houses, also the hundredth part of the money and of the grain, the wine, and the oil, that you take from them. <sup>12</sup>And they said, We will restore, and will ask nothing from them. So we will do as you say. Then I called the priests and took an oath from them that they should do according to this promise. <sup>13</sup>Also I shook my lap and said, So let God shake out every man from his house, and from his labor, who does not keep this promise, even may he be shaken out this way and emptied. And all the congregation said, Amen, and praised the LORD. And the people did according to this promise.

<sup>14</sup>And from the time that I was chosen to be their governor in the land of Judah, from the twentieth year even to the thirty-second year of Artaxerxes the king, twelve years, I and my brothers have not eaten the bread of the governor. <sup>15</sup>But the former governors that had been before me were too heavy upon the people, and had taken bread and wine from them, besides forty shekels of silver. Yes, even their servants bore rule over the people. But I did not do this, because of the fear of God. <sup>16</sup>And I also kept on in the work of this wall. Nor did we buy any land. And all my servants gathered there to the work. <sup>17</sup>And at my table were a hundred and fifty of the Jews and rulers, besides those who came to us from among the nations around us. <sup>18</sup>And that which was prepared daily was one ox and six choice sheep; and birds were prepared; and once in ten days store of all sorts of wine. Yet for all this I did not seek the bread of the governor, because the bondage was heavy upon this people. <sup>19</sup>Think upon me, my God, for good, according to all that I have done for this people.

CHAPTER 6

<sup>1</sup>And it happened, when Sanballat, and Tobiah and Geshem the Arabian, and the rest of our enemies heard that I had built the wall, and that there was no break left in it (though at that time I had not set the doors on the gates), <sup>2</sup>Sanballat and Geshem sent to me, saying, Come, let us meet together in the villages in the plain of Ono. But they thought to do me harm. <sup>3</sup>And I sent messengers to them, saying, I am doing a great work, so I cannot come down. Why should the work cease while I leave it and come down to you? <sup>4</sup>And they sent to me four times in this way. And I answered them in the same way. <sup>5</sup>Then Sanballat sent his servant to me in the same way the fifth time with an open letter in his hand, in which was written, <sup>6</sup>It is reported among the nations, and Gashmu says it, that you and the Jews are thinking of rebelling, for this reason you build the wall, so that you may be their king, according to these words. <sup>7</sup>And you have also set up prophets to preach about you at Jerusalem, saying, There is a king in Judah. And now it shall be reported to the king according to these words. And now come and let us talk it over together. <sup>8</sup>And I sent to him saying, These things which you are saying are not happening, but you pretend them out of your own heart. <sup>9</sup>For they all were alarmers of us, saying, Their hands shall be weakened from the work so that it may not be done. And now, O God, make my hands strong.

<sup>10</sup>And I came to the house of Shemaiah the son of Delaiah the son of Mehetabeel, who was shut up. And he said, Let us meet together in the house of God, inside the temple, and let us shut the doors of the temple. For they will come to kill you. Yea, in the night they will come to kill you. <sup>11</sup>And I said, Should such a man as I flee? And who, being as I am, would go into the temple to save his life? I will not go in. <sup>12</sup>And, behold, I understood that God had not sent him, but that he said this prophecy against me because Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him. <sup>13</sup>Therefore he was hired that I should be afraid, and do so, and I should sin, and be for them an evil name, with which they might reproach me. <sup>14</sup>My God, think upon Tobiah and Sanballat according to these works of theirs, and on the prophetess Noadiah, and the rest of the prophets who would have made me afraid.

<sup>15</sup>And the wall was finished in the twenty-fifth day of Elul, in fifty-two days. <sup>16</sup>And it happened when all our enemies heard, and all the nations around us saw, they were very much lowered in their own eyes. For they saw that this work was done by our God. <sup>17</sup>And in those days the nobles of Judah were increasing their letters going to Tobiah; and Tobiah's came to them. <sup>18</sup>For many in Judah were sworn to him because he was the son-in-law of Shechaniah the son of Arah, and his son Johanan had taken the daughter of Meshullam the son of Berechiah. <sup>19</sup>Also they reported his good deeds before me, and told my words to him. Tobiah sent letters to make me afraid.

CHAPTER 7

<sup>1</sup>And it happened when the wall was built, and I had set up the doors, and the gatekeepers and the singers and the Levites were chosen, <sup>2</sup>I gave my brother Hanani, and Hananiah the ruler of the palace, charge over Jerusalem. For he was a faithful man, and feared God above many. <sup>3</sup>And I said to them, Do not let the gates of Jerusalem be opened until the sun is hot. And while they stand by, let them shut and bar the doors. And set guards from the people of Jerusalem, each one in his watch, and each one to be across from his house. <sup>4</sup>And the city was large and great, but the people in it were few, and the houses not built. <sup>5</sup>And my God put into my heart to gather together the nobles, and the rulers, and the people, so that they might be counted by genealogy. And I found a register of the genealogy of those who came up at the first. And I found written in it: <sup>6</sup>These are the sons of the province who went up out of the captivity, of those who had been carried away, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away. And they came again to Jerusalem and to Judah, every one to his city, <sup>7</sup>and came with Zerubbabel, Jeshua, Nehemiah, Azariah, Raamiah, Nahamani, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispereth, Bigvai, Nehum, Baanah. The number of the men of the people of Israel: <sup>8</sup>The sons of Parosh, two thousand and seventy-two. <sup>9</sup>The sons of Shephatiah, three hundred and seventy-two. <sup>10</sup>The sons of Arah, six hundred and fifty-two. <sup>11</sup>The sons of Pahath-moab, of the sons of Jeshua and Joab, two thousand, eight hundred and eighteen. <sup>12</sup>The sons of Elam, a thousand two hundred and fifty-four. <sup>13</sup>The sons of Zattu, eight hundred and forty-five. <sup>14</sup>The sons of Zaccai, seven hundred and sixty. <sup>15</sup>The sons of Binnui, six hundred and forty-eight. <sup>16</sup>The sons of Bebai, six hundred and twenty-eight. <sup>17</sup>The sons of Azgad, two thousand three hundred and twenty-two. <sup>18</sup>The sons of Adonikam, six hundred and sixty-seven. <sup>19</sup>The sons of Bigvai, two thousand and sixty-seven. <sup>20</sup>The sons of Adin, six hundred and fifty-five. <sup>21</sup>The sons of Ater of Hezekiah, ninety-eight. <sup>22</sup>The sons of Hashum, three hundred and twenty-eight. <sup>23</sup>The sons of Bezai, three hundred and twenty-four. <sup>24</sup>The sons of Hariph, a hundred and twelve. <sup>25</sup>The sons of Gibeon, ninety-five. <sup>26</sup>The men of Bethlehem and Netophah, a hundred and eighty-eight. <sup>27</sup>The men of Anathoth, a hundred and twenty-eight. <sup>28</sup>The men of Beth-azmaveth, forty-two. <sup>29</sup>The men of Kirjath-jearim, Chephirah, and Beeroth, seven hundred and forty-three. <sup>30</sup>The men of Ramah and Geba, six hundred and twenty-one. <sup>31</sup>The men of Michmas, a hundred and twenty-two. <sup>32</sup>The men of Bethel and Ai, a hundred and twenty-three. <sup>33</sup>The men of the other Nebo, fifty-two. <sup>34</sup>The sons of the other Elam, a thousand two hundred and fifty-four. <sup>35</sup>The sons of Harim, three hundred and twenty. <sup>36</sup>The sons of Jericho, three hundred and forty-five. <sup>37</sup>The sons of Lod, Hadid, and Ono, seven hundred and twenty-one. <sup>38</sup>The sons of Senaah, three thousand nine hundred and thirty. <sup>39</sup>The priests: the sons of Jedaiah, of the house of Jeshua, nine hundred and seventy-three. <sup>40</sup>The sons of Immer, a thousand and fifty-two. <sup>41</sup>The sons of Pashur, a thousand two hundred and forty-seven. <sup>42</sup>The sons of Harim, a thousand and seventeen. <sup>43</sup>The Levites: the sons of Jeshua, of Kadmiel, and of the sons of Hodevah, seventy-four. <sup>44</sup>The singers: the sons of Asaph, a hundred and forty-eight. <sup>45</sup>The gatekeepers: the sons of Shallum, the sons of Ater, the sons of Talmon, the sons of Akkub, the sons of Hatita, and the sons of Shobai, a hundred and thirty-eight. <sup>46</sup>The temple slaves: the sons of Ziha, the sons of Hashupha, the sons of Tabbaoth, <sup>47</sup>the sons of Keros, the sons of Sia, the sons of Padon, <sup>48</sup>the sons of Lebana, the sons of Hagaba, the sons of Shalmal, <sup>49</sup>the sons of Hanan, the sons of Giddel, the sons of Gahar, <sup>50</sup>the sons of Reaiah, the sons of Rezin, the sons of Nekoda, <sup>51</sup>the sons of Gazzam, the sons of Uzza, the sons of Paseah, <sup>52</sup>the sons of Besai, the sons of Meunim, the sons of Nephishesim, <sup>53</sup>the sons of Bakbuk, the sons of Hakupha, the sons of Harhur, <sup>54</sup>the sons of Bazlith, the sons of Mehida, the sons of Harsha, <sup>55</sup>the sons of Barkos, the sons of Sisera, the sons of Tamah, <sup>56</sup>the sons of Nezhiah, the sons of Hatipha. <sup>57</sup>The sons of Solomon's servants: the sons of Sotai, the sons of Sophereth, the sons of Perida, <sup>58</sup>the sons of Jaala, the sons of Darkon, the sons of Giddel, <sup>59</sup>the sons of Shephatiah, the sons of Hattil, the sons of Pochereth of Zebaim, the sons of Amon. <sup>60</sup>All the temple-slaves, and the sons of Solomon's servants, three hundred and ninety-two.

<sup>61</sup>And these were they who went up from Tel-melah, Tel-haresha, Cherub, Addon, and Immer. But they could not show their father's house, nor their seed, whether they were of Israel: <sup>62</sup>The sons of Delaiah, the sons of Tobiah, the sons of Nekoda, six hundred and forty-two. <sup>63</sup>And of the priests: the sons of Habaiah, the sons of Koz, the sons of Barzillai, who took one of the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite to wife, and was called after their name. <sup>64</sup>These sought their register among those who were reckoned by genealogy, but it was not found. Therefore they were put out, as defiled from the priesthood. <sup>65</sup>And the governor said to them that they should not eat of the holy things until there stood up a priest with Urim and Thummim.

<sup>66</sup>All the congregation together was forty-two thousand three hundred and sixty, <sup>67</sup>besides their man-servants and their maid-servants; these were seven thousand three hundred and thirty-seven. And they had two hundred and forty-five singing men and singing women. <sup>68</sup>Their horses were seven hundred and thirty-six; their mules, two hundred and forty-five; <sup>69</sup>camels, four hundred and thirty-five; and six thousand seven hundred and twenty asses.

<sup>70</sup>And some of the chiefs of the fathers gave to the work. The governor gave to the treasury a thousand darics of gold, fifty basins, and five hundred and thirty priest's garments. <sup>71</sup>And some of the chiefs of the fathers gave to the treasury of the work twenty thousand darics of gold, and two thousand two hundred minas of silver. <sup>72</sup>And what the rest of the people gave was twenty thousand darics of gold and two thousand minas of silver, and sixty-seven priests' garments. <sup>73</sup>And the priests, and the Levites, and the gatekeepers, and the singers, and some of the people, and the temple slaves, and all Israel, lived in their cities. And when the seventh month came, the sons of Israel were in their cities.

CHAPTER 8

<sup>1</sup>And all the people gathered themselves as one man into the street before the water gate. And they spoke to Ezra the scribe to bring the book of the law of Moses, which the LORD had commanded to Israel. <sup>2</sup>And Ezra the priest brought the law before the congregation, both of men and women, and all that could hear with understanding, upon the first day of the seventh month. <sup>3</sup>And he read in it before the street in front of the Water Gate from the morning until noon, in front of the men and the women, and those who could understand. And the ears of all the people listened to the Book of the Law. <sup>4</sup>And Ezra the scribe stood upon a pulpit of wood which they had made for the purpose. And beside him stood Mattithiah, and Shema, and Anaiah, and Urijah, and Hilkiah, and Maaseiah, on his right hand; and on his left hand, Pedaiah, and Mishael, and Malchiah, and Hashum, and Hashbadana, Zechariah, and Meshullam. <sup>5</sup>And Ezra opened the book in the sight of all the people, for he was above all the people. And when he opened it, all the people stood up. <sup>6</sup>And Ezra blessed the LORD, the great God. And all the people answered, Amen, Amen, lifting up their hands. And they bowed their heads and worshiped the LORD with their faces to the ground. <sup>7</sup>And Jeshua, and Bani, and Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodijah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, Pelaiah, and the Levites, caused the people to understand the law. And the people were in their place. <sup>8</sup>And they read in the book, in the law of God, clearly. And they gave the sense, and caused them to understand the reading. <sup>9</sup>And Nehemiah, who was the governor, and Ezra the priest and scribe, and the Levites who taught the people, said to all the people, This day is holy to the LORD your God. Do not mourn or weep. For all the people wept when they heard the words of the law. <sup>10</sup>Then he said to them, Go eat the fat and drink the sweet, and send portions to him for whom nothing is prepared. For this day is holy to our LORD. And do not be sorry, for the joy of the LORD is your strength. <sup>11</sup>And the Levites quieted all the people, saying, Be quiet, for the day is holy. And do not be grieved. <sup>12</sup>And all the people went to eat, and to drink, and to send portions, and to make great rejoicing, because they had understood the words which were declared to them.

<sup>13</sup>And on the second day the chief of the fathers of all the people, the priests, and the Levites, were gathered to Ezra the scribe, even to understand the words of the law. <sup>14</sup>And they found written in the law which the LORD had commanded by Moses, that the sons of Israel should dwell in booths in the feast of the seventh month, <sup>15</sup>and that they should publish and proclaim in all their cities, and in Jerusalem, saying, Go forth to the mountain and bring olive branches and pine branches and myrtle branches and palm branches, and branches of thick trees, to make booths, as it is written. <sup>16</sup>And the people went out and brought in, and made themselves booths, each one upon the roof of his house, and in their courts, and in the courts of the house of God, and in the street of the Water Gate, and in the street of the Gate of Ephraim. <sup>17</sup>And all the congregation of those who had come again out of the captivity made booths, and sat under the booths. For since the days of Joshua the son of Nun until that day, the sons of Israel had not done so. And there was very great gladness. <sup>18</sup>Also day by day, from the first day until the last day, he read in the book of the law of God. And they kept the feast seven days, and on the eighth was an assembly, according to the law.

CHAPTER 9

<sup>1</sup>And in the twenty-fourth day of this month, the sons of Israel were gathered with fasting and with sackcloth, and with earth upon them. <sup>2</sup>And the seed of Israel separated themselves from all strangers, and stood and confessed their sins and the sins of their fathers. <sup>3</sup>And they stood up in their place, and read in the book of the law of the LORD their God a fourth part of the day. And another fourth part they confessed and worshiped the LORD their God. <sup>4</sup>And stood upon the stairs, of the Levites, Jeshua, and Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani and Chenani, and cried with a loud voice to the LORD their God. <sup>5</sup>And the Levites, Jeshua, and Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabniah, Sherebiah, Hodijah, Shebaniah, and Pethahiah, said, Stand up and bless the LORD your God forever and ever. And blessed be Your glorious name, which is exalted above all blessing and praise. <sup>6</sup>You, even You, are LORD alone. You have made the heavens, the heaven of heavens, with all their host, the earth, and all things on it, the seas, and all in them, and You preserve them all. And the host of heaven worships You. <sup>7</sup>You are the LORD, the God who chose Abraham and brought him out of Ur of the Chaldees, and gave him the name of Abraham, <sup>8</sup>and found his heart faithful before You, and made a covenant with him to give the land of the Canaanite, the Hittite, the Amorite, and the Perizzite, and the Jebusite, and the Girgashite, even to give it to his seed. And You have performed Your words, for You are righteous. <sup>9</sup>And You saw the affliction of our fathers in Egypt, and heard their cry by the Red Sea, <sup>10</sup>and gave out signs and wonders upon Pharaoh and upon all his servants and upon all the people of his land. For You knew that they were acting proudly against them. So You got Yourself a name, as today. <sup>11</sup>And You divided the sea before them, so that they went through the midst of the sea on the dry land. And their pursuers You threw into the deep, like a stone into the mighty waters. <sup>12</sup>And You led them in the day by a cloudy pillar, and in the night by a pillar of fire, to give them light in the way in which they should go. <sup>13</sup>And You came down on mount Sinai, and spoke with them from Heaven, and gave them right judgments and true laws, good statutes and commandments. <sup>14</sup>And You made known to them Your holy sabbath, and commanded them commandments, statutes, and laws, by the hand of Moses Your servant. <sup>15</sup>And You gave them bread from the heavens for their hunger, and brought forth water for them out of the rock for their thirst. And You promised them that they should go in to possess the land which You had sworn to give them. <sup>16</sup>But they and our fathers acted proudly and hardened their necks, and did not listen to Your commandments. <sup>17</sup>And they refused to obey, neither were they mindful of Your wonders which You did among them. But they hardened their necks, and in their rebellion appointed a captain to return to their bondage. But You are a God ready to pardon, gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and did not forsake them. <sup>18</sup>Yea, when they had made them a molten calf, and said, This is your God who brought you up out of Egypt, and had worked great blasphemies, <sup>19</sup>yet You in Your great mercies did not forsake them in the wilderness. The pillar of the cloud did not depart from them by day to lead them in the way, nor the pillar of fire by night, to show them light and the way in which they should go. <sup>20</sup>You also gave Your good Spirit to teach them, and did not withhold Your manna from their mouth, and gave them water for their thirst. <sup>21</sup>And forty years You sustained them in the wilderness. They lacked nothing; their clothes did not become old, and their feet did not swell. <sup>22</sup>And You gave them kingdoms and nations, and divided them into corners. And they possessed the land of Sihon, and the land of the king of Heshbon, and the land of Og king of Bashan.

<sup>23</sup>And You multiplied their sons like the stars of the heavens, and brought them into the land concerning which You had promised to their fathers that they should go in to possess it. <sup>24</sup>And the sons went in and possessed the land, and You humbled the people of the land before them, the Canaanites, and gave them into their hands, with their kings and the people of the land, so that they might do with them as they would. <sup>25</sup>And they took strong cities and a rich land, and possessed houses full of all goods, wells already dug, vineyards and oliveyards, and fruit trees in abundance. And they ate and were filled, and became fat, and delighted themselves in Your great goodness. <sup>26</sup>But they were disobedient and rebelled against You, and cast Your law behind their backs. And they killed Your prophets who testified against them to turn them to You, and they worked great blasphemies. <sup>27</sup>And You delivered them into the hand of their enemies, who troubled them. And in the time of their trouble, they cried to You, and You heard from Heaven. And according to Your manifold mercies, You gave them deliverers, who saved them out of the hand of their enemies.<sup>28</sup> But after they had rest, they did evil again before You, and You left them in the hand of their enemies, so that they had the rule over them. But they returned and cried to You, and You heard from Heaven. And many times You delivered them according to Your mercies,<sup>29</sup> and testified against them that You might bring them again to Your law. But they acted proudly and did not listen to Your commandments, but sinned against Your judgments (which if a man do, he shall live in them), and withdrew the shoulder, and hardened their neck, and would not hear.<sup>30</sup> And many years You had patience with them, and testified against them by Your Spirit, by Your prophets, but they would not give ear. And You gave them into the hand of the people of the lands.<sup>31</sup> But for Your great mercies, You did not completely destroy them nor forsake them. For You are a gracious and merciful God.

<sup>32</sup> And now, our God, the great, the mighty, and the fearful God, who keeps covenant and mercy, let not all the trouble that has come upon us, on our kings, on our rulers, and on our priests, and on our prophets, and on our fathers, and on all Your people, since the time of the kings of Assyria to this day, seem little before You.<sup>33</sup> But You are just in all that is brought upon us, for You have done right, but we have done wickedly.<sup>34</sup> And our kings, our rulers, our priests, and our fathers, have not kept Your law, nor listened to Your commandments and Your words with which You testified against them.<sup>35</sup> For they have not served You in their kingdom, and in Your great goodness which You gave them, and in the large and rich land which You gave before them, and they did not turn from their wicked works.<sup>36</sup> Behold, we are servants today. And the land that You gave to our fathers to eat its fruit, and its good, behold, we are servants in it.<sup>37</sup> And it yields much increase to the kings whom You have set over us because of our sins. And they rule over our bodies, and over our cattle, at their pleasure, and we are in great distress.<sup>38</sup> And because of all this we are cutting a covenant, and write it, and our princes, Levites, and priests are sealing it.

<sup>1</sup> And those who sealed were, Nehemiah, the governor, the son of Hachaliah, and Zidkijah, <sup>2</sup>Seraiah, Azariah, Jeremiah, <sup>3</sup>Pashur, Amariah, Malchijah, <sup>4</sup>Hattush, Shebaniah, Malluch, <sup>5</sup>Harim, Meremoth, Obadiah, <sup>6</sup>Daniel, Ginnethon, Baruch, <sup>7</sup>Meshullam, Abijah, Mijamin, <sup>8</sup>Maaziah, Bilgai, Shemaiah. These were the priests. <sup>9</sup> And the Levites were both Jeshua the son of Azaniah, Binnui of the sons of Henadad, Kadmiel, <sup>10</sup> and their brothers, Shebaniah, Hodijah, Kelita, Pelaiah, Hanan, <sup>11</sup>Micha, Rehob, Hashabiah, <sup>12</sup>Zaccur, Sherebiah, Shebaniah, <sup>13</sup>Hodijah, Bani, Beninu. <sup>14</sup> The chief of the people were Parosh, Pahath-moab, Elam, Zathth, Bani, <sup>15</sup>Bunni, Azgad, Bebai, <sup>16</sup>Adonijah, Bigvai, Adin, <sup>17</sup>Ater, Hizkijah, Azzur, <sup>18</sup>Hodijah, Hashum, Bezai, <sup>19</sup>Hariph, Anathoth, Nebai, <sup>20</sup>Magpiash, Meshullam, Hezir, <sup>21</sup>Meshezabeel, Zadok, Jaddua, <sup>22</sup>Pelatiah, Hanan, Anaiah, <sup>23</sup>Hoshea, Hananiah, Hashub, <sup>24</sup>Hallohesh, Pileha, Shobek, <sup>25</sup>Rehum, Hashabnah, Maaseiah, <sup>26</sup> and Ahijah, Hanan, Anan, <sup>27</sup>Malluch, Harim, Baanah. <sup>28</sup> And the rest of the people, the priests, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the singers, the temple-slaves, and all those who had separated themselves from the people of the lands to the law of God, their wives, their sons, and their daughters (everyone who had knowledge, and who had understanding), <sup>29</sup> were holding fast to their brothers, their honored ones. And they entered into a curse and into an oath, to walk in God's law which was given by Moses the servant of God, and to be careful to do all the commandments of Jehovah our Lord, and His judgments and His statutes.

<sup>30</sup>And we swore that we would not give our daughters to the people of the land nor take their daughters for our sons. <sup>31</sup>And if the people of the land should bring goods or any food on the Sabbath day to sell it, that we would not buy it from them on the Sabbath or on the holy day, and that we would leave the seventh year, and the interest of every debt. <sup>32</sup>Also we put commands upon ourselves, to charge ourselves yearly with the third part of a shekel for the service of the house of our God, <sup>33</sup>for the showbread, and for the continual meal offering, and for the continual burnt offering, of the sabbaths, of the new moons, for the set feasts, and for the holy things, and for the sin offerings to make an atonement for Israel, and for all the work of the house of our God. <sup>34</sup>And we cast the lots among the priests, and the Levites, and the people, for the wood offering, to bring into the house of our God, according to the houses of our fathers, at times appointed year by year, to burn upon the altar of the LORD our God, as it is written in the law <sup>35</sup>and to bring the firstfruits of our ground, and the firstfruits of all fruit of all trees, year by year, to the house of the LORD; <sup>36</sup>and to bring the first-born of our sons, and of our cattle, as it is written in the law, and the firstlings of our herds and of our flocks, to bring to the house of our God, to the priests who minister in the house of our God; <sup>37</sup>and that we should bring the firstfruits of our dough, and our offerings, and the fruit of all kinds of trees, of wine and of oil, to the priests, to the rooms of the house of our God; and the tithes of our ground to the Levites, and they, the Levites, might have the tithes in all the cities we farmed. <sup>38</sup>And the priest, the son of Aaron, shall be with the Levites, when the Levites take tithes, and the Levites shall bring up the tithe of the tithes to the house of our God, to the rooms, into the treasure house. <sup>39</sup>For the sons of Israel and the sons of Levi shall bring the offering of the grain, of the new wine, and the oil, to the rooms where the vessels of the sanctuary are, and the priests who minister, and the gatekeepers and the singers. And we will not forsake the house of our God.

CHAPTER 11

<sup>1</sup>And the rulers of the people lived at Jerusalem. And the rest of the people cast lots, to bring one of every ten to live in Jerusalem, the holy city, and nine parts in other cities. <sup>2</sup>And the people blessed all the men who willingly offered themselves to live at Jerusalem. <sup>3</sup>And these are the rulers of the province who lived in Jerusalem. But in the cities of Judah everyone lived in his possession in their cities: Israel, the priests, and the Levites, and the temple-slaves, and the sons of Solomon's servants. <sup>4</sup>And at Jerusalem lived certain of the sons of Judah, and of the sons of Benjamin. From the sons of Judah: Athaiah the son of Uziah, the son of Zechariah, the son of Amariah, the son of Shephatiah, the son of Mahalaleel, of the sons of Perez, <sup>5</sup>and Maaseiah the son of Baruch, the son of Colhozeh, the son of Hazaiah, the son of Adaiah, the son of Joiarib, the son of Zechariah, the son of Shiloni. <sup>6</sup>All the sons of Perez who lived in Jerusalem were four hundred and sixty-eight mighty men.

<sup>7</sup>And these are the sons of Benjamin: Sallu, the son of Meshullam, the son of Joed, the son of Pedaiiah, the son of Kolaiah, the son of Maaseiah, the son of Ithiel, the son of Jesaiah; <sup>8</sup>and after him Gabbai, Sallai, nine hundred and twenty-eight. <sup>9</sup>And Joel the son of Zichri was their overseer. And Judah the son of Senuah was second over the city.

<sup>10</sup>From the priests were Jedaiah the son of Joiarib, Jachin, <sup>11</sup>Seraiah, the son of Hilkiah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, the ruler of the house of God. <sup>12</sup>And their brothers who did the work of the house were eight hundred and twenty-two. And Adaiah the son of Jeroham, the son of Pelaliah, the son of Amzi, the son of Zechariah, the son of Pashur, the son of Malchiah,<sup>13</sup> and his brothers, chief of the fathers, two hundred and forty-two. And Amashai the son of Azareel, the son of Ahasai, the son of Meshillemoth, the son of Immer,<sup>14</sup> and their brothers, mighty men of power, were a hundred and twenty-eight. And their overseer was Zabdiel, the son of one of the great men.<sup>15</sup> And from the Levites were Shemaiah the son of Hashub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Bunni.<sup>16</sup> And Shabbethai and Jozabad, of the chief of the Levites, were over the outward business of the house of God.<sup>17</sup> And Mattaniah the son of Micha, the son of Zabdi, the son of Asaph, was the leader to begin the thanksgiving in prayer. And Bakbukiah was second among his brothers, and then Abda the son of Shammua, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun.<sup>18</sup> All the Levites in the holy city were two hundred and eighty-four.

<sup>19</sup>And the gatekeepers, Akkub, Talmon, and their brothers who kept the gates, were a hundred and seventy-two.<sup>20</sup> And the rest of Israel, of the priests and the Levites, were in all the cities of Judah, each one in his inheritance.<sup>21</sup> But the temple-slaves lived in Ophel; and Ziha and Gispa were over the temple-slaves.<sup>22</sup> And the overseer of the Levites at Jerusalem was Uzzi the son of Bani, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Micha. Of the sons of Asaph, the singers were over the business of the house of God.<sup>23</sup> For it was the king's commandment concerning them that a certain portion should be for the singers, due for every day.<sup>24</sup> And Pethahiah the son of Meshezabeel, of the sons of Zerah the son of Judah, was at the king's hand in all matters concerning the people.<sup>25</sup> And for the villages, with their fields, some of the sons of Judah lived at Kirjath-arba, and in its villages, and at Dibon, and in its villages, and at Jekabzeel, and its villages,<sup>26</sup> and at Jeshua, and at Moladah, and at Beth-pheret,<sup>27</sup> and at Hazar-shual, and at Beer-sheba, and in its villages,<sup>28</sup> and at Ziklag, and at Mekonah, and in its villages,<sup>29</sup> and at En-rimmon, and at Zareah, and at Jarmuth,<sup>30</sup> Zanoah, Adullam, and their villages, at Lachish, and the fields of it, at Azekah, and in its villages. And they lived from Beer-sheba to the valley of Hinnom.

<sup>31</sup>And the sons of Benjamin from Geba lived at Michmash, and Aija, and Bethel, and their villages,<sup>32</sup> at Anathoth, Nob, Ananiah,<sup>33</sup> Hazor, Ramah, Gittaim,<sup>34</sup> Hadid, Zeboim, Neballat,<sup>35</sup> Lod, and Ono, the Valley of Craftsmen.<sup>36</sup> And divisions of the Levites were in Judah and for Benjamin.

<sup>1</sup>And these are the priests and the Levites who went up with Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua, Seraiah, Jeremiah, Ezra,<sup>2</sup> Amariah, Malluch, Hattush,<sup>3</sup> Shechaniah, Rehum, Meremoth,<sup>4</sup> Iddo, Ginnetho, Abijah,<sup>5</sup> Miamin, Maadiah, Bilgah,<sup>6</sup> Shemaiah, and Joiarib, Jedaiah,<sup>7</sup> Sallu, Amok, Hilkiyah, Jedaiah. These were the chief of the priests and of their brothers in the days of Jeshua.<sup>8</sup> And the Levites were Jeshua, Binnui, Kadmiel, Sherebiah, Judah. Mattaniah was over the thanksgiving, he and his brothers.<sup>9</sup> And Bakbukiah and Unni, their brothers, were next to them in the watches.<sup>10</sup> And Jeshua fathered Joiakim, and Joiakim fathered Eliashib, and Eliashib fathered Joiada,<sup>11</sup> and Joiada fathered Jonathan, and Jonathan fathered Jaddua.<sup>12</sup> And in the days of Joiakim were priests, the chief of the fathers: from the house of Seraiah was Meraiah; from Jeremiah, Hananiah;<sup>13</sup> from Ezra, Meshullam; from Amariah, Jehohanan;<sup>14</sup> from Melicu, Jonathan; from Shebaniah, Joseph;<sup>15</sup> from Harim, Adna; from Meraioth, Helkai;<sup>16</sup> from Iddo, Zechariah; from Ginnethon, Meshullam;<sup>17</sup> from Abijah, Zichri; from Miniamin of Moadiah, Piltai;<sup>18</sup> from Bilgah, Shammua; from Shemaiah, Jehonathan;<sup>19</sup> and from Joiarib, Mattenai;

<sup>22</sup>The Levites in the days of Eliashib, Joiada, and Johanan, and Jaddua, were recorded chief of the fathers and the priests, until the reign of Darius the Persian.

<sup>23</sup>The sons of Levi, the chief of the fathers, were written in the Book of the Chronicles, even until the days of Johanan the son of Eliashib. <sup>24</sup>And the chief of the Levites were Hashabiah, Sherebiah; and Jeshua the son of Kadmiel, with their brothers next to them, to praise and to give thanks, according to the command of David the man of God, watch by watch. <sup>25</sup>Mattaniah, and Bakbukiah, Obadiah, Meshullam, Talmon, and Akkub, were guarding the gates, the guard at the thresholds of the gates. <sup>26</sup>These were in the days of Joiakim the son of Jeshua, the son of Jozadak, and in the days of Nehemiah the governor, and of Ezra the priest, the scribe.

<sup>27</sup>And at the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem, they sought the Levites out of all their places to bring them to Jerusalem, to keep the dedication with gladness, and with thanksgiving, and with singing, with cymbals, harps and with lyres. <sup>28</sup>And the sons of the singers gathered themselves together, both out of the plain country around Jerusalem, and from the villages of the Netophathi; <sup>29</sup>and from the house of Gilgal, and out of the fields of Geba and Azmaveth (for the singers had built themselves villages all around Jerusalem.) <sup>30</sup>And the priests and the Levites purified themselves. And they purified the people, and the gates, and the wall. <sup>31</sup>Then I brought up the rulers of Judah on the wall, and chose two great choirs of praise. One went to the right upon the wall toward the Dung Gate. <sup>32</sup>And after them went Hoshai, and half the rulers of Judah, <sup>33</sup>and Azariah, Ezra, and Meshullam, <sup>34</sup>Judah, and Benjamin, and Shemaiah, and Jeremiah, <sup>35</sup>and many of the priests' sons with trumpets; Zechariah the son of Jonathan, the son of Shemaiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Michaiah, the son of Zaccur, the son of Asaph, <sup>36</sup>and his brothers, Shemaiah, and Azareel, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nethaneel, and Judah, Hanani, with the musical instruments of David the man of God, and with Ezra the scribe before them.

<sup>37</sup>And at the Fountain Gate, across from them, they went up by the stairs of the city of David, at the going up of the wall, above the house of David, even to the Water Gate eastward. <sup>38</sup>And the other choirs of praise went across from them, and I after them, and half of the people on the wall, from beyond the Tower of the Furnaces even to the Broad Wall, <sup>39</sup>and from above the Gate of Ephraim, and above the Old Gate, and above the Fish Gate, and the Tower of Hananeel, and the Tower of Meah, even to the Sheep Gate. And they stood still in the Prison Gate. <sup>40</sup>And stood the two companies to give thanks in the house of God, and I, and half of the rulers with me. <sup>41</sup>And the priests, Eliakim, Maaseiah, Miniamin, Michaiah, Elioenai, Zechariah, and Hananiah, were with trumpets, <sup>42</sup>and Maaseiah, and Shemaiah, and Eleazar, and Uzzi, and Jehohanan, and Malchijah, and Elam, and Ezer. And the singers sang loud, with Jezrahiah their overseer.
